Subject: Self Explanation for Discipline History

Dear Board of Pharmacy,

I am writing to provide a comprehensive explanation of the events outlined in the Administrative Complaint dated November 22, 2022, and to express our sincere regret for the actions that have led to this disciplinary process. I, Sara Alaouie, am the sole member and CEO of American Life Pharmacy LLC., a licensed pharmacy situated in Garden City, Michigan.

As detailed in the complaint, our pharmacist-in-charge (PIC), Mr. Ali H. Saab, R.Ph., applied for sterile compounding approval on behalf of our pharmacy from the Michigan Board of Pharmacy. It regrettably came to our attention that Mr. Saab submitted fraudulent glove fingertip samples and media fill test results as part of the application process. These results were purportedly obtained from his concurrent employment at Ascension Hospital.

Upon investigation, it was discovered that the submitted test results were indeed falsified, leading to Mr. Saab's termination from Ascension on or around October 10, 2022. I was not aware of the PIC's actions until contacted by the Department investigator. I was further unaware of Mr. Saab's termination from his other job due to these allegations and actions.

I acknowledge that I made an error in judgment by entrusting Mr. Saab with the responsibilities of the PIC role and handling licensing matters. I take full responsibility for not being more involved in the day-to-day operations of the pharmacy and for placing undue trust in Mr. Saab.

To rectify the situation, Mr. Saab has been terminated from his position, and a new PIC has been appointed. Moving forward, I am committed to taking a more active role in the pharmacy's operations and overseeing licensing matters diligently. In response to the violations outlined in the Administrative Complaint, we understand the gravity of the situation and acknowledge our responsibility. We accepted the reprimand and submitted payment of the fine of $3,500.00 imposed by the Department.

We assure you that such lapses in compliance will not recur, and we are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of integrity and professionalism in the future. We appreciate the Department's vigilance in safeguarding public health and safety and remain committed to working in full cooperation to rectify and prevent such incidents.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,

Sara Alaouie

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that for the cited violations of the Public Health Code, Respondent is REPRIMANDED.

Respondent is FINED $3,500.00 to be paid to the State of Michigan within 90 days of the effective date of this Order. Respondent shall direct payment to the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, Enforcement Division, Compliance Section, P.O. Box 30189, Lansing, MI 48909. The fine shall be paid by check or money order, made payable to the State of Michigan, and shall clearly display File Number 53-22-002985.

Chairperson, Disciplinary Subcommittee

STIPULATION

1. Respondent does not contest the allegations of fact and law in the Complaint. Respondent understands that, by pleading no contest, Respondent does not admit the truth of the allegations but agrees the DSC may treat the allegations as true for the resolution of the Complaint and may enter an order treating the allegations as true. Therefore, the DSC finds that the facts alleged in the Complaint are true and constitute violations of MCL 333.17768(2)(a) and (c).

2. Respondent understands and intends that by signing this Stipulation, Respondent is waiving the right, pursuant to the Public Health Code, the rules promulgated thereunder, and the Administrative Procedures Act, MCL 24.201 et seq, to require the Department to prove the charges set forth in the Complaint by presentation of evidence and legal authority, and Respondent is waving the right to appear with an attorney and such witnesses as Respondent may desire to present a defense to the charges.

4. Respondent approves the form and substance of this Order. This Order may be entered as the final order of the Disciplinary Subcommittee in this matter.

5. Sandra Taylor, R.Ph., reviewed Respondent's settlement request and supports the resolution. Ms. Taylor and the Department took the following factors into consideration in the formulation of this Order:

a. Respondent's owner hired Mr. Saab to be the pharmacist-in-charge (PIC) of Respondent. The owner believed the PIC to be a knowledgeable and honest person and now admits that she made a mistake by hiring him. The owner takes responsibility for not being more involved in the day-to-day operation of the pharmacy and for trusting Mr. Saab to handle licensing matters.

b. The owner stated that she did not know about the PIC's fraudulent document submission until she spoke to the Department investigator. The owner also stated that she did not know that the PIC was fired from his other job as a pharmacist over these allegations and actions.

c. Mr. Saab has been fired and a new PIC has been hired. The owner stated that she will be more involved in the pharmacy's operations and the licensing matters of the pharmacy.

6. A Department representative may discuss this matter with the DSC and recommend acceptance of the resolution set forth in this Order.

7. This proposal is conditioned upon acceptance by the DSC. Respondent and the Department expressly reserve the right to further proceedings without prejudice should the Order be rejected.

Dear Sir/Madam:

On or about March 17, 2014 through March 19, 2014, the Department of Business & Business Professional Regulation, Drugs, Devices, and Cosmetics Division (hereafter "Department"), conducted an on-site inspection of Catalent Pharma Solutions, LLC (hereafter "Catalent") located 2725 Scherer Drive, St. Petersburg, Florida 33716. Catalent is permitted by the Department to operate as a prescription drug manufacturer, permit number 20:117; over the counter drug manufacturer, permit number 20:118; product registrant, permit number 08:1723, all of which expire on November 30, 2014, and as a diethyl ether purchaser, permit number 10:1300003, which expires on September 30, 2014.

During the on-site inspection, the Department determined that Catalent is a contract manufacturer for Boehringer Ingelheim, Binger Strabe 173, 55216 Ingelheim am, Rhein Germany (hereafter "BI-Germany"). Catalent received prescription drugs from BI-Germany for the manufacturing of finished dosage forms of the prescription drugs. BI-Germany is not permitted by the Department, and does not qualify for an exemption from licensure.

The Department determined that Catalent, received, shipped, manufactured and/or distributed prescription drug active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) from an unauthorized source and failed to register and report the distribution of controlled substances.

The Department is authorized by Rule 61N-1.024(8), Florida Administrative Code, to issue a Notice of Violation for any alleged violations of Chapter 499, Florida Statutes, in order to facilitate the uncontested settlement of all issues related to a complaint or investigation. The Notice of Violation is to be done at the completion of the investigation and prior to filing of any Administrative Complaint. The Notice of Violation will advise the alleged violator of the statutory violation and provide a proposed penalty for settlement of the disciplinary matter related to a complaint.

The Department believes Catalent committed the following violations of Chapter 499, Florida Statutes and the administrative Rules promulgated pursuant thereto:

1. Section 499.005(14), Florida Statutes (2013), provides that the purchase or receipt of a prescription drug from a person that is not authorized under this chapter to distribute prescription drugs to that purchaser or recipient is unlawful.

During the on-site inspection, the Department obtained purchasing and receiving specification sheets for prescription drugs, and/or active pharmaceutical ingredients (API); Catalent received that identify the distributor as BI-Germany. Records show Catalent was in receipt of four shipments from BI-Germany as follows:

1. Item number OET 00309819-Tipranavir-BI, dated 11/1/13; lot number 7648849, supplier/manufacturer lot number 1044065, 200kg.

2. Item number OET 00309819-Tipranavir-BI, dated 11/1/13; lot number 7648845, supplier/manufacturer lot number 1043891, 20kg.

3. Item number OET 00309819-Tipranavir-BI, dated 11/1/13; lot number 7648848, supplier/manufacturer lot number 1043888, 60kg.

4. Item number OET 00309819-Tipranavir-BI, dated 9/12/13; lot number 7490105, supplier/manufacturer lot number 1043891, 280kg.

Because BI-Germany manufactured the prescription drug API Tipranavir, in Germany, and distributed it to Catalent, located in Florida, without having a permit to do so, Catalent received prescription drugs from an unauthorized source in violation of Section 499.005(14), Florida Statutes (2013).

Range of Penalty per violation: An Administrative Complaint with a fine ranging from $1000 to $3000 per violation and up to permanent suspension or revocation of permit(s).

Fine assessed by the Department: $6,000

2. Section 499.006(10), Florida Statutes, (2013), provides that a drug is adulterated that has been purchased, held, sold, or distributed at any time by a person not authorized under federal or state law to do so. Section 499.005(1), Florida Statute (2013), provides that the manufacture, repackaging, sale, delivery or holding or offering for sale of any drug that is adulterated or misbranded is unlawful.

Catalent informed the Department it receives the prescription drug API, Tipranavir, manufactured by the unauthorized source BI-Germany. Catalent manufactures the commercial prescription drug into a finished dosage form and ships it to Roxane Laboratories, Inc., located at 1809 Wilson Road, Columbus, Ohio 43228. Because BI-Germany, located in Germany, is not authorized to distribute prescription drugs into Florida, and Catalent manufactured the unauthorized prescription drugs, Catalent caused them to become adulterated.

Catalent violated Section 499.005(1), Florida Statutes (2013), by manufacturing the adulterated prescription drug Tipranavir, on at least four occasions, received from BI-Germany, within the meaning of Section 499.006(10), Florida Statutes (2013).

Range of Penalty per violation: An Administrative Complaint with a fine ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 per violation and up to permanent suspension or revocation of permits.

Fine assessed by the Department: $3,000

3. Section 499.006(10), Florida Statutes (2013), provides that a drug is adulterated that has been purchased, held, sold, or distributed at any time by a person not authorized under federal or state law to do so. Section 499.005(4), Florida Statutes (2013), provides that the sale, distribution, purchase, trade, holding, or offering of any drug is unlawful.

Catalent distributed the adulterated prescription drug API Tipranavir, on at least four occasions, to Roxane Laboratories, in violation of Section 499.005(4), Florida Statutes (2013), within the meaning of Section 499.006(10), Florida Statutes (2013.

Range of Penalty per violation: An Administrative Complaint with a fine ranging from $1000 to $3000 per violation and up to permanent suspension or revocation of permit(s).

Fine assessed by the Department: $3,000

4. Section 499.0121(14), Florida Statutes (2013), provides:

(14) DISTRIBUTION REPORTING.—Each prescription drug wholesale distributor, out-of-state prescription drug wholesale distributor, retail pharmacy drug wholesale distributor, manufacturer, or repackager that engages in the wholesale distribution of controlled substances as defined in s. 893.02 shall submit a report to the department of its receipts and distributions of controlled substances listed in Schedule II, Schedule III, Schedule IV, or Schedule V as provided in s. 893.03. Wholesale distributor facilities located within this state shall report all transactions involving controlled substances, and wholesale distributor facilities located outside this state shall report all distributions to entities located in this state. If the prescription drug wholesale distributor, out-of-state prescription drug wholesale distributor, retail pharmacy drug wholesale distributor, manufacturer, or repackager does not have any controlled substance distributions for the month, a report shall be sent indicating that no distributions occurred in the period. The report shall be submitted monthly by the 20th of the next month, in the electronic format used for controlled substance reporting to the Automation of Reports and Consolidated Orders System division of the federal Drug Enforcement Administration. Submission of electronic data must be made in a secured Internet environment that allows for manual or automated transmission. Upon successful transmission, an acknowledgment page must be displayed to confirm receipt. The report must contain the following information:

(a) The federal Drug Enforcement Administration registration number of the wholesale distributing location.

(b) The federal Drug Enforcement Administration registration number of the entity to which the drugs are distributed or from which the drugs are received.

(c) The transaction code that indicates the type of transaction.

(d) The National Drug Code identifier of the product and the quantity distributed or received.

(e) The Drug Enforcement Administration Form 222 number or Controlled Substance Ordering System identifier on all Schedule II transactions.

(f) The date of the transaction.

The department must share the reported data with the Department of Law Enforcement and local law enforcement agencies upon request and must monitor purchasing to identify purchasing levels that are inconsistent with the purchasing entity's clinical needs. The Department of Law Enforcement shall investigate purchases at levels that are inconsistent with the purchasing entity's clinical needs to determine whether violations of chapter 893 have occurred.

Catalent advised the Department they had registered to report controlled substances but failed to report in a timely matter since August of 2012.

Catalent violated Section 499.0121(14), Florida Statutes (2013), by failing to register and report the distribution of control substances monthly to the Department as required, from August 2012 through July 2013.

Range of Penalty per violation: An Administrative Complaint with a fine ranging from $1000 to $3000 per violation and up to permanent suspension or revocation of permits.

Fine assessed by the Department: $3,000

5. Section 499.0121, Florida Statutes (2013), provides:

> (4) EXAMINATION OF MATERIALS AND RECORDS.—The department shall adopt rules that require keeping such records of prescription drugs as are necessary for the protection of the public health.
> (c) The recordkeeping requirements in subsection (6) must be followed for all incoming and outgoing prescription drugs.
>
> (6) RECORDKEEPING.—The department shall adopt rules that require keeping such records of prescription drugs as are necessary for the protection of the public health.
>
> (a) Wholesale distributors must establish and maintain inventories and records of all transactions regarding the receipt and distribution or other disposition of prescription drugs. These records must provide a complete audit trail from receipt to sale or other disposition, be readily retrievable for inspection, and include, at a minimum, the following information:
>
> 2. The name, principal address, and state license, permit or registration number of the person authorized to purchase prescription drugs; [Emphasis supplied].

Rule 61N-1.012 provides:

> (1)(a) Records to document the movement of drugs, devices or cosmetics must provide a complete audit trail from a person's receipt or acquisition to sale or other disposition of the product or component. A complete audit trail includes records which document each transaction or step in the receipt, manufacture, shipping, transfer, or other steps in the channel of trade of that person, whether or not physical possession or handling of the product or component occurs. At a minimum, records shall consist of invoices from the supplier or source which document acquisition of each product by the person and invoices of sale or other transfer by the person to the recipient. Retail sales transactions to the consumer of over-the-counter drugs, non-restricted devices, or cosmetics are exempt from the requirements of this rule. Additional recordkeeping is required for persons permitted by the department as further stated in this rule.
> (b) A person engaged in the distribution of drugs, devices, or cosmetics is not required to maintain documentation from a common carrier that the designated recipient received the product shipped; however, the person must obtain such documentation from the common carrier and make it available to the department upon specific request of the department.

(2) Any person engaged in the manufacture of prescription drugs, the wholesale distribution of prescription drugs, or otherwise receiving or distributing prescription drugs must maintain records as follows:

(a) For each step in the channel of trade, records containing the information required by Section 499.0121(6)(a), F.S., and the Florida permit or license number which authorizes the source to possess and transfer prescription drugs in or into Florida must appear on one document. If delivery of prescription drugs is made to a person other than the purchaser, the name, address or location where the prescription drugs are delivered, and the state license, permit or registration number for that location must be included also. [Emphasis supplied].

Invoices and packlists for the prescription drug API Tipranavir provided to Catalent from BI-Germany failed to contain Catalent's Florida permit number, in violation of Section 499.0121(4)(c), Florida Statutes (2013), within the meaning of Section 499.0121(6)(a)2., Florida Statutes (2013), and Rule 61N-1.012, Florida Administrative Code.

Range of Penalty per violation: An Administrative Complaint with a fine ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 per violation and up to permanent suspension or revocation of permits.

Fine assessed by the Department: $1,000

In order to resolve this matter, the Department proposes the following alternatives, either of which must be accomplished by your company within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of this letter:

1. If your company does not contest the findings in this letter, and further agrees to waive its right to an administrative hearing pursuant to Sections 120.569 and 120.57, Florida Statutes, the Department and Catalent Pharma Solutions, LLC may resolve this matter. Upon receipt of the above-mentioned items, a final order incorporating the terms of the Stipulation will be entered.

2. However, if you believe circumstances exist that the Department should consider before concluding this investigation, you may provide the Department your rationale and evidence to support your position within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of this letter.

If the Department does not concur, or we are unable to reach a satisfactory resolution of this matter, the Department may initiate appropriate legal action after expiration of the above referenced 21-day time period given. Appropriate legal action may include:

(a) Filing and serving an administrative complaint for a hearing pursuant to Chapter 120, Florida Statutes (2011). This may result in the imposition of an administrative fine up to five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) per violation per day. Each day the violation continues constitutes a separate violation, and each such separate violation is subject to a separate fine. An Administrative Complaint also becomes a matter of public record.
(b) Revocation or suspension of the company permit.
(c) Seizure for destruction of adulterated or misbranded products.
(d) Seeking an injunction in Circuit Court to obtain compliance.
(e) Initiating any other remedy authorized by law.

BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY

| In the Matter of: | |
| Catalent Pharma Solutions, LLC, | ORDER |
| Applicant. | |

This matter first came before the Nonresident Permit Subcommittee ("Committee"), appointed by the State Board of Pharmacy ("Board"), on April 25, 2017, for a hearing on the application of the above-named applicant ("Applicant") for a nonresident wholesaler/distributor/manufacturer permit. The Applicant appeared before the Committee through its designated representative, Terry Jackson, as well as its Associate General Counsel for Regulatory Matters, Robert Ciolek, Esquire. Applicant was represented by Jon Wallace, Esquire. At its June 14, 2017, meeting with a quorum present, the Board considered the Committee's recommendation and the transcript of the Committee's hearing. The Board adopted the Committee's recommendation that the application be approved, and the permit shall issued subject to the prior payment of a civil penalty in the amount of Five Thousand and 00/100 ($5,000.00) Dollars for shipping into South Carolina without a permit. Since the hearing, Applicant has tendered the fine to the Board.

Applications of this type are governed by S.C. Code §§ 40-43-83, 40-43-86, 40-43-89 (2011, as amended), and/or Reg. 99-43, as amended.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Applicant applied for a permit for its facility located in Philadelphia, PA.

2. Applicant manufactures clinical supply materials.

3. Applicant's representative admitted that Applicant has previously shipped prescription drugs to South Carolina without first obtaining a permit from this Board.

4. Applicant otherwise meets the requirements for the Permit for which it applied.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

In an application hearing, "(t)he applicant shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant meets all requirements for the issuance of a license." S.C. Code Ann. § 40-1-130 (2011, as amended). Thus, the burden of proof in an application for licensure or certification is on the Applicant to provide full, complete, and accurate responses to all questions on the application and to demonstrate that it is qualified for the license sought.

S.C. Code Ann. §40-43-83(I)(2011) requires a permit for the sale or distribution of legend (prescription) drugs in this state, and expressly includes manufacturers within or without the state. S.C. Code Ann. § 40-43-89 (2011) requires a facility located outside of this State that distributes prescription drugs or devices in this State to have a permit issued by the Board prior to distribution. S.C. Code Ann. § 40-43-140(A)(3) states that facilities requiring permits may not operate unless a permit has been issued by the board. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 40-43-140(A)(1)(2011), the Board may suspend, revoke, deny, or refuse to renew the permit or impose disciplinary action authorized for violations of the Pharmacy Act. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §§ 40-43-140(A)(2), a person who distributes or delivers drugs or devices in this State without a required permit is subject to a fine imposed by the Board not to exceed one thousand dollars for each offense, in addition to such other disciplinary action the Board may take.

Applicant has met the qualifications for the permit, but violated the Pharmacy Practice Act by regularly distributing prescription drugs or devices into this State without a permit. Therefore, the Board concludes that it is appropriate to issue the permit subject to the prior payment of a civil penalty in the amount of Five Thousand and 00/100 ($5,000.00) Dollars.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

The Application is approved, and the permit shall be issued subject to the payment of a civil penalty in the amount of Five Thousand and 00/100 ($5,000.00) Dollars, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the Board.

Catalent Micron Technologies located in Malvern PA has been diligent in obtaining licenses in all states into which the site ships material. There was one instance last year, however, where the site, had overlooked that it had made a total of 5 shipments of API into the state of South Carolina during 2017 and 2018. Once those shipments were identified, the site immediately applied for its manufacturers license in South Carolina. Within that application, the site self-identified these shipments. The South Carolina Board of Pharmacy considered that and agreed to issue the site its manufacturer license subject to payment of $5,000 relating to those shipments. The attached letter received from the South Carolina Board of Pharmacy documents these events.

Delinquent Section 16(a) Reports

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors, executive officers, and beneficial owners of 10% or more of our shares of common stock to file reports with the SEC about their ownership of and transactions in our common stock. Based solely on our review of reports filed with the SEC and written representations from our executive officers and directors, we believe that all reports required to be filed under Section 16(a) during fiscal 2024 were timely filed, except for one Form 4 filed on July 7, 2023 for director J. Martin Carroll to report the grant of restricted stock units on July 1, 2023.

Insider Trading Arrangements and Policies

We have adopted an Insider Trading Policy governing the purchase, sale, and/or other dispositions of our securities by our directors, officers and employees, as well as by Catalent itself, that we believe is reasonably designed to promote compliance with insider trading laws, rules and regulations, and NYSE listing standards. The foregoing summary of the Insider Trading Policy does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Insider Trading Policy attached to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024 (the "2024 Annual Report") as Exhibit 19.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Director Nomination Process

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "Nominating Committee") considers and recommends the annual slate of director nominees for approval by our Board. The Nominating Committee considers a number of factors and principles in making its recommendations, including the following:

- individual qualifications, including strength of character, mature judgment, familiarity with our business and industry, independence of thought, an ability to work collegially, and all other factors it considers appropriate, which may include age, gender, and ethnic and racial background

- existing commitments to other businesses or any other board of directors (or similar body)
- potential conflicts of interest with other pursuits
- legal considerations, such as antitrust issues
- corporate governance background
- varied and relevant career experience
- relevant technical skills and education
- relevant business or government acumen
- financial and accounting background
- executive compensation background
- the size, composition, and combined expertise of the existing Board

Although our Board and Nominating Committee consider diversity of viewpoints, background, and experiences when identifying and reviewing candidates for our Board, our Board does not have a separate diversity policy. In identifying and evaluating prospective director candidates, the Nominating Committee may seek referrals and assistance from other members of our Board, management, shareholders, and other sources, including third-party search consultants. The Nominating Committee uses the same criteria for evaluating candidates regardless of the source of the referral. When considering director candidates, the Nominating Committee seeks individuals with backgrounds and qualities that, when combined with those of our incumbent directors, provide a blend of skills and experiences to further enhance our Board's effectiveness.

Shareholders may nominate directors for election by following the provisions set forth in our bylaws concerning such matters. The Nominating Committee, in accordance with our Governance Guidelines, will consider the qualifications of any nominee proposed by one or more shareholders in the same manner in which it evaluates any other candidate.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Executive Summary

Our executive compensation program is intended to attract, motivate, retain, and reward our leadership in a manner that will align their interests with those of our shareholders on an annual and long-term basis and promote sustainable shareholder value creation. We believe attracting, motivating, retaining, and rewarding superior talent is needed to maintain and improve our performance and shareholder returns. We therefore seek to maintain a competitive program that ties a significant portion of executive pay to our financial and stock price performance.

The following is a summary of important aspects of our executive compensation program.

Balanced mix of pay components and incentives. Our compensation program targets a market-based mix of cash and equity compensation, and of short- and long-term incentives. The principal elements of our program are base salary; performance-based annual bonus; and long-term equity awards, split 67/33 between performance-contingent (PSUs and stock options) and time-vested (RSUs).

Pay for Performance. We emphasize pay-for-performance to align executive compensation with our business strategy. Approximately 90% of the target total direct compensation of our CEO in 2024 was variable or performance-based.

Share Retention. Our Compensation and Leadership Committee (the "Compensation Committee") has established stock ownership guidelines directing our executive officers to hold a multiple of annual salary in the form of shares of common stock in order to align management and shareholder interests.

Pledging and Hedging. Our executives are prohibited from pledging our shares (absent our General Counsel's permission, which has never been granted) or hedging against the economic risk of such ownership.

Use of Independent Consultant. The Compensation Committee has engaged an independent, third-party consultant, Frederic W. Cook & Co., Inc. ("FW Cook"), to assist it in designing our compensation program and making compensation decisions.

Clawback/Forfeiture Provisions. The terms of our long-term, equity-based awards and our short-term, cash-based award plan allow us in certain circumstances to "claw back" shares and cash received pursuant to such awards or, in the case of the equity-based awards, to require the repayment of all gains realized on the vesting or exercise of such awards.

Compensation Peer Group. The Compensation Committee uses a group of peer companies, selected with the assistance of FW Cook to be aligned with corporate governance best practices, to benchmark target total direct compensation levels, other executive compensation-related programs and policies, and benefit packages.

Shareholder Say-on-Pay. At the 2023 Annual Meeting of Shareholders held in January 2024, our shareholders voted 97.31% in favor of our say-on-pay proposal, demonstrating their concurrence that our executive compensation program reflects a strong pay-for-performance orientation. In fiscal 2024, the Compensation Committee considered the outcome of the shareholder advisory vote when making decisions relating to the compensation of our named executive officers ("NEOs") and our executive compensation program and policies.

2024 COMPENSATION CONSIDERATIONS

In fiscal 2024, we remained steadfast in our commitment to attract, motivate, retain, and reward our leadership team, and implemented strategic adjustments to our compensation programs to further enhance the flexibility and accountability of our leadership team. We revised the fiscal 2024 management incentive plan ("MIP") for our executive leadership team ("ELT"), including our NEOs, by (1) eliminating the 30% individual performance factor, (2) increasing the business performance factor weighting to 100%, and (3) introducing an individual performance modifier for MIP payment adjustments (i) for the ELT, based on our CEO's recommendations, and (ii) for each of the CEO and Executive Chair, based on the Compensation Committee's evaluation of his contributions. Additionally, we introduced Free Cash Flow, as defined below, as a third performance metric for determining the business performance factor of the MIP for NEOs and certain employees with the business performance factor based on our consolidated financial results.

For fiscal 2024, the business performance factor payout percentage was initially determined to be 69% of target. With respect to the three performance metrics used to determine such business performance factor, our fiscal 2024 financial performance resulted in Budget-Based Revenue being up by 1.4%, Budget-Based EBITDA missing target at 9.4%, and Free Cash Flow below target resulting in a 0% payout (all three terms as defined below). As a result, the business performance-based compensation determined for and paid out in fiscal 2024 was below the target.

However, in light of certain qualitative and quantitative considerations presented by management, the Compensation Committee adjusted the business performance factor payout percentage from 69% to 93% of target for the entire Company. These qualitative and quantitative considerations included management:

1. Successfully delivering the signing of a transformational deal with Novo Holdings, adding significant value to shareholders and setting up Catalent for a stronger, more secure future;
2. Remediating regulatory inspection deficiencies, correcting operations at our Bloomington and BWI sites, and exiting the year returning toward normalized margins;
3. Improving financial reporting and controls, including on-time filing of financials, remediating material weaknesses, increasing control robustness, and navigating a mid-year change in audit firm;
4. Successfully delivering Free Cash Flow objectives;
5. Making significant progress on difficult restructuring initiatives; and
6. Upgrading critical leadership roles for retention purposes across the executive and senior leadership teams.

Additionally, our financial performance in fiscal 2024 resulted in materially lower payouts under the long-term incentive program compared to fiscal 2023 payouts. Our Relative Return PSUs, as described below, for the fiscal 2022-2024 performance period had a 0% payout, and our Adjusted EPS PSUs, as described below, for the same period vested at 0%. Similarly, the values of time-vested RSUs at their vesting in early fiscal 2025 were materially lower than their values at the time of their grant due to the decline in our stock price compared to early fiscal 2022 when they were awarded. As of the end of fiscal 2024, outstanding PSUs aligned to the fiscal 2023-2025 performance period are tracking meaningfully below target, while the fiscal 2024-2026 performance period PSUs are tracking above target.

EXECUTIVE PAY MIX FOR 2024

The majority of target total direct compensation for our NEOs during fiscal 2024 consisted of variable pay elements. The Compensation Committee believes this allocation aligns with our pay-for-performance compensation philosophy of motivating our NEOs to achieve our performance objectives in the short-term and to grow the business to create sustainable value for our shareholders in the long term.

Mr. Maselli's LTIP target remained at $5,500,000; however, he received a one-time increase in his long-term incentives which resulted in an LTIP target value of $6,875,000 for fiscal 2024, which is represented in the chart above.

(2) Per the terms of Mr. Masanovich's offer letter, his initial LTIP target is $5,000,000, which is represented in the chart above. In fiscal 2025, Mr. Masanovich's LTIP target will be $2,500,000. Mr. Hopson's LTIP target is $450,000; however, he received a one-time increase in his long-term incentives to recognize his role as Interim CFO resulting in an LTIP target value of $650,000 for fiscal 2024, which is represented in the chart above.

Our Executive Compensation Program

OUR COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY AND PRINCIPLES

Our executive compensation program ties pay delivery to the successful execution of our overall business goals and adherence to our core values, which we believe best serves the interests of our shareholders. We believe that attracting, motivating, retaining, and rewarding superior executive talent is a key to delivering attractive shareholder returns, and that an appropriately structured executive compensation program is critical to that end, with each element supporting the achievement of our compensation philosophy.

Our executives must be of a caliber and level of experience necessary to manage our complex, global business effectively. Given the long-cycle nature of most of our businesses, the complexity and highly regulated nature of our operations, and the competitive nature of our industry, it is especially important for us to retain our executive talent to ensure continuity of management. We seek to implement this philosophy by following three key principles:

• Competitive compensation. Providing a competitive compensation opportunity that enables us to attract, motivate, retain, and reward superior executive talent.

• Alignment with shareholder interests. Aligning our executives' interests with our shareholders' through equity compensation, short- and long-term absolute and relative performance metrics and share retention guidelines.

• Linking compensation to performance. Fostering a pay-for-performance philosophy by tying a significant portion of pay to financial and stock-price performance as well as other goals that support the creation of sustainable long-term shareholder value.

The Compensation Process

THE ROLE OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE, ITS CONSULTANT, AND MANAGEMENT

The Compensation Committee oversees the compensation program for our CEO and our other executive officers, including our other NEOs. Management typically formulates new proposals concerning executive compensation, including, but not limited to salary levels, the form and content of various incentive or other compensation programs, and benefits such as healthcare and retirement programs (though management does not propose or otherwise participate in the setting of our CEO's compensation). All management proposals as they relate to our NEOs are subject to Compensation Committee review and approval. The Compensation Committee has retained an independent consultant, FW Cook, to help it fulfill its responsibilities, including its review of management proposals. Among other things, FW Cook benchmarks compensation levels using available market data and trends and the Comparison Group approved by the Compensation Committee (see discussion of Comparison Group below). In compliance with the NYSE's listing standards and SEC rules, the Compensation Committee in April 2024 conducted its annual independence assessment of FW Cook and concluded that it remains independent of management and that its work did not raise any conflict of interest.

THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE'S PROCESS

In accordance with its charter, the Compensation Committee is responsible for, among other duties:

- reviewing and approving our overall executive compensation philosophy;
- overseeing the administration of compensation and benefit programs, policies, and practices;

- reviewing and approving the identification of our peer companies with respect to various benchmarking activities and data sources used in evaluating our compensation competitiveness;
- evaluating the performance of the CEO against performance goals and objectives approved by our Board; and
- approving the performance metric and corresponding goals, evaluating the performance, and approving the compensation of our executive officers.

THE USE OF MARKET DATA IN DETERMINING COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee considers numerous factors as it formulates, reviews, and approves pay components and the overall structure of our executive compensation program. Among these factors are survey data, scoped to focus on companies with revenue comparable to ours, and the compensation practices of select peer companies, which we refer to as the "Comparison Group." In January 2023, the Compensation Committee reviewed the Comparison Group that would be used to inform pay decisions for fiscal 2024. After reviewing the fifteen companies in the Comparison Group, the Compensation Committee determined not to make any changes because it concluded that the group continued be appropriate from a size and industry perspective, which included the observation that Catalent's $4.8 billion trailing four-quarter revenue at the time was above the $3.9 billion peer median trailing four-quarter revenue at the time.

The fifteen companies in the Comparison Group that informed compensation decisions for fiscal 2024 were:

- Agilent Tech
- Align Tech
- Boston Scientific
- Biogen
- Bio-Rad Labs
- Cooper Cos
- Hologic
- Horizon plc
- Incyte
- Jazz Pharma plc
- Mettler-Toledo
- Perrigo plc
- STERIS plc
- West Pharma Services
- Vertex Pharma

The Compensation Committee also considers other factors in addition to the market benchmarks, including individual executives' tenure, proficiency in role, and criticality to our performance. The Compensation Committee concluded that our pay strategy is appropriate to assure the attraction and retention of top talent in a competitive market. While the Compensation Committee considers peer and market data, it does not target a specific market position when determining executive target compensation levels. In addition to referencing market data, as described above, the Compensation Committee considered prior year compensation history and compensation levels of other Company executives to provide context for fiscal 2024 executive compensation.

Details of Total Direct Compensation Elements

For fiscal 2024, compensation paid to our NEOs consisted of base salary; short-term incentive pay in the form of participation in the MIP; equity-based, long-term incentive awards subject to multi-year time- and performance-vesting criteria; and the opportunity to participate in certain benefit programs and other perquisites.

We generally review the base salary and other incentive compensation target amounts of our executive officers, including our NEOs, annually, consistent with the process for our employees generally.

BASE SALARY

Base salary is the principal fixed component of target total direct compensation for NEOs, and is determined by considering the executive's job responsibilities, market data, and the individual's performance and contributions.

MANAGEMENT INCENTIVE PLAN

SUMMARY

The MIP is an annual cash incentive program that rewards performance against annual individual and overall business goals. We extend MIP participation to a broad group of our executives, including our NEOs. The Compensation Committee selects the overall business goals applicable to the NEOs participating in the MIP from among the corporate financial and strategic growth objectives set each year by our Board.

In previous fiscal years, each participant's target payout under the MIP was structured such that 70% of the payout was based on business goals applicable to that participant and 30% was based on the participant's individual goals.

For fiscal 2024, we reassessed the MIP to determine whether adjustments were necessary to enhance the flexibility and accountability for our ELT. We updated the MIP, eliminating the formulaic application of individual performance factors and introducing a discretionary modifier based on the CEO's evaluation of each executive officer's contribution towards the Company's financial results and qualitative performance.

Specifically:

(a) The previous 30% individual performance factor was removed, and the business factor weighting was increased from 70% to 100%;

(b) For members of the ELT, excluding the CEO and Executive Chair, a discretionary performance modifier ranging from 0-125% of each participant's target was introduced, allowing adjustments to the MIP payment based on the CEO's recommendations regarding each member's individual contribution; and

(c) For the CEO and Executive Chair, the discretionary performance modifier was determined by the Compensation Committee's evaluation of their contributions.

In all cases set forth above, the MIP payouts, after applying the discretionary performance modifier, cannot exceed a maximum of 200% of the target amount.

Additionally, since fiscal 2022, the Compensation Committee has structured the business goals portion of our MIP around the achievement of two key metrics: the Budget-Based EBITDA goal and the Budget-Based Revenue goal, both defined under "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" at the end of Item 11. Executive Compensation of this Annual Report. In fiscal 2024, the Committee expanded this framework by introducing a third performance metric, namely Free Cash Flow. This new metric, only applicable to participants with a business factor based on the Company's consolidated financial results, is now included in the determination of the business goals portion of our MIP.

2024 PERFORMANCE TARGETS

To ensure alignment with our strategic financial objectives, the Compensation Committee refined the structure of our MIP for fiscal 2024 and based the business goals portion of our MIP on achievement of our Budget-Based EBITDA goal, our Budget-Based Revenue goal, and Free Cash Flow. The Compensation Committee uses the aforementioned performance metrics because:

(a) it believes that they are important indicators of our increasing value and growth, as well as the overall financial health of the Company to pay down debt,

(b) they are the primary measures by which we set and measure performance for the fiscal year,

(c) they exclude certain items that would normally be part of a calculation of net earnings but that we believe are not representative of our core business, and

(d) they are widely used measures of overall financial performance.

The Compensation Committee concluded for fiscal 2024 that (1) using a combination of these three measures would provide a balanced set of business performance targets that focus on growth, profitability, financial health, and the most efficient conversion of revenue to profit, (2) at the time the goals are set, the performance targets provide a reasonably achievable, but challenging, set of goals for our NEOs and other MIP participants, and (3) linking our NEOs' bonuses to company-wide performance goals encourages collaboration across the executive leadership team. These goals are intended to incentivize all participants to maximize their performance for the benefit of our shareholders.

CALCULATING 2024 MIP AWARDS

As stated above, for fiscal 2024, the MIP awards for the ELT, including NEOs, are entirely based on business factor metrics, with a potential modifier to reward individual performance. The business performance factor comprises three key metrics: Budget-Based EBITDA, Budget-Based Revenue, and Free Cash Flow, with a weighting of 60% towards the Budget-Based EBITDA, 30% towards Budget-Based Revenue, and 10% towards Free Cash Flow.

For NEOs other than the CEO and Executive Chair, the performance modifier (if used) can adjust the calculated business factor up (cannot exceed 200% of target maximum) or down to a zero payout, reflecting CEO evaluation of each top executive's contribution toward Catalent's financial results and qualitative performance. For the CEO and Executive Chair, the performance modifier (if used) can adjust the calculated business factor up (cannot breach 200% of target maximum) or down to a zero payout, reflecting the Compensation Committee's evaluation of the contribution of the CEO and Executive Chair toward Catalent's financial results and qualitative performance. For fiscal 2024, the CEO recommended to apply the modifier for Mr. Masanovich in the amount of $140,000 and for Mr. Hopson in the amount of $42,000, and the Compensation Committee approved.

When determining MIP awards, with respect to Budget-Based EBITDA and Budget-Based Revenue, the Compensation Committee used a matrix approach that simultaneously evaluates performance of the Budget-Based EBITDA and Budget-Based Revenue components comprising 90% of the business-goal portion of the MIP, as described above. With respect to Free Cash Flow, this factor is not linear and has no proration between thresholds, producing one of three results: 0%, 100% or 200%.

Performance at target for each of the metrics results in achievement of the business-goal portion of the MIP award at 100% of a participant's target amount. With respect to the Budget-Based EBITDA and Budget-Based Revenue, performance below or above the targets, subject to a range of 80% to 125% and a minimum 80% achievement of Budget-Based EBITDA target, results in an achievement of 90% of the business-goal portion of the MIP award in the manner set forth in the following table (at 0-200% of target), with linear interpolation applied for results that fall between two consecutive revenue or EBITDA achievement levels:

| | <80% | 80% | 85% | 90% | 95% | 100% | 105% | 110% | 115% | 120% | 125% |

Achievement by each participant, including each of our NEOs, against Catalent's financial performance and for non-NEOs, including financial and individual performance, can result in payment of the MIP award between 0% and 200% of the target amount. The target amount for each participant in our MIP, including each of our NEOs, is a fixed sum and is reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee, consistent with the process for our employees generally.

CLAWBACK/FORFEITURE

Participation in the MIP may be cancelled or forfeited and repaid to us if the participant engages in any "Detrimental Activity," including but not limited to fraud, breaches of restrictive covenants, and disparagement of the company, as defined in the 2018 Omnibus Plan. In addition, if a participant receives any amount in excess of what the participant should have received for any reason (including by reason of a financial restatement, mistake in calculation, or other administrative error), the participant must repay the excess. Without limiting the foregoing, all MIP awards are subject to reduction, cancellation, forfeiture, or recoupment to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law.

In October 2023, the Company adopted a Clawback Policy in accordance with Section 10D of the Exchange Act and Rule 10D-1 promulgated thereunder and the NYSE listing standards.

2024 MIP AWARDS

The business performance goals and achievement levels for fiscal 2024, which collectively represented 100% of each NEO's overall target MIP award, are as follows (in millions of U.S. dollars, using our internal budget-based currency exchange rates, or percentages):

| Performance Measure | Threshold / Target / Maximum Performance[1] | Actual Performance | Business Performance Factor Payout Percentage | Adjusted Business Performance Factor Payout Percentage |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Budget-Based Revenue | $3,467 / $4,334 / $5,418 | $ 4,395 | | |
| Budget-Based EBITDA | $ 630 / $788 / $985 | $ 714 | 69% | 93% |
| Free Cash Flow | $ 65 / $65 / $212 | $ (59) | | |

(1) When calculating Budget-Based EBITDA, Budget-Based Revenue and Free Cash Flow performance, the target, threshold, and maximum are adjusted by the Compensation Committee for the projected performance from completed acquisitions over the measurement period.

The CEO, together with the Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer during fiscal 2024, evaluated the individual performance of each of our executive officers, including the NEOs other than the CEO, based on each individual's fiscal 2024 goals and objectives. After considering the individual's performance as well as their contribution to the financial results of the Company, management determined a recommended MIP award for each such executive officer, which they presented to the Compensation Committee. In approving MIP awards for the NEOs other than the CEO, the Compensation Committee considered our financial performance in fiscal 2024 and the individual assessment of performance and accomplishments relative to their respective goals and objectives.

The CEO also presented to the Compensation Committee an assessment of his own individual performance, which the Compensation Committee evaluated in determining the CEO's MIP award. The CEO's MIP award was based on his fiscal 2024 goals and objectives in the areas of: (1) delivering on financial commitments in net revenue, EBITDA, working capital improvements, cost savings and capex; (2) improving operating performance while continuing to strengthen Catalent's foundation; (3) optimizing Catalent's portfolio's potential and unlocking each division's contribution to the collective whole; (4) maintaining organizational vitality and culture; and (5) restoring investor confidence. The Compensation Committee did not assign weights in considering these areas, but took account of the differing levels of focus in each area as the year progressed. After consideration of all of these factors, the Compensation Committee decided to award the CEO a MIP bonus for fiscal 2024.

The Executive Chair presented to the Compensation Committee an assessment of his own personal performance, which the Compensation Committee evaluated in determining the Executive Chair's MIP award. The Executive Chair's 2024 goals and objectives included the following: (1).coaching and mentoring the CEO and ELT; (2) effectively leading the Board and Strategic and Operational Review Committee in the evaluation of operational improvement opportunities and strategic options for the future; (3) on-boarding the CFO; (4) leading, along with the CEO, an effective succession planning process for Catalent's leadership team; (5) guiding the Catalent's M&A strategy and portfolio transformation strategy; and (6) leading the Board by working with the CEO and Lead Independent Director to set effective Board meeting agendas and effectively manage Board meetings. After consideration of all of these factors, the Compensation Committee decided to award the Executive Chair a MIP bonus for fiscal 2024.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE AWARDS

Our long-term incentive compensation program is potentially available to all our employees, including our NEOs, and includes one or some combination of three types of equity-based awards:

- time-based stock options, in which there is a fixed grant to the recipient subject only to a time- and service-based vesting requirement;
- time-based RSUs, in which there is a fixed grant to the recipient subject only to a time- and service-based vesting requirement; and
- performance-based PSUs, in which vesting is based on the achievement of pre-established performance criteria over a multi-year performance period, subject to continuing service through the date of certification of final performance by the Compensation Committee.

By awarding grants with multi-year performance or vesting periods, we appropriately align program participants with the long-term best interests of our shareholders. Those interests are also protected by restrictive covenants that are imposed on our participants, including a confidentiality obligation, a limitation on competing with us for the greater of one-year post-departure and the final vesting of outstanding equity-based awards, and an agreement not to solicit our employees for one year after leaving our employ.

With the exception of Mr. Greisch, awards to our NEOs for the fiscal 2024-2026 performance period, awarded in early fiscal 2024, were divided into PSUs (with the target number of shares providing 34% of the target value awarded), stock options (33% of the target value awarded), and RSUs (33% of the target value awarded). The change in the mix of LTIP awards from fiscal 2023 was the result of an inability to set meaningful long-term financial goals in early fiscal 2024 due to the business challenges at the time, and the Compensation Committee's desire to maintain a strong focus on performance by up-weighting both the relative TSR PSUs and the options such that a total of two-thirds of the LTIP mix of awards is in an "at-risk" award type.

Per the terms of Mr. Greisch's employment agreement, his fiscal 2024-2026 LTIP award composed of 75% stock options and 25% PSUs. In turn, the target value awarded as PSUs was granted in the form of relative total shareholder return ("Relative Return"), as described below in this section. The target size for our NEOs' LTIP awards was set by the Compensation Committee using a market-based determination of LTIP grant value, individual performance, and other factors.

Awards to our NEOs for the fiscal 2024-2026 performance period, awarded in early fiscal 2024 under our LTIP were generally determined and approved by the Compensation Committee on a dollar-value basis, which is then translated into a fixed or target number of options, RSUs, or PSUs by dividing the award by the per-instrument price, using a Black-Scholes valuation for options, grant date share price for RSUs, and the value derived from a Monte Carlo pricing model for Relative Return PSUs, and then rounding up to the nearest whole number of shares. Subject to the recipient's continued service with us through each applicable vesting date, options vest in equal installments over the first four anniversaries of the grant date, RSUs vest one-third on the first, second, and third anniversaries of the grant date, and PSUs vest when and if we determine that the performance criteria are met at the end of the three-year performance period. The continued service requirement is waived in the event of a participant's disability or retirement in accordance with the "Rule of 65," which applies if a participant retires on or after the date on which the sum of the participant's age and period of service with us equals sixty-five (65) years, so long as they are at least the age of fifty-five (55) and give at least six-months' notice and, beginning with grants awarded in fiscal 2021, have completed at least five years of service with us.

The performance criteria for the PSUs granted during fiscal 2024 are as follows:

- Relative Return is the percentile rank of our total shareholder return during the 3-year performance period relative to the total shareholder return of each of the companies comprising the S&P 500 Healthcare Index (with total shareholder return being the change in the price per share over the performance period, assuming reinvestment of dividends, if any, paid during the performance period). There were 66 other companies, including Catalent, in the comparison group at the start of the fiscal year 2024-2026 three-year performance period.
- Achievement of the median Relative Return will earn the participant the number of shares equal to 100% of the target number of Relative Return PSUs. At the 25$^{th}$ percentile, 50% of target will be earned, with no shares earned for achievement below that threshold. At the maximum achievement level of the 75$^{th}$ percentile, the resulting earnout is at 150% of target. Earnouts are interpolated for levels of achievement between threshold and target, and between target and maximum. In addition, earnouts on our Relative Return PSUs are subject to an additional cap so that the total value of the shares earned at payout cannot exceed 300% of the grant date value of such incentive awards.

The Compensation Committee believes that the performance targets for the Relative Return PSUs represent reasonably achievable but challenging goals and are intended to incentivize all participants to maximize their performance for the long-term benefit of our shareholders.

* Note that Adjusted Net Income is a non-GAAP financial measure, is not a measure of operating income, operating performance, or liquidity presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and is subject to important limitations. For a discussion of these measures and how they reconcile to our results reported under U.S. GAAP, please see the heading "Non-GAAP Metrics" under Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the 2024 Annual Report and the heading "Non-GAAP Financial Measures" at the end of Item 11. Executive Compensation of this Annual Report.

FISCAL 2022-2024 PSU PERFORMANCE

In fiscal 2022, the Compensation Committee granted PSUs representing 50% of the total long-term incentives to executives for the fiscal 2022-2024 performance period, awarded one-half as Adjusted EPS PSUs and one-half as Relative Return PSUs. These PSUs issued in respect of the fiscal 2022-2024 performance period vested in fiscal 2025 at a performance level of 0% of target for the Adjusted EPS PSUs and 0% of target for the Relative Return PSUs earned by our NEOs.

EQUITY GRANT PRACTICES

Effective in 2021 for the fiscal 2022-2024 LTIP performance period, the Compensation Committee approved a fixed grant date of July 26th for purposes of awarding the annual LTIP to executives, which includes options and RSUs. The Compensation Committee generally meets at their scheduled July meeting or by written consent (if needed), which is typically scheduled prior to the July 26th fixed date. In the event the grant date falls on a weekend, the fair market value will be based on the previous Friday's closing stock price. For newly hired executives beginning employment after the annual July 26th fixed date, the Compensation Committee will be presented with the executive's LTIP award for approval, with the grant date typically coinciding with the executive's date of hire. Throughout the year on a quarterly basis, LTIP-based equity awards are occasionally made to new hires and promoted employees. The Compensation Committee may delegate the authority to grant equity awards to eligible employees who are not Section 16 officers.

The Compensation Committee does not take material non-public information into account when determining the timing and terms of option awards, and the Company does not time the disclosure of such material non-public information for purposes of affecting the exercise price of the options or the value of executive compensation. In addition, the Company does not grant options during the four business days prior to or the one business day following the filing of a periodic report on Form 10-Q or Form 10-K, or the filing or furnishing of a Form 8-K that discloses material non-public information.

Other Benefits Under Our Executive Compensation Program

BENEFITS AND PERQUISITES

We provide to all our employees, including our NEOs, broad-based benefits that are intended to attract and retain employees while providing them with retirement and health and welfare security. Broad-based employee benefits available to our NEOs include:

- a 401(k) savings plan for U.S. NEOs, and an equivalent plan under U.K. law for our U.K.-domiciled NEO, both of which provide for a partial employer match of employee contributions;
- an employee stock purchase plan, allowing the purchase of shares of our common stock at a 10% discount;
- medical, dental, vision, life and accident insurance, disability coverage, and health savings, dependent care, and healthcare flexible spending accounts; and
- employee assistance program benefits.

Under our 401(k) savings plan and the equivalent U.K. plan, we match a portion of the funds set aside by the employee. In the U.S., we match 100% of up to 4% of eligible annual compensation contributed, up to federal tax law limits on both eligible compensation that may be considered for contribution and the amount employees may contribute. In the U.K., the plan provides for an employer matching contribution of 5.5-8% of eligible base salary compensation dependent on the participant contributing 3.5-6% of eligible base salary compensation.

Our employee stock purchase plan (the "Employee Stock Purchase Plan") is designed to allow our eligible employees to purchase shares of our common stock at designated intervals at a discounted price of 10% through their accumulated payroll deductions or other contributions. Employees who are United States tax residents may benefit from favorable tax treatment as the Employee Stock Purchase Plan is intended to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code. In fiscal 2024, the employee stock purchase plan was offered to eligible employees from July 1, 2023 through March 31, 2024. As a result of the announced transaction with Novo Holdings, the employee stock purchase plan was suspended after the third quarter offering period ended on March 31, 2024.

We provide basic life and accident insurance coverage valued at two times the employee's annual base salary at no cost to our employees. The employee may also select supplemental life and accident insurance, for a premium to be paid by the employee.

We also provide our NEOs with limited perquisites and personal benefits that are not generally available to all employees, such as financial counseling services. We provide these limited perquisites and personal benefits in order to further our goal of attracting and retaining our executive talent and to avoid unnecessary personal distractions that may impede maximum personal performance. These benefits and perquisites are reflected in the "All Other Compensation" column of the Summary Compensation Table and the accompanying footnotes in accordance with SEC rules.

DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

Our deferred compensation programs (collectively, the "Deferred Compensation Plan") permit a broad group of U.S.- and U.K.-based executives, including all of our NEOs, to defer up to 80% of base salary, commissions (not applicable to NEOs), and MIP bonus. We credit the first 6% of cash compensation deferred with a matching contribution equal to 50% of the amount deferred. Participants are immediately vested in all amounts they contribute and the related investment gains, but matching contributions and their related investment gains vest ratably over the participant's first four years of service. Participants may choose from a variety of investment options for the cash amounts deferred.

Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, we also credit each participant's deferral account with notional earnings and/or losses based on the deemed investment of the accounts in one or more of a variety of investment alternatives selected by such participant. Participants may elect from a variety of forms of payout, including lump-sum payment and various types of annual installments, with the timing depending on the form selected.

In addition, our Deferred Compensation Plan permits U.S. participants to defer unvested incentive compensation grants (other than options) in order to delay recognition of income on these awards upon vesting; however, in June 2023, with the exception of the non-employee Directors, the Company decided to suspend equity deferrals from the Deferred Compensation Plan for eligible U.S. participants.

Cash and equity deferrals, company contributions, and applicable gains are held in a "rabbi" trust. "Rabbi" trust assets are ultimately controlled by us. Operating the Deferred Compensation Plan this way permits participants to defer recognition of income for tax purposes on the amounts deferred until they are paid to the participants.

Our U.S.- and U.K.-based directors can also participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan on the same terms as our executives, though they are not provided a matching contribution on their cash deferrals.

We believe that providing the NEOs and other eligible participants with deferred compensation opportunities is a market-based benefit plan necessary for us to deliver competitive benefit packages. Additional details of the Deferred Compensation Plan follow the table entitled "Fiscal 2024 Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Table," following this Compensation Discussion & Analysis ("CD&A") section.

SEVERANCE AND PAYMENTS ON A CHANGE OF CONTROL

Our NEOs are eligible for severance benefits in connection with a termination of employment and/or a change of control in certain circumstances. The amounts of such benefits and the conditions for their payment are described in the Fiscal 2024 Potential Payments upon Employment Termination or Change of Control Tables, including the accompanying notes.

Compensation Determinations for Fiscal 2024

We generally review the base salary and other incentive compensation target amounts of our executive officers, including our NEOs, annually, consistent with the process for our employees generally. For fiscal 2024, compensation paid to our NEOs consisted of base salary, short-term incentive pay in the form of participation in the MIP, equity-based, long-term incentive awards subject to multi-year time- and performance-vesting criteria, and the opportunity to participate in certain benefit programs and other perquisites.

The Compensation Committee observed at the beginning of fiscal 2022 that executive compensation opportunities were meaningfully low versus peer and market data overall and the Compensation Committee determined to move targeted pay levels over a multi-year period which resulted in larger pay increases than in the past for certain individuals, particularly in their long-term incentive award grant values. It continued with this strategy when setting fiscal 2024 target pay opportunities in July 2023 and the need to stabilize the business and retain key members of the team during a challenging time. Despite the target total direct compensation increases, and due to continued market movement, Catalent's fiscal 2024 target total direct compensation levels for all NEOs collectively were generally at market.

EXECUTIVE STOCK OWNERSHIP GUIDELINES

Our executive stock ownership guidelines for our CEO and certain of our executives, including the other NEOs, set a multiple of each executive's base salary as the amount of qualifying equity to be acquired and held by each executive. In assessing compliance with the guidelines, we count shares held outright, 50% of the value of unvested RSUs (or restricted stock issued in lieu thereof), and 100% of shares held in benefit plans, if any. Shares underlying stock options (vested or unvested) or unearned PSUs do not count toward achievement of the guidelines. Our guidelines by executive level are as follows:

| Class of Executive | Multiple of Base Salary |
| Other NEOs | 2.5X |

If, on the date of any exercise of an option to purchase our common stock or the delivery of our common stock underlying any vested RSU or PSU, an executive has not reached the minimum ownership level under the guidelines, then the executive should retain and not sell that portion of the delivered shares whose market value is equal to at least 50% of the after-tax market value of all shares delivered on that date. For purposes of complying with this provision of the guidelines, the market value is equal to the average closing price per share of our common stock as reported on the NYSE for all trading days in the last month of the prior fiscal year.

All of our NEOs complied with these guidelines during fiscal 2024 and have remained in compliance through the date of this Annual Report.

HEDGING AND PLEDGING

Our Insider Trading Policy prohibits directors and all of our employees, including our executive officers, from engaging in any transactions that are designed to hedge or offset any decrease in the market value of our securities, including, but not limited to, through the use of financial instruments such as exchange funds, variable forward contracts, equity swaps, puts, calls, and other derivative instruments, or through the establishment of a short position in our securities. Though our Insider Trading Policy allows the pledging by our directors and employees, including our executive officers, of our securities in situations approved by our General Counsel, our current policy and practice is that no such pledging is allowed.

RISK ASSESSMENT OF COMPENSATION PRACTICES AND POLICIES

With the assistance of its independent consultant, the Compensation Committee annually reviews our compensation program from a risk perspective. Based on that review, the Compensation Committee believes that our program is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us and our shareholders. Our compensation program achieves this by striking an appropriate balance between short-term and long-term incentives, using a diversity of metrics to assess performance and payout under our incentive programs, placing caps on our incentive award payout opportunities, and having stock ownership and retention requirements. For example, our current long-term equity incentive program incorporates our financial performance and stock price into its performance measures and generally magnifies the impact of changes in our stock price as well as Relative Return performance.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis contained in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Based on its review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to our Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K as filed with the SEC.

(1) Mr. Hopson assumed the additional role of Interim Chief Financial Officer effective as of April 14, 2023 until Mr. Masanovich was appointed as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective as of July 5, 2023. Following Mr. Masanovich's appointment, Mr. Hopson returned to his previous role as President, Division Head of Clinical Development and Supply. Effective August 28, 2023, Mr. Hopson assumed the role of President, BioProduct Delivery and Chief of Staff. Compensation changes related to these transitions are described in the CD&A in the section entitled "Executive Agreements," beginning on page 27.

(2) Values reflect the amounts paid to the NEOs for each fiscal year reported. Amounts reported include the portion, if any, of base salary each NEO elected to defer under the Deferred Compensation Plan, as applicable. Please see the section entitled "Compensation Determinations for 2024" in the CD&A for additional details of changes to the salaries of the NEOs during fiscal year 2024, as applicable.

(3) The amount reported for Ms. Evoli in this column for fiscal 2024 represents a cash sign-on bonus paid in August 2023 pursuant to the terms of her offer letter dated June 8, 2023. The amount reported for Mr. McErlane in this column for fiscal 2024 represents a cash sign-on bonus paid in October 2023 pursuant to the terms of his offer letter dated August 25, 2023.

(4) Represents the aggregate grant date fair market value of stock awards for fiscal years 2024, 2023, and 2022 computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, using the assumptions discussed in Note 14, "Stock-Based Compensation," to the consolidated financial statements included in our 2024 Annual Report. The amounts reported in this column assume, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, that the NEOs will receive or retain the target number of PSUs awarded to them in each such fiscal year. All of our NEOs received PSUs during fiscal year 2024. If, instead, the performance during the 2024-2026 performance period is such that the NEOs receive or retain the maximum number capable of being awarded (150% of target for Relative Return PSUs), the value of the PSU grants for 2024 would be as follows:

| Name | ASC Topic 718 Value at Maximum ($) |
| Alessandro Maselli | 3,506,262 |
| Matti Masanovich | 2,550,049 |
| Ricky Hopson | 344,266 |
| John Greisch | 1,402,560 |
| Lisa Evoli | 459,021 |
| David McErlane | 471,780 |

Relative Return PSUs are subject to market conditions, as opposed to performance conditions, and therefore do not have maximum grant date fair market values that differ from the grant date fair market values under FASB ASC Topic 718. The actual value of the PSUs, if any, that ultimately convert to shares of our common stock or are no longer subject to forfeiture, respectively, on the vesting dates will depend on (x) our share price on such dates and (y) our performance according to the applicable performance criteria.

The amount reported for Ms. Evoli for fiscal 2024 includes RSUs with a grant date fair market value of $1,000,012 granted on August 1, 2023 in connection with her offer letter. The amount reported for Mr. McErlane for fiscal 2024 represents RSUs with a grant date fair market value of $590,004 granted on September 25, 2023 in connection with his offer letter.

(5) Reflects nonqualified stock options to acquire shares of our common stock. Amounts reported reflect the aggregate grant date fair market value computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 using the assumptions discussed in Note 14, "Stock-Based Compensation," to the consolidated financial statements included in our 2024 Annual Report.

(6) Amounts reported reflect the MIP awards earned by our NEOs, which includes the portion of the MIP award, if any, each NEO elected to defer under the Deferred Compensation Plan, as applicable. The amount reported for Mr. Maselli in fiscal 2022 reflects a reduction to his MIP award in connection with the revisions to our audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2022 which impacted all NEOs who received a MIP payment for such fiscal year. The amount of the clawback was equal to approximately 3% of the value of the original fiscal 2022 MIP payout to each NEO for fiscal 2022 performance. Amounts reported for Mr. Maselli in fiscal 2021 and 2022 were denominated in U.K. pounds sterling and converted to U.S. dollars (as well as paid in U.S. dollars for fiscal 2021 and 2022) based on the average monthly currency exchange rates applicable to annual bonus payments in each period.

(7) The amounts set forth as "All Other Compensation" for fiscal 2024 are further detailed below:

| Name | Employer 401(k) Matching Contributions ($)(A) | Employer Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Matching Contributions ($)(B) | Assignment-Related Allowances & Benefits ($)(C) | Financial Services Reimbursement/Fees Paid by Employer ($)(D) | Other ($)(E) | Total ($) |

(A) Under our 401(k) Savings Plan, we match up to a maximum 4% of annual compensation contributed by participants, up to federal tax law limits on both eligible compensation and individual contributions.

(B) Represents company contributions under our Deferred Compensation Plans, representing 50% of each participant's contribution up to the first 6% of eligible pay that such participant contributes to the plan, up to any applicable limit.

(C) Mr. Maselli received certain tax equalization benefits during fiscal 2024 in connection with his relocation from the United Kingdom and long-term assignment in the United States prior to fiscal 2023, resulting primarily from timing differences between the determination and payment of U.S. and U.K. taxes across multiple tax years. Such benefits are consistent with our standard policies and practices applicable, by location, to employees on long-term assignments.

(D) Each of the NEOs, pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement or otherwise, is entitled to services, which may be submitted in the form of a reimbursement, for the reasonable cost of financial services/planning, subject to an aggregate cap of $17,000 during each calendar year. The amounts reported in each fiscal year may differ from this cap due to timing differences between each fiscal year and calendar year. During fiscal 2024, Messrs. Maselli, Masanovich, Hopson, McErlane and Ms. Evoli received financial services/planning services in the amounts of $17,559, $17,372, $17,559, $12,109 and $14,737, respectively, applicable to calendar years 2023 and 2024. The amount reported in this column for Mr. Maselli includes $2,704 for tax preparation services paid in connection with his long-term assignment in the U.S. prior to fiscal 2023.

(E) The amount reported for Mr. Masanovich includes an aggregate stipend of $98,000 paid to offset travel costs from Florida to New Jersey from September 2023 through June 2024. The amount reported for Mr. Hopson includes (1) an aggregate stipend of $40,000 paid in connection with Mr. Hopson's services as Interim Chief Financial Officer in supporting the fiscal 2023 compensation year-end planning process and facilitating the transition to the newly hired CFO from July 2023 through August 2023 and (2) $923 in connection with his cash-out from Catalent's employee recognition platform, of which $575 included the gross-up amount for taxes. The amount reported for Ms. Evoli represents (1) contributions we made under our Catalent Cares matching gift program in the amount of $200 and (2) an aggregate stipend of $55,000 to offset commuting costs from Pennsylvania to New Jersey from August 2023 through June 2024. From time to time, family members of executives may accompany them on a business-related flight aboard a private aircraft. There is no incremental cost to the Company, and therefore no incremental costs are reflected in the amounts above, for the use of such flights by family members of executives.

(8) We have not included columns reporting any amount as "Change in Pension Value and Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Earnings" because none of our NEOs received or earned any above-market or preferential earnings during fiscal 2022 to 2024.

(9) Ms. Evoli and Messrs. Masanovich, Hopson, Greisch and McErlane did not qualify as NEOs in one or more previous years. Accordingly, disclosure of their compensation for such prior years is not required.

(1) For each NEO, represents potential cash payments for fiscal 2024 under our MIP. See the section in our CD&A entitled "Details of Total Direct Compensation Elements—Management Incentive Plan" for a further description of our MIP.

(2) The amounts shown reflect PSUs granted to the NEOs during fiscal 2024. In fiscal 2024, the Compensation Committee set the performance metrics for the PSUs awarded under our LTIP using Relative Return. The final number of PSUs can range from 0-150% of the target number of Relative Return PSUs, depending on our achievement against the relevant performance metric established by the Compensation Committee at the beginning of the performance period. See the section in our CD&A entitled "Details of Total Direct Compensation Elements—Long-Term Incentive Awards" for a further description of our long-term incentive compensation program.

Ms. Evoli and Mr. McErlane each received an additional RSU award on August 1, 2023 and September 25, 2023, respectively, as a sign-on in connection with their offer letter. The vesting and settlement terms of the RSUs are described in more detail in the section in our CD&A entitled "Details of Total Direct Compensation Elements—Long-Term Incentive Awards."

(4) Represents nonqualified stock options granted during fiscal 2024 under our LTIP. Options granted prior to fiscal 2024 for which a portion vested during fiscal 2024 are as follows: options granted July 22, 2019—25% on each of July 22, 2020, 2021, 2022, and 2023; options granted July 30, 2020—25% on each of July 30, 2021, 2022, and 2023; options granted July 26, 2021—25% on each of July 26, 2022 and 2023; options granted on July 26, 2022—25% on July 26, 2023. All other options shown above were fully vested prior to the start of fiscal 2024. As described in the section of this Annual Report entitled "Fiscal 2024 Potential Payments Upon Employment Termination or Change in Control Tables," the vesting of all or a portion of each option grant may potentially differ from the normal vesting schedule due to a change of control of our Company or certain terminations of employment.

(2) The expiration dates shown represent the 10-year anniversary of each respective grant date. Options may terminate earlier under certain circumstances, such as in connection with an NEO's termination of employment or in connection with certain corporate transactions, including a change of control of our Company.

(3) The amounts shown for Messrs. Maselli and Hopson include RSUs scheduled to vest on July 26, 2024 and July 26, 2025. The RSUs granted to Mr. Maselli on July 26, 2023, Mr. Masanovich on July 5, 2023, Ms. Evoli and Mr. Hopson on August 1, 2023 and Mr. McErlane on September 25, 2023 are scheduled to vest one-third per year on each of the first, second and third anniversaries of the grant date. All other unvested RSUs are scheduled to vest on the third anniversary of each respective grant date. The amounts shown for Mr. Greisch include vested/unsettled deferred share units granted on August 22, 2019 (vested and deferred on August 22, 2020) and granted on October 27, 2022 (vested and deferred on August 27, 2023), which he elected to defer as a member of the board of directors.

No portion of the PSUs granted to Messrs. Maselli and Hopson on July 26, 2021 were earned based on performance relative to pre-determined Relative Return and Adjusted Earnings Per Share performance targets.

As described in the section of the 2024 Annual Report entitled "Fiscal 2024 Potential Payments Upon Employment Termination or Change in Control," all or a portion of the RSUs or PSUs may vest earlier in connection with a change of control of our Company or certain terminations of employment

(4) Shares/units are valued based on the $56.23 closing price per share of our common stock on June 28, 2024, as reported on the NYSE.

(5) The number of shares and payout values reported include PSUs based on achieving the threshold payout percentage, Adjusted EPS PSUs and Relative Return PSUs that vest at the end of the three-year performance period ending on June 30, 2025. The remaining PSUs are based on achieving the maximum possible payout percentage, Relative Return PSUs that vest at the end of the three-year performance period ending on June 30, 2026. Actual PSU payout levels will be determined by the Compensation Committee following the end of each applicable three-year performance period beginning with the fiscal year in which such grant is made, based on actual performance levels achieved relative to the pre-determined performance targets.

(2) The amounts reported for Messrs. Masanovich and Hopson and Ms. Evoli are reported as compensation for fiscal 2024 under "All Other Compensation" in the Summary Compensation Table. The amount reported for Mr. Greisch in this column represents the fair market value for undelivered Deferred Share Units that vested on August 27, 2023.

(3) The amounts reported in this column are not above-market or preferential earnings thus not reportable in the Summary Compensation Table. The aggregate amount reported for Mr. Gresich under "Vested but Undelivered Deferred Share Units (DSUs)" in this column reflects the increase or (decrease) in fair market value between a) August 27, 2023 and June 30, 2024 of DSUs that vested in Fiscal 2024 and b) the increase or (decrease) in fair market value between July 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024 of DSUs that vested prior to the fiscal 2024 year.

(4) Includes amounts previously reported as compensation in the "Salary," "Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation," and "All Other Compensation" columns in the Summary Compensation Table in prior years. The aggregate balance for Mr. Greisch under "Vested but Undelivered DSUs" in this column reflects the value of 6,632 fully vested but undelivered DSUs based on the $56.23 closing stock price per share of our common stock at the end of our fiscal year on June 28, 2024, as reported on the NYSE.

(5) Messrs. Maselli and McErlane did not participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan during fiscal 2024.

Deferred Compensation

We provide certain of our U.S.- and U.K.-based executives, including our U.S.- and U.K.-based NEOs, with the opportunity to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan, which allows participating executives to defer receipt of a portion of their compensation. Deferrals occur and may be invested notionally on a pre-tax basis, in addition to the amounts that the executive is allowed to contribute to our tax-qualified 401(k) and U.K. pension plans.

Deferred Compensation Plan participants may elect to defer up to 80% of base salary, commissions (not applicable to NEOs), and MIP bonus. The plan also allowed U.S.-based executives to elect deferring their PSU and RSU grants; however, in June 2023 and with the exception of the non-employee Directors, we decided to suspend the equity deferral process for calendar year 2024 due to the volatility of Catalent's stock, as well as the fact that participants could not diversify from Catalent to other assets until their deferred shares are distributed. We credit the first 6% of cash compensation deferred with a matching contribution equal to 50% of the amount deferred. Participants are immediately vested in all amounts they contribute and the related investment gains, but matching contributions and their related investment gains vest ratably over the participant's first four years of service to the Company. Participants in the Deferred Compensation Plan may elect from a variety of payout options under the plan, including lump-sum or installment payments, with the timing depending on the form selected at the time of the deferral election.

Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, we also credit each participant's deferral account with notional earnings and/or losses based on the deemed investment of the accounts in one or more of a variety of investment alternatives available under the plan. Participants are able to make changes to their investment elections on a daily basis.

The accounts of U.S.-based participants in the prior version of the Deferred Compensation Plan that are paid out in a lump-sum cash payment are paid on the 15th day of the month immediately following the month that includes the six-month anniversary of the participant's separation from our service (other than due to death) ("separation" as defined by Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code). In the event of the death of a participant prior to the commencement of the distribution of benefits under the plan, such benefits will be paid no later than the later of (x) December 31 of the year in which the participant's death occurs and (y) the 90th day following the date of the participant's death. The accounts for U.K.-based participants are paid in a lump sum cash payment in the next available paycheck following the elected distribution date.

A U.S.-based participant in the Deferred Compensation Plan may also elect to receive a payout in annual installments over a period of five or ten years after the participant's separation from service (including death), although, notwithstanding any such election, the participant's account will be paid in a lump-sum cash payment in connection with a participant's separation from service within two years following a change of control. The Deferred Compensation Plan also permits participants to receive a distribution in connection with an unforeseeable emergency, in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

A U.K.-based participant receives a lump sum payout of all outstanding cash deferrals six months after the participant's separation from service.

Cash and equity deferrals, employer contributions, and applicable gains are held in a "rabbi trust." Rabbi trust assets are ultimately controlled by us, permitting participants to defer recognition of income for tax purposes on the amounts deferred until they are paid in accordance with their elections.

Our U.S.- and U.K.-based directors can also participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan by deferring receipt of their cash retainers, though they are not provided a matching contribution.

| Termination by Us For Cause or By Mr. Maselli without Good Reason | — | — | — | — |

(1) Amounts reported for a termination by us without cause within 2 years following a change of control (assuming awards have been assumed, continued, or substituted) represent accelerated vesting of unvested equity-based awards and reflect (a) the "spread" value of the options, equal to $7.33 per share for 103,360 options (same in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2023, $0 per share for 33,321 options (same in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2022 (award is underwater as of June 30, 2024 and has no value), $0 per share for 7,784 options (same in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2021 (award is underwater as of June 30, 2024 and has no value), and $0 per share for 3,851 options (same in the case of death) granted on July 30, 2020 (award is underwater as of June 30, 2024 and has no value), in each case representing the difference between the $56.23 closing price per share of our common stock on June 28, 2024, as reported on the NYSE (the "Fiscal 2024 Closing Price"), and the exercise price of the option; and (b) 46,396 RSUs (same in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2023, 10,221 RSUs (same in the case of death), granted on July 26, 2022, 3,009 RSUs granted (same in the case of death) on July 26, 2021, 0 PSUs (Adjusted EPS) (3,762 in the case of death) and 0 PSUs (Relative Return) (3,897 in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2021, 6,388 PSUs (Adjusted EPS) (12,776 in the case of death) and 6,948 PSUs (Relative Return) (13,895 in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2022, and 86,553 PSUs (Relative Return) (57,702 in the case of death) granted on July 26, 2023, multiplied by the Fiscal 2024 Closing Price.

The amount reported for Mr. Maselli for (i) termination by us without cause within 2 years following a change of control (assuming awards have been assumed, continued, or substituted), take into account future performance as disclosed in the "Fiscal 2024 Outstanding Equity Awards at Year-End" and accompanying footnote in this Annual Report; however, the number of Relative Return PSUs that vest in connection with a change of control may vary based on when a change of control occurs during a performance period.

Distribution of shares underlying PSUs are accelerated upon termination due to death. In the event Mr. Maselli meets the requirements of disability under the terms of the PSU awards, the shares underlying the PSUs remain subject to adjustment and will be distributed following the end of each relevant performance period based on final performance measured against the relevant pre-determined metrics for each award. The amounts shown above in the "Option/RSU/PSU/Restricted Stock/Performance Shares Acceleration" column in the event of termination due to death or disability assume that the PSUs vest at target. The amount would equal $9,727,157 when taking into account assumptions for future performance as disclosed in the "Fiscal 2024 Outstanding Equity Awards at Year-End" and accompanying footnote in this Annual Report.

(2) Upon termination due to death or disability, Mr. Maselli or his estate is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of the annual bonus that he would have been entitled to for the bonus year in which the termination occurs, based on our actual performance (the "Annual Bonus"). The amount reported above for death or disability represents his target annual bonus for fiscal 2024 and assumes (a) he would have served for the entire year and (b) on-target business and individual performance results. The amounts reported for "Termination by Us Without Cause" or "By Mr. Maselli for Good Reason and Termination by Us Without Cause Within 2 Years Following a Change of Control" (assuming awards have been assumed, continued, or substituted) are comprised of (a) the Annual Bonus plus (b) two (2) times the sum of (i) his annual base salary and (ii) his target annual bonus.

(3) The amount reported represents income attributable to the health care premiums paid by us with respect to Mr. Maselli's participation in our employee benefit plans for a two-year period. Mr. Maselli would also be entitled to be paid for any unused paid-time-off days accrued during 2024.

(4) Receipt of shares in the event of disability occurs when the relevant vesting period for each grant ends rather than being accelerated to the date of disability.

For Mr. Greisch, the amounts reported for a termination by us without cause or by the executive officer for good reason within 18 months following a change of control (assuming awards have been assumed, continued, or substituted) reflects (a) the "spread" value of $7.25 per share for the 127,096 options (same in the case of death) granted on August 30, 2023, representing the difference between the Fiscal 2024 Closing Price and the exercise price of the option, and (b) 33,530 PSUs (Relative Return) (22,353 in the case of death), multiplied by the Fiscal 2024 Closing Price.

For Ms. Evoli, the amounts reported for a termination by us without cause or by the executive officer for good reason within 18 months following a change of control (assuming awards have been assumed, continued, or substituted) reflects (a) the "spread" value of $9.72 per share for the 14,225 options (same in the case of death) granted on August 1, 2023, representing the difference between the Fiscal 2024 Closing Price and the exercise price of the option, and (b) 27,887 RSUs (same in the case of death) granted on August 1, 2023 and 12,032 PSUs (Relative Return) (8,021 in the case of death) granted on August 1, 2023, multiplied by the Fiscal 2024 Closing Price.

Distribution of shares underlying PSUs are accelerated upon termination due to death. In the event an NEO meets the requirements of disability under the terms of the PSU awards, the shares underlying the PSUs remain subject to adjustment and will be distributed following the end of each relevant performance period based on final performance measured against the relevant pre-determined metrics for each award. The amounts shown above in the "Option/RSU/PSU/Restricted Stock/Performance Shares Acceleration" column in the event of termination due to death or disability assume that the PSUs vest at target. The amounts would differ, as follows, when taking into account assumptions for future performance as disclosed in the "Fiscal 2024 Outstanding Equity Awards at Year-End" and accompanying footnote in this Annual Report: Mr. Masanovich – $7,034,058; Mr. Hopson—$992,755; Ms. Evoli - $2,382,912; Mr. Greisch—$2,806,838; Mr. McErlane—$1,895,779.

Upon a termination of death or disability, the vested DSUs would be distributed in the month following the death/disability termination. In the event Mr. Greisch stops serving on the Board within 2 years following a change in control his vested DSUs would be settled on the fifteenth day of the seventh month following the month in which his Board services ended.

(2) The amounts reported for death or disability and for termination by us without cause or by the executive officer for good reason represent, for each executive, the sum of that executive's annual base salary and target annual bonus. The amounts reported for termination by us without cause within 18 months following a change of control represents for Mr. Masanovich, Ms. Evoli and Messrs. Greisch and McErlane, two times the sum of their annual base salary and target annual bonus and for Mr. Hopson, the sum of one-and-a-half times his annual base salary and target annual bonus.

(3) The amounts reported for Messrs. Masanovich and Hopson, Ms. Evoli and Mr. McErlane represent income attributable to the health care premiums paid by us with respect to their continued participation in our employee benefit plans for a one-year period. Mr. Greisch elected not to enroll in our health benefits. Each executive would also be entitled to be paid for any unused paid-time-off days accrued during 2024.

(4) Receipt of shares in the event of disability occurs when the relevant vesting period for each grant ends rather than being accelerated to the date of disability.

Payments that would be made under our Deferred Compensation Plan are described above in the Fiscal 2024 Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Table.

SEVERANCE AND PAYMENTS ON A CHANGE OF CONTROL

MR. MASELLI'S SEVERANCE, TERMINATION, AND CHANGE OF CONTROL BENEFITS

Mr. Maselli's employment agreement, the Omnibus Plans, and the grant agreements thereunder each provide for certain benefits to be paid to him upon termination.

Upon disability or death, a pro-rata portion of any annual bonus he would have earned for the year of termination, based on our actual performance in respect of the full fiscal year in whicb the date of termination occurs, and the prior fiscal year's annual cash bonus if earned but not then paid, payable as if Mr. Maselli's employment had not been terminated.

Should Mr. Maselli's employment terminate due to death, his beneficiaries (i) will receive a death benefit equal to 1.5 times his base salary under a group life insurance program we provide that covers all eligible active U.S.-based employees, and (ii) will be entitled to accelerated vesting of all unvested grants under the Omnibus Plans. If his employment is terminated due to disability, all unvested grants under the Omnibus Plans will continue to vest as if he had continued employment through each applicable anniversary of the grant date.

Under his employment agreement, upon any termination for good reason or due to his election not to extend the term, Mr. Maselli receives certain accrued amounts and benefits and a pro-rata portion of any annual bonus he would have earned for the year of termination, and the prior fiscal year's annual cash bonus if earned but not then paid, payable as if Mr. Maselli's employment had not been terminated.

The employment agreement further provides that upon termination by us without cause, or by Mr. Maselli for good reason, or due to our election not to extend the term, subject to a release of claims, he will also be entitled to receive an amount equal to two times the sum of (x) his annualized base salary and (y) his annual target bonus, payable in equal monthly installments over a two-year period; provided, however, that, if such termination occurs within the two-year period following a change in control, such payment will instead be made in a single lump-sum payment within thirty days following termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, our obligation to make such payments will cease in the event of an uncured material breach by Mr. Maselli of the restrictive covenants contained in the employment agreement.

In addition to the payments described above, if Mr. Maselli's employment is terminated by us without cause, by Mr. Maselli for good reason, or due to our election not to extend the term, Mr. Maselli (and his spouse and eligible dependents, to the extent covered prior to such termination) will also be entitled to continued participation in our group health plans for up to two years.

For grants under the Omnibus Plans, if Mr. Maselli incurred a termination, other than for death, disability, or a change of control that occurs during the period commencing on the date of the consummation of a change of control and ending on the date that is eighteen months following the consummation of such change of control, we could cancel any unvested option, RSU, or PSU. Any vested option will remain outstanding and exercisable generally for 90 days, and vested options will terminate immediately if we terminate Mr. Maselli's employment for cause. Any vested option that he does not exercise within the applicable post-termination exercise period will terminate.

MR. GREISCH'S SEVERANCE, TERMINATION, AND CHANGE OF CONTROL BENEFITS

Mr. Greisch's employment agreement, the Omnibus Plans, and the grant agreements thereunder each provide for certain benefits to be paid to him upon termination.

If Mr. Greisch is terminated by the Company for Cause, or if he resigns without Good Reason, or in the event of his death or Disability, in each case, he (or his estate, as the case may be) shall be entitled to receive: (A) accrued, but unpaid base salary; (B) reimbursement, for any unreimbursed business expense properly incurred; and (C) all amounts and benefits due to Mr. Greisch under the applicable terms of any applicable plan, program, agreement, or arrangement of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Upon Mr. Greisch's termination due to death or disability, he or his estate (as the case may be) will be entitled to receive these

If Mr. Greisch is terminated by the Company without Cause (other than by reason of death or disability) or by his Retirement or resignation for Good Reason, in addition to the above accrued rights, he will be entitled to receive (A) a pro rata portion of his annual bonus, if any, that he would have been entitled to receive for the bonus year during which the date of termination occurs based on the Company's actual performance in respect of such bonus year, assuming he was employed for such full bonus year, (B) continued vesting of his stock options and PSUs, to the extent not then vested or previously forfeited or cancelled, as if he had continued employment through the original vesting date(s), and with respect to the stock options, he may exercise any vested option for a period ending on the later of (i) the third anniversary of each original vesting date or (ii) the termination date, and (C) if he is terminated by the Company without Cause or resigns for Good Reason within 18 months following a Change in Control (as defined in the Omnibus Plans), in lieu of, and not in addition to, payment under (A) and (B) above, (i) a single lump sum payment of cash severance in an amount equal to 1.5 times the sum of his then base salary plus target bonus for the remaining portion of the employment term and (II) Change in Control vesting for his equity awards.

SEVERANCE, TERMINATION, AND CHANGE OF CONTROL BENEFITS FOR MESSRS. MASANOVICH, HOPSON, MCERLANE AND MS. EVOLI

The severance and equity grant agreements with each of Messrs. Masanovich, Hopson, Mcerlane and Ms. Evoli, as well as the Omnibus Plans and the grant agreements thereunder, provide for benefits in the event of certain events of termination.

Under the Omnibus Plans, any unvested equity-based grant would become fully vested and exercisable in the event of termination due to death; however, if termination was due to disability, unvested equity-based awards would continue to vest as if the executive had continued employment through each applicable anniversary of the date of grant. Under the Omnibus Plans, in the event of a change in control, to the extent the acquiring or successor entity does assume, continue, or substitute for a grants option, if the NEO were to incur a termination without cause during the eighteen months following the consummation of such change in control, the then-outstanding equity awards thereunder would become fully vested and exercisable. Other than in the cases of change of control, death, or disability, a termination will result in the cancellation of unvested equity-based awards under the Omnibus Plans held by any of the NEOs.

Our group life insurance program, which covers all eligible active U.S.-based employees, provides for a death benefit equal to 1.5 times current base salary (currently, the benefit would pay a total of $1,200,000 (with respect to Mr. Masanovich) $637,500 (with respect to Mr. Hopson), $750,000 (with respect to Ms. Evoli), and $787,500 (with respect to Mr. McErlane)).

Under our standard severance arrangement entered into with each of Messrs. Masanovich, McErlane and Ms. Evoli, in the event of death or disability, a termination by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason within 18 months following a change in control, the executive would be entitled to increased cash severance equal to two times the sum of annual base salary plus target annual bonus, payable in equal installments over the one-year period following the date of termination, subject to entering into a release of claims and certain other terms and conditions. Mr. Hopson would be entitled to increased cash severance equal to one-and-a-half times the sum of his annual base salary plus target annual bonus, payable in equal installments over the one-year period following the date of termination, subject to entering into a release of claims and certain other terms and conditions. In addition, the severance agreements provide that if any of the payments provided for under such severance agreement or otherwise payable to the individual would constitute "parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and would be subject to the related excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then such individual will be entitled to receive either full payment of benefits or such lesser amount that would result in no portion of the benefits being subject to the excise tax, whichever results in the greater amount of after-tax benefits to such individual.

Pay Ratio

Presented below is the ratio of annual total compensation in fiscal 2024 of our CEO to the annual total compensation of our median employee (excluding our CEO). We believe the ratio presented below is a reasonable estimate calculated in a manner consistent with the rules set forth in Item 402(u) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Exchange Act (the "Pay Ratio Rules").

In identifying our median employee, we calculated the annual total cash compensation for fiscal 2024 of each employee as of June 30, 2024. For these purposes, annual total cash compensation included base salary or hourly wages, cash incentives, commissions, and comparable cash elements of compensation in non-U.S. jurisdictions and was calculated using internal human resources records. All amounts were annualized for permanent employees who did not work for the entire year, such as new hires, employees on paid or unpaid leave of absence and employees called for active military duty. We did not apply any cost-of-living adjustment as part of the calculation.

We selected the median employee from among 16,130 full-time and part-time workers who were employed as of June 30, 2024. We did not exclude any employee (whether pursuant to the de minimis exemption for foreign employees or any other permitted exclusion).

In accordance with the Pay Ratio Rules, we calculated the median employee's annual total compensation in the same manner as the CEO's annual total compensation was calculated in the Fiscal 2024 Summary Compensation Table on page 31. The median employee's annual total compensation was $61,247. The CEO's annual total compensation was $9,985,363, the amount reported in the "Total" column of the Summary Compensation Table. Accordingly, the ratio of our CEO's total compensation to our median employee's total compensation for fiscal 2024 was 163.0 to 1.

In considering this pay ratio, please note that the Pay Ratio Rules permit companies to calculate pay ratios using a variety of methods, both in determining the median employee and in determining the compensation to be used in calculating the ratio. Thus, our ratio may not be comparable to the ratio determined by any other company.

Director Compensation

We provide competitive compensation to our non-employee directors to attract and retain qualified individuals. The principal elements of our non-employee director compensation are an annual cash retainer; an annual equity award of RSUs, each of which represents the right to receive one share of our common stock; and additional cash fees for our Lead Independent Director, Committee Chairs (other than the Strategic and Operational Review Committee (the "Strategic Committee")), Audit Committee members, and Strategic Committee members. In addition, non-employee directors are reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Mr. Maselli, our CEO, did not receive additional compensation for his service as a director during fiscal 2024. Mr. Greisch received compensation as a non-employee director in fiscal 2024 until his election as Executive Chair, at which point he ceased being eligible for such compensation.

The Compensation Committee biennially reviews and considers information from its independent compensation consultant regarding the amounts and type of compensation paid to our non-employee directors at companies within the same Comparison Group (as defined in the CD&A above under the heading "The Use of Market Data in Determining Compensation") used by the committee to assess executive compensation.

| Cash Retainer | Equity Award | Committee Fees | Deferred Compensation |
| Annual $100,000 cash retainer, with an additional $45,000 retainer for the Lead Independent Director. | Annual RSU grant with a grant date fair market value of $275,000, vesting on the first anniversary of the grant date (subject to continued service) or upon a change of control. | Annual cash fees to the Chair and each member of the Audit Committee of $25,000 and $10,000, respectively. Annual cash fees to each member of the Strategic Committee of $5,000.Annual cash fees to the Chair of the Compensation Committee of $12,500 and $10,000 to the Chairs of each of the Nominating and Quality and Regulatory Compliance Committees. | Directors may elect to defer any portion of their cash fees or RSUs on a pre-tax basis under our Deferred Compensation Plan.The terms of the plan are described in the executive compensation section above. |

Matching Gift Program

Our directors may also participate in the Catalent Cares matching gift program, which matches on a 1-to-1 basis personal charitable donations made by our employees and non-employee directors to eligible nonprofit organizations, subject to a yearly maximum of USD 2,000. The matching gift program yearly cycle runs through Catalent's fiscal year from July 1 through June 30.

Director Stock Ownership Policy

Each of our non-employee directors is required to own stock in an amount equal to five times the annual cash retainer. For purposes of this requirement, a director's holdings include shares held directly or indirectly, individually or jointly, and shares held under a deferral or similar plan. Each non-employee director is required to retain 100% of the shares received upon settlement of vested RSUs (net of shares used to satisfy applicable tax withholding obligation, if any) until the ownership level is met. All of our non-employee directors complied with the retention provisions of this policy throughout fiscal 2024 and through the date of this Annual Report.

For fiscal 2024, our non-employee directors received the amounts shown in the schedule below. All cash fees were paid on a quarterly basis, in arrears.

In addition, Mr. Greisch received compensation as a non-employee director in fiscal 2024 until his election as Executive Chair, at which point he ceased being eligible for such compensation.

(2) Represents the aggregate grant date fair market value of stock awards for fiscal 2024, computed in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification ("FASB ASC") Topic 718, using the assumptions discussed in Note 14, "Stock-Based Compensation," to the consolidated financial statements included in the 2024 Annual Report. The number of unvested RSUs as of June 30, 2024 was as follows: Messrs. Barber, Classon, Lucier, Morel, and Stahl had 6,993, Mr. D'Amelio, and Mses. Okey and Ryan had 7,972, Mr. Carroll had 7,548, and Mr. Barg had 7,711

(4) Mr. Greisch elected to defer 100% of his annual cash retainers for calendar 2023 under the Deferred Compensation Plan. Mr. Classon elected to defer 50% of his annual cash retainer for calendar 2023 and 2024 under the Deferred Compensation Plan.

(5) The vesting of Mr. Greisch's annual RSU award made to Mr. Greisch on October 27, 2022 was reduced by $45,284 through a cancellation/forfeiture of awarded RSUs on August 27, 2023 due to his appointment as Executive Chair of the Company on August 28, 2023, at which time he became ineligible to receive compensation pursuant to the Company's non-employee director compensation plan.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The individuals that served as a member of the Compensation Committee during fiscal 2024 were Gregory T. Lucier, Michael J. Barber, J. Martin Carroll, Rolf Classon, Frank D'Amelio and Stephanie Okey. In addition, each of Donald E. Morel, Jr., Madhavan Balachandran and Rosemary A. Crane served on the Compensation Committee until their retirement from the board at the 2023 Annual Meeting held in January 2024. During fiscal 2024, no member of our Compensation Committee was an employee or officer or former officer of Catalent or had any relationship requiring disclosure under Item 404 of Regulation S-K. None of our executive officers has served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other entity that has or has had one or more executive officers who served as a member of our Board or our Compensation Committee during fiscal 2024.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

For a discussion of these measures and how they reconcile to our results reported under U.S. GAAP, please see the heading "Non-GAAP Metrics" under Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition of our 2024 Annual Report, as well as the following:

Use of Constant Currency, Budget-Based Revenue, and Budget-Based EBITDA

When we set the financial goals that we use to operate the business, including the goals that our executives must meet to qualify for our fiscal 2021 performance-based incentive compensation, and when we determine whether those goals have been met, we use, among other metrics, revenue and Adjusted EBITDA computed using the currency exchange rates that we use internally in budgeting and in measuring performance against budget, in part because we believe that the compensation of our executives should not be affected, to the extent practicable, by factors beyond those executives' control. We refer in this Annual Report to revenue and Adjusted EBITDA computed on this type of constant-currency basis as "Budget-Based Revenue" and "Budget-Based EBITDA," respectively.

Results on a constant-currency basis, Budget-Based Revenue, and Budget-Based EBITDA should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, results reported in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Results on a constant-currency basis, Budget-Based Revenue, and Budget-Based EBITDA, as we present them, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies and are not measures of performance presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

The reconciliation of net earnings to Adjusted EBITDA also includes a reconciliation to Budget-Based EBITDA. The reconciliation of fiscal 2024 consolidated net revenue reported in accordance with U.S. GAAP to net revenue at budgeted foreign exchange rates is as follows (in millions of U.S. dollars):

For the fiscal years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the weighted average was 182 million and 181 million, respectively.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

Securities Owned by Certain Beneficial Owners, Directors, and Management

A person has beneficial ownership of shares if the person has voting or investment power over the shares or the right to acquire such power within 60 days. Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table provides certain information as of June 30, 2024 regarding our equity compensation plans.

| Plan category | (a) Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights | (b) Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights | (c) Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a)) |
| Equity compensation plans approved by security holders[1] | 4,089,106[2] | $ 64.81[3] | 13,064,566 |
| Employee Stock Purchase Plan approved by security holders[4] | — | — | 2,998,950 |

(1) The amounts set forth in this row relate to grants under (a) our 2014 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the "2014 Omnibus Plan"), which was approved by a majority shareholder prior to our IPO, and (b) our 2018 Omnibus Plan together with the 2014 Omnibus Plan, the "Omnibus Plans"), which was approved by our shareholders at the 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. No additional award will be issued under the 2014 Omnibus Plan, but the shares that otherwise would have been available for issuance thereunder are available for issuance under the 2018 Omnibus Plan. Under the terms of the 2018 Omnibus Plan, each issued RSU and PSU reduces the amount remaining available by 2.25 shares for awards granted prior to July 1, 2023 and 1.7 shares for awards granted on or after July 1, 2023, which is reflected in the amount reported in column (c) above, as well as incremental shares underlying PSUs representing performance at maximum above the respective targets. If we took into consideration the terms of the Novo Holdings merger agreement, the incremental shares underlying PSUs would represent the fiscal year 2023-2025 PSUs at target performance and the fiscal year 2025-2026 PSUs at maximum performance, resulting in 13,657,302 number of securities remaining available for future issuance under our equity compensation plans. Also included in column c above, is an additional 7,625,000 shares which were approved and made available for issuance under the 2018 Omnibus Plan at January 25, 2024 shareholder meeting.

(2) The amount shown includes 150,295 vested RSUs and PSUs that have been deferred under our Deferred Compensation Plan (described below), and (b) 741,903 Adjusted EPS PSUs and Relative Return PSUs at target (each as described in the CD&A), which may increase by up to an additional 449,123 shares (not included in the number above) representing the number of shares above target if the maximum performance thresholds are met.

(3) The weighted-average exercise price shown above reflects stock options only and does not take into account outstanding RSUs or PSUs as these forms of equity securities by their nature have no exercise price.

(4) The amount set forth in this row relates to our 2019 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP) and reflects shares purchased through the end of the purchase period that ended on March 31, 2024. The plan was suspended after the March 31, 2024 offering period through the date the Novo Holdings transaction is consummated. There were no future offering periods for the remainder of fiscal 2024. Upon the consummation of the Novo Holdings transaction, the ESPP will be terminated.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Transactions with Related Persons

Our Board has adopted a written policy regarding the review, approval, and ratification of transactions with related persons. This policy provides that a related person must promptly disclose to our Board any related person transaction. No related person transaction will be executed without the approval or ratification of our Board or the Audit Committee. It is our policy that directors interested in a related person transaction will recuse themselves from any vote on a related person transaction in which they have an interest if the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and a "related person" has a direct or indirect material interest. In general, "related persons" are our directors and executive officers, shareholders beneficially owning more than 5% of our outstanding stock, and their immediate family members. We refer to such a transaction as a "related person transaction."

During fiscal 2024 we did not enter into or have outstanding any reportable related person transaction, nor is any related person transaction currently proposed, in which any of our directors, CEO, or executive officers has a direct or indirect material interest.

Director Independence

Our Governance Guidelines define an "independent" director in accordance with Section 303A.02 of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual. In addition, members of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee are subject to the additional independence requirements of applicable SEC rules and NYSE listing standards. Under our Governance Guidelines and the NYSE listing standards, a director is not independent if the director has or had certain specified relationships with us. As part of its process to approve for nomination the current slate of nominees, our Board determined that each of our director nominees is independent for purposes of our Governance Guidelines, applicable NYSE standards, and applicable SEC rules, including with respect to committee service, other than Mr. Maselli, who is also our CEO, and Mr. Greisch, who is our Executive Chair.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

On February 27, 2024, the Audit Committee approved the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's new independent registered public accounting firm, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024. The following table presents the fees for professional services rendered by Grant Thornton LLP for the audit of our annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024, and the fees billed for other services rendered by Grant Thornton LLP during that period.

| Audit-Related Fees | — |
| Tax Fees | — |

(1) Includes fees associated with the integrated audit of our annual consolidated financial statements and internal control over financial reporting, review of our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and other services that are normally provided by the independent registered public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

(2) Grant Thornton did not provide any "other services" during the last fiscal year.

All of the services covered under the captions "Audit Fees," "Audit-Related Fees," and "Tax Fees" were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services

Consistent with requirements of the SEC and the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee charter provides that the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation for, and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. Accordingly, all audit and permitted non-audit services for which Grant Thornton LLP was engaged were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Prior to engagement of the independent auditor for 2025, management will submit for Audit Committee approval a list of services and related fees expected to be rendered in 2025 within each of the following categories of services:

- Audit services include audit work performed on the financial statements and internal control over financial reporting, as well as work that generally only the independent auditor can reasonably be expected to provide, including comfort letters, statutory audits, and discussions surrounding the proper application of financial accounting and/or reporting standards.
- Audit-Related services are for assurance and related services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor, including due diligence related to mergers and acquisitions, employee benefit plan audits, and special procedures required to meet certain regulatory requirements.
- Tax services include all services, except those services specifically related to the financial statements, performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel, including tax analysis; assisting with coordination of execution of tax-related activities, primarily in the area of corporate development; supporting other tax-related regulatory requirements; tax planning; and tax compliance and reporting.
- All Other services are those services not captured in the audit, audit-related or tax categories.

Subject: Indirect Stock Transfer Involving License No. PH04179

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are writing to provide notice of an upcoming indirect stock transfer involving Catalent Pharma Solutions, LLC, which holds a [non-resident] pharmacy license issued by your office ("CPS LLC"). The CPS LLC pharmacy does business under the name "Catalent Pharmacy Services (PHL)".

Catalent, Inc., a publicly traded corporation, is currently the ultimate parent owner of CPS LLC, which is positioned three levels below Catalent, Inc. in the corporate ownership structure. Pursuant to a merger agreement executed on February 5, 2024, 100% of the equity in Catalent, Inc. is expected to be obtained by Creek Parent, Inc., a subsidiary of Novo Holdings A/S. Following closing of the transaction, Novo Holdings A/S will be the new ultimate parent owner of CPS LLC and Novo Holdings A/S will be positioned six levels above Catalent, Inc. and nine levels above CPS LLC in the new corporate ownership structure. The transaction is currently expected to close at or around the end of November 2024, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

Importantly, the anticipated transaction will not change CPS LLC's Pharmacist-In-Charge, EIN, "doing business as" name, or address, or CPS LLC's day-to-day pharmacy operations. All parties to the transaction maintain a strong commitment to continued quality assurance and regulatory compliance in the operation of the licensed pharmacy.

Consistent with applicable requirements, attached is the completed license application(s) relating to the anticipated transaction, along with any required supporting document(s), in accordance with applicable rules. We also will notify you in the event the transaction is delayed beyond the anticipated closing date (as reflected in the application) or if there is a significant change to the transaction structure outlined above. Please see attached Organization Chart reflecting the pre- and post-closing structure.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours sincerely,

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Kening Xu ("Mr. Xu") is a resident of Los Angeles County, California.

2. Defendant Charles Chunhua Huang ("Mr. Huang") is a resident of Los Angeles County, California.

VENUE

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to section 395(a) of the Code of Civil Procedure because the defendant resides in Los Angeles County, California.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4. Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang have known each other for over 20 years. Beginning in 2017, they worked together in a series of business ventures, such as a paper pallet project, the potential public listing of a pharmaceutical company, a hemp production and processing facility in Nevada, and the potential public listing of a burial business, to name a few. None succeeded.

5. Following the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic in early 2020, Mr. Huang and Mr. Xu, joined by Daniel Elliott, Robert Kasprzak, and Vincent Luo, started pursuing the sales of COVID-19-related products, COVID test kits in particular, to various government agencies.

6. Together, those five co-venturers worked for profit without pay. Mr. Huang used Innova Medical Group, Inc. ("Innova"), a company he incorporated in Nevada in March 2020, as the business entity interfacing with government agencies on behalf of the joint venture. Innova was treated by Mr. Huang as a wholly owned subsidiary of Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("Pasaca"), another company Mr. Huang incorporated in Nevada in December 2016. The other co-venturers worked on the mutual understanding that if the joint venture succeeded, their interests in the joint venture would be embodied in whichever business entity to which the interest of the joint venture would be ultimately transferred.

7. In response to the increased workload of the joint venture, Mr. Huang suggested that Mr. Xu move to Arcadia/Pasadena, California. Mr. Huang represented to Mr. Xu that Mr. Xu would receive "at least 5%" of the interest in the joint venture.

8. In mid-June 2020, Mr. Xu moved his family from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Arcadia, California and took charge of the joint venture's day-to-day operations in a newly-rented facility in Monrovia, California. Mr. Xu also advanced substantial operational expenses for the joint venture.

9. Together, the co-venturers worked alongside each other day and night. Eventually, their efforts paid off. One particular test kit Innova promoted was on the verge of being selected by the U.K. government. Prior to the deal closing, the U.K. government required proof of an appropriate insurance policy. In or around September, 2020, Mr. Xu negotiated with an insurance company regarding the purchase of a policy that met the U.K. government's requirements and purchased the policy with his own money, thus clearing the final hurdle to closing the deal.

10. In or around September 2020, the UK government signed the first contract with Innova for over $124 million, and then second contract for over $595 million the next month. Many more followed. On information and belief, the U.K. government contracts generated a total of over $6 billion in revenue (over $2 billion in gross profit).

11. After Pasaca achieved substantial commercial success through the co-venturers' efforts, however, Mr. Huang failed to convene any meeting of the co-venturers to determine their respective shares of stocks in Pasaca. Nor did he discuss or negotiate with the other four co-venturers about the appropriate number of shares they deserved. Instead, Mr. Huang treated Pasaca as if it were his own personal property and unilaterally allocated shares to the other co-venturers without any discussion.

12. As a result, Mr. Xu, as well as the other co-venturers, received far fewer shares than they deserved. On information and belief, in contrast, Mr. Huang awarded himself, certain individuals related to him, and Pasaca Capital, LLC (a company owned and controlled by him) more than 50% of Pasaca shares. On information and belief, many newcomers to Pasaca also received more shares than Mr. Xu did.

13. Having awarded himself the controlling interest in Pasaca, Mr. Huang unilaterally made numerous reckless investments with Pasaca's funds. For instance, Mr. Huang spent $6 million to acquire a company that made personal protective equipment (PPE), and an additional $7-8 million on 60 production lines and $3-4 million on materials, only to put the company out of operation in less than one year. Mr. Huang also spent $50 million investing in a company that made natural sweeteners, which so far has returned nothing. The total amount of losses arising out of Mr. Huang's reckless investments is staggering. Mr. Huang made these and other investment decisions without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

14. Moreover, Mr. Huang also caused Pasaca to enter into business transactions with business entities affiliated with him without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

15. On or around December 1, 2022, Mr. Xu, through his counsel, sent a letter to Mr. Huang addressing these issues in the hope of resolving them without resorting to litigation.

16. On or around January 5, 2023, Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang reached an oral agreement to resolve these disputes. Mr. Huang agreed, among other things, that Mr. Xu would receive 5% of Pasaca shares and all past dividends those shares would have received. Mr. Huang also agreed to a $10 million initial payment to Mr. Xu. In exchange, Mr. Xu agreed, among other things, that he would not file suit once the initial payment was made. Both parties memorialized and exchanged their understanding of the agreement in writing, which was generally aligned with the terms agreed upon orally, with the understanding that they would execute a full written settlement agreement later.

17. Mr. Huang later turned to his attorneys for the preparation of the first draft of the written settlement agreement. Mr. Xu and his attorney followed up diligently but were repeatedly told that the draft was delayed for one reason or another. Most recently, on or around February 21, 2023, Mr. Huang told Mr. Xu in a WeChat message that the delay was due to some extra due diligence on the proper tax treatment of all Pasaca shares, including the 5% shares Mr. Xu was to receive.

18. On or around February 28, 2023, Mr. Huang's attorney finally forwarded a draft settlement agreement, which vastly departed from the terms agreed upon by the parties before. The draft made no mention of the 5% Pasaca shares to Mr. Xu or the past dividends on those shares; it offered only a payment of $2.2 million to Mr. Xu. Mr. Xu's demand for explanations went unanswered.

19. Being left with no other choice, Mr. Xu now brings this action to seek his fair share of the joint venture and to hold Mr. Huang responsible for his mismanagement and misappropriation of the joint venture's properties.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Joint Venture Agreement

20. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 19 as if fully set forth herein.

21. Under California law, a joint venture "is an undertaking by two or more persons jointly to carry out a single business enterprise for profit." Nelson v. Abraham (1947) 29 Cal.2d 745, 749.

22. Following the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic in early 2020, Mr. Huang, Mr. Xu, Daniel Elliott, Robert Kasprzak, and Vincent Luo formed a joint venture for profit and started pursuing the sales of COVID-19-related products, COVID test kits in particular, to various government agencies.

23. There was no agreement regarding the specific distribution of ownership interest among those five co-venturers. Under Arnold v. Humphreys (1934) 138 Cal. App. 637, 643 ("In the absence of evidence of an agreement to the contrary, the members of a joint adventure will participate equally in the profits and losses of the enterprise."), each co-venturer, Mr. Xu included, is entitled to an equal share —20%—of this joint venture under California law.

24. Mr. Xu has provided all, or substantially all, of the services and money required of him for fulfillment of the purpose of the joint venture agreement.

25. After Pasaca/Innova achieved substantial commercial success, Mr. Huang failed to cause Pasaca shares to be distributed among the co-venturers either by agreement or equally as provided by law. As a result, Mr. Huang breached the joint venture agreement.

26. As a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the joint venture agreement, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount according to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $400,000,000. Mr. Huang's breach of the joint venture agreement is a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Fiduciary Duties

27. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 26 as if fully set forth herein.

28. As a co-venturer, Mr. Huang owes fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to Mr. Xu, as well as the other co-venturers, in the business dealings related to the joint venture.

29. Mr. Huang breached his fiduciary duty of care by failing to act as a reasonably careful co-venturer, including by making numerous reckless investments with the joint venture's funds without proper due diligence and without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

30. Mr. Huang also breached his fiduciary duty of loyalty by making business deals on behalf of Pasaca with business entities affiliated with him without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

31. Mr. Xu was harmed by Mr. Huang's breach of fiduciary duties. Mr. Huang's conduct was a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Settlement Agreement

32. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 31 as if fully set forth herein.

33. On or around January 5, 2023, Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang reached an oral agreement to settle then-existing claims between the parties.

34. Mr. Huang has materially breached the parties' oral settlement agreement.

35. Until Mr. Huang's material breach, Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the terms, conditions, covenants, and promises required of him under the oral settlement agreement.

36. Accordingly, as a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the settlement agreement, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $100 million.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

37. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 36 as if fully set forth herein.

38. Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the services and money required of him for fulfillment of the purpose of the joint venture agreement.

39. Until Mr. Huang's material breach of the parties' oral settlement agreement, Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the terms, conditions, covenants, and promises required of him under the agreement.

40. Each agreement contains an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

41. At least by distributing Pasaca shares unfairly, Mr. Huang breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing under the joint venture agreement.

42. At least by materially breaching the oral settlement agreement without explanation, Mr. Huang breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing under the oral settlement agreement.

43. As a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount according to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $400,000,000. Mr. Huang's breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Fraud

44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 43 as if fully set forth herein.

45. In or around early 2020, Mr. Huang made representations and promises to Mr. Xu, that Mr. Xu would receive "at least 5%" of the interest in the joint venture and that the co-venturers would receive their fair share if the joint venture was eventually successful.

46. On information and belief, at the time Mr. Huang made these representations and promises, he had no intention to cause Mr. Xu to receive "at least 5%" or a fair share in the joint venture, or the business entity to which the interest of the joint venture would be ultimately transferred. If Mr. Huang had disclosed his true intention to Mr. Xu, Mr. Xu would not have been involved in the joint venture in the manner he did.

47. Moreover, in or around January 2023, to delay Mr. Xu's filing of this lawsuit, Mr. Huang made representations and promises to Mr. Xu that Mr. Xu would receive 5% of Pasaca shares as well as all past dividends for those shares and that Mr. Huang would make a $10 million initial payment to him.

48. On information and belief, at the time Mr. Huang made these representations and promises, he had no intention of cause the 5% Pasaca shares to be distributed to Mr. Xu, and the past dividends and the $10 million paid to Mr. Xu. Had Mr. Huang disclosed his true intention to Mr. Xu, Mr. Xu would not have delayed the filing of this lawsuit or entered into the oral settlement agreement with Mr. Huang.

49. Mr. Xu reasonably relied on Mr. Huang's representations and promises.

50. Mr. Xu was harmed by his reliance on Mr. Huang's representations and promises in an amount subject to proof at trial but estimated at no less than $400 million.

51. Mr. Huang's misrepresentations, promises, and omission to Mr. Xu were a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu the harm.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Accounting

52. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

53. On information and belief, Mr. Huang caused Pasaca shares to be distributed unfairly and Pasaca to suffer financial losses.

54. Mr. Xu does not have sufficient information about the distribution of Pasaca shares and details of Pasaca investments and transactions, while Mr. Huang has complete access to those records. In or around December, 2022, Mr. Xu demanded to inspect Pasaca's books and records, but Mr. Huang failed to respond to Mr. Xu's request.

55. Mr. Xu is entitled, therefore, to damages as herein alleged in a sum that is unknown to him at present and cannot be ascertained without an accounting. Mr. Xu is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the sum exceeds $400,000,000.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Kening Xu respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor and order the following relief:

1. For compensatory and consequential damages in an amount according to proof but in no event less than $400,000,000;

2. For punitive and exemplary damages according to proof;

3. For an accounting of Pasaca Capital, Inc. and all of its subsidiaries.

4. For any and all recoverable costs, including attorney's fees;

5. For legal interest;

6. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Dated: March 10, 2023

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE

THE PLAINTIFF MUST SERVE THIS ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE ON EACH PARTY WITH THE COMPLAINT.

CROSS-COMPLAINANTS must serve this ADR Information Package on any new parties named to the action with the cross-complaint.

What is ADR?

ADR helps people find solutions to their legal disputes without going to trial. The main types of ADR are negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and settlement conferences. When ADR is done by phone, videoconference or computer, it may be called Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). These alternatives to litigation and trial are described below.

Advantages of ADR

- Saves Time: ADR is faster than going to trial.
- Saves Money: Parties can save on court costs, attorney's fees, and witness fees.
- Keeps Control (with the parties): Parties choose their ADR process and provider for voluntary ADR.
- Reduces Stress/Protects Privacy: ADR is done outside the courtroom, in private offices, by phone or online.

Disadvantages of ADR

- Costs: If the parties do not resolve their dispute, they may have to pay for ADR, litigation, and trial.
- No Public Trial: ADR does not provide a public trial or a decision by a judge or jury.

Main Types of ADR

1. Negotiation: Parties often talk with each other in person, or by phone or online about resolving their case with a settlement agreement instead of a trial. If the parties have lawyers, they will negotiate for their clients.

2. Mediation: In mediation, a neutral mediator listens to each person's concerns, helps them evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their case, and works with them to try to create a settlement agreement that is acceptable to all. Mediators do not decide the outcome. Parties may go to trial if they decide not to settle.

Mediation may be appropriate when the parties

- want to work out a solution but need help from a neutral person.
- have communication problems or strong emotions that interfere with resolution.

Mediation may not be appropriate when the parties

- want a public trial and want a judge or jury to decide the outcome.
- lack equal bargaining power or have a history of physical/emotional abuse.

How to Arrange Mediation in Los Angeles County

Mediation for civil cases is voluntary and parties may select any mediator they wish. Options include:

a. The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List
If all parties in an active civil case agree to mediation, they may contact these organizations to request a "Resource List Mediation" for mediation at reduced cost or no cost (for selected cases).

- ADR Services, Inc. Case Manager Elizabeth Sanchez, elizabeth@adrservices.com (949) 863-9800
- Mediation Center of Los Angeles Program Manager info@mediationLA.org (833) 476-9145

These organizations cannot accept every case and they may decline cases at their discretion. They may offer online mediation by video conference for cases they accept. Before contacting these organizations, review important information and FAQs at www.lacourt.org/ADR.Res.List

NOTE: The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List program does not accept family law, probate or small claims cases.

b. Los Angeles County Dispute Resolution Programs
https://hrc.lacounty.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/DRP-Fact-Sheet-23October19-Current-as-of-October-2019-1.pdf

Day of trial mediation programs have been paused until further notice.

Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). Parties in small claims and unlawful detainer (eviction) cases should carefully review the Notice and other information they may receive about (ODR) requirements for their case.

c. Mediators and ADR and Bar organizations that provide mediation may be found on the internet.

3. Arbitration: Arbitration is less formal than trial, but like trial, the parties present evidence and arguments to the person who decides the outcome. In "binding" arbitration, the arbitrator's decision is final; there is no right to trial. In "nonbinding" arbitration, any party can request a trial after the arbitrator's decision. For more information about arbitration, visit http://www.courts.ca.gov/programs-adr.htm

4. Mandatory Settlement Conferences (MSC): MSCs are ordered by the Court and are often held close to the trial date or on the day of trial. The parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or settlement officer who does not make a decision but who instead assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. For information about the Court's MSC programs for civil cases, visit http://www.lacourt.org/division/civil/C10047.aspx

The Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, Discovery Resolution Stipulation, and Motions in Limine Stipulation are voluntary stipulations entered into by the parties. The parties may enter into one, two, or all three of the stipulations; however, they may not alter the stipulations as written, because the Court wants to ensure uniformity of application. These stipulations are meant to encourage cooperation between the parties and to assist in resolving issues in a manner that promotes economic case resolution and judicial efficiency.

This stipulation is intended to encourage cooperation among the parties at an early stage in the litigation and to assist the parties in efficient case resolution.

The parties agree that:

1. The parties commit to conduct an initial conference (in-person or via teleconference or via videoconference) within 15 days from the date this stipulation is signed, to discuss and consider whether there can be agreement on the following:

   a. Are motions to challenge the pleadings necessary? If the issue can be resolved by amendment as of right, or if the Court would allow leave to amend, could an amended complaint resolve most or all of the issues a demurrer might otherwise raise? If so, the parties agree to work through pleading issues so that a demurrer need only raise issues they cannot resolve. Is the issue that the defendant seeks to raise amenable to resolution on demurrer, or would some other type of motion be preferable? Could a voluntary targeted exchange of documents or information by any party cure an uncertainty in the pleadings?

   b. Initial mutual exchanges of documents at the "core" of the litigation. (For example, in an employment case, the employment records, personnel file and documents relating to the conduct in question could be considered "core." In a personal injury case, an incident or police report, medical records, and repair or maintenance records could be considered "core.");

   c. Exchange of names and contact information of witnesses;

   d. Any insurance agreement that may be available to satisfy part or all of a judgment, or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy a judgment;

   e. Exchange of any other information that might be helpful to facilitate understanding, handling, or resolution of the case in a manner that preserves objections or privileges by agreement;

   f. Controlling issues of law that, if resolved early, will promote efficiency and economy in other phases of the case. Also, when and how such issues can be presented to the Court;

   g. Whether or when the case should be scheduled with a settlement officer, what discovery or court ruling on legal issues is reasonably required to make settlement discussions meaningful, and whether the parties wish to use a sitting judge or a private mediator or other options as discussed in the "Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Package" served with the complaint;

h. Computation of damages, including documents, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based;

i. Whether the case is suitable for the Expedited Jury Trial procedures (see information at www.lacourt.org under "Civil" and then under "General Information").

2. A copy of the General Order can be found at www.lacourt.org under "Civil", click on "General Information", then click on "Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations".

3. The parties will prepare a joint report titled "Joint Status Report Pursuant to Initial Conference and Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, and if desired, a proposed order summarizing results of their meet and confer and advising the Court of any way it may assist the parties' efficient conduct or resolution of the case. The parties shall attach the Joint Status Report to the Case Management Conference statement, and file the documents when the CMC statement is due.

| STIPULATION – DISCOVERY RESOLUTION | | CASE NUMBER: |

This stipulation is intended to provide a fast and informal resolution of discovery issues through limited paperwork and an informal conference with the Court to aid in the resolution of the issues.

The parties agree that:

1. Prior to the discovery cut-off in this action, no discovery motion shall be filed or heard unless the moving party first makes a written request for an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the terms of this stipulation.

2. At the Informal Discovery Conference the Court will consider the dispute presented by parties and determine whether it can be resolved informally. Nothing set forth herein will preclude a party from making a record at the conclusion of an Informal Discovery Conference, either orally or in writing.

3. Following a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue to be presented, a party may request an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the following procedures:

    a. The party requesting the Informal Discovery Conference will:

        i. File a Request for Informal Discovery Conference with the clerk's office on the approved form (copy attached) and deliver a courtesy, conformed copy to the assigned department;

        ii. Include a brief summary of the dispute and specify the relief requested; and

        iii. Serve the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Request for Informal Discovery Conference no later than the next court day following the filing.

    b. Any Answer to a Request for Informal Discovery Conference must:

        i. Also be filed on the approved form (copy attached);

        ii. Include a brief summary of why the requested relief should be denied;

iii. Be filed within two (2) court days of receipt of the Request; and

iv. Be served on the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed upon method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Answer no later than the next court day following the filing.

c. No other pleadings, including but not limited to exhibits, declarations, or attachments, will be accepted.

d. If the Court has not granted or denied the Request for Informal Discovery Conference within ten (10) days following the filing of the Request, then it shall be deemed to have been denied. If the Court acts on the Request, the parties will be notified whether the Request for Informal Discovery Conference has been granted or denied and, if granted, the date and time of the Informal Discovery Conference, which must be within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference.

e. If the conference is not held within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, unless extended by agreement of the parties and the Court, then the Request for the Informal Discovery Conference shall be deemed to have been denied at that time.

4. If (a) the Court has denied a conference or (b) one of the time deadlines above has expired without the Court having acted or (c) the Informal Discovery Conference is concluded without resolving the dispute, then a party may file a discovery motion to address unresolved issues.

5. The parties hereby further agree that the time for making a motion to compel or other discovery motion is tolled from the date of filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference until (a) the request is denied or deemed denied or (b) twenty (20) days after the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, whichever is earlier, unless extended by Order of the Court.

   It is the understanding and intent of the parties that this stipulation shall, for each discovery dispute to which it applies, constitute a writing memorializing a "specific later date to which the propounding [or demanding or requesting] party and the responding party have agreed in writing," within the meaning of Code Civil Procedure sections 2030.300(c), 2031.320(c), and 2033.290(c).

6. Nothing herein will preclude any party from applying ex parte for appropriate relief, including an order shortening time for a motion to be heard concerning discovery.

7. Any party may terminate this stipulation by giving twenty-one (21) days notice of intent to terminate the stipulation.

8. References to "days" mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day.

| General Order ReUse of Voluntary Efficient LitigationStipulations | ORDER PURSUANT TO CCP 1054(a), EXTENDING TIME TO RESPOND BY 30 DAYS WHEN PARTIES AGREE TO EARLY ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING STIPULATION |

Whereas the Los Angeles Superior Court and the Executive Committee of the Litigation Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association have cooperated in drafting "Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations" and in proposing the stipulations for use in general jurisdiction civil litigation in Los Angeles County;

Whereas the Los Angeles County Bar Association Litigation Section; the Los Angeles County Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section; the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles; the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel; the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of Los Angeles; and the California Employment Lawyers Association all "endorse the goal of promoting efficiency in litigation, and ask that counsel consider using these stipulations as a voluntary way to promote communications and procedures among counsel and with the court to fairly resolve issues in their cases;"

Whereas the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to encourage cooperation among the parties at an early stage in litigation in order to achieve litigation efficiencies;

Whereas it is intended that use of the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation will promote economic case resolution and judicial efficiency;

Whereas, in order to promote a meaningful discussion of pleading issues at the Early Organizational Meeting and potentially to reduce the need for motions to challenge the pleadings, it is necessary to allow additional time to conduct the Early Organizational Meeting before the time to respond to a complaint or cross complaint has expired;

Whereas Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a) allows a judge of the court in which an action is pending to extend for not more than 30 days the time to respond to a pleading "upon good cause shown";

Now, therefore, this Court hereby finds that there is good cause to extend for 30 days the time to respond to a complaint or to a cross complaint in any action in which the parties have entered into the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation. This finding of good cause is based on the anticipated judicial efficiency and benefits of economic case resolution that the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to promote.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, in any case in which the parties have entered into an Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, the time for a defending party to respond to a complaint or cross complaint shall be extended by the 30 days permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a) without further need of a specific court order.

| IN RE LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT – MANDATORY ELECTRONIC FILING FOR CIVIL | FIRST AMENDED GENERAL ORDER |

On December 3, 2018, the Los Angeles County Superior Court mandated electronic filing of all documents in Limited Civil cases by litigants represented by attorneys. On January 2, 2019, the Los Angeles County Superior Court mandated electronic filing of all documents filed in Non-Complex Unlimited Civil cases by litigants represented by attorneys. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b).) All electronically filed documents in Limited and Non-Complex Unlimited cases are subject to the following:

c) "Electronic Envelope" A transaction through the electronic service provider for submission of documents to the Court for processing which may contain one or more PDF documents attached.

d) "Electronic Filing" Electronic Filing (eFiling) is the electronic transmission to a Court of a document in electronic form. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.250(b)(7).)

e) "Electronic Filing Service Provider" An Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP) is a person or entity that receives an electronic filing from a party for retransmission to the Court. In the submission of filings, the EFSP does so on behalf of the electronic filer and not as an agent of the Court. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.250(b)(8).)

f) "Electronic Signature" For purposes of these local rules and in conformity with Code of Civil Procedure section 17, subdivision (b)(3), section 34, and section 1010.6, subdivision (b)(2), Government Code section 68150, subdivision (g), and California Rules of Court, rule 2.257, the term "Electronic Signature" is generally defined as an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with an electronic record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the electronic record.

g) "Hyperlink" An electronic link providing direct access from one distinctively marked place in a hypertext or hypermedia document to another in the same or different document.

2) MANDATORY ELECTRONIC FILING

a) Trial Court Records

Pursuant to Government Code section 68150, trial court records may be created, maintained, and preserved in electronic format. Any document that the Court receives electronically must be clerically processed and must satisfy all legal filing requirements in order to be filed as an official court record (California Rules of Court, rules 2.100, et seq. and 2.253(b)(6)).

b) Represented Litigants

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b), represented litigants are required to electronically file documents with the Court through an approved EFSP.

c) Public Notice

The Court has issued a Public Notice with effective dates the Court required parties to electronically file documents through one or more approved EFSPs. Public Notices containing effective dates and the list of EFSPs are available on the Court's website, at www.lacourt.org.

d) Documents in Related Cases

Documents in related cases must be electronically filed in the eFiling portal for that case type if electronic filing has been implemented in that case type, regardless of whether the case has been related to a Civil case.

3) EXEMPT LITIGANTS

a) Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b)(2), self-represented litigants are exempt from mandatory electronic filing requirements.

b) Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6, subdivision (d)(3) and California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b)(4), any party may make application to the Court requesting to be excused from filing documents electronically and be permitted to file documents by conventional means if the party shows undue hardship or significant prejudice.

4) EXEMPT FILINGS

a) The following documents shall not be filed electronically:

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Disruptive Nanotechnology Limited (d/b/a Tried & Tested) ("DNL"), by and through its attorneys, alleges the following against Innova Medical Group, Inc. ("Innova"), Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("Pasaca"), Daniel Elliott ("Elliott"), Robert Kasprzak ("Kasprzak"), and Charles Huang ("Huang"):

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This case concerns a fraud perpetrated against DNL—a digital health diagnostics company based in England—by Innova and Pasaca through two of their former senior officers: Elliott (Innova's former President and Chief Executive Officer, and Pasaca's former President) and Kasprzak (Innova's and Pasaca's former General Counsel and Chief Legal Officer).

2. Founded by Huang in Pasadena, California, Innova describes itself as "a leading provider of COVID-19 testing solutions." Innova is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pasaca, a private equity firm also founded by Huang. Innova and Pasaca operate out of the same office building in Pasadena, California and shared several officers and directors in 2020 and 2021, including Huang, Elliott, and Kasprzak.

3. As a Los Angeles-based company, Innova did not have any experience or infrastructure in the U.K. Presumably recognizing that limitation, in or around early April 2020, Innova contacted DNL in relation to distributing Innova's COVID-19 tests in the U.K. The discussions evolved over the next several months, and DNL and Innova entered into a Commission Agreement on or around August 25, 2020 ("Commission Agreement"). In exchange for DNL's services in introducing and facilitating contracts in the U.K., Innova agreed to pay DNL a 10% commission.

4. Innova profited tremendously from the Commission Agreement, earning billions of dollars on the sale of COVID-19 tests to the U.K. government as a direct result of DNL's services. On September 16, 2020, Innova signed a $138 million deal to provide 18 million tests to the U.K. government. In accordance with the Commission Agreement, Innova paid DNL its 10% commission for this sale on or around October 13, 2020.

5. However, after Innova secured this first U.K. contract, Innova's and Pasaca's executives—Elliott and Kasprzak—began scheming about ways to pocket a piece of DNL's commission for themselves. Over the next several months, Elliott and Kasprzak—purportedly acting on behalf of Innova and Pasaca—demanded that DNL agree to reduce its commission several times to account for its purportedly razor thin margins and to keep the price of the products competitive. Each of these reductions to DNL's commission was memorialized as a purported amendment to the Commission Agreement. Unfortunately, DNL did not know at the time that Elliott and Kasprzak were secretly diverting a significant portion of DNL's commission to Nano Holdings, LLC ("Nano Holdings"), an entity they had formed together for the purpose of keeping part of DNL's commission for their own personal gain.

6. DNL did not discover Elliott and Kasprzak's deceit until it was publicly revealed in an action filed by Innova and Pasaca in Nevada state court.

7. By this point, DNL has been duped into giving up more than $500 million in commissions, $100 million of which, it appears, went directly into the pockets of Elliott and Kasprzak. Based on filings in the Nevada action, it appears that instead of being used to keep the price of Innova's COVID-19 tests competitive, Elliott alone spent tens of millions of dollars to purchase lavish properties, expensive cars, a private jet, and other luxury items.

8. There is no explanation in the Nevada action as to how Innova and Pasaca failed to discover this massive fraud by two of their most senior officers for more than a year. Yet there can be no real question that Innova and Pasaca failed to do even the most basic investigation or diligence into the actions and representations of its senior officers.

9. The revelations in the Nevada action were shocking. DNL had entered into the Commission Agreement with Innova to facilitate the sale of COVID-19 tests to the U.K. in support of Operation Moonshot, a U.K. Government program to introduce same day mass testing for COVID-19 in England as a way of enabling large group gatherings to take place. DNL believed Innova was well positioned to provide these tests in high volume, and it took Elliott and Kasprzak at their words as senior officers and agents of Innova that they would partner with DNL in good faith.

10. If DNL had known that the reductions to its commission called for in the purported amendments to the Commission Agreement were, in fact, a vehicle to finance kickbacks to Elliott and Kasprzak, it never would have agreed to them.

11. Innova and Pasaca are not blameless. Indeed, on information and belief, rather than investing the hundreds of millions in reduced commission that Innova claimed (falsely) would be invested in the business to reduce the price of COVID-19 tests sold to the public, Innova and Pasaca paid Elliott and Kasprzak hundreds of millions in compensation during their short, three-year tenure at the companies and spent lavishly on expensive corporate jets and mansions. Pasaca also invested Innova's profits in new and unrelated business ventures.

12. Though the exact amount of the un- and under-paid commissions (and Defendants' other wrongs) will not be known without further discovery, DNL believes the amount to be in excess of $500 million.

13. Moreover, since Innova, Pasaca, and Huang are all alter egos of each other, they should each be held liable to DNL for the harm alleged herein. On information and belief, Huang routinely disregarded the corporate formalities that separate Innova, Pasaca, and himself, so he could use the revenue DNL generated for Innova to fund his (and Pasaca's) unrelated investments and lavish lifestyle.

THE PARTIES

14. Plaintiff, DNL, is a U.K. private limited company formed and existing under the laws of England and Wales. In response to the demand for prompt and effective testing solutions at the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic, DNL established a new business line called "Tried & Tested" focused on delivering various testing solutions to the U.K. market. From 2020 onwards, DNL worked to facilitate the supply of individual COVID-19 tests and the provision of medical and nursing staff to its corporate customers (including business premises, travel hubs, and event spaces). In the post-pandemic period, DNL has continued to investigate and research methods to detect and reduce pathogens.

15. Defendant Innova is a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada with its principal place of business at 800 East Colorado Boulevard, Suite 288, Pasadena, California 91101. Innova sells COVID-19 rapid antigen tests and is the wholly-owned subsidiary of Pasaca.

16. Defendant Pasaca is a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada with its principal place of business at 800 East Colorado Boulevard, Suite 888, Pasadena, California 91101. Pasaca is a private equity investment firm and is the parent of Innova.

17. On information and belief, Defendant Elliott resides in Arcadia, California. At various times, Elliott was President, Chief Executive Officer, and a director of Innova, and President and a director of Pasaca. On information and belief, Elliott left Innova in or around June 2022.

18. On information and belief, Defendant Kasprzak resides in Spring, Texas. At various times, Kasprzak was in-house counsel, General Counsel, Chief Legal Officer, and a director of Innova and Pasaca. He also served as Innova's interim Chief Executive Officer. Innova and Pasaca terminated Kasprzak in or around September 2022.

19. On information and belief, Defendant Charles Huang resides in Arcadia, California. Defendant Huang is the founder of Innova and Pasaca and, at various times relevant to this litigation, served as Chairman and CFO of Pasaca and as CEO of Innova.

20. There may be other persons or entities, whether individuals, corporations, associations, or otherwise, who participated in or benefited from the conduct described throughout this Complaint. The true names, identities, and capacities of these Doe defendants are unknown to DNL at this time. As such, DNL sues these defendants under fictitious names and will seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint to add their proper names when they become known to DNL.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21. This Court has personal jurisdiction under California Code of Civil Procedure § 410.10 because Defendants are either domiciled in this state, have their principal place of business in this state, or committed the acts or omissions giving rise to the claims herein asserted in this state. For example, as to the acts or omissions giving rise to the claims herein, the purported amendments that Elliott and Kasprzak fraudulently induced DNL into signing were entered into on behalf of Innova and were signed using Innova's address in Pasadena, California.

22. Venue in this judicial district is proper pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 395 et seq. because at least one of the Defendants resides in Los Angeles County, and because the Commission Agreement provides that the venue for any action brought under the agreement "shall be proper only in Los Angeles County, California, USA."

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. DNL and Innova Enter into the Commission Agreement

23. DNL is a U.K. private limited company that was originally founded by Kimberley Thonger ("Thonger") in November 2014 for the purpose of commercial development of new nanotechnologies.

24. In or around April 2020, Thonger was introduced to Innova's then-President and CEO, Elliott, by Clayton Manley ("Manley"). Thonger knew Manley through his interest in the nanotechnology field, and Manley represented that, at the time, he was serving as a distributor for Innova tests in the United States. Elliott asked Thonger if DNL would want to work with Innova to help navigate the procurement process and distribute Innova's COVID-19 tests in the U.K. At the time, the procurement system in the U.K. was playing catchup with the rapidly evolving pandemic.

25. Although DNL did not know anyone in the U.K. government who was coordinating the procurement process, it worked tirelessly to navigate that process as it was then emerging and helped Innova submit the necessary application to the UK Department of Health and Social Care ("DHSC").[1]

26. The DHSC publicly asked for submissions from companies that could manufacture and supply new or existing types of coronavirus tests for antigens or antibodies, which had to meet the requirements set out by the Medicines and Healthcare Products Regulatory Agency

[1] The DHSC is a U.K. government ministerial department which is supported by numerous agencies and public bodies. Throughout the relevant time, there were a number of changes to the U.K. government agencies supporting the DHSC which meant that the bodies responsible for the procurement of COVID-19 tests, together with the processes adopted by those bodies, was regularly changing.

("MHRA"). Specific forms had to be completed to ensure that submissions met U.K. government requirements and could be directed to the appropriate expert group within the MHRA evaluation team.

27. DNL prepared and filed the relevant form on behalf of Innova on or around April 23, 2020, and from then onwards was responsible for managing the procurement process with the DHSC on behalf of Innova. Over the course of several months, DNL navigated the formal requirements relating to procurement (which were being developed by the DHSC on an ongoing basis), including the verification and suitability criteria for tests, the due diligence required in relation to the supply chain, the ability to fulfill the volume of testing requirements anticipated by the U.K. government, and other day-to-day queries arising from the DHSC / MHRA procurement and expert teams.

28. Soon thereafter, Thonger enlisted the help of a business associate, Charles Palmer ("Palmer"), to help him navigate the procurement process, the parameters of which were constantly evolving in response to the health crisis, and to find a potential manufacturing site in the U.K. for Innova's products. Thonger made Palmer a shareholder, director, and equal partner in DNL.

29. Eventually DNL's efforts generated traction within the DHSC, which had hired individuals from the pharmaceutical industry who were better able to understand the potential public benefit to be served by the Innova at-home antibody tests. Working with Innova, primarily with Elliott, DNL submitted Innova's tests to the government procurement portal for mass testing. The Innova antibody test was evaluated but the initial tests did not satisfy the sensitivity threshold. However, Thonger and Palmer had acquired a detailed understanding of the internal processes at the DHSC, and when Innova developed an antigen test in the summer of 2020, Thonger and Palmer were able to work with Innova and the connections they had established within the DHSC to introduce the new antigen tests and explain the benefit they might provide in terms of mass testing.

30. This process took many months and involved the shipment of thousands of samples to DNL, which DNL, in turn, ensured were ultimately delivered to government testing laboratories in the U.K.

31. It was around this time that DNL and Innova formalized an agreement under which DNL would facilitate the sale of Innova test kits to the U.K. government in exchange for a 10% commission. Innova and DNL executed a written agreement to that effect on or around August 25, 2020 (defined above as the "Commission Agreement") and outlined this commission structure under Sections 1 and 2.02 of that Agreement. Specifically:

a. Pursuant to Section 1 of the Commission Agreement, DNL agreed to "assist in introducing [Innova] to Potential Buyers and facilitate, as needed, a sales transaction between [Innova] and the Potential Buyers;" and

b. Pursuant to Section 2.02 of the Commission Agreement, Innova agreed to "pay [DNL] an amount per [rapid antigen test] sold ('Commission') equal to ten percent (10%) of sales price of the [test] paid by a Buyer."

32. On August 25, 2020, DNL and Innova also entered a Subdistribution Agreement, under which Innova appointed DNL "as its exclusive subdistributor for the marketing and sale of the Products" in the U.K.

B. DNL Performs Under the Commission Agreement

33. As a result of DNL's efforts, on or around September 16, 2020, Innova was awarded a $138,240,000 contract by the U.K. government to provide 18 million tests. Although Innova paid DNL the contractually agreed upon commission, Innova would not share with DNL a copy of this contract—or, indeed, of any of the contracts it secured through the Commission Agreement.

C. Innova, Through Its Chief Executive Officer, Induces DNL to Amend the Agreement and Dramatically Reduce its Commission

34. At the same time DNL helped Innova secure its first contract with the U.K. government, Innova's top executives, Elliott and Kasprzak, were busy scheming as to how they could divert funds contractually due to DNL for their own personal gain.

35. In or around October 2020, around two weeks after the first contract with the U.K. government had been awarded, Elliott approached DNL and represented that the market for the sale of COVID-19 tests was becoming increasingly competitive, and that the commission rate Innova had just agreed to pay DNL was no longer sustainable. In order for Innova to remain competitive in the market, Elliott falsely claimed that DNL would need to agree to reduce its commission rate from 10% to 3%.

36. DNL had no basis to question Elliott's representations. DNL was not privy to Innova's contractual terms with the U.K. government, much less Innova's profit margins or operational costs. Moreover, as Innova's President and CEO, Elliott had actual and apparent authority to speak for the company on matters relating to the Commission Agreement.

37. Based on Elliott's representations, DNL agreed to enter into the First Amendment to the Commission Agreement on October 1, 2020 ("Purported First Amendment" and together with other amendments to the Commission Agreement, "Purported Amendments").

38. The Purported First Amendment revised the schedule of commission payments owed to DNL. Innova agreed to pay a 10% commission on an initial 18 million units of product sold to a Buyer (approximately the amount of Innova's sales to date) and a 3% commission on any units above and beyond the initial 18 million. Innova began paying DNL under this reduced commission structure after the parties executed the First Purported Amendment.

D. Elliott and Kasprzak Begin Diverting Monies Obtained From Innova's Contracts with the U.K. for Their Own Gain

39. As DNL has now discovered, Elliott's statements regarding the need to reduce DNL's commission in order to stay competitive in the U.K. market were, at best, only half true.[2] What Elliott failed to disclose was that he intended to divert a portion of the "savings" to a company called Nano Holdings that he formed and jointly owned with Kasprzak. As DNL has

[2] Indeed, although DNL would secure billions in revenue for Innova, on information and belief this money was ultimately spent on hundred-plus million dollar compensation schemes for Elliott and Kasprzak, private jets and lavish homes for Huang, and large investments in unrelated Pasaca business ventures—all of which belies any notion that Innova's margins were so thin that only a reduced commission could keep its prices competitive.

now discovered, while the Purported First Amendment called for a 3% commission payment to DNL, Elliott and Kasprzak represented to other personnel at Innova that the true commission owed to DNL for its work was actually 4%.

40. On or around October 2, 2020, one day after the effective date of what was represented to be the Purported First Amendment, Elliott messaged Innova and Pasaca's founder, Huang, and told him DNL had agreed to accept a 4% commission on test sales moving forward.

> Elliott: So we owe . . . Kim [i.e., Kimberley Thonger of DNL] [] 10% on the initial 18 million unit order. . . .
> . . . Then all future orders are . . . 4% for [DNL]. . . .
>
> Elliott: Is this ok for you?
> Huang: It is fine for me.[3]

41. But Elliott and Kasprzak had no intention of paying DNL a 4% commission. Instead, they had already established a new entity, called Nano Holdings, that they represented to Huang was a company owned by Thonger and Manley (the owner of Innova's U.S.-based distributor called Nano LiquiTec). Elliott told Huang that DNL had requested that Innova pay a quarter of their commission (i.e., 1%) to Nano Holdings, and the remaining 3% to DNL directly. On information and belief, no one at Pasaca or Innova ever questioned this arrangement or requested any verification that DNL (and not Elliott/Kasprzak) actually owned Nano Holdings. Instead, Huang and the rest of the officers of Pasaca and Innova simply signed off on the arrangement and continued to believe they were paying DNL the full 4% commission.[4]

42. In a text message Elliott sent to Kasprzak on or around October 8, 2020, Kasprzak described that plan as follows:

[3] Unless otherwise specified, all emphasis in quotations throughout this Complaint are added.

[4] As outlined in more detail below, Huang, on information and belief, frequently spent the money generated by Innova from the subject contracts with the U.K. Government on personal benefits and ventures, all in disregard of the companies' separate corporate forms. In that respect, Huang's failure to review who owned Nano Holdings was merely one variation on a theme reflecting negligent oversight of Innova and Pasaca's—and its officers Elliott and Kasprzak's—operation.

Kasprzak: Idea: . . . how about using our First Republic wyoming company [i.e., Nano Holdings], have [Huang (Pasaca Capital)] send 2% there and tell him Clay [Manley of Nano LiquiTec][5] and Kim [Thonger of DNL] are sharing that money in the US account

Elliott: This is what we should do anyway. Would be easier than doing a UK company

43. Based on the size of the contracts DNL helped Innova secure under the Commission Agreement, the 1% commission that Elliott and Kasprzak took for themselves amounted to, at a minimum, tens of millions of dollars.

44. DNL would not have agreed to reduce its commission to 3% had it known that Elliott and Kasprzak would use that money as their own personal slush fund. On information and belief, through DNL's work on behalf of Innova in the U.K., Innova won at least ten additional contracts worth billions of dollars following execution of the First Amendment.

E. Innova, Acting Through Elliott, Again Induces DNL to Further Reduce its Commission

45. In May 2021, Elliott again approached Thonger and Palmer about another amendment that would further reduce DNL's commission rate on a staggered basis—to 2% and then 1%—including commissions that DNL had already earned at a higher rate for contracts that had previously been awarded to Innova by the U.K. government.

46. Elliott told Thonger and Palmer that, given Innova's decreasing margins and the expectation that the U.K. government would "[v]ery soon . . . stop buying in large quantities," the lower commission was necessary to allow Innova to continue to compete in the market (thus benefitting both parties). Elliott represented that Innova was only just "squeaking money out" and that its U.K. operation was "not a high margin business. It [was] literal pennies with everyone in the game." Thus, as Elliott put it, the proposed reduction in DNL's commission was "not only very fair, it is literally what we [Innova] can do."

[5] The fact that Manley and Thonger were to "shar[e]" the money Elliott and Kasprzak funneled to Nano Holdings indicates that half of the 2% figures (i.e., 1%) was intended for DNL.

47. In addition, as part of Elliott's effort to force DNL to further reduce its commission, Innova withheld payment of outstanding commissions. At that time, DNL understood it was owed approximately $16.8 million.[6] But Elliott stated that Innova would not pay the amount outstanding in full and that if DNL wanted to get paid in any amount it would need to sign another amendment retroactively reducing the amount owed: "Once [the Purported Second Amendment] is sent back, I will get accounting to wire the funds for this payment."

48. Again, not knowing about Elliott and Kasprzak's deceit (and not having much of a choice outside of initiating litigation against its business partner), DNL ultimately agreed to what they understood to be another amendment to the Commission Agreement with Innova. This amendment, referred to as the Purported Second Amendment, was signed on or around May 18, 2021.

49. The Purported Second Amendment further revised the schedule of commission payments that would be owed to DNL as follows:

a. 10% of the sales price paid by a Buyer on the initial 18 million units prior to January 1, 2021;

b. 3% of the sales price paid by a Buyer beyond the initial 18 million units prior to January 1, 2021;

c. 2% of the sales price paid by a Buyer for any number of products sold between January 1, 2021, and March 13, 2021;

d. 1% of the sales price paid by a Buyer for any number of products sold after March 13, 2021 "in direct non-competitive purchases by such Buyer from [Innova] (i.e., not as a result of a public bid process);" and [6] Because these unpaid commissions were calculated under the fraudulently induced 3% commission rate contained in the Purported First Amendment, the true amount of unpaid commissions as of this date was, in fact, much higher.

e. No commission for sales made after March 13, 2021 "as a result of a public bid or other competitive process (i.e., not a direct non-competitive purchase)."

50. As noted above, the Purported Second Amendment retrospectively reduced commission rates on contracts that had already been awarded to Innova by the U.K. government, on which DNL had already contractually earned commissions at a higher rate (but which, on information and belief, Innova had not yet paid). While this amendment was signed in May 2021, the schedule laid out above shows that DNL was only entitled to a 2% commission on sales Innova made under the Commission Agreement between January 1, 2021, and March 13, 2021, and a 1% commission on sales Innova made after March 13, 2021, including those before May 18, 2021—the day the Purported Second Amendment was signed. Innova began paying DNL under this reduced commission schedule after the parties executed the Purported Second Amendment.

F. The Purported Second Amendment, like the First, was Procured through Fraud

51. Elliott's representations, made to induce DNL's agreement to the Purported Second Amendment, were false.

52. While Elliott represented that Innova was just "squeaking money out" and that the lowered commissions called for in the Purported Second Amendment was "literally what we [Innova] can do," as Innova and Pasaca admit in the Complaint they filed in Nevada, Elliott and Kasprzak continued to pocket a portion of DNL's commissions:

> While [DNL's] commission rate was reduced to 2% (from January 1, 2021 through March 13, 2021) and to 1% thereafter [under the Second Amendment], meaning that Plaintiffs had the opportunity to pay those reduced commissions, Elliott and Kasprzak continued to steal the 2% payments to Nano Holdings under the guise that the money was being paid to intermediaries.

53. Given that Innova believed it was paying 2% more, clearly it was capable of doing so.

54. Furthermore, while Elliott represented that Innova was struggling with thin margins in May 2021, Innova's (and Pasaca's) spending would ultimately tell a different story. As revealed in a separate complaint filed by Robert Kasprzak against Huang and Pasaca in Los Angeles Superior Court in April 2023, much of the money Innova made from its dealings in the U.K. were ultimately funneled out of the company and up to its parent (Pasaca) where it was spent on a series of lavish benefits, including a private jet, multi-million dollar properties, and sizable investments in third party businesses

55. DNL would not have agreed to again lower its commission rate and forego outstanding monies owed if it had known Elliott's representations were false. But, by this point in time, DNL's entire relationship with Innova was premised on a fraud perpetrated by Elliott and Kasprzak.

56. Elliott and Kasprzak celebrated their scam in private messages exchanged on the day DNL signed the Purported Second Amendment.

57. Elliott messaged Kasprzak, writing: "Please check your email for the [Disruptive Nanotechnology, i.e., DNL] agreement" and later instructed him to "[s]end [a copy] to Monica [Mann, Innova's Chief Accounting officer] and get us all paid!!!" Three hours later, Kasprzak responded with a screenshot of Nano Holdings' bank account, reflecting an approximately $33.5 million wire transfer. Mr. Elliott responded "Haha! Love it brother" and immediately began coordinating transfer of his "half" to his personal account.

58. On information and belief, through DNL's work on behalf of Innova in the U.K., Innova won at least four additional contracts worth over a billion dollars with the country's government following execution of the Purported Second Amendment.

59. Despite the flagrant nature of their fraud and their executive-level status at Innova and Pasaca, Elliott and Kasprzak's fraud continued to go unnoticed by Huang or anyone else until more than a year later.

G. Elliott and Kasprzak Fraudulently Induce DNL to sign the Purported Third Amendment

60. In August 2021, Innova was behind on the commission payments it owed to DNL. Unaware of the fraud, DNL at the time believed these unpaid amounts equaled approximately $15 million.

61. Thonger noted this understanding to Elliott and Kasprzak in contemporaneous email correspondence. For example, in an email sent on or around July 30, 2021, Thonger wrote to Elliott: "we are pragmatic and accept that you wish to reduce the circa $15m outstanding." And in an email to Kasprzak on or around August 19, 2021—when discussing a draft copy of what would become the Purported Third Amendment—Thonger expressed his belief to Kasprzak that the "disputed amount of [unpaid commissions was] circa$15m."

62. Innova again, however, refused to pay this amount due to DNL. Instead, and despite its contractual obligation to pay, Elliott and Kasprzak (as Innova officers and agents) demanded that DNL again waive its right to these payments in exchange for a one-time payment that would be made immediately.

63. Specifically, Elliott and Kasprzak demanded that DNL agree to yet another "amendment" to the Commission Agreement—one which, this time, contained a waiver of past unpaid commissions.

64. Because Innova had all of the bargaining power and DNL did not have any visibility into Innova's contracts with the U.K. Government, DNL ultimately agreed to execute the Purported Third Amendment in August 2021.

65. With respect to the waiver of past payments, the amendment provides: "In consideration, in lieu, and in full and final satisfaction of all unpaid Commissions accrued or payable through and including the date of this Amendment, [Innova] shall pay to [DNL] US$8,000,000 in cash."

66. At the time the Purported Third Amendment was executed, however, DNL did not realize that it was owed (at least) tens of millions in commissions that had been diverted to Nano Holdings. As such, DNL did not understand how much money it was agreeing to release. If DNL had known about the underlying fraud, it would not have agreed to the amendment and release.

H. The Truth Finally Emerges

67. DNL did not know, nor could it have known, in 2020 and 2021 that it was the victim of fraud. In fact, DNL did not have any indication that Elliott and Kasprzak had engaged in misconduct until November 2022, when outside counsel for Innova and Pasaca met with Thonger and Palmer to discuss a then-ongoing investigation into the ownership of Nano Holdings and the potential misconduct of its top executive officers. Even then, outside counsel's description of the investigation was high-level and neither the impetus nor the results of the investigation were shared with DNL.

68. DNL did not discover the true extent of Elliott and Kasprzak's scheme until several months later, in February 2023, when Innova and Pasaca publicly filed their complaint in Nevada (the "Nevada Complaint").

69. The contents of the Nevada Complaint were explosive. It revealed that Elliott and Kasprzak had lied about why they sought reduced commissions through the Purported Amendments, had established Nano Holdings in order to syphon off payments Innova and Pasaca had agreed to pay to DNL, and had defrauded DNL out of hundreds of millions of dollars in the process. What the Nevada Complaint fails to explain is how it is that Innova and Pasaca failed to detect the fraud for years—despite Elliott and Kasprzak's prominent roles in the companies—and did not investigate the true purpose or ownership of Nano Holdings until the last few months of 2022.

70. Equally troubling, the Nevada Complaint also reveals the lie in Elliott's repeated statements that DNL's reduced commission was not just a bargaining point but literally all the company could afford to do. Far from investing the money in making the business more competitive, Innova/Pasaca paid Elliott and Kasprzak hundreds of millions in compensation during their short, three-year tenure at Innova and spent lavishly on expensive corporate jets and mansions.

71. DNL did not discover these facts until after the Nevada Complaint was publicly filed in February 2023. Neither Elliott nor Kasprzak told DNL that they had established an entity called Nano Holdings in 2020, let alone that they had done so to divert funds for their own personal enrichment. And any contemporaneous discussions regarding the purported or actual purpose of Nano Holdings were between Innova, Pasaca, and Huang on the one hand and Elliott and Kasprzak on the other.

72. As a third party, located in the U.K., DNL had no access to Innova and Pasaca's internal conversations or accounting information, which might have revealed that funds (intended for it) were being sent to Nano Holdings. As a result, DNL had no reasonable means of accessing any information revealing that Elliott and Kasprzak's representations regarding the purpose for the Purported Amendments were premised on a fraud at the time those representations were made. And it further had no means of acquiring information that revealed Innova and Pasaca's negligence in failing to prevent the fraud while it was ongoing. Indeed, DNL would not have those means until it was able to access these communications and information when they were publicly disclosed in the Nevada Complaint in February 2023. The Nevada Complaint also detailed for the first time the massive compensation that Innova/Pasaca paid its former officers on the back of DNL.

I. DNL was Injured by the Defendants' Fraud, Negligence, and Other Misconduct

73. Elliott and Kasprzak's fraud (and Innova/Pasaca's ignorance of the same) is astounding. How is it that no one from Innova/Pasaca ever verified the ownership structure of Nano Holdings before wiring over $100 million to an entity that was not a party to the Commission Agreement? A single phone call, text message or email from Huang to anyone at DNL would have stopped this scam in its tracks. But, unfortunately for DNL, this never happened. Elliott and Kasprzak's brazen misconduct not only went unchecked, but they were richly rewarded with hundred million dollar compensation packages.

74. Although the full extent of DNL's damages cannot be fully known without discovery, there were at least eleven contracts awarded to Innova between September 2020 and December 2021, namely:

a. A $138,240,000 contract dated September 16, 2020;

b. A £722,051,003 contract dated November 20, 2020;

c. A £152,487,013 contract dated December 24, 2020;

d. A £727,614,409 contract dated February 10, 2021;

e. A £136,704,525 contract dated February 18, 2021;

f. A £136,800,000 contract dated March 4, 2021;

g. A £1,212,000,018 contract dated March 13, 2021;

h. A £143,750,000 contract dated June 16, 2021;

i. A £242,670,378 contract dated July 20, 2021;

j. A £59,500,000 contract dated August 23, 2021; and

k. A £752,500,000 contract dated December 17, 2021.

75. But-for the fraudulently procured Purported Amendments, DNL would have been paid a 10% commission on each of these contracts. While, again, discovery will reveal the precise measure of damages, DNL estimates that, after accounting for (1) all the payments it has already received from Innova for the contracts above and (2) the $8 million it received in connection with the Purported Third Amendment, it ought to have been paid approximately $500 million. DNL is entitled to these unpaid commissions as the Purported Amendments were procured through fraud and therefore must be rescinded.

76. On information and belief, Elliott and Kasprzak's fraud also cost Innova and DNL additional sales in the U.K. As set forth in the Nevada Complaint filed by Innova, "because of competitive pricing and thin margins in the market [for rapid antigen tests], this [additional commission] harmed Innova Medical Group and Pasaca Capital's ability to compete in the market." Nevada Complaint at ¶ 61.

77. Finally, DNL is entitled to recover the money that Innova meant to pay it all along. As explained above, Elliott and Kasprzak diverted millions of dollars of commissions to their private LLC, Nano Holdings. Innova and Pasaca understood that these funds were transferred to Nano Holdings specifically for DNL's benefit, and those transfers were only possible as a result of the fraud Elliott and Kasprzak committed against DNL. DNL is entitled to these funds as a result. While discovery will uncover the precise amount of money Elliott and Kasprzak converted from DNL under this scheme, DNL estimates, on information and belief, that the total amount exceeds $100 million dollars.

INNOVA, PASACA, AND HUANG ARE ALTER EGOS[7]

78. Innova is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pasaca, operating out of the same office building as its parent company in Pasadena, California. During the time period, Innova and Pasaca employed many of the same key executives. For example, as discussed above, Elliott was President, CEO, and a director of Innova, and President and a director of Pasaca; and Kasprzak was General Counsel, Chief Legal Officer, and a director of Innova and Pasaca.

79. Innova and Pasaca were both founded by Huang. On information and belief, Huang exerted significant control over Innova and Pasaca in a manner that disregarded their separate corporate identities. Indeed, on information and belief, Huang used the funds that DNL secured for Innova through its work under the Commission Agreement for his own personal gain.

80. For example, on information and belief, after diverting Innova's funds to Pasaca, Huang spent millions on investments connected to businesses run by personal friends. According to a complaint filed by Kasprzak in the Superior Court of California, Huang paid $50 million for shares in an afterlife services company based in China called ATL. The company was run by Huang's friend, Arjun Pan, and while the size of the investment was significant, the payment was made not to ATL directly, but to Pan personally. On another occasion, Huang, using Pasaca funds, paid $1.5 million to purchase shares in another company, Enikam d.o.o., helmed by another of his personal friends, Goran Jovic. On information and belief, this investment was made without the knowledge of Pasaca's board of directors. On another occasion, also on information and belief, Huang caused Pasaca to enter into a contract with an aircraft management company called

[7] DNL's alter ego allegations are made on information and belief and are based on its investigation of publicly available information in various court filings, press releases, and news articles.

Prima Air, a company Huang not only had a personal financial interest in but which was managed by a close contact of his.

81. Huang also used Pasaca's money—which, on information and belief, had been generated by the U.K. contracts Innova secured through DNL—to purchase several multimillion dollar homes. According to the complaint filed by Kasprzak, Huang, using Pasaca's funds, also caused the company to purchase a $70 million jet. On information and belief, Huang also caused Pasaca to invest in a screenplay titled "Overnight Billionaire," an autobiography about Huang's life.

82. On information and belief based on the complaint filed by Kasprzak, Huang was able to use Pasaca's (and by extension Innova's) assets without consultation or oversight from Pasaca's other directors, and without observing the normal formalities usually required of the corporate form. For instance, Pasaca did not hold any shareholder meetings and held only a few board meetings. And while Innova technically had separate officers whose role was to oversee the use of corporate money, it has been reported that Huang nullified those roles to control how that money was spent (often to his own advantage). On information and belief, Huang, for example, refused to give Innova's CFO, Guzel Lumpkim, the power to access or release company funds, a role typical of CFOs in any business. In the absence of such outside control, Huang was able to divert millions of dollars from Innova's bank accounts to Pasaca and to accounts overseas in Hong Kong and Singapore.

83. On information and belief, Huang routinely drew money from Innova and Pasaca as if they were personal bank accounts set up for his own gain. In doing so, he co-mingled the very funds Innova and Pasaca received from U.K. contracts DNL had worked diligently to secure. And he wholly disregarded the corporate forms which would have otherwise distinguished Innova, Pasaca, and himself. Under these circumstances, it would be an injustice to continue the legal fiction that Innova, Pasaca, and Huang are, in fact, distinct entities and persons. As a result, Innova, Pasaca, and Huang are collectively alter egos of each other.

CLAIMS

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Against Defendants Elliott, Kasprzak, Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

84. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 83 as if fully set forth herein.

85. Innova, acting through its agents Elliott and Kasprzak, misrepresented to DNL that Innova was unable to pay the 10% commission called for by the Commission Agreement due to increasing pressure on Innova's margins.

86. Innova, acting through its agents Elliott and Kasprzak, also misrepresented to DNL that the true purpose of the reduced commissions under the Purported First and Second Amendments was to provide Innova, Elliott, and Kasprzak with a kickback.

87. Innova, Elliott, and Kasprzak were aware at the time that these representations were false. They made each misrepresentation in order to reduce the amount of commission paid to DNL and to divert the amount "saved" for their own benefit.

88. Elliott and Kasprzak, acting for Innova, made these misrepresentations in order to induce DNL to agree to the Purported First, Second, and Third Amendments.

89. DNL justifiably relied on the representations made by Innova in agreeing to lower their commission rates and purportedly agree to waive its right collect unpaid commissions. DNL had no reason to distrust Innova, or its officers, particularly given (a) the senior roles occupied by Elliott and Kasprzak, and (b) DNL's history of success in obtaining large government contracts for Innova in the U.K.

90. As a result of Innova's misrepresentations, DNL was damaged because it did not receive the commissions that should have been paid to it.

91. Moreover, Innova elevated Elliott and Kasprzak to executive level positions within the company and allowed Elliott and Kasprzak to hold themselves out as representatives of the company for purposes of negotiating agreements with third parties.

92. By elevating Elliott and Kasprzak to executive level positions, Innova created a risk whereby Elliott and Kasprzak could fraudulently induce DNL into agreeing to the Purported Amendments.

93. Pasaca and Huang are also liable for Innova's fraudulent conduct as Innova's alter egos. As alleged above, Innova and Pasaca shared significant overlap in corporate officers during the relevant time period and operated out of the same office building. Moreover, on information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Common Law Fraud

Against Defendants Elliott, Kasprzak, Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

94. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 93 as if fully set forth herein.

95. As explained above, Innova, through Elliott and Kasprzak, made a number of false representations to DNL that they knew to be false at the time.

96. In particular, Elliott and Kasprzak, acting on Innova's behalf, misrepresented to DNL that Innova was unable to pay the 10% commission called for by the Commission Agreement due to increasing pressure on Innova's margins. Elliott and Kasprzak, also acting on Innova's behalf, failed to disclose that the true purpose of the reduced commissions called for under the Purported Amendments was to provide Elliott and Kasprzak a kickback through their scheme to funnel money to Nano Holdings.

97. Elliott and Kasprzak, acting on Innova's behalf, knew that their misrepresentations were false.

98. Elliott and Kasprzak, acting on Innova's behalf, made these representations in order to induce DNL to agree to lower their contractual commission rates.

99. DNL justifiably relied on those representations and were damaged as a result.

100. Moreover, Innova elevated Elliott and Kasprzak to executive level positions within the company and allowed Elliott and Kasprzak to hold themselves out as representatives of the company for purposes of negotiating agreements with third parties.

101. By elevating Elliott and Kasprzak to executive level positions, Innova created a risk whereby Elliott and Kasprzak could fraudulently induce DNL into agreeing to the Purported Amendments.

102. Pasaca and Huang are also liable for Innova's fraudulent conduct as Innova's alter egos. As alleged above, Innova and Pasaca shared significant overlap in corporate officers during the time period relevant to this litigation and operated out of the same office building. Moreover, on information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Conversion

Against Defendants Elliott, Kasprzak, Innova, Pasaca and Huang

103. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 102 as if fully set forth herein.

104. DNL has a right to the commission payments that Innova, through Elliott and Kasprzak, falsely claimed Innova was unable to pay due to increasing pressure on its margins.

105. Innova, through Elliott and Kasprzak, substantially interfered with DNL's commission payments by knowingly making these misrepresentations in order to induce DNL to agree to the Purported First, Second, and Third Amendments, thereby reducing the amount of commissions paid to DNL and diverting the amount "saved" for their own benefit.

106. DNL did not consent to Innova, Elliott, and Kasprzak's wrongful reduction of its commission payments.

107. As a result of Innova's misrepresentations, DNL was harmed because it was deprived of the commissions it was properly owed.

108. Pasaca and Huang are also liable for Innova's conversion as Innova's alter egos. As alleged above, Innova and Pasaca shared significant overlap in corporate officers during the time period relevant to this litigation and operated out of the same office building. Moreover, on information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Money Had and Received

Against Defendants Elliott and Kasprzak

109. Plaintiff realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 108 as if fully set forth herein.

110. Innova sent commission payments to Nano Holdings with the understanding that DNL was the intended recipient of these funds. Elliott and Kasprzak owned Nano Holdings and received the commission payments that Innova intended for DNL.

111. Innova intended that the money it sent to Nano Holdings would be used for the benefit of DNL. Elliott and Kasprzak falsely represented to Innova that Nano Holdings had been established in order to receive commissions for DNL and Innova sent commissions to Nano Holdings with that understanding.

112. Because the commissions received by Nano Holdings was intended for the benefit of DNL, Elliott and Kasprzak are indebted to DNL for that amount. Elliott and Kasprzak, however, never conveyed these commissions to DNL as intended.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unjust Enrichment

Against Defendants Elliott, Kasprzak, Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

113. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 112 as if fully set forth herein.

114. Innova, acting through Elliott and Kasprzak, falsely claimed that it was unable to pay DNL the 10% commission called for by the Commission Agreement due to increasing pressure on Innova's margins.

115. DNL justifiably relied on these misrepresentations in agreeing to lower its commission rates and purportedly agreeing to waive its right to collect unpaid commissions.

116. Elliott and Kasprzak received the benefit of commission payments owed to DNL when those commissions were transferred to Nano Holdings.

117. Innova also received the benefit of commission payments owed to DNL under the Commission Agreement by diverting the amount "saved" for its own benefit.

118. Pasaca and Huang also received the benefit of commission payments owed to DNL under the Commission Agreement when, on information and belief, those payments were transferred from Innova to Pasaca and Huang for their own benefit.

119. It would be unjust to allow Elliott, Kasprzak, Innova, Pasaca, and Huang to retain the benefit of these commission payments because DNL was fraudulently induced into foregoing them.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Tortious Interference with Prospective Economic Relations

Against Defendants Elliott and Kasprzak

120. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 119 as if fully set forth herein.

121. DNL enjoyed an economic relationship with Innova through the Commission Agreement, under which DNL earned a 10% commission on the sale of certain test kits Innova sold to third parties in the U.K.

122. Elliott and Kasprzak knew of the existence of the Commission Agreement and its terms, including that DNL's commission was contingent upon certain sales Innova made in the U.K.

123. Elliott and Kasprzak fraudulently induced DNL to purportedly alter the terms of that Commission Agreement, thus causing DNL to receive a smaller commission from Innova.

124. Elliott and Kasprzak further fraudulently took a percentage of the money Innova made on certain sales in the U.K. for themselves through their scheme to divert certain funds to Nano Holdings.

125. Elliott and Kasprzak knew that by fraudulently inducing DNL into purported amendments to the Commission Agreement, DNL would earn a lower commission on certain sales made by Innova.

126. Elliott and Kasprzak also knew that by taking a percentage of Innova's sales for themselves, they would create upward pressure on Innova's pricing and, thus, would disrupt Innova's ability to make additional sales in the U.K.

127. By engaging in this fraudulent conduct, Elliott and Kasprzak knew that disruption of the economic relationship between DNL and Innova was certain or substantially certain to occur.

128. Elliott and Kasprzak's interference disrupted DNL's relationship with Innova.

129. The amount of money DNL received through Innova's sales were reduced as a result of Elliott and Kasprzak's conduct.

130. Elliott and Kasprzak's conduct was a substantial factor in causing the reduced commissions DNL received from Innova's sales.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Tortious Interference with Contractual Relationship

Against Defendants Elliott and Kasprzak

131. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 130 as if fully set forth herein.

132. DNL and Innova entered into the Commission Agreement, under which DNL earned a 10% commission on the sale of certain test kits Innova sold to third parties in the U.K.

133. Elliott and Kasprzak were both aware of the Commission Agreement's existence as well as its terms.

134. Elliott and Kasprzak misrepresented to DNL that Innova was unable to pay the 10% commission called for by the Commission Agreement due to increasing pressure on Innova's margins. Elliott and Kasprzak also failed to disclose that the true purpose of the reduced commissions called for under the Purported Amendments was to provide Elliott and Kasprzak with a kickback through their scheme to funnel money to Nano Holdings. As a result of these misrepresentations, Elliott and Kasprzak disrupted performance under the Commission Agreement by causing DNL to accept, under false pretenses, lower commissions than it was entitled to under the Commission Agreement.

135. Elliott and Kasprzak also told Innova that a portion of DNL's commissions should be diverted to Nano Holdings, a company they co-owned. Innova sent commissions to Nano Holdings, but Elliott and Kasprzak did not convey these commissions to DNL as intended. Elliott and Kasprzak, therefore, disrupted performance under the Commission Agreement by using Nano Holdings to intercept commissions properly due to DNL.

136. DNL was harmed through the lower commissions it received as a result of Elliott and Kasprzak's fraudulent scheme.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Supervision

Against Defendants Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

137. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 136 as if fully set forth herein.

138. Innova and Pasaca hired Elliott and Kasprzak.

139. Elliott and Kasprzak were unfit to perform their duties as employees of Innova and Pasaca because they used their positions to fraudulently induce DNL into entering the Purported First, Second, and Third Amendments to the Commission Agreement.

140. Elliott and Kasprzak were further unfit to perform their duties as employees of Innova and Pasaca because they used their positions to misappropriate commission funds properly due to DNL into an LLC for their own personal gain.

141. Elliott and Kasprzak held executive level positions at Innova and Pasaca and were, therefore, highly visible within the companies. Their scheme involved the transfer of assets directly from Innova and Pasaca to Nano Holdings. Innova and Pasaca should have realized that Nano Holdings was owned by Elliott and Kasprzak, and had no connection to DNL, through basic diligence they failed to perform. Innova and Pasaca's failure to perform this diligence allowed Elliott and Kasprzak to defraud DNL through the Purported Amendments and to divert commissions to Nano Holdings despite the fact that they were properly owed to DNL.

142. Innova and Pasaca knew or should have known that Elliott and Kasprzak were unfit to perform their duties as employees and that this unfitness created the conditions under which they were both able to deceive DNL and misappropriate their commission payments.

143. Innova and Pasaca's negligence in supervising Elliott and Kasprzak was a substantial factor in allowing them to deceive DNL and misappropriate its commission payments.

144. Elliott and Kasprzak's conduct harmed DNL by deceiving them and misappropriating its commission payments.

145. Huang is also liable for Innova and Pasaca's negligent conduct as their alter ego. On information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Contract

Against Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

146. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 145 as if fully set forth herein.

147. DNL and Innova entered into the Commission Agreement, under which DNL would earn a 10% commission on the sale of certain test kits Innova sold to third parties in the U.K.

148. DNL fully performed under the Commission Agreement by performing substantial work to secure billions of dollars in revenue for Innova through the sale of tests to the U.K. government.

149. Innova's performance under the Commission Agreement was not excused at any point. While the Purported Amendments purported to reduce DNL's commission from 10%—first to 3%, then to 2%, and finally to 1%—as detailed above, those Purported Amendments were fraudulently induced by the misrepresentations of Innova's officers, Elliott and Kasprzak. Accordingly, those reductions are invalid, and Innova's obligations under the original Commission Agreement remain in full force and effect.

150. Innova failed to pay DNL a 10% percent commission on contracts it secured through DNL's work after October 2020. Rather, Innova paid DNL the lower commissions called for under the fraudulently induced Purported Amendments.

151. DNL has been damaged insofar as Innova has failed to pay it a 10% commission on each of the contracts it secured under the Commission Agreement after October 2020. DNL estimates that, after accounting for (1) all the payments it has already received from Innova under the fraudulently induced commission structures and (2) the $8 million it received in connection with the fraudulently induced Purported Third Amendment, the amount of outstanding payments owed by Innova to DNL is approximately $500 million.

152. Pasaca and Huang are also liable for Innova's breach of contract as Innova's alter egos. As alleged above, Innova and Pasaca shared significant overlap in corporate officers during the time period relevant to this litigation and operated out of the same office building. Moreover, on information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

Against Innova, Pasaca, and Huang

153. DNL realleges and repeats the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 152 as if fully set forth herein.

154. DNL and Innova entered into the Commission Agreement, under which DNL earned a 10% commission on the sale of certain test kits Innova sold to third parties in the U.K.

155. DNL fully performed under the Commission Agreement.

156. Innova's performance under the Commission Agreement was not excused at any point during the period relevant to this litigation.

157. Innova, acting through Elliott and Kasprzak, breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by misrepresenting that DNL needed to lower the commission it was receiving under the Commission Agreement in order to allow Innova to remain competitive in the U.K. market for COVID-19 test kits and diverting a portion of DNL's commissions to Nano Holdings for the benefit of Elliott and Kasprzak.

158. On information and belief, Innova used the commission payments that should have gone to DNL, not for legitimate business purposes, but for the personal benefit of its officers and directors. In particular, Elliott and Kasprzak used these funds for their own benefit by transferring a portion of the commission owed to DNL to Nano Holdings. And Huang used these funds to his own benefit by diverting them to Pasaca and spending them on luxury items, including a private jet and multi-million homes.

159. Because of Innova's breach, DNL has been damaged as alleged herein in an amount in excess of $500 million to be proven at trial.

160. Pasaca and Huang are also liable for this breach as Innova's alter egos. As alleged above, Innova and Pasaca shared significant overlap in corporate officers during the relevant time period and operated out of the same office building. Moreover, on information and belief, Huang caused Innova and Pasaca to comingle billions of dollars in revenue and used those same funds for his own personal gain. Huang exerted significant control over the direction of Innova and Pasaca's assets, often without the consent or knowledge of their officers and directors. Indeed, Innova executives did not have the power to stop Huang from extracting assets from the company, and Pasaca did not observe corporate formalities. A unity of interest, therefore, exists among Innova, Pasaca, and Huang such that it would be unjust to recognize a distinction between them for purposes of satisfying a judgment.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, DNL respectfully requests judgment and relief as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff Robert Kasprzak brings this action to hold defendant Charles Huang accountable for his lies, broken promises, and shocking malfeasance and nonfeasance. Huang deceived Kasprzak for years, and when Kasprzak finally realized the true extent of Huang's self-dealing, lies, and ineptness and sought to exit their business relationship, Huang reneged on the promises he made to induce Kasprzak to remain at their company, and instead terminated Kasprzak, falsely accused him of stealing from the company, and defamed him with salacious and false statements. As alleged herein, Huang and co-defendant Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI," together with Huang, "Defendants") are liable to Kasprzak for no less than $75 million.

2. Huang is a high-end con artist who claims he can "see the future." He hoodwinked his purported business partners, including Kasprzak, by falsely holding himself out as a wealthy, successful, and respected businessman and investment banker. When the company became successful, Huang plundered hundreds of millions of dollars of company resources. Without due diligence or board approval, he invested and lost more than $200 million on flailing businesses owned by friends and colleagues, and committed tens to hundreds of millions more in self-dealing transactions with shell insurance and aviation companies he owned or controlled. Huang also used PCI funds to purchase homes for himself and his mistresses, used company-owned private jets for romantic trysts, and put his girlfriends and his family members on the payroll.

3. Huang used billions of dollars generated by Kasprzak and a handful of others to enrich himself, his family, and his friends, while claiming sole credit for the company's success. Huang's astonishing megalomania is demonstrable—he is literally attempting to produce a self-aggrandizing movie telling his (fictionalized) life story, entitled "Overnight Billionaire," and has been trying (unsuccessfully) to get himself knighted in the United Kingdom.

4. The true story behind Huang's newfound fortune, however, is not so noble. A few years prior to the pandemic, Huang was chased out of Hong Kong (where his then-boss had a warrant issued for his arrest) and resettled in Pasadena. Pretending to be a successful émigré, he lured Kasprzak and other business partners into working with him in a co-venture, which was then structured under a shell company Huang had formed, PCI. In truth, PCI had no assets, conducted no business, and Huang was essentially unemployed.

5. In 2019 and 2020, five individuals came together as co-venturers: Huang, Kening Xu, Daniel Elliott, Shuning Luo, and Kasprzak. Shortly after they came together, the co-venture began operating through PCI and ultimately also through PCI's subsidiaries and companies in which PCI invested (collectively with PCI, "Pasaca Group"). But at the beginning, the co-venturers worked without pay while they sought out business opportunities. Huang claimed he had access to hundreds of millions of dollars from ultra-high net worth individuals in China who trusted him to invest that money wisely into various ventures he deemed appropriate. In truth, the co-venture and then PCI never received any investment from these sources.

6. Unbeknownst to Kasprzak, Huang did not fund the co-venture or PCI. The initial funding came from Xu, who sold his family home in Las Vegas to help launch the business. Xu even arranged office space through a building owned by one of his relatives because Huang did not even have enough money to pay the rent. Huang rewarded Xu by cheating him out of tens if not hundreds of millions of dollars. Xu has sued Huang for fraud. See Kening Xu v. Charles Chunhua Huang, 23AHCV00546, (Cal. Super. Ct. Mar. 13, 2023) (Exhibit 1).

7. With the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, the co-venturers formed Innova Medical Group, Inc. ("Innova") as a wholly-owned subsidiary of PCI for the purpose of conducting part of the business of the co-venture. Innova's primary focus in early-to-mid-2020 was on COVID-19 testing kits—first antibody test kits, and then rapid antigen test kits. In September 2020, Innova secured a contract to supply the U.K. with the rapid antigen test kits to be used for its national testing program.

8. This was a massive contract and became a stunning monetary success for Innova. But Innova had to deliver. And deliver it did, arranging for 18 million tests to arrive in the U.K. within three weeks. As a result of its solid performance, Innova secured another contract. And then another. And another. Innova ultimately performed ten contracts for rapid antigen testing kits to the U.K., generating approximately $5 billion in sales in approximately a year and a half. Innova's U.K. contracts generated substantially all of the revenue for Pasaca Group. No other Pasaca Group entity ever made an investment, secured a contract, or made a sale nearly as lucrative as even one of the U.K. contracts. To the contrary, the Pasaca Group investments made at Huang's direction wasted hundreds of millions of the dollars generated by the U.K. contracts.

9. So how did the U.K. success happen? Not because of Huang. He did not identify the opportunity, work on the sale, develop or maintain the relationship, or administer or execute the contracts. The U.K. sales, and therefore substantially all of the money generated by the Pasaca Group to this day, were largely a result of Elliott, who negotiated and secured the initial U.K. contract, and Kasprzak, who became the primary contact with the U.K. government and oversaw the operations to fulfill Innova's duties under the contract. Others, including Luo, had a role to be sure; and Xu's early investment and work also were vital to getting Innova off the ground. But there can be no credible dispute that Elliott and Kasprzak were primarily responsible for Innova's success, as acknowledged by the U.K. government itself:

Dear Daniel and Robert

I am writing to you today to thank you for working to support our country's efforts during the coronavirus pandemic. On a global level, the last nine months have been a challenging time for everyone and the work you are doing has never been more vital. You are helping us keep our country safe and leading us in the right direction to enable us to save more lives.

I have heard of the incredible work that Innova has done in helping my Department push through the innovation, production and distribution of the self-test lateral flow devices for mass self-testing in the UK.

Your hard work, due diligence and flexibility has been of utmost value and for that, I am extremely grateful. The tests that have been used so far show promising results and I very much look forward to seeing this innovative product roll out across the entire nation, in the coming weeks and its continual progress in its development.

As COVID-19 infections rise in the lead up to a tough winter, we look forward to continuing to work with you in driving your product to successful delivery and use; so as to prevent the loss of any more lives.

I would also like to ensure you take care of yourselves and your families during these unprecedented times.

On behalf of the entire country, I thank you again.

MATT HANCOCK

10. Notably, this formal thanks to Elliott and Kasprzak "on behalf of the entire country" for their contribution to the U.K. National Health program does not even mention Huang. See Exhibit 2.

11. After revenue began pouring in from the U.K. contacts, Kasprzak pleaded with Huang to at least hold the vast sums of money generated by the U.K. contracts in a managed brokerage account to provide diversification, and generate dividends and capital gains. Huang refused, instead keeping hundreds of millions of dollars in unsecured, uninsured, non-interest bearing checking accounts that only he controlled. Kasprzak advised Huang to structure the Pasaca Group in a manner customary for private equity funds and holding companies to generate cash flow for PCI from its investments, exert management oversight, and obtain other customary rights, but Huang refused.

12. As the pandemic began to subside and the days of the multi-hundred-million-dollar contracts for testing kits were over, Elliott and Kasprzak began to look to the future. PCI was flush with what should have been billions in cash from the U.K. contracts, but had no concrete future revenue streams. Without significant due diligence, or review by Elliott, Kasprzak, or PCI's shareholders, Huang frittered away hundreds of millions of dollars on airplanes, houses for himself and his girlfriends, and investments in shaky, unproven, and ill-conceived businesses. Huang threw money blindly at ludicrous business ventures proposed by his friends, girlfriends, or others only he had met, and other equally sketchy and one-sided deals proposed by Sean Rogers, the nominal CEO of PCI and Chairman of Innova.

13. Elliott, who had been the CEO of Innova, left in May 2022. Huang, on behalf of PCI, agreed to repurchase Elliott's equity in PCI for a negotiated sum of $75 million and did so on Elliott's departure. Kasprzak, who had the same amount of equity in PCI as Elliott, likewise wanted to move on, but Huang convinced Kasprzak to stay by promising him an equity buy-out on terms at least as favorable as those provided to Elliott—i.e., at least $75 million through a stock repurchase agreement. In return, Kasprzak remained as interim CEO for the express purpose of re-positioning Innova for the future and identifying a permanent CEO, so that Kasprzak could then depart. Kasprzak attempted to manage Innova as its COVID-driven opportunities evaporated, while trying to keep Huang from tearing through PCI's then-considerable resources.

14. Both Elliott's completed stock sale and Kasprzak's agreed-to sale were at a valuation significantly lower than the actual value of the stock. Both Kasprzak and Elliott were agreeable to take less than market value for their shares to be able to exit the company and make a clean break with Huang. Consistent with Huang's modus operandi of reneging on his agreements, he is now suing Elliott alleging that Elliott's stock purchase agreement is invalid.

15. Over the summer of 2022, Kasprzak's conclusion that he did not want to continue working with Huang only solidified. Beyond just wanting to move on to try something else, Kasprzak was dismayed by Huang's poor and secretive investment decisions, refusal to follow corporate protocol, ever increasing megalomania and erratic behavior, and his focus on improperly lavishing company-sponsored benefits on his collection of girlfriends rather than the growth of the business. On occasion, Kasprzak—who was at this point both the interim CEO of Innova and Chief Legal Officer of PCI—would find out after the fact that Huang had transferred substantial funds to opaque investments inside and outside the United States. Kasprzak was constantly attempting to talk Huang out of bad ideas and to follow basic corporate formalities, which Huang ignored as a matter of course.

16. Each time Kasprzak discussed his desired departure with Huang, Huang repeatedly promised that he would make it worth Kasprzak's while to remain at Pasaca Group to help stabilize the companies after Elliott's abrupt departure. By September 2022, however, Huang told Kasprzak that he intended to close Innova, fire all of its employees, and make purchasing aircraft for private aviation Pasaca Group's core business. Kasprzak disagreed with these radical changes and repeatedly asked Huang to conclude the promised repurchase of his stock. Huang, in turn, repeatedly promised that he would do so, but found excuses for delay. As a result of Huang's deceptive promises, Kasprzak remained in his roles instead of pursuing other business opportunities.

17. Huang often said that he viewed all monies paid to PCI's shareholders and employees, including Kasprzak, as a gift from Huang, which was of course inconsistent with the understanding and agreements made among the co-venturers. Huang believed that he alone should decide stock, salaries, bonuses, and other elements of remuneration. After Kasprzak's departure, Huang claimed credit of the Pasaca Group's success, and referred to himself as Innova's "original founder."

18. In truth, Huang resented the credit Kasprzak had received, both internally within Pasaca Group and from third parties, like the U.K. government. Huang was jealous that issues relating to Pasaca Group companies went directly to Kasprzak and grew increasingly bitter that Kasprzak, not Huang, was perceived by everyone within the Pasaca Group as the operational leader of the entire enterprise.

19. Moreover, Huang had to find a way for the business to continue to sustain his lavish lifestyle, half-cocked business gambles, and luxuries for his friends and girlfriends with rapidly declining funds. To avoid paying Kasprzak, Huang continued to deceive him. Then, on September 30, 2022, the date Huang and Kasprzak had agreed that Defendants would repurchase his shares and Kasprzak would resign from his roles in the Pasaca Group, rather than honor his commitment, Huang executed the first step of his devious plan. He falsely accused Kasprzak of stealing from Pasaca Group and terminated him. Huang then maliciously sent a company-wide email throughout the Pasaca Group that intimated Kasprzak had been terminated for harassment and improper behavior. This was not only a stunning about-face, but a complete and utter fabrication, and a betrayal. Then, not satisfied with just tarnishing Kasprzak's reputation within Pasaca Group, Huang issued a press release on October 3, 2022, publicly announcing that Kasprzak had been "terminated" as CEO of Innova.

20. As it turns out, this is Huang's pattern: he makes agreements that he later decides not to honor, and justifies his actions by lobbing defamatory statements and incendiary allegations of fraud and theft without any basis.[1] Of the original five co-venturers, only Huang remains. He is in litigation with Kasprzak, Elliott, and Xu, and bought out Luo in September 2022 for a fraction of what he should have received.

21. Over the last year, Huang's behavior has become even more erratic and self-centered. His questionable personal behavior not only has put Pasaca Group at risk, but demonstrates that he is acting without boundaries and is treating Pasaca Group property and funds as if they were his own personal assets.

22. Recently, Huang transferred more than two hundred million dollars of company funds out of the United States, which would be available to him if he decides to (or is forced to) flee the United States. Huang has also manipulated the PCI capitalization table to unilaterally award stock to friends and family. He built out two personal offices in PCI's building—one floor apart from each other. He even used Pasaca Group to funnel hundreds of thousands of dollars per year to his girlfriends in "salaries" even though they perform no meaningful work for Pasaca Group. According to at least one of these women and other witnesses, Huang engaged in sexual activity in Pasaca Group-owned jets, while purportedly on company business trips. Huang even reportedly orchestrated Pasaca Group's purchase of a condominium from one his girlfriends for greater than market value and also, on information and belief, caused PCI to purchase another $18 million house in Southern California, which Huang has reportedly dubbed "the CEO House."[2] Huang is now facing accusations of sexual misconduct by a former Pasaca

[1] To date, Huang has accused at least Kasprzak, Elliott, Xu, a former girlfriend who left him, the company's former airplane mechanic employee whom he terminated, and the third-party aircraft management services firm he fired to replace with an aircraft management services firm Huang formed with one of his girlfriends, each with theft. He has also been accused of reneging on a long-term incentive package by a large contingent of the current Innova management team. He committed to several other stock repurchases of other shareholders that have yet to be completed.

Group employee who has expressed concern for her personal safety.[3]

23. Huang has squandered the assets of PCI, effectively destroying the value of Kasprzak's stock. Kasprzak brings this action to hold Huang and his alter-ego, PCI, accountable for his lies, deceit, and breach of fiduciary duty that have cost Kasprzak many tens of millions of dollars to date and threaten to destroy any remaining value PCI may have.

THE PARTIES

24. Plaintiff Robert Kasprzak is an individual who resides in Spring, Texas. Kasprzak is a significant shareholder of PCI with at least 10% and possibly above 15% of outstanding shares.[4] He previously served as chief legal officer of PCI, lead lawyer of Innova, and briefly as interim CEO of Innova, while also serving as a member of the board of directors of each of PCI, Innova, and several related Pasaca Group subsidiaries and affiliates.

25. Defendant Charles Huang resides in Arcadia, California. Upon information and belief, Huang is the Chairman and CFO of PCI and an officer and director of Innova. After Kasprzak's departure, Huang named himself CEO of Innova.

26. Defendant Pasaca Capital, Inc. is a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada with its principal place of business at 800 East Colorado Boulevard, Suite 888, Pasadena, California 91101.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

27. The amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $25,000 as required for this Court's unlimited civil jurisdiction.

28. Venue is proper as to Defendant Huang in this Court pursuant to 395(a) of the Code of Civil Procedure because Defendant Huang resides in Los Angeles County, California.

[3] In a recent incident that was recorded and posted on Twitter, this Pasaca Group employee is seen shouting at a Chinese American Federation event, "I have received physical threats. . . If you don't see me after today, it means that I'm already dead. And all of you can testify for me," before adding "Huang, Chunhua [Charles] said, if I present my evidence, he would commit suicide." See https://twitter.com/AsiaFinance/status/1623725938637668352.

[4] Pursuant to his rights as a shareholder under Nevada law, Kasprzak served a request for the PCI stock ledger on February 17, 2023. PCI improperly refused Kasprzak's request on February 27, 2023.

29. Venue is proper as to Defendant PCI pursuant to 410.10 of the Code of Civil Procedure because PCI's principal place of business is in Los Angeles County, California, and PCI is and was the alter ego of Defendant Huang.

PCI IS AND WAS THE ALTER EGO OF HUANG

30. Kasprzak alleges that, at all times herein mentioned, PCI is and was the alter ego of Huang, and that at all times herein mentioned there existed such a unity of interest between Huang and PCI that any separateness has ceased to exist between them for the following reasons:

a. As alleged herein, Huang used the assets of PCI and its wholly-owned subsidiary Innova for his own benefit and has caused the assets of these corporations to be transferred to himself, his family, and others without adequate consideration and for improper purposes;

b. As alleged herein, Huang has exercised complete dominance and control over PCI and Innova such that PCI and Innova are mere shells and instrumentalities for the conduct of Huang's business and personal interests;

c. As alleged herein, Huang and PCI, are alter egos of each other based on their unity of interest, and the injustice that would result if they were treated separately; and

d. As alleged herein, Huang has carried on activities and business of PCI and Innova without holding directors and shareholders' meetings and entered into personal transactions with Pasaca Group without the approval of the other directors or shareholders.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Formation of PCI and Innova

31. PCI was formed in 2016 by Huang. It remained a dormant shell company for approximately four years.

32. At the introduction and recommendation of Elliott, Kasprzak met with Huang in early March 2020. Kasprzak thereafter became an integral part of building the co-venture. Its initial purpose was to serve as an investment advisory firm for certain ultra-high net worth individuals residing in China who, Huang claimed, had entrusted him to find and secure quality investment opportunities in the U.S. and abroad for their funds. It also pursued opportunities related to COVID. At the time, the main co-venturers were Huang, Xu, Elliott, Kasprzak and Luo.

33. The co-venture initially existed without documentation or name. Shortly thereafter, its activities were folded into PCI.

34. Innova was formed on March 20, 2020. Innova had no bylaws, no employees, and no money at its inception, and on information and belief was wholly owned by PCI.

35. When Kasprzak met with Huang and Elliott and joined the co-venture, he and the other co-venturers had no titles. Each of the founders was wearing multiple hats, attempting to define, develop, and grow the business. When PCI assumed the co-venture's business activities, Kasprzak became a PCI officer and director, and PCI's chief legal officer. He also became Innova's chief lawyer and corporate secretary, initially in an unofficial capacity and later in an official capacity. From May 2022 until September 2022, he served as interim CEO of Innova.

36. To fund the co-venture and then PCI, Xu personally invested approximately $10,000 to $20,000 for operating expenses. Huang claimed to contribute an office building that he purportedly owned for the partnership to use. However, as Kasprzak and Elliott later came to learn, Huang rented the building from Xu's uncle, and only paid two months of rent before he ceased making payments. Huang used language barriers among the co-venturers to obfuscate and in some cases hide the truth regarding the office building and his purported wealth—Xu does not speak English, and Kasprzak and Elliott do not speak Mandarin Chinese.

37. Kasprzak, and on information and belief, Elliott, Xu, Luo, and Huang did not receive any compensation for some time following the initiation of their collaboration, as the co-venture and then the Pasaca Group initially had no revenue, and very minimal funding, chiefly provided by Xu. Because of the informality of their business relationship, initially, there was no formal documentation of the ownership structure of the co-venture, PCI, or Innova. Eventually, however, Huang divvied up ownership in PCI through equity, generally taking it upon himself to unilaterally allocate shares of PCI among himself, Kasprzak, Elliott, Xu, Luo, and others. Xu and Luo received less equity in PCI, with Huang hoarding the extra equity for himself through an entity he controls, Pasaca Capital, LLC (Pasaca Capital, LLC is not included in the definition of "Pasaca Group"). Kasprzak became a stockholder in PCI, effective March 1, 2020, by purchasing 250,000 shares. He later purchased 500,000 additional shares, taking his total number of shares to 750,000, or roughly 11% of PCI as of September 2022. Kasprzak did not obtain his shares in PCI as a term of his employment with PCI or in connection with employment at PCI or Innova. Kasprzak's equity in PCI came from his relationship with the co-venture and his status as a co-venturer in what was ultimately the Pasaca Group business.

B. Kasprzak Worked Tirelessly to Secure and Execute Innova's Sales Contracts with the United Kingdom

38. When the coronavirus pandemic exploded around the world in the spring of 2020, Innova focused on supplying testing materials worldwide—first antibody test kits, and later antigen test kits.

39. In the middle of 2020, at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, there was no vaccine available, and countries around the world were scrambling to figure out how they could get people back to work and school relatively safely. The U.K. government aggressively launched a mass testing program designed to test every citizen on a regular basis. In order to do so, they needed a massive, regular, and reliable supply of test kits.

40. Around the same time, Luo had a contact with Xiamen BioTime ("BioTime"), a Chinese company that specializes in the production and sale of in vitro diagnostic devices and reagents. Luo, Xu, and Junjun Li, Xu's contact with BioTime, who each had decades of experiences working with Chinese businesses, worked to secure a deal between Innova and BioTime, that Kasprzak ultimately drafted.

41. After securing an exclusive distribution relationship with BioTime, in or around mid-2020, Innova, through Elliott, made contact with the U.K. government to express an interest in being its supplier. Innova quickly emerged as one of only a few companies that could meet the U.K. government's needs.

42. As Innova's prospects began to pick up in the late summer of 2020, so, too, did necessary expenditures. For example, Innova needed $50,000 to secure insurance needed to satisfy the U.K. government's requirements for vendors. Unbeknownst to Kasprzak, Huang did not have the funds. Xu funded the insurance policy. However, Huang led Kasprzak and Elliott to believe that he paid the premium, not Xu.

43. Elliott led negotiations with the U.K. government. On September 17, 2020, Innova closed on a contract with the U.K. government to supply 18 million lateral flow antigen test kits for approximately $138 million.

44. After Elliott led effort to put the September 17, 2020 sale together and negotiate the terms, Kasprzak led the documentation of the contract, implementation of the business, development of the relationship with the U.K. government, and performance of all aspects of the contract. This effort ultimately led to considerable additional orders. Kasprzak's role became a grueling job that required non-stop work and frequent international travel during the height of the pandemic. Throughout the fall of 2020, Kasprzak was working around the clock to finalize the logistics of getting supplies to the U.K. and ensuring Innova was in a place to fulfill its end of the contract. Kasprzak was the primary point of contact for Innova with the U.K. government team.

45. The U.K. government was very satisfied with the tests and wanted to order additional tests from Innova to supply its national testing program. Because Innova was able to ensure delivery of millions of reliable tests, on time, every time, the U.K. government purchased additional tests directly from Innova, interacting solely and directly with Kasprzak. When the United Kingdom needed product, they exclusively contacted and negotiated with Kasprzak.

46. Over time, as more companies began to develop COVID tests, the United Kingdom put out a public bidding process for the purchase of tests. Kasprzak was also then responsible for putting together Innova's bid packages.

47. By contrast, Huang was not involved in soliciting the U.K. order, negotiating the U.K. order, executing the U.K. order, or developing or maintaining relationships with the U.K. government. He had absolutely no involvement in the activity that generated the revenue he ultimately plundered.

C. Despite Kasprzak's Work, Defendants Refused to Honor their Oral Agreement to Repurchase Kasprzak's Shares in PCI

48. In early 2022, Huang and Elliott began discussions regarding Elliott's departure from Pasaca Group and a buyout of Elliott's shares in PCI.

49. On or around June 10, 2022, Elliott and PCI executed a Stock Redemption Agreement in which PCI agreed to purchase Elliott's 750,000 shares in PCI for a total of $75 million—a figure all believed was less than the fair market value of the stock at that time, but one Elliott ultimately accepted in order to expedite his exit. As part of the agreement, Elliott resigned from all positions he held in Pasaca Group, effective as of May 1, 2022.

50. Also in early 2022, Kasprzak had already mentioned to Rogers, Elliott, and Huang that he wished to unwind his role in the Pasaca Group. Kasprzak and Huang began discussions regarding Kasprzak's eventual departure from Pasaca Group and a buyout of Kasprzak's interest in PCI. As Elliott's departure crystallized, Kasprzak's and Huang's discussions accelerated. To assist with the transition, Kasprzak reluctantly agreed to remain at Pasaca Group for a reasonable period as the chief legal officer and to remain at Innova as interim CEO. He did so in reliance on Huang's promise that PCI would purchase Kasprzak's 750,000 shares on terms at least as favorable to Kasprzak as the purchase of Elliott's shares.

51. After several discussions, in the summer of 2022 Kasprzak and Huang ultimately reached an agreement that PCI would repurchase Kasprzak's shares in two tranches, for a total of at least $75 million. The agreement was unambiguous. As part of the agreement, Kasprzak agreed to resign as an officer and director from PCI on a "mutually agreed upon date."

52. Kasprzak prepared a written stock repurchase agreement memorializing Kasprzak's and Huang's agreement.

53. On or about August 24, 2022, Kasprzak sent the repurchase agreement, which was already reviewed and approved by PCI's outside counsel, to Huang. Huang, without explanation, delayed signing the repurchase agreement, which memorialized their understanding.

54. On or about August 25, 2022, Kasprzak wrote to Huang, "I'm hopeful to resolve the partial stock repurchase in next few days. I've made some financial commitments on personal investments already based on your verbal consent to repurchase these shares and I'd like to complete those soon."

55. At the same time, Kasprzak continued to assist Innova, at Huang's request. While Kasprzak was serving as interim CEO, Huang repeatedly induced Kasprzak to remain to perform the difficult and unpleasant tasks of shepherding Innova through its downsizing, various legal disputes, employee unrest, and search for a permanent CEO by repeatedly confirming his promise to repurchase Kasprzak's shares for at least $75 million and on terms at least as favorable to Kasprzak as those obtained by Elliott. Huang directed Kasprzak to prepare stock repurchase agreements for himself and for other employee/shareholders—some of which were honored and some of which were not. Kasprzak continued to perform in reliance on Huang's repeated promises that he would honor the promised repurchase agreement.

56. On or around September 1, 2022, Huang agreed to let Kasprzak resign as an officer and director of the various Pasaca Group companies contemporaneously with the repurchase of Kasprzak's shares. Kasprzak and Huang later agreed that the repurchase of Kasprzak's shares and Kasprzak's resignation from his roles would occur on September 30, 2022.

57. Thereafter, Huang provided repeated assurances that Defendants would repurchase Kasprzak's stock and scheduled a dinner with Kasprzak and his wife a restaurant near PCI's Pasadena offices ostensibly to sign his stock repurchase contract and thank Kasprzak for his support. Instead, as Kasprzak later learned, Huang's true purpose in arranging the dinner was that Huang maliciously intended to embarrass Kasprzak in front of his wife with false accusations of wrongdoing. Unforeseen circumstances arose that fortunately forced Kasprzak to cancel that dinner.

58. Rather than paying Kasprzak what he was rightfully owed, on September 30, 2022, PCI and Innova terminated Kasprzak and claimed he was under an internal investigation. Huang conjured up numerous false and salacious allegations against Kasprzak as a pretext for his termination and to avoid paying Kasprzak what he was owed.

59. Minutes after informing Kasprzak of his termination, in an apparently preprepared written company-wide message, Huang announced that Kasprzak had been terminated from Innova and PCI, that Huang was taking over as Innova's interim CEO, and then stated that "[a]s a matter of principles [sic], I have zero tolerance for internal and external corruption, racial discrimination, sexual harassment, and all other bad behaviors." See Exhibit 3. This was intended to and did convey that these Huang's purported "principles" and "zero tolerance" for corruption, racial discrimination, sexual harassment and "other bad behaviors" were not shared by Kasprzak as CEO and that Kasprzak engaged in such activity. The statement was knowingly false and was intended to and did harm Kasprzak's reputation. Kasprzak only found out about the company-wide defamatory statement after the fact and he could not rebut it in real time.

60. On October 3, 2022, Huang issued another company-wide email regarding Kasprzak's termination, further insinuating the false and pretextual bases for his dismissal.

61. In further efforts to bolster his decision not to honor his promise to repurchase Kasprzak's PCI shares, and to destroy Kasprzak's reputation in the business community, Huang has continued to defame Kasprzak, telling Pasaca Group personnel that Kasprzak participated in a scheme to steal from PCI and Innova.

62. Huang continues to defame Kasprzak at every opportunity. Huang knows his accusations of theft are false and is deliberately disseminating this scurrilous story within and beyond Pasaca Group with malice to create a pretext for not repurchasing Kasprzak's PCI stock and to deflect attention from his own malfeasance.

63. By depriving Kasprzak of the value of his shares, Huang is wrongfully denying the existence of his agreement with and promises to Kasprzak. Huang is effectively nullifying the value of Kasprzak's ownership interest in the PCI, unjustly retaining the consideration Kasprzak paid for his equity interests in PCI and directly violating the understandings and promises made as a co-venturer of Kasprzak's, while at the same time denying Kasprzak any involvement in Pasaca Group and denying Kasprzak information to which he is entitled to as a co-venturer and a shareholder.

D. Huang's Engaged in Flagrant Self-Dealing, Giving Away Millions to Close Family and Friends, And Treats PCI as His Personal Alter Ego Entity

64. As billions of dollars of revenue flowed into Innova, Huang, who previously had no income, claimed that he alone was the reason behind Pasaca Group's success. After Innova generated billions, he became even more narcissistic and controlling. He began flaunting his newfound wealth, purchasing private jets, luxury automobiles, designer and custom clothing and accessories for his girlfriends, and funneling money to them and their enterprises. He became so vain that at one point, Huang asked Elliott to "manage his trying to get Knighted."

65. Huang began throwing PCI's money at high-risk/low probability of success ventures, often associated with his close family, friends, and girlfriends, effectively squandering PCI's assets. This recently included using company money to purchase the $18 million house "CEO House."[5]

66. Since Innova struck its first deal with the U.K. government, Huang drained Innova to filter the money up to PCI, and then spent PCI's money on questionable investments without the consent or approval of other shareholders or directors, and often without any due diligence. On more than one occasion, Huang informed Kasprzak that he already executed a deal and therefore needed Kasprzak to draft the appropriate legal documents. When pressed on the terms of these deals, Huang simply responded that there was no need for due diligence since he was, in his own estimation, "gifted with the mind of master strategy on business" and he "could see the future."

67. On multiple occasions, Huang explained that he did not require due diligence or oversight, invoking his purportedly prophetic gift of being able to "see the future" to justify his investment decisions. But in reality, Huang was the opposite of a master business strategist and certainly could not predict the future. Many, if not all of, Huang's purported genius investments were in failing or failed companies. For example, Huang invested large sums of PCI's money into several companies—such as Quantum Materials Corporation ($7+ million), 3PE ($6 million), Standard Cytopedia ($6 million), EJoy ($8.5 million), SG Diagnostics ($7.5 million), and Sweegen ($50 million)—without any due diligence or board consultation. These investments quickly went underwater, resulting in millions of dollars of losses[6] and concern among PCI's leadership that Huang lacked the cognitive disposition to handle money, let alone effectively run a multi-billion dollar company. Even Sean Rogers, the CEO of PCI at the time, was unaware that Huang invested an additional $30 million into Sweegen, noting that "30mm [was] a tall ask" but that he only "caught wind" of it after the investment was made and it was too late.

68. Huang kept many of his deals a secret from Kasprzak because Huang knew that if Kasprzak discovered Huang's intentions, Kasprzak would try to stop Huang. For example, in late 2020, following Innova's success in the U.K., Huang invested $50 million of PCI's money in Caton Technologies ("Caton"). Kasprzak did not know what this company did, who owned it, or how the company planned to use the investment. Once it became clear that Huang's investment in Caton was a failure, Kasprzak attempted to unwind Huang's deal, albeit without success. Similarly, in or around late 2020, Huang agreed to acquire MPS, a medical device distributor in Brea, California, for $20 million, a valuation that Huang appeared to conjure out of thin air. As Kasprzak tried to mitigate the damage, Huang instead invested more, doubling down on his poor decision by purchasing 200 machines designed to kit and pouch COVID-19 test kits. However, as Kasprzak repeatedly told Huang, Innova sourced their product from BioTime and therefore had no need for MPS or machines for packaging. These, and many other investments directed by Huang, are today either significantly reduced in value or worth virtually nothing at all.

69. Not only were Huang's unauthorized, secret investments failures, more often than not Huang's dealings went to himself, or to companies controlled by or associated with Huang's friends, family, or girlfriends. For example, on one occasion, over Kasprzak's objection, Huang invested $50 million of PCI's money in a Chinese company called ATL, which performs after-life services in China, by purchasing shares from a friend of his named Arjun Pan. In fact, as Kasprzak came to understand, Huang's investment did not go to ATL directly, but rather to Ms. Pan personally. In addition to paying his friend $50 million, Huang then unilaterally gave Ms. Pan shares in PCI without any board approval or resolution. Huang also hired Ms. Pan's assistant, Sean Shi, who, on information and belief, has no experience running a company, to run Innova's Singapore subsidiary. Like Huang's other investments, and because the deal did not involve any new monies to ATL directly, ATL never conducted any significant business while Kasprzak was with Pasaca Group and Huang conceded to regretting the investment—true to form, several times mentioning to Kasprzak that Ms. Pan had misrepresented the company to him and that he was going to get money and shares back from Ms. Pan or sue her for fraud.

[6] For example, Huang invested at least $6 million in 3PE, a company that purportedly made personal protective equipment ("PPE") but had no assets at the time Huang invested in the company. To support his investment, Huang then leased a facility in Ontario for 3PE to manufacture PPE. However, the facility never made a single mask, and Kasprzak was able to convince Huang to put the company out of business less than a year later.

70. On another occasion, Huang committed over $1.5 million to Enikam d.o.o. ("Enikam"), a Slovenian company introduced by Huang's longtime friend Goran Jovic, and employee and shareholder of PCI residing in Slovenia, without any knowledge by the PCI board of directors. Kasprzak understood that Huang was considering the investment into Enikam to advertise Enikam's single product, a mouth spray, as a "COVID killer," which Kasprzak immediately shot down due to what should have been obvious potential legal exposure, or so he thought. On a trip to Slovenia in mid-2022, Kasprzak shockingly learned that Huang had not only made the initial investment into Enikam despite Kasprzak's warnings, but he was also considering an additional investment into Enikam. After meeting with the Enikam CEO and founder for the first time in mid-2022, Kasprzak thinks he dissuaded Huang at that time from making the additional investment.

71. On yet another occasion, Huang created and invested in a subsidiary of PCI unbeknownst to PCI's other shareholders and directors. In early 2022, Kasprzak learned about a company called Pasaca Entertainment, LLC ("Pasaca Entertainment"). At the time, none of Kasprzak, Elliott, or Rogers had heard of the company. When Kasprzak asked Huang about Pasaca Entertainment, Kasprzak was directed to a young PCI employee with little to no actual business experience as the person in charge of Pasaca Entertainment. After some additional investigation, Kasprzak discovered that PCI had invested in several feature films through Pasaca Entertainment unbeknownst to PCI's other officers and directors, including Kasprzak, Elliott, and Rogers, the CEO of PCI at the time.

72. Huang caused PCI to fund a screenplay and development of a fictionalized and idealized autobiographical motion picture entitled "Overnight Billionaire." To salvage PCI's investment in Pasaca Entertainment, Kasprzak attempted unsuccessfully to attain some level of visibility and/or involvement into the Pasaca Entertainment business and some level of oversight of its inexperienced trio of executives (all Pasaca Group employees).

73. On yet another occasion, Huang insisted that PCI's and Innova's directors' and officers' liability insurance (D&O insurance) be obtained from a company Huang personally created in Bermuda, at rates and on terms that were materially less favorable to PCI and Innova than rates and terms available from established insurance companies. On information and belief, the Bermuda company was managed by an unknown figure introduced to Huang by one of Huang's girlfriends, who had little to no experience in running an insurance company. Recognizing that Huang's request was ludicrous and bad for business, Kasprzak sought assistance in finding an affordable D&O insurance package elsewhere. Once Huang learned of Kasprzak's efforts, Huang unilaterally and without notice purchased insurance from the Bermuda company that (1) failed to satisfy the coverage demands; (2) lacked an office or claims handling support or processing capabilities; (3) had premiums over three times the premiums for insurance identified by the Kasprzak-led Innova team, and (4) had worse terms with respect to audit rights insurance.

74. On yet another occasion, Huang purchased private jets with PCI funds at a cost in excess of $70 million. After establishing an aviation management company of his own, Huang accused PCI's third-party aircraft management company, SP Aviation, which is well respected with a longstanding history in the business, of "overcharging" and "stealing" from Pasaca Group. Huang then fired SP Aviation and contracted with Prima Air, a company in which Huang has a personal and financial interest and which is managed by his primary mistress.

75. Huang's gross mismanagement did not stop at simply investing in businesses associated with family, friends, and girlfriends. On information and belief, Huang often hired or simply just paid friends, family, or girlfriends from Pasaca Group's accounts. In or around October 2022, Kasprzak came to understand that Huang had employed and paid hundreds of thousands of dollars per year in "salaries" for non-existent jobs to his daughters (who are each also shareholders of PCI) even though his daughters performed no work for any of the entities.

76. Huang hired his mistresses to work at Pasaca. One, whose background is as a fitness trainer, was appointed as the global head of PR for the entire Pasaca Group, a position for which she had no training or experience. On information and belief, another is being paid a $600,000 per year salary for doing no actual work; her job is, reportedly from a current Pasaca Group employee, "making Charles happy." On information and belief, Huang, using Pasaca Group funds, purchased the "CEO House" for $18 million, a $6 million house in Newport Beach, an approximately $3.5 million house in Arcadia, and a condominium near the PCI office in Pasadena for an above market price.

77. Each and every time Kasprzak learned of Huang's ill-advised or secretive investments, Kasprzak attempted to stop Huang, but was often unable to do so. More often than not, Kasprzak either never learned of these transactions or learned well-after they had been completed.

78. Kasprzak's efforts to make good investments, generate revenue, and cut costs on behalf of Pasaca Group were only further impeded by Rogers's efforts to enrich himself and his friends at the expense of the company. Rogers led Pasaca Group into several questionable transactions with companies owned by his friends. He also reaped the fruits of Kasprzak's labors in the U.K. with trips to Europe for no reason, lavish hotel and restaurant expenses billed back to the company, the redundant creation of the Dallas office to avoid moving to California, and continuing failures to complete tasks assigned to him or voluntarily undertaken by him. Rogers, also the Executive Chairman of the Innova board of directors, undertook the responsibility of creating a long term incentive plan for the Innova management team and never followed through, causing that management team to turn to Kasprzak to assist them. Kasprzak did so until he was terminated under false pretenses in September of 2022. That management team is now suing Innova and PCI to enforce the promised incentive plan.

79. Rogers also conspired with Huang to make a secretive $100 million, non-cancelable investment in LivePerson, a software company run by Rogers's close friend, Rob LoCascio. That investment was completed by Rogers and a law firm handpicked by Rogers, without any oversight from the board, Elliott, Kasprzak (who was chief legal officer), or shareholders. On terms that defy custom and practice for similar investments, solely at the direction of Rogers and with Huang's approval, Pasaca Group has overpaid by up to 90% for application development services and invested—and apparently lost—tens of millions of dollars. When Kasprzak tried to undo Rogers's ill-advised investment, Kasprzak discovered that it was impossible since PCI, through Rogers, "guarantee[d] the full investment, without any milestones agreed," allowing LivePerson to spend PCI's money "without any accountability."

80. Rogers and Huang also used PCI to form Prevention, Diagnosis, Treatment, Inc. ("PDTi") to, among other things, purchase and distribute vaccines, diagnostics, and therapeutics. Huang and Rogers then invested significant PCI money into PDTi, with no performance metrics or other contingencies. Despite Kasprzak's objections and calls for oversight, Rogers and Huang were able to continue to compensate their friends and further squander corporate assets.

81. Huang was able to completely control PCI's finances because he monitored every financial transaction, personally signed all or substantially all checks, personally initiated all or substantially all other payments, and insisted he personally approve payments he did not personally initiate. He even personally went to the bank to send wires of PCI funds.

82. By contrast, Huang refused to show shareholder ledgers or financial records to officers or members of PCI's board, including those with a statutory and/or business reason for access. Indeed, Kasprzak served a proper demand for the shareholder ledger in February 2023, to which he is entitled under Nevada law. In response, PCI simply refused his request without a legitimate legal basis for doing so.

83. As alleged herein, Huang treated Pasaca Group like his personal business, where he unilaterally made decisions binding Pasaca Group entities, including PCI and Innova without oversight, board meetings, or even reasonable discussion. In fact, on information and belief, there have been no shareholder meetings, few board meetings, and at many times Huang served as the sole member of the board of directors of PCI.

84. For example, on more than one occasion from approximately January 2022 to September 2022, Innova's chief financial officer, Guzel Lumpkin relayed to Kasprzak that she could not access or release Innova's money because "Charles never wanted to approve [her] access." Huang's actions prevented Ms. Lumpkin from building "proper entitlement control" or effectively carrying out her obligations as CFO. On information and belief, PCI's CFO, Cliff Guan, experienced such consternation from Huang's repeated and continuous mismanagement of corporate funds and assets that he developed serious health complications and ultimately resigned from his position in mid-2022.

85. Because Huang had financial control of PCI and Pasaca Group, including Innova, Huang was able to, unilaterally and without warning, pull hundreds of millions of dollars in and out of Innova's bank accounts and send money overseas to Hong Kong and Singapore. These actions hampered Innova's ability to do business. For example, on or around April 29, 2022, Guan, at Huang's instruction, requested that over $200 million be pulled from Innova's accounts to two PCI checking accounts. After Kasprzak asked Guan why Huang was "emptying the IMG coffers," Guan simply responded that "it is Charles's decision," claiming that "IMG [did] not need those money [sic] in the near future." In reality, on information and belief, Huang was creating a rainy-day fund in case his fortune in the U.S. ran dry and he chose to flee U.S. jurisdiction.

86. On information and belief, Huang has recently transferred $100 million of PCI assets to overseas bank accounts in Hong Kong and another $100 million to accounts in Singapore.

87. In response to Huang's actions, on or around May 5, 2022, Ms. Lumpkin sent a message to Kasprzak expressing her concern, stating "I am really concerned that PCI is removing all the cash from IMG all together. They could have transferred it into the separate account where only Charles has access, if he wants, but keep it on IMG balance sheet." Kasprzak responded that he had "no visibility into the logic."

88. On or about May 6, 2022, Ms. Lumpkin sent Kasprzak an email showing "all the transfers" from Innova to PCI. According to Ms. Lumpkin, from January 2021 to March 2022, more than $1 billion was transferred out of Innova to PCI. Ms. Lumpkin stated she had "no knowledge" of some of the distributions until after the fact.

89. On the same day, Ms. Lumpkin emailed Kasprzak and Guan asking "to understand what is the overall plan and the needs for certain movements" and for "Board resolutions for all prior cash transfers out of IMG to PCI" because she did not have the information and "need[ed] to have proper documentation and back up for material cash transfers and transactions."

90. On information and belief, Huang's combination of incompetence, power, and greed has squandered, or moved to undisclosed locations and uses, more than $1 billion of PCI assets generated from the U.K. sales. Kasprzak diligently endeavored to stop Huang, but given Huang's unilateral action, power, and Pasaca Group's structures, Kasprzak's efforts were futile.

91. Huang's actions as alleged above constitute oppression, fraud, and malice with respect to Kasprzak. Huang deliberately intended to injure Kasprzak and avoid paying Kasprzak through fraud, breaching agreements and promises, looting Pasaca Group, hiding assets, and spreading lies about Kasprzak to tarnish his reputation. This egregious and intentional conduct provides ample bases for the following claims.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

CAUSE OF ACTION ONE:
Breach of Oral Contract
(Against all Defendants)

92. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-91 as if set forth fully here in.

93. In or around mid-2022 Kasprzak and Huang entered into an oral agreement in which Huang agreed that Defendants would repurchase, and Kasprzak agreed to sell, Kasprzak's outstanding shares for a total of at least $75 million.

94. At the same time, Kasprzak continued to assist Innova as interim CEO and PCI as Chief Legal Officer at Huang's request.

95. In or around May of 2022, Huang agreed that Kasprzak would resign as an officer and director PCI and Innova upon the repurchase of Kasprzak's shares for no less than $75 million. Over the next several months, Kasprzak and Huang solidified that Kasprzak's last day would be September 30, at which time Defendants would repurchase Kasprzak's shares and Kasprzak would simultaneously voluntarily resign from his positions within Pasaca Group.

96. Relying on the oral agreement, Kasprzak performed all or substantially all of his obligations under the oral agreement, or was excused from performing any things he did not perform thereunder.

97. Defendants have totally breached the oral agreement, and continue to do so, by failing to repurchase Kasprzak's shares for the agreed upon amount.

98. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in an amount in excess of $25,000 to be proven at trial, and not less than $75 million, the minimum price for which Defendants agreed to repurchase Kasprzak's shares.

99. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION TWO:
Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing
(Against all Defendants)

100. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-99 as if set forth fully here in.

101. In or around mid-2022 Kasprzak and Huang entered into an oral agreement in which Huang agreed to repurchase, and Kasprzak agreed to sell, Kasprzak's outstanding shares for a total of at least $75 million.

102. At all times, Kasprzak engaged with Huang in good faith, staying as an officer and director of Pasaca Group entities long past when he wanted to, relying on Huang's promises that Kasprzak's stock repurchase would occur.

103. Kasprzak has performed all or substantially all of his obligations under the oral agreement, or was excused from performing any things he did not perform thereunder. Kasprzak is entitled to receive the benefits of his oral contract with Huang.

104. Defendants have totally breached the oral agreement, and continue to do so, by failing to repurchase Kasprzak's shares for the agreed upon amount and denying the existence of the agreement, and accordingly have frustrated the purpose of the agreement. Defendants have knowingly and falsely denied the existence of the agreement, depriving Kasprzak the benefit of the agreement and frustrating its purpose.

105. Defendants also breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing when Defendants pretextually terminated Kasprzak and refused to honor their agreement to repurchase Kasprzak's shares, thereby depriving Kasprzak of the entire purpose of the agreement.

106. Defendants unfairly interfered with Kasprzak's right to receive the benefits of the contract at the value promised to Kasprzak. Huang represented repeatedly to Kasprzak that Kasprzak would be entitled to at least an equal repurchase value as Elliott. Yet Huang deceptively and secretly went behind Kasprzak's back to renege on his promises, and instead manufactured a thin justification for Kasprzak's termination in an effort to avoid paying Kasprzak what everyone agreed he was owed for his shares.

107. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in an amount in excess of $25,000 to be proven at trial, and not less than $75 million, the amount Defendants agreed to repurchase Kasprzak's shares for.

108. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION THREE
Promissory Estoppel
(Against all Defendants)

109. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-108 as if set forth fully here in.

110. Defendants made a clear and unambiguous promise to Kasprzak to purchase Kasprzak's PCI shares for at least $75 million. Huang and PCI desired and reasonably expected the promise to induce action or forbearance by Kasprzak, including remaining at PCI and Innova beyond when he otherwise would have left. Huang's and PCI's promise did in fact induce the desired action and forbearance by Kasprzak. Injustice can be avoided only by enforcement of Huang's and PCI's promise.

111. Even more specifically, Huang intended Kasprzak to rely on these representations and promises and to induce Kasprzak to remain to perform the difficult and unpleasant tasks of shepherding Innova through its downsizing, various legal disputes, employee unrest, and its search for a permanent CEO. Kasprzak reasonably and justifiably relied on Huang's and PCI's promises and put his trust in Defendants that Defendants would fulfill their promises and therefore remained at PCI longer than he wished to remain in reliance on Defendants' promises.

112. Kasprzak's reliance on Defendants' promises was a substantial factor in causing Kasprzak's harm as alleged herein.

113. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial, and not less than $75 million, the amount for which Defendants agreed to repurchase Kasprzak's shares.

114. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION FOUR
(Against Huang)

115. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-114 as if set forth fully here in, and alleges fraud in the alternative to breach of contract.

116. In and around mid-2022, Huang intentionally and repeatedly made false representations to Kasprzak that Defendants would repurchase Kasprzak's shares of PCI for at least $75 million when in fact, Defendants had no intention to do so. Defendants' actions have effectively nullified Kasprzak's ownership interest in PCI.

117. When pressed, Defendants continually reassured Kasprzak that he would get the money he was rightfully owed.

118. On information and belief, Defendants knew that such representations were false but continued to make false representations to Kasprzak for the purpose of inducing him to remain at Pasaca Group and continue to render services.

119. Defendants repeated false representations caused Kasprzak to remain employed by PCI and Innova, and to undertake considerable difficult and unpleasant work on behalf of Pasaca Group while forgoing other opportunities.

120. Kasprzak's reliance was reasonable, given Huang's performance of his similar agreement with Elliott and others and PCI's financial condition.

121. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in an amount in excess of $25,000 to be proven at trial, and not less than $75 million, the amount for which Defendants agreed to repurchase Kasprzak's shares.

122. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION FIVE:
Breach of Duties of Care, Loyalty and Candor
(Against Huang)

123. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-122 as if set forth fully here in.

124. Huang was a co-venturer with Kasprzak and owed duties of care, loyalty and candor to Kasprzak, as well as Elliott, Xu, and Luo and PCI, as a co-venturer in the business dealings related to the co-venture.

125. Huang knowingly breached his duties to his co-venturers by repeatedly making reckless investments with the co-venture's funds without proper due diligence and without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers, and engaging in self-dealing business transactions that either Huang or Huang's family, friends, and girlfriends had financial interest in, including, but not limited to, ATL, Prima Air, Enikam, Pasaca Insurance, and Pasaca Entertainment, and creating legal risks for PCI engaging in improper activities with Pasaca Group employees, and doing so in Pasaca Group-owned property.

126. These breaches of duty have resulted in a loss of value of shares of PCI.

127. Kasprzak and the other co-venturers did not consent to any of Huang's aforementioned transactions as Kasprzak and the other partners often had no knowledge of Huang's self-dealings until it was too late.

128. As a direct and proximate cause of Huang's conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in an amount in excess of $25,000 to be proven at trial.

129. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION SIX
Unjust Enrichment
(Against all Defendants)

130. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-129 as if set forth fully here in.

131. As a co-venturer, Huang owed fiduciary duties to Kasprzak, as well as Elliott, Xu, and Luo and PCI, in the business dealings related to the co-venture.

132. Huang was unjustly enriched when he caused, without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers, the co-venture to make business deals on behalf of PCI with businesses affiliated with his friends, family members, and girlfriends. Huang was unjustly enriched at Kasprzak's expense because Huang's gross mismanagement and flagrant self-dealing substantially reduced the value of the co-venture and later Kasprzak's shares in PCI, while inequitable and undeservedly enriching Huang directly.

133. Huang also was unjustly enriched when he used PCI funds to pay for personal homes, and dwellings and salaries for his girlfriends.

134. Defendants have also unjustly enriched themselves by retaining at least $75 million that they are obligated to pay Kasprzak but have retained for themselves.

135. As a consequence of Huang's self-dealing, it would be inequitable for Huang to retain benefits gained using PCI funds. As a direct and proximate cause of Huang's conduct as alleged herein, Kasprzak has been damaged in excess of $25,000 to be proven at trial.

136. Kasprzak has been forced to retain counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of his attorneys' fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

CAUSE OF ACTION SEVEN
Accounting
(Against All Defendants)

137. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-136 as if set forth fully here in.

138. On February 17, 2023, Kasprzak brought a demand on PCI for PCI's stock ledger under Nevada Revised Statute 78.105. On February 27, 2023, PCI wrongfully refused Kasprzak's request.

139. On information and belief, Huang caused PCI to transfer significant sums of money overseas and out of reach of PCI's creditors.

140. Kasprzak does not have sufficient information about PCI's assets, investments, and transactions, while Defendants have complete access to those records. Kasprzak is entitled to a complete accounting of PCI's assets, investments, and transactions as a partial owner in PCI, as evidenced by his equity stake, and as a co-venturer in PCI and Pasaca Group, but requires an accounting to assess the value of his equity interest in PCI that Defendants are wrongfully withholding from him by failing to repurchase his stock.

141. Kasprzak is entitled to damages as alleged herein to a sum no less than $75 million but the full amount of which is unknown at present and cannot be ascertained without an accounting.

CAUSE OF ACTION EIGHT
Fraudulent Transfer
(Against all Defendants)

142. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-141 as if set forth fully here in.

143. Kasprzak is also entitled to at least $75 million, or the amount for which Defendants agreed to repurchase, and Kasprzak agreed to sell, Kasprzak's outstanding shares.

144. On information and belief, Huang and PCI have purposefully hidden PCI's assets by transferring money to overseas bank accounts and by using millions of dollars to pay for personal residences, aircraft, and other luxuries solely for himself and his own enjoyment, and salary, clothing, vehicles, jewelry, and residences for his girlfriends.

145. On information and belief, Huang has knowingly and intentionally sent at least $200 million of PCI's assets overseas where it will be out of reach of PCI's creditors, including Kasprzak, and be available for Huang without any oversight.

146. On information and belief, the overseas transfer of assets out of PCI and Innova by Huang was designed to hinder, delay, or avoid payment of PCI's obligations, including the $75 million owed to Kasprzak for the repurchase of his stock and to remove or conceal assets to make it more difficult for PCI's creditors, including Kasprzak, to recover.

147. Kasprzak is entitled to damages as alleged herein for Huang's and PCI's fraudulent transfer activity of a sum no less than $75 million but the extent to which is unknown at present and cannot be ascertained without an accounting.

CAUSE OF ACTION NINE
Defamation Per Se
(Against all Defendants)

148. Kasprzak repeats and reasserts each and every allegation made in ¶¶ 1-147 as if set forth fully here in.

149. In a written company-wide message on September 30, 2022, Huang announced Kasprzak's departure from Innova and PCI, that Huang was taking over as Innova's interim CEO, and then stated that "[a]s a matter of principles [sic], I have zero tolerance for internal and external corruption, racial discrimination, sexual harassment, and all other bad behaviors." This was intended to and did convey that these Huang's purported "principles" and "zero tolerance" for corruption, racial discrimination, sexual harassment, and "other bad behaviors" were not shared by Kasprzak as CEO and that Kasprzak engaged in such activity. The statement was knowingly false and was intended to and did harm Kasprzak's reputation, had the impact of damaging Kasprzak's reputation with his former co-workers and others to whom the statement would be disseminated inside and outside Pasaca Group, and was not privileged.

150. On information and belief, after September 30, 2022, Huang also falsely told Kasprzak's former co-workers, both orally and in writing, that Kasprzak stole money from PCI and was terminated for improper activity. This includes but is not limited to an October 3, 2022 email regarding Kasprzak's pretextual termination.

151. On information and belief, Huang intentionally made these false and defamatory statements, knew they would injure Kasprzak's reputation and had malicious intent to harm Kasprzak's reputation.

152. Kasprzak's reputation was damaged as a direct and proximate cause of Huang's false and defamatory statements and is entitled to damages for pain and suffering, damage to his reputation, and lost wages in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Kasprzak requests that the Court enter judgment against Defendants for:

153. Actual damages in the amount of no less than $75 million;

154. Special and general damages for pain and suffering, damage to Kasprzak's reputation, and lost wages in an amount to be determined at trial;

155. Pre- and post-judgment interest on the $75 million owed to Kasprzak pursuant to the promise and agreement by Huang on behalf of PCI, and any other award of damages;

156. Unjust enrichment in an amount to be determined at trial;

157. Punitive damages;

158. A full accounting of PCI, Pasaca Group, and Huang's finances, including full and unfettered access to books and records;

159. Affirmative injunctive relief;

160. Preliminary and permanent injunctive relief with respect to Huang, PCI, and other companies within the Pasaca Group to the extent controlled by Huang and/or PCI to preserve PCI's assets, avoid unjust enrichment of Huang, and dilution of Kasprzak's ownership interest in PCI, by preventing transfers of assets outside of Pasaca Group, new investments, compensation, distributions, or other transfers to Huang, his family and girlfriends, financial or other business activities with friends, or associates of Huang and/or Rogers, issuance of equity securities or instruments that might be exercised for, or converted into, equity instruments, incurrence of debt, or the pursuit of litigation that is bleeding the company;

161. Costs;

162. Attorneys' fees; and

163. Such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Kening Xu

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

KENING XU, an individual,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CHARLES CHUNHUA HUANG, an individual,

Defendant.

Case No. 23AHCV00546

COMPLAINT FOR

(2) BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTIES;
(3) BREACH OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT;
(4) BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING;
(5) FRAUD; AND
(6) ACCOUNTING

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Kening Xu, for his complaint against Defendant Charles Chunhua Huang, alleges as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Kening Xu ("Mr. Xu") is a resident of Los Angeles County, California.

2. Defendant Charles Chunhua Huang ("Mr. Huang") is a resident of Los Angeles County, California.

VENUE

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to section 395(a) of the Code of Civil Procedure because the defendant resides in Los Angeles County, California.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4. Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang have known each other for over 20 years. Beginning in 2017, they worked together in a series of business ventures, such as a paper pallet project, the potential public listing of a pharmaceutical company, a hemp production and processing facility in Nevada, and the potential public listing of a burial business, to name a few. None succeeded.

5. Following the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic in early 2020, Mr. Huang and Mr. Xu, joined by Daniel Elliott, Robert Kasprzak, and Vincent Luo, started pursuing the sales of COVID-19-related products, COVID test kits in particular, to various government agencies.

6. Together, those five co-venturers worked for profit without pay. Mr. Huang used Innova Medical Group, Inc. ("Innova"), a company he incorporated in Nevada in March 2020, as the business entity interfacing with government agencies on behalf of the joint venture. Innova was treated by Mr. Huang as a wholly owned subsidiary of Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("Pasaca"), another company Mr. Huang incorporated in Nevada in December 2016. The other co-venturers worked on the mutual understanding that if the joint venture succeeded, their interests in the joint venture would be embodied in whichever business entity to which the interest of the joint venture would be ultimately transferred.

7. In response to the increased workload of the joint venture, Mr. Huang suggested that Mr. Xu move to Arcadia/Pasadena, California. Mr. Huang represented to Mr. Xu that Mr. Xu would receive "at least 5%" of the interest in the joint venture.

8. In mid-June 2020, Mr. Xu moved his family from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Arcadia, California and took charge of the joint venture's day-to-day operations in a newly-rented facility in Monrovia, California. Mr. Xu also advanced substantial operational expenses for the joint venture.

9. Together, the co-venturers worked alongside each other day and night. Eventually, their efforts paid off. One particular test kit Innova promoted was on the verge of being selected by the U.K. government. Prior to the deal closing, the U.K. government required proof of an appropriate insurance policy. In or around September, 2020, Mr. Xu negotiated with an insurance company regarding the purchase of a policy that met the U.K. government's requirements and purchased the policy with his own money, thus clearing the final hurdle to closing the deal.

10. In or around September 2020, the UK government signed the first contract with Innova for over $124 million, and then second contract for over $595 million the next month. Many more followed. On information and belief, the U.K. government contracts generated a total of over $6 billion in revenue (over $2 billion in gross profit).

11. After Pasaca achieved substantial commercial success through the co-venturers' efforts, however, Mr. Huang failed to convene any meeting of the co-venturers to determine their respective shares of stocks in Pasaca. Nor did he discuss or negotiate with the other four co-venturers about the appropriate number of shares they deserved. Instead, Mr. Huang treated Pasaca as if it were his own personal property and unilaterally allocated shares to the other co-venturers without any discussion.

12. As a result, Mr. Xu, as well as the other co-venturers, received far fewer shares than they deserved. On information and belief, in contrast, Mr. Huang awarded himself, certain individuals related to him, and Pasaca Capital, LLC (a company owned and controlled by him) more than 50% of Pasaca shares. On information and belief, many newcomers to Pasaca also received more shares than Mr. Xu did.

13. Having awarded himself the controlling interest in Pasaca, Mr. Huang unilaterally made numerous reckless investments with Pasaca's funds. For instance, Mr. Huang spent $6 million to acquire a company that made personal protective equipment (PPE), and an additional $7-8 million on 60 production lines and $3-4 million on materials, only to put the company out of operation in less than one year. Mr. Huang also spent $50 million investing in a company that made natural sweeteners, which so far has returned nothing. The total amount of losses arising out of Mr. Huang's reckless investments is staggering. Mr. Huang made these and other investment decisions without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

14. Moreover, Mr. Huang also caused Pasaca to enter into business transactions with business entities affiliated with him without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

15. On or around December 1, 2022, Mr. Xu, through his counsel, sent a letter to Mr. Huang addressing these issues in the hope of resolving them without resorting to litigation.

16. On or around January 5, 2023, Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang reached an oral agreement to resolve these disputes. Mr. Huang agreed, among other things, that Mr. Xu would receive 5% of Pasaca shares and all past dividends those shares would have received. Mr. Huang also agreed to a $10 million initial payment to Mr. Xu. In exchange, Mr. Xu agreed, among other things, that he would not file suit once the initial payment was made. Both parties memorialized and exchanged their understanding of the agreement in writing, which was generally aligned with the terms agreed upon orally, with the understanding that they would execute a full written settlement agreement later.

17. Mr. Huang later turned to his attorneys for the preparation of the first draft of the written settlement agreement. Mr. Xu and his attorney followed up diligently but were repeatedly told that the draft was delayed for one reason or another. Most recently, on or around February 21, 2023, Mr. Huang told Mr. Xu in a WeChat message that the delay was due to some extra due diligence on the proper tax treatment of all Pasaca shares, including the 5% shares Mr. Xu was to receive.

18. On or around February 28, 2023, Mr. Huang's attorney finally forwarded a draft settlement agreement, which vastly departed from the terms agreed upon by the parties before. The draft made no mention of the 5% Pasaca shares to Mr. Xu or the past dividends on those shares; it offered only a payment of $2.2 million to Mr. Xu. Mr. Xu's demand for explanations went unanswered.

19. Being left with no other choice, Mr. Xu now brings this action to seek his fair share of the joint venture and to hold Mr. Huang responsible for his mismanagement and misappropriation of the joint venture's properties.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Joint Venture Agreement

20. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 19 as if fully set forth herein.

21. Under California law, a joint venture "is an undertaking by two or more persons jointly to carry out a single business enterprise for profit." Nelson v. Abraham (1947) 29 Cal.2d 745, 749.

22. Following the onset of the COVID-19 Pandemic in early 2020, Mr. Huang, Mr. Xu, Daniel Elliott, Robert Kasprzak, and Vincent Luo formed a joint venture for profit and started pursuing the sales of COVID-19-related products, COVID test kits in particular, to various government agencies.

23. There was no agreement regarding the specific distribution of ownership interest among those five co-venturers. Under Arnold v. Humphreys (1934) 138 Cal. App. 637, 643 ("In the absence of evidence of an agreement to the contrary, the members of a joint adventure will participate equally in the profits and losses of the enterprise."), each co-venturer, Mr. Xu included, is entitled to an equal share —20%—of this joint venture under California law.

24. Mr. Xu has provided all, or substantially all, of the services and money required of him for fulfillment of the purpose of the joint venture agreement.

25. After Pasaca/Innova achieved substantial commercial success, Mr. Huang failed to cause Pasaca shares to be distributed among the co-venturers either by agreement or equally as provided by law. As a result, Mr. Huang breached the joint venture agreement.

26. As a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the joint venture agreement, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount according to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $400,000,000. Mr. Huang's breach of the joint venture agreement is a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Fiduciary Duties

27. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 26 as if fully set forth herein.

28. As a co-venturer, Mr. Huang owes fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to Mr. Xu, as well as the other co-venturers, in the business dealings related to the joint venture.

29. Mr. Huang breached his fiduciary duty of care by failing to act as a reasonably careful co-venturer, including by making numerous reckless investments with the joint venture's funds without proper due diligence and without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

30. Mr. Huang also breached his fiduciary duty of loyalty by making business deals on behalf of Pasaca with business entities affiliated with him without approval of, or prior notice to, his co-venturers.

31. Mr. Xu was harmed by Mr. Huang's breach of fiduciary duties. Mr. Huang's conduct was a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Settlement Agreement

32. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 31 as if fully set forth herein.

33. On or around January 5, 2023, Mr. Xu and Mr. Huang reached an oral agreement to settle then-existing claims between the parties.

34. Mr. Huang has materially breached the parties' oral settlement agreement.

35. Until Mr. Huang's material breach, Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the terms, conditions, covenants, and promises required of him under the oral settlement agreement.

36. Accordingly, as a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the settlement agreement, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount subject to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $100 million.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

37. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 36 as if fully set forth herein.

38. Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the services and money required of him for fulfillment of the purpose of the joint venture agreement.

39. Until Mr. Huang's material breach of the parties' oral settlement agreement, Mr. Xu has performed all, or substantially all, of the terms, conditions, covenants, and promises required of him under the agreement.

40. Each agreement contains an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

41. At least by distributing Pasaca shares unfairly, Mr. Huang breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing under the joint venture agreement.

42. At least by materially breaching the oral settlement agreement without explanation, Mr. Huang breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing under the oral settlement agreement.

43. As a direct and proximate result of Mr. Huang's breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Mr. Xu has suffered damages in an amount according to proof at trial, but estimated at no less than $400,000,000. Mr. Huang's breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu harm.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Fraud

44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 43 as if fully set forth herein.

45. In or around early 2020, Mr. Huang made representations and promises to Mr. Xu, that Mr. Xu would receive "at least 5%" of the interest in the joint venture and that the co-venturers would receive their fair share if the joint venture was eventually successful.

46. On information and belief, at the time Mr. Huang made these representations and promises, he had no intention to cause Mr. Xu to receive "at least 5%" or a fair share in the joint venture, or the business entity to which the interest of the joint venture would be ultimately transferred. If Mr. Huang had disclosed his true intention to Mr. Xu, Mr. Xu would not have been involved in the joint venture in the manner he did.

47. Moreover, in or around January 2023, to delay Mr. Xu's filing of this lawsuit, Mr. Huang made representations and promises to Mr. Xu that Mr. Xu would receive 5% of Pasaca shares as well as all past dividends for those shares and that Mr. Huang would make a $10 million initial payment to him.

48. On information and belief, at the time Mr. Huang made these representations and promises, he had no intention of cause the 5% Pasaca shares to be distributed to Mr. Xu, and the past dividends and the $10 million paid to Mr. Xu. Had Mr. Huang disclosed his true intention to Mr. Xu, Mr. Xu would not have delayed the filing of this lawsuit or entered into the oral settlement agreement with Mr. Huang.

49. Mr. Xu reasonably relied on Mr. Huang's representations and promises.

50. Mr. Xu was harmed by his reliance on Mr. Huang's representations and promises in an amount subject to proof at trial but estimated at no less than $400 million.

51. Mr. Huang's misrepresentations, promises, and omission to Mr. Xu were a substantial factor in causing Mr. Xu the harm.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Accounting

52. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

53. On information and belief, Mr. Huang caused Pasaca shares to be distributed unfairly and Pasaca to suffer financial losses.

54. Mr. Xu does not have sufficient information about the distribution of Pasaca shares and details of Pasaca investments and transactions, while Mr. Huang has complete access to those records. In or around December, 2022, Mr. Xu demanded to inspect Pasaca's books and records, but Mr. Huang failed to respond to Mr. Xu's request.

55. Mr. Xu is entitled, therefore, to damages as herein alleged in a sum that is unknown to him at present and cannot be ascertained without an accounting. Mr. Xu is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the sum exceeds $400,000,000.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Kening Xu respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor and order the following relief:

1. For compensatory and consequential damages in an amount according to proof but in no event less than $400,000,000;
2. For punitive and exemplary damages according to proof;
3. For an accounting of Pasaca Capital, Inc. and all of its subsidiaries.

4. For any and all recoverable costs, including attorney's fees;

5. For legal interest;

6. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

VERIFIED PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDATE TO COMPEL CORPORATION TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF CORPORATE RECORDS DEMANDED BY PETITIONER IN HIS CAPACITY AS DIRECTOR AND AS SHAREHOLDER

[Code Civ. Proc., §§ 1085, 1086; Corp. Code, §§ 1600, 1601, 1603]

Glaser Weil

Petitioner Sean E. Rogers ("Rogers" or "Petitioner"), who is a shareholder and a former director of Respondent Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("Pasaca"), hereby petitions this Court for a Writ of Mandate [or other extraordinary Writ or Order] to Pasaca and its controlling stockholder, Respondent Charles Huang ("Huang" and, collectively, with Pasaca "Respondents"), ordering and directing Respondents to immediately make available to Petitioner for inspection and copying all corporate records of Pasaca that Petitioner sets forth in this Petition, or to which Petitioner may demand access from time to time.

I. INTRODUCTION

1. During the COVID-19 crisis, Respondents solicited Rogers' services and induced him to serve as a director and officer of Pasaca with promises of being part of a company that would help address many of the challenges caused by the pandemic and to participate in building a diverse and revolutionary collection of businesses. Respondents promised Rogers grants of significant equity of Pasaca and other companies in Pasaca's "portfolio," including shares of Pasaca stock and warrants to purchase additional Pasaca stock. Rogers was also promised broad directorial and executive control over Pasaca.

2. Lured by Respondent's promises and the chance to make positive and meaningful corporate change, Rogers agreed to join Pasaca and to serve as a director and as its Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). Rogers also joined as a director of Pasaca's most profitable subsidiary, Innova Medical Group, Inc. ("Innova").

3. Over time, Huang's behavior became erratic, and a pattern of waste, mismanagement, and self-dealing by Huang emerged. The corporate environment at Pasaca began to sour. Huang refused to conduct himself or allow Pasaca to conduct itself in a professional, appropriate, or compliant manner. Ultimately, Respondents terminated Rogers' employment at both Pasaca and Innova and wrongfully accused Rogers of self-dealing and other malfeasance.

4. Prior to his removal as a director of Pasaca, Rogers made a demand, pursuant to Corporations Code § 1602, to inspect and copy all of the books, records and documents of every kind of Pasaca's and also of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign.

Glaser Weil

5. Pasaca responded by immediately removing Rogers as a director and then summarily refusing Rogers' inspection demand on the basis of his removal.

6. Undaunted, Petitioner then made a demand, pursuant to Corporations Code § 1601, to inspect the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of Pasaca.

7. Respondent Pasaca responded by summarily rejecting the demand on the purported basis that Rogers' demand did not "reliably demonstrate" that it was "made for a proper purpose."

8. Rogers now files this Petition for Writ of Mandate in order to force Pasaca to honor the inspection demands that Rogers made first in his capacity as a director of Pasaca and then as a shareholder of Pasaca.

II. THE PARTIES

9. Petitioner Sean Rogers is an individual who resides in Dallas, Texas. Rogers is a significant shareholder of Pasaca, holding no less than 5% of Pasaca's outstanding shares. Rogers is also a former director and former officer of Pasaca, having served as Pasaca's Chief Executive Officer. Rogers also served as a director of Innova.

10. Respondent Pasaca is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada and registered as a foreign corporation in the State of California. Pasaca is engaged in the business of investment activities. Pasaca's principal place of business in located in California, at 800 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 900, Pasadena, CA 91101. Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Pasaca is a foreign corporation subject to the requirements of California Corporations Code § 2115 (a "Quasi-California Corporation").

11. Respondent Chunhua "Charles" Huang ("Huang") is an individual who, upon information and belief, resides in Arcadia, California. Huang is Pasaca's majority shareholder and, upon information and belief, Huang is also the current Chairman and CFO of Pasaca and is currently a director and the CEO of Innova. At all times herein relevant, Huang was and is the controlling officer, director, and stockholder of Pasaca and is, in fact, the alter ego of Pasaca, in that there exists, and at all times herein mentioned there existed, a unity of interest and ownership between Huang and Pasaca, such that any individuality and separateness between each of them has ceased, and Pasaca is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a mere shell, instrumentality, and conduit through which Huang carries on his business in the corporate name exactly as he had conducted it prior to formation, exercising complete control and dominance of such business to such an extent that any individuality or separateness of Huang and Pasaca do not, and at all times mentioned did not, exist. Adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of Pasaca as an entity distinct from Huang would permit an abuse of the corporate privilege and would sanction fraud and promote injustice.

12. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate or otherwise, of the Respondents named herein as DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, are unknown to Petitioner, who therefore sues said Respondents by such fictitious names and will amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when the same are ascertained. Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that all Respondents, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, are and were the alter ego of the other Respondents, that the actions, representations, and other conduct alleged herein of the one were and are the actions, representations, and conduct of the others, that each of them is and was bound thereby as having done, made, and/or committed the same directly, and that each of the Respondents designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings designated herein and caused injury and damages proximately thereby to Petitioner as hereinafter alleged.

13. At all times herein mentioned, Respondents, both named and fictitious, were the principals, beneficiaries, agents, co-conspirator, joint ventures, subcontractors, alter egos, third party beneficiaries, partners, servants, contractors, trustees, employees, or otherwise, of the remaining Respondents, and each of them, for the agreements, transactions, events, omissions, and/or acts hereinafter described, and that the acts and omissions herein alleged were done by them, acting individually, through such capacity and within the scope of their authority, employment, and/or agency and that said conduct was ratified and adopted by each of the remaining Respondents.

14. At all times herein mentioned, Respondents, both named and fictitious, whether all of them or some combination thereof, conspired together for the purpose of accomplishing an unlawful purpose and/or a lawful purpose unlawfully.

Finally, "[t]he right of inspection does not extend to records not reasonably related to the proper purpose for which it is sought." Schnabel v. Superior Court, 5 Cal.4th 704, 717 (1993). Rather, the inspection must be "for a purpose reasonably related to the holder's interest as a shareholder." Cal. Corp. Code § 1601(a)(1). You claim that the purpose for Rogers' inspection is to ascertain the value of his shares and to determine whether to sell his interests in PCI. But the majority of the records he seeks does not appear reasonably related to such a purpose. Courts will deny a shareholder's right to inspect corporate records when it appears the shareholder is on a fishing expedition. See Dandini v. Superior Court in and for Alameda County, 38 Cal.App.2d 32, 35 (1940); Homestake Mining Co. v. Superior Court of City and County of San Francisco, 11 Cal.App.2d 488, 496 (1936). Given the scope of Rogers' requests for records and [redacted], PCI has reason to believe that Rogers' inspection is not for a proper purpose relating to his shareholder interest, and that his inspection amounts to a fishing expedition. Accordingly, Rogers is not entitled to inspection of all of the documents contained in his demand.

For these reasons, PCI declines to make all of the documents requested in Schedule II of your October 20, 2023 correspondence available for Rogers' inspection.

Limited Inspection Upon Execution of Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreement

Notwithstanding PCI's objections as stated above, PCI may be willing to provide certain of its records for Rogers' inspection as a showing of good faith. Given the proprietary and confidential nature of these records, however, PCI requests that Rogers execute a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement prior to such inspection. This agreement would require Rogers to agree that he keep any information he inspects confidential, and to not utilize such confidential information for any other purpose than to assess the value of his shares.

If your client is amenable to this proposition, please let us know and we can provide a confidential and non-disclosure agreement for Rogers' execution. Please contact my office if you wish to discuss this matter further. We look forward to hearing from you.

stands for the proposition that a former director has no right to demand inspection of corporate records. 185 Cal.App.4th at 919 ("[C]urrent director status is required to pursue current inspection rights.") (emphasis in original); see also Fowler v. Golden Pacific Bancorp, Inc., 80 Cal.App.5th 205, 216 (2022) ("It is well established that a director's right to inspect corporate books and records ends upon his or her removal from office. A former director has no right to an ongoing and enforceable right to inspect corporate records."). As you were informed by PCI's prior counsel, Sidley Austin LLP, at PCI's May 9, 2023 stockholder meeting, Rogers was not re-elected as a director of PCI.

You claim [redacted] justifies Rogers' inspection demand because a former director retains the right to inspect corporate records when there is a "potential exposure to personal liability for his own acts as a director." See, e.g., Wolf, 185 Cal.App.5th at 922. Irrespective of whether this may be true, as you note yourself, [redacted]. As such, Rogers' cited bases [redacted].

Thus, Rogers has no basis to demand inspection of PCI's records pursuant to Corporations Code section 1602.[1] PCI denies Rogers' inspection demand, which include all of the requests contained in Schedule I of your October 20, 2023 correspondence.

Rogers' Inspection Demand Pursuant to Corporations Code section 1601

With respect to Rogers' inspection demand made pursuant to Corporations Code section 1601, "shareholder status does not in and of itself entitle an individual to unfettered access to corporate confidences and secrets." National Football League Properties, Inc. v. Superior Court, 65 Cal.App.4th 100, 107 (1998); see also Thomas v. Gordon, 85 Cal.App.4th 113, 122 (2000) ("Even a shareholder has only a limited right to access to corporate financial records."). Indeed, section 1601 only explicitly allows inspection of "[t]he accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board." Cal. Corp. Code § 1601(a)(1).

As the California Court of Appeal noted in Farnum v. Iris Biotechnologies, Inc., No. H042858, 2018 WL 6251416 (Cal. Ct. App. Nov. 29, 2018), "[i]t is clear from [section 1601] that the Legislature did not intend to permit a shareholder to inspect, for example, the contract files or property files of the corporation or any files other than the accounting records." 2018 WL 6251416, at *7 (emphasis added). Here, the requests that Rogers seeks pursuant to section 1601 plainly go beyond mere accounting records.

California courts also impose other limitations on shareholder inspections. For instance, when considering a shareholder's right of inspection, privacy interests must also be weighed accordingly. See Schnabel, 5 Cal.4th at 718. And, "[i]n California, the appellate courts have refused to carve out a shareholder exception to the statutory attorney-client privilege accorded to corporations." National Football League Properties, Inc., 65 Cal.App.4th at 107. Because many of the documents Rogers seeks are protected by privacy interests and/or attorney-client privilege as between PCI and its legal counsel, PCI will not give Rogers access to that information.

[1] It is also worth noting that a director's right to inspect records is not necessarily absolute: "courts may limit inspection rights when a director intends to misuse those rights to harm the corporation." Fowler, 80 Cal.App.5th at 220.

Re: Sean Rogers' Demand to Inspect Books, Records, and Minutes of Pasaca Capital, Inc.

Dear Mr. Suarez:

We are in receipt of your correspondence, dated October 20, 2023, in which you demand that your client Sean Rogers ("Rogers") be given access to inspect records from Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI"). In your correspondence, you assert that Rogers has a right to inspect PCI's records pursuant to California Corporations Code sections 1601 and 1602.

As an initial matter, the California Corporations Code does not apply to PCI, a Nevada corporation. As articulated by the Supreme Court of the United States, "[t]he internal affairs doctrine is a conflict of laws principle which recognizes that only one State should have the authority to regulate a corporation's internal affairs." Edgar v. MITE Corp., 457 U.S. 624, 645 (1982). As the Court of Chancery of Delaware explained, "[u]nder constitution principles outlined by the Supreme Court of the United States . . . stockholder inspection rights are a matter of internal affairs." Juul Labs, Inc. v. Grove, 238 A.3d 904, 917 (Del. Ch. 2020). Because PCI is a Nevada corporation, only the state of Nevada should govern the inspection rights of its stockholders.

Nevertheless, assuming arguendo that California Corporations Code could apply to PCI, Rogers' status as a former PCI director and PCI shareholder does not entitle him to all of the documents requested in your correspondence. Not only is the inspection demand incredibly overbroad in scope, but most of the requests seek personal, privileged, confidential and/or proprietary business information. For this reason, the bulk of documents that Rogers seeks is improper. Nonetheless, and as a show of good faith, PCI is willing to make certain of its records available for inspection provided Rogers executes a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement.

Rogers' Inspection Demand Pursuant to California Corporations Code section 1602

California Corporations Code section 1602 grants corporate directors the right to inspect records of a foreign corporation with its principal office in California. However, this right only applies to current directors. Indeed, the case to which you cite, Wolf v. CDS Devco, 185 Cal.App.4th 903 (2010), clearly

75. Respondents' refusal to comply with Petitioner's inspection demand was and is without justification in that Petitioner's inspection demand is authorized by law, and in that Respondents have failed to show or even assert that the inspection demand is not for a purpose reasonably related to Petitioner's interests as a shareholder.

76. Petitioner has incurred and will continue to incur costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, in enforcing Petitioner's right to inspect Pasaca's records.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner requests that the Court:

77. After a hearing, issue a peremptory writ of mandate commanding Respondents to permit Petitioner's inspection of Pasaca's books, records and documents and to make copies thereof, pursuant to Petitioner's demand under Section 1602.

78. Issue an alternative writ of mandate commanding Respondents, and each of them, to permit Petitioner, or Petitioner's attorneys, to inspect and copy Pasaca's books, records and documents and to make copies thereof, pursuant to Petitioner's demand under Section 1602 or to appear before this court and show cause why respondents have not done so.

79. After a hearing, issue a peremptory writ of mandate commanding Respondents to permit Petitioner's inspection and copying of Pasaca's accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the corporation's board—and of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California, pursuant to Petitioner's demand under Section 1601.

68. Section 1601 grants every shareholder the right to inspect "[t]he accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board ... at the corporation's principal office in California ... upon the written demand on the corporation ... at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to the holder's interests as a shareholder[.]"

69. Petitioner's demand letter specified that the purpose for the inspection and copying, which was reasonably related to his interests in Pasaca, was twofold: (1) to determine the value of his shares, and (2) to determine whether to sell his interests in the corporation.

70. Petitioner requested that Pasaca produce, electronically, all accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of Pasaca and of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in California or having its principal office in California, and deliver them to Petitioner's counsel on his behalf. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's shareholder inspection demand, pursuant to Section 1601 is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

71. On June 1, 2023, Pasaca's attorneys, Sidley Austin LLP, responded by denying Petitioner's inspection demand. Respondents' attorney questioned the applicability of Section 1601 and responded that Petitioner's inspection demand did not "reliably demonstrate that [Petitioner's] demand has been made for a proper purpose," citing to inapposite authority. A true and correct copy of Respondents' denial of Petitioner's demand pursuant to Section 1601 is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

72. On October 20, 2023, Petitioner renewed his demand that Pasaca permit Petitioner to inspect Pasaca's books, records, and documents at the corporation's headquarters in Pasadena, and demanded a response by no later than October 27, 2023. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's renewed inspection demand, pursuant to Section 1601 and Section 1602 is attached as Exhibit 5 hereto.

73. On October 27, 2023, Respondents declined to produce all of the records to which Petitioners is entitled. A true and correct copy of Respondents' denial of Petitioner's renewed inspection demand pursuant to Section 1601 and Section 1602 is attached as Exhibit 6 hereto.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION—ENFORCEMENT OF SHAREHOLDER INSPECTION DEMAND

(Against all Respondents)

62. Petitioner realleges and hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 63 hereof, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

63. Petitioner is the holder of record of 250,000 shares of Pasaca's outstanding stock, representing five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of Pasaca.

64. Pasaca is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada and registered as a foreign corporation in the State of California. Pasaca is engaged in the business of investment activities. Pasaca's principal place of business in located at 800 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 900, Pasadena, CA 91101. Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Pasaca is a Quasi-California corporation.

65. Petitioner has been told, but has never seen proof, that he was removed as a director of Pasaca. However, if Petitioner was duly removed as a director of Pasaca, Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Pasaca's remaining board members are Derrick Sun, Jianguo Xu, and Respondent Huang.

66. Petitioner is informed and believes that Pasaca maintains copies of the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of Pasaca's board of directors and those of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California. Respondents, collectively and individually, have possession and control of the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of Pasaca's board of directors and of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California.

67. On May 26, 2023, Petitioner invoked in writing, pursuant to Section 1601, his right to inspect the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of Pasaca and of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California.

purportedly undertaken in his capacity as a director of Pasaca, including his recommendation to invest in Claire together with LivePerson.

56. Pasaca continues to accuse Sean Rogers of fraud in connection with the Claire joint venture. Given Pasaca's repeated threats against Rogers, Rogers faces potential exposure to personal liability for his own acts as a director of Pasaca, including for purported commission of fraud.

57. Therefore, even though Rogers is allegedly no longer a current director of Pasaca, Rogers has an inspection right covering the period of his directorship in order to protect his personal responsibility interest as well as the interest of Pasaca's stockholders.

58. On October 20, 2023, Petitioner renewed his demand that Pasaca permit Petitioner to inspect all Pasaca's books, records, and documents at the corporation's headquarters in Pasadena, and demanded a response by no later than October 27, 2023. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's renewed inspection demand, pursuant to Section 1601 and Section 1602 is attached as Exhibit 5 hereto. Petitioner's renewed inspection demand explained why Petitioner should be allowed a limited inspection right under Section 1602, despite the fact that Petitioner was not longer serving as a director of Pasaca.

59. On October 27, 2023, Respondents denied Petitioner's demand, arguing again that Petitioner was not a director of Pasaca and, therefore, did not have any rights under Section 1602. A true and correct copy of Respondents' denial of Petitioner's renewed inspection demand pursuant to Section 1601 and Section 1602 is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

60. Respondents' refusal to comply with Petitioner's inspection demand was and is without justification in that Petitioner's inspection demand is authorized by law.

61. Petitioner has incurred and will continue to incur costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, in enforcing Petitioner's right to inspect Pasaca's records.

50. On May 17, 2023, Pasaca's attorneys, Sidley Austin LLP, responded by denying Petitioner's demand, based on Respondents' argument that Petitioner was not a director of Pasaca and, therefore, did not have any rights under Section 1602. A true and correct copy of Respondents' denial of Petitioner's demand pursuant to Section 1602 is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

51. While he was a director of Pasaca, including at the time of his inspection demand, Petitioner had "the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of Pasaca and also of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign."

52. Respondents had a clear legal duty to permit Petitioner to inspect of all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of Pasaca and also of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign all books, records, and documents of every kind of Pasaca and of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California.

53. Instead, Respondent Huang, who has exclusive control of Pasaca, purportedly caused Rogers to be removed from the board of Respondent Pasaca, in order to thwart Rogers' inspection rights.

54. When Rogers attempted to get information from Pasaca in his capacity as a shareholder, Pasaca's then-attorneys at Sidley Austin argued, in support of Pasaca's denial of Rogers' inspection rights, that "[Pasaca] is currently investigating whether your client has defrauded [Pasaca]. Further, [Pasaca] understands that your client maintains a personal friendship with Daniel Elliott, whom [Pasaca] has accused of fraud and absconding with more than $100 million."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION—ENFORCEMENT OF DIRECTOR INSPECTION DEMAND

(Against all Respondents)

42. Petitioner realleges and hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 41 hereof, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

Pasaca is engaged in the business of investment activities. Pasaca's principal place of business in located at 800 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 900, Pasadena, CA 91101. Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Pasaca is a Quasi-California corporation.

45. As described above, until recently, Petitioner was the Chief Executive Officer and a director of Pasaca.

46. On May 8, 2023, while he was still a director of Pasaca, Petitioner invoked in writing, pursuant to Section 1602, his right to inspect the books, records, and documents of Pasaca and to make copies thereof.

Though Pasaca is a Nevada corporation, it is headquartered in Pasadena, California, making Pasaca subject to Section 1602, which, by its terms, "applies to a director of any foreign corporation having its principal office in California[.]" Moreover, as set forth above, Petitioner is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Pasaca is a Quasi-

39. Pasaca's attorneys added "as you may know, [Pasaca] is currently investigating whether your client has defrauded [Pasaca]. Further, [Pasaca] understands that your client maintains a personal friendship with Daniel Elliott, whom [Pasaca] has accused of fraud and absconding with more than $100 million. As such, your client's interests appear to be diametrically opposed to [Pasaca's]." As with Pasaca's mischaracterization of Rogers' relationship with Robert LoCascio, this claim that Rogers maintained a "personal friendship with Daniell Elliott" was false. Rogers did not maintain a relationship with Mr. Elliott after Rogers learned that Elliott had been accused of defrauding Pasaca.

40. On October 20, 2023, in a last ditch effort to avoid filing this Petition, Rogers sent a renewed demand, pursuant to California Corporations Code Section 1601 and Section 1602, again demanding, in his capacity as a former director and as a current shareholder of Pasaca, to inspect the corporations books and records—and those of each of Pasaca's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California—identifying with great particularity corporate records that Petitioner demanded to inspect. Attached as Exhibit 5 hereto is a true and correct copy of Petitioner's renewed demand for inspection in his capacity as a former director and as a current shareholder of Pasaca, pursuant to Section 1601 and Section 1602, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

41. On October 27, 2023, Pasaca, through its new attorneys, Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP, refused Petitioner's inspection demand in his capacity as a former director and declined to allow Petitioner to inspect the majority of the records to which Petitioner is entitled to inspect as a shareholder of Pasaca. Attached as Exhibit 3 hereto is a true and correct copy of Petitioner's demand for inspection in his capacity as shareholder of Pasaca, pursuant to Section 1601, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

36. In his shareholder's inspection demand, Rogers identified the purposes for the requested inspection and copying, which was reasonably related to his interests in Pasaca, were: (1) to determine the value of his Pasaca shares (citing, Schnabel v. Superior Ct., 5 Cal. 4th 704, 715 (1993) and Homestake Mining Co. v. Superior Court of City and County of San Francisco, 11 Cal. App. 2d 488, 496 (1st Dist. 1936)); and (2) to determine whether to sell his interests in Pasaca (citing, Hartman v. Bandini Petroleum Co., 107 Cal. App. 659, 661 (2d Dist. 1930)).

37. The purposes identified in Petitioner's inspection demand pursuant to Section 1601 were, and are, reasonably related to Petitioner's interests as a shareholder of Pasaca.

38. Nevertheless, On June 1, 2023, Pasaca, through its then-attorneys, Sidley Austin LLP, refused Rogers' shareholder's inspection demand without justification, claiming that Rogers was required to demonstrate that his demand was not made for a proper purpose, based on wholly-inapposite authority. Attached as Exhibit 4 hereto is a true and correct copy of Respondents' response to Petitioner's demand for inspection, pursuant to Section 1601, which is incorporated million in cash. Rogers was and remained a director of Claire until he was removed by Huang several months after he was removed from Pasaca's board of directors.

27. Negotiations regarding the formation of a joint venture with LivePerson commenced before Rogers began his employment at Pasaca and continued for a year after Rogers joined Pasaca. At all times, Pasaca's board of directors and Huang were fully aware of the terms of the Claire JV Agreement being negotiated, and Pasaca's board of directors unanimously approved the Claire JV Agreement. Pasaca and LivePerson entered into the Claire JV Agreement in February 2022.

28. Huang's "questioning" of Rogers' support of the Claire JV Agreement soon turned into accusations, first implied and then express, that Rogers defrauded Pasaca with respect to Claire. In short, Huang falsely claimed that Rogers was a childhood friend of LivePerson's then-CEO, Robert LoCascio ("LoCascio") and claimed that Rogers induced Pasaca to invest in Claire to transfer wealth from Pasaca to LivePerson, for the benefit of Rogers' alleged childhood friend LoCascio, by allowing LivePerson to charge excessive and inappropriate prices to Claire.

29. In truth LoCascio was merely a business associate of Rogers and Rogers felt neither compelled nor motivated to enrich or otherwise benefit LoCascio, or even himself.

30. Fueled by Huang's suspicions, Pasaca breached its funding obligations under the Claire JV Agreement. Pasaca has repeatedly threatened and continues to threaten, and has insinuated that it intends, to sue Rogers in connection with Pasaca's investment in Claire.

31. Ultimately, on April 27, 2023, Pasaca terminated Rogers as CEO of Pasaca. At this time, however, Rogers remained a director of Pasaca.

C. Rogers Invokes His Rights of Inspection, But Respondents Deny His Rights.

32. On May 8, 2023, while he was still a director of Pasaca, Rogers sent a demand, pursuant to California Corporations Code § 1602 ("Section 1602"), in his capacity as a director of Pasaca, to inspect the books, records, and documents of Pasaca and to make copies thereof. Attached as Exhibit 1 hereto is a true and correct copy of Petitioner's demand for inspection in his capacity as a director of Pasaca, pursuant to Section 1602, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

22. In consideration for his services, Rogers was also granted a warrant to purchase an additional 250,000 shares of Pasaca's outstanding common stock at $800 per share. However, in February 2022, when Rogers asked Pasaca's then-CFO, Cliff Guan, about his warrants, Rogers was informed that his warrant had been "cancelled" without any advance notification.

B. Petitioner's and Respondents' Relationship Deteriorates and Respondents Accuse Petitioner of Fraud

23. Over time, Huang's behavior became erratic, and a pattern of waste, mismanagement, and self-dealing by Huang emerged. The corporate environment at Pasaca began to sour.

24. The relationship between Rogers and Huang grew increasingly strained. Rogers attempted to establish a corporate compliance program, corporate governance policies, and controls and procedures at Pasaca and its portfolio companies. Huang resisted at every turn. Moreover, Rogers made constant attempts to reign in Huang's questionable investments, self-dealing or otherwise conflicted transactions, and Huang's treatment of Pasaca and its assets as Huang's personal property. Huang refused to conduct himself or allow Pasaca to conduct itself in a professional, appropriate, or compliant manner. Rogers also sought to cause Pasaca to perform its contractual obligations, particularly payment obligations, but time and again, Huang would override Rogers and refuse to allow Pasaca to make contractually required payments.

25. Huang responded to Rogers's efforts by questioning Rogers' support of a joint venture between Pasaca and LivePerson, Inc. ("LivePerson"), a publicly-traded company that produces artificial intelligence software. The joint venture resulted from a subscription agreement (the "Claire JV Agreement") between Pasaca and LivePerson entered into to form Claire Holdings, Inc. ("Claire"), which would build, create, and administer a marketplace for health and well-being diagnostic testing.

26. The Claire JV Agreement provided that Pasaca would contribute $80 million to Claire and that LivePerson would contribute $20 million to Claire. At the same time, Claire entered into a Build-Out Services Agreement (the "Build-Out Agreement") that provides for Claire to purchase products and services from LivePerson with a value of $100 million in exchange for $80

15. Hereinafter, "Respondents" shall refer to respondents collectively—i.e., Huang, Pasaca, and Does 1 through 50. Whenever in this Petition reference is made to "Respondents," such allegation shall be deemed to mean the acts of Respondents acting individually, jointly, and/or severally.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16. Venue is proper as to respondent Pasaca pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395.5 because Pasaca's principal place of business is situated in Los Angeles County, California.

17. Venue is proper as to Respondent Huang in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395(a) because Respondent Huang resides in Los Angeles County, California.

18. Additionally, jurisdiction is proper in this county pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 1085 and 1086 because Petitioner has no alternative plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. The proper means for applying to the Court for relief for a refusal of a corporate inspection demand pursuant to the Corporations Code is by requesting the issuance of a writ of mandate requiring the actions and relief requested. See, e.g., Mooney v. Bartenders Union Local No. 284, 48 Cal. 2d 841 (1957).

IV. PASACA UNJUSTIFIABLY REFUSED ROGERS' INSPECTION DEMANDS

A. Rogers Joins Pasaca and Innova

19. During the COVID-19 crisis, Respondents solicited Rogers' services and induced him to serve as a director and officer of Pasaca with promises of being part of a company that would help address many of the challenges caused by the pandemic and to participate in building a diverse and revolutionary collection of businesses.

20. On or about February 11, 2021, Rogers received an employment offer letter from Pasaca for him to serve as Pasaca's CEO and as a member of its Board of Directors.

21. Concurrently with his employment offer, Rogers was also given the opportunity to purchase 5% of Pasaca's outstanding stock via a subscription agreement—i.e. 250,000 shares—of which he took advantage. Rogers is currently the owner of 250,000 shares of Pasaca's common stock, representing 5% of Pasaca's outstanding stock.

Dear Ms. Hu and Mr. Treutlin:

This firm represents Sean Rogers, who, as you know, is a director, stockholder, and the former CEO of Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI"). Pursuant to California Corporations Code section 1602 ("Section 1602"), Mr. Rogers invokes his right to inspect the books, records and documents of PCI and to make copies thereof.

Section 1602 grants every corporate director "the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the corporation of which such person is a director and also of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign." Re: Sean Rogers' Demand to Inspect the Books, Records and Documents of Pasaca Capital Inc.

Dear Ms. Glaser:

This is in response to your May 8, 2023, letter on behalf of Sean Rogers. Mr. Rogers purports to have a right to inspect and make copies of books, records, and documents of Pasaca Capital Inc. We therefore demand, on Mr. Rogers' behalf, that PCI produce, electronically, all accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of PCI and of each of PCI's subsidiaries keeping any records in California or having its principal office in California, and deliver them to us on Mr. Rogers' behalf on or before 5:00 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time on June 1, 2023. Re: Sean Rogers' Demand to Inspect the Books, Records, and Documents of Pasaca Capital, Inc.

Dear Mr. Commons:

As you are aware, this firm represents Sean Rogers, who, is a shareholder and the former CEO of Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI"). Pursuant to California Corporations Code section 1601 ("Section 1601"), Mr. Rogers hereby invokes his right to inspect the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of PCI—and of each of PCI's subsidiaries keeping any records in, or having its principal office in, California.

Section 1601 grants every shareholder the right to inspect "[t]he accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board ... at the corporation's principal office in California ... upon the written demand on the corporation ... at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to the holder's interests as a shareholder[.]" Mr. Rogers' purpose for the inspection and copying, which is reasonably related to his interests in PCI, is: (1) to determine the value of his shares (see, Schnabel v. Superior Ct., 5 Cal. 4th 704, 715 (1993); see also, Homestake Mining Co. v. Superior Court of City and County of San Francisco, 11 Cal. App. 2d 488, 496 (1st Dist. 1936)); and (2) to determine whether to sell his interests in the corporation (see, Hartman v. Bandini Petroleum Co., 107 Cal. App. 659, 661 (2d Dist. 1930)).

Though PCI is a Nevada corporation, it is headquartered in Pasadena, California, making PCI subject to Section 1601, which extends to "any foreign corporation keeping any records in this state or having its principal office in California" and to "each subsidiary ... subject to" Section 1601—i.e., "any domestic corporation, and ... any foreign corporation keeping any records in this state or having its principal office in California[.]" Cal. Corp. Code § 1601(a)(1), (3).

re Facebook, Inc. Shareholder Derivative Privacy Litigation, 411 F. Supp. 3d 649, 657-58 (denying § 1601 demand where Plaintiff failed to establish that inspection demand was not for an "improper purpose").

Regarding your request for documentation that Mr. Rogers is no longer a director of PCI, PCI's by-laws provide that directors "shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Stockholders to hold office until the next annual meeting." PCI's latest stockholder meeting took place on May 9, 2023. And during that meeting, by consent of the stockholders owning more than 50% of the outstanding shares of PCI, the Board size was fixed at three members, and Charles Huang, Derrick Sun, and Jason Xu were elected as directors of PCI. Therefore, Mr. Rogers' term as a director of PCI has expired.

PCI reserves all rights with respect to each of these issues, all rights, interests, and privileges in relation to all of its documents and all of the information they contain, and all rights to seek relief from Mr. Rogers.

Sincerely,

Sean A. Commons

Re: Sean Rogers' May 26 Demand to Inspect the Books, Records and Documents of Pasaca Capital Inc.

Dear Mr. Indeglia:

We write in response to your letter dated May 26, 2023, in which your law firm demands, on behalf of Sean Rogers, to inspect the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI") pursuant to Section 1601 of the California Corporations Code ("Inspection Demand").

It is unclear Section 1601 applies to a Nevada corporation. See, e.g., Juul Labs, Inc. v. Grove, 2020 Del. Ch. LEXIS 264 (Del. Ch. Aug. 13, 2020). But assuming for the sake of argument it could, shareholders have a limited right to inspect the books and records of a corporation. See Schnabel v. Sup. Ct., 5 Cal. 4th 704, 716 (1993) (quoting Goldstein v. Lees, 46 Cal. App. 3d 614, 621 (1975)) ("although shareholders have some rights to corporate information not available to the general public, shareholder status does not in and of itself entitle an individual to unfettered access to corporate confidences and secrets."); Thomas v. Gordon, 85 Cal. App. 4th 113, 122 (2000) ("[e]ven a shareholder has only a limited right to access to corporate financial records"). Shareholder demands must be made "for a purpose reasonably related to the holders interests as a shareholder" (Cal. Corp. Code § 1601), not whenever or for whatever a shareholder desires (Schnabel, 5. Cal. 4th at 715-16).

In addition, as you may know, PCI is currently investigating whether your client has defrauded PCI. Further, PCI understands that your client maintains a personal friendship with Daniel Elliott, whom PCI has accused of fraud and absconding with more than $100 million. As such, your client's interests appear to be diametrically opposed to PCI's.

In light of these circumstances, the Inspection Demand's boilerplate language does not reliably demonstrate that your client's demand has been made for a proper purpose. See, e.g., In

Sean Rogers' Renewed Director Inspection Demand (Corp. Code, § 1602)

California Corporations Code section 1602 ("Section 1602") grants every corporate director "the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the corporation of which such person is a director and also of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign." Cal. Corp. Code § 1602. Though PCI is a Nevada corporation, it is headquartered in Pasadena, California, making PCI subject to Section 1602, which "applies to a director of any foreign corporation having its principal office in California." Id.

Though Mr. Rogers may be a former director of PCI, which PCI has failed to substantiate, former directors have a right to inspect corporate records to the extent necessary to protect them from personal liability for acts purportedly committed during their term as a director. See, e.g., Wolf v. CDS Devco, 185 Cal. App. 4th 903, 921-922 (2010). PCI's denial of Mr. Rogers' Shareholder Inspection Demand expressly based PCI's denial on the representation that "PCI is currently investigating whether your client has defrauded PCI." And, as you surely know, [redacted] Therefore, Sean Rogers is inarguably at risk of personal exposure for acts that were purportedly committed during his term as a director of PCI.

On Sean Rogers' behalf, we renew his Director Inspection Demand, pursuant to Section 1602, for the accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board of PCI, and of each of PCI's subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign, that are listed on Schedule 1 hereto: "Documents Requested Pursuant to California Corporations Code § 1602."

Sean Rogers' Shareholder Inspection Demand (Corp. Code, § 1601)

California Corporations Code section 1601 ("Section 1601") grants every shareholder the right to inspect "[t]he accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the board and committees of the board ... at the corporation's principal office in California ... upon the written demand on the corporation ... at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to the holder's interests as a shareholder[.]" Mr. Rogers' purpose for the inspection and copying, which is reasonably related to his interests in PCI, is: (1) to determine the value of his shares (see, Schnabel v. Superior Ct., 5 Cal. 4th 704, 715 (1993); see also, Homestake Mining Co. v. Superior Court of City and County of San Francisco, 11 Cal. App. 2d 488, 496 (1st Dist. 1936)); and (2) to determine whether to sell his interests in the corporation (see, Hartman v. Bandini Petroleum Co., 107 Cal. App. 659, 661 (2d Dist. 1930)).

Re: Sean Rogers' Renewed and Final Demand to Inspect the Books, Records, and Minutes of Pasaca Capital, Inc. Pursuant to Cal. Corp. Code §§ 1601 & 1602

Dear Ms. Hsu:

We write to follow-up on our previous requests, made on behalf of Sean Rogers, for documents from Pasaca Capital, Inc. ("PCI") and to describe in greater detail the records sought thereby. As you know, Sean Rogers is a current shareholder and a former director (and officer) of PCI. On or about May 8, 2023, Mr. Rogers invoked his rights, as a director of PCI, to inspect PCI's books and records (the "Director Inspection Demand"). PCI rejected Mr. Rogers' Director Inspection Demand on the grounds that Mr. Rogers had allegedly been removed as a director of PCI. On or about May 26, 2023, Mr. Rogers invoked his rights, as a shareholder of PCI, to inspect PCI's books and records (the "Shareholder Inspection Demand"). PCI rejected Mr. Rogers' Shareholder Inspection Demand, purportedly because (1) PCI was not sure if Corporations Code section 1602 applies to a Nevada corporation (it does); (2) Mr. Rogers' Shareholder Inspection Demand failed to demonstrate that it was for a purpose reasonably related to his interests as a shareholder (it did); (3) PCI was investigating whether Sean defrauded PCI (he did not); and (4) Mr. Rogers' Shareholder Inspection Demand did not "reliably demonstrate" that it had not been made for an "improper purpose" (both irrelevant and untrue).

On August 21, 2023, you confirmed that Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP had replaced Sidley Austin LLP as PCI's outside counsel. During our various meet and confer efforts, you agreed to follow-up on Mr. Rogers' Director Inspection Demand and Shareholder Inspection Demand (together, the "Inspection Demands"). We write to provide further guidance on the documents sought by Mr. Rogers' Inspection Demands and in a final attempt to avoid burdening the Courts with a Petition to Compel PCI's compliance with Mr. Rogers' Inspection Demands.

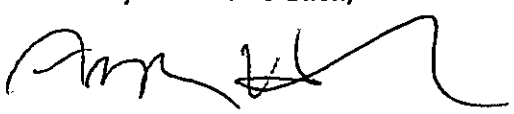
To Board of Pharmacy:

I am currently a Assisstiant Store Manager at Walgreens and need to be able to work in the Pharmcey to advance my carrer with the company. I am writting this letter as a explanation of my criminal records. I have enclosed with the paper a copy of my FBI crimianl background check for your review with my application. Through out my life I struggled with alcohol and drugs, I made some mistakes in my past that I can not change. I found the ansewer I have been looking for in the 12 step program that I am a member. I have been sober for 11 months and found a new way of living by this program that I am invoved in. I now help others who have suffered like I did. I wanted to be honest and inculde my histroy.

Thanks for your consideration,



Andrew Hansen

Subject: Request for Permission to Retake the NAPLEX

Dear Members of the Nevada Board of Pharmacy,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to respectfully request permission to retake the North American Pharmacist Licensure Examination (NAPLEX) for the sixth time.

I fully understand the significance of this request and the importance of ensuring that candidates who pass the exam meet the high standards required to protect public health. Despite my challenges, including ongoing family issues overseas and struggles with anxiety and depression, I remain committed to this goal and have made significant strides toward overcoming these barriers.

I am proud to share that I have recently passed the Nevada Multistate Pharmacy Jurisprudence Examination (MPJE), which demonstrates my growing readiness and commitment to the pharmacy profession. This accomplishment is a reflection of the hard work I have put in to strengthen my knowledge base and test-taking abilities.

Since my last attempt at the NAPLEX, I have taken additional steps to prepare thoroughly. These include significatly reducing working hours, enrolling in prep courses, working with tutors, and creating a structured study plan with other fellow classmates. I have also sought professional support to address my mental health challenges and have implemented strategies to manage stress effectively during the preparation process.

I am confident that with the experience I have gained, the resources I have utilized, and my recent success with the MPJE, I am now better positioned to pass the NAPLEX and fulfill my dream of serving as a licensed pharmacist in Nevada.

Thank you for considering my request. I would be happy to provide any additional information or documentation to support my application.

Sincerely,

Hao Di Pham

Fox Rothschild LLP

(1). Respondent did not timely renew his controlled substances registration (CS07588) by October 31, 2006. Therefore Respondent's registration lapsed as of November 1, 2006 which meant Respondent could not lawfully prescribe, possess, administer or dispense, controlled substances in Nevada effective November 1, 2006.

(2). On May 30, 2007, Respondent submitted a late renewal application along with a check. The check was not deposited by the Pharmacy Board. That Respondent did not receive any indication from the Pharmacy Board that Respondent's registration was renewed.

(3). Respondent's renewal was not processed and would not be possessed until the pending investigation with the Nevada State Board of Dental Examiners was resolved

H. On October 23, 2007, Respondent was served with a Notice of Inspection of Patient Records for Patients "D", "E" and "F".

I. On October 24, 2007, Respondent sent correspondence to the Culinary Free Pharmacy indicating a generic Rx pad had been stolen from his practice in October 2006. Subsequently there had been numerous Rx written for Lortab 10. Those Rx's were all made out to Patients "A", "B" , and "C", and that all were forgeries. Respondent further instructed the Culinary Free Pharmacy not to fill any prescriptions written on Paradise Village Dental Center Rx paper and to contact Respondent immediately.

J. On October 31, 2007, Respondent was served with the Notice of Informal Hearing and a Subpoena Duces Tecum regarding Patients "A", "B", "D", "E" and "F".

K. On December 10, 2007 an Informal Hearing was held at Respondent's attorney's office located at 517 South Third Street , Las Vegas, Nevada. Those individuals present were Respondent, his attorney John R. Lusk, Esq., Disciplinary Screening Officer James G. Kinard, Debra A. Shaffer, Board Deputy Executive Director and Board Counsel John A. Hunt, Esq.

L. The Massachusetts Consent Order dated September 3, 1997; the Stipulation with the Board date June 1, 2000; and the present authorized investigation complaint dated July 17, 2007; all involved whether Respondent issued of controlled substances that were either not related to dental treatments or involved. The Massachusetts Consent Order and the present authorized complaint both involve the issuance of forged prescription using of Respondent's prescription pads.

M. At the Informal Hearing held on December 10, 2007, Respondent gave the following testimony:

i. Respondent did not have any records for Patients "A". "B" or "C" related to the prescriptions issued and discussed to these patients. Respondent believes these prescriptions to be forgeries.

ii. Respondent has been aware since 1998 he could do a self profile with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, but Respondent has never done a self profile.

iii. Respondent acknowledges since November 1, 2006, Respondent has issued on more than one occasion prescriptions for controlled substances while not possessing a valid license with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy.

iv. Respondent did not report on his attempted license renewal of May 30, 2007 the Consent Order with the Massachusetts Dental Board or the Second Stipulation entered into with the Nevada State Board of Dental Examiners to the Nevada State Pharmacy Board .

v. Since receiving the authorized investigation complaint of July 17, 2007, Respondent never reported to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, but did report in writing to the Disciplinary Screening Officer on July 30, 2007, Respondent's contention that ~~his~~ the prescription pad at his prior practice had been stolen by Patient "A" who was also an employee of Respondent who he believes wrote other forged prescriptions to for Patient "A", "B" and "C". October 24, 2007 three months after Respondent's belief his prescription pad had be stolen by Patient "A", Respondent wrote to the Culinary Free Pharmacy regarding his suspicions regarding Patient "A" and not to fill any prescriptions made to Patient "A", "B" or "C" and to contact Respondent.

Suite 500
Las Vegas, Nevada 89169

vi. Respondent does not have any dental records or treatment plan regarding a prescription for a controlled substance written to Patient "D" on September 22, 2007 while Respondent did not possess a valid license to issue controlled substances with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. It is Respondent's contention that the treatments received by Patient "D" subsequently on January 11, 14 and 22 2008 related to the prescription issued to Patient "D" on September 22, 2007.

vii. Respondent does not have any dental records or treatment plan regarding a prescription for a controlled substance written to Patient "E" on January 11, 2007 while Respondent did not possess a valid license to issue controlled substances with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy.

viii. Respondent while he did not possess a license with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy issued three (3) prescriptions to Patient "F" on April, 20, 2007, April 24, 2007 and April 28, 2007; each prescription was written for 20 units of Hydrocodone Bitartrate and Acetaminophen, 500 mg; 7.5 mg tablet. The April 28, 2007 prescription did not appear in the dental records of Patient "F".

Provide explanation below:

This case was fully explained when I applied for my prescriber's license in 2020. I am including all the documents that were requested at that time. I was instructed to return in one year to reapply for my controlled substance certification/license. I have been gainfully employed part-time as an NP since obtaining my NP license in NV in 2019. I do not need my DEA certification but, I plan to extend my employment opportunities and would prefer not to be limited in my job search. My license revocation in CA was not patient or treatment-related.

In 2014 I pled nolo contendre to the charges presented against me on the advice of counsel to preserve my license and profession. That plea is guilty in the eyes of the Board. There are many things I could have done differently at that time. However, in the ten years since my license revocation, I have continued to work with integrity and to make sure that I have clear expectations with my employer on my time expectations of time worked and that any discrepancies are documented in writing and signed.

Source of Activity
On 02/21/14 at 0945 hours, I, Officer Blomeley Serial No 34603, was assigned to Harbor Division front desk when the PR came in to the station to file an embezzlement report.

Investigation
The victim is the Healthcare Partners medical group. The suspect is a former employee/nurse that worked for the victim. The PR is the Human Resources manager for the victim.

The PR stated that a timekeeping audit was conducted in November 2013 which caused an internal investigation of the suspect's hours worked. The PR explained that the suspect worked at two medical offices so she was allowed make her own timekeeping entries. The PR believes that the suspect possibly used a remote computer to access the victim's timekeeping system to enter hours that she did not work.

The PR provided supporting documentation that the suspect showed herself working on 98 days for a total of 1177 hours at approx. $55.00 per hour for days/hours she did not work. The total dollar amount that the suspect embezzled was $65,161.00. The first entry occurred on 07/26/13 and the last entry occurred on 11/01/13. The victim suspended the suspect from work in 11/09/13 then terminated her on 11/17/13. The suspect was terminated for falsification of timekeeping records.

Detective Camacho spoke with the PR and advised what further documentation would be needed. Attached are the documents the PR provided. The PR will email Detective Camacho the other information.

Court Information
I can testify to the contents of this report.

Pippa-

As you know, on June 2nd the Board approved your registration to prescribe dangerous drugs pursuant to NAC 639.850, with the condition that you may apply for a controlled substance registration pursuant to NRS 453.226 after one year, or June 2, 2022, and appear before the Board on that application.

When you apply, the process for obtaining a controlled substance registration from the Board and a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) registration from the DEA is explained in the application form, available at 2020 CS APP.pdf (nv.gov), and repeated below for convenience:

Step 1: Obtaining your Controlled Substance (CS) registration number A. Complete the attached Controlled Substance Application (NOTE: You must have a current Nevada practice license from your licensing board AND a Nevada practice address to complete this application.) B. Mail your completed application with the required non-refundable fee of $200.00. This can be paid for by credit or debit card or a check made payable to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. Credit or debit card payments are charged a 5% processing fee. Send the completed application to the address indicated on top of this application. C. Once your application is reviewed and approved, you will receive an email with your PENDING CS registration number. You may now proceed to Step 2 to apply for your DEA number. D. You WILL NOT receive your ACTUAL CS registration number until Steps 2 and 3 are completed.

Step 2: Obtaining your Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) number A. Complete the on-line DEA application at deadiversion.usdoj.gov. If you already have a DEA number from another state, and you want to transfer that DEA number to Nevada, you will need to complete the DEA Registration Change Requests form. (NOTE: You must have your PENDING CS registration number to complete the DEA application or the Registration Change Requests form.) B. Once you complete the DEA application or the Registration Change Requests form, you will receive your DEA certificate in the mail. C. You MUST fax (775-850-1444) or email (pharmacy@pharmacy.nv.gov) a copy of your DEA certificate to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. Once you fax or email a copy of your DEA certificate to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, you may proceed to Step 3 to apply for your PMP account.

Our licensing staff will be providing your APRN-prescribe registration number for dangerous drugs shortly.

#3. Give to give up my Controlled Substance license in Alabama in Jan. 2024 due to infractions e.g. Not doing urine drug screens on patients, Not checking the PDMP profiles on all patients, etc. Subsequently the DEA in Alabama told me to surrender my DEA license (# BB3732371). Over 2000 Alabama Doctors have to surrender their Controlled Substances DEA licenses due to multiple reasons including above statements. Sometime in February, I decided to voluntarily surrender my AL Board of Pharmacy license as well as my DEA license. I decided not to fight the Alabama Medical Board case + not attend their hearing.

Good morning,

The only public docs will be the Order to Show Cause/Order Temporarily Suspending ACSC from Nov. 2023, the voluntary surrender of ACSC, and the Order dismissing the Order to Show Cause due to the surrender. The violation allegations are stated in the Order to Show Cause.

This all had to do with his Alabama Controlled Substances Certificate and his ability to prescribe controlled substances. His license remains active, is full and unrestricted, and he was approved for a collaborative practice with Ashley Pauldin, CRNP. He has not requested for reinstatement of his ACSC.

I hope this helps. Please give me a call today before 2:00 or this Thursday/Friday anytime if you would like to discuss. The only additional item I'd be able to provide with a release is the minute entry extracts which don't say anything in additional to what was in the public documents.

Carla,

Thank you for getting back to me and for clarifying about the petition for reinstatement. I do not currently have a release from Dr. Bonuel; however, I should be able to get his consent. He knows the Board has requested more information from him and appears to be cooperative—there just seems to be a bit of a language barrier issue. Attached is what he submitted to me but as far as I can tell, there should be other public documents in addition to what he's sent me. Are you aware of any? I can also absolutely give you a call tomorrow—whatever is easiest.

Good morning Ms. Moazez, your email was forwarded to this department for response.

Do you have a release from Dr. Banuel that would allow me to share confidential information so that I can share more?

As to the voluntary surrender, the wording about the Board being able to summarily a petition to reinstate his ACSC, that only applies to Alabama.

Please let me know if I can provide any additional information that is public or, if you can send me a recent (no older than one year) release, I can tell you more. The details are pretty much all in the public documents, though.

Feel free to give me a call to discuss if that is easier. My direct line is below.

Good afternoon,

I serve as counsel for Nevada's Pharmacy Board and am reaching out in the hopes of collecting much needed information related to a prior licensee, Victor Jimenez Bonuel. He has applied for his CS license here in Nevada and has appeared at our December Board Meeting. However, at that meeting, the Board and I concluded that we needed more information about the voluntary surrender of his license on February 14, 2024 with your Board. He has provided the attached information/disclosures to me for review, but they still appear to be incomplete. Furthermore, the voluntary surrender agreement on page 14 seems to indicate that your Board can deny any petition for his reinstatement for two years after the surrender of his ACSC. Does that apply only to Alabama or is that a broad restriction? I'm doing my best to fill in the gaps for our Board as he will reappear at our next Board meeting in January. Any help you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

2. Have you been charged, arrested or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in any state?

Between 2010 and 2011, I faced intense grief following a series of traumatic losses. Despite seeking treatment from my Primary Care physician, I struggled with my emotional well-being and adapted to it as my new normal. At the time, I was balancing a Family Nurse Practitioner program, planning my wedding, and working full-time at Mayo Hospital. In May 2011, while studying abroad in England, my challenges worsened, leading to a serious mistake once I returned to a high-stress work environment in the U.S.

I was arrested and charged with one count of possession of a controlled substance and spent four days in jail before seeking outpatient treatment, where I began therapy and medication management. I've continued mental health care since then and have found stability with medication and anxiety-reduction techniques. On October 4, 2017, my record was sealed.

4. Has your license been subjected to any discipline for violation of pharmacy or drug laws in any state?

As stated in explanations provided for questions two and three, The Florida Department of Health issued discipline against Registered Nurse license #9268827. On Thursday, December 5, 2019, I presented to the FL Board of Nursing Licensure Hearing. As a result of the testimony I provided, the State of Florida Board of Nursing voted to vacate the Notice of Intent to Deny. The Board voted to approve me for a Florida single state Registered Nurse license following completion of a Board approved remedial course. Following completion of all Board requirements for licensure, The Florida Department of Health issued me license number RN9551751 on December 10, 2020. This license is currently Null and Void, as I have moved out of state and do not currently plan to apply to activate the RN license in Florida. Registered Nurse license number 95287966 in the State of California is currently in the process of renewal. Registered Nurse license number 863933 in the State of Nevada was issued on July 13, 2023 and is active. Advanced Practice license APRN-CNP 863933 in the State of Nevada was issued on May 3, 2024, is active with prescribing privileges and no discipline.

ORDER VACATING NOTICE OF INTENT TO DENY AND APPLICATION APPROVAL WITH CONTINGENCY

THIS MATTER came before the Board of Nursing (Board) at a duly noticed public meeting on December 5, 2019, in Howey-in-the-Hills, Florida, upon the Applicant's timely request for hearing in accordance with §120.57(2), Florida Statutes, concerning the above-referenced application. The reasons for denial are set forth in the Notice of Intent to Deny attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Applicant was present. The Board was represented by Deborah Bartholow Loucks, Senior Assistant Attorney General.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The allegations of fact set forth in the Notice of Intent to Deny filed on September 4, 2019, are approved, adopted, and incorporated herein by reference as the findings of fact of the Board. There is competent, substantial evidence to support the Board's findings and conclusions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The conclusions of law alleged and set forth in the Notice of Intent to Deny filed on September 4, 2019, are approved, adopted, and incorporated herein by reference as the conclusions of law of the Board.

Based on the testimony provided by the Applicant, the Board voted to vacate the Notice of Intent to Deny.

Ms. Heemsath stated that she has not practiced as a nurse within the past 5 years. Rule 64B9-3.008(4), Florida Administrative Code, provides that an applicant who has not been in the active practice of nursing within the past 5 years is required to take a remedial course prior to licensure.

The Board voted to approve Ms. Heemsath for a Florida single state Registered Nurse license which will issue once she documents successful completion of a Board approved remedial course. The remedial course must be completed within 12 months of this Final Order.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the Notice of Intent to Deny filed on September 4, 2019, is hereby vacated. The Applicant shall be issued a Florida single state registered nurse license once she has documented completion of a board approved remedial course.

This Order shall become effective upon filing with the Clerk of the Department of Health.

Nevada State Board of Pharmacy
985 Damonte Ranch Parkway, Ste 206
Reno, NV 89521

Dear Members of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,

I would like to begin by expressing my sincere gratitude for the opportunity to appear before you to discuss the details of my APRN application to prescribe. I truly appreciate the time and consideration you have given to my application and the chance to present any additional information you may require facilitating your decision-making process.

I would like to provide some background regarding my personal experience with mental health treatment, as it may offer insight into my perspective on prescribing and patient care. I have experienced symptoms of depression since December 2009, and these symptoms progressively worsened over time. During this period, I was physically and emotionally exhausted, working in a very hostile and abusive work environment. Additionally, I was attending graduate school and planning my upcoming wedding. On top of these stressors, I had also experienced significant personal and family losses, including the death of my 14-year-old dog and a pregnancy loss, which resulted in a complicated grief reaction.

I sought treatment from my primary care physician, and I was prescribed Effexor. Dosing was adjusted up to 225 mg daily, but I did not experience significant improvement. On June 1, 2011, my PCP added Abilify 2 mg daily to my regimen to augment therapy for treatment-resistant depression. However, within one week of starting Abilify, I experienced suicidal ideation. Approximately 10 days after starting Abilify, I overdosed on Effexor, although I am unsure of the exact quantity. After taking the medication, I fell asleep and later woke up hours afterward. I informed my fiancé about the suicide attempt and asked him not to notify anyone due to fear. Suicidal ideation persisted and on June 20, 2011, I diverted Fentanyl from the Cardiac Catheterization lab I worked in, as this was the sedation medication utilized in this unit. I injected the medication, though I am unsure of the exact quantity.

On June 21, 2011, the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office was contacted by a Mayo Clinic Security Officer, regarding the diversion of the controlled substance, Fentanyl. During the investigation, it was revealed that over twenty 100mcg/2mL vials of Fentanyl had been diverted from the Pyxis machine at my workplace. I presented to my workplace after speaking with my Nurse Manager and asking for help. On the same day, Detective Quintero and I met for an interview at Mayo. I was advised of my rights, and I chose to speak with them.

I admitted to diverting numerous vials the previous day from work. I explained that while I didn't believe I had an addiction to Fentanyl, I committed this act due to my mental state. I also shared that I had attempted to take my own life the previous night, but my fiancé had intervened and prevented me from following through. I fully cooperated with the investigation and was subsequently charged with traffic in opium or derivative 4 grams to under 30 kilograms, as charges are based on weight.

I was arrested and I spent four days in jail under suicide precautions before being released. On June 30, 2011, I presented voluntarily to Wekiva Springs Behavioral Health facility in Jacksonville, FL for assessment. I entered their Partial Hospitalization Program with an admitting diagnosis of Major Depressive Disorder recurrent/severe without psychosis. I attended this program for 30 days, five days a week for six hours daily (0900-1530). During this time, I was treated by psychiatrist [redacted] with a new regimen of anti-depressant medication, in addition to a variety of therapy modalities. Upon successfully completing this program and discharge, I continued outpatient psychiatric treatment with Dr. [redacted] and began outpatient therapy with [redacted] LMHC, MAC in Jacksonville, FL.

After further review and consideration of my case, both the Mayo Clinic and the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office agreed to reduce the charges to one count of possession of a controlled substance. On July 27, 2011, I entered a plea of guilty, with adjudication of guilt withheld, to one count of possession of a controlled substance. As part of the agreement, I was placed on community control for three months, followed by 15 months of probation where I was closely monitored by [redacted] Senior Officer with the Florida Department of Corrections. During this period, I submitted to random urinalysis testing for the detection of alcohol or illegal drugs, all of which returned negative results. Additionally, I was court-ordered to attend drug and alcohol treatment at North/South Florida Human Services in Jacksonville, Florida. I successfully completed the required 16-week treatment program, as mandated by the court.

As a result of the criminal charge I reported to the Florida Board of Nursing, my Registered Nurse license #9268827 was suspended. A final order was issued directing me to enter the Intervention Project for Nurses (IPN). The order stated that the suspension of my Registered Nurse (RN) license would be stayed as long as I remained in the program. Upon contacting IPN, I was informed by [redacted] BA, CMHP, Case Manager assigned to my file, that current legislation would prevent the renewal of my nursing license once it expired on April 30, 2013, for a period of 15 years following the completion of my probation. On October 11, 2011, I received a notice of intent to deny the renewal of my nursing license from the Florida Board of Nursing, Department of Health. Given this information, we concluded that it would be futile for me to enter the IPN program, as I would be removed once my license expired and would no longer be eligible for IPN participation.

Considering that I was under the care of a psychiatrist, actively engaged in therapy, and being closely monitored by probation, I made the decision to forgo participation in the IPN program, as it would have been a short-term involvement given the inevitable expiration and non-renewal of my RN license.

In 2012, the Florida Department of Corrections introduced a program called Independent Reporting Status. I was placed into this program after fulfilling all special conditions related to my probation. Under Independent Reporting Status, I no longer had to report in person to the office; instead, I was required to call monthly and submit my reports via mail. Throughout this time, I adhered to all instructions and requirements of the program.

After successfully completing all obligations, I formally requested early termination of my probation. This request was submitted to Circuit Court Judge Adrian Soud, who granted my petition. As a result, I was released from supervision on January 26, 2013, and my probation with the Florida Department of Corrections was officially terminated.

I would like to provide further context regarding my progress and personal growth, as outlined in a letter of reference in 2017 from [redacted] Senior Officer with the Florida Department of Corrections. In her letter, Officer [redacted] stated that throughout her career, she has worked with many probationers, but few individuals stand out in such a way that they are remembered. She described me as one of those individuals, noting that, in her opinion, I did not use my past mistakes as an excuse. Instead, I took responsibility for my actions and understood the importance of moving forward in life.

Officer [redacted] further described my character as ambitious, fair-minded, and honest. She also mentioned that while probation often resembles a revolving door where officers see the same individuals return year after year, I had been off probation for four years and had continued to make positive strides in my life. She commended my ability to confront obstacles directly, maintain a positive outlook, and not allow my past to define my future. In conclusion, Officer [redacted] stated that I had proven to her that I had learned valuable lessons from my experiences and that I deserved the opportunity to be given another chance in my career as a Registered Nurse.

On October 4, 2017, my petition to seal records concerning the arrest on June 21, 2011, was granted. This decision allowed for the sealing of the associated records, further contributing to my efforts to move forward from this past event.

In addition, my request for reinstatement of eligibility to participate as a provider of services covered by Medicare programs was approved. The reinstatement became effective on November 8, 2018. As a result, my name was removed from the list of Excluded Individuals/Entities, and I was granted the right to participate in federal healthcare programs by the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General.

In 2019, I applied for a nursing license with the Florida Department of Health Board of Nursing, after legislation changed, allowing me to apply for licensure five years after the completion of my probation, rather than the 15-year waiting period that had previously been required following a guilty plea for possession of a controlled substance.

The Florida Board of Nursing reviewed my application and determined that I had not fully complied with the terms of a prior board order, including entering into an Intervention Project for Nurses (IPN) advocacy contract. As a result, the Board issued a notice of intent to deny my application. I did not dispute any material facts contained in the notice and requested a hearing before the Board pursuant to Section 120.57(2), Florida Statutes.

I was granted the opportunity to appear before the Florida Board of Nursing at a public meeting on December 5, 2019. Based on my testimony, the Board voted to vacate the notice of intent to deny and subsequently approved the issuance of a Florida single-state RN license, contingent upon my successful completion of a Board-approved remedial course. Following the approval, I successfully completed the required remedial course through the University of Delaware and submitted the documentation of completion to the Florida Board of Nursing.

On December 10, 2020, I was issued Registered Nurse license #9551751 by the Florida Department of Health. At that time, my previous RN license #9268827 became null and void. Since its issuance, my RN license #9551751 remained with no emergency actions, disciplinary cases, or public complaints on file.

In early 2021, I began working as a Registered Nurse in the Progressive Care Unit at Baptist Medical Center in Jacksonville, Florida. Also in 2021, I was accepted into Chamberlain College of Nursing's Master of Science in Nursing program, with a concentration in Family Nurse Practitioner.

Later that year, my partner, a physician, accepted a fellowship position at the University of California, Irvine, which began in the fall of 2021. My partner and I moved together to Huntington Beach, CA for this opportunity. On June 15, 2022, the California Board of Nursing granted me Registered Nurse license #95287966. I am pleased to report that there have been no court orders, public reprimands, auto disclosures, or disciplinary actions taken against this license.

I continued my studies after relocating to California, where I worked as a full-time Registered Nurse in the Medical and Surgical Intensive Care Unit in Orange County. During this time, I also began my Family Nurse Practitioner practicum experiences in Long Beach, California. Following the completion of my partner's fellowship program, he accepted a job opportunity in Northern Nevada, prompting our move to the area.

On July 13, 2023, the Nevada State Board of Nursing issued me Registered Nurse license #863933. I continued my MSN- FNP program with Chamberlain University and completed my clinical practicum experiences in Nevada. I successfully graduated with my Master of Science in Nursing, specializing in Family Nurse Practitioner, on March 2, 2024. Shortly thereafter, on March 13, 2024, I obtained certification as a Family Nurse Practitioner by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners Certification Board, with certification number F03240408. On May 3, 2024, the Nevada Board of Nursing issued me APRN – CNP license number 863933 population focus of family across the lifespan with active prescribing privileges. Once again, I am proud to report that there have been no court orders, public reprimands, auto disclosures, or disciplinary actions taken against either of these Nevada licenses. These milestones reflect my continued dedication to advancing my nursing career and expanding my qualifications in the healthcare field.

I am presenting before you today to not only provide details regarding my professional and personal progress, but also to emphasize my continued efforts and commitment to maintaining my mental health and well-being.

Following treatment under Dr. [redacted], I have been under the care of psychiatrist Dr. [redacted] MD, and am currently receiving treatment from Dr. [redacted] MD, at Renown Behavioral Health. I see Dr. [redacted] on a regular basis every three months and have been deemed to be properly medically managed on an antidepressant medication regimen.

In addition to psychiatric care, I have been actively engaged in EMDR trauma therapy and cognitive behavioral therapy to address the emotional and psychological challenges I have faced. I am also currently working with a licensed clinical social worker through Renown Behavioral Health to further support my mental health treatment and progress.

I am fully committed to prioritizing my mental health and continue to take the necessary steps to ensure I remain on a path of wellness and stability through a variety of techniques and practices. To manage anxiety and stress, I utilize meditation, engage in excursions in nature, and incorporate pet therapy into my routine. These practices, along with a strong support system from my home, extended family, friends, and community, play a crucial role in my overall health and resilience. My spiritual belief system is also invaluable to me, and I consistently engage in communication with a higher power, which serves as a source of guidance and strength.

Additionally, I am in the process of creating a digital tool designed to assist both nursing students and professional nurses in processing difficult emotions. This tool specifically addresses stressors such as long work hours, burnout, and compassion fatigue, providing support to individuals in the healthcare field as they navigate the emotional challenges of their profession. I am dedicated to my personal well-being and to contributing meaningfully to the mental health and emotional support of those in the nursing community.

I have developed an ongoing plan to ensure I remain on a path of wellness and avoid any recurrence of past mistakes. Part of this plan includes proactively reaching out to my therapist and psychiatrist if I notice any decline in my mental or emotional status. By contacting them early in the change of my status, I can ensure that appropriate support is provided in a timely manner. Additionally, I remain open and honest and engaged with my partner at home, my family, and my invested, supportive friend group. This plan reflects my continued commitment to maintaining my health and well-being, and I am dedicated to taking the necessary steps to ensure that I remain on track.

My professional nursing plans and goals are detailed as follows. I have accepted a Nurse Practitioner position at Saint Mary's Urgent Care facilities in Reno, NV. An employment contract has been signed, however, due to a nondisclosure agreement with Saint Mary's, I am unable to provide a copy of the contract at this time.

My National Provider Identifier (NPI) number is 1295546034, and I have successfully registered with the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program as required. I have also submitted my application to the Nevada Board of Pharmacy to prescribe medications and controlled substances in Schedules III-V. Currently, the credentialing team at Saint Mary's is actively working to finalize my collaborating physician agreement. Once this agreement is in place, I intend to submit a request to the Nevada Board of Nursing to expand my prescribing privileges to include controlled substances in Schedule II.

Upon approval of this change by the Nevada Board of Nursing, I will submit an amendment to the Nevada Board of Pharmacy to include Schedule II controlled substances on my license. Additionally, I will apply for registration with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) at that time.

I am fully committed to adhering to all laws, bylaws, restrictions, prescribing recommendations, and best practices in safe prescription medication management as outlined by the Nevada Board of Pharmacy and the DEA.

I have included detailed documentation to support all information in this personal statement in order of how it appears above.

Thank you for taking the time to review and understand the details of this personal statement as it relates to my application to prescribe as an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse in the state of Nevada.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

The Department of Corrections would like to recognize and reward you for your efforts and commitment towards complying with your conditions of supervision and progress you've made by not requiring you to report monthly in person to the probation office.

You must continue to call your probation officer to report other changes or significant events as they occur regarding residence, employment, any contact with law enforcement, or any other concerns, requests or issues.

Dear Judge Soud:

I am writing to formally request early termination of probation. I have successfully completed three months of community control and nine months of the ordered 15 months' probation. In addition, I have completed the Drug & Alcohol evaluation followed by 16 weeks mandatory treatment. I am actively seeking mental health counseling and follow-up with a psychiatrist on a tri-monthly basis for medication management. I have complied with all requirements made by the courts and am current on all payments due. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to be considered for early termination based on the aforementioned information.

Sincerely,

Melissa M. Heemsath

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is [redacted] and I am a Correctional Probation Senior Officer with Florida Department of Corrections (FDC). I have been with FDC for ten years. I had the pleasure of meeting Melissa Heemsath in 2012, while I was a Probation Officer at 4613 Phillips Hwy Jacksonville, FL 32207. I have worked with a lot of probationers throughout the years but there are very few that stick out and you always remember, Ms. Heemsath is one of those people. She did not use her mistake as a crutch, she understood she made a mistake and life had to go on. She was not someone I had to tell to complete an instruction, it was already done before I could even ask. She always came into the office prepared and with any documentation that was needed. I knew that she was different from a lot of the other probationers due to the way she handled her appointments with me. I never had to call her and ask her about her whereabouts, she was either at home or at work. If I had to describe her character it would include ambitious, fair minded, and honest.

Ms. Heemsath proved to be one of the probationers that was determined to make it off successfully. She made sure her monetary obligations were paid in a timely manner, she completed her Substance Abuse Treatment within three months and she passed all urinalysis tests given to her on a random basis. She was open and honest with all issues she had and took accountability for her offense. She continued to work and show that she was willing to be someone to look beyond her circumstances and go after what she deserves.

In 2012, FDC came up with a program called Independent Reporting Status (IRS) and Ms. Heemsath was placed on it. IRS is afforded to a probationer who has completed or who is caught up with all conditions and special conditions. The probationers do not have to report in the office, they call once a month and mail in their Monthly Reports. Ms. Heemsath followed the instructions she was given while on IRS and was successfully terminated from Probation.

Probation is like a revolving door, you continue to see the same people year after year. Ms. Heemsath has been off for four years and is continuing to do great things in her life. She has shown that she will confront obstacles instead of running away from them. Overall, she was an outstanding probationer, she continued to think positive and not let her past dictate her future. In conclusion I would like to say that Ms. Heemsath has proved to me that she is someone who has learned her lesson and should be given another chance.

Best Regards,

N. Young

NOTICE OF INTENT TO DENY

This matter came before the Florida Board of Nursing (Board) at a duly-noticed public meeting on August 8, 2019, in Fort Myers, Florida. The Applicant was not present. The Board was represented by Deborah Bartholow Loucks, Senior Assistant Attorney General.

Pursuant to Sections 464.018(2) and 456.072(2), Florida Statutes (2019), the Board may refuse to certify an applicant for licensure, restrict the practice of the licensee, or impose a penalty.

Section 456.072(1)(q), Florida Statutes, provides that violating a lawful order of the board constitutes grounds for denial.

A review of Ms. Heemsath's application file reveals that she held a registered nurse license issued by the State of Florida. In February 2012, the Board issued a Final Order that incorporated a settlement agreement between Ms. Heemsath and the Department of Health. The terms of that Final Order required payment of a $250 fine and $1,911.37 costs and suspended her license until she entered into an IPN Advocacy Contract. Ms. Heemsath did not comply with this Final Order.

Based on the foregoing, the Board voted to DENY the application for Registered Nurse of

This Order shall become effective upon filing with the Clerk of the Department of Health.

DONE AND ORDERED this 3rd day of May, 2019.

Dear Doctor,

I'm pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Melissa Heemsath.

Ms. Heemsath has trained in my office for two months, and has been an ideal student. She asks appropriate, insightful questions, and clearly spends time studying what she has seen in the office each day. Patients like her very much.

I hope you will consider teaching this very intelligent, pleasant nurse practitioner candidate.

To whom it may concern:

I am honored to have the opportunity to write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Melissa Heemsath whom I have gotten to know both professionally and personally over the past three years.

I first met Melissa when I was applying to the nursing program at Keiser University. At the time, I was living out of state, but Melissa was able to make a tedious, extended application process easy. She was proactive in keeping me updated regarding my progress, and flexible with scheduling meetings and interviews along the way. Her strong human relation skills and competency enabled her to relay information in a clear and coherent manner. Without her guidance and hard work, I may have not been able to achieve admission into the program.

Melissa's guidance did not stop after my acceptance to the nursing program. She went above and beyond her job requirements, and turned out to be one of my main support systems during my time at Keiser. Whether it was for me or my fellow nursing students, Melissa's door was always open. Melissa was not only trustworthy, but she exhibited patience to our (very) diverse group, and genuinely cared about our success in the program. This enabled Melissa to develop a strong rapport with us students.

At the beginning of my third semester, I was hospitalized and doctors did not know if I was going to live. Melissa came to the hospital multiple times and sat by my side. She showed how her compassion was able to help my family cope with the puzzling situation at hand. When I returned to school after medical leave, I had a hard time adjusting. There where so many times I wanted to give up, but Melissa's support and encouragement helped motivate me. Without her support, or as a mentor, I do not think I would have been able to finish.

Last May, I graduated, passed my NCLEX, and started my first job as a Registered Nurse. Even though I am no longer her student, I still turn to Melissa when I need advice not only professionally, but also personally. She is always there for me, being a great listener, offering objective and honest perspectives, or helping me create solutions in order to solve problems that i have encountered.

I look up to Melissa as a role model, and I could continue listing all the wonderful qualities she possesses. Instead, I will end by saying that I believe her dedication to her job, strong use of interpersonal skills, desire to support and motivate others, along with her competence; make her a valuable addition to any team. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have about Melissa Heemsath.

Sincerely,

[redacted], RN

Re; Dana R. Marks, MD

I have been board-certified in emergency medicine and working almost exclusively working in emergency departments for 28 years. I ha ve also had an active state medical license with the State Board of Medical Examiners for almost the same amount of time.

September 22, 2022 I was finishing a series of shifts at Battle Mountain General Hospital emergency room. The day before in the afte rnoon a full school bus was hit broadside at approximately 60 miles an hour. On scene I was able to assist the paramedics in pronoun cing one individual's death and having to Care Flight two others to Reno. The following 24 hours I attended to consoling children and parents, reading x-rays and suturing lacerations.

I started my return trip to Reno at approximately 3:00 in the afternoon. Approximately 8 PM that evening, I entered the city of Fallo n and was promptly pulled over, due to a nonworking taillight of which I was unaware. The officer asked if I had been drinking, I tol d her no, but explained that I had been up for the past 36 hours without sleep. She then told me that she was asking because she noti ced that I was "blinking slowly" and that I was slow to respond to her questions. She asked if I would blow into her breathalyzer, bu t because I had been eating mint flavored candies, I asked for a blood test instead of the breathalyzer. At this point, the tone of our interaction changed significantly, becoming more confrontational.

I submitted to a field sobriety test, which she informed me I failed. She then placed me under arrest and proceeded with warrants for searching my car and for obtaining blood toxicology, which I had already requested. Upon entering the jail for the mandatory 12 hour s to sober up, my breathalyzer registered zero on admission and upon release.

The officers search of my SUV produced drug paraphernalia, and a small amount of methamphetamines, which belong to a friend who had b orrowed my car a few days before. She wrote a heartfelt letter to the judge, explaining her ownership. But according to the courts p ossession is ownership. (and methamphetamine was present in my blood tox report as well). December 13, 2022 the toxicology report w as resulted and showed no alcohol in my system. So more toxicology testing was requested, and was resulted in May, 2023 showing a sma ll amount of methamphetamines in my system.

I accepted a plea deal which resulted in a misdemeanor DUI and a misdemeanor possession of controlled substance conviction. June 16, 2023 my sentencing requirements were 36 hours of community service, completion of DUI school level one course, participation in a vic tims impact panel, and payment of the usual fines and fees for a first time (and only) DUI conviction. All requirements have been ful filled.
October 15, 2022 I voluntarily entered a monitoring and treatment program with Misty Guantonio with Individual counseling, a group s upport meeting and random drug testing. This evolved into the PRN monitoring and treatment program with Mark Chase. On June 1, 2023, I signed a confidential, non-disciplinary, stipulation with the NSBME investigative committee requires me to continue my participatio n in the PRN monitoring and treatment program which provides regular reports to the NSBME (and will be soon to the DEA). I am in full compliance.

I also was fully forthcoming with this process with the DEA during my license renewal last year and we are in the process of finalizi ng a Memorandum of Agreement, continuation of similar terms with PRN.

Should you require any further information, at this time, please don't hesitate to contact me at; [redacted] or [redacted].

Also Lyn E. Beggs, Esq. would be a valued source as well, [redacted].

Respectfully,
Dana R. Marks, MD, ABEM
