Prodigy Health Supplier Corp. applied in April 2007 for a license from the State of Florida to operate a shipping facility located in that state. Prodigy has been shipping product into the State of Florida from its Texas headquarters for several years pursuant to an Out-of-State Prescription Drug Wholesaler Permit issued by the State of Florida in 2002 for the Prodigy Texas headquarters.

The intent of the 2007 application was to potentially streamline operations. In other words, rather than have the product shipped to Texas and then to Florida, Prodigy sought to establish a Florida facility so product could be shipped directly to a Florida facility and then to the customer.

Prodigy's 2007 application for the Florida facility was denied by the Florida Department of Health by letter dated February 11, 2008. Apparently, the basis for the denial was that product had allegedly been received and shipped at the Florida facility before final action on the license for the Florida facility. The Department subsequently issued a notice preliminarily denying renewal of the out-of-state wholesaler license issued to Prodigy for its Texas headquarters.

Prodigy administratively challenged the Department's preliminary decisions.

The case was dismissed with prejudice in a final order dated 03/25/2010. A Florida out-of-state and in-state license to wholesale prescription drugs was issued to Prodigy Health Supplier Corp. at 9417 Brody Ln Austin TX 78748 and 6708 Benjamin Rd Ste 300 Tampa, FL 33634.

The state of Florida classified this action as non-disciplinary. Certified documents affirming the above statements are available by request

Prodigy Health Supplier Corp. applied in April 2007 for a license from the State of Florida to operate a shipping facility located in that state. Prodigy has been shipping product into the State of Florida from its Texas headquarters for several years pursuant to an Out-of-State Prescription Drug Wholesaler Permit issued by the State of Florida in 2002 for the Prodigy Texas headquarters.

The intent of the 2007 application was to potentially streamline operations. In other words, rather than have the product shipped to Texas and then to Florida, Prodigy sought to establish a Florida facility so product could be shipped directly to a Florida facility and then to the customer.

Prodigy's 2007 application for the Florida facility was denied by the Florida Department of Health by letter dated February 11, 2008. Apparently, the basis for the denial was that product had allegedly been received and shipped at the Florida facility before final action on the license for the Florida facility. The Department subsequently issued a notice preliminarily denying renewal of the out-of-state wholesaler license issued to Prodigy for its Texas headquarters.

Prodigy administratively challenged the Department's preliminary decisions.

The case was dismissed with prejudice in a final order dated 03/25/2010. A Florida out-of-state and in-state license to wholesale prescription drugs was issued to Prodigy Health Supplier Corp. at 9417 Brody Ln Austin TX 78748 and 6708 Benjamin Rd Ste 300 Tampa, FL 33634.

For full details of this case, please visit http://ww2.doh.state.fl.us/finalordernet/ and search for Business name: Prodigy

Dave Wuest, Executive Secretary
Nevada State Board of Pharmacy
985 Damonte Ranch Pkwy, Ste. 206
Reno, NV 89521

RE: Explanation of Disciplinary History
Aero-Med – East Hartford, CT

Dear Mr. Wuest:

This letter is provided in conjunction with our affirmative response to question 3 on our application for our Out-of-State Wholesale Distributor License. Note that the below discipline does not apply to the facility that is the subject of this application. The below disciplinary history has been previously provided to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy for other Cardinal Health, Inc. related entities.

On September 24, 2020, Cardinal Health finalized a settlement agreement with the Colorado Board of Pharmacy and paid a fine of $1,150. This settlement was regarding the failure of our Denver, Colorado distribution center to timely notify the Board of a change in that distribution center's designated representative.

Cardinal Health's pharmaceutical distribution center in Valencia, California entered into a settlement agreement with the California Board of Pharmacy in April 2019. As a condition of that settlement, the California Wholesale license for our Valencia distribution center was on probation from April 3, 2019, through April 2, 2021. This agreement resulted from the Valencia distribution center making sales to a customer between 2012 and 2014 and the failure to receive a pharmacist's signature on several deliveries in that same time frame.

Additionally, on March 11, 2019, Cardinal Health's Wheeling, West Virginia, distribution center entered into a settlement agreement with the Ohio Board of Pharmacy regarding the security and storage of drugs while those drugs were being distributed to the customer. This issue involved Ohio Board of Pharmacy inspectors manipulating our totes in such a way as to be able to retrieve a bottle out of a strapped/sealed tote. This occurred on several occasions all while the totes were in the custody of our delivery drivers or pharmacies. An inspector also witnessed a delivery vehicle door that was not locked and secured appropriately. Cardinal Health agreed to pay a monetary penalty of $5,000.

As previously reported, on May 15, 2012, Cardinal Health entered into a settlement agreement with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") regarding Cardinal Health's registration to distribute controlled substances from our Lakeland, Florida facility. On February 3, 2012, DEA served an Order to Show Cause and Immediate Suspension of Registration (the "Order") on Cardinal Health's Lakeland, Florida distribution center. In the Order, DEA alleged that the Lakeland facility "failed to maintain effective controls against the diversion of controlled substances" and "failed to detect and report suspicious orders of oxycodone by its pharmacy customers." In particular, DEA identified four retail pharmacies located in Florida that were serviced by the Lakeland facility and alleged that "[n]otwithstanding the large quantities of controlled substances ordered by Cardinal's top retail pharmacy customers Cardinal failed to conduct meaningful due diligence to ensure that the controlled substances were not diverted...." Importantly, these allegations did not involve any diversion of controlled substances from Cardinal's facility.

Under the settlement agreement, the Lakeland facility's DEA registration was suspended for two years from the date of the settlement agreement. On May 21, 2014, the suspension was lifted and the DEA reinstated Lakeland's registration. On December 23, 2016, Cardinal Health reached a nationwide settlement with the federal government, resolving the outstanding civil penalty portion of this May 15, 2012, administrative settlement with the DEA. Under this civil settlement, Cardinal Health has agreed to pay $44 million to the Department of Justice (DOJ) to resolve this matter. The DOJ, including the DEA and the United States Attorneys' Offices for the Middle District of Florida, the Southern District of New York, the District of Maryland, and the Western District of Washington and all other districts across the country have also agreed to take no further administrative or civil action on these and related matters. In addition, Cardinal Health has reached an agreement with the State of West Virginia regarding the company's distribution of controlled substances in that state between 2007 and 2012. While Cardinal Health denies the allegations, it agreed to pay West Virginia $20 million to resolve issues and release the company from further actions.

In 2014, the Boards of Pharmacy in both California and Georgia took derivative action based upon the DEA settlement. The Georgia Board fined the Lakeland facility $500 in administrative fees, and the California Board fined the facility $1,505 in investigative fees. Both fees were paid to the respective Boards.

Introduction

References to Cardinal Health and Fiscal Years

As used in this report, "we," "our," "us," "Cardinal Health" and similar pronouns refer to Cardinal Health, Inc. and its majority-owned subsidiaries, unless the context requires otherwise. Our fiscal year ends on June 30. References to fiscal 2022, 2021, 2020, 2019, 2018 and 2017 are to the fiscal years ended June 30, 2022, 2021, 2020, 2019, 2018 and 2017, respectively. Except as otherwise specified, information in this report is provided as of June 30, 2021.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In this report, including in the "Fiscal 2021 Overview" section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations ("MD&A"), we use financial measures that are derived from consolidated financial data but are not presented in our financial statements that are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). These measures are considered "non-GAAP financial measures" under the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules. The reasons we use these non-GAAP financial measures and the reconciliations to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures are included in the "Explanation and Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures" section following MD&A in this report.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Our MD&A within this Form 10-K generally discusses fiscal 2021 and fiscal 2020 items and year-to-year comperisons between fiscal 2021 and fiscal 2020. Fiscal 2019 items and discussions of year-to-year comparisons between fiscal 2020 and fiscal 2019 that are not included in this Form 10-K can be found in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 (the "Fiscal 2020 Form 10-K").

Consolidated Results

Fiscal 2021 Overview

Revenue

Revenue for fiscal 2021 was $162.5 billion, a 6 percent increase from the prior year, primarily due to sales growth from pharmaceutical distribution and specialty solutions customers.

GAAP and Non-GAAP Operating Earnings/(Loss)

(in millions)	2021	2020	Change
GAAP operating earnings/(loss)	$ 472	$ (4,088)	N.M.
Surgical gown recall costs/(income)	(28)	85
State opioid assessment related to prior fiscal years	38	3
Restructuring and employee severance	114	122
Amortization and other acquisition-related costs	451	524
Impairments and (gain)/loss on disposal of assets	79	7
Litigation (recoveries)/charges, net	1,129	5,741
Non-GAAP operating earnings	$ 2,255	$ 2,384	(5)%

The sum of the components and certain computations may reflect rounding adjustments.

We had GAAP operating earnings of $472 million and a GAAP operating loss of $4.1 billion during fiscal 2021 and 2020, respectively, which includes pre-tax charges of $1.17 billion and $5.63 billion, respectively, recognized for the estimated liability associated with lawsuits and claims brought against us by states and political subdivisions relating to the distribution of prescription opioid pain medications. See further description of opioid lawsuits in the Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A and Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements."

GAAP and Non-GAAP operating earnings during fiscal 2021 were adversely impacted by COVID-19, which includes an inventory reserve recorded to reduce the carrying value of certain Medical segment personal protective equipment, primarily certain categories of gloves, to net realizable value. Personal protective equipment ("PPE") refers to protective clothing, medical and non-medical grade gloves, face shields, face masks and other equipment designed to protect the wearer from injury or the spread of infection or illness. See Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A for additional information. Volume declines in our Pharmaceutical segment generics program, which includes the impact of COVID-19, also had an adverse impact. These factors were partially offset by the beneficial impact of enterprise-wide cost-savings measures, including global manufacturing efficiencies in the Medical segment, and higher contribution from branded pharmaceutical sales mix.

GAAP and Non-GAAP Diluted EPS

The sum of the components and certain computations may reflect rounding adjustments.

(1) Diluted earnings/(loss) per share attributable to Cardinal Health, Inc. ("diluted EPS" or "diluted loss per share")

(2) The reconciling items are presented within this table net of tax, except for transitional tax benefit, net. See quantification of tax effect of each reconciling item in our GAAP to Non-GAAP Reconciliations in the section titled "Explanation and Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures."

(3) For fiscal 2020, GAAP diluted loss per share attributable to Cardinal Health, Inc. and the EPS impact from the GAAP to non-GAAP per share reconciling items are calculated using a weighted average of 293 million common shares, which excludes potentially dilutive securities from the denominator due to their anti-dilutive effects resulting from our GAAP net loss for the period. Fiscal 2020 non-GAAP diluted EPS is calculated using a weighted average of 295 million common shares, which includes potentially dilutive shares.

(4) Litigation (recoveries)/charges, net, includes a tax benefit recorded during fiscal 2021 related to a net operating loss carryback. Our wholly-owned insurance subsidiary recorded a self-insurance pre-tax loss in its fiscal 2020 statutory financial statements primarily related to opioid litigation. This self-insurance pre-tax loss, which did not impact our pre-tax consolidated results, was deducted on our fiscal 2020 consolidated federal income tax return and contributed to a significant net operating loss for tax purposes. The net operating loss was carried back and adjusted our taxable income for fiscal 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 as permitted under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security ("CARES") Act. The total benefit from the net operating loss carryback was $424 million; however, for purposes of Non-GAAP financial measures, we allocated $389 million of the benefit to litigation (recoveries)/charges, net, which is excluded from non-GAAP measures, based on the relative amount of the self-insurance pre-tax loss related to opioid litigation claims versus separate tax adjustments. The tax benefit allocated to the separata tax adjustments of $35 million is included in non-GAAP measures.

The charges we recognized in fiscal 2021 and 2020 for the estimated liability associated with lawsuits and claims brought against us by states and political subdivisions relating to the distribution of prescription opioid pain medications had a $(3.21) and $(17.54) per share after-tax impact on GAAP diluted EPS, respectively.

During fiscal 2021, GAAP and non-GAAP diluted EPS were positively impacted by $1.44 and $0.12 per share, respectively, due to a tax benefit from the net operating loss carryback primarily related to a self-insurance pre-tax loss, as further described in Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A and Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements."

GAAP diluted EPS during fiscal 2020 was favorably impacted by a $1.68 per share gain from the sale of the remainder of our equity interest in naviHealth described further in Note 2 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements."

Cash and Equivalents

Our cash and equivalents balance was $3.4 billion at June 30, 2021 compared to $2.8 billion at June 30, 2020. The increase in cash during fiscal 2021 was due to net cash provided by operating activities of $2.4 billion, offset by cash deployed of $573 million for dividends, $570 million for debt repayments, $400 million for capital expenditures, and $200 million for share repurchases.

Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends

COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic ("COVID-19") continues to affect the U.S. and global economies, and as previously disclosed, the pandemic began to materially affect our businesses during the third quarter of fiscal 2020. The length and severity of the pandemic and its impacts on our businesses and results of operations are uncertain.

COVID-19 had a negative impact on our consolidated operating earnings/(loss) in fiscal 2021 and fiscal 2020. We estimate that the impact on fiscal 2021 operating earnings was approximately $200 million greater than on fiscal 2020 operating earnings, and we estimate that the impact on fiscal 2020 operating earnings/(loss) was approximately $100 million.

Pharmaceutical segment profit has been negatively impacted by COVID-19 largely due to volume declines in our generics program and Nuclear and Precision Health Solutions. While fiscal 2021 volumes within our generics program were lower than levels prior to COVID-19, the impact on Pharmaceutical segment profit improved on a year-over-year basis during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2021. Similarly, in comparison to prior year, the impact of COVID-19 on Nuclear and Precision Health Solutions was positive for Pharmaceutical segment profit during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2021.

Our Medical segment experienced dramatically increased demand for certain personal protective equipment due to COVID-19. Personal protective equipment ("PPE") refers to protective clothing, medical and non-medical grade gloves, face shields, face masks and other equipment designed to protect the wearer from injury or the spread of infection or illness. The peak of this heightened demand was during the second and third quarters of fiscal 2021. This increased demand resulted in higher sales volume for certain products, increased costs to manufacture and source these products and higher inventory levels to meet customer commitments. As a result, we sought out additional sources for these products and to mitigate the impact of these cost increases, we have raised our selling prices for the affected products. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2021, selling prices and customer demand for certain PPE decreased as compared to the peak, and we expect this decline to continue into fiscal 2022. This resulted in inventory cost above net realizable value, requiring an inventory reserve of $197 million, primarily related to certain categories of gloves, which adversely impacted Medical segment profit. Our estimates for customer demand and selling prices are inherently uncertain and if customer demand or selling prices decline in the future beyond our current assumptions, additional inventory reserves may be required that would adversely impact Medical segment profit. See Critical Accounting Policies and Sensitive Accounting Estimates section in this MD&A for additional information.

During fiscal 2021, COVID-19 benefited Medical segment profit in some ways as well. Higher volumes in our laboratory business and cost savings positively impacted Medical segment profit. Additionally, despite declining customer demand and selling prices in some categories of PPE as described above, Medical segment profit was benefited by pricing actions intended to mitigate the impact of cost increases in certain other PPE categories. In addition, while lower demand for surgical products resulting from reduced elective procedures had an adverse impact on Medical segment profit during the first nine months of fiscal 2021, demand improved during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2021 and was a positive contributor to year-over-year segment profit.

We currently anticipate that the negative impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on operating earnings will be less in fiscal 2022 than it was in fiscal 2021, which includes the inventory reserve of $197 million described above. As a result, in comparison to prior year, we expect the COVID-19 impact for fiscal 2022 will be positive. However, we cannot estimate the length or severity of the COVID-19 pandemic or of the related U.S. or global economic consequences on our businesses and results of operations, including whether and when historic economic and operating conditions will resume, or its impact on our business, financial position, results of operations or cash flow. Its impact may be greater or less than we anticipate.

Opioid Lawsuits

In July 2021, we announced that we and two other national distributors have negotiated a proposed settlement agreement (the "Proposed Settlement Agreement") and settlement process that, if all conditions are satisfied (including Boards of Directors' approval), would result in the settlement of the vast majority of opioid lawsuits filed by state and local governmental entities.

West Virginia subdivisions and Native American tribes are not a part of this settlement process and we have been involved in separate negotiations with these groups. The settlement process does not contemplate participation by any non-governmental or non-political entities or individuals. In connection with the negotiations of the Proposed Settlement Agreement, we and the two other national distributors entered into a settlement with the State of New York and its participating subdivisions. If the Proposed Settlement Agreement becomes effective, New York and its participating subdivisions will become a part of it.

The Proposed Settlement Agreement is subject to contingencies and will not become effective unless and until the Boards of Directors of the three distributors each make separate independent determinations that (1) following a sign-on period, a sufficient number of states have agreed to the Proposed Settlement Agreement (the "Settling States"); and, subsequently, (2) following a notice period, that a sufficient number of states and political subdivisions, including those that have not sued, have agreed to the Agreement (or otherwise had their claims foreclosed) to proceed to effectiveness. Prior to the second determination, the Settling States will also have an opportunity to make a determination as to whether a sufficient number of political subdivisions have agreed to the Proposed Settlement Agreement (or otherwise had their claims foreclosed) to proceed with the Proposed Settlement Agreement. This process is currently contemplated to end in February 2022, although it may be extended by agreement. It is possible that a sufficient number of states and subdivisions will not agree to the Proposed Settlement Agreement or that other required contingencies will not be satisfied.

If these conditions are satisfied, the Proposed Settlement Agreement would become effective 60 days after the distributors determine that there is sufficient participation among political subdivisions. During this 60-day period, the Settling States and the distributors would cooperate to obtain consent judgments in each participating state embodying the terms of the Settlement.

The Proposed Settlement Agreement includes a cash component, pursuant to which the Company would pay up to $6.37 billion, the majority of which would be paid over 18 years. The exact payment amount will depend on several factors, including the participation rate of states and political subdivisions, the extent to which states take action to foreclose opioid lawsuits by political subdivisions (e.g., laws barring opioid lawsuits by political subdivisions), and the extent to which political subdivisions in Settling States file additional opioid lawsuits against the Company after the Proposed Settlement Agreement becomes effective.

The Proposed Settlement Agreement also includes injunctive relief terms relating to settling distributors' controlled substance anti-diversion programs, including with respect to: (1) governance; (2) independence and training of the personnel operating our controlled substances monitoring program; (3) due diligence for new and existing customers; (4) ordering limits for certain products; and (5) suspicious order monitoring. A monitor will be selected to oversee compliance with these provisions for a period of five years. In addition, we and the two other national distributors will engage a third-party vendor to act as a clearinghouse for data aggregation and reporting; distributors will fund the clearinghouse for ten years.

Additionally, a trial before a judge in West Virginia in the Cabell County and City of Huntington cases concluded in July 2021 and the judge has not yet issued a decision. In addition, a trial in the case brought by the Ohio Attorney General is scheduled to begin in September 2021 and a trial in the case brought by the Washington Attorney General is scheduled to begin in November 2021. The Ohio Attorney General has issued a press release indicating support for the Proposed Settlement Agreement; however, the Washington Attorney General has issued a press release stating that Washington will not agree to the Proposed Settlement Agreement.

In connection with the opioid lawsuits and settlement negotiations, we have recorded total pre-tax charges of $1.17 billion and $5.63 billion in litigation charges/(recoveries), net in the years ended June 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively. In total, we have $6.73 billion accrued at June 30, 2021, of which $405 million is included in other accrued liabilities, as we expect to make our first annual settlement payment into escrow on or before September 30, 2021, and the remainder is included in deferred income taxes and other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets. Because loss contingencies are inherently unpredictable and unfavorable developments or resolutions can occur, the assessment is highly subjective and requires judgments about future events. We regularly review these opioid litigation matters to determine whether our accrual is adequate. The amount of ultimate loss may differ materially from this accrual. See Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

Tax Effect of Opioid Litigation Charges

The net tax benefits associated with the opioid litigation charges are $228 million and $488 million for fiscal 2021 and 2020, respectively. Our tax benefits are estimates, which reflect our current assessment of the estimated future deductibility of the amount that may be paid under the accrual taken in connection with the opioid litigation and are net of unrecognized tax benefits of $219 million and $469 million, respectively. The fiscal 2021 net tax benefit and unrecognized tax benefits were primarily due to our assessment of the specific terms of the Proposed Settlement Agreement. Our assumptions and estimates around this benefit and uncertain tax position require significant judgment and the actual amount of tax benefit may differ materially from these estimates. See Note 8 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

Tax Effects of Self-Insurance Pre-Tax Loss

During fiscal 2021, our wholly-owned insurance subsidiary recorded a self-insurance pre-tax loss in its fiscal 2020 statutory financial statements primarily related to opioid litigation. This self-insurance pre-tax loss, which did not impact our pre-tax consolidated results, was deducted on our fiscal 2020 consolidated federal income tax return and contributed to a significant net operating loss for tax purposes. The net operating loss was carried back and applied to adjust our taxable income for fiscal 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018 as permitted under the CARES Act enacted by the United States Congress in March 2020.

Accordingly, our provision for income taxes during fiscal 2021 included a $424 million benefit from the net operating loss carryback primarily to reflect the difference between the federal statutory income tax rate during the fiscal years from 2015 to 2018 (35 percent for fiscal 2015, 2016, and 2017 and 28 percent for fiscal 2018) and the current federal statutory income tax rate of 21 percent.

We have filed for a U.S. federal income tax refund of $974 million as a result of the net operating loss carryback under the CARES Act, which we expect to receive within 12 months, and accordingly have recorded a current asset on our consolidated balance sheet at June 30, 2021. We also increased our non-current deferred tax liability by approximately $700 million during fiscal 2021 related to this matter.

We have recorded these amounts based on management's judgment and our current understanding of tax law; however, it is possible that the tax authorities could challenge these tax benefits or that the tax law could change. The actual amount or timing of the tax benefit may differ from these expectations. See Note 8 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

Cordis Divestiture

On March 12, 2021, we announced that we signed a definitive agreement to sell our Cordis business to Hellman & Friedman for proceeds of $927 million in cash, subject to customary purchase price adjustments, and we retained certain working capital accounts and product liability for lawsuits and claims related to inferior vena cava ("IVC") filters in the U.S. and Canada as described in Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements." The transaction closed on August 2, 2021, and we received proceeds of $927 million, net of cash transferred. In connection with the closing, we entered into a Transition Services Agreement ("TSA") with the buyer to provide support functions for a period of up to twenty-four months following the sale. See Note 2 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

During fiscal 2021, we recognized a $60 million pre-tax write-down of the net assets held for sale in impairment and (gain)/loss on disposal of assets in the consolidated statement of earnings/(loss). We recorded a net tax expense of $9 million associated with the impact of the write-down and the required tax adjustments related to held for sale accounting.

In connection with the divestiture, during fiscal 2021 we recognized costs of $28 million associated with exit or disposal activities. We expect to record up to $100 million of additional costs associated with these activities, primarily during fiscal 2022. These costs are recorded in restructuring and employee severance in our consolidated statements of earnings/(loss). We expect these charges to consist of approximately $83 million of professional, project management and other service fees to support the divestiture; $19 million of employee-related costs; and additional expenses from facility exits and other restructuring activities.

We expect the divestiture of the Cordis business will decrease annual Medical segment revenue by approximately $800 million and adversely impact Medical segment profit by approximately $80 million. The divestiture of our Cordis business is subject to risks and uncertainties that may further adversely impact Medical segment profit. For example, the TSA period may be extended beyond our current expectations or could have unintended consequences, and the costs associated with the exit or disposal activities and stranded costs could be greater than anticipated.

Pharmaceutical Segment

The performance of our Pharmaceutical segment generics program adversely impacted the year-over-year comparison of Pharmaceutical segment profit in fiscal 2021 due to volume declines in our generics program, including the impact of COVID-19. The Pharmaceutical segment generics program includes, among other things, the impact of generic pharmaceutical product launches, customer volumes, pricing changes and the Red Oak Sourcing, LLC venture ("Red Oak Sourcing") with CVS Health Corporation ("CVS Health"). In August 2021, we amended our agreement with CVS Health to extend the term of the Red Oak Sourcing agreement through June 2029. The frequency, timing, magnitude and profit impact of generic pharmaceutical customer volumes, pricing changes, customer contract renewals, and branded and generic pharmaceutical manufacturer pricing changes remain uncertain as does their impact on Pharmaceutical segment profit and consolidated operating earnings in fiscal 2022.

Medical Segment

In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2021, our Medical segment experienced increased supply chain costs, primarily related to transportation, labor and commodities. While we are taking actions to mitigate the impact of these and other sourcing cost increases primarily through cost-savings measures, including global manufacturing efficiencies, we expect these increased costs to adversely impact Medical segment profit in fiscal 2022.

Information Technology Investments

Our Pharmaceutical segment is in a multi-year project to implement a replacement of certain finance and operating systems. Within the Medical segment, Cardinal Health at-Home Solutions is also investing in a system transformation. We expect that these investments will result in increased project-related expenses and depreciation related to capital expenditures, which will negatively impact operating earnings and segment profit in fiscal 2022 and beyond.

Fiscal 2021 Compared to Fiscal 2020

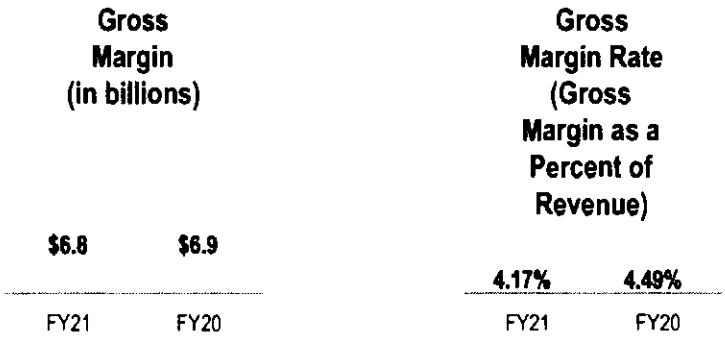
Pharmaceutical Segment
Fiscal 2021 Pharmaceutical segment revenue grew by $8.3 billion primarily due to sales growth from pharmaceutical distribution and specialty solutions customers, which together increased revenue by $8.1 billion.

Medical Segment
Fiscal 2021 Medical segment revenue increased primarily within products and distribution, which increased revenue by $1.1 billion, primarily due to a net benefit from COVID-19, including the positive impact of PPE and higher volumes in our laboratory business.

Cost of Products Sold

Cost of products sold for fiscal 2021 increased $9.6 billion (7 percent) due to the factors affecting the changes in revenue and gross margin.

Gross Margin



(in millions)	Consolidated Gross Margin 2021	2020	Change
Gross margin	$ 6,778	$ 6,868	(1)%

Fiscal 2021 Compared to Fiscal 2020

Fiscal 2021 consolidated gross margin decreased primarily due to the adverse impact of COVID-19, which includes an inventory reserve recorded to reduce the carrying value of certain Medical segment PPE, primarily certain categories of gloves, to net realizable value, partially offset by higher volumes in our laboratory business. For additional information regarding inventory reserves, see Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A. Volume declines in our Pharmaceutical segment generics program, which includes the impact of COVID-19, also had an adverse impact. These factors were partially offset by higher contribution from branded pharmaceutical sales mix and the beneficial comparison of the current year insurance recoveries with the prior-year charge in connection with a voluntary recall for certain surgical gowns and a voluntary recall and field actions for surgical procedure packs containing affected gowns (together, the "Recalls").

Gross margin rate declined during fiscal 2021 mainly due to changes in pharmaceutical distribution product sales mix and an inventory reserve recorded to reduce the carrying value of certain Medical segment PPE to net realizable value. While branded pharmaceutical sales contributed positively to gross margin dollars during fiscal 2021, they had a dilutive impact on our overall gross margin rate.

Distribution, Selling, General and Administrative ("SG&A") Expenses

	SG&A Expenses
(in millions)	2021	2020	Change
SG&A expenses	$ 4,533	$ 4,572	(1)%

Fiscal 2021 Compared to Fiscal 2020

Fiscal 2021 SG&A expenses decreased primarily due to the beneficial impact of enterprise-wide cost-savings measures. The year-over-year comparison was also favorably impacted by the $37 million charge in connection with the Recalls recognized during fiscal 2020. These factors were partially offset by information technology investments and the $41 million assessment on prescription opioid medications that were sold or distributed in New York state in calendar years 2017 and 2018. See Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information on the New York Opioid Stewardship Act.

Segment Profit

We evaluate segment performance based on segment profit, among other measures. See Note 13 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information on segment profit.

Fiscal 2021 Compared to Fiscal 2020

Pharmaceutical Segment Profit

Fiscal 2021 Pharmaceutical segment profit was adversely impacted due to volume declines in our generics program, including the impact of COVID-19, partially offset by higher contribution from branded pharmaceutical sales mix.

Pharmaceutical segment financial results do not include the $1.17 billion and $5.63 billion charges associated with the opioid litigation during fiscal 2021 and 2020, respectively. See Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A and Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information. In addition, Pharmaceutical segment financial results do not include the $41 million assessment on prescription opioid medications that were sold or distributed in New York state in calendar years 2017 and 2018. See Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information on the New York Opioid Stewardship Act.

Medical Segment Profit

Fiscal 2021 Medical segment profit decreased largely due to the adverse impact of COVID-19, which primarily includes an inventory reserve recorded to reduce the carrying value of certain PPE, primarily certain categories of gloves, to net realizable value, partially offset by higher volumes in our laboratory business. In addition, enterprise-wide cost-savings measures, including global manufacturing efficiencies, had a positive impact on Medical segment profit.

Corporate

The changes in Corporate during fiscal 2021 are due to the factors discussed in the Other Components of Consolidated Operating Earnings/(Loss) section that follows.

Other Components of Consolidated Operating Earnings/(Loss)

In addition to revenue, gross margin, and SG&A expenses discussed previously, consolidated operating earnings/(loss) were impacted by the following:

(in millions)	2021	2020
Restructuring and employee severance	$ 114	$ 122
Amortization and other acquisition-related costs	451	524
Impairments and (gain)/loss on disposal of assets, net	79	7

Restructuring and Employee Severance

In fiscal 2021, restructuring costs were primarily related to the implementation of certain enterprise-wide cost-savings measures and the divestiture of our Cordis business. In fiscal 2020, restructuring costs were primarily related to the implementation of certain enterprise-wide cost-savings measures.

Amortization and Other Acquisition-Related Costs

Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets was $428 million and $512 million for fiscal 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Impairments and (Gain)/Loss on Disposal of Assets, Net

During fiscal 2021, we recognized a $60 million pre-tax write-down of the assets held for sale from the divestiture of our Cordis business. See the Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A and Note 2 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

Litigation (Recoveries)/Charges, Net

During fiscal 2021 and 2020, we recognized pre-tax charges of $1.17 billion and $5.63 billion, respectively, associated with certain opioid matters. See Significant Developments in Fiscal 2021 and Trends section in this MD&A and Note 7 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information.

During fiscal 2021 and 2020, we recognized $56 million and $103 million, respectively, of estimated losses and legal defense costs associated with the IVC filter product liability claims.

During fiscal 2021 and 2020, we recognized income of $112 million and $16 million, respectively, for recoveries in class action antitrust lawsuits in which we were a class member.

Other Components of Earnings/(Loss) Before Income Taxes

(in millions)	2021	2020	Change
Other (income)/expense, net	$ (47)	$ (1)	N.M.
Interest expense, net	180	238	(24)%
Loss on early extinguishment of debt	14	16	N.M.
(Gain)/Loss on sale of equity interest in naviHealth	2	(579)	N.M.

Other (Income)/Expense, Net

During fiscal 2021, other (income)/expense, net was favorable compared to the prior-year period primarily due to an increase in the value of our deferred compensation plan investments, which offsets fluctuations included within SG&A expenses and is discussed further in Note 9 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements," gains on investments in non-marketable equity securities, and fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

Interest Expense, Net

Fiscal 2021 interest expense decreased from fiscal 2020 primarily due to lower debt outstanding and lower short-term interest rates.

Loss On Early Extinguishment Of Debt

During fiscal 2021 and 2020, we recognized losses of $14 million and $16 million, respectively, in connection with the redemption and early debt repurchases as described further in Note 6 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements."

(Gain)/Loss on Sale of Equity Interest in naviHealth

During fiscal 2020, we recognized a pre-tax gain of $579 million from the sale of our equity interest in a partnership that owned naviHealth, as described further in Note 2 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements."

Provision for Income Taxes

Fluctuations in the effective tax rates are primarily due to the impact of opioid litigation in fiscal 2021 and 2020, as well as the impact of the carryback claim filed in accordance with the CARES Act provision in fiscal year 2021.

A reconciliation of the provision based on the federal statutory income tax rate to our effective income tax rate from continuing operations is as follows (see Note 8 of the "Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements" for additional information):

Provision at Federal statutory rate	21.0 %	21.0 %
State and local income taxes, net of federal benefit	3.2	2.5
Tax effect of foreign operations	0.7	**—
Nondeductible/nontaxable items [2]	1.6	0.2
Cordis Disposition	7.0	**—
Withholding Taxes [2]	9.0	(0.3)
Change in Valuation Allowances	(1.4)	1.5
US Taxes on International Income [2][3]	(6.7)	0.2
Impact of Resolutions with IRS and other related matters [2]	(13.6)	(0.4)
Opioid litigation	17.7	(23.2)
Loss Carryback Claims	(129.9)	**—
Other [2]	1.7	0.6
Effective income tax rate	(89.7)%	2.1 %

(1) The table represents the following: fiscal 2021 is pretax income with tax benefit and fiscal 2020 is pretex loss with tax benefit.

(2) Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation.

(3) Includes the tax impact of Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income ("GILTI") tax, the Foreign-Derived Intangible Income deduction and other foreign income that is taxable under the U.S. tax code.

Fiscal 2021

During fiscal 2021 and 2020, the effective tax rate was (89.7) percent and 2.1 percent, respectively. Included in the effective tax rate for fiscal 2021 was a $424 million benefit from the net operating loss carryback primarily related to a self-insurance pre-tax loss. Included in both 2021 and 2020 were net tax benefits related to the treatment of the tax impacts of the fiscal 2021 and 2020 opioid litigation charges.

Tax Effects of Self-Insurance Pre-tax Loss

During fiscal 2021, our wholly-owned insurance subsidiary recorded a self-insurance pre-tax loss in its fiscal 2020 statutory financial statements primarily related to opioid litigation. This self-insurance pre-tax loss, which did not impact our pre-tax consolidated results, was deducted on our fiscal 2020 consolidated federal income tax return and contributed to a significant net operating loss for tax purposes. The net operating loss was carried back and applied to adjust our taxable income for fiscal 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018 as permitted under the CARES Act enacted by the United States Congress in March 2020.

Accordingly, our provision for income taxes during fiscal 2021 included a $424 million benefit from the net operating loss carryback primarily to reflect the difference between the federal statutory income tax rate during the fiscal years from 2015 to 2018 (35 percent for fiscal 2015, 2016, and 2017 and 28 percent for fiscal 2018) and the current federal statutory income tax rate of 21 percent.

We have filed for a U.S. federal income tax refund of $974 million as a result of the net operating loss carryback under the CARES Act, which we expect to receive within 12 months, and accordingly have recorded a current asset on our consolidated balance sheet at June 30, 2021. We also increased our non-current deferred tax liability by approximately $700 million during fiscal 2021 related to this matter.

Tax Effect of Opioid Litigation Charges

The net tax benefits associated with the opioid litigation charges are $228 million and $488 million for fiscal 2021 and 2020, respectively. Our tax benefits are estimates, which reflect our current assessment of the estimated future deductibility of the amount that may be paid under the accrual taken in connection with the opioid litigation and are net of unrecognized tax benefits of $219 million and $469 million, respectively. The fiscal 2021 net tax benefit and unrecognized tax benefits were primarily due to our assessment of the specific terms of the Proposed Settlement Agreement. Our assumptions and estimates around this benefit and uncertain tax position require significant judgment and the actual amount of tax benefit may differ materially from these estimates.

Ongoing Audits

We file income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, various U.S. state jurisdictions and various foreign jurisdictions. With few exceptions, we are subject to audit by taxing authorities for fiscal years 2015 through the current fiscal year. Tax laws are complex and subject to varying interpretations. During fiscal 2021, we resolved all open issues with respect to the Company's activity within fiscal years 2008 through 2014 with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). This resolution resulted in an adjustment to our provision for income taxes, including an impact to reserves for later years. New challenges related to future audits may adversely affect our effective tax rate or tax payments.

The continued successful commercialization of FIRDAPSE® is highly uncertain. Factors that will affect our success include the uncertainty of:

- The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business or on the economy generally;
- Whether we will be able to continue to successfully market FIRDAPSE® while maintaining full compliance with applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations;
- Whether our estimates of the size of the market for FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of Lambert-Eaton Myasthenic Syndrome (LEMS) will turn out to be accurate;
- Whether we will be able to locate LEMS patients who are undiagnosed or are misdiagnosed with other diseases;
- Whether patients will discontinue from the use of our drug at rates that are higher than historically experienced or are higher than we project;
- Whether the daily dose taken by patients changes over time and affects our results of operations;
- Whether FIRDAPSE® patients can be successfully titrated to stable therapy;
- Whether we can continue to market FIRDAPSE® on a profitable and cash flow positive basis;
- Whether any revenue or earnings guidance that we provide to the public market will turn out to be accurate;
- Whether payors will reimburse for our product at the price that we charge for the product;
- The ability of our third-party suppliers and contract manufacturers to maintain compliance with current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP);
- The ability of our distributor and the specialty pharmacies that distribute our product to maintain compliance with applicable law;
- Our ability to maintain compliance with applicable rules relating to our patient assistance programs and our contributions to 501(c)(3) organizations that support LEMS patients;

Table of Contents

- The scope of our intellectual property and the outcome of any future challenges or opposition to our intellectual property, and, conversely, whether any third-party intellectual property presents unanticipated obstacles for FIRDAPSE®;
- Whether our lawsuits against Jacobus Pharmaceutical Company (Jacobus) and the specialty pharmacy distributing its product for patent infringement will be successful;
- Whether Jacobus will seek U.S. Supreme Court review of the decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit granting summary judgment in our favor in our case against the FDA, thereby overturning the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® , whether the U.S. Supreme Court will agree to hear the case, or whether if the U.S. Supreme Court hears the case, they will overturn the decision of the 11th Circuit;
- Whether the United States Congress will pass, and the President will sign, legislation revising the Orphan Drug Act that effectively overturns the decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit, and whether any such legislation, if passed and signed into law, will retroactively affect the outcome of the 11th Circuit decision and allow the FDA to reinstate the approval of Ruzurgi® before the expiration of FIRDAPSE®'s orphan drug exclusivity;
- The impact on FIRDAPSE® of adverse changes in reimbursement and coverage policies from government and private payors such as Medicare, Medicaid, insurance companies, health maintenance organizations and other plan administrators, or the impact of pricing pressures enacted by industry organization, the federal government or the government of any state, including as a result of increased scrutiny over pharmaceutical pricing or otherwise;
- Changes in the healthcare industry and the effect of political pressure from and actions by the President, Congress and/or medical professionals seeking to reduce prescription drug costs;
- The state of the economy generally and its impact on our business;
- Changes to the healthcare industry occasioned by any future changes in laws relating to the pricing of drug products, or changes in the healthcare industry generally;
- The scope, rate of progress and expense of our clinical trials and studies, pre-clinical studies, proof-of-concept studies, and our other drug development activities, and whether our trials and studies will be successful;
- Our ability to complete any clinical trials and studies that we may undertake on a timely basis and within the budgets we establish for such trials and studies;
- Whether COVID-19 will further affect the timing and costs of our currently ongoing and contemplated clinical trials;
- Whether FIRDAPSE® can be successfully commercialized in Canada on a profitable basis;
- Whether our suit with KYE Pharmaceuticals to overturn the approval of Ruzurgi® in Canada will be successful;
- The impact on sales of FIRDAPSE® in the United States if an amifampridine product is purchased in Canada for use in the United States;
- Whether our collaboration partner in Japan, DyDo Pharma (DyDo), will successfully complete the clinical trial in Japan that will be required to seek approval to commercialize FIRDAPSE® in Japan;
- Whether DyDo will be able to obtain approval to commercialize FIRDAPSE® in Japan;
- Whether our efforts to grow our business beyond FIRDAPSE® through acquisitions of companies or in-licensing of product opportunities will be successful;
- Whether we will have sufficient capital to finance any such acquisitions;
- Whether our version of vigabatrin tablets will ever be approved by the FDA;

- Whether we will earn milestone payments on the first commercial sale of vigabatrin tablets and royalties on sales of generic vigabatrin tablets.

Table of Contents

Our current plans and objectives are based on assumptions relating to the continued commercialization of FIRDAPSE® and on our plans to seek to acquire or in-license additional products. Although we believe that our assumptions are reasonable, any of our assumptions could prove inaccurate. In light of the significant uncertainties inherent in the forward-looking statements we have made herein, which reflect our views only as of the date of this report, you should not place undue reliance upon such statements. We undertake no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Item 1. Business

Overview

We are a commercial-stage biopharmaceutical company focused on in-licensing, developing and commercializing novel medicines for patients living with rare diseases. With exceptional patient focus, we are committed to developing a robust pipeline of cutting-edge, best-in-class medicines for rare diseases. We historically focused our efforts on developing products that treat diseases in the neuromuscular and neurological space, but in 2021 we made a strategic decision to broaden and diversify our product portfolio through acquisitions of both early and late-stage products or companies or technology platforms in rare disease therapeutic categories outside of neuromuscular diseases. To accomplish these new priorities, we are employing a disciplined approach to evaluating assets and we believe that this strategic expansion will better position our company to build out a broader more diversified portfolio of drug candidates, which should add greater value to our company over the near and long-term. However, there can be no assurance that whatever product candidates or technology platforms we acquire, if any, will be successfully developed or commercialized.

We are currently exploring several potential opportunities to acquire companies with drug products in development or to in-license or acquire drug products in development. However, no definitive agreements have been entered into to date. Further, during the third quarter of 2021 we hired Dr. Preethi Sundaram, who serves as our Chief Strategy Officer. In that position, Dr. Sundaram is leading our efforts to acquire R&D assets, from early stage through late-stage clinical programs and technologies to treat rare diseases, and once such drug candidates are acquired, Dr. Sundaram will help oversee the development of those assets.

We are dedicated to making a meaningful impact on the lives of those suffering from rare diseases, and we believe in putting patients first in everything we do.

Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected our business operations in numerous ways, and we continue to monitor applicable government modifications. We had to make modifications to our normal operations because of the COVID-19 pandemic, including allowing our employees to work remotely. At present, our operations have returned to mostly being in-person, with some contact with physicians by our commercial sales force still being done remotely. Notwithstanding, the COVID-19 pandemic, including the emergence of new COVID-19 variants, including the delta and omicron variants, could affect the health and availability of our workforce as well as those of third parties whom we are relying upon to take similar measures. As such, we have experienced in the past, and may experience in the future, disruptions to our business operations because of the COVID-19 pandemic, and our business could be materially adversely affected by such disruptions, directly or indirectly. National, state and local governments in affected regions have implemented and may continue to implement varying safety precautions, such as quarantines, border closures, increased border controls, travel restrictions, shelter-in-place orders and shutdowns, business closures, cancellations of public gatherings and other measures. Organizations and individuals may continue to take additional steps to avoid infection, including limiting travel and staying home from work. These measures may continue to disrupt normal business operations both inside and outside of affected areas and have had significant impacts on healthcare and businesses worldwide.

We believe that because many healthcare providers who treat LEMS patients have delayed seeing new patients because of the pandemic, there has been a delay in the diagnosis of new LEMS patients and their initiating therapy, which has slowed our efforts to locate new patients who could benefit from our therapy. However, we believe that when conditions allow healthcare providers to resume seeing new patients in person on a regular basis, the impact of this aspect of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business will lessen.

One area where we have not been impacted by the pandemic is in our supply chain. To date, we have been able to avoid material disruptions in the production of FIRDAPSE® and, based upon current estimates, we have sufficient inventory to meet current and foreseeable patient needs for at least the next 12 months.

FIRDAPSE®

On November 28, 2018, we received approval from the FDA for FIRDAPSE® Tablets 10 mg for the treatment of adult patients (ages 17 and above) with Lambert-Eaton, Myasthenic Syndrome ("LEMS"). In January 2019, we launched FIRDAPSE® in the United States. We sell our product through a field force experienced in neurologic, central nervous system or rare disease products consisting at this time of approximately 30 field personnel, including sales (Regional Account Managers), patient assistance and insurance navigation support (Patient Access Liaisons), and payor reimbursement (National Account Managers). We also have a field-based force of five medical science liaisons who are helping educate the medical communities and patients about LEMS and our programs supporting patients and access to FIRDAPSE®.

Further, we have contracted with an experienced inside sales agency that works to generate leads through telemarketing to targeted physicians. This inside sales agency allows our sales efforts to not only reach the neuromuscular specialists who regularly treat LEMS patients, but also the roughly 9,000 neurology and neuromuscular healthcare providers that may be treating an adult LEMS patient who can benefit from FIRDAPSE®. Additionally, we recently began non-personal promotion to oncologists that may treat adult LEMS patients. We also are continuing to make available at no-cost a LEMS voltage gated calcium channel (VGCC) antibody testing program for use by physicians who suspect that one of their patients may have LEMS and wish to reach a definitive diagnosis.

Finally, we are continuing to expand our digital and social media activities in order to introduce our product and services to potential patients and their healthcare providers. We also work with several rare disease advocacy organizations (including Global Genes, the National Organization for Rare Disorders (NORD), and the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation of America) to help increase awareness and level of support for patients living with LEMS and to provide education for the physicians who treat these rare diseases and the patients they treat.

We are supporting the distribution of FIRDAPSE® through Catalyst Pathways®, our personalized treatment support program for patients who enroll in it. Catalyst Pathways® is a single source for personalized treatment support, education and guidance through the challenging dosing and titration regimen required to reach an effective therapeutic dose. It also includes distributing the drug through a very small group of exclusive specialty pharmacies (primarily AnovoRx), which is consistent with the way that most drug products for ultra-orphan diseases are distributed and dispensed to patients. We believe that by using specialty pharmacies in this way, the difficult task of navigating the health care system is far better for the patient needing treatment for their rare disease and the health care community in general.

In order to help adult LEMS patients afford their medication, we, like other pharmaceutical companies which are marketing drugs for ultra-orphan conditions, have developed an array of financial assistance programs that are available to reduce patient co-pays and deductibles to a nominal affordable amount. For eligible patients with commercial coverage, a co-pay assistance program designed to keep out-of-pocket costs to not more than $10.00 per month (currently $0.00 per month) is available for all LEMS patients who are prescribed FIRDAPSE®. We are also donating, and committing to continue to donate, money to qualified, independent charitable foundations dedicated to providing assistance to any U.S. LEMS patients in financial need. Subject to compliance with regulatory requirements, our goal is that no LEMS patient is ever denied access to their medication for financial reasons.

In May 2019, the FDA approved a New Drug Application (NDA) for Ruzurgi®, another version of amifampridine (3,4-DAP), for the treatment of pediatric LEMS patients (ages 6 to under 17). While the NDA for Ruzurgi® only covers pediatric patients, we believe that Ruzurgi® has been regularly prescribed off-label to adult LEMS patients. We also believe that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated our statutory rights and was in multiple other respects arbitrary, capricious and contrary to law. As a result, in June 2019 we filed suit against the FDA and several related parties challenging this approval and related drug labeling, and Jacobus Pharmaceuticals (Jacobus) intervened in our case. Our complaint, which was filed in the federal district court for the Southern District of Florida, alleged that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated multiple provisions of FDA regulations regarding labeling, resulting in misbranding in violation of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA); violated our statutory rights to Orphan Drug Exclusivity and New Chemical Entity Exclusivity under the FDCA; and was in multiple other respects arbitrary, capricious, and contrary to law, in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act. Among other remedies, the suit sought an order setting aside the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi®.

On July 30, 2020, the Magistrate Judge considering our lawsuit against the FDA filed a Report and Recommendation in which she recommended to the District Judge handling the case that she grant the FDA's and Jacobus' motions for summary judgment and deny our motion for summary judgment. On September 29, 2020, the District Judge adopted the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, granted the FDA's and Jacobus' motions for summary judgment, and dismissed our case. We appealed the District Court's decision to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. By early 2021, the case was fully briefed, and oral argument was held in March 2021.

On September 30, 2021, a three-judge panel of 11th Circuit judges issued a unanimous decision overturning the District Court's decision. The appellate court adopted our argument that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated our rights to Orphan Drug Exclusivity and remanded the case to the District Court with orders to enter summary judgment in our favor. In November 2021, Jacobus filed a motion seeking rehearing of the case from the full 11th Circuit, which motion was denied in January 2022. Further, in January 2022, Jacobus filed motions with both the 11th Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court seeking a stay of the 11th Circuit's ruling indicating that it would seek a review of the 11th Circuit's decision from the U.S. Supreme Court. Both stay motions were denied, and on January 28, 2022, the 11th Circuit issued a mandate directing the District Court to enter summary judgment in our favor. The District Court entered that order on January 31, 2022. On February 1, 2022, the FDA informed Jacobus that, consistent with the Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit's September 30, 2021, decision in favor of Catalyst, the final approval of the Ruzurgi® NDA was switched to a tentative approval until the 7-year orphan-drug exclusivity (ODE) for Firdapse® has expired.

There can be no assurance as to whether Jacobus will seek U.S. Supreme Court review of the 11th Circuit's decision, whether the U.S. Supreme Court will agree to hear the case, or whether, if the U.S. Supreme Court agrees to hear the case, Jacobus' appeal to overturn the decision of the 11th Circuit will be successful. Similarly, there can be no assurance as to whether the U.S. Congress will pass, and the President will sign, legislation revising the Orphan Drug Act that effectively overturns the decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit, and whether any such legislation, if passed and signed into law, will retroactively affect the outcome of the 11th Circuit decision and allow the FDA to reinstate the approval of Ruzurgi® before the expiration of FIRDAPSE®'s orphan drug exclusivity.

We are actively working with parents and physicians of pediatric LEMS patients to make sure that such patients will be able to obtain FIRDAPSE® through appropriate legal and regulatory means. In addition, we are working to file an application with the FDA seeking approval for use of FIRDAPSE® by pediatric LEMS patients, though any effort to obtain such authorization is not guaranteed. We anticipate submitting the sNDA before the end of the first quarter. For the adult LEMS patients who have been taking Ruzurgi® off-label (who are believed to be a large majority of the patients currently taking Ruzurgi®), we are working with prescribers to transition such patients to FIRDAPSE® as needed.

We have been developing a long-acting formulation of amifampridine phosphate. While a number of formulations have been prepared, after discussions with researchers and an advisory board made up of both patients and physicians, we recently concluded that we would be unable to develop a long-acting formulation that was both beneficial to patients and commercially viable, and as a result we have made the determination not to proceed with development of this product.

On August 10, 2020, we announced the top-line results from our Phase 3 clinical trial (MSK-002) evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of adults with MuSK-MG. Unfortunately, the MSK-002 trial did not achieve statistical significance on its primary endpoint or its secondary endpoint. Following our receipt of these results, we analyzed the data and proposed a plan to FDA to perform an additional study evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of MuSK-MG. In response, the FDA provided written comments that were unfavorable towards our proposed revised study design and further questioned the ability of the initial MuSK-MG pilot study to be supportive. These remarks make it unlikely that a single study of similar design to MSK-002 would be sufficient for potential approval of the MuSK-MG indication. We also held an expert panel with key opinion leaders (KOLs) to discuss options and review the likelihood of success for the MuSK-MG indication for FIRDAPSE® under these circumstances. After receiving the input of the FDA and the KOLs, we concluded that the approval of FIRDAPSE® as a first line therapy for MuSK-MG is unlikely, and therefore we have decided not to further pursue this indication.

We previously announced our intent to conduct a proof-of-concept study evaluating FIRDAPSE® as a treatment for Hereditary Neuropathy with Liability to Pressure Palsies (HNPP). The FDA requested that a new, patient-centric endpoint be researched and used for our proposed study, without assurance that such endpoint would be acceptable for approval. Based upon the uncertainty of such an endpoint, we have decided not to conduct this study as a company-sponsored study, though there is a possibility that this study will move forward as investigator-initiated study that we will support.

There can be no assurance that any future clinical trials of FIRDAPSE® that we undertake will be successful. Further, there can be no assurance that we will ever be granted the right to commercialize FIRDAPSE® for any additional indications.

Our NDS filing for FIRDAPSE® for the symptomatic treatment of LEMS was approved by Health Canada on July 31, 2020. In August 2020, we entered into a license agreement with KYE Pharmaceuticals (KYE), pursuant to which we licensed the Canadian rights for FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS to KYE. Pursuant to the license agreement, KYE was obligated to pay us an up-front payment based on approval, a milestone upon attainment of marketing authorization and product supply, milestones based on achievements of sales and regulatory milestones, and a sharing of defined net sales following commercialization.

On August 10, 2020, Health Canada issued a Notice of Compliance (NOC) to Medunik for Ruzurgi® for the treatment of LEMS. We initiated a legal proceeding in Canada seeking judicial review of Health Canada's decision to issue the NOC for Ruzurgi® as incorrect and unreasonable under Canadian law. Data protection, per Health Canada regulations, is supposed to prevent Health Canada from issuing a NOC to a drug that directly or indirectly references an innovative drug's data, for eight years from the date of the innovative drug's approval. The Ruzurgi® Product Monograph clearly references pivotal nonclinical carcinogenicity and reproductive toxicity data for amifampridine phosphate developed by us. As such, we believe that our data was relied upon to establish the nonclinical safety profile of Ruzurgi® needed to meet the standards of the Canadian Food and Drugs Act.

On June 3, 2021, we announced a positive decision in this proceeding that quashed the NOC previously issued for Ruzurgi® and remanded the matter to the Minister of Health to redetermine its decision to grant marketing authorization to Ruzurgi® in spite of FIRDAPSE®'s data protection rights. However, on June 28, 2021, we announced that Health Canada had re-issued an NOC for Ruzurgi®, once again allowing the product to be marketed in Canada for patients with LEMS. As a result, in July 2021 we, along with our partner KYE, filed a second suit against Health Canada to overturn this decision. That case was fully briefed in late 2021, with oral argument held in early December.

On March 11, 2022, we announced that we had received a favorable decision from the Canadian court setting aside, for the second time, the decision of Health Canada approving Ruzurgi® for the treatment of LEMS patients. In its ruling, the court determined that the Minister of Health's approach to evaluating whether FIRDAPSE®'s data deserved protection based on FIRDAPSE®'s status as an innovative drug, which protects by regulation the use of such data as part of a submission seeking an NOC for eight years from approval of the innovative drug, was legally flawed and not supported by the evidence. As a result, the matter has, once again, been remanded to the Minister of Health to redetermine its decision in light of the court's ruling. There can be no assurance as to the outcome of this proceeding.

In May 2019, we entered into an amendment to our license agreement for FIRDAPSE®. Under the amendment, we expanded our commercial territory for FIRDAPSE®, which originally was comprised of North America, to include Japan. Additionally, we have an option to further expand our territory under the license agreement to include most of Asia, as well as Central and South America, upon the achievement of certain milestones in Japan. Under the amendment, we will pay royalties to our licensor on net sales in Japan of a similar percentage to the royalties that we are currently paying under our original license agreement for North America.

We have reached an agreement with Japanese regulatory authorities as to the scope of the clinical trial that will be required to be completed before an application can be submitted to Japanese regulatory authorities to commercialize FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS in Japan. We also have been granted orphan drug designation in Japan for FIRDAPSE® for the symptomatic treatment of LEMS.

On June 28, 2021, we entered into a sub-license agreement with DyDo Pharma, Inc. (DyDo), pursuant to which we sub-licensed to DyDo the Japanese rights for FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS. Under the terms of the Agreement, DyDo will have joint rights to develop FIRDAPSE®, and exclusive rights to commercialize the product, in Japan. DyDo will be responsible for funding all clinical, regulatory, marketing and commercialization activities in Japan. We will be responsible for clinical and commercial supply, as well as providing support to DyDo in its efforts to obtain regulatory approval for the product from the Japanese regulatory authorities. Subject to the satisfaction of terms and conditions as set forth in the Agreement, we have earned an upfront payment and are eligible to receive further development and sales milestones for FIRDAPSE®, as well as revenue on product supplied to DyDo.

In December 2021, we announced that DyDo had initiated a Phase 3 registrational study in Japan to evaluate the efficacy and safety of FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS. We anticipate completion of that study sometime in 2023. There can be no assurance that this trial will be successful or that DyDo will be granted the right to commercialize FIRDAPSE® in Japan.

All of our patent rights for FIRDAPSE® are derived from our license agreement. In August 2020, the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) allowed Patent No. 10,793,893 (the '893 patent) to our licensor and thereby to us, and the patent issued on October 6, 2020. The patent is directed to the use of suitable doses of amifampridine to treat patients, regardless of the therapeutic indication, that are slow metabolizers of amifampridine. Any drug product containing amifampridine with a label that states the patented dosing regimens and doses in the Dosing and Administration section prior to April 7, 2034, the expiration date of the patent, could possibly infringe this patent. Generic drug product labels would necessarily have to do this, and we intend to take all appropriate actions to protect our intellectual property.

In April 2021, the USPTO also allowed Patent No. 11,060,128 (the '128 patent) to our licensor and thereby to us, and this second patent issued on July 13, 2021. The patent is directed to the use of suitable doses of amifampridine to treat patients suffering with LEMS that are slow metabolizers of amifampridine. Any drug product containing amifampridine with a label for the treatment of LEMS, that states the patented dosing regimens and doses in the Dosing and Administration section of a product label, including generic drug product labels, could possibly infringe this patent prior to this patent's expiration date.

On December 24, 2021, the USPTO allowed continuing application, 17/503,190. On January 3, 2022, the USPTO allowed related continuing application 17/503,148. A further related continuing application, 17/503,092 was allowed on January 7, 2022. All three patents were issued in March 2022. The claims in each of these applications have either already been listed in the Orange Book for FIRDAPSE® or are in the process of being listed.

We are also pursuing additional patent applications for FIRDAPSE® in an effort to further protect our drug product. There can be no assurance that any additional patents will be issued which provide additional intellectual property protection for our drug product.

In that regard, in October 2020, we filed lawsuits against Jacobus and the specialty pharmacy marketing Ruzurgi®, PantherRx Rare LLC (PantherRx), for infringement of the '893 patent. The suits have now been consolidated in a single action in the U.S. District Court for New Jersey. Further, in August 2021, the lawsuits were amended to include alleged infringement of the '128 patent. The lawsuits arise from Jacobus' and PantherRx's sales and marketing of Ruzurgi® (amifampridine) Tablets, 10 mg. The lawsuits allege that the Ruzurgi® product infringes the '893 patent and the '128 patent when administered in accordance with its product labeling. The lawsuit seeks damages and injunctive relief to prevent further marketing of Ruzurgi® in violation of our patent rights. The lawsuit is in the discovery stage and there can be no assurance as to the results of these proceedings.

There can be no assurance that we do not or will not infringe on patents held by third parties or that third parties in the future will not claim that we have infringed on their patents. In the event that our products or technologies infringe or violate the patent or other proprietary rights of third parties, there is a possibility we may be prevented from pursuing product development, manufacturing or commercialization of our products that utilize such technologies until the underlying patent dispute is resolved. For example, there may be patents or patent applications held by others that contain claims that our products or operations might be determined to infringe or that may be broader than we believe them to be. Given the complexities and uncertainties of patent laws, there can be no assurance as to the impact that future patent claims against us may have on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or prospects.

Generic Sabril®

In December 2018, we entered into a definitive agreement with Endo International plc's subsidiary, Endo Ventures Limited (Endo), for the further development and commercialization of generic Sabril® tablets through Endo's United States Generic Pharmaceuticals segment, Par Pharmaceutical. If and when the product is launched, we will be entitled to receive a milestone payment of $2.0 million on the commercial launch of the product. Further, we will receive a sharing of defined net profits upon commercialization and we are obligated to share the costs of certain development expenses. There can be no assurance that our collaboration with Endo for the development of generic Sabril® (vigabatrin) tablets will be successful and that if an abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) is approved for vigabatrin tablets in the future, that it will be profitable to us.

Capital Resources

At December 31, 2021, we had cash and investments of approximately $191.3 million. Based on our current financial condition and forecasts of available cash, we believe that we have sufficient funds to support our operations for at least the next 12 months. There can be no assurance that we will continue to be successful in commercializing FIRDAPSE® or will continue to be profitable. Further, there can be no assurance that if we need additional funding in the future, whether such funding will be available to us. See Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources" below for further information on our liquidity and cash flow.

Our Strategy

Our goal is to develop and commercialize novel prescription drugs targeting rare (orphan) neuromuscular and neurological diseases and disorders. We are dedicated to making a meaningful impact on the lives of those suffering from rare diseases, and we believe in putting patients first in everything we do. Specifically, we intend to:

- Continue to commercialize FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS and improve disease awareness. We are currently commercializing FIRDAPSE® in the United States and supporting its commercialization in Canada. We are working to expand awareness of the disease, including to physicians treating LEMS patients with small-cell lung cancer, and helping health care providers and their patients understand the benefits of FIRDAPSE®. A cornerstone of our U.S. strategy is our continuing development of Catalyst Pathways®, our personalized treatment support program, and our development of the patient assistance programs that are required to further our goal that no LEMS patient be denied access to FIRDAPSE® for financial reasons within existing legal restrictions.
- Seek approval for FIRDAPSE® in Japan. We are currently supporting our sub-licensee, DyDo, as they begin taking necessary steps to seek approval for FIRDAPSE® in Japan for the treatment of patients with LEMS.
- Seek to acquire additional products. We recently made a strategic decision to broaden and diversify our product portfolio through acquisitions of both early and late-stage products or companies or technology platforms in rare disease therapeutic categories outside of neuromuscular diseases. To accomplish these new priorities, we are employing a disciplined approach to evaluating assets and we believe that this strategic expansion will better position our company to build out a broader more diversified portfolio of drug candidates, which should add greater value to our company over the near and long-term. However, no products have been acquired to date.

FIRDAPSE® Product Overview

FIRDAPSE® is Catalyst's registered trade name in the United States for amifampridine phosphate tablets. Amifampridine is the WHO (World Health Organization) registered INN (International Nonproprietary Name) and United States Adopted Name (USAN) for the chemical entity, 3,4-diaminopyridine, often abbreviated as 3,4-DAP or DAP. FIRDAPSE® contains the phosphate salt of amifampridine, hence the name "amifampridine phosphate." We will refer to our drug by its trade name in the United States (FIRDAPSE®), by the INN/USAN (amifampridine), or by the specific salt in our product (amifampridine phosphate), throughout this report.

Table of Contents

Amifampridine has been recommended as the first-line symptomatic treatment for LEMS by the European Federation of Neurological Societies (now known as the European Academy of Neurology). In December 2009, amifampridine phosphate received marketing approval from the European Commission (with the trade name FIRDAPSE®) for the symptomatic treatment of patients with LEMS. Safety data from clinical data published over the last 30 years in patients with LEMS or other neurological disorders treated with amifampridine show that amifampridine is well tolerated at doses up to 80 mg per day. Among the 1,279 patients or healthy subjects assessed in the literature, the most frequently reported adverse events (AEs) were perioral and peripheral paresthesias (unusual sensations like pins and needles), and gastrointestinal disorders (abdominal pain, nausea, diarrhea, and epigastralgia (pain around the upper part of the stomach)). These events were typically mild or moderate in severity, and transient, seldom requiring dose reduction or withdrawal from treatment.

Lambert-Eaton Myasthenic Syndrome (LEMS)

Lambert-Eaton Myasthenic Syndrome (LEMS) is a rare autoimmune neuromuscular disorder characterized primarily by muscle weakness of the limbs. The disease is caused by an autoimmune reaction where antibodies are formed against voltage-gated calcium channels on nerve endings, which damages the channels. These calcium channels are responsible for the transport of charged calcium atoms that activate the biochemical machinery responsible for releasing acetylcholine. Acetylcholine is the neurotransmitter responsible for causing muscles to contract and the failure to release enough of this neurotransmitter results in muscle weakness in LEMS patients. Additionally, LEMS is often associated with an underlying malignancy, most commonly small-cell lung cancer (SCLC), and in some individuals, LEMS is the first symptom of such malignancy.

LEMS generally affects the extremities, especially the legs. As LEMS most affects the parts of limbs closest to the trunk, difficulties with climbing stairs or rising from a sitting position are commonly reported. Physical exercise and high temperatures tend to worsen the symptoms. Other symptoms often seen include weakness of the muscles of the mouth, throat, and eyes. Individuals affected with LEMS also may have a disruption of the autonomic nervous system, including dry mouth, constipation, blurred vision, impaired sweating, and/or hypotension.

LEMS is managed by treating the symptoms or treating the underlying autoimmune attack on voltage gated calcium channels. Unapproved treatments include steroids, azathioprine and intravenous immunoglobulin, which work by suppressing the immune system; and pyridostigmine and amifampridine, which enhance neuromuscular transmission. Plasma exchange has also been used to attempt to remove antibodies from the body. FIRDAPSE® is a symptomatic treatment and does not alter the underlying autoimmune condition. As a voltage gated potassium blocker, FIRDAPSE® prevents charged potassium atoms from leaving the nerve cells, which prolongs the period of depolarization. This allows more charged calcium atoms to enter the nerves, which enables the nerves to release acetylcholine and causes muscles to contract and to restore lost muscle strength in LEMS patients.

Based on currently available information, we estimate that there are approximately 3,000 LEMS patients in the United States, approximately 1,500 of which are presently diagnosed and identified and approximately 1,500 of which we believe are undiagnosed or misdiagnosed. However, until awareness of the disease is increased, it is unlikely that the total number of LEMS patients in the United States can be determined with better certainty (as is typical of rare diseases), and the actual number of patients in the United States with LEMS may be higher or lower than our estimate.

Some of the factors that affect the size of the population with a rare disease such as LEMS include the number of patients actually diagnosed with the disease, the number of patients who are misdiagnosed with other diseases, and the number of patients who are simply undiagnosed. Additionally, while there is an antibody test that positively identifies patients with LEMS which we offer at no cost to health-care providers to be used to definitively determine whether a patient has LEMS, the test is not particularly well known or utilized at this time by many neurologists. Further, many LEMS patients who have small cell lung cancer (SCLC) are not currently being treated for LEMS because many oncology medical professionals who treat SCLC patients are generally unfamiliar with how to diagnose and treat LEMS. All of these factors affect the ultimate number of patients who will benefit from treatment with FIRDAPSE®.

License Agreement for FIRDAPSE®

On October 26, 2012, we licensed the exclusive North American rights to FIRDAPSE® pursuant to a License Agreement (the "License Agreement") between us and BioMarin Pharmaceutical Inc. ('BioMarin"). Under the License Agreement, we make the following royalty payments on our net sales of FIRDAPSE®:

- Royalties to the licensor for seven years from the first commercial sale of FIRDAPSE® equal to 7% of net sales (as defined in the License Agreement) in North America for any calendar year for sales up to $100 million, and 10% of net sales in North America in any calendar year in excess of $100 million; and
- Royalties to the third-party licensor of the rights sublicensed to us for seven years from the first commercial sale of FIRDAPSE® equal to 7% of net sales (as defined in the License Agreement between BioMarin and the third-party licensor) in any calendar year for the duration of any pending or issued patents or regulatory exclusivity within a territory and 3.5% of net sales in any calendar year in territories without pending or issued patents or regulatory exclusivity.

On May 29, 2019, we entered into an amendment to our License Agreement. Under the amendment, we expanded our commercial territory for FIRDAPSE®, which originally was comprised of North America, to include Japan. Additionally, we have an option to further expand our territory under the License Agreement to include most of Asia, as well as Central and South America, upon the achievement of certain milestones in Japan. Under the amendment, we will pay royalties on net sales in Japan of a similar percentage to the royalties that we are currently paying under our original License Agreement for North America.

In January 2020, we were advised that BioMarin had sold certain rights under the License Agreement to SERB SA.

We believe that we remain in compliance with our obligations under the License Agreement.

Clinical trials supporting our NDA for FIRDAPSE® for LEMS and approval of our NDA

We conducted two successful Phase 3 double-blind, placebo-controlled clinical trials evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS. The results of the first trial published in 2016 in Muscle & Nerve (Muscle Nerve, 2016, 53(5):717-725). The results of the second trial were published in March 2019 in the Journal of Clinical Neuromuscular Disease (J. Clin Neuromusc Dis 2019; 20:111-119).

In March 2018, we submitted an NDA seeking approval of FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS. Our NDA was accepted for filing in May 2018 and, on November 28, 2018, the FDA granted approval of FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of LEMS in adult patients.

Required Post-Approval Studies

As part of the approval of our NDA for FIRDAPSE® for LEMS, the FDA required us to conduct a clinical trial to evaluate the effect of hepatic impairment on the exposure of amifampridine after oral administration of FIRDAPSE® relative to that in subjects with normal hepatic function. This study was recently completed and submitted to the FDA. We have also established a pregnancy surveillance program to collect and analyze information for a minimum of ten (10) years on pregnancy complications and birth outcomes related to FIRDAPSE®. Finally, the FDA required us to perform a second carcinogenicity study of amifampridine phosphate in mice, which we have completed and submitted to the FDA.

Expanded access program

We operate an expanded access program (EAP) that is currently making FIRDAPSE® available to a limited number of patients diagnosed with CMS or Downbeat Nystagmus (DN). It is anticipated that the EAP may be used to make FIRDAPSE® available to pediatric LEMS patients now that the Ruzurgi® approval has been vacated, subject to applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Sales, Marketing and Distribution

Launch of FIRDAPSE® in January 2019

In January 2019, we launched FIRDAPSE® in the United States through a field force of approximately 20 personnel who are experienced in neurologic, central nervous system or rare diseases in sales, patient support and payer reimbursement. The sales representatives (Regional Account Managers) who were part of the field force targeted approximately 1,250 physicians who are either neuromuscular specialists or general neurologists with a known adult LEMS patient or specific training in neuromuscular diseases. We also utilized field force Patient Access Liaisons who work with the patients and provider offices to help navigate the insurance landscape, as well as National Account Managers who work directly with the payors to ensure comprehensive coverage for FIRDAPSE® across the commercial and governmental plans in the United States. We also have a field-based force of five medical science liaisons who help educate the medical communities and patients about LEMS and about our company's ongoing clinical trial activities. Further, we work closely with several rare disease advocacy organizations (including Global Genes, the National Organization for Rare Disorders (NORD), and the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation of America) to help increase awareness and the level of support for patients living with LEMS, MuSK antibody positive myasthenia gravis, and other neuromuscular diseases that may be treatable with FIRDAPSE®, and to provide education for the physicians who treat these rare diseases and the patients they treat.

In early 2020, we expanded our field sales group by almost one hundred percent and established a partnership with an experienced inside sales agency generating leads through telemarketing to targeted physicians. Through this expansion of our sales team, we are working to expand our sales efforts beyond the neuromuscular specialists who regularly treat LEMS patients to reach roughly 9,000 neurology and neuromuscular healthcare providers that might be treating an adult LEMS patient who can benefit from FIRDAPSE®. We also make available a no-cost LEMS voltage gated calcium channel (VGCC) antibody testing program for physicians who suspect their patient may have LEMS and wish to reach a definitive diagnosis.

Table of Contents

We are supporting the distribution of FIRDAPSE® through Catalyst Pathways®, our personalized treatment support program for enrolled patients. Catalyst Pathways® is a single source for personalized treatment support, education and guidance through the challenging dosing and titration regimen to an effective therapeutic dose. It also includes distributing the drug through a very small group of exclusive specialty pharmacies (primarily AnovoRx), which is consistent with the way that most drug products for ultra-orphan diseases are distributed and dispensed to patients. By using specialty pharmacies in this way, the difficult task of navigating the health care system is far better for the patient needing treatment for their rare disease and the health care community in general.

In addition, Catalyst Pathways® is the gateway for our free bridge medication for patients during transitioning from investigational product while they are waiting for a coverage determination or, later on, for patients whose access is threatened by the bureaucratic complications arising from a change of insurer. The Catalyst Pathways® program is also the access point for our Patient Assistance Program, which provides longer-term free medication for those who are uninsured or functionally uninsured with respect to FIRDAPSE® because they may be unable to obtain coverage from their payer despite having health insurance.

In addition to our current work to assist former Ruzurgi® patients to transition to FIRDAPSE®, we are continuing efforts on the longer, slower process to identify patients and their physicians who have diagnosed LEMS, but have not had access, awareness or understanding of this treatment for their rare disease. These patients often do not see their physician frequently, have many questions about changing treatment(s), and may not perceive the need to change to a new therapy. Further, we have begun to focus our commercial efforts to locate misdiagnosed and undiagnosed LEMS patients and provide educational and sales activities to help improve the diagnosis, understanding of the treatment, and information on the prescribing process. We plan to continue to support LEMS and rare disease patient organizational groups' efforts to generate awareness and educate patients and physicians on the diagnosis of LEMS, the impact of the disease, and the support services and treatments available.

Access to FIRDAPSE®

In order to help patients afford their medication, we, like other pharmaceutical companies who are marketing drugs for ultra-orphan conditions, have developed an array of financial assistance programs that are available to reduce patient co-pays and deductibles to a nominal affordable amount. For eligible patients with commercial coverage, a co-pay assistance program designed to keep out-of-pocket costs to $10 or less per month (currently $0.00 per month) is available for all LEMS patients prescribed FIRDAPSE®. We are also donating, and committing to continue to donate, money to qualified, independent charitable foundations dedicated to providing assistance to LEMS patients in financial need. Our goal is to ensure that no LEMS patient is ever denied access to their medication for financial reasons.

To date, FIRDAPSE® has been widely covered and reimbursed by private and public payors for the indicated small population of adult LEMS patients.

FDA approval of Ruzurgi® for pediatric LEMS patients (ages 6 to under 17)

In May 2019, the FDA approved an NDA for Ruzurgi®, Jacobus Pharmaceuticals' version of amifampridine (3,4-DAP), for the treatment of pediatric LEMS patients (ages 6 to under 17). We believe that the vast majority of Ruzurgi® sales are to adult LEMS patients who are being prescribed the drug off label. If Jacobus is able to successfully continue to sell Ruzurgi® off-label to additional adult LEMS patients, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We believe that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated our statutory rights and was in multiple other respects arbitrary, capricious and contrary to law. As a result, in June 2019 we filed suit against the FDA and several related parties challenging this approval and related drug labeling. Jacobus later intervened in the case. Our complaint, which was filed in the federal district court for the Southern District of Florida, alleged that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated multiple provisions of FDA regulations regarding labeling, resulting in misbranding in violation of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA); violated our statutory rights to Orphan Drug Exclusivity and New Chemical Entity Exclusivity under the FDCA; and was in multiple other respects arbitrary, capricious, and contrary to law, in violation of the Administrative Procedure Act. Among other remedies, the suit seeks an order vacating the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi®.

On July 30, 2020, the Magistrate Judge considering this lawsuit filed a Report and Recommendation in which she recommended to the District Judge handling the case that she grant the FDA's and Jacobus' motions for summary judgment and deny our motion for summary judgment. On September 29, 2020, the District Judge adopted the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, granted the FDA's and Jacobus' motions for summary judgment, and dismissed our case. We appealed the District Court's decision to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. The case was fully briefed in early 2021, and oral argument was held in March 2021.

On September 30, 2021, a three-judge panel of 11th Circuit judges issued a unanimous decision overturning the District Court's decision. The appellate court adopted our argument that the FDA's approval of Ruzurgi® violated our rights to Orphan Drug Exclusivity and remanded the case to the District Court with orders to enter summary judgment in our favor. In November 2021, Jacobus filed a motion seeking rehearing of the case from the full 11th Circuit, which motion was denied in January 2022. Further, in January 2022, Jacobus filed motions with both the 11th Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court seeking a stay of the 11th Circuit's ruling indicating that it would seek a review of the 11th Circuit's decision from the U.S. Supreme Court. Both stay motions were denied, and on January 28, 2022, the 11th Circuit issued a mandate directing the District Court to enter summary judgment in our favor. The District Court entered that order on January 31, 2022. On February 1, 2022, the FDA informed Jacobus that, consistent with the Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit's September 30, 2021, decision in favor of Catalyst, the final approval of the Ruzurgi® NDA was switched to a tentative approval until the 7-year orphan-drug exclusivity (ODE) for Firdapse® has expired.

There can be no assurance as to whether Jacobus will seek U.S. Supreme Court review of the 11th Circuit's decision, whether the U.S. Supreme Court will agree to hear the case, or whether, if the U.S. Supreme Court agrees to hear the case, Jacobus' appeal to overturn the decision of the 11th Circuit will be successful. Similarly, there can be no assurance as to whether the U.S. Congress will pass, and the President will sign, legislation revising the Orphan Drug Act that effectively overturns the decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit, and whether any such legislation, if passed and signed into law, will retroactively affect the outcome of the 11th Circuit decision and allow the FDA to reinstate the approval of Ruzurgi® before the expiration of FIRDAPSE®'s orphan drug exclusivity.

Third-Party Reimbursement

Sales of drug products depend in significant part on the availability of coverage and adequate reimbursement by third party payors, such as state and federal governments, including Medicare and Medicaid, managed care providers, private commercial insurance plans and pharmacy benefit management (PBM) plans. Decisions regarding the extent of coverage and the amount of reimbursement to be provided for FIRDAPSE® are expected to be made on a plan-by-plan, and in some cases, on a patient-by-patient basis. Particularly given the rarity of LEMS, our experience has been that securing coverage and appropriate reimbursement from third-party payors requires targeted education and highly skilled insurance navigation experts that have experience with rare disease launches and medical exception processes at insurance companies to provide patient coverage for important rare disease therapies. To that end, we have engaged a dedicated team of field-based market access account managers and reimbursement experts as well as a patient service center staffed with experienced personnel focused on ensuring that clinically-qualified patients have access to our product.

There can be no assurance, however, as to whether payors will continue to cover our product, and if so, at what level of reimbursement. In that regard, we have advised payors that we will provide free medication to support titration and confirm patient therapeutic benefit. Further, when necessary, we provide patients with access to therapy at no charge while those patients are awaiting coverage decisions.

Our efforts to develop FIRDAPSE® as a treatment for additional neuromuscular indications

Over the past few years, we have studied FIRDAPSE® as a potential treatment for multiple neuromuscular indications other than LEMS, and the results of recent studies are summarized below. Based on the results of these activities, in 2021 we have made a strategic decision not to proceed forward to further study FIRDAPSE® as a potential treatment for additional indications.

MuSK-MG studies

In February 2016, we initiated an investigator-sponsored, randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled, crossover proof-of-concept clinical trial evaluating the safety, tolerability and potential efficacy of FIRDAPSE® as a symptomatic treatment for patients with MuSK-MG. Seven patients participated in this proof-of-concept trial. On March 15, 2017, we reported top-line results from this trial. Both of the co-primary efficacy endpoints of change from baseline (CFB) in total Quantitative Myasthenia Gravis (QMG) score (p=0.0003) and CFB in total Myasthenia Gravis Activities of Daily Living (MG-ADL) score (p=0.0006) were statistically and clinically significant in this trial. Several secondary efficacy measures also achieved statistical significance. Amifampridine phosphate was well tolerated in this population of patients. The results of this study were published in SAGE Open Medicine and can be accessed at https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/pdf/10.1177/2050312118819013. Subsequently, we engaged in a Phase 3 clinical trial (MSK-002) evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of adults with MuSK-MG. Our trial was a multi-site, international (United States, Italy and Serbia), double-blind, placebo-controlled, clinical trial being conducted under a Special Protocol Assessment (SPA) with the FDA. The trial enrolled more than 60 MuSK antibody positive patients. It also enrolled more than 10 generalized myasthenia gravis patients who were assessed with the same clinical endpoints. However, achieving statistical significance in this subgroup of patients was not required.

On August 10, 2020, we announced the top-line results from our Phase 3 clinical trial (MSK-002) evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of adults with MuSK-MG. Unfortunately, the MSK-002 trial did not achieve statistical significance on its primary endpoint or its secondary endpoint, even though clinical improvement was observed by patients and investigators during the initial dose-titration period of the trial and in the company's previous proof-of-concept trial. However, we have recently concluded a detailed analysis of the data from this trial in an effort to understand why the MuSK-MG Phase 3 trial did not meet statistical significance on its endpoints.

Table of Contents

Following our receipt of these results, we analyzed the data and proposed a plan to the FDA to perform an additional study evaluating FIRDAPSE® for MuSK-MG. In response, the FDA provided written comments that were unfavorable towards our proposed revised study design and further questioned the ability of the initial MuSK-MG pilot study to be supportive. These remarks make it unlikely that a single study design similar to MSK-002 would be sufficient for potential approval of the MuSK-MG indication. We also held an appropriate expert panel to discuss options and review the likelihood for success for a MuSK-MG indication for FIRDAPSE®. Based on the input from the FDA and advisors, we have concluded that the approval of FIRDAPSE® as a first-line therapy for MuSK-MG is unlikely and therefore we have decided not to continue to pursue this indication.

Proof-of-concept clinical trial evaluating FIRDAPSE® for the treatment of SMA Type 3

Our exploratory study, SMA-001 (A Randomized Placebo Controlled Crossover Study to Evaluate the Safety and Efficacy of Amifampridine Phosphate in Ambulatory Patients with Spinal Muscular Atrophy (SMA) Type 3, met the primary endpoint of a statistically significant difference for the Hammersmith Functional Motor Scale Expanded (HFMSE). Clinically, however, the effect was modest. The secondary endpoints were not statistically significant, although several individual quality of life measures demonstrated a positive nominally statistically significant change. Key opinion leaders with whom we have spoken believed that FIRDAPSE® needed to show a large clinically significant change if there was the possibility to affect disease progression through retrograde signaling from enhanced neuromuscular junction function. After considering all of these factors, we have concluded that the modest results exhibited in this study are unlikely to result in a sufficient modification of disease progression, and, particularly in light of the fact that there are now three approved disease modifying medications for SMA Type 3, we have decided not to pursue the SMA Type 3 indication further.

Study to evaluate FIRDAPSE® as a treatment for HNPP

We previously announced our intent to conduct a proof-of-concept study evaluating FIRDAPSE® as a treatment for Hereditary Neuropathy with Liability to Pressure Palsies (HNPP). The FDA requested that a new, patient centric endpoint be researched and used for our proposed study, without assurance that such endpoint would be acceptable for approval. Based upon the uncertainty of such an endpoint, we have decided not to conduct this study as a company sponsored study, though there is a possibility that this study will move forward as investigator-initiated study that we will support.

Long-acting version of amifampridine phosphate

We were previously developing a long-acting formulation of amifampridine phosphate. While a number of formulations were prepared, after discussions with researchers and an advisory board made up of both patients and physicians, we concluded that we would be unable to develop a long-acting formulation that is both beneficial to patients and commercially viable, and as a result we made the determination not to proceed with development of this product.

Intellectual property and regulatory exclusivity protections for FIRDAPSE®

All of our patent rights for FIRDAPSE® are derived from our license agreement. In August 2020, the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) allowed Patent No. 10,793,893 (the '893 patent) to our licensor and thereby to us, and the patent issued on October 6, 2020. The patent is directed to the use of suitable doses of amifampridine to treat patients, regardless of the therapeutic indication, that are slow metabolizers of amifampridine. Any drug product containing amifampridine with a label that states the patented dosing regimens and doses in the Dosing and Administration section prior to April 7, 2034, the expiration date of the patent, could possibly infringe this patent. Generic drug product labels would necessarily have to do this, and we intend to take all appropriate actions to protect our intellectual property.

In April 2021, the USPTO also allowed Patent No. 11,060,128 (the '128 patent) to our licensor and thereby to us, and this second patent issued on July 13, 2021. The patent is directed to the use of suitable doses of amifampridine to treat patients suffering with LEMS that are slow metabolizers of amifampridine. Any drug product containing amifampridine with a label for the treatment of LEMS, that states the patented dosing regimens and doses in the Dosing and Administration section of a product label, including generic drug product labels, could possibly infringe this patent prior to this patent's expiration date.

On December 24, 2021, the USPTO allowed continuing application, 17/S03,190. On January 3, 2022, the USPTO allowed related continuing application 17/503,148. A further related continuing application, 17/503,092 was allowed on January 7, 2022. All three patents were issued in March 2022. The claims in each of these applications have either already been listed in the Orange Book for FIRDAPSE® or are in the process of being listed.

We are also pursuing additional patent applications for FIRDAPSE® in an effort to further protect our drug product. There can be no assurance that any additional patents will be issued which provide additional intellectual property protection for our drug product.

In that regard, in October 2020, we filed lawsuits against Jacobus and the specialty pharmacy marketing Ruzurgi®, PantherRx Rare LLC (PantherRx), for infringement of the '893 patent. The suits have now been consolidated in a single action in the U.S. District Court for New Jersey. In August 2021, the lawsuits were amended to include alleged infringement of the '128 patent. The lawsuits arise from

Jacobus' and PantherRx's sales and marketing of Ruzurgi® (amifampridine) Tablets, 10 mg. The lawsuits allege that the Ruzurgi® product infringes the '893 patent and the '128 patent when administered in accordance with its product labeling. The lawsuit seeks damages and injunctive relief to prevent further marketing of Ruzurgi® in violation of our patent rights. The lawsuit is in the discovery stage and there can be no assurance as to the results of these proceedings.

There can be no assurance that we do not or will not infringe on patents held by third parties or that third parties in the future will not claim that we have infringed on their patents. In the event that our products or technologies infringe or violate the patent or other proprietary rights of third parties, we may be prevented from pursuing product development, manufacturing or commercialization of our products that utilize such technologies. For example, there may be patents or patent applications held by others that contain claims that our products or operations might be determined to infringe or that may be broader than we believe them to be. Given the complexities and uncertainties of patent laws, there can be no assurance as to the impact that future patent claims against us may have on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or prospects.

Until FIRDAPSE® was approved in November 2018, no drug product containing amifampridine for any indication had been approved by the FDA such that we received five-year "new chemical entity" exclusivity from the FDA. New chemical entity exclusivity provides a five-year period of marketing exclusivity for all indications and in the absence of an Orange Book listed patent, precludes a generic from submitting an abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) until that five year period has expired. Further, when FIRDAPSE® was approved for the treatment of LEMS patients, we received seven-year orphan drug exclusivity for our product for the treatment of LEMS, precluding a generic filer from receiving final FDA approval until the ODE exclusivity period has expired. Because we have Orange Book listed patents for FIRDAPSE®, potential generic filers will be permitted to submit ANDA filings to the FDA as early as the "NCE-1" date (November 28, 2022). In the event of such filings, and after appropriate investigation, we intend to vigorously enforce our patent rights.

We have in-licensed the FIRDAPSE® trademark, and the trademark was registered in the United States in March 2015.

Protection of our intellectual property and regulatory exclusivities is a strategic priority for our business. Our ability to protect and use our intellectual property rights and regulatory exclusivity in the future development and commercialization of our products, operate without infringing the proprietary rights of others, and prevent others from infringing our proprietary rights, is crucial to our future success. See Item 1A. "Risk Factors—Risks Related to Our Intellectual Property."

Generic Sabril®

In September 2015, we announced the launch of a program to develop our version of vigabatrin (CPP-109) as a generic version of Sabril®, which is marketed in the United States by Lundbeck. Lundbeck's exclusivity for Sabril® expired on April 26, 2018. Vigabatrin comes in two dosage forms – a powder sachet and a tablet. Par Pharmaceutical brought the first generic version of the powder sachet to market, and since then numerous additional generic versions of this product have been approved. Further, four generic versions of vigabatrin tablets have also been approved.

On December 18, 2018, we entered into a definitive agreement with Endo International plc's subsidiary, Endo Ventures Limited (Endo), for the further development and commercialization of generic Sabril® tablets through Endo's United States Generic Pharmaceuticals segment, Par Pharmaceutical. Pursuant to the agreement, in December 2018, we received an up-front payment of $0.5 million. We will be entitled to receive a milestone payment of $2.0 million on the commercial launch of the product. Further, we will receive a sharing of defined net profits upon commercialization and certain expenses for development.

Sabril® is marketed by Lundbeck in the United States for infantile spasms and for refractory complex partial seizures. Lundbeck's sales of Sabril® (tablets and sachets) were approximately $129.0 million in 2019 and $118.3 million in 2020. Four generic versions of Sabril® tablets have been approved to date in the United States, as have numerous generic versions of the powder form. We have entered into a definitive agreement with Endo/Par for the further development and commercialization of generic Sabril® tablets.

There can be no assurance that our collaboration with Endo for the development of generic Sabril® (vigabatrin) tablets will be successful and that if an abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) is approved for vigabatrin tablets in the future, that it will be profitable to us.

Plans to Acquire or In-License Additional Products

In 2021, we made a strategic decision to broaden and diversify our product portfolio through acquisitions of both early and late-stage products or companies or technology platforms in rare disease therapeutic categories outside of neuromuscular diseases. To accomplish these new priorities, we are employing a disciplined approach to evaluating assets and we believe that this strategic expansion will better position our company to build out a broader more diversified portfolio of drug candidates, which should add greater value to our company over the near and long-term. However, there can be no assurance that whatever product candidates or technology platforms we acquire, if any, will be successfully developed or commercialized.

We are currently exploring several potential opportunities to acquire companies with drug products in development or to in-license or acquire drug products in development. However, no definitive agreements have been entered into to date. Further, during the third quarter of 2021 we hired Dr. Preethi Sundaram, who serves as our Chief Strategy Officer. In that position, Dr. Sundaram is leading our efforts to acquire R&D assets, from early stage through late-stage clinical programs and technologies to treat rare diseases, and once such drug candidates are acquired, Dr. Sundaram will help oversee the development of those assets.

Manufacturing and Supply

We are licensed in Florida as a virtual drug manufacturer, which means that we have no in-house manufacturing capacity and we are obligated to rely on contract manufacturers and packagers. We have no plans to build or acquire the manufacturing capability needed to manufacture any of our research materials or commercial products, and we expect that our drug products and drug substances will be prepared by contractors with suitable capabilities for these tasks and that we will enter into appropriate supply agreements with these contractors at appropriate times in the development and commercialization of our products. Because we will use contractors to manufacture and supply our products, we will be reliant on such contractors. Further, the contractors selected would have to be inspected by the FDA and found to be in substantial compliance with federal regulations in order for an application for one of our drug candidates to be approved, and there can be no assurance that the contractors we select would pass such an inspection.

We have entered into agreements with a supplier of the active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) contained in FIRDAPSE® for future requirements and we have contracted with third-party contract manufacturers who are manufacturing FIRDAPSE® tablets for us.

Any significant change that we make for FIRDAPSE® must be approved by the FDA in a supplemental new drug application (sNDA). If the manufacturing plan and data are insufficient, any sNDA we submit will not be approved. Before an sNDA can be approved, our manufacturers must also demonstrate compliance with FDA's current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMPs) regulations and policies. Further, even if we receive approval of any sNDAs for FIRDAPSE®, if our manufacturers do not follow cGMPs in the manufacture of our products, it may delay product launches or shipments and adversely affect our business.

Since we contract with third parties to manufacture our products, our contract manufacturers are required to comply with all applicable environmental laws and regulations that affect the manufacturing process. As a result, we do not believe that we will have any significant direct exposure to environmental issues.

Competition

The pharmaceutical industry is intensely competitive, and any product candidate developed or licensed by us would likely compete with currently marketed and potentially new drugs and therapies even though they are not indicated for these conditions. There are many pharmaceutical companies, biotechnology companies, public and private universities, government agencies and research organizations that compete with us in developing various approaches to the treatment of orphan diseases. Many of these organizations have substantially greater financial, technical, marketing and manufacturing resources than we have.

Before the approval of FIRDAPSE®, LEMS was generally treated with unapproved drugs and therapies including steroids, azathioprine, other immunosuppressants and intravenous immunoglobulin, which work by suppressing the immune system, and pyridostigmine. Plasma exchange has also been used in an attempt to remove antibodies from the body. Further, one other product, guanidine HCl tablets, was approved many years ago (during a period when drugs were not required to be reviewed by the FDA for both safety and effectiveness) for use in the treatment of LEMS. However, this drug has significant side effects and is not currently viewed as an effective treatment for LEMS. Notwithstanding, drugs may be prescribed by physicians for the treatment of LEMS whether or not they are considered effective.

For some years, Ruzurgi® for the treatment of pediatric patients with LEMS was often proscribed to adult LEMS patients, and at a lower price than FIRDAPSE®. Now that Ruzurgi® is no longer on the market, it is no longer competitive to FIRDAPSE®. However, if Ruzurgi® were to become available in the future, it would likely be competitive to FIRDAPSE®.

Finally, we are aware that amifampridine has been available from compounding pharmacies for many years and may remain available, even though we have obtained FDA approval of FIRDAPSE®. Compounded amifampridine is likely to be substantially less expensive than FIRDAPSE®. The Food and Drug Administration Modernization Act of 1997 included a new section, which clarified the status of pharmacy compounding under Federal law. Under Section 503A, drug products that are lawfully compounded by a pharmacist or physician for an individual patient may be entitled to exemptions from three key provisions of the FDCA: (1) the adulteration provision of section 501(a)(2)(B) (concerning FDA's cGMP regulations); (2) the misbranding provision of section 502(f)(1) (concerning the labeling of drugs with adequate directions for use); and (3) the new drug provision of section 505 (concerning the approval nf drugs under new drug or abbreviated new drug applications).

To qualify for these statutory exemptions, a compounded drug product must satisfy several legal requirements. One of these requirements restricts the universe of bulk drug substances that a compounder may use. Specifically, every bulk drug substance used in compounding: (1) must comply with an applicable and current USP or NF drug monograph, if one exists, as well as the current USP chapters on pharmacy compounding; (2) if such a monograph does not exist, the bulk drug substance must be a component of an FDA-approved drug; or (3) if a monograph does not exist and the bulk drug substance is not a component of an FDA-approved drug, it must appear on a list of bulk drug substances that may be used in compounding (i.e., the "Section 503A bulk substances list 1"). While the advertising provisions in Section 503A were ruled unconstitutional in part in the United States by the Supreme Court in 2002, the FDA, since 2013, has aggressively regulated and exercised oversight over the practice of pharmacy compounding following the compounding incident at the New England Compounding Center in Massachusetts that sickened hundreds and killed over 60 individuals.

In 2013, Congress removed the unconstitutional advertising provisions in Section 503A when it passed the Drug Quality and Security Act of 2013 (DQSA), Title I (The Compounding Quality Act). The DQSA also created "outsourcing facilities" under Section 503B of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, which are drug compounders that voluntarily register with FDA and may produce compounded formulations for office use (at least one of which must be sterile), but must comply with FDA's cGMP regulations and other requirements set forth in Section 503B. Section 503B outsourcing facilities may also only compound from bulk substances if the product is on FDA's drug shortage list, or the substance is on FDA's Section 503B list of bulk substances that may be used in compounding (i.e., the Section 503B bulk substances list 1").

While the FDA has been aggressively enforcing Section 503A since its re-enactment, compounders may still compound "near copies" (but not "essentially copies") of approved drug products, under Section 503A, so long as the prescriber makes a change to the compounded formulation that produces for that patient a significant difference between the commercially available drug and the compounded version. Compounders may also copy commercially available products if they do not do so in "regular or inordinate amounts." In January 2018, FDA published a Final Guidance document titled, "Compounded Drug Products That Are Essentially Copies of a Commercially Available Drug Product Under Section 503A of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act." This Final Guidance sets forth FDA's enforcement policy concerning those compounders that make essentially copies of commercially available drug products. FDA has defined the term "regular or inordinate" in the Final Guidance to mean: "a drug product that is essentially a copy of a commercially available drug product is compounded regularly or in inordinate amounts if it is compounded more frequently than needed to address unanticipated, emergency circumstances, or in more than the small quantities needed to address unanticipated, emergency circumstances." FDA has further stated it will not take enforcement action, considering all the facts and circumstances, against a compounder that compounds less than four "essentially copies" of a commercially available drug product in a calendar month.

Factors affecting competition generally

In general, our ability to compete depends in large part upon:

- our ability to complete clinical development and obtain regulatory approvals for our drug candidates;
- the demonstrated efficacy, safety and reliability of our drug candidates;
- the timing and scope of regulatory approvals;
- product acceptance by physicians and other health care providers;
- the willingness of payors to reimburse for our product;
- protection of our proprietary rights and the level of generic competition;
- the speed at which we develop drug candidates;
- our ability to supply commercial quantities of a product to the market;
- our ability to obtain reimbursement from private and/or public insurance entities for product use in approved indications;
- our ability to recruit and retain skilled employees; and
- the availability of capital resources to fund our development and commercialization activities, including the availability of funding from the federal government.

PART I

Item 1. Business.

Overview

We are a biopharmaceutical company focused on the development, manufacturing and commercialization of products that address unmet patient needs, with current focus directed towards the treatment of pulmonary hypertension (PH). We operate as a single entity through our two wholly owned operating subsidiaries, Liquidia Technologies and Liquidia PAH (formerly known as RareGen).

We generate revenue pursuant to a Promotion Agreement between Liquidia PAH and Sandoz Inc. ("Sandoz") sharing profit derived from the sale of the first-to-file fully substitutable generic treprostinil injection ("Treprostinil Injection") in the United States. Liquidia PAH has the exclusive rights to conduct commercial activities to encourage the appropriate use of Treprostinil Injection. We employ a targeted sales force calling on physicians and hospital pharmacies in the treatment of pulmonary arterial hypertension (PAH), as well as key stakeholders involved in the distribution and reimbursement of Treprostinil Injection. Strategically, we believe that our commercial presence in the field will enable an efficient base from which to expand and support the launch of YUTREPIA™ (treprostinil) inhalation powder, formerly known as LIQ861, and tentatively approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in November 2021. We intend to leverage our existing relationships and further validate our reputation as a company committed to supporting PAH patients as we prepare to launch YUTREPIA upon receiving final FDA approval.

We are actively investigating projects that include new indications, formulations, and delivery devices for our existing products and product candidates and evaluating potential new products to treat PH and other conditions. We conduct research, development, and manufacturing of novel products by applying our proprietary PRINT® technology, a particle engineering platform, to enable precise production of uniform drug particles designed to improve the safety, efficacy and performance of a wide range of therapies. We have development experience in inhaled therapies, vaccines, biologics, and ophthalmic implants, among others.

Our Products and Candidates for PH

Our current commercial focus is treating patients diagnosed with PAH. PH is divided into five groups based on the criteria of the World Health Organization (WHO) as defined at the 5th World Symposium on Pulmonary Hypertension in Nice, France. WHO Group I is comprised of individuals with PAH.

PAH is a rare, chronic, progressive disease caused by hardening and narrowing of the pulmonary arteries that can lead to right heart failure and eventually death, with an estimated diagnosed, treated prevalence in the United States of approximately 30,000 patients. There is currently no cure for PAH, so the goals of existing treatments are to alleviate symptoms, maintain or improve functional class, delay disease progression and improve quality of life. Drugs targeting the prostacyclin pathway are central to PAH therapy. Prostacyclin analogs, like treprostinil, have been developed for continuous infusion, either intravenously or subcutaneously, inhalation using a nebulizer and oral administration in the form of tablets. The maximal efficacy benefit of any one drug in the prostacyclin pathway is partially limited by its specific safety profile.

Delivering prostacyclin analogs by inhalation has been effective and causes fewer systemic side effects. Inhalation of prostacyclin analogs helps supplement the endogenous production of prostacyclin where it is normally synthesized, near the targeted pulmonary arteries. As a result, inhalation of prostacyclin analogs helps avoid side effects related to off-target tissues and takes advantage of binding key prostacyclin receptors that are preferentially expressed in the lung. The only inhaled prostacyclin analogs approved by the FDA are Tyvaso® (treprostinil) and Ventavis® (iloprost), which both require nebulizers.

Systemic delivery of prostacyclin has proven effective but challenging. Parenteral delivery of prostacyclin analogs by continuous infusion via intravenous or subcutaneous administration, like Remodulin® (treprostnil) and epoprosentol, are considered the most effective treatment for PAH; however, the inconvenience of external pumps and side-effect profiles have limited their use to severely ill patients. Oral tablet delivery of prostacyclin analogs, like Orenitram® (treprostinil), or agonists of the prostacyclin signaling pathway, like Uptravi® (selexipag), improve convenience compared to infusions, but does not address the off-target toxicities that limit optimal dosing.

In 2020, the total reported net revenue of branded therapies used to treat PAH exceeded $4 billion in the United States, of which $2.2 billion targeted the prostacyclin pathway. United Therapeutics reported that its class of branded treprostinil-based products generated net revenue of $1.43 billion in 2021, of which Tyvaso® contributed $607.5 million from predominately U.S. net sales, Orenitram contributed $306.1 million and Remodulin® contributed $513.7 million with $90.2 million in net revenue coming from non-U.S. sales.

The addressable patient population and market value of inhaled treprostinil-based treatments is expected to grow due to new indications and the advent of dry-powder inhalers. In April 2021, the FDA approved Tyvaso® to treat a sub-population of patients in WHO Group III with Interstitial Lung Disease (PH-ILD). United Therapeutics estimates the PH-ILD patient group to be 30,000 patients for whom there are no approved treatments. United Therapeutics is also enrolling clinical studies of Tyvaso to treat patients diagnosed with pulmonary hypertension and chronic obstructive pulmonary disorder (PH-COPD), estimated at 100,000 patients, and idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis (IPF), estimated at more than 100,000 patients.

As the addressable market increases, we believe there will be increased focus on the convenience and clinical utility of approved inhaled treatment options. Dry powder inhalers ("DPIs") offer increased convenience to patients as compared to nebulizers which should increase adoption and compliance to treatment. As with nebulizers, physicians will titrate DPIs to higher, tolerable doses over time to maximize the benefit of prostacyclin therapy. In WHO Group III patients specifically, there is growing medical preference for inhaled therapies to avoid ventilation-perfusion mismatch resulting from systemic delivery of prostacyclins.

YUTREPIA™ (treprostinil) Inhalation Powder to Treat PAH

Our lead investigational drug, YUTREPIA™ (treprostinil) inhalation powder was tentatively approved by the FDA in November 2021. YUTREPIA is an inhaled dry powder formulation of treprostinil designed to improve the therapeutic profile of treprostinil by enhancing deep lung delivery and achieving higher dose levels than current inhaled therapies while using a convenient, easy-to-use dry-powder inhaler, the RS00 Model 8 DPI. This device and its variants have been used in at least eight marketed products globally since 2001, including Novartis's Foradil Aerolizer® for the treatment of asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD).

We believe YUTREPIA can become the prostacyclin of first choice across the disease continuum because of its convenience, localized deep lung delivery, and ability to titrate to patient tolerance and benefit. YUTREPIA has shown to be safe and well tolerated in patients who are transitioning from Tyvaso and patients who are inhalation naïve. Drug particles in YUTREPIA have been designed with uniform size and shape to enhance delivery to the deep lung. YUTREPIA has demonstrated it can be safely titrated to dose levels well above the target maintenance dose of Tyvaso, and can do so using a convenient, robust, and proven DPI. The net impact is that we believe YUTREPIA should improve the dose range, durability and duration of treatment via inhaled administration, and thereby significantly expand the market value beyond what has been achieved with Tyvaso and Ventavis.

We have developed YUTREPIA under the 505(b)(2) regulatory pathway using the nebulized form of treprostinil, Tyvaso®, as the reference listed drug. This regulatory pathway allows us to rely in part on the FDA's previous findings of efficacy and safety of Tyvaso® and the active ingredient treprostinil. We submitted the New Drug Application ("NDA") for YUTREPIA in January 2020. In November 2020, the FDA issued a Complete Response Letter ("CRL") to the NDA, which we resubmitted in May 2021. The FDA conducted on-site pre-approval inspections of two U.S. manufacturing facilities: the Company's Morrisville, NC facility and the facility of the third-party provider of encapsulation and packaging services for YUTREPIA in August 2021 and October 2021, respectively.

In November 2021, the FDA issued a tentative approval of YUTREPIA which indicated that the NDA had met all the requirements for final approval but cannot yet be marketed. Final FDA approval and launch of YUTREPIA are directly impacted by the pending Hatch-Waxman litigation commenced by United Therapeutics on June 4, 2020. As a result, the FDA cannot issue a final approval for the YUTREPIA NDA until the expiration of a 30-month regulatory stay in October 2022 or earlier judgment unfavorable to United Therapeutics by the court. The FDA's tentative approval can be subject to change based on new information that may come to FDA's attention between such time as the tentative and final approval. A new drug product may not be marketed until the date of final approval.

Our NDA submission was based in part upon the results of our pivotal, open-label Phase 3 clinical trial, Investigation of the Safety and Pharmacology of Dry Powder Inhalation of Treprostinil, for YUTREPIA ("INSPIRE"). The primary objective of the INSPIRE study was to evaluate the long-term safety of YUTREPIA with a primary endpoint to assess safety and tolerability through Month 2. The study enrolled patients who have either (a) been under stable treatment with Tyvaso® (nebulizer-delivered treprostinil) for at least three months and transitioned to YUTREPIA under the protocol ("Transition patients"), or (b) patients who had been under stable treatment with no more than two non-prostacyclin oral PAH therapies for at least three months and then had their treatment regimen supplemented with YUTREPIA under the protocol ("Add-On patients"). Transition patients started at a dose comparable to their prior nebulized treprostinil dose and were titrated to higher doses as warranted by their clinical disease. Add-On patients started on a dose of 26.5 mcg of YUTREPIA, with most (>80%) titrating to a 79.5 mcg dose or higher within the first two months of treatment. Of the 121 patients enrolled in the study, 55 were Transition patients and 66 were Add-On patients.

YUTREPIA was observed to be well-tolerated and treatment-emergent adverse events (TEAEs) were mostly mild to moderate in nature at Month 2 up to doses of 159 mcg, the highest dose studied for the primary endpoint. We continued to treat patients who chose to remain on YUTREPIA beyond the Month 2 timepoint. At the completion of the INSPIRE study, the patient with the longest duration of treatment had been on YUTREPIA therapy for 18 months and the highest dosing reached in the INSPIRE study was 212 mcg of treprostinil given four times per day. Patients from INSPIRE had the option of rolling into the LTI-302 extension study to remain on treatment. Patients in LTI-302 continued to titrate doses upwards as needed with no observed maximum tolerated dose and the highest dose delivered being 238 mcg.

Our NDA submission also includes results from pharmacokinetic (PK) studies in healthy volunteers indicating that the single-capsule dose of 79.5 mcg YUTREPIA provides comparable PK with nine breaths of Tyvaso. For reference, the target dose of Tyvaso is 9 to 12 breaths per treatment session, 4 times daily. Clinical results from the PK and pivotal studies of YUTREPIA have been presented at various international scientific meetings such as the American Thoracic Society (ATS), International Society of Heart Lung Transplantation (ISHLT), Pulmonary Vascular Research Institute (PVRI), American College of Chest Physicians (ACCP) in 2019 and 2020.

We are considering conducting other clinical trials to generate additional data to support the use of YUTREPIA, including a clinical trial in pediatric patients. We conducted a clinical study, known as LTI 201, at certain investigational sites in France and Germany to characterize the hemodynamic dose-response relationship to YUTREPIA. In December 2020, we decided to terminate the study earlier than planned due to challenges related to the COVID-19 pandemic; however, we did observe acute, hemodynamic responses as expected with inhaled treprostinil.

Treprostinil Injection, a Generic Version of Remodulin®

Remodulin® is treprostinil administered through continuous intravenous and subcutaneous infusion, as approved by the FDA in 2002 and 2004, and marketed by United Therapeutics. Patients must use external pumps manufactured by third parties to deliver Remodulin®. Smiths Medical ASD, Inc. ("Smiths Medical") manufactures the pumps used by most patients in the United States to administer Remodulin®, including the CADD-MS® 3 (MS 3) pump used to deliver subcutaneous Remodulin®, and the CADD-Legacy® pump to deliver intravenous Remodulin®. It is estimated that 3,000 patients are treated annually with parenteral, infused treprostinil split between the two routes of administration. Branded Remodulin® generated U.S. revenue of approximately $452 million and $423 million in 2020 and 2021, respectively. The decrease in annual net revenue was attributed to the increased use of generic options as well as COVID-19 pandemic.

In August 2018, Sandoz partnered with Liquidia PAH (then known as RareGen) on an exclusive basis to market and commercialize its generic Treprostinil Injection, which was subsequently launched as the first-to-file, fully-substitutable generic treprostinil for parenteral administration in March 2019. Liquidia PAH promotes the appropriate use of Treprostinil Injection for the treatment of PAH in the United States and works jointly with Sandoz on commercial strategy for the product. Sandoz retains all rights in and to Treprostinil Injection. As the Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) holder, Sandoz maintains responsibility for compliance with FDA regulatory and healthcare laws including any regulatory communications with the FDA or any other regulatory authorities. In consideration for Liquidia PAH conducting certain responsibilities associated with the commercialization of Treprostinil Injection, Liquidia PAH receives a portion of the net profits generated from the sales of the product.

Treprostinil Injection contains the same active ingredient, same strength, same dosage forms and same inactive ingredient amounts as Remodulin®, and at the same service and support, but at a lower price. The treprostinil is supplied in 20 mL multi-dose vials in four strengths — containing 20 mg, 50 mg, 100 mg, or 200 mg (1 mg/mL, 2.5 mg/mL, 5 mg/mL or 10 mg/mL) of treprostinil, respectively.

Treprostinil Injection is available for intravenous and subcutaneous administration at the same specialty pharmacies that dispense the brand name medicine. When first launched in April 2019, Treprostinil Injection was only available for intravenous administration. The cartridges required to operate the CADD-MS 3 pump were not available to patients using Treprostinil Injection due to restrictions imposed by other companies. On May 21, 2021, Liquidia PAH's manufacturing partner, Chengdu Shifeng Medical Technologies LTD ("Chengdu") began selling the RG 3ml Medication Cartridge, which may be used to supply medications to PAH patients. The FDA's clearance of Chengdu's 510(k) supports the use of the cartridge with the CADD-MS 3 pump manufactured by Smiths Medical, which has been used for the SC administration of Remodulin for more than 10 years.

Our PRINT Technology

Our proprietary PRINT particle engineering technology allows us to engineer and manufacture highly uniform drug particles with precise control over the size, three-dimensional geometric shape and chemical composition of the particles. By controlling these physical and chemical parameters of particles, PRINT enables us to engineer desirable pharmacological benefits into product candidates, including prolonged duration of drug release, increased drug loading, more convenient routes of administration, the ability to create novel combination products, enhanced storage and stability and the potential to reduce adverse side effects. Our manufacturing equipment and materials used in the production of our drug particles are proprietary and protected by our patent portfolio and trade secret know-how.

An example of the precise particle engineering enabled by PRINT technology is demonstrated in YUTREPIA. Each particle is designed to enhance delivery and deep-lung penetration with a precise size and highly uniform shape inspired by a naturally occurring pollen. YUTREPIA PRINT particles have a one micrometer trefoil-shape measured by an inscribed one micrometer circle as shown in the figure below. In vitro studies suggest that the uniformity of size and shape allow our inhaled particles to target delivery into the lungs with less deposition in the upper airways. The figures

Development, Regulatory and Commercial Strategy

We believe that our PRINT technology can be applied to a wide range of therapeutic areas, molecule types, routes of administration and novel or generic products. To date, our internal pipeline has focused on the development of improved and differentiated drug products containing FDA-approved active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs) with established efficacy and safety profiles, which we believe are eligible for the 505(b)(2) regulatory pathway to seek marketing approval in the U.S. The 505(b)(2) regulatory pathway can be capital efficient and potentially enable a shorter time to approval, subject to certain risks associated with this regulatory pathway. If our product candidates receive marketing approval, we plan to commercialize them in the U.S. either by ourselves or through partnership or licensing arrangements with other pharmaceutical companies. Outside of the U.S., we may pursue regulatory approval and commercialization of our product candidates in collaboration with pharmaceutical companies with regional expertise. We intend to manufacture our product candidates using in-house capabilities. Where appropriate, we will rely on contract manufacturing organizations (CMOs) to produce, package and distribute our approved drug products on a commercial scale.

We intend to focus our commercial efforts initially on the U.S. market in the treatment of PAH. We employ a small, targeted sales force for Treprostinil Injection calling on physicians involved in the treatment of PAH in the US, as well as key stakeholders involved in the distribution and reimbursement of Treprostinil Injection. Strategically, we believe that our commercial presence in the field will enable an efficient launch of YUTREPIA if and when we obtain final approval, leveraging existing relationships and further validating our reputation as a company committed to supporting PAH patients. If we have success increasing the utilization of Treprostinil Injection and advancing YUTREPIA to FDA approval, we will increase our efforts to pursue the highly concentrated target market of PAH centers of excellence and high prescribers of PAH therapies. Our physician call points within these sites of care will include cardiologists, pulmonologists and their supporting staff. We believe that we can effectively commercialize YUTREPIA, if approved, with an expanded specialty field team. We also expect to further develop our internal resources and functional areas to support other types of communication. For example, we may utilize medical science liaisons and reimbursement specialists to support the proper conveying of scientific and medical information, and healthcare economic information regarding, and utilization of, YUTREPIA.

Manufacturing and Supply

We operate from a 45,000 square foot facility in Morrisville, North Carolina in which we design, formulate and manufacture engineered drug particles using PRINT particle fabrication lines as well as supportive activity including research and development, analytical development, quality control and production of mold templates that enable our production processes. Our three operational PRINT particle fabrication lines are located within class ISO7 clean rooms that operate under applicable ISO and current good manufacturing practices (cGMP) air quality and environmental requirements. Our current operational fabrication lines are scaled and capable of producing the necessary materials to support our clinical trials and, if approved, commercial demand for our products.

In August 2021, the FDA completed an on-site Pre-Approval Inspection (PAI) of our Morrisville, North Carolina facility in connection with the review of the YUTREPIA NDA. The 5-day PAI concluded with no Form 483 Inspectional Observations issued. This was our first inspection of the Morrisville site by the FDA. We utilize contract manufacturers to finish production and package our drug product for clinical and commercial use.

We depend on third-party suppliers for commercial inventory and clinical supplies, including active pharmaceutical ingredients which are used in our product candidates. For example, we currently rely on a sole supplier, LGM Pharma, LLC, for treprostinil, the active pharmaceutical ingredient of YUTREPIA, and we currently rely on a sole supplier, Plastiape S.p.A ("Plastiape"), for RS00 Model 8 DPI, the device used to administer YUTREPIA. We also rely on a sole supplier, Xcelience LLC (now a Lonza Group Ltd company), for encapsulation and packaging services. If and when we receive final marketing approval for our product candidates, we may, from time to time, rely on third-party CMOs to manufacture, package and distribute some or all of our approved drug products on a commercial scale.

Supply of Treprostinil Injection is managed directly by our partner Sandoz, who retains the ANDA, manages inventory and records gross revenue on product sales. Sandoz is either the manufacturer or contracted party for the entire supply chain. We collaborate with Sandoz on a regular basis to plan appropriate inventory production and management based on the demand for Treprostinil Injection and observations in the field. Additionally, we have contracted with our manufacturing partner Chengdu to supply the RG 3mL Medication Cartridge for use with CADD-MS® 3 (MS-3) ambulatory infusion pumps and enable subcutaneous administration of Treprostinil Injection.

Our Collaboration and Licensing Agreements

Sandoz Promotion Agreement

Liquidia PAH entered into a Promotion Agreement with Sandoz on August 1, 2018, as amended on May 8, 2020 and September 4, 2020, which engaged Liquidia PAH on an exclusive basis to promote the appropriate use of Sandoz's treprostinil, Treprostinil Injection, referred to as the "Product" in the Promotion Agreement, for the treatment of PAH in the United States, including its commonwealths, territories, possessions and military bases. Liquidia PAH works jointly with Sandoz on commercial strategy for Treprostinil Injection and has responsibility for identifying, manufacturing and developing medical devices, including pumps and cartridges, that may be used to administer the Product. Sandoz retains all rights in and to the Product. Sandoz is the holder of the ANDA for the Product. As the ANDA holder, Sandoz maintains responsibility for compliance with FDA regulatory and healthcare laws including any regulatory communications with the FDA or any other regulatory authorities.

Under the Promotion Agreement, Sandoz retains responsibility for: the specifications, manufacture and supply, distribution and future development of treprostinil; regulatory submission and interactions with the FDA pertaining to treprostinil, including maintaining all necessary regulatory approvals; reporting to the FDA or other regulatory authorities on matters relating to manufacturing, sale or promotion, such as any safety events involving treprostinil; internally reviewing and, as it determines appropriate, approving promotional materials developed by Liquidia PAH, and making submissions to the FDA's Office of Prescription Drug Promotion; handling safety activities including adverse event reporting, and initiating and managing any recalls of treprostinil.

Liquidia PAH's activities and obligations related to regulatory matters conducted under the Promotion Agreement include: promotional and non-promotional activities, including sales and marketing activities for treprostinil, and engagement of healthcare professionals for advisory boards; developing, with prior written approval from Sandoz, marketing and educational materials consistent with FDA approved labeling and applicable laws; notifying Sandoz of notices from governmental authorities about adverse event reports or regulatory inquiries related to the safety of treprostinil, product complaints or alleged defects, unsolicited requests for off-label medical information; providing certain data and information to Sandoz in order to fulfill its transparency and reporting obligations under the Physician Payment Sunshine Act; complying with applicable laws relevant to the activities conducted under the Promotion

Agreement; establishing a compliance program and mechanism for disclosure of any violations of Liquidia PAH policies and procedures and submission of an annual report and certification to Sandoz of its compliance activities; and managing, with oversight and participation from Sandoz, negotiations and arrangements for managed care activities.

The Promotion Agreement, unless earlier terminated, initially extends until the eight (8)-year anniversary of the first commercial sale of the Product by Sandoz, which occurred on or about March 25, 2019. The Promotion Agreement automatically renews for successive two-year terms unless earlier terminated.

Liquidia PAH paid Sandoz an initial payment of $10 million on August 1, 2018 and, upon the successful quality release by Sandoz of 9,000 units of the Product on August 3, 2018, Liquidia PAH paid Sandoz an additional $10 million as further consideration for the right to conduct the activities as contemplated in the Promotion Agreement and to receive a portion of the "Net Profits" (as defined in the Promotion Agreement). The portion of Net Profits are allocated to Liquidia PAH as follows: (i) for that portion of aggregate Net Profits less than or equal to $500 million, Liquidia PAH shall receive between 50-80% of all such Net Profits; and (ii) for that portion of aggregate Net Profits greater than $500 million, Liquidia PAH shall receive 75% of all such Net Profits.

Liquidia PAH and Sandoz may terminate the Promotion Agreement for cause upon a number of customary events, such as a material breach of the Promotion Agreement that remains uncured, complete withdrawal of marketing approval of the Product or upon the filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings with respect to the other party. Further, either party may terminate the Promotion Agreement upon written notice to the other party at any time after the initial eight (8) year term in the event Sandoz is then procuring 100% of its supply of Product from a single third party upon (a) expiration of the supply agreement with such third party and (b) Sandoz's failure, after exercise of commercially reasonable efforts, to secure continued supply of the Product from such third party or other third parties within 12 months of the termination of such supply agreement. Liquidia PAH and Sandoz also each have a right to terminate the Promotion Agreement on not more than 90 days' written notice in the event that Net Profits in the last calendar year are less than $5 million.

Sandoz may terminate the Promotion Agreement on not more than 90 days' written notice after the conclusion of any full 12-month calendar year in the event that Net Profits in such calendar year are less than or equal to 10% of the net sales in such calendar year; provided, however, that Sandoz may not terminate the Promotion Agreement in such instance unless and until (i) aggregate amounts received by Liquidia PAH under the sharing of Net Profits have reached $32.5 million, or (ii) both (x) Net Profits or the profit margin were adversely affected in such calendar year by any temporary event or circumstance and (z) the joint steering committee makes a determination that such profit margin deficiency is not likely to continue in the subsequent calendar year. Sandoz may also terminate the Promotion Agreement upon a change of control of Liquidia PAH.

Liquidia PAH may terminate the Promotion Agreement on not more than 90 days' written notice after the conclusion of any full 12-month calendar year in the event that Liquidia PAH's share of the Net Profits in such calendar year are less than or equal to Liquidia PAH's operating expenses relating to the Product for such calendar year; provided, however, that Liquidia PAH may not terminate the Promotion Agreement in such instance unless and until (i) aggregate amounts received by Sandoz under the share of Net Profits have reached $28.125 million, or (ii) both (x) Net Profits or its operating expenses relating to the Product were adversely affected in such calendar year by a temporary event or circumstance and (z) the joint steering committee makes a determination that Liquidia PAH's share of the Net Profits is not likely to continue to be less than its operating expenses relating to the Product in the subsequent calendar year.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

In December 2008, we entered into the Amended and Restated License Agreement with The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill ("UNC") for the use of certain patent rights and technology relating to initial innovations of our PRINT technology (the "UNC License"). Under the terms of the UNC License, we have an exclusive license to such patent rights and technology for our drug products. The UNC License grants us the right to grant sublicenses to the technology as well as control the litigation of any infringement claim instituted by or against us in respect of the licensed patent rights. We are also responsible for the costs of all expenses associated with the prosecution and maintenance of the patents and patent applications. Such filings and prosecution will be carried out by UNC and in UNC's name but under our control.

Under the UNC License, we are required to pay UNC royalties equal to a low single digit percentage of all net sales of our drug products whose manufacture, use or sale includes any use of the technology or patent rights covered by the UNC License, as well as tiered royalty percentages ranging in the low single digits of sales by our sublicensees for any product covered by rights under a sublicense agreement granted pursuant to the UNC License. Under the UNC License, we are also required to pay UNC certain fees other than royalties that we collect and are attributable to UNC sublicensed intellectual property. We also reimburse UNC for its costs of procuring and maintaining the patents we license from UNC. Effective November 2017, we satisfied all substantive milestones associated with our UNC License other than semi-annual and annual reporting-based milestones that continue through the term of the UNC License. The UNC License expires (i) on the expiration of the last to expire patent included in the patent rights or (ii) if no patents mature from such patent rights, in December 2028.

We have the right to terminate the UNC License upon a specified period of prior written notice. UNC may terminate the UNC License in certain circumstances, including if we fail to pay royalty or other payments on time or if we fail to sublicense in accordance with the terms of the UNC License. Upon termination of the UNC License, we must pay any royalty obligations due upon termination.

Aerie Pharmaceuticals

We have exclusively licensed our PRINT technology to Aerie Pharmaceuticals, Inc., which in 2017 acquired most of the assets of Envisia Therapeutics, Inc., an entity which we formed in 2013, for broad nsage in the design and commercialization of small molecule and biologic opbthalmic therapies.

GlaxoSmithKline

Previously, we had collaborated with GlaxoSmithKline plc ("GSK") on the use of our PRINT technology in respiratory disease. In June 2012, we entered into an Inhaled Collaboration and Option Agreement (the "GSK ICO Agreement") with GSK to collaborate on research regarding the application of our PRINT technology to specified inhaled therapies. Pursuant to the GSK ICO Agreement, we granted GSK exclusive options and licenses to further develop and commercialize such inhaled therapies using our PRINT technology. In September 2015, GSK exercised its option to obtain an exclusive, worldwide license to certain of our know-how and patents relating to our PRINT technology for the purpose of developing inhaled therapeutics. In connection with the grant of this license, we received a one-time option exercise fee and were also entitled to continued research and development funding, certain milestone payments, and tiered royalties on the worldwide sales of the licensed products. In February 2016, we received a payment from GSK upon the achievement of a clinical development milestone related to the development of an inhaled antiviral for viral exacerbations in COPD. However, in July 2018, GSK notified ns of its plans to discontinue development of this compound afrer completion of the related Phase 1 clinical trial.

In June 2019, we and GSK executed an amendment to the collaboration agreement providing us with rights to develop and commercialize three specified molecular entities for application in inhaled programs using our PRINT technology at our sole expense. This amendment also provides a mechanism for us to acquire rights to develop and commercialize further molecular entities for inhaled applications. New inhaled programs developed under this amendment would carry milestone and royalty payments due to GSK upon initiation of Phase 3 studies and subsequent commercialization, respectively.

In January 2020, we notified GSK of our intent to terminate the GSK ICO Agreement based upon GSK's lack of continued performance under the original agreement, which we believe constitutes a material breach of the agreement. In February 2020, we received a letter from GSK disputing our basis for termination. The parties are currently attempting to resolve the dispute pursuant to the terms of the GSK ICO Agreement and are discussing a possible amendment to this agreement.

Intellectual Property

The proprietary nature and protection of our product candidates, their methods of use and our platform technology that enables our product candidates are an important part of our business strategy of rapidly developing and commercializing new medicines that address areas of significant unmet medical needs.

Our policy is to seek patent protection of our proprietary product candidates and technology by filing U.S., international and certain foreign patent applications covering certain of our proprietary technology, inventions, improvements and product candidates that are important to the growth and protection of our business. We also rely on a combination of trade secrets, know-how, trademarks and contractual restrictions to protect aspects of our business that are not amenable to patent protection or where we do not consider patent protection to be adequate or applicable.

Our success depends, in part, on our ability to obtain and maintain patent and other protection for our product candidates, enabling technology, inventions and know-how and our ability to defend and enforce these patents, preserve the proprietary nature of our trade secrets and trademarks and operate our business without infringing valid and enforceable patent and other proprietary rights of third parties. We pursue both composition-of-matter patents and method-of-use patents for our product candidates. We are also pursuing patents covering our proprietary PRINT micro- and nano-particle fabrication technology.

We are the owner or exclusive licensee of patents and applications relating to our proprietary technology platform and our product candidates and are pursuing additional patent protection for these and for our other product candidates and technology developments.

We have a total of 149 patents and pending patent applications in our patent portfolio which protect our PRINT Technology and drug products in development. As of December 31, 2021, we were the sole owner of 16 patents in the United States and 44 patents in foreign jurisdictions, as well as approximately 11 additional pending patent applications, including provisional patent applications, in the United States, Europe, Japan and other jurisdictions. In addition to the patents and patent applications owned solely by us, our patent portfolio also includes 74 patents and 5 patent applications licensed from third parties. As of December 31, 2021, we had an exclusive, worldwide license from UNC to 19 U.S. patents and 55 foreign patents, as well as two additional patent applications in the United States or selected foreign jurisdictions. Five of the patents and one of the patent applications in the portfolio licensed from UNC are jointly owned by us. YUTREPIA is specifically protected by 12 issued patents in the United States, the longest-lived of which will expire in 2037.

We hold multiple U.S. trademark registrations and have numerous pending trademark applications. Issuance of a federally registered trademark creates a rebuttable presumption of ownership of the mark; however, it is subject to challenge by others claiming first use in the mark in some or all the areas in which it is used. Federally registered trademarks have a perpetual life so long as they are maintained and renewed on a timely basis and used properly as trademarks, subject to the rights of third parties to seek cancellation of the trademarks if they claim priority or confusion of usage. We believe our patents and trademarks are valuable and would provide us certain benefits in marketing our products.

Competition

The pharmaceutical industry is intensely competitive, subject to rapid and significant technological change and places emphasis on the value of proprietary products. While we believe that our technologies and experience provide us with a competitive advantage, our competitors include organizations such as major multinational pharmaceutical companies, established biotechnology companies, biopharmaceutical companies and generic drug companies. Many of our competitors have greater financial and other resources than we have, such as more commercial resources, larger research and development staffs and more extensive marketing and manufacturing organizations. As a result, these companies may obtain marketing approval more rapidly than we are able and may be more effective in selling and marketing their products. Smaller or early-stage companies may also prove to be significant competitors, particularly through collaboration arrangements with large, established companies.

Table of Contents

Any product candidates that we successfully develop and commercialize will compete with existing therapies and new therapies that may become available in the future. Our competitors may succeed in developing, acquiring or licensing, on an exclusive basis, technologies and drug products that are more effective or less costly than products that we are currently developing or that we may develop, which could render our products obsolete and non-competitive. We expect any products that we develop and commercialize to compete on the basis of, among others, efficacy, safety, convenience of administration and delivery, price and the availability of reimbursement from government and other third-party payors. We also expect to face competition in our efforts to recruit and retain qualified personnel, establish clinical trial sites and secure patient enrollment in our clinical trials, and identify appropriate collaborators to help commercialize any approved products in our target commercial markets.

Competition in PAH

Our products and development programs directed toward the treatment of PAH compete with several approved classes of drugs that target the prostacyclin pathway, the nitric oxide pathway and the endothelin pathway. We also expect continued development by competitors of new mechanisms of action that may be approved during the period of time that our products are being commercialized. Drugs targeting each of the clinically validated pathways may be used alone or in combination with each other to treat patients with PAH. Drugs targeted to the prostacyclin pathway, like Treprostinil Injection and YUTREPIA, are usually added to oral therapies targeting different mechanisms and their use could be impacted by changes in pricing or medical information Specifically, PDE-5 inhibitors, such as tadalafil, marketed by United Therapeutics, and sildenafil, marketed by Pfizer Inc., now compete with generic versions of both tadalafil and sildenafil; endothelin receptor antagonists, such as bosentan and macitentan, both marketed by Actelion Pharmaceuticals Ltd ("Actelion") and ambrisentan, marketed by Gilead Sciences, Inc, compete with generic version of bosentan and ambrisentan; and soluble guanylate cyclase (sGC) stimulator, such as riociguat marketed by Bayer, has seen increased since its U.S. approval in 2013.

Competition with prostacyclin-targeted treatments

Within the prostacyclin pathway, our products face competition from specific products and development programs described below.

The Treprostinil Injection product faces competition primarily from the continued use of the branded Remodulin® sold by United Therapeutics as well as additional generic treprostinil products offered by Teva, Par Pharmaceutical, Dr. Reddy's and Alembic. Generic drug prices may decline dramatically as competitors seek to secure preferential utilization though the specialty pharmacy and hospital distribution channels in which parenteral prostacyclin products are sold. Other parenteral agents that utilize the prostacyclin pathway include parenteral epoprostenol, which is marketed by multiple companies as generic and branded products.

We expect United Therapeutics to continue to defend its leadership position vigorously through, among other actions, life cycle management, marketing agreements with third-party payors, and pharmacy benefits managers. In February 2021, United Therapeutics announced the commercial launch of the Remunity™ pump for Remodulin®, which uses a small subcutaneous pump for patients starting or on a stable dose of Remodulin® and can use prefilled Remodulin® cassettes. The Remunity™ pump also bas a water-resistant casing, which may be considered more convenient than the CADD-MS3 currently used to deliver treprostinil subcutaneously. United Therapeutics is also developing RemoPro™, a prodrug of treprostinil designed to he inactive in the subcutaneous tissue and activated once metabolized in the blood, decreasing site pain currently associated with subcutaneous Remodulin® (treprostinil).

In addition to continuously infused treprostinil products, use of Treprosntil Injection may face competition from other orally delivered products in the prostacyclin pathway, including Orenitram®, sold by United Therapeutics, and Uptravi®, a selective IP agonist sold by Janssen Pharmaceuticals/Actelion. These oral products are perceived to be more convenient than infused products, although their use is targeted earlier in a patient's disease progression.

Systematically delivered treatments also compete with localized, inhaled treatments

In addition to oral and parenteral options, we expect that YUTREPIA will face competition from the following inhaled treprostinil therapies that are either currently marketed or in clinical development.

- Tyvaso® (inhaled treprostinil) marketed by United Therapeutics, has been approved for the treatment of PAH in the United States since 2009. Tyvaso® is administered via a proprietary nebulizer four times per day. Tyvaso is the reference listed drug in our NDA for YUTREPIA. Following patent litigation, United Therapeutics and Watson Pharmaceuticals, Inc., or Watson Pharmaceuticals, reached a settlement whereby Watson Pharmaceuticals will be permitted to enter the market with a generic version of Tyvaso beginning on January 1, 2026.

- Ventavis® (inhaled iloprost) marketed in the United States by Actelion, a division of Johnson & Johnson, and in Europe by Bayer Schering Pharma AG., has been approved for the treatment of PAH in the United States since 2004. Ventavis® is administered via a proprietary nebulizer six to nine times per day.

- Tyvaso DPI™, a dry-powder, inhaled formulation of treprostinil is an investigational drug licensed by United Therapeutics from MannKind Corporation. In January 2021, United Therapeutics announced that it had demonstrated safety and tolerability of Tyvaso DPI™ in patients with PAH transitioning from Tyvaso® Inhalation Solution, and it had demonstrated comparable treprostinil exposure between Tyvaso DPI™ and Tyvaso® Inhalation Solution. United Therapeutics resubmitted the NDA filing of Tyvaso DPI™ in December 2021 after previously receiving a complete response letter in October 2021. In January 2022, United Therapeutics announced that the FDA had acknowledged acceptance of the resubmitted NDA for review as a class 1 response with a user fee goal date in February 2022. In February 2022, United Therapeutics announced that it had recently received an information request letter from the FDA requesting additional information regarding the pulmonary safety of Tyvaso DPI and that it had responded to the FDA's information request, but that the FDA has considered this response to be a major amendment to the NDA, extending FDA's review deadline to May 2022. Under the license agreement with MannKind Corporation, United Therapeutics is responsible for global development, regulatory and commercial activities. MannKind will manufacture clinical supplies and initial commercial supplies of the product while long-term commercial supplies will be manufactured by United Therapeutics.

- Treprostinil Palmitil Inhalation Powder (TPIP), a dry-powder formulation of a treprostinil prodrug, is a New Chemical Entity (NCE) being developed by Insmed Incorporated ("Insmed"). Insmed announced the completion of an initial Phase 1 study in February 2021 which demonstrated that TPIP was generally safe and well tolerated, with a pharmacokinetic profile that potentially supports once-daily dosing. In 2022, Insmed intends to enroll separate Phase 2b trials studying patients diagnosed with PAH, Pulmonary Hypertension associated with Interstitial Lung Diseases (PH-ILD), and patients Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis (IPF).

- L606 is a nebulized, liposomal formulation of treprostinil for treatment of PAH being developed by Pharmosa Biopharm Inc. ("Pharmosa"). In 2021, Pharmosa initiated a Phase 3 open-label study to evaluate the safety and tolerability of L606 in subjects with PAH that have been stabilized on Tyvaso. The intended product profile seeks reduce the daily dosing frequency of Tyvaso.

There are also a variety of investigational PAH therapies in the later stages of development that target new or clinically-validated mechanism of actions (MOAs) that may benefit patients. The approval of some or any of these could change the treatment paradigm and impact the utilization of treprostinil products and the prostacyclin pathway at large. We believe that new MOAs may slow or reverse the disease progression of PAH having the net impact of increasing the diagnosed prevalent population by extending patient lives and increasing the potential addressable population for treprostinil-based therapies.

Government Regulation

Government Regulation and Product Approval

Government authorities in the United States at the federal, state and local level and in other countries, extensively regulate, among other things, the research, development, testing, manufacture, (including manufacturing changes), quality control, approval, labeling, packaging, storage, record-keeping, promotion, advertising, distribution, marketing, export and import of products such as those we are developing. The processes for obtaining regulatory approvals in the United States and in foreign countries, along with subsequent compliance with applicable statutes and regulations, require the expenditure of substantial time and financial resources.

U.S. Drug Development Process

In the United States, the FDA regulates drugs under the United States Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA) and the FDA's implementing regulations.

Failure to comply with the applicable U.S. requirements at any time during the product development process, approval process or after approval may subject an applicant to administrative or judicial sanctions. These sanctions could include the FDA's refusal to approve pending applications, withdrawal of an approval, a clinical hold, untitled or warning letters, product recalls, product seizures, total or partial suspension of production or distribution, injunctions, fines, refusals of government contracts, restitution, disgorgement or civil or criminal penalties. The process required by the FDA before a drug may be marketed in the United States generally involves the following:

- completion of preclinical laboratory tests, animal studies and formulation studies according to Good Laboratory Practices regulations;
- submission to the FDA of an Investigational New Drug application (IND) which must become effective before human clinical studies may begin;
- approval by an independent IRB at each clinical site before each trial may be initiated;
- performance of adequate and well-controlled human clinical studies according to Good Clinical Practice (GCP), regulations, to establish the safety and efficacy of the proposed drug for its intended use;
- preparation and submission to the FDA of an NDA, containing the results of product development, preclinical studies and clinical trials, along with descriptions of the manufacturing process, analytical tests conducted on the drug product, proposed labeling and other relevant information, to request approval to market the drug product;
- satisfactory completion of an FDA inspection of the manufacturing facility or facilities at which the drug product, or components thereof, are produced to assess compliance with cGMP to assure that the facilities, methods and controls are adequate to preserve the drug's identity, strength, quality and purity;
- satisfactory completion of FDA audits of clinical trial sites to assure compliance with GCPs and the integrity of clinical data;
- FDA review and approval of the NDA;
- payment of fees, including annual program fees for each drug product on the market; and
- ongoing compliance with any post approval requirements, including risk evaluation and mitigation strategy (REMS) and post approval studies required by the FDA.

The testing and approval process requires substantial time, effort and financial resources, and we cannot be certain that any approvals for our product candidates will be granted on a timely basis, if at all.

Once a pharmaceutical product candidate is identified for development, it enters the preclinical testing stage. Preclinical tests include laboratory evaluations of product chemistry, toxicity, formulation and stability, as well as animal studies. When a sponsor wants to proceed to test the product candidate in humans, it must submit an IND in order to conduct clinical trials.

An IND sponsor must submit the results of the preclinical tests, together with manufacturing information, analytical data and any available clinical data or literature, to the FDA as part of the IND. The sponsor must also include a protocol detailing, among other things, the objectives of the initial clinical study, the parameters to be used in monitoring safety

SUMMARY OF RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH OUR BUSINESS

We face risks and uncertainties associated with our business, many of which are beyond our control. Some of the more significant risks associated with our business include the following:

- We are a late clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company with limited operating history. We have incurred significant losses and negative cash flows from operations since our inception and anticipate that we will continue to incur significant expenses and losses for the foreseeable future.
- We may need to obtain additional funding to complete the development and any commercialization of our product candidates, if approved. If we are unable to raise this necessary capital when needed, we would be forced to delay, reduce or eliminate our product development programs, commercialization efforts or other operations.
- We are heavily dependent on the success of our lead product candidate, TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis.
- The COVID-19 pandemic, which began in late 2019 and has spread worldwide, may continue to affect our ability to initiate and complete preclinical studies and clinical trials, disrupt regulatory activities, disrupt our manufacturing and supply chain or have other adverse effects on our business and operations.
- Even if TP-03 or any other product candidate that we develop receives marketing approval, we may not be successful in educating eye care physician ("ECPs"), and the market about the need for treatments specifically for Demodex blepharitis and or other diseases or conditions targeted by our product candidates, and TP-03 or other product candidates that we may develop may fail to achieve market acceptance by ECPs, other healthcare providers and patients, or adequate formulary coverage, pricing or reimbursement by third-party payors and others in the medical community, and the market opportunity for these products may be smaller than we estimate.
- The development and commercialization of our products, including our lead product candidate, TP-03 for the potential treatment of Demodex blepharitis and Meibomian Gland Disease ("MGD"), TP-04 for the potential treatment of rosacea and TP-05 for potential Lyme prophylaxis and community malaria reduction, is dependent on intellectual property we license from Elanco Tiergesundheit AG ("Elanco"). If we breach our agreements with Elanco or the agreements are terminated, we could lose license rights that are important to our business. Furthermore, some of our revenue is dependent on receipt of payments and achievement and timing of milestones under the terms of our out-license agreement with LianBio Ophthalmology Limited ("LianBio"), granting exclusive commercial rights of TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis and MGD within the People's Republic of China, Macau, Hong Kong, and Taiwan (the "Territory"). Adverse effects on our business could occur if LianBio is not able to make payments, achieve milestones, and/or successfully commercialize TP-03 in the Territory.
- We will need to develop and expand our company and we may encounter difficulties in managing our growth, which could disrupt our operations.
- The sizes of the market opportunity for our product candidates, particularly TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis and MGD, have not been established with precision and may be smaller than we estimate, possibly materially. If our estimates of the sizes overestimate these markets, our sales growth may be adversely affected. We may also not be able to grow the markets for our product candidates as intended or at all.
- Clinical drug development involves a lengthy and expensive process with uncertain timelines and uncertain outcomes, and results of earlier studies and trials may not be predictive of future results.
- Any termination or suspension of, or delays in the commencement or completion of, our planned clinical trials could result in increased costs to us, delay or limit our ability to generate revenue and adversely affect our commercial prospects.
- We rely on third parties to conduct our clinical trials and perform some of our research and preclinical studies.
- If we are unable to obtain and maintain sufficient intellectual property protection for our product candidates, or if the scope of the intellectual property protection is not sufficiently broad, our competitors could develop and commercialize products similar or identical to ours, and our ability to successfully commercialize our products may be adversely affected.

- Patent terms may be inadequate to protect our competitive position on our product candidates and preclinical programs for an adequate amount of time.
- The concentration of our stock ownership will likely limit your ability to influence corporate matters, including the ability to influence the outcome of director elections and other matters requiring stockholder approval.

PART I

Overview

We are a late clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company focused on the development and commercialization of therapeutic candidates to address large market opportunities, initially in ophthalmic conditions, where there are limited treatment alternatives. Our lead product candidate, TP-03, is a novel therapeutic in Phase 2b/3 that is being developed for the treatment of blepharitis caused by the infestation of Demodex mites, which is referred to as Demodex blepharitis. Blepharitis ("Blephar" is a reference to eyelid and "itis" is a reference to inflammation) is a condition characterized by inflammation of the eyelid margin, redness and ocular irritation, including a specific type of eyelash dandruff called collarettes in Demodex blepharitis. The healthy interaction of the eyelid and the surface of the eyeball is crucial to ocular health. Poorly controlled and progressive blepharitis can lead to worsening of corneal damage over time and, in extreme cases, blindness.

According to published studies, there are an estimated 20 million patients in the United States who suffer from blepharitis, with approximately 45% or nine million of cases caused by Demodex infestation. Further, the possible number of Demodex blepharitis cases may be as high as approximately 25 million, based on our internal research indicating approximately 58% of patients presenting to eye care clinics have collarettes and a published study estimating that at least 45 million people annually visit an eye care clinic.

We believe that TP-03 has the potential to be the first FDA-approved therapeutic for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis and become the standard of care. The active pharmaceutical ingredient ("API") of TP-03, lotilaner, is designed to paralyze and eradicate mites and other parasites through the inhibition of parasite-specific gamma-aminobutyric acid-gated chloride ("GABA-Cl") channels.

To date, we have completed four Phase 2 trials for TP-03 in Demodex blepharitis, all of which met their primary, secondary and/or exploratory endpoints, as applicable, and during which TP-03 was well tolerated. Our Phase 2b/3 trial, Saturn-1, commenced in September 2020. We expect to begin our Phase 3 trial, Saturn-2, in the second quarter of 2021, both with primary and secondary endpoints consistent with those of our Europa and Io Phase 2 trials. If successful, we expect the Saturn-1 and Saturn-2 trials to support our submission of a new drug application ("NDA") with the United States Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") for TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis.

In December 2020 we had a Type C meeting with the FDA for TP-03. This meeting confirmed our planned NDA pathway with respect to the data and information required in our forthcoming NDA filing. Furthermore, we intend to pursue marketing authorizations in jurisdictions outside the United States, including Europe and Japan.

On March 26, 2021, we executed an out-license agreement with LianBio Ophthalmology Limited ("LianBio"), granting exclusive commercial rights of TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis and MGD within the People's Republic of China, Macau, Hong Kong, and Taiwan (the "Territory"). We are contractually entitled to receive (i) an aggregate $25 million by June 30, 2021, (ii) regulatory and sales milestone receipts totaling $75 million and $100 million, respectively, (iii) tiered royalties in the low double-digits on the net sales of TP-03 within the Territory, and (iv) a minority interest in LianBio that vests upon the achievement of certain clinical and regulatory milestones.

We intend to further advance our pipeline with lotilaner API to address several diseases across therapeutic categories in human medicine, including eye care, dermatology, and other diseases. These targeted diseases with high unmet medical need currently include MGD, rosacea, Lyme disease, and malaria.

The following pipeline chart presents our wholly-owned product candidates and clinical development status:

* Anticipated milestones are subject to the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic on our business and those of our partners.

 We intend to rely on preclinical studies and clinical safety assessments from the Demodex blepharitis program. We have not conducted and do not intend to conduct any preclinical studies with TP-03 for the treatment of MGD in order to advance to Phase 2a.

 We intend to leverage all preclinical, Phase 2 and Phase 3 data from the TP-03 Demodex blepharitis program. We intend to conduct in vitro or in vivo bioequivalence studies with our preservative-free formulation to compare it to the current preserved formulation of TP-03 in Demodex blepharitis after NDA submission and file a supplement.

† We intend to leverage systemic preclinical data from our TP-03 program and augment with additional dermal preclinical studies to select formulation in order to advance to Phase 1/2, which we intend to conduct outside the United States. We may need to address this approach with the FDA if we were to conduct a clinical trial in the United States. We have not conducted any preclinical studies in rosacea with TP-04 to date.

†† In relation to Lyme disease and malaria, we intend to leverage oral systemic preclinical data from our TP-03 program as well as third-party oral systemic preclinical studies for Lyme disease or community malaria reduction, respectively (and will not conduct our own preclinical studies for Lyme disease and malaria). The formulations used in preclinical studies use the common approach of a gavage that is scaled as appropriate for use in animals. However, human administration, while continuing to be oral, will take the form of a tablet or capsule. In relation to lyme, we had a successful pre-IND meeting with the FDA in February 2021 and gained agreement on our proposed Phase1 study design. We plan to file an IND in the US in the second quarter of 2021 and, subject to FDA approval of the IND, we intend to initiate our Phase 1 trials to evaluate safety and pharmacokinetics of TP-05 from single ascending dose (SAD) and multiple ascending dose (MAD) studies in normal healthy volunteers. In relation to malaria, we may conduct our Phase 1/2 trial outside the United States.

Blepharitis: Market Overview

Blepharitis is a common, chronic ophthalmic condition characterized by inflammation of the eyelid margin, redness and ocular irritation. It is also a progressive disease that often manifests with more severe symptoms if left untreated, such as blurring of vision, missing eyelashes, corneal damage and, in extreme cases, blindness. According to published studies, an estimated 20 million patients suffer from blepharitis in the United States, and there is growing recognition within the ophthalmic community about Demodex mites as an underlying cause of blepharitis. Demodex mites are the most common ectoparasite found on humans. Demodex mites potentially cause approximately 45%, or approximately nine million, of blepharitis cases in the United States and we believe that the number of Demodex blepharitis patients in the United States may be as high as approximately 25 million based on our internal research indicating approximately 58% of patients presenting to eye care clinics have collarettes and a published study estimating that at least 45 million people annually visit an eye care clinic. In addition, there is growing awareness among ECPs of a specific type of debris found at the base of the eyelashes, known as collarettes, or cylindrical dandruff, which are highly correlated with Demodex infestation. Collarettes are composed of partially digested epithelial cells, mite waste products and eggs among other things and can be easily diagnosed by ECPs with a standard eye examination. Demodex blepharitis increases progressively with aging, which is the main risk factor for the condition. These aging patients commonly present to the offices of ECPs for other ophthalmic conditions besides blepharitis, such as cataract surgery and contact lens discomfort. Accordingly, we believe that there is significant opportunity to increase the diagnosis rate of Demodex blepharitis through ECP and patient education that encourages examination of the condition in standard practice.

Despite the high prevalence of patients with Demodex blepharitis and growing awareness of the condition amongst ECPs, there are no FDA-approved therapeutics for the treatment of blepharitis or for Demodex blepharitis. Although we believe blepharitis and Demodex blepharitis are significantly underdiagnosed conditions, with limited treatment alternatives, there are already an estimated 2.1 million annual blepharitis diagnoses in the United States with blepharitis classified per the International Classification of Diseases, Tenth Revision, Clinical Modification ("ICD-10-CM"). Demodex blepharitis is currently treated with a variety of over the counter remedies such as tea tree oil, lid wipes and artificial tears, as well as off-label prescription products, which often show sub-optimal efficacy, are poorly tolerated and lead to significant irritation and dissatisfaction for patients, and do not eradicate the Demodex mites.

We have conducted epidemiology and market research on the prevalence of blepharitis and potential adoption of TP-03. Our research indicates approximately 58% of patients presenting to ECP offices have collarettes and, based on Gao (2005), all patients with collarettes were also found to have Demodex. This further validates the accessible opportunity to increase diagnosis rates among patients. In addition, our market research suggests the potential for a high level of adoption of TP-03, if approved. In our surveys, we interviewed 50 ECPs, 96% of whom indicated they would prescribe TP-03 as a first-line treatment for Demodex blepharitis after exposure to the TP-03 target product profile. See the section titled "Market Opportunity in Blepharitis—Our Market Research Studies and Surveys" for more information regarding our surveys. Further, patients continue to have underlying risk of Demodex infestation, so there could be a recurrence based on the presence of Demodex mites in the skin even after eradication of Demodex mites from the eyelid. Our Phase 2 data from the Mars and Jupiter clinical trials followed patients to one year after treatment and showed meaningful recurrence of Demodex blepharitis within six to nine months, which increased considerably one year after treatment. We believe this data suggests TP-03, if approved, may be used on a chronic, intermittent basis in Demodex blepharitis.

We believe the blepharitis market has the potential to be analogous to other ophthalmic markets that grew significantly once there was a product to address the large, latent demand for an effective therapy, such as dry eye. For example, another ocular surface disease, dry eye, had no approved therapeutic for the condition until 2003. With the approval of a therapeutic to treat dry eye in 2003 and concurrent ECP and patient education, the diagnosis rate increased by approximately 12 times, growing from 500,000 annual diagnoses in 2003 to over six million annual diagnoses in 2015. Annual diagnoses rates have been maintained at similar levels since 2015. Blepharitis already has 2.1 million diagnoses per year with blepharitis classified per the ICD-10-CM, despite no approved therapies to help with market awareness, but we believe there is potential for significant market expansion. The markets may be analogous because both Demodex blepharitis and dry eye are diseases that affect the front of the eye, are treated by ECPs, can cause an inflamed ocular surface or eyelids and have similar patient demographics. The potential market for Demodex blepharitis, however, may not be analogous to the market for dry eye due to differences in symptoms, regulatory approval and market dynamics and certain other factors. See "Risk Factors – Risk Related to Development and Commercialization of Our Product Candidates—The market for blepharitis and Demodex blepharitis may be not be similar to the market for dry eye." for additional information and risks related to the comparison of the Demodex blepharitis market to that of dry eye.

We believe there is a significant opportunity to increase the diagnosis rate of Demodex blepharitis and build a significant new market with the approval of a safe and effective therapeutic alternative that addresses the underlying cause of the condition.

Our Approach: TP-03

We are developing TP-03, formulated as an eye drop, which we believe, if approved, has the potential to become the standard of care for Demodex blepharitis. TP-03 is a novel therapeutic based on the drug, lotilaner, which is designed to paralyze and eradicate mites and other parasites through the inhibition of parasite-specific GABA-Cl channels.

We have completed four Phase 2 clinical trials to date, along with one additional ex vivo study. Key efficacy endpoints for our Mars and Jupiter clinical trials included collarette grade and mite density and key efficacy endpoints for our Io and Europa clinical trials included collarette cure rate based on collarette grade, which we refer to herein as collarette cure rate, and mite eradication rate. TP-03 met its primary, secondary and/or exploratory endpoints, as applicable, in such trials, and showed statistically significant cure and eradication rates in our two most recent trials, Io and Europa. TP-03 was generally well tolerated throughout these trials. The Phase 2a Mars trial was a smaller single arm trial evaluating the safety and efficacy of TP-03 with a 28-day twice per day, or BID, dosing regimen, with exploratory endpoints including collarette grade and mite density. We utilized the data from the exploratory endpoints to determine collarette cure rate, defined as 10 or fewer collarettes, and mite eradication rate, defined as zero mites per lash. Both collarette cure and mite eradication rates were assessed at 28 days, which were 86% and 57%, respectively.

The Phase 2b Jupiter trial was a larger randomized, controlled double-blind trial with mite density and collarette grade as primary and secondary endpoints, respectively. Similarly to the Mars trial, we utilized the collarette grade and mite density data to determine collarette cure and mite eradication rates, which were both defined consistently with those used in the Mars trial. The efficacy observed in the Jupiter trial appeared consistent with the Mars trial, with a collarette cure rate of 88%, and mite eradication rate of 66%, which were statistically significant compared to the vehicle control. We subsequently conducted the Io Phase 2a and Europa Phase 2b trials to evaluate the safety and efficacy of TP-03 formulation for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis. The design of the Io trial took into account feedback from the FDA, and accordingly we defined collarette cure rate as a more stringent standard of two or fewer collarettes on the eyelid, with a treatment duration of 42 days.

Table of Contents

In the Io trial, we utilized for the first time in clinical trials the formulation of TP-03 that is expected to support our NDA submission for Demodex blepharitis. The change in formulation consisted of replacing LAK with sorbate as the preservative as well as adding a chelating agent. The key differences between the Io and Europa trials, were that Io was a smaller single-arm trial, while Europa was a slightly larger randomized vehicle-controlled trial. The endpoints achieved in Io and Europa were consistent across both trials, with a collarette cure rate of 72% and 80%, respectively, and a mite eradication rate of 78% and 73%, respectively. The achievement of primary, secondary and/or exploratory endpoints, as applicable, in such trials, and safety results across our comprehensive Phase 2 program provided us with the basis to design and initiate our pivotal Phase 2b/3 and Phase 3 clinical trials for TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis.

We plan to evaluate TP-03 in two pivotal registration trials, referred to as Saturn-1 and Saturn-2. Saturn-1 is a Phase 2b/3, randomized, controlled, double-blind trial to evaluate the safety and efficacy of TP-03 that is expected to enroll at least 350 Demodex blepharitis patients in multiple centers in the United States. Saturn-1 commenced in September 2020 and top-line data is expected in 2021, subject to the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Saturn-2, our confirmatory Phase 3 randomized, controlled, double-blind trial, has a highly comparable design to that of Saturn-1 and is also expected to enroll approximately 350 Demodex blepharitis patients. Enrollment of Saturn-2 is expected to begin in 2021, subject to the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

In connection with our IND application, we have received a "no-objection" letter from the FDA regarding the trial design for Saturn-1. The trial design for Saturn-2 is highly comparable to that of Saturn-1 and we expect to update the IND protocol prior to commencing Saturn-2. We expect these trials to support the potential submission of an NDA for TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis. In December 2020 we had a Type C meeting with the FDA; this meeting confirmed our planned NDA pathway with respect to the data and information required in our forthcoming NDA filing.

We also intend to explore the therapeutic potential of TP-03 for a second ophthalmic condition, MGD, commonly characterized in part by a widespread clogging of the meibomian glands that can result in tear film deficiency, and is one of the leading causes of dry eye disease. There are no FDA-approved therapeutics for MGD. In the United States, MGD prevalence has been found to be approximately two-thirds of the estimated 34 million dry eye patient population. One species of Demodex mite, Demodex brevis, is known to infest the meibomian gland, and clinical signs of MGD have been shown to be correlated with infestation of Demodex brevis. While dry eye is a multi-factorial disease, TP-03 is designed to relieve some of the key elements of MGD by virtue of causing the death of the Demodex brevis mites.

Our Approach: TP-04 and TP-05

We are also developing additional clinical-stage product candidates with lotilaner. These include TP-04 for the potential treatment of rosacea as well as TP-05 for potential Lyme prophylaxis and community malaria reduction.

Rosacea is a chronic skin disease characterized by facial redness, inflammatory lesions, burning and stinging, which can flare up in response to certain triggers such as sun exposure or emotional stress. According to the U.S. National Rosacea Society, approximately 16 million people in the United States are affected by rosacea and a study estimates rosacea prevalence can represent up to 5.4% of the global population. We intend to develop TP-04 as a topical formulation, and we plan to initiate a Phase 1/2 trial of TP-04 outside the United States, for the treatment of rosacea in 2021. We initiated preclinical studies to select Phase 1/2 formulation for TP-04.

Lyme disease is the most common vector-borne disease in the United States, caused by infection of Borrelia bacteria following bite by a tick vector. Estimates of annual cases of Lyme disease in the United States range from approximately 300,000 to 400,000. Malaria is one of the world's highest unmet public health needs, with approximately 228 million cases and more than 400,000 deaths caused by malaria worldwide. We are developing TP-05 as an oral formulation that is designed as a prophylactic drug against Lyme disease to eradicate the tick before it can transmit the Borrelia bacteria. Further, we believe TP-05 also has the potential to significantly reduce malaria transmission through reducing the lifespan of mosquitos that transmit malaria. This may in turn provide herd protection against the spread of malaria. TP-05 is not intended to treat the disease, but to limit its transmission. We have obtained FDA feedback in a pre-IND meeting and plan to submit an IND and initiate a Phase 1/2 trial of TP-05 for Lyme disease in 2021. For malaria, we may conduct the Phase 1/2 trial outside of the United States.

Our Strategy

Our goal is to transform the treatment of Demodex blepharitis with a first ever FDA approved pharmaceutical therapeutic, and to develop our pipeline of innovative therapies that target certain parasite-mediated diseases with large market opportunities. We intend to achieve these goals by pursuing the following key strategic objectives:

Table of Contents

- Advance TP-03 through clinical development and eventual approval for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis. We have observed in multiple Phase 2 trials across 147 patients that TP-03 results in the achievement of clinical endpoints, which are generally the same clinical endpoints that will be utilized in our pivotal Phase 2b/3 and Phase 3 trials. We have commenced our first pivotal trial, Saturn-1, a Phase 2b/3 trial, in September 2020, and we expect top-line data in 2021, subject to the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Enrollment of our second pivotal trial, Saturn-2, which will be a Phase 3 trial, is expected to begin in 2021, subject to the impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.
- Educate ECPs and establish our own specialty sales organization to commercialize TP-03 in the United States. If approved by the FDA for Demodex blepharitis, we intend to commercialize TP-03 by developing our own sales organization targeting a subset of the approximately 25,000 prescribing ECPs in the United States. Throughout our commercialization efforts, we intend to educate ECPs on Demodex blepharitis and how to diagnose it with a standard eye examination.
- Expand the label of TP-03 for other indications, including MGD. Like blepharitis, MGD may also be caused by Demodex infestation, and we intend to explore the clinical potential for TP-03 in the indication.
- Develop our pipeline, bringing novel products utilizing lotilaner to unmet needs across human medicine, including rosacea, Lyme disease and malaria. We plan to expand our pipeline of novel, differentiated product candidates that target parasites to treat or prevent important diseases. The mechanism of lotilaner coupled with our insights into disease where it can demonstrate clinical benefit, provides an opportunity to expand into new indications for treatment or prevention. By utilizing new formulations of lotilaner, we intend to develop a topical formulation designed to treat rosacea, and oral formulations for the prophylaxis of Lyme and community malaria reduction. We intend to expand into Phase 1/2 clinical trials for these indications in 2021.
- Evaluate and selectively enter into strategic collaborations to maximize the potential of our pipeline and the scope of our eye care product offerings. Other than the recent out-license to LianBio of TP-03 for the treatment of Demodex blepharitis and MGD within the Territory as noted above, we have retained our rights globally to all of our indications for use in humans, including our lead product candidate, TP-03, for the potential treatment of Demodex blepharitis and MGD, TP-04 for the potential treatment of rosacea and TP-05 for potential prophylaxis of Lyme and community malaria reduction. We are dependent on licenses from Elanco for the development and commercialization of these products. Given the potential to treat patients worldwide we may opportunistically enter into strategic collaborations around certain product candidates, disease or geographic regions.

Blepharitis Overview

Blepharitis

Ocular surface disease represents a broad category of disease that affects at least 35 million people in the United States. The ocular surface comprises the cornea, conjunctiva, eyelids and lacrimal glands and as such any diseases in these structures can be classified as ocular surface disease. Common ocular surface diseases include dry eye disease, ocular allergy, blepharitis and MGD. Almost all of the ocular surface diseases are associated with eye redness and ocular surface inflammation and in some cases conjunctival and/or lid edema. Patients often present with multiple ocular surface diseases and the symptoms have significant overlap, leading to frequent misdiagnosis of the various conditions.

Blepharitis is a common chronic ophthalmic condition characterized by inflammation of the eyelid margin, redness and ocular irritation and is primarily diagnosed and treated by ECPs, including ophthalmologists and optometrists. Based on published studies, an estimated 20 million patients suffer from blepharitis in the United States. Typical signs and symptoms of blepharitis include debris on the eyelashes, redness of eye and eyelid, missing or misdirected eyelashes, blurring of vision, irritation, itchiness and ocular discomfort. It is challenging to manage, recurs frequently, and its progression can lead to scarring of the eyelid, loss of proper eyelid and tear-film function, eyelid and lash abnormalities, inflammation of the conjunctiva and surrounding skin, suboptimal surgical outcomes, corneal damage, and in extreme cases, blindness. Further, approximately 67% of cataract patients have Demodex infestation, which can increase the risk for both infection after cataract and refractive surgery. Therefore, treating Demodex blepharitis may improve patient satisfaction with cataract and refractive surgery. Additionally, the primary reason people stop wearing contact lenses is discomfort and blepharitis has been shown to cause contact lens intolerance. Therefore, treating Demodex blepharitis may reduce contact lens intolerance. We believe these benefits may lead to better vision and an improved quality of life for patients.

Multiple factors can cause blepharitis, including infestation by Demodex mites, bacterial infection, clogging of the meibomian glands and seborrheic dermatitis.

Demodex Blepharitis

Demodex infestation is a major cause of blepharitis, implicated in approximately 45% of blepharitis cases, or approximately nine million patients. We estimate that the number of Demodex blepharitis patients in the United States may be as high as approximately 25 million based on our internal research indicating approximately 58% of patients presenting to eye care clinics have collarettes and a published study estimating that at least 45 million people annually visit an eye care clinic. These blepharitis cases are referred to Demodex blepharitis. Demodex mites are the most common ectoparasite found on humans and are more likely to cause infestation and disease with aging. Demodex blepharitis typically presents bilaterally in patients with the condition. There are two species of Demodex, folliculorum and brevis, that live on the skin of the face and eyelids. Demodex folliculorum, which is commonly found in the follicle, is the more common sub-species of mite that causes Demodex blepharitis.

The key clinical sign of Demodex blepharitis is a specific type of eyelid debris known as the collarette, which is also sometimes referred to as cylindrical dandruff or waxy scurf. Collarettes are composed of partially digested epithelial cells, mite waste products and eggs among other things and can be easily diagnosed by ECPs with a standard eye examination known as the slit lamp examination. Other bothersome signs and symptoms of Demodex blepharitis that lead to further disease progression include missing or misdirected eyelashes, crusting, redness of the lid margin, inflammation of the lid margin, inflammation of the conjunctiva and/or inflammation of the cornea, also known as blepharoconjunctivitis and blepharokeratitis. Demodex blepharitis is a progressive disease that often manifests with more severe signs and symptoms if left untreated, such as blurring of vision, missing eyelashes, corneal damage and, in extreme cases, blindness. Furthermore, Demodex blepharitis can negatively impact quality of life and create an emotional burden for individuals with the condition.

Demodex infestation can lead to Demodex blepharitis in three main ways:

1) Mechanical: Overcrowded mites scrape the epithelial cell lining of the eyelash follicles with their claws and lay eggs, causing follicular distention, misdirected lashes, eyelash loss and irritation. Dead mites and collarettes also obstruct the hair follicle opening, leading to inflammation.
2) Chemical: Mites excrete digestive enzymes as they feed and exude digestive waste when they die, resulting in inflammation, redness, irritation and epithelial hyperplasia.
3) Bacterial: Bacteria living on the mite surface or in its gut cause inflammation of the surrounding ocular tissues.

As mites scratch and feed on the skin, the partially digested epithelial cells, keratin, mite waste and eggs combine to form collarettes. These collarettes are typically found at the base of the lash but can migrate away as the hair shaft grows.

A study conducted by Gao et al. (Gao et al. (2005): High Prevalence of Demodex in Eyelashes with Cylindrical Dandruff. Invst Ophth and Vis Sci, September 2005, Vol. 46, No. 3089-3094.) confirmed the pathognomonic relationship of the collarette to Demodex infestation. The study included 55 patients seen at the Ocular Surface Center in Miami, Florida to determine the prevalence of Demodex in eyelashes with collarettes. All patients underwent a routine, complete eye examination and external photography. Patients were divided into three main groups: those with collarettes; those without collarettes and who had been using daily lid scrubs for a full year; and those without collarettes who were not performing the daily lid scrubs. As illustrated in the figure below, 100% (n=32) of patients with at least one collarette had Demodex present. Those patients without collarettes were divided into two groups; patients who were using lid scrubs for a full year and those who were not. Only 7% (n=15) of patients without collarettes and who were not performing the daily lid scrubs had Demodex, while 50% (n=8) of those subjects without collarettes, but who were using daily lid scrubs with shampoo for a full year, had Demodex infestation, implying that hygiene alone did not eradicate the mites. All 55 patients were seen at one location and may not be representative of the United States population.

Demodex blepharitis can be easily diagnosed by ECPs with the standard eye examination, the slit lamp examination, by confirming the presence of collarettes. The slit lamp examination is routinely performed by ECPs as part of standard practice during a customary eye examination, so diagnosing Demodex blepharitis via presence of collarettes would not involve any additional equipment, training or workflow alterations on the part of the ECP.

Market Opportunity in Blepharitis

According to published studies, there are an estimated 20 million patients in the United States who suffer from blepharitis, with approximately 45%, or approximately nine million, of cases caused by Demodex infestation. Further, we estimate that the number of Demodex blepharitis cases in the United States may be as high as approximately 25 million based on our internal research indicating approximately 58% of patients presenting to eye care clinics have collarettes and a published study estimating that at least 45 million people annually visit an eye care clinic. Despite the high prevalence of patients with Demodex blepharitis and growing awareness of the condition amongst ECPs, there are no FDA-approved therapeutics for the treatment of blepharitis or for Demodex blepharitis. Although we believe blepharitis and Demodex blepharitis are significantly underdiagnosed conditions, with limited treatment alternatives, there are already an estimated 2.1 million annual blepharitis diagnoses in the United States with blepharitis classified per the ICD-10-CM.

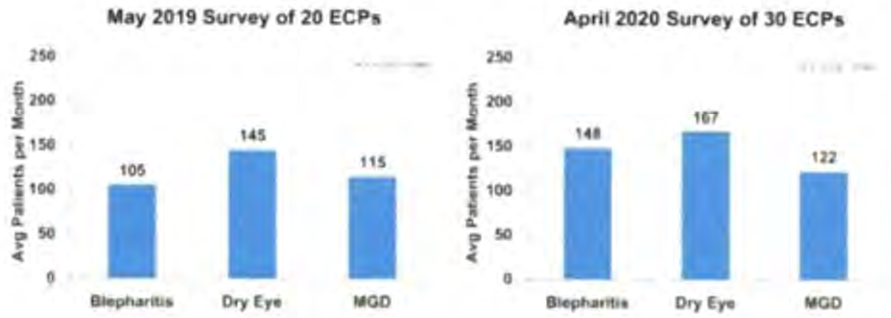
Our Market Research Studies and Surveys

Our market research studies include an ECP survey of 50 ECPs, or the ECP Survey, that we commissioned and which was conducted in 2019 and 2020 to generally determine market awareness and current management of Demodex blepharitis and introduce a hypothetical TP-03 product profile. Twenty ECPs were interviewed in 2019 and 30 ECPs were interviewed in 2020. ECPs were chosen based on a random sample of ophthalmologists and optometrists nationwide that had sufficient exposure to blepharitis patients to provide a representative sample of ECPs who see and manage blepharitis patients, and would potentially be in a position to prescribe TP-03 if it were approved and available. The ECP Survey generally asked ECPs questions regarding their patient base and also introduced the TP-03 product profile to them. The ECP Survey showed that 44% of all diagnosed patients were over the age of 65, and 57% of diagnosed patients were female. Distribution of diagnoses across race and income metrics was approximately proportional to that of the United States population, implying little correlation of the condition with socioeconomic status. The ECP Survey also showed that in April through May of 2020, the number of blepharitis patients in the eye care clinic, which represented 60% of the total patients, was approaching the level of dry eye patients, which represented approximately 65% of the total patients. We believe this demonstrates that the market size for blepharitis may be similar to the market size of dry eye and that both are common in the eye care clinics, which informs us on the potential to increase diagnoses through ECP education. As the population of the United States continues to age, we believe this disease will become more prevalent. While we believe the ECP survey provides insight to the potential market size of Demodex patients, since it was a random sampling of ECPs nationwide that had sufficient exposure to blepharitis patients, the sample size of ECPs and corresponding potential patient population was relatively small and the number of blepharitis patients may not be comparable to the number of dry eye patients. The patients may have had overlapping diagnoses but the ECP Survey did not measure any such potential overlap.

The following figures show that according to the ECP Survey, the number of blepharitis diagnoses approached the number of dry eye diagnoses. This trend is also supported by independent epidemiology studies:

Figures 6 and 7: Blepharitis Diagnoses Approaching Number of Dry Eye Diagnoses



Additionally, the ECP Survey obtained feedback on a hypothetical TP-03 product profile, based on the Mars and Jupiter clinical trial data. In the ECP Survey, a total of 25 ophthalmologists and 25 optometrists were educated on the pathognomonic relationship of collarettes to Demodex blepharitis and exposed to the Mars and Jupiter clinical trial data. After exposure, ECPs were asked their intent to prescribe TP-03 if it were available for their patients presenting with Demodex blepharitis as indicated by collarettes. In these studies, 48 of 50 (96%) ECPs indicated that they would prescribe TP-03 as first-line treatment, and 2 of 50 (4%) indicated that they would prescribe it as second-line treatment. No ECPs indicated that they would prescribe TP-03 as third line or not prescribe TP-03.

The following figure shows that 96% of the surveyed ECPs indicated they would prescribe TP-03 as a first-line treatment:

Table of Contents

We also sponsored a separate market research survey of 50 patients with blepharitis symptoms, where the presence of "eye crust" on eye lashes was noted as a primary symptom. These patients were randomly selected nationwide and not chosen in connection with the identity of his or her ECP. The individuals with blepharitis symptoms were educated on collarettes and that Demodex mites cause collarettes, and provided with a description of a hypothetical product with the target profile of TP-03, which can potentially eradicate Demodex mites in the eyelid and eliminate collarettes in a majority of patients. After considering the target product profile, the individuals with blepharitis symptoms were asked how likely they were to visit a doctor and ask about whether a product such as TP-03 would be right for them (on a scale of 1-7). Forty-six of 50 (92%) of the individuals with blepharitis symptoms indicated a likelihood to visit a doctor and ask about a product with a target profile of TP-03, and 32 of 50 (64%) indicated a response of "definitely would." Two of 50 (4%) of the individuals with blepharitis symptoms indicated that they "may or may not," and two of 50 (4%) of the individuals with blepharitis symptoms indicated that they "definitely would not."

We believe that blepharitis is underdiagnosed due to the lack of an approved treatment and associated patient and physician education, and the lack of awareness of the role of Demodex mites in the disease process. The ECP Survey showed that only 10-15% of ECPs were aware that collarettes are highly correlated with Demodex infestation. Despite the current lack of awareness by ECPs, we believe that the ocular surface disease marketplace is highly responsive to education of both the ECP and the patient. For example, as a result of ECP and patient education, the dry eye market grew significantly once there was a product to address the large, latent demand for an effective therapy. Dry eye had no approved therapeutic until 2003. Once a therapeutic was approved, the diagnosis rate increased by approximately 12 times, growing from 500,000 annual diagnoses in 2003 to over six million annual diagnoses by 2015. Annual diagnoses rates have been maintained at similar levels since 2015. We believe the Demodex blepharitis and dry eye markets may be analogous because both Demodex blepharitis and dry eye are diseases that affect the front of the eye, are treated by ECPs, can cause an inflamed ocular surface or eyelids and have similar patient demographics. The potential market for Demodex blepharitis, however, may not be analogous to the market for dry eye due to differences in symptoms, regulatory approval and market dynamics and other factors. See "Risk Factors—Risk Related to Development and Commercialization of Our Product Candidates—The market for blepharitis and Demodex blepharitis may be not be similar to the market for dry eye" for additional information and risks related to the comparison of the Demodex blepharitis market to that of dry eye.

The following figure shows the annual diagnoses of dry eye disease prior to and after and the launch of an approved therapy for dry eye, with the 2.1 million diagnoses for blepharitis in 2019 shown on the plot for reference:

Demodex mites have been implicated in approximately 45% of all blepharitis cases in a meta-analysis of 11 studies consisting of an aggregate of 4,741 patients with blepharitis. The incidence of Demodex blepharitis increases progressively with aging, which is the main risk factor for the condition, with the majority of people over the age of 60 having been shown to have the disease.

Our market research studies also included an epidemiological evaluation we conducted of 1,121 consecutive patients in eight ophthalmology and optometry practices conducted in 2020 (the "Patient Epidemiology Survey"), which showed that 58% of all patients entering the practices had collarettes and all patients entering practices with collarettes were also found to have Demodex blepharitis. By comparison, 20% of those same 1,121 patients were currently on a prescription therapeutic for dry eye disease (Restasis or Xiidra). Additionally, 13% of the 1,121 patients presented with collarettes and were also on a prescription therapeutic for dry eye at the same time. The clinics in the Patient Epidemiology Survey were geographically diverse and represented both high and low dry eye prescription rates. Each practice was required to enroll between 100 and 180 consecutive patients. The clinic with the lowest prevalence demonstrated 29% of consecutive patients had collarettes, and the clinic with the highest prevalence demonstrated 76% of consecutive patients had collarettes.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE is entered into this 16TH day of MAY, 2012, by and between the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ("United States"), acting through its Department of Justice, and on behalf of the United States Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), and HENRY SCHEIN, INC. ("SCHEIN"), ("Parties").

I. PREAMBLE

A. Henry Schein, Inc., is a for-profit corporation, with corporate headquarters at Melville, New York, and doing business in the Western District of Pennsylvania, by distributing healthcare products and services to office-based practitioners, including dental practices and laboratories, physician practices, animal health clinics, and government and other research institutions.

B. The United States and the DEA allege that SCHEIN failed to design and operate a reliable system which would disclose suspicious orders of controlled substances, pursuant to 21 C.F.R. § 1301.74, from April 17, 2007 through January 15, 2010, hereinafter the "Covered Conduct".

C. This Settlement Agreement is neither an admission of liability by SCHEIN nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded but constitutes a settlement of disputed matters.

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

D. Wishing to avoid the delay, expense, inconvenience, and uncertainty of protracted litigation, the Parties hereby reach a full and final settlement, except as reserved below, of all claims the United States has or may have against SCHEIN based on the above-described Covered Conduct.

II. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

In reliance on the representations contained herein and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations in this Agreement, and for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

A. To recoup the costs of the investigation of the United States of the facts and conduct described in Paragraph I(B) of this Agreement and crediting its efforts of monitoring purchases of controlled substances since May 2011 as a result of the investigation and its own efforts to perfect its monitoring system, SCHEIN agrees to pay the United States of America, Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00), after being credited with expending One Hundred Thousand Seven Hundred Seventy-six Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,776.00) in the following manner:

1. Plaintiff will pay the United States of America Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($50,000.00) in one lump-sum payment by May ~~25~~ 13th, 2012. Payment is to be made via Electronic Funds Transfer pursuant to instructions provided by the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office of this District.

2. SCHEIN will be credited with expending One Hundred Thousand Seven Hundred Seventy-Six Dollars ($100,776.00) from May 3, 2011, to the effective date of this Settlement, in verifying orders of controlled substances in its attempt to upgrade its monitoring efforts so as to adhere to all pertinent Federal regulations and procedures.

B. Until the payment due date, as set forth above, the United States covenants not to sue on the matters addressed in the Covered Conduct and in this Agreement. Upon full and timely payment of all monies due and full compliance with all terms of this Settlement Agreement by SCHEIN, this covenant not to sue will become a full and valid release as provided for in Paragraph C below.

C. Subject only to the conditions specified in Paragraph II(D) below, on receipt of the payment as described in Paragraph II(A)(1) above, the United States on behalf of the DEA will release and will be deemed to have released SCHEIN, its subsidiaries and its affiliates, successors and assigns, from any claims that the United States has arising from the Covered Conduct.

D. The United States specifically does not release SCHEIN or any other entity or individual under this Agreement from:

(1) any criminal liability;

(2) any liability arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code);

(3) any liability to the United States (or any agencies thereof) for any conduct other than that identified in Paragraph I(B);

(4) any other obligations created by this Agreement; and

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

(5) any liability for express or implied warranty claims or other claims for defective or deficient services, including quality of goods and services; and

(6) any liability of individuals.

E. With respect to the Covered Conduct, nothing in any provision of this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the amounts paid hereunder for purposes of any proceeding under Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code.

F. After payment has been made pursuant to Paragraph II(A)(1), SCHEIN will be deemed to have fully and finally released and forever discharged the United States and the DEA, their officers, agents, employees and/or servants, in their official and individual capacities, from any claims or counterclaims (including attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that SCHEIN has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants related to the Covered Conduct and the investigation of the United States and prosecution thereof, provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph:

1. prohibits the Parties from taking action to enforce the terms or provisions of this Agreement;

2. resolves or in any manner affects any claims the United States has or may have against SCHEIN arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code), or any claims arising under this Agreement.

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

G. If SCHEIN fails to make the $50,000.00 payment as provided in Paragraph II(A)(1), the United States, at its sole option, may file a Complaint, and SCHEIN agrees to sign a Consent Judgment. Additionally, the United States may rescind the releases in this Agreement and bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against SCHEIN for the Covered Conduct. In the event the United States opts to rescind the releases in this Agreement pursuant to this paragraph, SCHEIN agrees that it will not plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, to any such civil or administrative claims, actions, or proceedings which are brought by the United States within ninety (90) calendar days of written notification to SCHEIN that the releases herein have been rescinded pursuant to this paragraph, except to the extent such defenses were available on the effective date of this Settlement Agreement. SCHEIN is in default of this Agreement if the United States Department of Justice receives its payment of the amount provided for in Paragraph II(A) of this Agreement more than thirty (30) days after the scheduled due date of payment. Upon default, the full remaining unpaid balance (including all unpaid interest and principal) plus costs and reasonable attorneys' fees will become immediately due and payable.

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

Interest will accrue at the legal rate of interest compounded annually from the date of default on the remaining unpaid principal balance.

H. Further, only upon default, SCHEIN understands that this debt will be referred to the United States Department of the Treasury for the purpose of collecting the debt through the Treasury Offset Program. Under this program, the Department of the Treasury will reduce or withhold any of your eligible Federal payments by the amount of your debt, including but not limited to federal tax refunds, stimulus payments, and the like. This "offset" process is authorized by the Debt Collection Act of 1982, as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, and the Internal Revenue Code.

I. SCHEIN agrees not to file a Petition under any Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code for the first ninety (90) days subsequent to the last signature of this Settlement Agreement. Additionally, in the event that SCHEIN commences, or a third party commences, within 91 days of the effective date of this Agreement, any case, proceeding, or other action (1) under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors, seeking to have any order for relief of any of SCHEIN's debts, or seeking to adjudicate SCHEIN as bankrupt or insolvent, or (2) seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for SCHEIN or for all or any substantial part of his assets, SCHEIN agrees as follows:

Henry Schein, Inc

a. SCHEIN's obligations under this Agreement may not be avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547, and SCHEIN will not argue or otherwise take the position in any such case, proceeding, or action that (i) its obligations under this Agreement may be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 547; (ii) it was insolvent at the time this Agreement was entered into, or became insolvent as a result of the payment made to the United States hereunder; or (iii) the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth in this Agreement do not constitute a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to it.

b. In the event that SCHEIN's obligations hereunder are avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547, the United States, at its sole option, may enforce the Settlement Agreement or rescind the releases in this Agreement and bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against SCHEIN for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided in Paragraph II(C). If the United States chooses to do so, SCHEIN agrees (i) that any such claims, actions, or proceedings brought by the United States are not subject to an "automatic stay" pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) as a result of the action, case, or proceeding described in the first clause of this paragraph, and that SCHEIN will not argue or otherwise contend that the United States' claims, actions, or proceedings are subject to an automatic stay; (ii) that SCHEIN will not plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, to any such civil or administrative claims, actions, or proceeding which are brought by the United States within ninety (90) calendar days of written notification to SCHEIN that the releases herein have been rescinded pursuant to this paragraph, except to the extent such defenses were available on the effective date of this Settlement Agreement; and (iii) that the United States has a valid claim against SCHEIN in the amount of $50,000.00 plus treble damages, costs, and attorneys' fees incurred in litigating any Civil Action against SCHEIN, and the United States may pursue its claim, inter alia, in the case, action, or proceeding referenced in the first clause of this paragraph, as well as in any other case, action, or proceeding.

J. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. The Parties do not release any claims against any person or entity, except to the extent provided for in Paragraphs II(C) and (F).

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

I. PARTIES

This Settlement Agreement and Release ("Agreement") is entered into among the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice and on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively the "United States"); and Henry Schein, Inc. ("HSI") (HSI and the United States are hereinafter referred to as the "Parties").

II. PREAMBLE

As a preamble to this Agreement, the Parties agree to the following:

A. At all relevant times, HSI was a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of Delaware.

B. At all relevant times, HSI was a wholesale distributor of medical and dental supplies, including certain medications and other substances used in connection with medical and dental care. HSI was registered by the DEA to distribute controlled substances subject to the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801 et seq ("CSA").

C. 21 C.F.R. 1301.74(b) imposes a responsibility on distributors of controlled substances to "design and operate a system to disclose to the registrant suspicious orders of controlled substances" including "orders of unusual size, orders deviating substantially from a normal pattern, and orders of unusual frequency." Distributors must "inform the Field Division Office of the Administration in his area of suspicious orders when discovered by the registrant." Moreover, registrants are obliged to maintain effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into other than legitimate medical, scientific, and industrial channels. 21 U.S.C. § 823(b)(1).

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

D. It is unlawful for any person who distributes controlled substances "to refuse or negligently fail to make, keep, or furnish any record, report, notification, declaration, order or order form, statement, invoice, or information required under [the Controlled Substances Act]." 21 U.S.C. § 842(a)(5).

E. The United States contends that HSI sold and distributed opioids and other controlled substances to the following practitioners between the dates set forth below in spite of "red flags" and other clear warning signs that the providers were abusing and/or diverting the controlled substances in violation of Title 21 of the United States Code. The United States contends, moreover, that HSI failed to design and operate a system to disclose to the registrant suspicious orders of controlled substances in violation of 21 C.F.R. 1301.74(b), failed to make mandatory suspicious order reports to DEA in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 842(a)(5), and failed to maintain effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into other than legitimate medical, scientific, and industrial channels in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 823(b)(1):

1. Scott Edmonds, DDS, Huntington, W.Va. (February, 2012 – September, 2018)
2. Dr. Elizabeth Korcz and Mathew Korcz, Hoover, AL (February, 2015 – February, 2017)
3. John Eldridge, Phoenix, AZ (January, 2013 – December, 2017)
4. Larry Preston, DDS, Knoxville, TN (July, 2012 – September, 2014)
5. Dr. Frank Purpera, Blacksburg, VA (April, 2014 – July 2016)

The claims set forth in this Paragraph F are hereafter referred to as the "Covered Conduct."

F. In light of the foregoing, the United States contends that it has certain civil claims against HSI pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 842(a)(5) and 842(c)(1)(B)(ii).

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

G. This Agreement is not an admission of liability or fault by HSI nor is it a concession by the United States that its claims are not well founded and substantially justified.

H. HSI denies any liability or wrongdoing related to the Covered Conduct.

I. To avoid the delay, uncertainty, inconvenience, and expense of protracted litigation of the above claims, the Parties have reached a full and final settlement pursuant to the Terms and Conditions below.

III. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. HSI shall pay the United States the sum of $500,000.00 (the "Settlement Amount"), representing civil penalties pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 842(c)(1)(B)(ii). The payment from HSI to the United States shall be made in a lump sum within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, by electronic funds transfer ("EFT"), pursuant to written instructions to be provided by the United States.

2. In consideration of the promises and obligations of HSI in this Agreement, and conditioned upon full payment of the Settlement Amount, the United States releases HSI, together with its current and former parent corporations; direct and indirect subsidiaries; brother or sister corporations; divisions; current or former corporate owners; each of their employees, servants and agents; and the corporate successors and assigns of any of them (the "HSI Released Parties"), from any further civil liability (including civil penalties, fines, or other damages) which may be imposed by the United States pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 842(c) by virtue of the Covered Conduct. HSI understands and agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall waive, release, or limit the rights of DEA to institute, direct, or maintain any administrative action against HSI and/or its officers, directors, or employees to suspend, revoke, or otherwise limit HSI's registration pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 824 or 21 C.F.R. § 1301.36.

Henry Schein, Inc
CONFIDENTIAL

3. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of HSI Released Parties and the United States only, and neither party releases any claims against any other person or entity, or any claims by or on behalf of any other person or entity.

4. ORDER DEFERRING ADJUDICATION

(Plea of Guilty)

The Defendant, charged with the misdemeanor offense of Gambling Promotion, as alleged in the Information herein, appeared in person with counsel, or voluntarily waived counsel, and the State appeared by her Assistant Criminal District Attorney, and all parties announced ready for trial. The Defendant was arraigned in open court on the charges contained in the information, and pleaded GUILTY. A jury and a record were waived by all parties, and trial proceeded before the Court. The Defendant made application for deferred adjudication community service. Considering Defendant's plea and all evidence and documents submitted, the Court finds that such evidence substantiates the Defendant's guilt, and that the best interest of society and the Defendant will be served by deferring further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt, and placing the Defendant on community supervision.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED and ORDERED by the Court that the proceedings be and are hereby deferred without an adjudication of guilt, and the Defendant is released on his/her own recognizance under supervision of the Court through the McLennan County Community Supervision and Corrections Department ("Department") for a period of 24 months, subject to the following terms and conditions of community supervision, beginning on the date of the signing of this Order and ending upon Defendant's discharge from community supervision or until the date community supervision is revoked by the Court, whichever is later. The filing of a motion to adjudicate guilt does not terminate the requirements of this order!

Defendant is ORDERED to comply with sections 1 through 15 as follows, and with sections 16 and 17 as designated herein by the Court. Defendant shall:

1. Commit no offense against the laws of this state or of any other state, or of the United States;
2. Report immediately to the Department and thereafter, as directed by the Court or the supervision officer, at least once each month, and obey all rules and regulations of the Department;
3. Remain within McLennan County, Texas, unless permitted to leave McLennan County, Texas, by the Court or by the Department, unless supervision is transferred. The Court authorizes transfer of supervision to _____ County, Texas, or to the State of _____. If supervision of the Defendant is accepted by said County/State, Defendant shall remain within such County/State unless permitted to leave that County/State by this Court or by the supervision officer;
4. Report any change of residence, job, or job status to the Department within 72 hours;
5. Permit the Department's officers to visit the Defendant at home, at work, or elsewhere, at any time;
6. Work faithfully at employment suitable to the Court and the Department, as far as possible, and attend and complete any probationer employment program as directed by the Department;
7. Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;
8. Avoid injurious or vicious habits, avoid the excessive use of alcoholic beverages, and avoid the unlawful use of drugs, narcotics or any other controlled substance;
9. Provide the Department with a high school diploma or its equivalent or prove skill level of students who have completed 6th grade in public schools in this state;

Mark, below you will find a summary of the incident in question. I will do my best to track down the supporting paperwork either tonight or this weekend.

In 2005, I allowed my insurance to lapse on my vehicle. One night I was partying with some frat brothers and sorors at an apartment complex. I did not have a parking sticker for that complex nor was I parked in a "visitors" parking space. When we decided to leave, there was a police officer in the parking lot, so even in our drunkenness, I decided not to drive my vehicle. When we returned for the club scene, my vehicle had been towed. I convinced a frat brother to take me to the impound lot so I could "retrieve" my vehicle. My plan was to just drive my vehicle off the lot without paying,,,alcohol swayed plan. Well, I illegally entered the property and attempted to drive my vehicle off the property...unsuccessfully. I was arrested for unlawful entry and attempted vehicle theft of my own vehicle. Nonetheless, I was bonded out and placed on probation. A couple of the felony charges were dropped and the one remaining was reduced to a misdemeanor. While on probation, I convinced a friend to let me use her license plate sticker. Well, some friends of mine ended up getting pulled over for a routine check stop and the fraudulent sticker caused an issue. I ended up showing up and taking the heat so my friends' record would remain untarnished. The fraudulent sticker charge violated my probation and landed me in Leon County Jail for 32 days.

1) Trespass of Structure - F.S. 810.08(2)(a) - [M2]

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

5) _____

My plea is entered with the understanding that the state has agreed to the following disposition of my case:

Adj of Guilt, Six months county probation, early termination after 90 days if all conditions are met. Five days county work program. DNA sample submit. All court costs, PD Fee, and applicable fines.

FILED IN OPEN COURT

1. I understand the judge will place me under oath to question me about this plea. I must answer the Judge's questions truthfully, and if I make a false statement while under oath I could be prosecuted for perjury.
2. I understand a plea of no contest means I will not challenge the evidence against me. I also understand if the Judge accepts this plea of no contest, there will be no trial and I will be sentenced based on my plea.
3. I understand the nature of the charges to which I am pleading and I am aware of the maximum and minimum penalties. My lawyer has informed me of the facts the State would have to prove before I could be found guilty, and discussed with me any possible defenses that could be raised in my case. I am satisfied with my lawyer's advice.
4. I understand if the Judge accepts this plea, I give up the right to formal discovery and depositions under Rule 3.220 of the Florida Rules of Criminal Prodecure and my attorney will conduct no further investigation of the facts of my case. I give up the right to require the State to prove the charge against me beyond a reasonable doubt, the right to have a jury decide whether I am guilty or not guilty, the right to see and hear the witnesses against me and to have my lawyer question those witnesses, and hear to subpoena and present witnesses or other evidence of any defenses I may have, and to testify or remain silent as I choose.

5. I understand by pleading no contest I am giving up the right to appeal all matters relating to my guilt or innocence The only matters I would be able to appeal are those relating to my sentence and the Judge's authority to hear my case. I understand I will have 30 days to pursue any appeal, and if I can not afford a lawyer, one can be appointed for me.
6. I understand if I am not a United States citizen, a plea of no contest could result in my deportation.
7. I understand if I enter a plea of no contest to a charge involving a controlled substance, my driver's license, or my ability to obtain one may be suspended or revoked for up to two years.
8 I understand the entry of my plea in this case may result in increased punishment for future criminal act on my part.
9. If the offense to which I am entering this plea is a sexually violent offense or any offense that was sexually motivated, or if I have been previously convicted of such an offense in any State or Federal court, I may be subject to involuntary civil commitment as a sexually violent offender under the "Jimmy Ryce Act" when my sentence is completed. Further, I have been advised of the registration and other requirements of sections 775.21, 943.0435 and 944.607 of the Florida Statutes.
10. I understand if I am placed on probation I will be required to pay a monthly costs of supervision fee.
11. I understand, as required by Florida law, the Judge will assess a fee against me for the services of the Public Defender (If applicable).
12 I have read this entire form carefully, and I understand all of the rights and duties explained in it. I state to the Court that I am not under the influence of drugs or alcohol, no one has forced or threatened me to enter this plea, and I am entering this plea freely and voluntarily. I acknowledge I am entering this plea because I believe it is in my best interest.

BOARD OF PHARMACY
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

In the Matter of the Accusation Against: D & R PHARMACY, INC. dba PICO UNION PHARMACY, Pharmacy Permit No. PHY 45340 and DANA MADIEVSKY, Pharmacist License No. RPH 48684 Respondents.	Case No. 5059 OAH No. 2015050797 DECISION AFTER RECONSIDERATION AS TO RESPONDENT MADIEVSKY, ONLY

The California State Board of Pharmacy (Board) issued its Decision after Rejection in the above matter on March 18, 2016, to be effective April 18, 2016. Respondent Dana Madievsky, only, requested reconsideration of the decision prior to the effective date. Respondent Madievsky's request for reconsideration asked only that one, specific condition be modified. Specifically, respondent Madievsky requested that condition 13 of probation ("Tolling of Probation") be modified to reduce the number of hours that respondent must practice as a pharmacist per month to avoid tolling of her probation. A stay of the Decision after Rejection as against Respondent Madievsky only, was issued[1] for 10 days, until 5 p.m. on April 28, 2016, to allow time for the Board to consider the Petition for Reconsideration.

Good cause appearing, the Board granted reconsideration on April 28, 2016, and further stayed the decision against respondent Madievsky, only, until the board issued its decision after reconsideration.

On reconsideration, the Board upholds its Decision after Rejection, except that it modifies probationary condition 13 to read,

13. Tolling of Probation

> Except during periods of suspension, respondent Madievsky shall, at all times while on probation, be employed as a pharmacist in California for a minimum of 40 hours per calendar month. Any month during which this minimum is not met shall toll the period of probation, i.e., the period of probation shall be extended by one month for each month during which this minimum is not met. During any such period of tolling of probation, respondent must nonetheless comply with all terms and conditions of probation.

[1] The portion of the decision against D& R Pharmacy, Inc., doing business as Pico Union Pharmacy, was not stayed and became effective at 5 p.m. on April 18, 2016.

Should respondent, regardless of residency, for any reason (including vacation) cease practicing as a pharmacist for a minimum of 40 hours per calendar month in California, respondent must notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of the cessation of practice, and must further notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of the resumption of practice. Any failure to provide such notification(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

It is a violation of probation for respondent's probation to remain tolled pursuant to the provisions of this condition for a total period, counting consecutive and non-consecutive months, exceeding thirty-six (36) months.

"Cessation of practice" means any calendar month during which respondent is not practicing as a pharmacist for at least 40 hours, as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq. "Resumption of practice" means any calendar month during which respondent is practicing as a pharmacist for at least 40 hours as a pharmacist as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq.

The remainder of the Decision After Rejection dated March 18, 2016, is adopted unchanged as to Respondent Madievsky, and is incorporated herein by reference.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 5th day of May, 2016.

This Decision and Order will be effective at 5 p.m. on May 12, 2016.

DECISION
AFTER REJECTION OF PROPOSED DECISION

John E. DeCure, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ), Office of Administrative Hearings, State of California, heard this matter on September 9 and 10, 2015, in Los Angeles. Christina Felix, Deputy Attorney General, represented Virginia K. Herold (complainant), Executive Officer of the Board of Pharmacy, Department of Consumer Affairs. Respondent D & R Pharmacy, doing business as Pico Union Pharmacy (respondent Pharmacy), and Respondent's president and pharmacist-in-charge (PIC) Dana Madievsky (respondent Madievsky), were represented by Herbert Weinberg, Attorney at Law. Respondent Madievsky was present during the hearing. Evidence was taken and argument was heard. The parties addressed an evidentiary issue relating to redacting certain records and submitted closing arguments. The record was closed on October 2, 2015. The ALJ issued a Proposed Decision on October 14, 2015.

Pursuant to section 11517 of the Government Code, on November 4, 2015, the members of the California State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") issued an Order rejecting the October 14, 2015, Proposed Decision of the Administrative Law Judge in the above-entitled matter. On December 18, 2015, the parties were notified that the transcript had been received and the deadline for the parties to submit written argument was set for January 18, 2016. Written argument was timely received from both parties.

The Board, having reviewed and considered the entire record, including the transcript, exhibits and written arguments, now issues this decision.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

Jurisdiction

1. Complainant filed the Accusation in her official capacity. Respondent Madievsky timely filed a notice of defense.

2. The board issued Original Pharmacy Permit Number PHY 45340 to respondent Pharmacy on August 28, 2001. The license will expire on August 1, 2016, unless renewed.

3. The board issued Original Pharmacist License Number RPH 48684 to respondent Madievsky on April 23, 1996. The license will expire on July 31, 2017, unless renewed.

General Overview

4. Respondent Madievsky has been the sole owner of respondent Pharmacy for 14 years. She employs two pharmacy technicians, Berta Echeverry and Connie Dea, both of whom have worked at respondent Pharmacy the entire time since respondent Madievsky became its owner.

5. About three miles away from respondent Pharmacy, Derrick Butler, M.D., a board-certified family practitioner, practices medicine at the T.H.E. (i.e., "To Help Everyone") Clinic, treating mostly underserved, poor inner-city patients. The vast majority of these patients rely upon Medi-Cal benefits or free county-funded medical programs for the poor, and they very seldom pay cash for medical services or prescriptions. During 2010, Dr. Butler wrote prescriptions on paper pads, but in December 2010, the T.H.E. Clinic switched to using electronic prescriptions, which could be sent to pharmacies either by facsimile or e-mail.

6. In August 2010, Dr. Butler reported to police the theft of prescription pads from T.H.E. Clinic by an unknown person. Dr. Butler had received a telephone call from Vernon Main Pharmacy (Vernon) asking him to verify a prescription for a large dosage of narcotics. Dr. Burgess inquired further with Vernon and discovered that multiple prescriptions for narcotics had been filled in Dr. Butler's name, but without his knowledge or authorization. In December, 2010, Dr. Butler mailed a "To Whom It May Concern" letter to area pharmacies alerting them of the theft of prescription forms and that the forms were being used to create "fake" prescriptions in his name. In November, 2011, Dr. Butler made a second report to police that an unknown person stole his prescription pads, forged his name on prescriptions, and exchanged the prescriptions for narcotics.

7. In April, 2011, Dr. Butler complained to the board that respondent Pharmacy had dispensed numerous fraudulent prescriptions in his name from August 2010 to February 2011.

Dr. Butler believed this was true because the California Department of Justice (DOJ) had sent him a CURES[1] report.

8. At all relevant items in 2010 and 2011, no one named "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle" was an employee at the T.H.E. Clinic. When Dr. Butler talked with respondent Madievsky, he told her this, and asked her to immediately stop filling prescriptions in his name because they were false. Respondent Madievsky agreed, and respondent Pharmacy filled no further prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name.

The Prescriptions

9. a. Sarah Bayley, a board Inspector of 15 years and licensed pharmacist since 1994, was assigned to investigate Dr. Butler's complaint. At the hearing she testified regarding the results of her inspection and also provided expert testimony regarding the standard of practice for California pharmacists and pharmacies.

b. Ms. Bayley found that from August 1, 2010, to June 10, 2011, respondent Pharmacy dispensed 596 prescriptions allegedly written by Dr. Butler but which were false for various reasons. Some of the false prescriptions bore forged signatures of Dr. Butler, and some were approved by "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle," whereas those persons were unknown to the T.H.E. Clinic and therefore, Dr. Butler was unaware the prescriptions even existed. Other false prescriptions were in the name of supposed patients that Dr. Butler had never heard of or treated. Many of the prescriptions, when taken together, revealed prescribing patterns that should have alerted any knowledgeable, responsible pharmacist that the prescriptions may not have been legitimate as follows.

c. Ms. Bayley noted that 290 of the prescriptions were for Phenergan with Codeine, a Schedule V controlled substance. All of these prescriptions came with the exact same physician directions to take one teaspoon every six to eight hours, all were for a quantity of one pint, and all were accompanied by prescriptions for antibiotics in a quantity of 10 capsules. This is a prescription for a serious cough, with a 20-day supply of Phenergan with Codeine coupled with an only five-day supply of antibiotics. There is no variance as to any of the patients' age, needs, or conditions. On August 5, 2010, respondent Pharmacy filled 10 such identical prescriptions in a single day, which is an unusually high level of repetition. Insurance plans were billed, but many patients paid $110 to $120 in cash for these prescriptions, which is also suspicious.

[1] CURES refers to California's Controlled Substance Utilization Review and Evaluation System, a database of prescription-drug history information that includes information about the drug dispensed, drug quantity and strength, patient name, address, prescriber name, and authorization number including DEA number or prescription number. California doctors and pharmacies are required to report to DOJ, within seven days, every schedule II, III and IV drug prescription that is written.

d. Ms. Bayley found several other abnormal prescriptions. Sixteen of the prescriptions were for hydrocodone, a highly addictive Schedule II[2] controlled substance, in the form of either Lortab 10/500 mg or Norco 10/325 mg. All came with the exact same directions to take one tablet every six to eight hours, and all were prescribed in the same quantity of 100 tablets. The identical dosages and directions should have raised a question for any pharmacist as to whether the prescriptions are legitimate, because most legitimate prescriptions are varied due to multiple factors and conditions relevant to each individual patient. Similarly, five identical Lortab prescriptions were filled on September 30, 2010, which is highly unusual in terms of both the prescriptions' sameness and their issuance in such close succession. Five identical Norco prescriptions were filled on August 12, 2010, and five more identical prescriptions were filled on September 25, 2010. Such a high degree of repetition is suspicious for the same reasons.

e. Ms. Bayley stated that a competent pharmacist must exercise his or her professional judgment when faced with odd, suspicious, or apparently illegitimate prescriptions such as these. The exercise of such professional judgment cannot be delegated to pharmacy technicians. It was respondent Madievsky's duty to contact Dr. Butler directly to ask questions about the prescriptions and verify their legitimacy. If respondent Madievsky was not satisfied that a prescription was legitimate, she was not obligated to fill it.

f. Ms. Bayley's testimony established that pharmacy technicians may verify any kind of prescriptions on the pharmacy's behalf, but their duties do not include the exercise of a pharmacist's professional judgment. Therefore, if a prescription is of questionable legitimacy, the pharmacist cannot delegate the responsibility to contact the prescribing physician to the pharmacy technician but must contact the physician herself.

The Prescription Verifications

10. Complainant alleges in the Accusation that respondent Pharmacy and respondent Madievsky "never contacted Dr. [Butler] or the [T.H.E. Clinic] to verify the fraudulent prescriptions prior to dispensing the drugs to patients." The evidence presented on this issue was contradictory as follows.

11. Respondent Pharmacy made attempts to verify many of the prescriptions with the T.H.E. Clinic. Respondent Pharmacy's two pharmacy technicians, Berta Echeverry and Connie

[2] At the time the prescriptions were filled, hydrocodone containing products were classified as Schedule III substances. The federal Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) reclassified hydrocodone combined products (HCPs) from Schedule III to Schedule II of the Controlled Substances Act effective October 6, 2014. (Title 21, C.F.R. Part 1308.) With that reclassification, additional requirements apply to prescriptions for such products. In its rulemaking, DEA found that HCPs were "widely diverted and abused" and that "[t]here have been large numbers of deaths and emergency department visits associated with abuse of HCPs." (Schedules of Controlled Substances: Rescheduling of Hydrocodone Combination Products From Schedule III to Schedule II, 79 FR 49661-01.)

Dea, both testified credibly, and adamantly, regarding their calls to either "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle" for verification of some of the prescriptions, and a number of the prescriptions bear electronic or handwritten notes attesting to such verifications being made. According to the pharmacy technicians, their calls were always routed to either of these people, both of whom were calm and knowledgeable when providing verification information. However, the evidence also established, by a stipulation of the parties (see Exhibit 19), that no one named "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle" worked at the T.H.E. Clinic.

12. When Dr. Butler twice reported to police that prescription pads were stolen, he did not, on either occasion, allege that the theft was part of a burglary or break-in. When prescription pads were stolen, Dr. Butler and the T.H.E. Clinic staff physicians considered whether a staff employee may have taken them. As a result, the clinic had to develop new internal protocols for securing and storing prescriptions pads. The sum of the evidence indicates that dishonest acts regarding prescribing were likely committed by a person or persons working at the T.H.E. Clinic.

13. Fraudulent prescriptions would be of no value to their purveyors unless they were filled. A staff person willing to steal prescription pads likely would also be willing to arrange for the false prescriptions to be verified as they were called in. This would account for respondent Pharmacy's two pharmacy technicians' claims that they received phone verifications from two clinic employees who were using names otherwise unknown to the clinic's staff. Because the technicians' testimony was credible while at the same time, the evidence established that the verifications issuing from the T.H.E. Clinic were false, it may be inferred from the totality of circumstances that two persons within the T.H.E. Clinic were providing verifications using assumed names.

14. Respondent Pharmacy's prescription records contained no notations that verifications were obtained for approximately 42 of the questionable prescriptions. Respondent Madievsky's testimony that all of the questionable prescription would have been verified was unpersuasive. Respondent Madievsky had no direct recollection of verifying any particular prescriptions, but had to rely on pharmacy records. If the records of these prescriptions contained no information about verifications, respondent was speculating that verifications had been secured.

Failure to Produce Six Original Prescriptions

15. During her investigation, Ms. Bayley requested that respondent Pharmacy produce numerous original prescriptions. Respondent Pharmacy and respondent Madievsky cooperated with the board's investigation. They produced 303 prescriptions as requested, but failed to produce six requested prescriptions as follows: prescription (Rx) no. 1559731; Rx no. 1559732; Rx no. 1566999; Rx no. 1567000; Rx no. 1555690; and Rx no. 1555691. Ms. Bayley noted the missing prescriptions and sent a letter to respondent Madievsky requesting that they be forwarded to her. (Exhibit 14.) Respondent Madievsky does not recall ever seeing the letter and assumes that it was not delivered through the mail. When she read the allegations in the Accusation, she searched for and readily located the missing prescriptions, which were stored in the correct places but had "stuck" (i.e., clung) to the backs of other prescriptions. Respondent Madievsky credibly attributed the pharmacy's failure to produce these six prescriptions to an honest mistake.

Mitigation, Rehabilitation, and Findings Pertinent to Discipline

16. a. Respondent Madievsky was a candid witness. She conceded the many irregularities that the board's investigator noted in the prescriptions and agreed with Ms. Bayley's expert opinion that a pharmacist must, in the exercise of her professional judgment, verify any such questionable or suspect prescriptions. She admitted that she, not her pharmacy technicians, should have been the one to contact Dr. Butler, but she had failed to do so. She cooperated with the board's investigation. As a result of this case, she has changed the way she scrutinized prescriptions. For example, she did not know before that Phenergan with Codeine was an abused "street drug," so she is more skeptical of such prescriptions, particularly if they appear irregular. The CURES system was not available until June 2011, which is after the fraudulent prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name were filled, but since June 2011 she has used the CURES system daily. She inputs patient names to determine whether a patient is drug-seeking or "doctor-shopping," or when a patient without a serious condition has a prescription for addictive drugs. If a prescribing physician is new to the pharmacy, she calls the physician herself to verify the prescription. If a patient is new and the prescription contains any irregularities, she calls the prescribing physician herself to verify the prescription. If a regular patient has a new prescription with irregularities, she calls the physician herself to verify the prescription.

b. In closing argument, Complainant claimed respondent Madievsky as a "not a credible witness" and "not truthful in her testimony." As an example of this alleged lack of veracity, complainant noted that when respondent Madievsky was asked if she or respondent Pharmacy had been disciplined before, respondent Madievsky said they had not. According to Complainant, this testimony was false because, in 2008, the board issued citations to both respondents.

c. Complainant's claim that respondent Madievsky was not credible or truthful regarding a prior disciplinary history is misinformed. Official notice is taken that Business and Professions Code[3] section 125.9, which authorizes the board to establish a system for issuing citations and fines to licensees, and California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1775, which provides a basic framework for such citations, do not treat citations and fines as disciplinable offenses. In fact, Code section 125.9, subdivision (b)(4), provides that upon a citation or fine's assessment and issuance, "payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged." Furthermore, page 1 of Complainant's own Investigation Report sets forth a substantial list of vital information regarding both respondents. In that list, the Citations issued to respondent Pharmacy and respondent Madievsky on March 27, 2008, are described. Also listed for both respondents is the notation: "Prior history of discipline: None." (Exhibit 4.) The evidence showed that when respondent Madievsky stated she had no prior history of discipline, she was testifying truthfully.

d. Each respondent was previously issued a citation. On March 27, 2008, respondent Pharmacy was issued citation number CI 2006 32919, with a fine of $2,500, for a violation of Business and Professions Code sections 4301, subdivisions (o)[4] and (q)[5], 4081[6], 4332[7] and 4061[8]. Respondent Madievsky was issued citation number CI 2007 35451, with a fine of $3,500, for the same violations. No further detail was placed in the record.

17. Respondent Madievsky has had problems before contacting physicians by telephone to verify prescriptions and admitted that sometimes, when she was deterred from speaking with the physician, she would settle for talking with a medical staff person. Respondent now insists on speaking with the prescribing physician if the situation requires the physician's input and verifications.

18. Respondent Madievsky had repeated opportunities to place the onus on her two pharmacy technicians for not correctly verifying the fraudulent prescriptions, yet she refused to deflect the blame onto others. Instead, she took responsibility for failing to properly verify the prescriptions herself, estimating that she saw 90 percent of the prescriptions as they came in to be filled.

19. a. Irina Gelman, a friend and customer of respondent Madievsky's for 20 years, submitted a character reference letter in which she described respondent Madievsky as an honest, caring and dedicated pharmacist. Roger Salah, R.Ph., a registered pharmacist in California since 1964, submitted a character reference letter which described respondent Madievsky as ethical, honest, caring, knowledgeable and devoted to the practice of pharmacy. Blaine Bleiden, R.Ph., a registered pharmacist who has known and worked with respondent

[4] Code section 4301, subdivision (o), provides that unprofessional conduct includes "Violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this chapter or of the applicable federal and state laws and regulations governing pharmacy, including regulations established by the board or by any other state or federal regulatory agency."

[5] Code section 4301, subdivision (o), provides that unprofessional conduct includes "Engaging in any conduct that subverts or attempts to subvert an investigation of the board."

[6] Code section 4081 relates to the making and keeping of pharmacy related records, including inventory, and making them available to authorized officers of the law. Amendments to the section since the citation issued did not change the provisions relative to pharmacies or pharmacists-in-charge.

[7] Code section 4332 makes it a misdemeanor to violate section 4081.

[8] Code section 4061 relates to requirements for distributing samples of dangerous drugs.

Madievsky since 1996, submitted a character reference letter describing her as a hardworking, knowledgeable pharmacist who is also a dedicated "patient advocate" when it comes to ensuring their good health. Thang Nguyen, M.D., a physician who has worked with respondent Madievsky for 13 years, complimented her professional expertise, knowledge and excellent service to his patients.

b. Each of the letter writers identified above stated that they were aware of the allegations brought against respondent Madievsky in the pending Accusation.

Costs

20. The board incurred enforcement costs, in the form of Attorney General fees, in the amount of $9,420. The board incurred its own costs for investigation in the amount of $12,822. The administrative law judge found that a portion of these costs were not reasonably incurred as follows.

a. The Attorney General's Matter Time Activity report, which details its costs in increments of one-quarter hour and describes each corresponding task performed, reflects that 19.25 hours of Deputy Attorney General time was billed at a rate of $170 per hour for "witness-related preparation." The total cost of this activity is $3,272.50. Ms. Bayley's declaration for the board reflects 22 hours spent on hearing preparation, "which included case file review and witness preparation with the Attorney General's Office." Ms. Bayley's billing rate for these costs appears to be $120 per hour, which would make the total cost of this activity $2,640. In sum, the combined Attorney General and board billable hours spent on these activities was 41.25 hours, for a total of $5,912.50 in costs incurred.

b. The complainant called on two witnesses at hearing. Its first witness, Dr. Butler, testified for approximately two hours. Its second witness, Ms. Bayley, testified for approximately two and one-half hours. Both witnesses' testimony was straightforward, mostly uncontroversial, and hewed to the allegation set for in the Accusation. There was no indication that either witness would have required lengthy or elaborate preparation to testify.

c. As a result, the Attorney General's 19.25 hours of witness preparation is disproportionate to the actual four and one-half hours of total witness testimony rendered. A more reasonable amount of preparation would be four hours per witness. Therefore a reasonable total for Attorney General witness preparation costs is eight hours, or $1,360.20. In the same vein, Ms. Bayley's total of 22 hours of hearing and witness preparation is disproportionate to the two and one-half hours of testimony she provided at the hearing. Her billings included case file review, which in this case could be reasonably estimated at three hours. A more reasonable amount of witness preparation for her actual testimony would be four hours. Therefore, a reasonable total for Ms. Bayley's hearing preparation, including file review and witness preparation, would be seven hours, or $840.

d. All other Attorney General enforcement costs are reasonable. Pursuant to these Factual Findings, the Attorney General's reasonable costs are reduced to $7,508.

e. All other board investigation costs are reasonable. Pursuant to these Factual Findings, the board staff's reasonable costs are reduced to $11,022.

f. These combined costs of investigation by board staff and Attorney General reasonable costs total $18,530.

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

1. a. The individual practice of pharmacy, like the practice of medicine, is a profession. The standard of proof in an administrative disciplinary action seeking the suspension or revocation of a professional license is "clear and convincing evidence." Ettinger v. Board of Medical Quality Assurance (1982) 135 Cal.App.3d 853, 856. The key element of "clear and convincing evidence is that it must establish a high probability of the existence of the disputed fact, greater than proof by a preponderance of the evidence. Evidence of a charge is clear and convincing so long as there is a "high probability" that the charge is true. People v Mabini (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 654, 662. To take discipline against the pharmacist's license, complainant must establish cause for discipline exists by clear and convincing evidence.

b. The standard of proof against the pharmacy's license is different, because there are not extensive education, training and testing requirements to obtain such licensure. As such, complainant must establish cause for discipline against a pharmacy license by demonstrating cause for discipline by a preponderance of the evidence. (Imports Performance v Dept. of Consumer Affairs, Bur. Of Automotive Repair (2011) 201 Cal.App.4th 911, 916-917; San Benito Foods v Veneman (1996) 50 Cal.App.4th 1889.)

c. Such distinction is unnecessary in this matter, however, because the same allegations are made against both the pharmacist and pharmacy's licenses. The complainant met her burden of proving her case by clear and convincing evidence.

2. The Board of Pharmacy is guided by principles and statutes that mandate that whenever the protection of the public is inconsistent with other interests sought to be promoted, the protection of the public must be paramount. (Code, §§ 4001.1 and 4313.)

3. Cause exists to discipline respondent Pharmacy's permit number PHY 45340 and respondent Madievsky's pharmacist license number RPH 48684 under Code section 4301, subdivision (o), for committing unprofessional conduct by violating or assisting in or abetting the violation of state law governing pharmacy, to wit, California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1761, subdivision (a), by dispensing prescriptions which contained significant errors, omissions, irregularity, uncertainty, or alteration, while failing to contact the prescriber to obtain the information needed to validate the prescriptions. (Factual Findings 4 through 14.)

4. Cause exists to discipline respondent Pharmacy's permit number PHY 45340 and respondent Madievsky's pharmacist license number RPH 48684 under Code section4301, subdivision (o), for committing unprofessional conduct by violating or assisting in or abetting the violation of state law governing pharmacy, to wit, Code section 4333, by failing to maintain prescription records available for inspection by authorized officers of the law in a board-licensed facility for a period of three years. (Factual Findings 4 through 15.)

Analysis to Determine Penalty

5. Section 4300 of the Code provides that the board may discipline the holder of, and suspend or revoke, any certificate, license or permit issued by the board. The Board's Disciplinary Guidelines state that, in determining whether the minimum, maximum, or an intermediate penalty is to be imposed in a given case, certain factors should be considered. (Title 16, C.C.R., § 1760.) Each factor is considered in turn below.

1. Actual or potential harm to the public. No actual harm to the public was alleged. The potential harm to the public is, however, significant. False or fraudulent prescriptions, by their nature, promote the misuse of abuse of dangerous drugs. Abuse and overdose can result in death.

2. Actual or potential harm to any consumer. No actual harm to a consumer was alleged, however, as noted above, the potential harm was life threatening.

3. Prior disciplinary record, including level of compliance with disciplinary order(s). Neither respondent has a prior record of discipline.

4. Prior warning(s), including but not limited to citation(s) and fine(s), letter(s) of admonishment, and/or correction notice(s). On March 27, 2008, respondent Pharmacy was issued a citation and fine, as was respondent Madievsky, as noted in Factual Finding 16.d.

5. Number and/or variety of current violations. The failure to verify false or fraudulent prescriptions was repeated misconduct that occurred over a 10-month period. The number of prescriptions was 596; 290 of those (for, cumulatively, 290 pints of cough medicine) involve a Schedule V controlled drug containing codeine and 16 prescriptions (for, cumulatively, 1,600 tablets) were for highly addictive, controlled drugs containing hydrocodone. The other violation was for failure to produce six original prescriptions in conjunction with the board staff's investigation.

6. Nature and severity of the act(s), offense(s) or crime(s) under consideration. By her failure to recognize the irregularities in the many false prescriptions presented to respondent Pharmacy, respondent Madievsky neglected a critically important function of a pharmacist, which is to exercise her professional judgment when necessary. Due to the high volume of false prescriptions that resulted, the offense is serious. By contrast, the failure to produce six original prescriptions for inspection at the board's request appears to have been inadvertent. Considering over 300 requested prescriptions were produced as part of the inspection, that offense is minor.

7. Aggravating evidence. The evidence did not give rise to aggravating evidence except as otherwise noted herein.

8. Mitigating evidence. Four people, including two pharmacists and a physician, submitted letters attesting to respondent's good character.

9. Rehabilitation evidence. Respondent Madievsky ceased issuing any more false prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name after Dr. Butler made her aware of the problem. Respondent Madievsky cooperated with the board's investigation. Respondent Madievsky's failure to supply the board with six original prescriptions was a violation, but a minor one. Respondent Madievsky took responsibility for her misconduct and described the steps she has taken to heighten her vigilance in scrutinizing potentially false prescriptions and possible drug-seeking patients. Those steps include her frequent utilization of a prescribing histories within the CURES system as a reference point in assessing the validity of prescriptions, and her commitment to speak directly with prescribing physicians to obtain verifications.

[Factors 10 through 12 apply only where criminal proceedings were involved.]

13. Time passed since the act(s) or offense(s). The misconduct occurred between four and five years ago.

14. Whether the conduct was intentional or negligent, demonstrated incompetence, or, if the respondent is being held to account for conduct committed by another, the respondent had knowledge of or knowingly participated in such conduct. Respondent Madievsky's conduct was negligent in that she was responsible for ensuring the legitimacy and correctness of the prescriptions her pharmacy was filling, yet she repeatedly failed to fulfill her responsibilities.

15. Financial benefit to the respondent from the misconduct. No evidence was presented regarding the potential or actual financial benefit to the respondent Pharmacy or respondent Madievsky (as its owner) for filling the prescriptions in question, but due to the high volume of prescriptions, some financial benefit to respondent Pharmacy and respondent Madievsky was likely realized.

5. Considering all of these factors, respondent Pharmacy and respondent Madievsky committed serious misconduct due to the volume of false prescriptions that were wrongly verified and issued. Respondent Madievsky's culpability was attenuated, however, by her insight into her misconduct, her willingness to take responsibility, her cooperation with the board staff, and her efforts to rehabilitate herself and her pharmacy's practices. In sum, she appears to be a good candidate for probation, which extends to her pharmacy's license. A lengthy probation and terms that make it possible for the board to thoroughly monitor respondents' ongoing rehabilitative efforts over time, however, are necessary to best protect the public.

ORDER

Respondent Pico Union's Pharmacy License

A. Pharmacy Permit Number PHY 45340, issued to D. & R Pharmacy, Inc., doing business as Pico Union Pharmacy, is revoked; the revocation is, however, stayed and respondent is placed on probation for five years upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Obey All Laws

Respondent owner shall obey all state and federal laws and regulations. Respondent owner shall report any of the following occurrences to the board, in writing, within seventy-two (72) hours of such occurrence: a) an arrest or issuance of a criminal complaint for violation of any provision of the Pharmacy Law, state and federal food and drug laws, or state and federal controlled substances laws; b) a plea of guilty or nolo contendre in any state or federal criminal proceeding to any criminal complaint, information or indictment; c) a conviction of any crime; d) discipline, citation, or other administrative action filed by any state or federal agency which involves respondent's license or which is related to the practice of pharmacy or the manufacturing, obtaining, handling or distributing, billing, or charging for any drug, device or controlled substance. Failure to timely report any such occurrence shall be considered a violation of probation.

2. Report to the Board

Respondent owner shall report to the board quarterly, on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. The report shall be made either in person or in writing, as directed. Among other requirements, respondent owner shall state in each report under penalty of perjury whether there has been compliance with all the terms and conditions of probation. Failure to submit timely reports in a form as directed shall be considered a violation of probation. Any period(s) of delinquency in submission of reports as directed may be added to the total period of probation. Moreover, if the final probation report is not made as directed, probation shall be automatically extended until such time as the final report is made and accepted by the board.

3. Interview with the Board

Upon receipt of reasonable prior notice, respondent owner shall appear in person for interviews with the board or its designee, at such intervals and locations as are determined by the board or its designee. Failure to appear for any scheduled interview without prior notification to board staff, or failure to appear for two (2) or more scheduled interviews with the board or its designee during the period of probation, shall be considered a violation of probation.

4. Cooperate with Board Staff

Respondent owner shall cooperate with the board's inspection program and with the board's monitoring and investigation of respondent's compliance with the terms and conditions of her probation. Failure to cooperate shall be considered a violation of probation.

5. Reimbursement of Board Costs

As a condition precedent to successful completion of probation, respondent owner and respondent Madievsky shall pay to the board its costs of investigation and prosecution in the amount of $18,530. Respondent owner shall make said payments on a payment plan as approved by the board. There shall be no deviation from this schedule absent prior written approval by the board or its designee. Failure to pay costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

6. Probation Monitoring Costs

Respondent owner shall pay any costs associated with probation monitoring as determined by the board each and every year of probation. Such costs shall be payable to the board on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. Failure to pay such costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

7. Status of License

Respondent owner shall, at all times while on probation, maintain current licensure with the board. If respondent owner submits an application to the board, and the application is approved, for a change of location, change of permit or change of ownership, the board shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the license, and the respondent shall remain on probation as determined by the board. Failure to maintain current licensure shall be considered a violation of probation.

If respondent's license expires or is cancelled by operation of law or otherwise at any time during the period of probation, including any extensions thereof due to tolling or otherwise, upon renewal or reapplication respondent's license shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this probation not previously satisfied.

8. License Surrender While on Probation/Suspension

Following the effective date of this decision, should respondent owner discontinue business, respondent owner may tender the premises license to the board for surrender. The board or its designee shall have the discretion whether to grant the request for surrender or take any other action it deems appropriate and reasonable. Upon formal acceptance of the surrender of the license, respondent will no longer be subject to the terms and conditions of probation.

Upon acceptance of the surrender, respondent owner shall relinquish the premises wall and renewal license to the board within ten (10) days of notification by the board that the surrender is accepted. Respondent owner shall further submit a completed Discontinuance of Business form according to board guidelines and shall notify the board of the records inventory transfer. Respondent owner shall also, by the effective date of this decision, arrange for the continuation of care for ongoing patients of the pharmacy by, at minimum, providing a written notice to ongoing patients that specifies the anticipated closing date of the pharmacy and that identifies one or more area pharmacies capable of taking up the patients' care, and by cooperating as may be necessary in the transfer of records or prescriptions for ongoing patients. Within five days of its provision to the pharmacy's ongoing patients, Respondent owner shall provide a copy of the written notice to the board. For the purposes of this provision, "ongoing patients" means those patients for whom the pharmacy has on file a prescription with one or more refills outstanding, or for whom the pharmacy has filled a prescription within the preceding sixty (60) days.

Respondent owner may not apply for any new licensure from the board for three (3) years from the effective date of the surrender. Respondent owner shall meet all requirements applicable to the license sought as of the date the application for that license is submitted to the board. Respondent owner further stipulates that she shall reimburse the board for its costs of investigation and prosecution prior to the acceptance of the surrender.

9. Notice to Employees

Respondent owner shall, upon or before the effective date of this decision, ensure that all employees involved in permit operations are made aware of all the terms and conditions of probation, either by posting a notice of the terms and conditions, circulating such notice, or both. If the notice required by this provision is posted, it shall be posted in a prominent place and shall remain posted throughout the probation period. Respondent owner shall ensure that any employees hired or used after the effective date of this decision are made aware of the terms and conditions of probation by posting a notice, circulating a notice, or both. Additionally, respondent owner shall submit written notification to the board, within fifteen (15) days of the effective date of this decision, that this term has been satisfied. Failure to submit such notification to the board shall be considered a violation of probation.

"Employees" as used in this provision includes all full-time, part-time, volunteer, temporary and relief employees and independent contractors employed or hired at any time during probation.

10. Owners and Officers: Knowledge of the Law

Respondent shall provide, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this decision, signed and dated statements from its owners, including any owner or holder of ten percent (10%) or more of the interest in respondent or respondent's stock, and any officer, stating under penalty of perjury that said individuals have read and are familiar with state and federal laws and regulations governing the practice of pharmacy. The failure to timely provide said statements under penalty of perjury shall be considered a violation of probation.

11. Posted Notice of Probation

Respondent owner shall prominently post a probation notice provided by the board in a place conspicuous and readable to the public. The probation notice shall remain posted during the entire period of probation.

Respondent owner shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any conduct or make any statement which is intended to mislead or is likely to have the effect of misleading any patient, customer, member of the public, or other person(s) as to the nature of and reason for the probation of the licensed entity.

Failure to post such notice shall be considered a violation of probation.

12. Separate File of Records

Respondent owner shall maintain and make available for inspection a separate file of all records pertaining to the acquisition or disposition of all controlled substances. Failure to maintain such file or make it available for inspection shall be considered a violation of probation.

13. Report of Controlled Substances

Respondent owner shall submit quarterly reports to the board detailing the total acquisition and disposition of such controlled substances as the board may direct. Respondent owner shall specify the manner of disposition (e.g., by prescription, due to burglary, etc.) or acquisition (e.g., from a manufacturer, from another retailer, etc.) of such controlled substances. Respondent owner shall report on a quarterly basis or as directed by the board. The report shall be delivered or mailed to the board no later than ten (10) days following the end of the reporting period. Failure to timely prepare or submit such reports shall be considered a violation of probation.

14. Violation of Probation

If a respondent owner has not complied with any term or condition of probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction over respondent license, and probation shall be automatically extended until all terms and conditions have been satisfied or the board has taken other action as deemed appropriate to treat the failure to comply as a violation of probation, to terminate probation, and to impose the penalty that was stayed.

If respondent owner violates probation in any respect, the board, after giving respondent owner notice and an opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. Notice and opportunity to be heard are not required for those provisions stating that a violation thereof may lead to automatic termination of the stay and/or revocation of the license. If a petition to revoke probation or an accusation is filed against respondent during probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction and the period of probation shall be automatically extended until the petition to revoke probation or accusation is heard and decided.

15. Completion of Probation

Upon written notice by the board or its designee indicating successful completion of probation, respondent's license will be fully restored.

Respondent Dana Madievsky's License

B. Pharmacist License No. RPH 48684, issued to respondent Dana Madievsky, is revoked; the revocation is, however, stayed and respondent is placed on probation for five years upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Obey All Laws

Respondent Madievsky shall obey all state and federal laws and regulations. Respondent shall report any of the following occurrences to the board, in writing, within seventy-two (72) hours of such occurrence: a) an arrest or issuance of a criminal complaint for violation of any provision of the Pharmacy Law, state and federal food and drug laws, or state and federal controlled substances laws; b) a plea of guilty or nolo contendre in any state or federal criminal proceeding to any criminal complaint, information or indictment; c) a conviction of any crime; or d) discipline, citation, or other administrative action filed by any state or federal agency which involves respondent's pharmacist license or which is related to the practice of pharmacy or the manufacturing, obtaining, handling, distributing, billing, or charging for any drug, device or controlled substance.

Failure to timely report any such occurrence shall be considered a violation of probation.

2. Report to the Board

Respondent Madievsky shall report to the board quarterly, on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. The report shall be made either in person or in writing, as directed. Among other requirements, respondent shall state in each report under penalty of perjury whether there has been compliance with all the terms and conditions of probation. Failure to submit timely reports in a form as directed shall be considered a violation of probation. Any period(s) of delinquency in submission of reports as directed may be added to the total period of probation. Moreover, if the final probation report is not made as directed, probation shall be automatically extended until such time as the final report is made and accepted by the board.

3. Interview with the Board

Upon receipt of reasonable prior notice, respondent Madievsky shall appear in person for interviews with the board or its designee, at such intervals and locations as are determined by the board or its designee. Failure to appear for any scheduled interview without prior notification to board staff, or failure to appear at two (2) or more scheduled interviews with the board or its designee during the period of probation, shall be considered a violation of probation.

4. Cooperate with Board Staff

Respondent Madievsky shall cooperate with the board's inspection program and with the board's monitoring and investigation of respondent's compliance with the terms and conditions of her probation. Failure to cooperate shall be considered a violation of probation.

5. Continuing Education

Respondent Madievsky shall provide evidence of efforts to maintain skill and knowledge as a pharmacist as directed by the board or its designee.

6. Notice to Employers

During the period of probation, respondent Madievsky shall notify all present and prospective employers of the decision in case number 5059 and the terms, conditions and restrictions imposed on respondent by the decision, as follows:

Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision, and within fifteen (15) days of respondent undertaking any new employment, respondent shall cause her direct supervisor, pharmacist-in-charge (including each new pharmacist-in-charge employed during respondent's tenure of employment) and owner to report to the board in writing acknowledging that the listed individual(s) has/have read the decision in case number 5059, and terms and conditions imposed thereby. It shall be respondent's responsibility to ensure that her employer(s) and/or supervisor(s) submit timely acknowledgment(s) to the board.

If respondent works for or is employed by or through a pharmacy employment service, respondent must notify her direct supervisor, pharmacist-in-charge, and owner at every entity licensed by the board of the terms and conditions of the decision in case number 5059 in advance of the respondent commencing work at each licensed entity. A record of this notification must be provided to the board upon request.

Furthermore, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision, and within fifteen (15) days of respondent undertaking any new employment by or through a pharmacy employment service, respondent shall cause her direct supervisor with the pharmacy employment service to report to the board in writing acknowledging that she has read the decision in case number 5059 and the terms and conditions imposed thereby. It shall be respondent's responsibility to ensure that her employer(s) and/or supervisor(s) submit timely acknowledgment(s) to the board.

Failure to timely notify present or prospective employer(s) or to cause that/those employer(s) to submit timely acknowledgments to the board shall be considered a violation of probation.

"Employment" within the meaning of this provision shall include any full-time, part-time, temporary, relief or pharmacy management service as a pharmacist or any position for which a pharmacist license is a requirement or criterion for employment, whether the respondent is an employee, independent contractor or volunteer.

7. No Supervision of Interns, Serving as Pharmacist-In-Charge (PIC), or Serving as Consultant, Except as Otherwise Specified

During the period of probation, respondent Madievsky shall not supervise any intern pharmacist, be the pharmacist-in-charge or designated representative-in-charge of any entity licensed by the board nor serve as a consultant except as otherwise specified this order. Assumption of any such unauthorized supervision responsibilities shall be considered a violation of probation.

8. Reimbursement of Board Costs

As a condition precedent to successful completion of probation, respondent Madievsky and respondent Pharmacy shall pay to the board its costs of investigation and prosecution in the amount of $18,530. It is within the board's discretion to establish a reasonable monthly or quarterly repayment plan with respondents. There shall be no deviation from this schedule absent prior written approval by the board or its designee. Failure to pay costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

9. Probation Monitoring Costs

Respondent Madievsky shall pay any costs associated with probation monitoring as determined by the board each and every year of probation. Such costs shall be payable to the board on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. Failure to pay such costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

10. Status of License

Respondent Madievsky shall, at all times while on probation, maintain an active, current license with the board, including any period during which suspension or probation is tolled. Failure to maintain an active, current license shall be considered a violation of probation. If respondent's license expires or is cancelled by operation of law or otherwise at any time during the period of probation, including any extensions thereof due to tolling or otherwise, upon renewal or reapplication respondent's license shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this probation not previously satisfied.

11. License Surrender While on Probation/Suspension

Following the effective date of this decision, should respondent Madievsky cease practice due to retirement or health, or be otherwise unable to satisfy the terms and conditions of probation, respondent may tender her license to the board for surrender. The board or its designee shall have the discretion whether to grant the request for surrender or take any other action it deems appropriate and reasonable. Upon formal acceptance of the surrender of the license, respondent will no longer be subject to the terms and conditions of probation. This surrender constitutes a record of discipline and shall become a part of the respondent's license history with the board.

Upon acceptance of the surrender, respondent shall relinquish her pocket and wall license to the board within ten (10) days of notification by the board that the surrender is accepted. Respondent may not reapply for any license from the board for three (3) years from the effective date of the surrender. Respondent shall meet all requirements applicable to the license sought as of the date the application for that license is submitted to the board, including any outstanding costs.

12. Notification of a Change in Name, Residence Address, Mailing Address or Employment

Respondent Madievsky shall notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of any change of employment. Said notification shall include the reasons for leaving, the address of the new employer, the name of the supervisor and owner, and the work schedule if known. Respondent shall further notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of a change in name, residence address, mailing address, or phone number.

Failure to timely notify the board of any change in employer(s), name(s), address(es), or phone number(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

13. Tolling of Probation

Except during periods of suspension, respondent Madievsky shall, at all times while on probation, be employed as a pharmacist in California for a minimum of 120 hours per calendar month. Any month during which this minimum is not met shall toll the period of probation, i.e., the period of probation shall be extended by one month for each month during which this minimum is not met. During any such period of tolling of probation, respondent must nonetheless comply with all terms and conditions of probation.

Should respondent, regardless of residency, for any reason (including vacation) cease practicing as a pharmacist for a minimum of 120 hours per calendar month in California, respondent must notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of the cessation of practice, and must further notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of the resumption of practice. Any failure to provide such notification(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

It is a violation of probation for respondent's probation to remain tolled pursuant to the provisions of this condition for a total period, counting consecutive and non-consecutive months, exceeding thirty-six (36) months.

"Cessation of practice" means any calendar month during which respondent is not practicing as a pharmacist for at least 120 hours, as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq. "Resumption of practice" means any calendar month during which respondent is practicing as a pharmacist for at least 120 hours as a pharmacist as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq.

14. No New Ownership of Licensed Premises

Respondent Madievsky shall not acquire any new ownership, legal or beneficial interest nor serve as a manager, administrator, member, officer, director, trustee, associate, or partner of any additional business, firm, partnership, or corporation licensed by the board. If respondent currently owns or has any legal or beneficial interest in, or serves as a manager, administrator, member, officer, director, trustee, associate, or partner of any business, firm, partnership, or corporation currently or hereinafter licensed by the board, respondent may continue to serve in such capacity or hold that interest, but only to the extent of that position or interest as of the effective date of this decision. Violation of this restriction shall be considered a violation of probation.

15. Separate File of Records

Respondent Madievsky shall maintain and make available for inspection a separate file of all records pertaining to the acquisition or disposition of all controlled substances. Failure to maintain such file or make it available for inspection shall be considered a violation of probation.

16. Report of Controlled Substances

Respondent Madievsky shall submit quarterly reports to the board detailing the total acquisition and disposition of such controlled substances as the board may direct. Respondent shall specify the manner of disposition (e.g., by prescription, due to burglary, etc.) or acquisition (e.g., from a manufacturer, from another retailer, etc.) of such controlled substances. Respondent shall report on a quarterly basis or as directed by the board. The report shall be delivered or mailed to the board no later than ten (10) days following the end of the reporting period. Failure to timely prepare or submit such reports shall be considered a violation of probation.

17. Consultant for Owner or Pharmacist-In-Charge

During the period of probation, respondent Madievsky shall not supervise any intern pharmacist or serve as a consultant to any entity licensed by the board. Respondent may, however, be a pharmacist-in-charge if she complies with all the provisions of this probation term. Respondent shall not be a pharmacist-in-charge at more than one pharmacy or at any pharmacy of which she is not the sole owner. During the period of probation when respondent serves as a pharmacist-in-charge, respondent shall retain an independent consultant at her own expense who shall be responsible for reviewing pharmacy operations on a quarterly basis for compliance by respondent with state and federal laws and regulations governing the practice of pharmacy and for compliance by respondent with the obligations of a pharmacist-in-charge. The consultant shall be a pharmacist licensed by and not on probation with the board and whose name shall be submitted to the board or its designee, for prior approval, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision. Failure to timely retain, seek approval of, or ensure timely reporting by the consultant shall be considered a violation of probation.

18. Ethics Course

Within sixty (60) calendar days of the effective date of this decision, respondent Madievsky shall enroll in a course in ethics, at respondent's expense, approved in advance by the board or its designee. Failure to initiate the course during the first year of probation, and complete it within the second year of probation, is a violation of probation. Respondent shall submit a certificate of completion to the board or its designee within five days after completing the course.

19. Violation of Probation

If respondent Madievsky has not complied with any term or condition of probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction over respondent, and probation shall automatically be extended, until all terms and conditions have been satisfied or the board has taken other action as deemed appropriate to treat the failure to comply as a violation of probation, to terminate probation, and to impose the penalty that was stayed.

If respondent Madievsky violates probation in any respect, the board, after giving respondent notice and an opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. Notice and opportunity to be heard are not required for those provisions stating that a violation thereof may lead to automatic termination of the stay and/or revocation of the license. If a petition to revoke probation or an accusation is filed against respondent during probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction, and the period of probation shall be automatically extended until the petition to revoke probation or accusation is heard and decided.

20. Completion of Probation

Upon written notice by the board indicating successful completion of probation, respondent Madievsky's pharmacist license will be fully restored.

This Decision shall become effective at 5:00 p.m. on April 18, 2016.

IT IS SO ORDERED on this 18th day of March, 2016.

PROPOSED DECISION

John E. DeCure, Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Hearings, State of California, heard this matter on September 9 and 10, 2015, in Los Angeles.

Christina Felix, Deputy Attorney General, represented Virginia K. Herold (Complainant), Executive Officer of the Board of Pharmacy (Board), Department of Consumer Affairs.

Respondent D & R Pharmacy, doing business as Pico Union Pharmacy (Respondent Pharmacy), and Respondent's president and pharmacist-in-charge (PIC), Dana Madievsky (Respondent Madievsky), were represented by Herbert Weinberg, Attorney at Law. Respondent Madievsky was present during the hearing.

Evidence was taken and argument was heard.

Complainant made a request for a protective order sealing confidential records contained in Complainant's Exhibits 6, 8, 12 and 20. The records contained medical and/or personal information primarily in the form of pharmacy records obtained from Respondent during Complainant's investigation. Complainant's stated reasons to protect these documents from disclosure were as follows: "The documents are so voluminous as to make redaction unduly burdensome. Moreover, some of the personal information is necessary to prove elements of the charges against Respondents." In NBC Subsidiary (KNBC-TV), Inc. v. Superior Court (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1178, the California Supreme Court set forth the findings that both the trial and appellate courts must expressly make to seal a record. Courts must find that (1) there is an overriding interest supporting sealing records; (2) there is a substantial probability that the interest will be prejudiced absent sealing; (3) the proposed sealing is narrowly tailored to serve the overriding interest; and (4) there is no less restrictive means of achieving the overriding interest. (Ibid at 1217-1218.) Complainant failed to meet her burden to demonstrate that there was no less restrictive means of achieving the interest supporting sealing the records, which in this case is patient privacy. The documents are not so voluminous that appropriate redactions to preserve patient privacy could not be made within a reasonable time, nor would redactions so deface the materials that they would lose their probative value. Complainant's request to seal the record was thereby denied. Exhibits 6, 8, 12 and 20 were returned to Complainant with an order for the required redactions to be made, and these exhibits to be re-submitted, by no later than September 25, 2015. Complainant timely complied with this order.

Both parties chose to make written closing arguments. Complainant chose not to make an initial closing argument due to a scheduling issue. Respondent was given until September 14, 2015, to submit a written closing argument. Complainant was given until October 2, 2015, to submit a closing argument, which would include rebuttal. The record was closed and the matter was submitted on October 2, 2015.

FACTUAL FINDINGS

Jurisdiction

1. Complainant filed the Accusation in her official capacity. Respondent Madievsky timely filed a notice of defense.

2. The Board issued Original Pharmacy Permit Number PHY 45340 to Respondent Pharmacy on August 28, 2001. The license will expire on August 1, 2016, unless renewed.

3. The Board issued Original Pharmacist License Number RPH 48684 to Respondent Madievsky on August 28, 2001. The license will expire on July 31, 2017, unless renewed.

General Overview

4. Respondent Madievsky has been the sole owner of Respondent Pharmacy for 14 years. She employs two pharmacy technicians, Berta Echeverry and Connie Dea, both of whom have worked at Respondent Pharmacy the entire time since Respondent Madievsky became its owner.

5. About three miles away from Respondent Pharmacy, Derrick Butler, M.D., a board-certified family practitioner, practices medicine at the T.H.E. (i.e., "To Help Everyone") Clinic, treating mostly underserved, poor inner-city patients. The vast majority of these patients rely upon Medi-Cal benefits or free county-funded medical programs for the poor, and they very seldom pay cash for medical services or prescriptions. During 2010, Dr. Butler wrote prescriptions on paper pads, but in December 2010, the T.H.E. Clinic switched to using electronic prescriptions, which could be sent to pharmacies either by facsimile or e-mail.

6. In August 2010, Dr. Butler reported to police the theft of prescription pads from T.H.E. Clinic by an unknown person. Dr. Butler had received a telephone call from Vernon Main Pharmacy (Vernon) asking him to verify a prescription for a large dosage of narcotics. Dr. Burgess inquired further with Vernon and discovered that multiple prescriptions for narcotics had been filled in Dr. Butler's name, but without his knowledge or authorization. In December 2010 Dr. Butler mailed a "To Whom it May Concern" letter to area pharmacies alerting them of the theft of prescription forms and that the forms were being used to create "fake" prescriptions in his name. In November 2011 Dr. Butler made a second report to police that an unknown person stole his prescription pads, forged his name on prescriptions, and exchanged the prescriptions for narcotics.

7. In April 2011 Dr. Butler complained to the Board that Respondent Pharmacy had dispensed numerous fraudulent prescriptions in his name from August 2010 to February 2011. Dr. Butler believed this was true because the California Department of Justice (DOJ) had sent him a CURES[1] report which revealed these prescriptions as being filled at Respondent Pharmacy. When Dr. Butler saw this information in the CURES report, he called Respondent Pharmacy and spoke with Respondent Madievsky about the false prescriptions. She reviewed at least some of the prescriptions and she told Dr. Butler that her records indicated that many of the prescriptions had been called in to the T.H.E. Clinic for verification. According to Respondent Pharmacy's records, when they called in, typically their calls would go to either a person named "Keisha" (or Akeisha), or a person named "Michelle," both of whom verified that the prescriptions were valid.

8. At all relevant times in 2010 and 2011, no one named "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle" was an employee at the T.H.E. Clinic. When Dr. Butler talked with Respondent Madievsky, he told her this, and asked her to immediately stop filling prescriptions in his name because they were false. Respondent Madievsky agreed, and Respondent Pharmacy filled no further prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name.

[1] CURES refers to the California's Controlled Substance Utilization Review and Evaluation System, a database of prescription-drug history information which includes information about the drug dispensed, drug quantity and strength, patient name, address, prescriber name, and authorization number including DEA number or prescription number. California doctors and pharmacies are required to report to DOJ, within seven days, every schedule II, III and IV drug prescription that is written.

The Prescriptions

9(a). Sarah Bayley, a Board Inspector of 15 years and licensed pharmacist since 1994, was assigned to investigate Dr. Butler's complaint. At the hearing she testified regarding the results of her inspection and also provided expert testimony regarding the standard of practice for California pharmacists and pharmacies.

9(b). Ms. Bayley found that from August 1, 2010, to June 10, 2011, Respondent Pharmacy dispensed 596 prescriptions allegedly written by Dr. Butler but which were false for various reasons. Some of the false prescriptions bore forged signatures of Dr. Butler, and some were approved by "Kelsha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle," whereas those persons were unknown to the T.H.E. Clinic and therefore, Dr. Butler was unaware the prescriptions even existed. Other false prescriptions were in the name of supposed patients that Dr. Butler had never heard of or treated. Many of the prescriptions, when taken together, revealed prescribing patterns that should have alerted any knowledgeable, responsible pharmacist that the prescriptions may not have been legitimate as follows.

9(c). Ms. Bayley noted that 290 of the prescriptions were for Phenergan with Codeine, a Schedule V controlled substance. All of these prescriptions came with the exact same physician directions to take one teaspoon every six to eight hours, all were for a quantity of one pint, and all were accompanied by prescriptions for antibiotics in a quantity of 10 capsules. This is a prescription for a serious cough, with a 20-day supply of Phenergan with Codeine coupled with an only five-day supply of antibiotics. There is no variance as to any of the patients' age, needs, or conditions. On August 5, 2010, Respondent Pharmacy filled 10 such identical prescriptions in a single day, which is an unusually high level of repetition. Insurance plans were billed, but many patients paid from $110 to $120 in cash for these prescriptions, which is also suspicious.

9(d). Ms. Bayley found several other abnormal prescriptions. 16 of the prescriptions were for hydrocodone, a highly addictive Schedule II controlled substance, in the form of either Lortab 10/500 mg or Norco 10/325 mg. All came with the exact same directions to take one tablet every six to eight hours, and all were prescribed in the same quantity of 100 tablets. The identical dosages and directions should have raised a question for any pharmacist as to whether the prescriptions are legitimate, because most legitimate prescriptions are varied due to multiple factors and conditions relevant to each individual patient. Similarly, five identical Lortab prescriptions were filled on September 30, 2010, which is highly unusual in terms of both the prescriptions' sameness and their issuance in such close succession. Five identical Norco prescriptions were filled on August 12, 2010, and five more identical prescriptions were filled on September 25, 2010. Such a high degree of repetition is suspicious for the same reasons.

9(e). Ms. Bayley stated that a competent pharmacist must exercise his or her professional judgment when faced with odd, suspicious, or apparently illegitimate prescriptions such as these. The exercise of such professional judgment cannot be delegated to pharmacy technicians. It was Respondent Madievsky's duty to contact Dr. Butler directly to ask questions about the prescriptions and verify their legitimacy. If Respondent Madievsky was not satisfied that a prescription was legitimate, she was not obligated to fill it.

9(f). Ms. Bayley's testimony established that pharmacy technicians may verify any kind of prescriptions on the pharmacy's behalf, but their duties do not include the exercise of a pharmacist's professional judgment. Therefore, if a prescription is of questionable legitimacy, the pharmacist cannot delegate the responsibility to contact the prescribing physician to the pharmacy technician but must contact the physician herself.

The Prescription Verifications

10. Complainant alleges in the Accusation that Respondent Pharmacy and Respondent Madievsky "never contacted Dr. [Butler] or the [T.H.E. Clinic] to verify the fraudulent prescriptions prior to dispensing the drugs to patients." The evidence presented on this issue was contradictory as follows.

11. Respondent Pharmacy made attempts to verify many of the prescriptions with the T.H.E. Clinic. Respondent Pharmacy's two pharmacy technicians, Berta Echeverry and Connie Dea, both testified credibly, and adamantly, regarding their calls to either "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle," for verification of some of the prescriptions, and a number of the prescriptions bear electronic or handwritten notes attesting to such verifications being made. According to the pharmacy technicians, their calls were always routed to either of these people, both of whom were calm and knowledgeable when providing verification information. However, the evidence also established, by a stipulation of the parties (see Exhibit 19), that no one named "Keisha" (or Akeisha) or "Michelle" worked at the T.H.E. Clinic.

12. When Dr. Butler twice reported to police that prescription pads were stolen, he did not, on either occasion, allege that the theft was part of a burglary or break-in. When prescription pads were stolen, Dr. Butler and the T.H.E. Clinic staff physicians considered whether a staff employee may have taken them. As a result, the clinic had to develop new internal protocols for securing and storing prescription pads. The sum of the evidence indicates that dishonest acts regarding prescribing were likely committed by a person or persons working at the T.H.E. Clinic.

13. Fraudulent prescriptions would be of no value to their purveyors unless they were filled. A staff person willing to steal prescription pads likely would also be willing to arrange for the false prescriptions to be verified as they were called in. This would account for Respondent Pharmacy's two pharmacy technicians' claims that they received repeated phone verifications from two clinic employees who were using names otherwise unknown to the clinic's staff. Because the technicians' testimony was credible while at the same time, the evidence established that the verifications issuing from the T.H.E. Clinic were false, it may be inferred from the totality of circumstances that two persons within the T.H.E. Clinic were providing verifications using assumed names.

14. Respondent Pharmacy's prescription records contained no notations that verifications were obtained for approximately 42 of the questionable prescriptions. Respondent Madievsky's testimony that all of the questionable prescriptions would have been verified was unpersuasive. Respondent Madievsky had no direct recollection of verifying any particular prescriptions, but had to rely on pharmacy records. If the records of these prescriptions contained no information about verifications, Respondent was speculating that verifications had been secured.

Failure to Produce Six Original Prescriptions

15. During her investigation, Ms. Bayley requested that Respondent Pharmacy produce numerous original prescriptions. Respondent Pharmacy and Respondent Madievsky cooperated with the Board's investigation. They produced 303 prescriptions as requested, but failed to produce six requested prescriptions as follows: prescription (Rx) no. 1559731; Rx no. 1559732; Rx no. 1566999; Rx no. 1567000; Rx no. 1555690; and Rx no. 1555691. Ms. Bayley noted the missing prescriptions and sent a letter to Respondent Madievsky requesting that they be forwarded to her. (Exhibit 14.) Respondent Madievsky does not recall ever seeing the letter and assumes that it was not delivered through the mail. When she read the allegations in the Accusation, she searched for and readily located the six missing prescriptions, which were stored in the correct places but had "stuck" (i.e., clung) to the backs of other prescriptions. Respondent Madievsky credibly attributed the pharmacy's failure to produce these six prescriptions to an honest mistake.

Mitigation, Rehabilitation, and Findings Pertinent to Discipline

16(a). Respondent Madievsky was a candid witness. She conceded the many irregularities that the Board's investigator noted in the prescriptions and agreed with Ms. Bayley's expert opinion that a pharmacist must, in the exercise of her professional judgment, verify any such questionable or suspect prescriptions. She admitted that she, not her pharmacy technicians, should have been the one to contact Dr. Butler, but she had failed to do so. She cooperated with the Board's investigation. As a result of this case, she has changed the way she scrutinizes prescriptions. For example, she did not know before that Phenergan with Codeine was an abused "street drug," so she is more skeptical of such prescriptions, particularly if they appear irregular. The CURES system was not available until June 2011, which is after the fraudulent prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name were filled, but since June 2011 she has used the CURES system daily. She inputs patient names to determine whether a patient is drug-seeking or "doctor shopping," or when a patient without a serious condition has a prescription for addictive drugs. If a prescribing physician is new to the pharmacy, she calls the physician herself to verify the prescription. If a patient is new and the prescription contains any irregularities, she calls the prescribing physician herself to verify the prescription. If a regular patient has a new prescription with irregularities, she calls the physician herself to verify the prescription.

16(b). In closing argument, Complainant cast Respondent Madievsky as "not a credible witness" and "not truthful in her testimony." As a prime example of this alleged lack of veracity, Complainant noted that when Respondent Madievsky was asked if she or Respondent Pharmacy had been disciplined before, Respondent Madievsky said they had not. According to Complainant, this testimony was false because in 2008, the Board issued citations to both respondents.

16(c). Complainant's claim that Respondent Madievsky was not credible or truthful regarding a prior disciplinary history is misinformed. Official notice is taken that Business and Professions Code section 125.9, which authorizes the Board to establish a system for issuing citations and fines to licensees, and California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1775, which provides a basic framework for such citations, do not treat citations and fines as disciplinable offenses. In fact, Business and Professions Code section 125.9, subdivision (b)(4), provides that upon a citation or fine's assessment and issuance, "payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged." Furthermore, page 1 of Complainant's own Investigation Report sets forth a substantial list of vital information regarding both respondents. In that list, the Citations issued to Respondent Pharmacy and Respondent Madievsky on March 27, 2008 are described. Also listed for both respondents is the notation: "Prior Discipline: None." (Exhibit 4.) The evidence showed that when Respondent Madievsky stated she had no prior discipline, she was testifying truthfully.

17. Respondent Madievsky has had problems before contacting physicians by telephone to verify prescriptions and admitted that sometimes, when she was deterred from speaking with the physician, she would settle for talking with a medical staff person. Respondent now insists on speaking with the prescribing physician if the situation requires the physician's input and verification.

18. Respondent Madievsky had repeated opportunities to place the onus on her two pharmacy technicians for not correctly verifying the fraudulent prescriptions, yet she refused to deflect the blame onto others. Instead, she took responsibility for failing to properly verify the prescriptions herself, estimating that she saw 90 percent of the prescriptions as they came in to be filled.

19(a). Irina Gelman, a friend and customer of Respondent Madievsky's for 20 years, submitted a character reference letter in which she described Respondent Madievsky as an honest, caring and dedicated pharmacist. Roger Salah, R.Ph., a registered pharmacist in California since 1964, submitted a character reference letter which described Respondent Madievsky as ethical, honest, caring, knowledgeable and devoted to the practice of pharmacy. Elaine Bleiden, R.Ph., a registered pharmacist who has known and worked with Respondent Madievsky since 1996, submitted a character reference letter describing her as a hardworking, knowledgeable pharmacist who is also a dedicated "patient advocate" when it comes to ensuring their good health. Thang Nguyen, M.D., a physician who has worked with Respondent Madievsky for 13 years, complimented her professional expertise, knowledge and excellent service to his patients.

19(b). All of these letter writers stated that they were aware of the allegations brought against Respondent Madievsky in the pending Accusation.

Costs

20. The Board incurred enforcement costs, in the form of Attorney General fees, in the amount of $9,420. The Board incurred its own costs for investigation in the amount of $12,822. A portion of these costs were not reasonably incurred as follows.

21. The Attorney General's Matter Time Activity report, which details its costs in increments of one-quarter hour and describes each corresponding task performed, reflects that 19.25 hours of Deputy Attorney General time was billed at a rate of $170 per hour for "witness-related preparation." The total cost of this activity is $3,272.50. Ms. Bayley's declaration for the Board reflects 22 hours spent on hearing preparation "which included case file review and witness preparation with the Attorney General's Office." Ms. Bayley's billing rate for these costs appears to be $120 per hour, which would make the total cost of this activity $2,640. In sum, the combined Attorney General and Board billable hours spent on these activities was 41.25 hours, for a total of $5,912.50 in costs incurred.

22. The Board called only two witnesses at the hearing. Its first witness, Dr. Butler, testified for approximately two hours. Its second witness, Ms. Bayley, testified for approximately two and one-half hours. Both witnesses' testimony was straightforward, mostly uncontroversial, and hewed to the allegations set forth in the Accusation. There was no indication that either witness would have required lengthy or elaborate preparation to testify.

23. As a result, the Attorney General's 19.25 hours of witness preparation is disproportionate to the actual four and one-half hours of total witness testimony rendered. A more reasonable amount of preparation would be four hours per witness. Therefore, a reasonable total for Attorney General witness preparation costs is eight hours, or $1,360.20. In the same vein, Ms. Bayley's total of 22 hours of hearing and witness preparation is disproportionate to the two and one-half hours of testimony she provided at the hearing. Her billings included case file review, which in this case, could be reasonably estimated at three hours. A more reasonable amount of witness preparation for her actual testimony would be four hours. Therefore, a reasonable total for Ms. Bayley's hearing preparation, including file review and witness preparation, would be seven hours, or $840.

24. All other Attorney General enforcement costs are reasonable. Pursuant to Factual Findings 20 through 23, the Attorney General's reasonable costs are reduced to $7,508.

25. All other Board investigation costs are reasonable. Pursuant to Factual Findings 20 through 23, the Board's reasonable costs are reduced to $11,022. (These costs, when combined with the Attorney Generals reasonable costs, total $18,530.)

LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

1. The practice of pharmacy, like the practice of medicine, is a profession. Vermont & 110th Medical Arts Pharmacy v. Board of Pharmacy (1981) 125 Cal.App.3d 19, 25. The standard of proof in an administrative disciplinary action seeking the suspension or revocation of a professional license is "clear and convincing evidence." Ettinger v. Board of Medical Quality Assurance (1982) 135 Cal.App.3d 853, 856. The key element of "clear and convincing evidence" is that it must establish a high probability of the existence of the disputed fact, greater than proof by a preponderance of the evidence. Evidence of a charge is clear and convincing so long as there is a "high probability" that the charge is true. People v. Mabini (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 654, 662. The Board met its burden of proving its case by clear and convincing evidence.

2. Cause exists to discipline Respondent Pharmacy's Permit Number PHY 45340 and Respondent Madievsky's pharmacist license number RPH 48684 under Business and Professions Code section 4301, subdivision (o), for committing unprofessional conduct by violating or assisting in or abetting the violation of state law governing pharmacy, to wit, California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1761, subdivision (a), by dispensing prescriptions which contained significant errors, omissions, irregularity, uncertainty, or alteration, while failing to contact the prescriber to obtain the information needed to validate the prescriptions. (Factual Findings 4 through 13.)

3. Cause exists to discipline Respondent Pharmacy's Permit Number PHY 45340 and Respondent Madievsky's pharmacist license number RPH 48684 under Business and Professions Code section 4301, subdivision (o), for committing unprofessional conduct by violating or assisting in or abetting the violation of state law governing pharmacy, to wit, Business and Professions Code section 4333, by failing to maintain prescription records available for inspection by authorized officers of the law in a board-licensed facility for a period of three years. (Factual Findings 4 through 9, and 14.)

Analysis to Determine Penalty

4. The Board's Disciplinary Guidelines state that in determining whether the minimum, maximum, or an intermediate penalty is to be imposed in a given case, the following applicable factors should be considered (each factor is accompanied by a corresponding analysis):

1. Actual or potential harm to the public. No actual harm to the public was alleged. The potential harm to the public is that false or fraudulent prescriptions, by their nature, promote the misuse or abuse of drugs.

2. Actual or potential harm to any consumer. No actual harm to a consumer was alleged. The potential harm to the public is that false or fraudulent prescriptions, by their nature, promote the misuse or abuse of drugs.

3. Prior disciplinary record, including level of compliance with disciplinary order(s). Neither respondent has a prior disciplinary record.

4. Prior warning(s), including but not limited to citation(s) and fine(s), letter(s) of admonishment, and/or correction notice(s). On March 27, 2008, Respondent Pharmacy was issued Citation and Fine no. CI 2006 32919, and Respondent Madievsy was issued Citation and Fine no. CI 2007 35451. Both citations and fines were in the amount of $2,500, and were issued pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 4301, subdivision (o), 4301, subdivision (q), 4801, 4332, and 4061.

5. Number and/or variety of current violations. The failure to verify false or fraudulent prescriptions was repeated misconduct that occurred over a 10-month period. The only other violation, for failure to produce six original prescriptions, was unrelated to the prescribing violations, as it concerned compliance with the Board's investigation.

6. Nature and severity of the act(s), offense(s) or crime(s) under consideration. By her failure to recognize the irregularities in the many false prescriptions presented to Respondent Pharmacy, Respondent Madievsky neglected a critically important function of a pharmacist, which is to exercise her professional judgment when necessary. Due to the high volume of false prescriptions that resulted, the offense is serious. By contrast, the failure to produce six original prescriptions for inspection at the Board's request appears to have been inadvertent. Considering that over 300 requested prescriptions were produced as part of the inspection, that offense is de minimis.

7. Aggravating evidence. The evidence did not give rise to aggravating circumstances.

8. Mitigating evidence. Four people, including two pharmacists and a physician, submitted letters attesting to Respondent's good character.

9. Rehabilitation evidence. Respondent Madievsky ceased issuing any more false prescriptions in Dr. Butler's name after Dr. Butler made her aware of the problem. Respondent Madievsky cooperated with the Board's investigation. Respondent Madievsky's failure to supply the Board with six original prescriptions was a de minimus violation. Respondent Madievsky took responsibility for her misconduct and described the steps she has taken to heighten her vigilance in scrutinizing potentially false prescriptions and possible drug-seeking patients. Those steps include her frequent utilization of prescribing histories within the CURES system as a reference point in assessing the validity of prescriptions, and her commitment to speak directly with prescribing physicians to obtain verifications.

13. Time passed since the act(s) or offense(s). The misconduct occurred between four and five years ago.

14. Whether the conduct was intentional or negligent, demonstrated incompetence, or, if the respondent is being held to account for conduct committed by another, the respondent had knowledge of or knowingly participated in such conduct. Respondent Madievsky's conduct was negligent in that she was responsible for ensuring the legitimacy and correctness of the prescriptions her pharmacy was filling, yet she repeatedly failed to fulfill her responsibilities.

15. Financial benefit to the respondent from the misconduct. No evidence was presented regarding the potential or actual financial benefit to the Respondent Pharmacy for filling the prescriptions in question, but due to the high volume of prescriptions, at least some financial benefit to Respondent Pharmacy was likely realized.

5. Considering all of these factors, Respondent Pharmacy and Respondent Madievsky committed serious misconduct due to the volume of false prescriptions that were wrongly verified and issued. Respondent Madievsky's culpability was attenuated, however, by her insight into her misconduct, her willingness to take responsibility, her cooperation with the Board, and her efforts to rehabilitate herself and her pharmacy's practices. In sum, she appears to be a good candidate for probation. The following order will best achieve the purpose of public protection.

ORDER

Pharmacy Permit Number PHY 45340, issued to D & R Pharmacy, Inc., doing business as Pico Union Pharmacy, and Pharmacist License Number RPH 48684, issued to Respondent Dana Madievsky, are hereby revoked. However, the revocation is stayed and Respondents are placed on probation for four years upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Obey All Laws

Respondents shall obey all state and federal laws and regulations. Respondent Madievsky shall report any of the following occurrences to the board, in writing, within 72 hours of such occurrence: an arrest or issuance of a criminal complaint for violation of any provision of the Pharmacy Law, state and federal food and drug laws, or state and federal controlled substances laws; a plea of guilty or nolo contendre in any state or federal criminal proceeding to any criminal complaint, information or indictment; a conviction of any crime; discipline, citation, or other administrative action filed by any state or federal agency which involves respondent's registered pharmacist license or which is related to the practice of pharmacy or the manufacturing, obtaining, handling, distributing, billing, or charging for any drug, device or controlled substance. Failure to timely report such occurrence shall be considered a violation of probation.

2. Report to the Board

Respondent Madievsky shall report to the board quarterly, on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. The report shall be made either in person or in writing, as directed. Among other requirements, Respondent Madievsky shall state in each report under penalty of perjury whether there has been compliance with all the terms and conditions of probation. Failure to submit timely reports in a form as directed shall be considered a violation of probation. Any period(s) of delinquency in submission of reports as directed may be added to the total period of probation. Moreover, if the final probation report is not made as directed, probation shall be automatically extended until such time as the final report is made and accepted by the board.

3. Interview with the Board

Upon receipt of reasonable prior notice, Respondent Madievsky shall appear in person for interviews with the board or its designee, at such intervals and locations as are determined by the board or its designee. Failure to appear for any scheduled interview without prior notification to board staff, or failure to appear for two (2) or more scheduled interviews with the board or its designee during the period of probation, shall be considered a violation of probation.

4. Cooperate with Board Staff

Respondents shall cooperate with the board's inspection program and with the board's monitoring and investigation of Respondent Madievsky's compliance with the terms and conditions of her probation. Failure to cooperate shall be considered a violation of probation.

5. Continuing Education

Respondent Madievsky shall provide evidence of her efforts to maintain skill and knowledge as a pharmacist as directed by the board or its designee.

6. Notice to Employers

During the period of probation, only where applicable, Respondent Madievsky shall notify all present and prospective employers of the decision in case number 5059 and the terms, conditions and restrictions imposed on Respondents by the decision, as follows:

Within 30 days of the effective date of this decision, and within 15 days of Respondent Madievsky undertaking any new employment, in that event only Respondent Madievsky shall cause her direct supervisor, pharmacist-in-charge (including each new pharmacist-in-charge employed during Respondent Madievsky's tenure of employment) and owner to report to the board in writing acknowledging that the listed individual(s) has/have read the decision in case number 5059, and terms and conditions imposed thereby. It shall be Respondent Madievsky's responsibility to ensure that her employer(s) and/or supervisor(s) submit timely acknowledgment(s) to the board.

If Respondent Madievsky should work for or become employed by or through a pharmacy employment service, she must notify her direct supervisor, pharmacist-in-charge, and owner at every entity licensed by the board of the terms and conditions of the decision in case number 5059 in advance of Respondent commencing work at each licensed entity. A record of this notification must be provided to the board upon request.

Furthermore, within 30 days of the effective date of this decision, and within 15 days of Respondent Madievsky undertaking any new employment by or through a pharmacy employment service, in that event Respondent Madievsky shall cause her direct supervisor with the pharmacy employment service to report to the board in writing acknowledging that he or she has read the decision in case number 5059 and the terms and conditions imposed thereby. It shall be Respondent Madievsky's responsibility to ensure that her employer(s) and/or supervisor(s) submit timely acknowledgment(s) to the board.

Failure to timely notify present or prospective employer(s) or to cause that/those employer(s) to submit timely acknowledgments to the board shall be considered a violation of probation.

"Employment" within the meaning of this provision shall include any full-time, part-time, temporary, relief or pharmacy management service as a pharmacist or any position for which a pharmacist license is a requirement or criterion for employment, whether the respondent is an employee, independent contractor or volunteer.

7. No Supervision of Interns

During the period of probation, Respondent Madievsky shall not supervise any intern pharmacist. Assumption of any such unauthorized supervision responsibilities shall be considered a violation of probation.

8. Reimbursement of Board Costs

As a condition precedent to successful completion of probation, Respondents shall pay to the board its costs of investigation and prosecution in the amount of $18,530. It is within the board's discretion to establish a reasonable monthly or quarterly repayment plan with Respondents.

There shall be no deviation from the repayment schedule the board establishes absent prior written approval by the board or its designee. Failure to pay costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

The filing of bankruptcy by either Respondents shall not relieve them of their responsibility to reimburse the board its costs of investigation and prosecution.

9. Probation Monitoring Costs

Respondents shall pay any costs associated with probation monitoring as determined by the board each and every year of probation. Such costs shall be payable to the board on a schedule as directed by the board or its designee. Failure to pay such costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

10. Status of Licenses

Respondents shall, at all times while on probation, maintain active, current licenses with the board, including any period during which suspension or probation is tolled. Failure to maintain an active, current license shall be considered a violation of probation.

If Respondents' licenses expire or are cancelled by operation of law or otherwise at any time during the period of probation, including any extensions thereof due to tolling or otherwise, upon renewal or reapplication respondents' licenses shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this probation not previously satisfied.

11. License Surrender While on Probation/Suspension

Following the effective date of this decision, should Respondent Madievsky cease practice due to retirement or health, or be otherwise unable to satisfy the terms and conditions of probation, Respondent Madievsky may tender her license to the board for surrender. The board or its designee shall have the discretion whether to grant the request for surrender or take any other action it deems appropriate and reasonable. Upon formal acceptance of the surrender of the license, Respondent Madievsky will no longer be subject to the terms and conditions of probation. This surrender constitutes a record of discipline and shall become a part of the Respondent Madievsky's license history with the board.

Upon acceptance of the surrender, Respondent Madievsky shall relinquish her pocket and wall license to the board within 10 days of notification by the board that the surrender is accepted. Respondent Madievsky may not reapply for any license from the board for 3 years from the effective date of the surrender. Respondent Madievsky shall meet all requirements applicable to the license sought as of the date the application for that license is submitted to the board, including any outstanding costs.

12. Notification of a Change in Name, Residence Address, Mailing Address or Employment

Respondent Madievsky shall notify the board in writing within 10 days of any change of employment. Said notification shall include the reasons for leaving, the address of the new employer, the name of the supervisor and owner, and the work schedule if known. Respondent Madievsky shall further notify the board in writing within 10 days of a change in name, residence address, mailing address, or phone number.

Failure to timely notify the board of any change in employer(s), name(s), address(es), or phone number(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

13. Tolling of Probation

Except during periods of suspension, Respondent Madievsky shall, at all times while on probation, be employed as a pharmacist in California for a minimum of 120 hours per calendar month. Any month during which this minimum is not met shall toll the period of probation, i.e., the period of probation shall be extended by one month for each month during which this minimum is not met. During any such period of tolling of probation, Respondent Madievsky must nonetheless comply with all terms and conditions of probation.

Should Respondent Madievsky, regardless of residency, for any reason (including vacation) cease practicing as a pharmacist for a minimum of 120 hours per calendar month in California, Respondent must notify the board in writing within 10 days of the cessation of practice, and must further notify the board in writing within 10 days of the resumption of practice. Any failure to provide such notification(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

It is a violation of probation for Respondent Madievsky's probation to remain tolled pursuant to the provisions of this condition for a total period, counting consecutive and non-consecutive months, exceeding 48 months.

"Cessation of practice" means any calendar month during which respondent is not practicing as a pharmacist for at least 120 hours, as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq . "Resumption of practice" means any calendar month during which Respondent Madievsky is practicing as a pharmacist for at least 120 hours as a pharmacist as defined by Business and Professions Code section 4000 et seq.

14. Violation of Probation

If a Respondents have not complied with any term or condition of probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction over Respondents, and probation shall automatically be extended, until all terms and conditions have been satisfied or the board has taken other action as deemed appropriate to treat the failure to comply as a violation of probation, to terminate probation, and to impose the penalty that was stayed.

If Respondents violate probation in any respect, the board, after giving Respondent notice and an opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. Notice and opportunity to be heard are not required for those provisions stating that a violation thereof may lead to automatic termination of the stay and/or revocation of the license. If a petition to revoke probation or an accusation is filed against either Respondent during probation, the board shall have continuing jurisdiction and the period of probation shall be automatically extended until the petition to revoke probation or accusation is heard and decided.

15. Pharmacy Self-Assessment Mechanism

Within the first year of probation, Respondent Madievsky shall complete the Pharmacist Self-Assessment Mechanism (PSAM) examination provided by the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP). Respondent Madievsky shall submit a record of completion to the board demonstrating she has completed this examination. Respondent Madievsky shall bear all costs for the examination. Continuing education hours received for this examination shall not be used as part of the required continuing education hours for renewal purposes.

Failure to timely complete the PSAM or submit documentation thereof shall be considered a violation of probation.

Respondent Madievsky shall waive any rights to confidentiality and provide examination results to the board or its designee.

16. No New Ownership of Licensed Premises

Respondent Madievsky shall not acquire any new ownership, legal or beneficial interest nor serve as a manager, administrator, member, officer, director, trustee, associate, or partner of any business, firm, partnership, or corporation licensed by the board in addition to, or other than, Respondent Pharmacy. If Respondent Madievsky currently owns or has any legal or beneficial interest in, or serves as a manager, administrator, member, officer, director, trustee, associate, or partner of any business, firm, partnership, or corporation currently or hereinafter licensed by the board, respondent may continue to serve in such capacity or hold that interest, but only to the extent of that position or interest as of the effective date of this decision. Violation of this restriction shall be considered a violation of probation.

17. Separate File of Records (For pharmacist owners and pharmacists-in-charge)

Respondents shall maintain and make available for inspection a separate file of all records pertaining to the acquisition or disposition of all controlled substances. Failure to maintain such file or make it available for inspection shall be considered a violation of probation.

18. Report of Controlled Substances (For pharmacist owners and pharmacists-in-charge)

Respondent Madievsky shall submit quarterly reports to the board detailing the total acquisition and disposition of such controlled substances as the board may direct. Respondent Madievsky shall specify the manner of disposition (e.g., by prescription, due to burglary, etc.) or acquisition (e.g., from a manufacturer, from another retailer, etc.) of such controlled substances. Respondent Madievsky shall report on a quarterly basis or as directed by the board. The report shall be delivered or mailed to the board no later than 10 days following the end of the reporting period. Failure to timely prepare or submit such reports shall be considered a violation of probation.

19. Ethics Course

Within 60 calendar days of the effective date of this decision, Respondent Madievsky shall enroll in a course in ethics, at Respondent Madievsky's expense, approved in advance by the board or its designee. Failure to initiate the course during the first year of probation, and complete it within the second year of probation, is a violation of probation.

Respondent Madievsky shall submit a certificate of completion to the board or its designee within five days after completing the course.

19. Phenergan/Codeine, the brand name for Promethazine with Codeine Syrup is a Schedule V controlled substance under Health and Safety Code section 11058 and is a dangerous drug pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 4022.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

20. At all times mentioned herein and since August 28, 2001, Dana Madievsky (Respondent) has been the President and Pharmacist-in-Charge (PIC) of D & R Pharmacy, Inc., dba Pico Union Pharmacy (Respondent) located in Los Angeles, California.

21. From August 1, 2010 to June 10, 2011, Respondents dispensed 596 fraudulent prescriptions to patients allegedly written by Dr. D.B. Of the 596 fraudulent prescriptions, 16 prescriptions were for hydrodcodone products, 290 prescriptions were for Phenergan with Codeine, and 290 prescriptions were for antibiotics (Keflex 500 mg, Bactrim DS, and Amoxicillin 500 mg). All of the hydrocodone prescriptions (Lortab 10/500 mg and Norco 10/325 mg) were dispensed with the same directions to take one tablet every six to eight hours and in the same total quantity of one hundred tablets. All of the 290 prescriptions for Phenergan with Codeine showed the same directions (take 1 teaspoon every six to eight hours) and the same total quantity (1 pint) and were prescribed on the same prescription document as the antibiotic. All of the prescriptions for antibiotics showed the same total quantity (10 capsules).

22. Dr. D.B. did not write or authorize any of the fraudulent prescriptions. None of the patients who were dispensed fraudulent prescriptions were patients of Dr. D.B. or were patients at the clinic where Dr. D.B. worked. Respondents never contacted Dr. D.B. or the clinic to verify the fraudulent prescriptions prior to dispensing the drugs to patients.

23. During the Board of Pharmacy's investigation, copies of the original fraudulent prescriptions were obtained from Respondents. The majority of the prescriptions were noted by Respondents as "verified with Michelle and Akisha" on the back of the prescription documents. However, nobody by the name "Michelle" or "Akisha" were employed by Dr. D.B. or the clinic where Dr. D.B. worked. Dr. D.B. confirmed that the clinic would not verify these prescriptions because the clinic never saw those patients.

24. Respondents were also unable to produce the original prescriptions for the following six prescriptions that were dispensed: RX No. 1559731 for Bactrim dispensed to D.J.; RX No. 1559732 for Phenergan with Codeine dispensed to D.J.; RX No. 1566999 for Phenergan with Codeine dispensed to B.A.; RX No. 1567000 for Bactrim dispensed to B.A.; RX No. 1555690 for Phenergan with Codeine dispensed to S.M.; and RX No. 1555691 for Bactrim dispensed to S.M.

FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Dispensing Erroneous, Irregular, Uncertain, or Altered Prescriptions)

25. Respondents are subject to disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct under Code section 4301, subdivision (o), for violation of California Code of Regulations section 1761(a) for dispensing prescriptions which contained significant errors, omissions, irregularities, uncertainties, ambiguities or alterations, and failing to verify the prescriptions with the prescriber, as set forth in paragraphs 20 through 24, which are incorporated herein by reference.

SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Maintain Prescription Records)

26. Respondents are subject to disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct under Code section 4301, subdivision (o), for violation of Code section 4333 failing to maintain prescription records, as set forth in paragraphs 20 through 24, which are incorporated herein by reference.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged, and that following the hearing, the Board of Pharmacy issue a decision:

1. Revoking or suspending Permit Number 45340, issued to D & R Pharmacy, Inc., dba Pico Union Pharmacy;

2. Revoking or suspending Pharmacist License Number RPH 48684, issued to Dana Madievsky;

3. Ordering Respondents to pay the Board of Pharmacy the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of this case, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 125.3;

4. Taking such other and further action as deemed necessary and proper.

Case No. 2020-6471

STIPULATION AND FINAL AGENCY ORDER

IN THE MATTER OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS REGARDING THE IN-STATE PRESCRIPTION DRUG OUTLET REGISTRATION IN THE STATE OF COLORADO OF AMERITA, INC., REGISTRATION NO. PDO 401, Respondent Pharmacy.

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the Colorado State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") and Amerita, Inc. ("Respondent Pharmacy") to resolve all matters pertaining to Board Case Number 2020-6471, as follows:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

1. The Board has jurisdiction over Respondent Pharmacy, its registration as an in-state prescription drug outlet, and the subject matter of this Stipulation and Final Agency Order ("Final Agency Order") pursuant to provisions of the Pharmacists, Pharmacy Businesses, and Pharmaceuticals Act at Title 12, Article 280, C.R.S. (2019).

2. Respondent Pharmacy was originally registered in the State of Colorado on or about April 2, 1996, being issued registration #PDO 401 and has been so registered at all times relevant to this disciplinary action.

3. Respondent Pharmacy's address of record with the Board and current location is 7307 S. Revere Pkwy, Unit 200, Centennial, Colorado.

4. Respondent Pharmacy admits these findings and hereby waives any further proof in this or any other proceeding before the Board regarding the following facts.

5. In an inspection of Respondent Pharmacy conducted on September 29, 2020, a Board inspector found one (1) repeated deficiency, over three (3) inspections on September 29, 2020, November 15, 2019, and December 3, 2018.

6. The repeated deficiency involved prescription orders not filed in numerical sequence.

7. Respondent Pharmacy admits that its conduct, as set forth above, constitutes violations of the following sections of the Colorado Revised Statutes and Board Rules and provides grounds for disciplinary action against Respondent Pharmacy's Colorado registration as a prescription drug outlet:

Colorado Revised Statutes

12-280-126. Unprofessional conduct - grounds for discipline.

(1) The board may take disciplinary or other action as authorized in section 12-20-404, after a hearing held in accordance with the provisions of sections 12-20-403 and 12-280-127, upon proof that the licensee or registrant:

(c) Has violated:

(II) The lawful rules of the board.

12-280-127. Disciplinary actions. (1) The board may take disciplinary or other action as authorized in section 12-20-404 when the board determines that the applicant, licensee, or registrant has engaged in activities that are grounds for discipline under section 12-280-126.

Pharmacy Board Rules and Regulations

11.04.10. Records and Recordkeeping.
A hard copy of every prescription order shall be readily retrievable, legible, and available for inspection for a period of two years from the date of any transaction relating to such prescription order unless the prescription drug outlet has received written Board approval to not retain the original prescription order for non-controlled substance prescription drugs and Schedule II, III, IV, and V controlled substances. Prescription orders will be deemed to be readily retrievable, legible, and available if they are filed according to the numerical sequence of the serial numbers assigned pursuant to Rule 2.01.10, and are easily readable without the aid of any special device. If Board-approval for the electronic maintenance of prescription orders is granted, the affected prescription drug outlet shall maintain all hard copy controlled substance prescription orders in accordance with section 12-280-134(1)(a), C.R.S., Rules 11.01.00 and 11.02.00(a)(3) and (4), and Title 21 CFR 1304.04. In addition to being filed in numerical sequence, three different prescription files shall be maintained: one file shall consist only of Schedule II controlled substance prescription orders; the second file shall consist only of Schedule III, IV and V controlled substance prescription orders; and the third file shall consist of all non-controlled substance prescription drug prescription orders. Filing of prescription orders in any manner other than by numerical sequence will result in such prescription orders being deemed not readily retrievable and available. A hard copy of every LTCF chart order shall be readily retrievable and available for inspection for a period of two years from the date of any transaction relating to such order. The LTCF chart orders will be deemed to be readily retrievable and available if they are filed according to the date of dispensing. LTCF chart orders for Schedule III, IV, and V controlled substances shall be readily identifiable from non-controlled substance prescription drug LTCF chart orders. Schedule II controlled substance LTCF chart orders shall be retained separately from all other LTCF chart orders.

If a prescription drug outlet utilizes both prescription orders and chart orders, assigning serial numbers to both with the same computer system, the orders must be filed sequentially by serial number.

8. The Board finds and concludes, and Respondent Pharmacy agrees, that based upon Respondent Pharmacy's above-described violations of the Pharmacists, Pharmacy Businesses, and Pharmaceuticals Act and relevant rules and regulations, the following discipline is just and appropriate under the circumstances.

DISPOSITION

9. Fine with Surcharge. Pursuant to section 12-280-127(5)(a), C.R.S., Respondent Pharmacy shall pay a fine of Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($500.00). Respondent Pharmacy understands and acknowledges that, pursuant to section 24-34-108, C.R.S., the Executive Director of the Department of Regulatory Agencies may impose an additional surcharge of 15% of this fine. Respondent Pharmacy shall therefore pay a total amount of Five Hundred Seventy Five Dollars and No Cents ($575.00). The total amount shall be payable to the State of Colorado and shall be remitted in one lump sum to be included when Respondent Pharmacy submits this signed Final Agency Order to the Board.

10. Other Requirements. Through its undersigned Authorized Representative, Respondent Pharmacy acknowledges and agrees that, as a condition of this Final Agency Order and probation, Respondent Pharmacy shall:

    a. promptly pay all its own fees and costs associated with this Final Agency Order;

11. Violations. Time is of the essence to this Final Agency Order. It is the responsibility of Respondent Pharmacy to take all appropriate steps to comply fully with this Final Agency Order. Respondent Pharmacy acknowledges and agrees that any violation of this Final Agency Order shall constitute a willful violation of a lawful Board order, may be sanctioned as provided under section 12-280-127(4), C.R.S., and may be sufficient grounds for additional discipline, including but not limited to revocation of its registration. The pendency of any suspension or disciplinary action arising out of an alleged violation of this Final Agency Order shall not affect the obligation of Respondent Pharmacy to comply with all terms and conditions of this Final Agency Order.

12. Advisements and Waivers. Through its undersigned Authorized Representative, Respondent Pharmacy enters into this Final Agency Order freely and voluntarily, after having the opportunity to consult with legal counsel and/or choosing not to do so.     d. To appeal this Board order.

    Respondent Pharmacy freely waives these rights, and acknowledges that such waiver is made voluntarily in consideration for Board's limiting the action taken against it to the sanctions imposed herein.

13. Acknowledgments. The undersigned Authorized Representative of Respondent Pharmacy has read this Final Agency Order in its entirety and acknowledges, after having the opportunity to consult with legal counsel and/or choosing not to do so, that Respondent Pharmacy understands the legal consequences and agrees that none of the terms or conditions herein is unconscionable. Respondent Pharmacy is not relying on any statements, promises or representations from the Board other than as may be contained in this Final Agency Order. Respondent Pharmacy further acknowledges that it is not entering into this Final Agency Order under any duress.

14. Integration and Severability. Upon execution by all parties, this Final Agency Order shall represent the entire and final agreement of and between the parties in this case. In the event any provision of this Final Agency Order is deemed invalid or unenforceable by a court of law, it shall be severed and the remaining provisions of this Final Agency Order shall be given full force and effect.

15. Public Record. Upon execution by all parties, this Final Agency Order shall be a public record, maintained in the custody of the Board.

16. Effective Date. This Final Agency Order shall become effective upon (a) mailing by first-class mail to Respondent Pharmacy at Respondent Pharmacy's address of record with the Board, or (b) service by electronic means on Respondent Pharmacy at Respondent Pharmacy's electronic address of record. Respondent Pharmacy hereby consents to service by electronic means if Respondent Pharmacy has an electronic address on file with the Board.

9. Compliance with PDMP. At all times Respondent Pharmacy is registered with the Colorado State Board of Pharmacy, it shall comply with the data submission requirements of the PDMP. Respondent Pharmacy understands and acknowledges that future violations of PDMP reporting requirements, including failure to submit a "zero" report in the event of no dispensing transactions in Colorado during the relevant reporting period, shall lead to additional penalties pursuant to Board Policy 30-8.

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPLAINT AGAINST:	)

AGREED FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND FINAL ORDER

This matter came for hearing on March 29, 2017, before the Oklahoma State Board of Pharmacy ("Board"). Board members St. Cyr, Dudley, Spoon, Wilson, Adams, and Whitehead were present. President Wilson presided. Brinda K. White, Assistant Attorney General, served as prosecutor for the Board. Respondent appeared and was represented by legal counsel.

The Complaint in this matter is incorporated by reference into this Order.

The Board and Respondent hereby agree to the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Final Order. Respondent has been advised of its right to contest the allegations against it, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present witnesses and evidence in its own defense. Respondent hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives these rights. In addition, Respondent understands and acknowledges that this document is a public record that must be provided to anyone requesting it.

Should this Order not be accepted by the Board, Respondent agrees that neither the presentation of the Order to the Board nor the Board's consideration of the Order will be deemed to have unfairly or illegally prejudiced the Board or its individual members and, therefore, will not be grounds for precluding the Board or any individual member of the Board from further participating in proceedings related to the matters set forth in the Order.

AGREED FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent is a licensed pharmacy in the State of Oklahoma located at 12515 E. 55th St., Ste. 101, Tulsa, OK. Prior to October 13, 2016, Respondent did business as Saffa Infusion Pharmacy (2-6734).

2. Respondent is a retail pharmacy that compounds sterile IV medications for hospital and home health patients. Respondent does low and medium risk sterile compounding per USP<797> guidelines. Since September 26, 2016, Cindy Leonard, D.Ph. #15141, has been the pharmacist-in-charge of Respondent. Pascaline Nwokoma, D.Ph. #16869, is Respondent's General Manager.

3. On December 9, 2016, Senior Compliance Officer Betty J. Beil, Compliance Officer Chelsea Church and Compliance Officer Marty Hendrick conducted an investigation and inspection of Respondent. The investigation was initiated as a result of a complaint received by the Board that a faulty total parenteral nutrition ("TPN") bag had been delivered by Respondent to a Cancer Treatment Center of America ("CTCA") patient, FP Jr.

4. On or about September 26, 2016, Respondent made seven (7) TPNs for patient FP Jr. Respondent stored these TPNs in its refrigerator until delivery. When preparing the TPNs for delivery, one box appeared to have a leaking bag. The bags were inspected and the "sticky" bag was identified. According to the complaint, the leak was "taken care of" by affixing a piece of tape over the hole. The TPN was placed in a zip lock bag and a sticky note was placed on the outside saying "Use First."

5. The COs questioned D.Ph. Nwokoma about this incident and she told the COs that she had investigated the complaint and was told that the bag had had no apparent leak but was just sticky. Suzette Chapple D.Ph. #12434, the staff pharmacist on duty, had placed a piece of tape across the bag labeling it to "Use First." D.Ph. Nwokoma stated that she reprimanded Chapple, who no longer works at Respondent. Additionally D.Ph. Nwokoma contacted the patient's family and asked them not to use the TPN. D.Ph. Nwokoma arranged for pharmacy personnel to pick up the TPN from the patient and return it to the pharmacy for destruction. D.Ph. Nwokoma did not personally witness or verify the return of the damaged TPN although she was told that it had occurred.

6. At their inspection on December 9, 2016, the COs noted that Respondent has a non-classified area where compounding can be observed through windows. This area is where the finished products are passed through a window or wheeled through a cart-door opening to be checked.

7. Respondent has an ISO Class 8 ante room containing a sink, gowning supplies, a trashcan on wheels, and a step ladder. The stainless steel sink was dirty and had soap drippings all over the outside of it.

8. An ISO Class 7 buffer room is separated by glass doors. The unidirectional vertical laminar flow workbenches (four ISO Class 5 stations) are in it. One workbench contained a Baxa repeater pump. It had not been certified. One workbench contained a Baxter Exacta Mix compounder. Two of the four workbenches had a thick, plastic curtain hanging above them. The other two did not. A technician admitted to taking one of the curtains down to clean it and had not replaced it. Significant rust was accumulating on all four legs and crossbars of each workbench. Rust spots were on the floor around the legs of the workbenches. Crossbars with rust were directly in front of the HEPA-filtered, inflow vents. A stainless steel shelving unit was also in the buffer room. It held a spare computer keyboard, a plastic curtain from a workbench, weights to calibrate the compounder, and IV supplies. The legs of the shelving unit were also rusted.

9. In the ISO Class 7 buffer room, a white machine was sitting directly beside a workbench. PIC Leonard was asked what the machine was and she said that she thought that it was the computer that ran the Baxter Exacta Mix compounder. Elizabeth Vanover, Tech. #15712, explained that it was a "humidifier". Tech. Vanover had been told the week before by D.Ph. Ken Long, Director of Clinical Services, Dallas, TX, to place it in the buffer room when the humidity is low. Tech. Vanover pointed out where she had documented the humidity excursions and her actions. Her documentation showed that even after the placement of the "humidifer", humidities continued to be out of specification.

10. CO Church garbed and entered the buffer room. The pass-through from the buffer room was constructed out of Plexiglas and had a porous, foam seal around the window and door from both sides. The seals were stained and damaged. The foam inside the buffer room was actually torn and allowed air to leak around it. Roller stools were under each of the workbenches in the buffer room and one of the stools had a torn leather top with the foam cushion partially exposed. The rooms and workbenches had been certified on July 7, 2016, by Advanced 797.

11. CO Church observed Tech. Vanover clean the area. Tech. Vanover cleaned the workbenches with sterile water and followed it with 70% sterile alcohol.

12. Technicians log temperature, humidity, and pressure differentials daily for both the ante and buffer rooms. The monitoring logs show that during the entire month of December humidity excursions were lower than 25% relative. On December 2, 2016, and December 5, 2016, low humidity was documented in Respondent's "Temperature and Humidity Corrective Action Log"; unknown cause/detail was noted and the corrective action was to put a humidifier in the room and monitor. Humidity excursions were also noted for December 7, 2016 and December 9, 2016, with a follow-up to Ken Long.

13. CO Church noted that the white machine beside a workbench was a Hisense dehumidifier not a humidifier as Respondent's staff believed. A small amount of water was in the bottom of the machine. When interviewed, Tech. Vanover stated that she had wiped down the "humidifier" with sterile alcohol wipes and placed it in the buffer room. She claimed that she did not put water in the machine. CO Church had the dehumidifer removed from the buffer room.

14. Pressures were logged and differentials were calculated on a daily log. The log explains that Column A (cleanroom to anteroom) + Column B (anteroom to pharmacy prep) = Column C (>0.02" wc). For the month of December, Column C appeared out of specification. The COs discovered that the technicians had not calculated the pressure differentials correctly. No pharmacist had noted the excursions or calculation errors.

15. Respondent's Policies and Procedures stated that environmental monitoring was to occur monthly. Ntsia Sherry Yang, Tech. #15952, told the COs that the tests had not been done accurately for the last several months. The agar plates had not been placed and handled correctly. Libby Flanagan,

Tech. #14826, a technician no longer employed by Respondent, had been in charge of environmental monitoring. Tech. Flanagan had done the November monitoring and the results were negative. On further review, the months of November and December showed suboptimal temperatures of the incubator that prepared the agars. Per Respondent's policy, incubator temperatures should be 85° – 95° Fahrenheit. Due to incorrect temperatures, the environmental monitoring of November was invalid. Despite the fact that Respondent's Policies and Procedures set out the procedure for doing environmental monitoring, December's monitoring had not yet been done because the staff was unsure how the tests should be conducted. Even though the incubator had not been certified and the quality assurance for the month of November contained multiple excursions, PIC Leonard signed off on the quality assurance for November.

16. The weekly cleaning logs were up-to-date for December. Tech. Yang had already filled out cleaning information for December 27, 2016. She said that she had filled out the cleaning information and initialed the log before the cleaning had actually been done to "remind" herself that monthly cleaning was due on that day.

17. No annual FTGS or media fill tests were on file for two pharmacists on staff who routinely check compounded products or for any part-time or temporary pharmacists. No initial competency testing or annual compounding testing were noted for any temporary pharmacists. Annual training was documented in employee files. Tech. Yang acknowledged that she was the person who trained all personnel, including pharmacists. She said that she trains personnel on proper garbing, aseptic technique, and cleaning procedures.

18. On December 9, 2016, Judy Andrews, D.Ph. #11027, was on duty. No initial competency test, annual compounding training, FTGS, or media fill documentation was on file for her. Andrews was told to cease overseeing or verifying sterile compounding without the proper training documentation.

19. Respondent's Policies and Procedures were not site specific. Some of the policies were labeled as "Saffa" and others as "Amerita." Policies and procedures were not followed. When policies were last updated or reviewed is unclear.

20. On December 9, 2016, the COs directed PIC Leonard and General Manager Nwokoma to immediately make the necessary corrections to become USP<797> compliant. As of December 16, 2016, they had not made these corrections. On December 16, CO Church told PIC Leonard and D.Ph. Nwokoma that, due to the fact that an ISO Class 5 environment is not guaranteed because of the deficiencies found and notated during the inspection, all compounding becomes high risk. CO Church instructed PIC Leonard to treat all compounding as high-risk and make the BUDs correspond appropriately. All IVs were to have a BUD of ≤ (less than or equal to) 72 hours refrigerated per USP guidelines. Respondent was to implement CO Church's instructions immediately and continue to do so until Respondent was USP<797> compliant. PIC Leonard and D.Ph. Nwokoma were to report to the Board when Respondent is in compliance with USP<797>.

21. On December 16, 2016, D.Ph. Long called CO Church and assured her that actions were being taken to correct the deficiencies. CO Church again advised Respondent to follow the USP<797> guidelines for BUDs until the Board is notified and can verify Respondent's adherence to the rules.

Texas State Board of Pharmacy
"Red Flags" Checklist for Pharmacies
YOU MIGHT BE A PILL MILL IF...

	(1) Your pharmacy fills a discernable pattern of prescriptions for prescribers who write essentially the same prescriptions for numerous persons, indicating a lack of individual drug therapy
	(2) Your pharmacy operates with limited hours of operation or closes after a certain threshold of controlled substance prescriptions are dispensed, and has overall low prescription dispensing volume.
	(3) Prescriptions presented to the pharmacy are for controlled substances with popularity as street drugs, such as opiates, benzodiazepines, muscle relaxants, psychostimulants, and/or cough syrups, or any combination of these drugs.
	(4) The prescriptions for controlled substances contain nonspecific or no diagnoses.
	(5) The prescriptions are commonly for the highest strength of the drug and/or for large quantities.
	(6) Dangerous drugs or OTC products (such as multi-vitamins or laxatives) are added to the controlled substance prescriptions, maintaining relatively consistent 1:1 ratio of controlled substances to dangerous drugs and/or OTC products dispensed as prescriptions.
	(7) Prescriptions are authorized by the same prescriber with what appears to be different handwriting on the hardcopy prescription drug order forms.
	(8) Upon contact with the prescriber's office, you are unable to engage in comprehensive discussion with the actual prescriber, or he/she is unconcerned about your apprehensions regarding his/her prescribing practices or unwilling to provide additional information, such as treatment goals and/or prognosis with prescribed drug therapy.
	(9) You rely solely on the prescriber's representation, or on the representation of the individual answering the phone at the number on the prescription, that prescriptions are legitimate.
	(10) The prescriber's clinic is not registered as a pain management clinic by the Texas Medical Board, despite routinely receiving prescriptions from the prescriber foropiates, benzodiazepines, and/or muscle relaxants.
	(11) Drugs prescribed are inconsistent with the prescriber's area of practice.
	(12) The prescriber of the drugs is located a significant distance from your pharmacy.
	(13) The prescriber has been subject to disciplinary action by the licensing board, had his/her DEA registration removed, or been subject to criminal action.
	(14) The Texas PMP system indicates that persons are obtaining prescriptions for the same drugs from multiple prescribers or that persons are filling prescriptions for the same drugs at multiple pharmacies.
	(15) The person's address is a significant distance from your pharmacy and/or from the prescriber's office.
	(16) Multiple persons with the same address present prescriptions from the same prescriber.
	(17) Persons pay with cash or credit card more often than through insurance.
	(18) Persons presenting controlled substance prescriptions are doing so in such a manner that varies from seeking routine pharmacy services (e.g., willing to wait in long lines to receive drugs, persons arrive in the same vehicle with prescriptions from same prescriber, one person presents to pick up prescriptions for multiple others, persons refer to drugs by "street names" and/or comment on drug's color, persons seek early refills, persons travel from outside reasonable trade area of pharmacy).
	(19) Your pharmacy charges and persons are willing to pay more for controlled substances than they would at nearby pharmacies.
	(20) Your pharmacy routinely orders controlled substances from more than one drug supplier, or your pharmacy has been discontinued by a drug supplier related to controlled substance orders.
	(21) Sporadic and non-consistent dispensing volume (including zero dispensing) varies from day to day and week to week, and your pharmacy does not maintain operational hours each week on Monday through Friday.
	(22) Your pharmacy employs or contracts security personnel during operational hours to prevent problems.
	(23) Your pharmacy has been previously warned or disciplined by the Texas State Board of Pharmacy for inappropriate dispensing of controlled substances (i.e., corresponding responsibility).

If you checked any of the above items, you should review the laws and rules regarding corresponding responsibility and non-therapeutic dispensing, especially Board rule §291.29, in the law book or on our website: www.pharmacy.texas.gov (click on Texas Pharmacy Rules and Laws). Additional educational material is available at: http://www.pharmacy.texas.gov/Nontherapeutic.asp. Failure of pharmacies and pharmacists to detect patterns of inappropriate dispensing of prescription drugs is unprofessional practice and constitutes grounds for disciplinary action.

Texas State Board of Pharmacy
YOU MIGHT BE A PILL MILL IF...

Check all that apply:

	(1) Your pharmacy fills a discernable pattern of prescriptions for prescribers who write essentially the same prescriptions for numerous persons, indicating a lack of individual drug therapy
	(2) Your pharmacy operates with limited hours of operation or closes after a certain threshold of controlled substance prescriptions are dispensed, and has overall low prescription dispensing volume.
	(3) Prescriptions presented to the pharmacy are for controlled substances with popularity as street drugs, such as opiates, benzodiazepines, muscle relaxants, psychostimulants, and/or cough syrups, or any combination of these drugs.
	(4) The prescriptions for controlled substances contain nonspecific or no diagnoses.
	(5) The prescriptions are commonly for the highest strength of the drug and/or for large quantities.
	(6) Dangerous drugs or OTC products (such as multi-vitamins or laxatives) are added to the controlled substance prescriptions, maintaining relatively consistent 1:1 ratio of controlled substances to dangerous drugs and/or OTC products dispensed as prescriptions.
	(7) Prescriptions are authorized by the same prescriber with what appears to be different handwriting on the hardcopy prescription drug order forms.
	(8) Upon contact with the prescriber's office, you are unable to engage in comprehensive discussion with the actual prescriber, or he/she is unconcerned about your apprehensions regarding his/her prescribing practices or unwilling to provide additional information, such as treatment goals and/or prognosis with prescribed drug therapy.
	(9) You rely solely on the prescriber's representation, or on the representation of the individual answering the phone at the number on the prescription, that prescriptions are legitimate.
	(10) The prescriber's clinic is not registered as a pain management clinic by the Texas Medical Board, despite routinely receiving prescriptions from the prescriber foropiates, benzodiazepines, and/or muscle relaxants.
	(11) Drugs prescribed are inconsistent with the prescriber's area of practice.
	(12) The prescriber of the drugs is located a significant distance from your pharmacy.
	(13) The prescriber has been subject to disciplinary action by the licensing board, had his/her DEA registration removed, or been subject to criminal action.
	(14) The Texas PMP system indicates that persons are obtaining prescriptions for the same drugs from multiple prescribers or that persons are filling prescriptions for the same drugs at multiple pharmacies.
	(15) The person's address is a significant distance from your pharmacy and/or from the prescriber's office.
	(16) Multiple persons with the same address present prescriptions from the same prescriber.
	(17) Persons pay with cash or credit card more often than through insurance.
	(18) Persons presenting controlled substance prescriptions are doing so in such a manner that varies from seeking routine pharmacy services (e.g., willing to wait in long lines to receive drugs, persons arrive in the same vehicle with prescriptions from same prescriber, one person presents to pick up prescriptions for multiple others, persons refer to drugs by "street names" and/or comment on drug's color, persons seek early refills, persons travel from outside reasonable trade area of pharmacy).
	(19) Your pharmacy charges and persons are willing to pay more for controlled substances than they would at nearby pharmacies.
	(20) Your pharmacy routinely orders controlled substances from more than one drug supplier, or your pharmacy has been discontinued by a drug supplier related to controlled substance orders.
	(21) Sporadic and non-consistent dispensing volume (including zero dispensing) varies from day to day and week to week, and your pharmacy does not maintain operational hours each week on Monday through Friday.
	(22) Your pharmacy employs or contracts security personnel during operational hours to prevent problems.
	(23) Your pharmacy has been previously warned or disciplined by the Texas State Board of Pharmacy for inappropriate dispensing of controlled substances (i.e., corresponding responsibility).

If you checked any of the above items, you should review the laws and rules regarding corresponding responsibility and non-therapeutic dispensing, especially Board rule §291.29, in the law book or on our website: www.pharmacy.texas.gov (click on Texas Pharmacy Rules and Laws). Additional educational material is available at: http://www.pharmacy.texas.gov/Nontherapeutic.asp. Failure of pharmacies and pharmacists to detect patterns of inappropriate dispensing of prescription drugs is unprofessional practice and constitutes grounds for disciplinary action.

Re: BioPlus Parent, LLC Change of Ownership Applications for NV License Numbers PH02179, PH03428, PH03386, PH03957, PH04455 and 1 pending application (BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC - Irvine CA Facility)

VIA UPS

To The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,

On behalf of BioPlus Parent, LLC, we are submitting the enclosed Pharmacy Applications for the following Nevada non-resident pharmacies ("Pharmacies"):

BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC (Florida Facility) - NV License # PH02179
River Medical Pharmacy, LLC - NV License # PH03428
Dogwood Pharmacy, LLC, dba MedScripts Medical Pharmacy - NV License # PH03386 org app Scan.
Raina RX, LLC, dba Route 300 Pharmacy - NV License # PH03957
Santa Barbara Specialty Pharmacy, LLC - NV License # PH04455

The Pharmacies are undergoing a change of ownership in a transaction at the grandparent entity level that is expected to close on February 15, 2023. The Pharmacies are currently wholly owned by BioPlus Parent, LLC. After the transaction closes, BioPlus Parent, LLC will remain the sole owner of the Pharmacies, but the equity will be acquired by ATH Holding Company, LLC, which is a subsidiary of Elevance Health, Inc. (f/k/a Anthem, Inc.).

We request that these applications be placed on the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy agenda as soon as possible, if necessary.

The following Applications and Supporting Documentation are executed and enclosed:

1. One check in the amount of $2,500 (5 applications x $500.00 per application).
2. Five Pharmacy Applications for the Pharmacies listed above.
3. BioPlus Ownership Disclosure, listing Officers, Directors and top 4 Shareholders, and including pre- and post-close corporate organization charts.
4. Certificates of Good Standing for each Pharmacy entity.
5. Completed and executed Designated Representative Application forms for the Pharmacists-in-Charge of each licensed facility
6. Most recent pharmacy inspection for each Pharmacy.

REAL
Solutions Group

7. Copy of each current resident Pharmacy license
8. Copy of Primary Source Verification from each Licensee's home state.
9. Executed License Verification Forms.
10. Copy of DEA Registration for each Pharmacy.

Please note we are not submitting any Personal History Record Applications as there are no individuals within the corporate structure that hold 10% or more of the beneficial interest in any of the relevant entities. In addition, the top level entity in the ownership structure, Elevance Health, Inc., is a publicly traded corporation. See post-close Corporate Organization Chart enclosed.

Pending Application

BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC (Irvine CA Facility) currently has a non-resident Pharmacy application pending before the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. Per the direction of Mark Sedar, via email on 1/12/2023, we are not submitting a new application for this pharmacy. Instead, we are supplementing the existing pending application with the revised ownership information enclosed and an updated page 4 of the application to reflect updated contact information.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions regarding these applications at licensing@realsolutionsgroup.co or 602-690-2043. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Just to reconfirm, your office does not provide original stamped license verifications?

I need to confirm to show proof to other states asking for this stamped verification.

Thank you.

Texas State Board of Pharmacy
"Red Flags" Checklist for Pharmacies
YOU MIGHT BE A PILL MILL IF...

Check all that apply:

	(1) Your pharmacy fills a discernable pattern of prescriptions for prescribers who write essentially the same prescriptions for numerous persons, indicating a lack of individual drug therapy
	(2) Your pharmacy operates with limited hours of operation or closes after a certain threshold of controlled substance prescriptions are dispensed, and has overall low prescription dispensing volume.
	(3) Prescriptions presented to the pharmacy are for controlled substances with popularity as street drugs, such as opiates, benzodiazepines, muscle relaxants, psychostimulants, and/or cough syrups, or any combination of these drugs.
	(4) The prescriptions for controlled substances contain nonspecific or no diagnoses.
	(5) The prescriptions are commonly for the highest strength of the drug and/or for large quantities.
	(6) Dangerous drugs or OTC products (such as multi-vitamins or laxatives) are added to the controlled substance prescriptions, maintaining relatively consistent 1:1 ratio of controlled substances to dangerous drugs and/or OTC products dispensed as prescriptions.
	(7) Prescriptions are authorized by the same prescriber with what appears to be different handwriting on the hardcopy prescription drug order forms.
	(8) Upon contact with the prescriber's office, you are unable to engage in comprehensive discussion with the actual prescriber, or he/she is unconcerned about your apprehensions regarding his/her prescribing practices or unwilling to provide additional information, such as treatment goals and/or prognosis with prescribed drug therapy.
	(9) You rely solely on the prescriber's representation, or on the representation of the individual answering the phone at the number on the prescription, that prescriptions are legitimate.
	(10) The prescriber's clinic is not registered as a pain management clinic by the Texas Medical Board, despite routinely receiving prescriptions from the prescriber foropiates, benzodiazepines, and/or muscle relaxants.
	(11) Drugs prescribed are inconsistent with the prescriber's area of practice.
	(12) The prescriber of the drugs is located a significant distance from your pharmacy.
	(13) The prescriber has been subject to disciplinary action by the licensing board, had his/her DEA registration removed, or been subject to criminal action.
	(14) The Texas PMP system indicates that persons are obtaining prescriptions for the same drugs from multiple prescribers or that persons are filling prescriptions for the same drugs at multiple pharmacies.
	(15) The person's address is a significant distance from your pharmacy and/or from the prescriber's office.
	(16) Multiple persons with the same address present prescriptions from the same prescriber.
	(17) Persons pay with cash or credit card more often than through insurance.
	(18) Persons presenting controlled substance prescriptions are doing so in such a manner that varies from seeking • routine pharmacy services (e.g., willing to wait in long lines to receive drugs, persons arrive in the same vehicle with prescriptions from same prescriber, one person presents to pick up prescriptions for multiple others, persons refer to drugs by "street names" and/or comment on drug's color, persons seek early refills, persons travel from outside reasonable trade area of pharmacy).
	(19) Your pharmacy charges and persons are willing to pay more for controlled substances than they would at nearby pharmacies.
	(20) Your pharmacy routinely orders controlled substances from more than one drug supplier, or your pharmacy has been discontinued by a drug supplier related to controlled substance orders.
	(21) Sporadic and non-consistent dispensing volume (including zero dispensing) varies from day to day and week to week, and your pharmacy does not maintain operational hours each week on Monday through Friday.
	(22) Your pharmacy employs or contracts security personnel during operational hours to prevent problems.
	(23) Your pharmacy has been previously warned or disciplined by the Texas State Board of Pharmacy for inappropriate dispensing of controlled substances (i.e., corresponding responsibility).

Clarification or Further Explanation	3	Unnumbered Chart	The categorization of the pharmacy as an "internet pharmacy" is factually incorrect. The pharmacy is not an internet pharmacy. It has a website, https://www.romanhealthpharmacy.com. Merely having a website does not make a pharmacy an "internet pharmacy." The pharmacy services are very traditional, available by mail or retail, including community walk-ins. The pharmacy does not sell prescription drugs online, for example. As a result, the two internet pharmacy categories that are marked "X" on the inspection report should not be marked.	Not applicable	N
Clarification or Further Explanation	8	21.00	The "No" answer to this question regarding whether the pharmacy operates with any approved waivers or variances is factually incorrect. As explained during the inspection, the pharmacy operates under waivers issued by other states related to controlled substance reporting. Specifically, the pharmacy has obtained waivers from state PDMP reporting because the pharmacy does not dispense controlled substances. As a result, this answer should be "Yes" on the inspection report.	Not applicable	N
Clarification or Further Explanation	9	25.00	The "Unknown" answer to this question is factually incorrect. The answer itself states that the pharmacy is accredited by Legitscript, and the inspector should have marked this item "Yes." However, in addition to Legitscript, the pharmacy also has obtained the NABP dotPharmacy domain. This question should be answered "Yes."	Not applicable	N

Clarification or Further Explanation	15	65.02	The "Unknown" answer to this question is factually incorrect. The pharmacists at the pharmacy are required to use professional judgment to determine if prescriptions are valid. All pharmacists are trained on best practices to detect and report illegitimate prescriptions, such as those written without a valid patient-practitioner relationship. The software system is set up to follow applicable laws and regulations for the state of residence of the patient. In addition, if the provider in not licensed in the patient's residence state, the computer system will alert the pharmacist of this fact. Clinical notes from the provider are also accessed and reviewed by the pharmacist as part of the DUR process, further supporting the pharmacy's view into the establishment of a valid provider-patient relationship.	Not applicable	N
Clarification or Further Explanation	16	67.02	The "no" answer to this question regarding whether the pharmacist has access to any information other than the pharmacy DUR software for completing DUR is factually incorrect. As noted during the inspection, the verifying pharmacist also is able to access the provider's notes.	Not applicable	N
Clarification or Further Explanation	18	75.00-77.01	The "yes" and "no" answers to the questions here are factually incorrect and do not reflect the pharmacy's counseling practices. First, counseling is given when patients pick up a prescription in person (75.00, 76.00, and 77.00). Second, counseling is provided for all fills (75.01, 76.01, and 77.01). Third, ALL prescriptions dispensed by the pharmacy, including those sent by mail, include written counseling information such as patient information and the pharmacy's toll-free number for contacting a pharmacist for counseling. Additionally, a verbal offer to counsel is provided to ALL prescriptions picked up in person, as detailed in the pharmacy's written policies and procedures.	Not applicable	N
Clarification or Further Explanation	19	83.00	The "no" answer regarding whether counseling actions are documented is factually incorrect. Every prescription dispensed includes counseling information, and that is documented through the pharmacy's procedures. In addition, notes regarding counseling are added to the patient profiles when pharmacists deliver counseling over the phone. The offer and delivery of counseling are also documented in the patient profile when patients pick up medication in person.	Not applicable	N

Purpose

The proper disposal[1] of prescription medication by patients is ensured by adhering to proper policies and procedures for instructing patients on how to discard products that are unwanted, expired, damaged, or unusable

Responsibility

- The Licensing and Compliance Manager is responsible for coordinating with management to ensure the training and enforcement of this procedure.
- The Pharmacy Manager is responsible for the training and enforcement of this procedure for the employees they manage.

- Do not flush medication, since Roman Health Pharmacy does not currently dispense any prescription medications that appear on the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Flush List[2].

(If the prescription medication cannot be disposed of via a local Drug Take-Back Program[3], and it is not a drug that requires flushing for immediate disposal, provide the following instructions:)

1. Remove the drug from its original container and mix it with something undesirable, such as used coffee grounds, dirt, laundry detergent, or cat litter. This makes the medicine less appealing to children and pets and unrecognizable to someone who might intentionally go through the trash looking for drugs.
2. Put the mixture in something you can close (for example, a resealable zipper storage bag, empty can, or another container) to prevent the drug from leaking or spilling out.
   - 2.1. Place the closed bag, can, or container containing the mixture in the garbage
3. Scratch out all your personal information on the medicine packaging to protect your identity and privacy.
   - 3.1. Place the medicine packaging in the garbage

SOP-6.7-R0 Recognizing Illegitimate Prescriptions and Invalid Patient-Practitioner Relationships

Approval Signatures

Title:	Name:	Signature:	Date:

Audience

- Pharmacists
- Pharmacy Technicians

Purpose

The fulfillment of illegitimate prescriptions is prevented by adhering to proper policies and procedures for recognizing illegitimate prescriptions and invalid patient-practitioner relationships.

Responsibility

- The Licensing and Compliance Manager is responsible for coordinating with management to ensure the training and enforcement of this procedure.
- The Pharmacy Manager is responsible for the training and enforcement of this procedure for the employees they manage.

Procedure

1. When receiving an oral prescription, pay attention to the following red flags or suspicious behavior from the caller:
    1.1. Sounds unprofessional, hesitant, or nervous
    1.2. Does not use standard medical terminology
    1.3. Provides medication quantities, directions, or other information that are unusual
    1.4. Provides pharmacy or practitioner information, such as National Provider Identifier (NPI) or Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) number, that is invalid or incorrect
2. When processing a prescription, look for signs that indicate it may be illegitimate or forged:
    2.1. The practitioner's handwriting is too legible.
    2.2. The quantities, directions, or dosages differ from usual medical usage.
    2.3. The prescription appears to be photocopied.

2.4. Looks too good, or has a textbook appearance.

2.5. The prescription is written in the following manner:

2.5.1. With the directions in full, without abbreviations

2.5.2. With abbreviations that are not standard

2.5.3. In different color inks

2.5.4. In different handwriting styles

3. When processing a prescription, look for signs that indicate it may be issued based on an invalid patient-practitioner relationship:

3.1. The practitioner writes significantly more prescriptions (or in larger quantities) compared to other practitioners in your area.

3.2. The patient appears to be returning too frequently. A prescription that should have lasted for a month in legitimate use, is being refilled on a biweekly, weekly or even a daily basis.

3.3. The practitioner writes prescriptions for antagonistic drugs, such as depressants and stimulants, at the same time (drug abusers often request prescriptions for "uppers and downers" at the same time).

3.4. The patient appears presenting prescriptions written in the names of other people.

3.5. A number of people appear simultaneously, or within a short time, all bearing similar prescriptions from the same physician.

3.6. Numerous "strangers," people who are not regular patrons or residents of your community, suddenly show up with prescriptions from the same physician.

4. If a prescription is suspected of being illegitimate or fraudulent, or based on an invalid patient-practitioner relationship, take the following actions, if applicable:

4.1.1. Verify the practitioner's information with the NPI lookup tool, located on the National Plan & Provider Enumeration System (NPPES) website:

https://nppes.cms.hhs.gov/

Please Note: Issuance of an NPI does not ensure or validate that the practitioner is appropriately licensed or credentialed.

4.1.2. Confirm the DEA number is authentic, following the procedure described in the DEA Pharmacist's Manual, located in the appendix.

4.1.3. Verify the practitioner's information with the DEA Registration Validation tool, located on the DEA website:

https://apps.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/webforms/validateLogin.jsp

Please Note: The lookup tool is only available to DEA registrants.

4.2. Contact the practitioner by telephone using the contact number from the pharmacy's database or another reputable resource, other than from the prescription in question, and obtain the necessary information.

4.3. Verify the practitioner's license(s) and credential(s) with the appropriate agency (for example, the Board of Medicine).

5. If a prescription is confirmed to be illegitimate or fraudulent, or based on an invalid patient-practitioner relationship, take the following actions:

5.1. Notify the pharmacist-on-duty.

5.2. Notify the Pharmacy Compliance Team (see the List of Important Contacts, located in the appendix).

5.3. Notify local law enforcement (see the List of Local Authorities, located in the appendix).

5.4. Retain all illegitimate or fraudulent prescriptions as evidence and, if requested, release it to the appropriate law enforcement officials.

5.5. If applicable, notify the following entities:

5.5.1. The local DEA office (see the List of Local Authorities, located in the appendix)

5.5.2. The appropriate Board of Pharmacy(s) (see the List of Board of Pharmacy Contacts, located in the appendix)

5.5.3. Other pharmacies in the area

6. Appropriately document any investigations, findings, and actions.

OPERATING AGREEMENT
ROMAN HEALTH PHARMACY LLC

THIS OPERATING AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") of ROMAN HEALTH PHARMACY LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), dated as of May 11, 2017, is made and entered into by ROMAN HEALTH VENTURES INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Member").

WHEREAS, the Member wishes to form a limited liability company pursuant to and in accordance with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (as amended from time to time, the "Act");

NOW, THEREFORE, the Member hereby agrees as follows:

ARTICLE I
THE COMPANY

Section 1.1 Formation; Admission. The Company was formed as a limited liability company under the provisions of the Act by the filing on May 11, 2017 of the Certificate of Formation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the "Certificate"). The filing of the Certificate is hereby ratified by the Member.

Section 1.2 Name; Purpose. The name of the Company shall be ROMAN HEALTH PHARMACY LLC. The Company may engage in any lawful business of every kind and character for which a limited liability company may be organized under the Act or any successor statute. The Company shall have all of the powers provided for a limited liability company under the Act.

Section 1.3 Registered Agent; Offices.

(a) The registered agent for the service of process and the registered office shall be that person and location reflected in the Certificate. The Board (as such term is defined below) may, from time to time, change the registered agent or office through appropriate filings with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. In the event the registered agent ceases to act as such for any reason or the registered office shall change, the Board shall promptly designate a replacement registered agent or file a notice of change of address as the case may be.

(b) The principal place of business of the Company shall be located in such location as the Board may from time to time determine. The Company may have, in addition to such office, such other offices and places of business at such locations, both within and without the State of Delaware, as the Board may from time to time determine or the business and affairs of the Company may require.

Section 1.4 Filings and Foreign Qualification. The Member, any Manager (as such term is defined below) or any authorized officer of the Company shall promptly execute and deliver all such certificates and other instruments conforming hereto as shall be necessary to accomplish all filing, recording, publishing and other acts appropriate to comply with all requirements for the formation and operation of a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Delaware and for the qualification and operation of a limited liability company in all other jurisdictions where the Company shall propose to conduct business.

Section 1.5 Units. The membership interests in the Company shall be denominated in units referred to as "Units". The total number of Units that the Company shall have authority to issue is 500 Units. The Member is the owner of 500 Units. The rights and liabilities of the Member shall be as provided in the Act, except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement. All of the Units shall be in registered form, and the Company shall maintain a register in which the name and address of the then current holders of Units shall be recorded. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, Units shall not be certificated.

Section 1.6 Limited Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and neither the Member nor any Manager or officer shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a member, manager or officer of the Company.

ARTICLE II
CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; PROFITS AND LOSSES; DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 2.1 Capital Contributions. The Member may, in its sole discretion, but shall not be required to, make contributions of the type permitted by the Act to the capital of the Company. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Member shall not be entitled to withdraw, or to receive a return of, any capital contribution or any portion thereof. No interest shall accrue on any capital contributions.

Section 2.2 Profits and Losses. All profits and losses of the Company shall be allocated and charged to the holder(s) of the Units on a pro rata basis. All items of Company taxable income, gain, loss, deduction or credit recognized or allocated for federal income tax purposes shall also be allocated and credited or charged to the holder(s) of the Units on a pro rata basis.

Section 2.3 Distributions. Subject to the Act and other applicable law, the Board shall cause the Company to distribute funds to the holder(s) of the Units on a pro rata basis at the Board's discretion.

ARTICLE III
MANAGEMENT

Section 3.1 Board of Managers. Except to the extent otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the powers of the Company shall be exercised by and under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of, a Board of Managers (the "Board"), which shall initially consist of two (2) managers (the "Managers"). Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, the Member shall not, by reason of its status as a member, have any authority to act for and bind the Company, but shall have only the right to vote on or approve: (a) the actions specified in this Agreement to be voted on or approved by the Member; and (b) except to the extent otherwise provided in this Agreement, the actions specified in the Act to be voted on or approved by the Member. The size of the Board may be increased or decreased by the Member in its sole discretion. The Member shall have the right to appoint and to remove, with or without cause, any or all of the Managers in its sole discretion. The Managers shall initially be Zachariah Reitano and Saman Rahmanian.

Section 3.2 Meetings of the Board; Quorum; and Action by the Board. Meetings of the Board shall be held at such times and places as may be decided by the Member. Notice of the time and place of a meeting shall be delivered personally or by telephone to each Manager and sent by first-class mail, facsimile, electronic mail or a nationally recognized overnight courier, charges prepaid, addressed to each Manager at that Manager's address as it is shown on the records of the Company. In case the notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail at least five (5) calendar days before the time of the holding of the meeting. In case the notice is delivered personally or by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or overnight courier, it shall be given at least two (2) calendar days before the time of the holding of the meeting. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated either to the Manager or to a person at the office of the Manager whom the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the Manager. Attendance by any Manager at a meeting of the Board shall constitute a waiver of notice to such Manager of such meeting. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting. At all meetings of the Board, the presence of a majority of the total number of Managers shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise specifically required by law or this Agreement, the act of a majority of Managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board, the Managers present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. At any such adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the meeting as originally convened. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if a majority of the Managers consent thereto in writing, and the writing is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board. A photographic, photo-static, facsimile, electronic (including in .pdf format) or similar reproduction of a writing signed by a Manager shall be regarded as signed by the Manager for purposes of this Section 3.2.

Section 3.3 Authority of Managers. Unless specifically authorized by a resolution duly adopted by the Board, no Manager, solely in his or her capacity as a Manager, shall have the authority or power to act as agent for or on behalf of the Company or any other Manager, to do any act which would be binding on the Company or any other Manager, to incur any expenditures on behalf of or for the Company, or to execute, deliver and perform any agreements, acts, transactions or other matters on behalf of the Company.

Section 3.4 Officers.

(a) The Board may designate one or more individuals (who may or may not be Managers) to serve as officers of the Company. The Company shall have such officers as the Board may from time to time determine, which officers may (but need not) include a Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, one or more Vice Presidents (and in case of each such Vice President, with such descriptive title, if any, as the Board shall deem appropriate), Secretary and Treasurer. Unless the Board determines otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of a business corporation formed under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such person of the authorities and duties that are customarily associated with that office. Any delegation pursuant to this Section 3.4 may be revoked at any time by the Board.

(b) Each of the following persons is hereby appointed to serve as an officer of the Company, until removed by the Board, with or without cause, in its sole and absolute discretion, or the earlier death or resignation of such person:

Name	Office
Zachariah Reitano	President
Saman Rahmanian	Secretary and Treasurer
Rob Schutz	Vice President

EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Neither the Member, any Manager nor any officer of the Company (each, an "Indemnified Party") shall be liable to the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by the Indemnified Party in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on the Indemnified Party by this Agreement, except that the Indemnified Party shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of the Indemnified Party's willful misconduct or gross negligence. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by the Indemnified Party by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by the Indemnified Party in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on the Indemnified Party, except that the Indemnified Party shall not be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by the Indemnified Party by reason of willful misconduct or gross negligence with respect to such acts or omissions; provided, however, that any indemnity under this Article IV shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and the Member shall not have any liability on account thereof. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the indemnification afforded herein shall be subject to, and no broader than permitted by, the laws of Delaware, in the absence of the approval of the Member.

ARTICLE V
DISSOLUTION

Section 5.1 Events of Dissolution. The Company shall have a perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved by:

(a) the election of the Member; or

(b) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

Section 5.2 Bankruptcy of the Member. The bankruptcy of the Member will not cause the Member to cease to be the member of the Company and upon the occurrence of such event, the business of the Company shall continue without dissolution.

Section 5.3 Liquidation and Winding Up. In the event of dissolution, the Company shall be wound up and its assets liquidated. In connection with the dissolution and winding up of the Company, the Board or such other person designated by the Board shall proceed with the sale, exchange or liquidation of all of the assets of the Company and shall conduct only such other activities as are necessary to wind up the Company's affairs, and the assets of the Company shall be applied in the manner, and in the order of priority, set forth in Section 18-804 of the Act.

ARTICLE VI ACCOUNTS

All funds of the Company shall be deposited in the name of the Company in such account or accounts as shall be designated by the Board. All withdrawals from such account or accounts are to be made upon written bank instruments which must be signed by a Manager or a duly authorized officer.

ARTICLE VII BOOKS

The Board shall cause to be kept, at the principal place of business of the Company, full and proper ledgers and other books of account in which shall be entered all matters relating to the Company, including all income, expenditures, assets and liabilities thereof. Such books shall be kept on a calendar-year basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, and shall be closed and balanced at the end of each tax year.

ARTICLE VIII
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 Governing Law. This Agreement, and any question, dispute or other matter related to or arising from this Agreement, will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without reference to conflict of laws principles.

Section 8.2 Binding Effect. This Agreement binds the Member and its respective distributees, successors and assigns and any other person claiming a right or benefit under or covered by this Agreement.

Section 8.3 Amendments. This Agreement may be amended upon the written consent of the Member.

Section 8.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable:

(a) that provision will be fully severable and this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never been part of this Agreement;

(b) the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and will not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement; and

(c) in the place of the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there will be added automatically to this Agreement a legal, valid and enforceable provision that is as similar to the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as possible.

Section 8.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement embodies the complete agreement and understanding among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and preempts any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties hereto, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way.

Re: BioPlus Parent, LLC Change of Ownership Applications for NV License Numbers PH02179, PH03428, PH03386, PH03957, PH04455 and 1 pending application (BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC - Irvine CA Facility)

VIA UPS

To The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,

On behalf of BioPlus Parent, LLC, we are submitting the enclosed Pharmacy Applications for the following Nevada non-resident pharmacies ("Pharmacies"):

BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC (Florida Facility) - NV License # PH02179
River Medical Pharmacy, LLC - NV License # PH03428
Dogwood Pharmacy, LLC, dba MedScripts Medical Pharmacy - NV License # PH03386
Santa Barbara Specialty Pharmacy, LLC - NV License # PH04455 orig app scanned

The Pharmacies are undergoing a change of ownership in a transaction at the grandparent entity level that is expected to close on February 15, 2023. The Pharmacies are currently wholly owned by BioPlus Parent, LLC. After the transaction closes, BioPlus Parent, LLC will remain the sole owner of the Pharmacies, but the equity will be acquired by ATH Holding Company, LLC, which is a subsidiary of Elevance Health, Inc. (f/k/a Anthem, Inc.).

We request that these applications be placed on the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy agenda as soon as possible, if necessary.

The following Applications and Supporting Documentation are executed and enclosed:

1. One check in the amount of $2,500 (5 applications x $500.00 per application).
2. Five Pharmacy Applications for the Pharmacies listed above.
3. BioPlus Ownership Disclosure, listing Officers, Directors and top 4 Shareholders, and including pre- and post-close corporate organization charts.
4. Certificates of Good Standing for each Pharmacy entity.
5. Completed and executed Designated Representative Application forms for the Pharmacists-in-Charge of each licensed facility
6. Most recent pharmacy inspection for each Pharmacy.

info@realsolutionsgroup.co
847-261-4004

7. Copy of each current resident Pharmacy license
8. Copy of Primary Source Verification from each Licensee's home state.
9. Executed License Verification Forms.
10. Copy of DEA Registration for each Pharmacy.

Please note we are not submitting any Personal History Record Applications as there are no individuals within the corporate structure that hold 10% or more of the beneficial interest in any of the relevant entities. In addition, the top level entity in the ownership structure, Elevance Health, Inc., is a publicly traded corporation. See post-close Corporate Organization Chart enclosed.

Pending Application

BioPlus Specialty Pharmacy, LLC (Irvine CA Facility) currently has a non-resident Pharmacy application pending before the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. Per the direction of Mark Sedar, via email on 1/12/2023, we are not submitting a new application for this pharmacy. Instead, we are supplementing the existing pending application with the revised ownership information enclosed and an updated page 4 of the application to reflect updated contact information.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions regarding these applications at licensing@realsolutionsgroup.co or 602-690-2043. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
