FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

40. MCPS is a sterile compounding pharmacy located in Santa Ana, California. It compounds non-sterile to sterile compounded sterile preparations and furnishes sterile injectable drugs (i.e., infusion therapies) to physicians and clinics for administration to patients. At all times relevant herein, Si Pham was the Pharmacist-in-Charge and Ronald McGuff was the sole shareholder and an officer of the corporation that owns MCPS. Board inspections revealed the following violations of Pharmacy Law.

41. Pharmacy technicians, facility foremen, plant managers, corporate representatives, chemists, engineers and/or other non-licensed staff possessed keys and alarm codes for areas where dangerous drugs were compounded and accessed those areas when pharmacists were not present.

42. In 2017 and 2018, MCPS received reports of adverse drug effects (i.e., headaches, high fevers, diarrhea, extreme fatigue, loss of consciousness, chills and nausea) suffered by patients after being administered infusions of lipoic acid compounded and dispensed by MCPS.

43. In January 2019, the Board issued Compounding Safety Alerts about the use of inappropriate ingredients to compound sterile injectable drugs and strongly encouraged sterile compounding pharmacies to immediately review their quality assurance and recall policies and procedures to determine if any corrective action was required. The Board noted that dietary supplements, food grade chemicals, and cosmetic grade ingredients may have as much as ten times more impurities when compared to pharmaceutical grade ingredients, increasing the risk of patient harm. On February 1, 2019, the FDA warned compounders not to use a dietary grade bulk substance distributed by a manufacturer to compound sterile injectable drugs for patients due to higher levels of endotoxins in that dietary grade bulk substance.

44. MCPS compounded and dispensed sterile injectable drugs including hydrogen peroxide 3%, lipoic acid 40mg/ml, DMPS 50mg/ml, NADH 50 mg/ml and methylcobalamin 5mg/ml 30ml using ingredients (i.e., dietary grade, topical grade and ungraded bulk substances) likely containing higher levels of contaminates or impurities, including heavy metals, bacteria and mold and higher bioburden levels (i.e., the number of bacteria living on a surface or in a substance that has not been sterilized), than pharmaceutical grade ingredients, therefore potentially placing patients at risk.

45. On November 13, 2019, the Board issued an Order of Correction to MCPS for this unsafe practice and directed Si Pham to send a plan of correction.

46. On November 22, 2019, the FDA issued a Form FDA 483 to MCPS observing among other violations, that MCPS compounded and dispensed sterile injectable drugs with non-pharmaceutical grade ingredients containing high levels of contaminants (MCPS "currently uses …dietary grade bulk substances in sterile injectable drug products") and observed that the use of non-pharmaceutical grade bulk substances in MCPS's products resulted in a recall of Lipoic Acid 40 mg/ml, 30 ml vials due to a "filmy wispy precipitate" found in on-hand vials of released product and the discontinued production of NADH disodium 50 mg/ml due to out of specification endotoxin results.

47. During the "closeout" meeting on November 22, 2019, both the FDA and Board informed Ronald McGuff and Si Pham about the safety risks associated with MCPS's practice of compounding sterile injectable drugs with inappropriate ingredients containing higher levels of contaminants and higher bioburden levels than pharmaceutical grade ingredients.

48. On December 5, 2019, MCPS wrote the Board that it was MCPS's "continuing desire and intention to comply with all requirements of California pharmacy laws and expectations of the Board of Pharmacy" and it had stopped the dispensing and compounding of sterile preparations compounded with dietary grade and non-compendial grade raw materials "regardless of whether the bulk drug substance appears on the FDA's Category 1 list until further guidance and/or clarification from both the FDA and CA BOP." On December 16, 2019, MCPS wrote the FDA that "[i]n the near term, MCPS has suspended compounding drug preparations containing the components listed in the observation and all USP dietary grade supplements. Drug preparation lots compounded with the listed components will not be dispensed...Corrective Actions for Observation 7: Suspend compounding and dispensing drug preparations utilizing non-pharmaceutical grade components until pharmaceutical grade replacements can be procured or until alternate assurance of material quality and fitness for intended used can be established."

49. However, MCPS continued to compound and dispense a large volume of sterile injectable drugs from inappropriate ingredients, including methylcobalamin and lipoic acid after making those representations to the Board and FDA and receiving the Compounding Safety Alerts.

50. MCPS compounded sterile injectable lipoic acid 40mg/ml 30 ml MDV (Lot No. 18M0991) and DMPS 50mg/ml 5ml SDV (Lot No. 18J1081) containing particulate or precipitate but failed to provide the Board with notice of the recalls of those drugs within twelve hours as required.

51. Patients reported to MCPS that they suffered adverse drug effects (i.e., excruciating pain) from one of its sterile injectable drug products, vitamin D3 10,00IU/ML 30ML MDV (Lot No. 20F1501:0920) but it failed to report those adverse effects to the Board within twelve hours as required.

52. MCPS compounded sterile injectable chromium (Lot No. 19K411) without a master formula describing the equipment to be used, inactive ingredients to be used and the specific and essential compounding steps used to prepare that infusion.

53. MCPS did not possess all of the policies and procedures required to compound sterile injectable drugs, including procedures for quality assurance programs, cleaning and maintenance of ISO environments and for maintaining, storing, calibrating, cleaning, and disinfecting equipment used in compounding, and for training on these procedures as part of the staff training and competency evaluation process. It also did not possess a written quality assurance plan designed to monitor and ensure the integrity, potency, quality, and labeled strength of compounded drug preparations.

54. From January 17 through February 23, 2018, there was a 12.6% patch in the HEPA filter of MCPS's primary engineering control devices in Room 107 which was not completely repaired. Yet, MCPS continued to compound at least ten sterile injectable drugs with that primary engineering control device before it was re-certified and tested on February 23, 2018.

55. In November 2019, pharmacy technicians performed prefatory compounding functions, (washed and prepared empty vials) without a pharmacist being present on the premises.

56. In August and September 2020, MCPS failed to document the manufacturer of at least one component for the sterile injectable drug, methylcobalamin.

57. Despite the filing of the Accusation, the discussions with the FDA and Board about safety risks associated with using inappropriate ingredients, the receipt of the FDA Form 483, the receipt of the Board's Order of Correction and the Written Notice and Respondents' promises to cease compounding and dispensing sterile injectable drugs with dietary grade and non-compendial substances, from at least June 1, 2021 through December 1, 2021, MCPS continued to compound and dispense sterile injectable drugs, methylcobalamin 5mg/mL, glutathione 200mg/mL, taurine, lipoic acid and DMPS using inappropriate ingredients (i.e., dietary grade and ungraded bulk substances) likely containing higher levels of contaminates or impurities, including heavy metals, bacteria and mold and higher bioburden levels (i.e., the number of bacteria living on a surface or in a substance that has not been sterilized), than pharmaceutical grade ingredients, therefore potentially placing patients at risk.

58. In 2021, MCPS received reports of at least six adverse drug effects, including headaches, fever, chills and nausea from sterile injectable drugs compounded and dispensed, but failed to timely report at least four of those adverse drug effects to the Board. It also failed to report at least four of the adverse drug effects immediately to the MedWatch Program of the FDA.

59. On January 24, 2022, the Board issued an Order of Correction to Respondents for their continued use of ingredients in sterile injectable products that lacked quality and a Written Notice for the failure to report adverse drug effects to the Board within twelve hours and immediately to the MedWatch Program of the FDA.

Members of the Board of Pharmacy:

We, the undersigned, write to you from the perspective of Board licensees who agreed to the imposition of discipline on our pharmacy and pharmacist licenses in the case titled In the Matter of the Accusation Against McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services, Inc., et al., Board Case No. 7176. We reached a settlement of the Accusation, of which this letter is part.

We wish to forthrightly and unequivocally state, here, that as persons with significant experience in pharmacy compounding, we agree with and support the following statements:

- All compounding pharmacies located in California or which provide services to California patients are governed both by relevant sections of federal statutes and regulations applicable to pharmacy compounding, including but not limited to section 501 [21 U.S.C. § 351] of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA), which defines "adulterated" drugs to include those prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions, and FDCA section 503A [21 U.S.C. § 353a], which sets forth several federal requirements to engage in traditional pharmacy compounding, and by the California Pharmacy Law and its associated regulations;

- Further, best practices demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies not use bulk drug substances that are not graded, nor those not designated by their manufacturers for pharmaceutical use, nor those lacking an appropriate USP/NF monograph;

- Best practices further demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies only use bulk drug substances that: (1) comply with the standards of an applicable United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary monograph; (2) if such monograph does not exist, are drug substances that are components of FDA-approved drugs; and (3) if such monograph does not exist and the drug substance is not a component of an FDA-approved drug, then it must be on a list developed by the Secretary through regulations issued by the Secretary under subsection (c); and

- Best practices also demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies: (1) only use bulk drug substances that are manufactured by an FDA-registered establishment; and (2) that are accompanied by valid certificates of analysis for each bulk drug substance.

We look forward to working with the FDA and the Board to be sure that Californians have access to prescribed medications that are held to the highest degree of quality assurance.

B. Respondent McGuff Pharmacy, its owner, and/or its personnel engaged in unprofessional conduct as defined in NAC 639.945(1)((i) and violated various provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 353a, 42 U.S.C. § 262, Cal. Business and Professions Code § 4000 et seq., and Cal. Code of Regulations, Title 16, Section 1700 et seq. as detailed in the California State Board of Pharmacy's Order entered in Case Nol. 7176. Respondent McGuff Pharmacy is responsible for those violations, including all errors and omissions of pharmacy personnel, pursuant to NRS 639.230(5), NAC 639.702 and/or NAC 639.945(3) and therefore subject to discipline pursuant to NRS 639.210(4), (11) and/or (12).

8. Those violations are pled with particularity in the Accusation and grounds for action pursuant to NRS 639.210 and NRS 639.255.

9. To resolve this matter without incurring any further costs or the expense associated with a hearing, the Board and Respondent stipulate to the following penalties:

A. The expired pharmacy license of McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services, Inc, Pharmacy License No. PH01563, is revoked pursuant to NRS 639.255(1)(d);

B. Pursuant to NRS 639.255(1)(f) and NAC 639.955(5), Respondent shall pay a fine of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for the violations by personal, business, certified or cashier's check or money order made payable to "State of Nevada, Office of the Treasurer," to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, due and payable by December 1, 2025; and

C. Pursuant to NRS 622.400, Respondent shall pay One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to partially reimburse the Board for recoverable attorney's fees and investigative costs by personal, business, certified or cashier's check or money order made payable to the "Nevada State Board of Pharmacy" to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, due and payable by December 1, 2025.

10. Any failure by Respondent to comply with the terms of this Order may result in issuance by the Executive Secretary of an order to show cause pursuant to NAC 639.965 directing Respondent to appear before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting for a show cause hearing. If such a hearing results in a finding of a violation of this Order by Respondent, the Board may impose additional discipline upon that Respondent not inconsistent with the provisions of NRS Chapter 639.

11. General Counsel will present this Stipulation to the Board for approval pursuant to NRS 622.330 at the Board's regularly scheduled public meeting on September 3, 2025.

Respondent will appear in person or through counsel at the meeting to answer questions from the Board Members and/or Board Staff. The Board Members and Staff may discuss and deliberate regarding this Stipulation, even if Respondent or counsel are not present at the meeting.

12. The Board has discretion to accept this Stipulation, but it is not obligated to do so. If this Stipulation is approved by the Board, it shall be a public record pursuant to NRS 622.330 and shall be reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank pursuant to 42 USC § 1396r–2 and 45 CFR Part 60, and shall be further reported pursuant to NAC 639.960.

13. If the Board rejects any part or all of this Stipulation, and unless they reach an alternative agreement on the record during the hearing, the parties agree that a full hearing on the merits of this matter may be heard by the Board at a later date. The terms and admissions herein may not be used or referred to in a full hearing on the merits of this matter.

14. Subject to the approval of this Stipulation by the Board, the Board and Respondent agree to release one another from any and all additional claims arising from the facts set forth in the Accusation on file herein, whether known or unknown that might otherwise have existed on or before the effective date of this Order.

Respondents have fully considered the charges and allegations contained in the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation in this matter, and the terms of this Stipulation, and have knowingly and voluntarily agreed to the terms set forth herein, and waived certain rights, as stated herein.

In the interest of a prompt and speedy settlement of this matter, consistent with the public interest and the responsibility of the Board of Pharmacy, Department of Consumer Affairs, the parties hereby agree to the following Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order which will be submitted to the Board for approval and adoption as the final disposition of the Accusation with respect to Respondents McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services Inc. and Si Van Pham.

PARTIES

1. Anne Sodergren (Complainant) is the Executive Officer of the Board of Pharmacy (Board). She brought this action solely in her official capacity and is represented in this matter by Rob Bonta, Attorney General of the State of California, by Desiree I. Kellogg, Deputy Attorney General, and Joshua A. Room, Supervising Deputy Attorney General.

2. Respondents are represented in this proceeding by attorney Tony J. Park, Pharm.D., J.D., whose address is: California Pharmacy Lawyers, Law Offices of Tony J. Park, Inc., 9090 Irvine Center Drive, Irvine, CA 92618, telephone (949) 336-7854.

3. On or about March 9, 1999, the Board issued Pharmacy Permit Number PHY 43950 to McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services Inc. Ronald M. McGuff has served or been listed in Board records as the sole shareholder and President, Vice-President, and Secretary of McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services Inc. (Respondent McGuff Compounding aka MCPS). The Pharmacy Permit was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought herein and will expire on March 1, 2023, unless renewed.

4. On or about July 1, 2003, the Board issued Sterile Compounding License Number LSC 99004 to Respondent McGuff Compounding aka MCPS. The Sterile Compounding License was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought herein and will expire on March 1, 2023, unless renewed.

5. On or about September 3, 1997, the Board issued Pharmacist License Number RPH 49833 to Si Van Pham (Respondent Pham). The Pharmacist License was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought herein and will expire on November 30, 2022, unless renewed. Respondent Pham has served and been listed in Board records as Pharmacist-in-Charge of Respondent McGuff Compounding aka MCPS since July 9, 2016.

JURISDICTION

6. Accusation No. 7176 was filed before the Board, against Respondents. Accusation No. 7176 and all other statutorily required documents were properly served on Respondents on October 28, 2021. Respondents timely filed their Notice(s) of Defense contesting the Accusation. First Amended Accusation No. 7176 was filed before the Board, and is currently pending against Respondents. The First Amended Accusation and all other statutorily required documents were properly served on Respondents on April 21, 2022. A copy of First Amended Accusation No. 7176 is attached as exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

ADVISEMENT AND WAIVERS

7. Respondents have carefully read, fully discussed with counsel, and understand the charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation No. 7176. Respondents have also carefully read, fully discussed with counsel, and understand the effects of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order on their respective permits and licenses.

8. Respondents are fully aware of their legal rights in this matter, including the right to a hearing on the charges and allegations in the First Amended Accusation; the right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against them; the right to present evidence and to testify on their own behalf; the right to the issuance of subpoenas to compel attendance of witnesses and production of documents; the right to reconsideration and court review of an adverse decision; and all other rights accorded by the California Administrative Procedure Act and other applicable laws.

9. Respondents voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently waive and give up each and every right set forth above.

CULPABILITY

10. Respondents understand and agree that the charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation No. 7176, if proven at a hearing, constitute cause for imposing discipline upon their Pharmacy Permit, Sterile Compounding License, and Pharmacist License. For the purposes of resolving this matter without the expense and uncertainty of further proceedings, Respondents agree that, at a hearing, Complainant could establish a factual basis for charges in the First Amended Accusation, and Respondents hereby give up their right to contest those charges.

11. Respondents agree that their Pharmacy Permit, Sterile Compounding License, and Pharmacist License are each and severally subject to discipline and they agree to be bound by the Board's disciplinary terms as set forth in the Disciplinary Order below.

DESIRED LICENSE CATEGORY TRANSITION

12. Respondent MCPS has decided to seek a transition from being a licensed pharmacy engaged in compounding (a Section 503A facility under federal law) to being a registered and licensed outsourcing facility (a Section 503B facility under federal law). This will entail an application to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for registration under Section 503B as an outsourcing facility, and then an application to the Board to be licensed in California as an outsourcing facility. It could take some significant time for MCPS to prepare for and make these applications. In the interim, the MCPS facility will cease functioning as a pharmacy on the effective date of the Decision and Order by the Board of Pharmacy adopting this stipulation.

13. This settlement of the First Amended Accusation does not depend on whether MCPS, any successor or assign thereof, or any entity sharing ownership or management with MCPS, actually submits a subsequent application to the Board for licensure as an outsourcing facility. In the event such application is submitted, the Board will give it the same consideration it would any other application to be licensed as an outsourcing facility. This settlement does not preclude the Board from granting that license. Nor is the Board under any obligation from this settlement to grant that license. Any such application will receive ordinary and fair consideration for licensure. If such an outsourcing facility license is granted, there is one term below that will be applied by the Board to that license, and which Respondent MCPS acknowledges will apply to itself, any successor or assign, or any entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent MCPS.

IMMEDIATE CEASE AND DESIST

14. As of the last date of all signatures on this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, both Respondents agree to voluntarily and completely cease and desist compounding, or sales or transfers of compounded preparations, using any active ingredients or drug products named or identified in First Amended Accusation No. 7176, or any other active ingredient or drug product that is not graded for pharmaceutical use.

15. Any compounding by Respondents, or sales or transfers of compounded preparations, using such active ingredients or drug products after that date shall constitute unprofessional conduct and further cause for discipline by both Respondents, and may be considered by the Board in deciding whether to grant or deny any subsequent application by Respondent MCPS, its successor or assign, or any entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent MCPS, including but not limited to a subsequent application for an outsourcing facility license.

CONTINGENCY

16. This stipulation shall be subject to approval by the Board of Pharmacy. Respondents understand and agree that counsel for Complainant and the staff of the Board may communicate directly with the Board regarding this stipulation and settlement, without notice to or participation by Respondents or their counsel. By signing the stipulation, Respondents understand and agree that they may not withdraw their agreement or seek to rescind the stipulation prior to the time the Board considers and acts upon it. If the Board fails to adopt this stipulation as its Decision and Order, the Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order shall be of no force or effect, except for this paragraph, it shall be inadmissible in any legal action between the parties, and the Board shall not be disqualified from further action by having considered this matter.

17. The parties understand and agree that Portable Document Format (PDF) and facsimile copies of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, including PDF and facsimile signatures thereto, shall have the same force and effect as the originals.

18. This Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order is intended by the parties to be an integrated writing representing the complete, final, and exclusive embodiment of their agreement. It supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, discussions, negotiations, and commitments (written or oral). This Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order may not be altered, amended, modified, supplemented, or otherwise changed except by a writing executed by an authorized representative of each of the parties.

19. In consideration of the foregoing, the parties agree that the Board may, without further notice or formal proceeding, issue and enter the following Disciplinary Order:

DISCIPLINARY ORDER

AS TO RESPONDENT MCGUFF COMPOUNDING AKA MCPS

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Pharmacy Permit No. PHY 43950, and Sterile Compounding License No. LSC 99004, both issued to Respondent McGuff Compounding aka MCPS, are each and severally surrendered and accepted by the Board.

20. Definition: Respondent

For the purposes of paragraphs 20-33, "Respondent" shall refer to Respondent McGuff Compounding aka MCPS. All terms and conditions stated herein shall bind and be applicable to the licensed premises and to all owners, managers, officers, administrators, members, directors, trustees, associates, or partners thereof. For purposes of compliance with any term or condition, any report, submission, filing, payment, or appearance required to be made by Respondent to or before the Board or its designee shall be made by an owner or executive officer with authority to act on behalf of and legally bind the licensed entity.

21. The surrender of Respondent's Pharmacy Permit and Sterile Compounding License and the acceptance of the surrendered licenses by the Board shall constitute the imposition of discipline against Respondent. This stipulation constitutes a record of the discipline and shall become a part of Respondent's license history with the Board.

22. Respondent shall lose all rights and privileges as a pharmacy and to perform sterile compounding in California as of the effective date of the Board's Decision and Order.

23. Respondent shall be jointly and severally liable to the Board, along with Respondent Pham, for costs of investigation and enforcement of $95,104.75. Respondent shall cause that amount to be paid, in full, on or before the effective date of the Decision and Order.

24. Within (5) business days of the date this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order is fully executed, Respondent shall submit a completed Discontinuance of Business form according to Board guidelines and shall notify the Board of the records inventory transfer within five (5) days. Respondent shall further arrange for the transfer of all records of acquisition and disposition of dangerous drugs and/or devices to premises licensed and approved by the Board. Any transfers of drug inventory shall be conducted in compliance with state and federal law.

25. If permitted by state and federal law, Respondent may transfer current inventory to its commonly-owned facilities as necessary to prepare for testing and other requirements to establish subsequent eligibility for an outsourcing facility registration and/or license.

26. Respondent shall cause to be delivered to the Board its pocket license and, if any were issued, its wall certificates, on or before the effective date of the Decision and Order.

27. Respondent shall also, by the effective date of the Decision and Order, arrange for the continuation of care for ongoing patients of the pharmacy by, at minimum, providing a written notice to ongoing patients that specifies the anticipated closing date of the pharmacy and that identifies one or more area pharmacies capable of taking up the patients' care, and by cooperating as may be necessary in the transfer of records or prescriptions for ongoing patients. Within five (5) days of its provision to the pharmacy's ongoing patients, Respondent shall provide a copy of its written notice to the Board. For purposes of this provision, "ongoing patients" means those patients for whom the pharmacy has on file a prescription with one or more refills outstanding, or for whom the pharmacy has filled a prescription within the preceding sixty (60) days.

28. Respondent shall also, by the effective date of the Decision and Order, prepare and submit to the Board, on the letterhead for Respondent MCPS, a letter jointly signed by Ronald McGuff and Respondent Pham, in substantially the form attached as exhibit B hereto. The Board may make whatever use of that letter it sees fit, including but not limited to publication in The Script or other publication(s), distribution or copying, or submission into evidence in other cases. There shall be no limit to the number of times the Board may publish or otherwise use this letter.

29. Neither Respondent nor its successor or assign, nor any entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent, shall apply to the Board for any permit, license, or registration issued by the Board for a period of three (3) years, except that at any time it is eligible for same:

- Respondent may submit an application for an outsourcing facility license;
- Respondent may apply for a change of location for its wholesaler license (WLS 2947), so long as there is no change in ownership or management structure, or any other substantive change aside from the change in location; and
- Should the Board change the name or category of licensure applicable to the WLS license, Respondent may apply to adopt this change, so long as there is no change in ownership or management structure, or other substantive change.

30. If Respondent, its successor or assign, or an entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent, ever applies for licensure, including as an outsourcing facility, or petitions for reinstatement, the Board shall treat it as a new application for licensure. The applicant/petitioner must comply with all the laws, regulations and procedures for licensure in effect at the time the application or petition is filed, and charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation No. 7176 shall be deemed to be supported by a factual basis and not contested by Respondent when the Board determines whether to grant or deny the application or petition.

31. If an application for an outsourcing facility license is submitted by Respondent, its successor or assign, or an entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent, the Board may in addition consider, in deciding whether to grant or deny that license: whether Respondent met its agreement for the pharmacy to cease and desist compounding, sales, or transfers of drug preparations using active ingredients or drug products named or identified in First Amended Accusation No. 7176, or that are not graded for pharmaceutical use; and whether the Board has received full payment of the costs of investigation and enforcement in this case.

32. If an outsourcing facility license is granted by the Board to Respondent, its successor or assign, or an entity sharing ownership or management with Respondent, that applicant/licensee shall retain, at its own expense, for a period of one (1) year after licensure, an independent consultant for the outsourcing facility approved in advance by the Board or its designee.

33. That independent consultant shall be a pharmacist licensed in good standing by the Board, and shall be responsible for conducting in-person inspections to review the operations of the outsourcing facility on a monthly basis for compliance with applicable state and federal laws. The independent consultant shall prepare and submit written reports directly to Board staff; such reports shall not go first to or be made available to the licensee by the independent consultant.

AS TO RESPONDENT PHAM

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Pharmacist License No. RPH 49833, issued to Respondent Pham, is revoked. However, the revocation is stayed and Respondent Pham is placed on probation for thirty-five (35) months on the following terms and conditions:

34. Definition: Respondent

For the purposes of paragraphs 34-52, "Respondent" shall refer to Respondent Pham.

35. Obey All Laws

Respondent shall obey all state and federal laws and regulations.

Respondent shall report any of the following occurrences to the Board, in writing, within seventy-two (72) hours of such occurrence:

- an arrest or issuance of a criminal complaint for violation of any provision of the Pharmacy Law, state and federal food and drug laws, or state and federal controlled substances laws;

Failure to timely report any such occurrence shall be considered a violation of probation.

36. Report to the Board

Respondent shall report to the Board quarterly, on a schedule as directed by the Board or its designee. The report shall be made either in person or in writing, as directed. Among other requirements, Respondent shall state in each report under penalty of perjury whether there has been compliance with all the terms and conditions of probation.

Failure to submit timely reports in a form as directed shall be considered a violation of probation. Any period(s) of delinquency in submission of reports as directed may be added to the probation. Moreover, if the final probation report is not made as directed, probation shall be automatically extended until such time as the final report is made and accepted by the Board.

37. Continuing Education

Respondent shall provide evidence of efforts to maintain skill and knowledge as a pharmacist as directed by the Board or its designee.

38. Interview with the Board

Upon receipt of reasonable prior notice, Respondent shall appear in person for interviews with the Board or its designee, at such intervals and locations as are determined by the Board or its designee. Respondent shall timely cooperate with the Board's inspection program and with the Board's monitoring and investigation of Respondent's compliance with the terms and conditions of probation, including but not limited to: timely responses to requests for information by Board staff; timely compliance with directives from Board staff regarding requirements of any term or condition of probation; and timely completion of documentation pertaining to a term or condition of probation. Failure to timely cooperate shall be considered a violation of probation.

40. Status of License

If Respondent's pharmacist license expires or is cancelled by operation of law or otherwise at any time during the period of probation, including any extensions thereof due to tolling or otherwise, upon renewal or reapplication Respondent's license shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this probation not previously satisfied.

41. Submission of Letter to Board

whatever use of that letter it sees fit, including but not limited to publication in The Script or other publication(s), distribution or copying, or submission into evidence in other cases. There shall be no limit to the number of times the Board may publish or otherwise use this letter.

42. Reimbursement of Board Costs

Respondent shall be jointly and severally liable to the Board, along with Respondent MCPS, for costs of investigation and enforcement of $95,104.75. Respondent shall cause that amount to be paid, in full, on or before the effective date of the Decision and Order. It shall be a condition precedent to successful completion of probation that these costs were timely paid. Failure to pay costs by the deadline shall also be considered a violation of probation.

43. Probation Monitoring Costs

Respondent shall pay any costs associated with probation monitoring as determined by the Board each and every year of probation. Such costs shall be payable to the Board on a schedule as directed by the Board or its designee. Failure to pay such costs by the deadline(s) as directed shall be considered a violation of probation.

44. Practice Requirement – Extension of Probation

Except during periods of suspension, Respondent shall, at all times while on probation, be employed as a pharmacist in California for a minimum of one hundred (100) hours per calendar month. Any month during which this minimum is not met shall extend the period of probation by one month. During any such period of insufficient employment, Respondent must nonetheless comply with all terms and conditions of probation, unless Respondent receives a waiver in writing from the Board or its designee.

If Respondent does not practice as a pharmacist in California for the minimum number of hours in any calendar month, for any reason (including vacation), Respondent shall notify the board in writing within ten (10) days of the conclusion of that calendar month. This notification shall include at least: the date(s), location(s), and hours of last practice; the reason(s) for the interruption or reduction in practice; and the anticipated date(s) on which Respondent will resume practice at the required level. Respondent shall further notify the board in writing within ten (10) days following the next calendar month during which respondent practices as a pharmacist in California for the minimum of one hundred (100) hours. Any failure to timely provide such notification(s) shall be considered a violation of probation.

It is a violation of probation for Respondent's probation to be extended pursuant to the provisions of this condition for a total period, counting consecutive and non-consecutive months, exceeding thirty-six (36) months. The Board or its designee may post a notice of the extended probation period on its website.

45. Ethics Course

Respondent shall provide proof of enrollment upon request. Within five (5) days of completion, Respondent shall submit a copy of the certificate of completion to the Board or its designee. Failure to timely enroll in an approved ethics course, to initiate the course during the first year of probation, to successfully complete it before the end of the second year of probation, or to timely submit proof of completion to the Board or its designee, shall be considered a violation of probation.

46. No Ownership or Management of Licensed Premises

Respondent shall not own, have any legal or beneficial interest in, nor serve as a manager, administrator, member, officer, director, trustee, associate, or partner of any business, firm, partnership, or corporation currently or hereinafter licensed by the Board. Respondent shall sell or transfer any legal or beneficial interest in any entity licensed by the Board within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this decision and provide written proof thereof to the Board.

Failure to timely divest any legal or beneficial interest(s) or to immediately provide documentation thereof to the Board shall be considered a violation of probation.

47. Notification of Change(s) in Name, Address(es), or Phone Number(s)

Respondent shall notify the Board in writing within ten (10) days of any change in name, residence address, mailing address, e-mail address, or phone number.

Failure to timely notify the board of any change in name, residence or mailing address, email address, or phone number, shall be considered a violation of probation.

48. Reporting of Employment and Notice to Employers

During the period of probation, Respondent shall notify all present and prospective employers of the decision in case number 7176 and the terms, conditions and restrictions imposed on Respondent by the decision, as follows:

Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision, and within ten (10) days of undertaking any new employment, Respondent shall report to the Board in writing the name, physical address, and mailing address of each employer(s), and the name(s) and telephone number(s) of all direct supervisor(s), as well as any pharmacist(s)-in-charge, designated representative(s)-in-charge, responsible manager, or other compliance supervisor(s), and Respondent's work schedule, if known. Respondent shall also include reason(s) for leaving the prior employment. Respondent shall sign and return to the Board a written consent authorizing the Board or its designee to communicate with all of Respondent's employer(s) and supervisor(s), and authorizing those employer(s) or supervisor(s) to communicate with the Board or its designee concerning Respondent's work status, performance, and monitoring.

Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision, and within fifteen (15) days of Respondent undertaking any new employment, Respondent shall cause his (a) direct supervisor, (b) pharmacist-in-charge, designated representative-in-charge, responsible manager, or other compliance supervisor, and (c) the owner or owner representative of his employer, to report to the Board in writing acknowledging that the listed individual(s) has/have read the decision in case number 7176, and terms and conditions imposed thereby. If one person serves in more than one role described in (a), (b), or (c), the acknowledgment shall so state. It shall be the Respondent's responsibility to ensure that these acknowledgment(s) are timely submitted to the Board. In the event of a change in the person(s) serving the role(s) described in (a), (b), or (c) during the term of probation, Respondent shall cause the person(s) taking over the role(s) to report to the Roard in writing within fifteen (15) days of the change acknowledging that he or she has read the decision in case number 7176, and the terms and conditions imposed thereby.

If Respondent works for or is employed by or through an employment service, Respondent must notify the person(s) described in (a), (b), and (c) above at every entity licensed by the Board of the decision in case number 7176, and the terms and conditions imposed thereby, in advance of Respondent commencing work at such licensed entity. A record of this notification must be provided to the Board upon request.

Furthermore, within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this decision, and within fifteen (15) days of Respondent undertaking any new employment by or through an employment service, Respondent shall cause the person(s) described in (a), (b), and (c) above at the employment service to report to the Board in writing acknowledging that he or she has read the decision in case number 7176, and the terms and conditions imposed thereby. It shall be Respondent's responsibility to ensure that these acknowledgment(s) are timely submitted to the Board.

Failure to timely notify present or prospective employer(s), or failure to cause the identified person(s) with that/those employer(s) to submit timely written acknowledgments to the Board, shall be considered a violation of probation. Failure to comply with the requirements or deadlines of this condition shall be considered a violation of probation.

"Employment" within the meaning of this provision includes any full-time, part-time, temporary, relief, or employment/management service position as a pharmacist, or any position for which a pharmacist license is a requirement or criterion for employment, whether Respondent is an employee, independent contractor, or volunteer.

49. Restrictions on Supervision and Oversight of Licensed Facilities –

During the period of probation, Respondent shall not supervise any intern pharmacist or serve as a consultant to any entity licensed by the board. Respondent may be a pharmacist-in-charge, designated representative-in-charge, responsible manager or other compliance supervisor of any single entity licensed by the Board, but only if Respondent or that entity retains, at his/its expense, an independent consultant who shall be responsible for reviewing the operations of the entity on a monthly basis for compliance by Respondent and the entity with state and federal laws and regulations governing the practice of the entity, and compliance by Respondent with the obligations of his supervisory position, for the duration of Respondent's probation period.

Respondent may serve in such a position at only one entity licensed by the Board, only upon approval by the Board or its designee. Any such approval shall be site specific. The consultant shall be a pharmacist licensed by and not on probation with the Board, who has been approved by the Board or its designee to serve in this position. Respondent shall submit the name of the proposed consultant to the Board or its designee for approval within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the decision or prior to assumption of duties allowed in this term. Assumption of any unauthorized supervision responsibilities shall be considered a violation of probation. In addition, failure to timely seek approval for, timely retain, or ensure timely reporting by the consultant shall be considered a violation of probation.

50. License Surrender While on Probation/Suspension

Following the effective date of this decision, should Respondent cease practice due to retirement or health, or be otherwise unable to satisfy the terms and conditions of probation, Respondent may relinquish his pharmacist license, including any indicia of licensure issued by the Board, along with a request to surrender the license. The Board or its designee shall have the discretion whether to accept the surrender or take any other action it deems appropriate and reasonable. Upon formal acceptance of the surrender of the license, Respondent will no longer be subject to the terms and conditions of probation. This surrender will constitute a record of discipline and shall become a part of the Respondent's license history with the board.

Upon acceptance of the surrender, Respondent shall relinquish his pocket and/or wall license, including any indicia of licensure not previously provided to the Board, within ten (10) days of notification by the Board that the surrender is accepted. Respondent may not reapply for any license from the Board for three (3) years from the effective date of the surrender. Respondent shall meet all requirements applicable to the license sought as of the date the application for that license is submitted to the Board, including any outstanding costs.

51. Completion of Probation

Upon written notice by the Board or its designee indicating successful completion of probation, Respondent's license will be fully restored.

52. Violation of Probation

The Board or its designee may post a notice of the extended probation period on its website.

If Respondent violates probation in any respect, the Board, after giving Respondent notice and an opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order that was stayed. If a petition to revoke probation or accusation is filed against Respondent, or the preparation of an accusation or petition to revoke probation is requested from the Office of the Attorney General, the Board shall have continuing jurisdiction and probation shall be automatically extended until the petition to revoke probation or accusation is heard and decided.

31. California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1751.4, subdivision (f) states:

Pharmacies preparing-g sterile compounded preparations require the use of a PEC that provides ISO Class 5 air or better air quality. Certification and testing of primary and secondary engineering controls shall be performed no less than every six months and whenever the device or area designated for compounding is relocated, altered or a service to the facility is performed that would impact the device or area. Certification must be completed by a qualified technician who is familiar with certification methods and procedures in accordance with CETA Certification Guide for Sterile Compounding Facilities (CAG-003-2006-13, Revised May 20, 2015), which is hereby incorporated by reference. Certification records must be retained for at least 3 years. Unidirectional compounding aseptic isolators or compounding aseptic containment isolators may be used outside of an ISO Class 7 cleanroom if the isolator is certified to meet the following criteria:

(1) Particle counts sampled approximately 6-12 inches upstream of the critical exposure site shall maintain ISO Class 5 levels during compounding operations.

(2) Not more than 3520 particles (0.5 um and larger) per cubic meter shall be counted during material transfer, with the particle counter probe located as near to the transfer door as possible without obstructing transfer.

(3) Recovery time to achieve ISO Class 5 air quality shall be documented and internal procedures developed to ensure that adequate recovery time is allowed after material transfer before and during compounding operations. Compounding aseptic isolators that do not meet the requirements as outlined in this subdivision or are not located within an ISO Class 7 cleanroom may only be used to compound preparations that meet the criteria specified in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 1751.8 of Title 16, Division 17, of the California Code of Regulations.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

40. MCPS is a sterile compounding pharmacy located in Santa Ana, California. It compounds non-sterile to sterile compounded sterile preparations and furnishes sterile injectable drugs (i.e., infusion therapies) to physicians and clinics for administration to patients. At all times relevant herein, Si Pham was the Pharmacist-in-Charge and Ronald McGuff was the sole shareholder and an officer of the corporation that owns MCPS. Board inspections revealed the following violations of Pharmacy Law.

41. Pharmacy technicians, facility foremen, plant managers, corporate representatives, chemists, engineers and/or other non-licensed staff possessed keys and alarm codes for areas where dangerous drugs were compounded and accessed those areas when pharmacists were not present.

42. In 2017 and 2018, MCPS received reports of adverse drug effects (i.e., headaches, high fevers, diarrhea, extreme fatigue, loss of consciousness, chills and nausea) suffered by patients after being administered infusions of lipoic acid compounded and dispensed by MCPS.

43. In January 2019, the Board issued Compounding Safety Alerts about the use of inappropriate ingredients to compound sterile injectable drugs and strongly encouraged sterile compounding pharmacies to immediately review their quality assurance and recall policies and procedures to determine if any corrective action was required. The Board noted that dietary supplements, food grade chemicals, and cosmetic grade ingredients may have as much as ten times more impurities when compared to pharmaceutical grade ingredients, increasing the risk of patient harm. On February 1, 2019, the FDA warned compounders not to use a dietary grade bulk substance distributed by a manufacturer to compound sterile injectable drugs for patients due to higher levels of endotoxins in that dietary grade bulk substance.

44. MCPS compounded and dispensed sterile injectable drugs including hydrogen peroxide 3%, lipoic acid 40mg/ml, DMPS 50mg/ml, NADH 50 mg/ml and methylcobalamin 5mg/ml 30ml using ingredients (i.e., dietary grade, topical grade and ungraded bulk substances) likely containing higher levels of contaminates or impurities, including heavy metals, bacteria and mold and higher bioburden levels (i.e., the number of bacteria living on a surface or in a substance that has not been sterilized), than pharmaceutical grade ingredients, therefore potentially placing patients at risk.

45. On November 13, 2019, the Board issued an Order of Correction to MCPS for this unsafe practice and directed Si Pham to send a plan of correction.

46. On November 22, 2019, the FDA issued a Form FDA 483 to MCPS observing among other violations, that MCPS compounded and dispensed sterile injectable drugs with non-pharmaceutical grade ingredients containing high levels of contaminants (MCPS "currently uses …dietary grade bulk substances in sterile injectable drug products") and observed that the use of non-pharmaceutical grade bulk substances in MCPS's products resulted in a recall of Lipoic Acid 40 mg/ml, 30 ml vials due to a "filmy wispy precipitate" found in on-hand vials of released product and the discontinued production of NADH disodium 50 mg/ml due to out of specification endotoxin results.

47. During the "closeout" meeting on November 22, 2019, both the FDA and Board informed Ronald McGuff and Si Pham about the safety risks associated with MCPS's practice of compounding sterile injectable drugs with inappropriate ingredients containing higher levels of contaminants and higher bioburden levels than pharmaceutical grade ingredients.

48. On December 5, 2019, MCPS wrote the Board that it was MCPS's "continuing desire and intention to comply with all requirements of California pharmacy laws and expectations of the Board of Pharmacy" and it had stopped the dispensing and compounding of sterile preparations compounded with dietary grade and non-compendial grade raw materials "regardless of whether the bulk drug substance appears on the FDA's Category 1 list until further guidance and/or clarification from both the FDA and CA BOP." On December 16, 2019, MCPS wrote the FDA that "[i]n the near term, MCPS has suspended compounding drug preparations containing the components listed in the observation and all USP dietary grade supplements. Drug preparation lots compounded with the listed components will not be dispensed...Corrective Actions for Observation 7: Suspend compounding and dispensing drug preparations utilizing non-pharmaceutical grade components until pharmaceutical grade replacements can be procured or until alternate assurance of material quality and fitness for intended used can be established."

49. However, MCPS continued to compound and dispense a large volume of sterile injectable drugs from inappropriate ingredients, including methylcobalamin and lipoic acid after making those representations to the Board and FDA and receiving the Compounding Safety Alerts.

50. MCPS compounded sterile injectable lipoic acid 40mg/ml 30 ml MDV (Lot No. 18M0991) and DMPS 50mg/ml 5ml SDV (Lot No. 18J1081) containing particulate or precipitate but failed to provide the Board with notice of the recalls of those drugs within twelve hours as required.

51. Patients reported to MCPS that they suffered adverse drug effects (i.e., excruciating pain) from one of its sterile injectable drug products, vitamin D3 10,00IU/ML 30ML MDV (Lot No. 20F1501:0920) but it failed to report those adverse effects to the Board within twelve hours as required.

52. MCPS compounded sterile injectable chromium (Lot No. 19K411) without a master formula describing the equipment to be used, inactive ingredients to be used and the specific and essential compounding steps used to prepare that infusion.

53. MCPS did not possess all of the policies and procedures required to compound sterile injectable drugs, including procedures for quality assurance programs, cleaning and maintenance of ISO environments and for maintaining, storing, calibrating, cleaning, and disinfecting equipment used in compounding, and for training on these procedures as part of the staff training and competency evaluation process. It also did not possess a written quality assurance plan designed to monitor and ensure the integrity, potency, quality, and labeled strength of compounded drug preparations.

54. From January 17 through February 23, 2018, there was a 12.6% patch in the HEPA filter of MCPS's primary engineering control devices in Room 107 which was not completely repaired. Yet, MCPS continued to compound at least ten sterile injectable drugs with that primary engineering control device before it was re-certified and tested on February 23, 2018.

55. In November 2019, pharmacy technicians performed prefatory compounding functions, (washed and prepared empty vials) without a pharmacist being present on the premises.

56. In August and September 2020, MCPS failed to document the manufacturer of at least one component for the sterile injectable drug, methylcobalamin.

57. Despite the filing of the Accusation, the discussions with the FDA and Board about safety risks associated with using inappropriate ingredients, the receipt of the FDA Form 483, the receipt of the Board's Order of Correction and the Written Notice and Respondents' promises to cease compounding and dispensing sterile injectable drugs with dietary grade and non-compendial substances, from at least June 1, 2021 through December 1, 2021, MCPS continued to compound and dispense sterile injectable drugs, methylcobalamin 5mg/mL, glutathione 200mg/mL, taurine, lipoic acid and DMPS using inappropriate ingredients (i.e., dietary grade and ungraded bulk substances) likely containing higher levels of contaminates or impurities, including heavy metals, bacteria and mold and higher bioburden levels (i.e., the number of bacteria living on a surface or in a substance that has not been sterilized), than pharmaceutical grade ingredients, therefore potentially placing patients at risk.

58. In 2021, MCPS received reports of at least six adverse drug effects, including headaches, fever, chills and nausea from sterile injectable drugs compounded and dispensed, but failed to timely report at least four of those adverse drug effects to the Board. It also failed to report at least four of the adverse drug effects immediately to the MedWatch Program of the FDA.

59. On January 24, 2022, the Board issued an Order of Correction to Respondents for their continued use of ingredients in sterile injectable products that lacked quality and a Written Notice for the failure to report adverse drug effects to the Board within twelve hours and immediately to the MedWatch Program of the FDA.

Members of the Board of Pharmacy:

We, the undersigned, write to you from the perspective of Board licensees who agreed to the imposition of discipline on our pharmacy and pharmacist licenses in the case titled In the Matter of the Accusation Against McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services, Inc., et al., Board Case No. 7176. We reached a settlement of the Accusation, of which this letter is part.

We wish to forthrightly and unequivocally state, here, that as persons with significant experience in pharmacy compounding, we agree with and support the following statements:

- All compounding pharmacies located in California or which provide services to California patients are governed both by relevant sections of federal statutes and regulations applicable to pharmacy compounding, including but not limited to section 501 [21 U.S.C. § 351] of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA), which defines "adulterated" drugs to include those prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions, and FDCA section 503A [21 U.S.C. § 353a], which sets forth several federal requirements to engage in traditional pharmacy compounding, and by the California Pharmacy Law and its associated regulations;

- Further, best practices demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies not use bulk drug substances that are not graded, nor those not designated by their manufacturers for pharmaceutical use, nor those lacking an appropriate USP/NF monograph;

- Best practices further demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies only use bulk drug substances that: (1) comply with the standards of an applicable United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary monograph; (2) if such monograph does not exist, are drug substances that are components of FDA-approved drugs; and (3) if such monograph does not exist and the drug substance is not a component of an FDA-approved drug, then it must be on a list developed by the Secretary through regulations issued by the Secretary under subsection (c); and

- Best practices also demand that section 503A traditional compounding pharmacies: (1) only use bulk drug substances that are manufactured by an FDA-registered establishment; and (2) that are accompanied by valid certificates of analysis for each bulk drug substance.

We look forward to working with the FDA and the Board to be sure that Californians have access to prescribed medications that are held to the highest degree of quality assurance.

1. On or about February 28, 2025, Respondents were served with the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation (Accusation) on file in this matter together with the Statement to Respondent and Notice of Hearing.

2. Respondent is entering into this Stipulation in lieu of filing an Answer and Notice of Defense to the Accusation.

3. Respondents are fully aware of the right to seek the advice of counsel in this matter and obtained the advice of counsel prior to entering into this Stipulation.

4. Respondents are aware of the right to a hearing on the matters alleged in the Accusation, the right to reconsideration, the right to appeal and any and all other rights which may be accorded pursuant to NRS Chapter 233B (Nevada Administrative Procedure Act), NRS Chapter

6. The cause of action against McGuff Company, Inc, Wholesale License No. WH01300, as set forth in Count 1, Paragraph 8 of the Accusation, is hereby DISMISSED pursuant to NRS 622A.320(4).

7. Respondent McGuff Pharmacy does not contest the allegations in the Accusation, but acknowledges that Board staff prosecuting this case could present such evidence at an administrative hearing to establish a factual basis for the violations alleged therein, to wit, that:

A. On or about March 1, 2023, the California State Board of Pharmacy entered an Order in Case Nol. 7176 approving a stipulated settlement for voluntary surrender of Respondent McGuff Pharmacy's Pharmacy Permit No. PHY 43950 and Sterile Compounding License No. LSC 99004, for numerous violations of federal and California state law related to compounding drug products, including, without limitation, various provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 353a, 42 U.S.C. § 262, Cal. Business and Professions Code § 4000 et seq., and Cal. Code of Regulations, Title 16, Section 1700 et seq.

B. Business and Professions Code § 4000 et seq., and Cal. Code of Regulations, Title 16, Section 1700 et seq. as detailed in the California State Board of Pharmacy's Order entered in Case Nol. 7176. Respondent McGuff Pharmacy is responsible for those violations, including all errors and omissions of pharmacy personnel, pursuant to NRS 639.230(5), NAC 639.702 and/or NAC 639.945(3) and therefore subject to discipline pursuant to NRS 639.210(4), (11) and/or (12).

8. Those violations are pled with particularity in the Accusation and grounds for action pursuant to NRS 639.210 and NRS 639.255.

9. To resolve this matter without incurring any further costs or the expense associated with a hearing, the Board and Respondent stipulate to the following penalties:

A. The expired pharmacy license of McGuff Compounding Pharmacy Services, Inc, Pharmacy License No. PH01563, is revoked pursuant to NRS 639.255(1)(d);

B. Pursuant to NRS 639.255(1)(f) and NAC 639.955(5), Respondent shall pay a fine of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for the violations by personal, business, certified or cashier's check or money order made payable to "State of Nevada, Office of the Treasurer," to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, due and payable by December 1, 2025; and

C. Pursuant to NRS 622.400, Respondent shall pay One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to partially reimburse the Board for recoverable attorney's fees and investigative costs by personal, business, certified or cashier's check or money order made payable to the "Nevada State Board of Pharmacy" to be received by the Board's Reno office located at 985 Damonte Ranch Parkway – Suite 206, Reno, Nevada 89521, due and payable by December 1, 2025.

10. Any failure by Respondent to comply with the terms of this Order may result in issuance by the Executive Secretary of an order to show cause pursuant to NAC 639.965 directing Respondent to appear before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting for a show cause hearing. If such a hearing results in a finding of a violation of this Order by Respondent, the Board may impose additional discipline upon that Respondent not inconsistent with the provisions of NRS Chapter 639.

11. General Counsel will present this Stipulation to the Board for approval pursuant to NRS 622.330 at the Board's regularly scheduled public meeting on September 3, 2025.

Respondent will appear in person or through counsel at the meeting to answer questions from the Board Members and/or Board Staff. The Board Members and Staff may discuss and deliberate regarding this Stipulation, even if Respondent or counsel are not present at the meeting.

12. The Board has discretion to accept this Stipulation, but it is not obligated to do so. If this Stipulation is approved by the Board, it shall be a public record pursuant to NRS 622.330 and shall be reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank pursuant to 42 USC § 1396r–2 and 45 CFR Part 60, and shall be further reported pursuant to NAC 639.960.

13. If the Board rejects any part or all of this Stipulation, and unless they reach an alternative agreement on the record during the hearing, the parties agree that a full hearing on the merits of this matter may be heard by the Board at a later date. The terms and admissions herein may not be used or referred to in a full hearing on the merits of this matter.

14. Subject to the approval of this Stipulation by the Board, the Board and Respondent agree to release one another from any and all additional claims arising from the facts set forth in the Accusation on file herein, whether known or unknown that might otherwise have existed on or before the effective date of this Order.

Respondents have fully considered the charges and allegations contained in the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation in this matter, and the terms of this Stipulation, and have knowingly and voluntarily agreed to the terms set forth herein, and waived certain rights, as stated herein.

ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board) hereby IMMEDIATELY SUSPENDS the license of Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (Respondent) from the practice of medicine, pursuant to the Board's authority to regulate the practice of medicine in the State of Nevada pursuant to Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630.

The IC issues this Order of Suspension (Order) based on its determination that Respondent's acts place the health, safety, or welfare of the public at risk of imminent harm pursuant to NRS 630.326(1).

Prior to the preparation of this Order, Board Staff presented to the IC the following:

1. Respondent is a medical doctor licensed to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty listed as Obstetrics/Gynecology since 2003.

2. On November 22, 2022, Respondent lost his hospital privileges at Renown Regional Medical Center (Renown) following a voluntary surrender of his clinical privileges while under, or to avoid, an investigation relating to his professional competence or conduct.

3. Following Respondent's November 22, 2022, surrender of hospital privileges at Renown, Respondent held no hospital privileges, and therefore could not deliver any of his prenatal patients.

4. Patient A[2] was a prenatal patient of Respondent when he surrendered his hospital privileges at Renown.

5. On September 8, 2022, Patient A was diagnosed with a twin pregnancy. Patient A's pregnancy was classified as high-risk due to her twin pregnancy and gestational diabetes.

6. From October 26, 2022, until March 30, 2023, Patient A was seen by a high-risk pregnancy specialist on no less than five (5) occasions for high-risk pregnancy and prenatal care including performance of ultrasounds. Due to the fetal growth restriction of Twin A, Patient A was recommended by the high-risk pregnancy specialist to be induced between thirty-six (36) weeks and thirty-six weeks and three days (36.3) weeks gestation.

7. Despite Patient A's classification as a high-risk pregnancy, Respondent failed to refer her to an appropriate care provider who could deliver Patient A, nor did he make arrangements with another physician group who could assume the prenatal care of Patient A for delivery services.

8. On March 31, 2023, Respondent, unable to induce labor or deliver Patient A, instructed her to present to the emergency department at Renown when she went into labor. This resulted in exposure of Patient A and her twin children to unnecessary danger and great risk of harm, as Patient A would not be induced as recommended by the high-risk pregnancy specialist.

9. Board investigations reveal that Respondent is continuing to offer prenatal care to other established patients and advertise for and accept new prenatal patients, despite his lack of hospital privileges and his inability to deliver his patients, and without any relationship with another provider or practice group to whom he could transfer his patients for delivery services.

10. Based on the foregoing, the IC finds that the health, safety, and welfare of the Respondent's patients and the public are at imminent risk of harm if Respondent is permitted to continue practicing medicine, and that an immediate suspension of Respondent's license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada is necessary for the protection of the Public. See NRS 630.326(1).

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the License of Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (9105) is SUMMARILY SUSPENDED until further order of the IC or Board, and Respondent is prohibited from engaging in any acts that constitute the practice of medicine pursuant to NRS 630.020; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a hearing on this matter is set for the 12th day of October, 2023, at 2:00 p.m., at the Board's office located at 9600 Gateway Drive, Reno, Nevada 89521, to determine whether this suspension may continue, unless the parties mutually agree in writing to a different date and/or time. See NRS 630.326(2).

COMPLAINT

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through its counsel, Ian J. Cumings, Deputy General Counsel and attorney for the IC, having a reasonable basis to believe that Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (Respondent) violated the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 630 (collectively, the Medical Practice Act), hereby issues its Complaint, stating the IC's charges and allegations as follows:

1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a physician holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a twenty-six (26) year-old female at the time of the events at issue.

3. On January 26, 2022, Patient A established care with Respondent for routine gynecological care.

4. On September 8, 2022, Patient A was seen by Respondent who diagnosed her with a twin pregnancy via ultrasound testing.

[1] The Investigative Committee of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, at the time this formal Complaint was authorized for filing, was composed of Board members Aury Nagy, M.D., Chairman, Nicola (Nick) Spirtos, M.D., F.A.C.O.G., and Ms. Maggie Arias-Petrel.

[2] Patient A's true identity is not disclosed herein to protect her privacy, but is disclosed in the Patient Designation served upon Respondent along with a copy of this Complaint.

5. On October 26, 2022, Patient A was seen by a perinatologist at a high-risk pregnancy center due to her twin pregnancy and diagnosed with gestational diabetes. Patient A's pregnancy continued to be monitored with serial ultrasounds.

6. On November 22, 2022, Respondent lost his hospital privileges at Renown Regional Medical Center (Renown Hospital) following a voluntary surrender of his clinical privileges while under, or to avoid, an investigation relating to his professional competence or his conduct.

7. On February 8, 2023, Patient A underwent ultrasound testing at the high-risk pregnancy center which indicated Twin A was growth restricted. Following Twin A's diagnosis of growth restriction, Patient A was recommended to deliver sometime between thirty-six (36) and thirty-seven (37) weeks of gestation by her perinatologist and to continue to receive ultrasound testing every two (2) weeks to monitor her pregnancy.

8. On March 30, 2023, at thirty-six (36) weeks pregnant, Patient A underwent further ultrasound testing that was performed by the perinatologist which demonstrated little growth from the previous ultrasound on March 13, 2023. The perinatologist recommended delivery between thirty-six weeks (36) and thirty-six weeks and three days (36.3) weeks.

9. On March 30, 2023, Patient A was seen by Respondent who performed a membrane sweep on Patient A to help induce labor. As Respondent did not have hospital privileges and was unable to fully induce labor in Patient A nor deliver Patient A's children, he instructed her to present to the emergency department at Renown Hospital should she go into labor.

10. Respondent failed to refer Patient A to an appropriate care provider or physician group who could properly induce Patient A for delivery of her pregnancy, despite his knowledge of the perinatologist's delivery recommendation.

11. On April 1, 2023, Patient A had yet to go into labor, and presented to Renown Hospital for delivery of her children within the recommended time given to her by the perinatologist. Patient A ultimately delivered her children by cesarean section on April 2, 2023, at Renown Hospital by a physician with privileges at the hospital.

Respondent failed to timely seek consultation with an appropriate care provider in regard to Patient A's medical condition from November 22, 2022, through April 2, 2023 to address the doubtfulness of the diagnosis of Patient A's medical condition and such a timely consultation would have confirmed or denied such a diagnosis and may have enhanced the quality of medical care provided to Patient A with regard to the delivery of Patient A's twin pregnancy.

21. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners as provided in NRS 630.352.

NRS 630.306(1)(g) - Continual Failure to Exercise Skill or Diligence

22. All of the allegations contained in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

23. Continual failure by the Respondent to exercise the skill or diligence or use the methods ordinarily exercised under the same circumstances by physicians in good standing practicing in the same specialty or field is grounds for disciplinary action against a licensee pursuant to NRS 630.306(1)(g)

24. Respondent continually failed to exercise skill or diligence as demonstrated by his continuing prenatal care of Patient A without making arrangements or an appropriate referral for the delivery of Patient A's high-risk pregnancy.

25. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352

COUNT IV

NRS 630.306(1)(p) - Unsafe or Unprofessional Conduct

26. All of the allegations in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated as if fully set forth herein.

27. Engaging in any act that is unsafe or unprofessional conduct in accordance with regulations adopted by the Board is grounds for disciplinary action against a licensee pursuant to NRS 630.306(1)(p).

28. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent's conduct was unsafe and unprofessional when he continued to provide obstetrical care to Patient A without making the proper arrangements with an obstetrical care provider who possessed privileges to practice to deliver Patient A's pregnancy, exposing Patient A and her children to an unacceptable and high-risk of complications during delivery. Respondent's conduct was unsafe and unprofessional.

29. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

WHEREFORE, the Investigative Committee prays:

1. That the Board give Respondent notice of the charges herein against him and give him notice that he may file an answer to the Complaint herein as set forth in NRS 630.339(2) within twenty (20) days of service of the Complaint;

4. That the Board award fees and costs for the investigation and prosecution of this case as outlined in NRS 622.400;

COMPLAINT

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through its counsel, Deonne E. Contine, General Counsel and Ian J. Cumings, Deputy General Counsel and attorneys for the IC, having a reasonable basis to believe that Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (Respondent) violated the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 630 (collectively, the Medical Practice Act), hereby issues its Complaint, stating the IC's charges and allegations as follows:

1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a physician holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a sixty-nine (69) year-old female at the time of the events at issue.

3. Records indicate that Respondent first saw Patient A on December 28, 2018, after referral by her primary care physician for evaluation of a six-week medical history of vaginal discharge, at times bloody, that was not responding to antifungal or antibacterial treatment.

4. Respondent's note states that Patient A's chief complaint was vaginal discharge, irregular spotting, and urinary urgency. Respondent states that Patient A had significant urinary urgency, that she did not feel as if she fully emptied her bladder, and that she gets up to urinate up to three (3) times per night.

[1] The Investigative Committee of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, at the time this formal Complaint was authorized for filing, was composed of Board members Aury Nagy, M.D., Chairman, Nicola (Nick) Spirtos, M.D., F.A.C.O.G., and Ms. Maggie Arias-Petrel.

[2] Patient A's true identity is not disclosed herein to protect her privacy but is disclosed in the Patient Designation served upon Respondent along with a copy of this Complaint.

5. Respondent discussed with Patient A undergoing a Urodynamic study to assess Patient A's urinary incontinence. Respondent's notes document that Patient A agreed to the testing, which was performed on December 28, 2018, during a scheduled appointment.

6. Records for the Urodynamic study description indicated mild incontinence. However, no testing data or analysis was included in Patient A's medical records.

7. The Assessment/Diagnosis from the December 28, 2018, appointment note Patient A "will proceed with the evaluation of the vulvovaginal atrophy if her symptoms worsen."

8. Respondent's medical records from January 16, 2019, indicated results from a vaginal ultrasound were unremarkable; nevertheless, Patient A was counseled regarding the findings of the ultrasound and the notes stated that she would proceed with further work-up given the concern. Patient A proceeded with a CT scan of the abdomen and pelvis with and without contrast.

9. January 16, 2019, records also indicate that Patient A "has had one episode of unprotected sexual activity but had a normal cycle after the last encounter." However, a normal cycle is hard to imagine in any 69-year-old woman, but especially in a woman who had a hysterectomy. The fact that she had a hysterectomy was documented in Patient A's records on the same page that indicated she had a normal cycle.

10. On January 24, 2019, Patient A had a follow-up appointment where she was counseled regarding the CT scan results which were unremarkable and did not warrant further review. At this appointment another Urodynamics study was described in Patient A's medical records, which noted again, that Patient A had mild incontinence. However once more, no data or analysis regarding the urodynamic testing was included in Patient A's medical records.

11. The January 24, 2019, records further noted that Patient A wished to proceed with an expectant management approach to her incontinence.

12. Seemingly in contradiction to the desire of Patient A to proceed with an expectant management approach to her incontinence, documentation in the records for January 24, 2019,

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners
9600 Gateway Drive
Reno, Nevada 89521
(775) 688-2559

also stated that Patient A was "no longer interested in proceeding with conservative management and now wishes she wishes [sic] to proceed with definitive surgery to correct not only her known pelvic floor relaxation but her [stress urinary incontinence]."

13. Respondent's records for Patient A showed an encounter on January 31, 2019, during which it was noted that Patient A, "was given preoperative instructions and wishes to proceed with the pelvic floor corrective surgery on the specified date."

14. The preoperative diagnosis or reason for surgery documentation stated "Symptomatic pelvic floor relaxation, pelvic pain, mixed urinary incontinence with strong type 2 stress urinary incontinent component as noted on urodynamic studies."

15. However, no documentation noting any objective finding of symptomatic pelvic organ prolapse was ever recorded in Respondent's records for Patient A, and pelvic floor related issues were not documented at any time prior to the issue appearing in the January 31, 2019, encounter, which was after all consents were obtained and surgery was scheduled.

16. Additionally, Patient A's medical records do not contain results of any urodynamic study that support a diagnosis of "mixed urinary incontinence with strong type 2 stress urinary incontinent component."

17. The only finding of prolapse in any of Patient A's medical records related to this issue, was of posterior prolapse documented by a colorectal surgeon, who noted "a small rectocele" on February 7, 2019, four (4) days before Patient A's surgery was scheduled to take place.

18. On February 11, 2019, Patient A presented to Saint Mary's Regional Medical Center where records showed Respondent performed the following surgical procedures: anterior and posterior vaginal repair, enterocele repair, perineoplasty, sacrospinous vault suspension, trans obturator tape mid urethral sling procedures and cystoscopy. These procedures were not performed on the basis of any documented complaints by Patient A nor any medical diagnoses.

21. NAC 630.040 defines malpractice as "the failure of a physician, in treating a patient, to use the reasonable care, skill, or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances."

22. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent failed to use the reasonable care, skill or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances when he performed the unindicated surgical procedures on Patient A as described herein.

23. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

COUNT II

NRS 630.3062(1)(a) - Failure to Maintain Complete Medical Records

24. All of the allegations contained in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

26. Respondent failed to maintain complete medical records relating to the diagnosis, treatment and care of Patient A, by, among other things, failing to document any complaints made by Patient A of symptomatic pelvic organ prolapse before he performed surgery on Patient A. Additionally, Respondent's records stated, "[Patient A] has had one episode of unprotected sexual activity but had a normal cycle after the last encounter." Patient A was sixty-nine (69) years old, post-menopausal, and had a positive surgical history of a hysterectomy thereby eliminating the menses or cycle of Patient A. Finally, there were additional inconsistencies and omissions in Respondent's records for Patient A, whose medical records were not timely, legible, accurate, and complete.

27. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

30. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent violated NRS 630.301(8) regarding Patient A's medical conditions when Respondent performed unindicated surgery on Patient A, including anterior and posterior vaginal repair, enterocele repair, perineoplasty, sacrospinous vault suspension, trans obturator tape mid urethral sling procedures and cystoscopy. Respondent performed all the aforementioned procedures without a medical purpose or diagnosis and with the intent of positively influencing the financial well-being of Respondent's practice.

31. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

34. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent violated the trust of and exploited the relationship between Respondent and Patient A when he performed surgical procedures on Patient A that were not indicated because they were not based on any documented patient complaints or medical diagnoses.

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through its counsel, Deonne E. Contine, General Counsel and Ian J. Cumings, Deputy General Counsel and attorneys for the IC, having a reasonable basis to believe that Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (Respondent) violated the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 630 (collectively, the Medical Practice Act), hereby issues its Complaint, stating the IC's charges and allegations as follows:

1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a physician holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a sixty-five (65) year-old female at the time of the events at issue.

3. Records indicate that Respondent first saw Patient A on February 24, 2021, when she presented with a right labial mass. The mass was determined to be a Bartholin cyst that had decreased in size over time and Patient A was given instructions on sitz baths. The records for Patient A from the Assessment and Diagnosis section for this visit indicated a plan to follow-up with a biopsy of a right-sided mole, which was presumably discovered during a gynecological examination that day.

4. There was no documentation of urinary incontinence in any section of the February 24, 2021, medical records from Respondent for Patient A.

5. Respondent's medical records did not document any communication between Patient A and Respondent or his staff regarding incontinence, bladder issues, or conducting urodynamics testing[3] prior to Patient A presenting to Respondent's office for her biopsy appointment on March 5, 2021.

6. On March 5, 2021, within Respondent's notes in the Chief Complaint section of Patient A's medical records, there was inclusion of Urodynamics testing. This testing was not discussed with Patient A prior to this visit.

7. Patient A complained that when she presented for her appointment on March 5, 2021, for the biopsy of the Bartholin cyst, the room was set up for a Urodynamics study. After Patient A argued with Respondent and his office staff regarding the actual purpose of her visit, Patient A ultimately convinced Respondent to perform the biopsy.

8. Thereafter, over Patient A's objection that she had no bladder problems, Respondent insisted that Patient A complete the bladder test anyway and proceeded to conduct the Urodynamics study immediately following collection of the biopsy specimen. Patient A's medical records did not include documentation of a written or oral consent to the Urodynamics study performed on March 5, 2021.

9. Respondent scheduled the Urodynamics study prior to Patient A's March 5, 2021, appointment. However, the first mention in Respondent's medical records of urinary incontinence and pelvic pressure for Patient A was from the March 5, 2021, visit.

10. Respondent's records are inaccurate because Patient A did not discuss urinary incontinence with Respondent at any time and, in fact, Patient A had never complained to Respondent of any problems with her bladder.

[3] A Urodynamic study is a test used to help diagnose problems with urination or urinary incontinence. It involves insertion of a catheter into the bladder and may involve an additional catheter placed in a patient's vagina or rectum.

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners
9600 Gateway Drive
(775) 688-2559

11. Patient A's medical records lacked any documentation of either subjective or objective urinary incontinence evaluations nor documented any discussions between Respondent and Patient A about any degree of bother that urinary incontinence presented for her.

12. With respect to the Urodynamics study results, the 3-Channel CMG (cystometrogram) portion DOES NOT match the documented description from Patient A's March 5, 2021, records and the CMG tracing DOES NOT match the markings on the tracing.

13. Following her March 5, 2021, appointment, Respondent's staff called Patient A to schedule her return for her biopsy results; however, Patient A never returned to see Respondent for gynecological care.

COUNT I

NRS 630.301(4) - Malpractice

14. All of the allegations contained in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

15. NRS 630.301(4) provides that malpractice of a physician is grounds for initiating disciplinary action against a licensee.

16. NAC 630.040 defines malpractice as "the failure of a physician, in treating a patient, to use the reasonable care, skill, or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances."

17. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent failed to use the reasonable care, skill or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances when he performed an unindicated procedure (the Urodynamics study) on Patient A because he had no documentation of either subjective or objective urinary incontinence and no documented discussion regarding the degree of bother that urinary incontinence presented for Patient A. Patient A had never complained to or asked Respondent to address urinary incontinence because she did not have any bladder problems.

18. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

NRS 630.3062(1)(a) - Failure to Maintain Appropriate Medical Records

19. All of the allegations contained in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

20. NRS 630.3062(1)(a) provides that the "failure to maintain timely, legible, accurate and complete medical records relating to the diagnosis, treatment and care of a patient" constitute grounds for initiating discipline against a licensee.

21. Respondent failed to maintain complete medical records relating to the diagnosis, treatment and care of Patient A, by, among other things, failing to document either subjective or objective urinary incontinence or any discussion regarding the degree of bother that urinary incontinence presented for Patient A in support of him performing the Urodynamics study.

22. Respondent's records are inaccurate because Patient A never discussed urinary incontinence with Respondent and, in fact, Patient A had never complained to Respondent of any problems with her bladder.

23. Finally, there are numerous additional inconsistencies, inaccuracies, and omissions in Respondent's records for Patient A, whose medical records were not timely, legible, accurate, or complete.

24. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

NRS 630.301(8) - Failure to Provide Procedures, Studies, Services, Referrals

27. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent violated NRS 630.301(8) regarding Patient A's medical conditions when Respondent performed an unindicated procedure on Patient A, specifically the Urodynamics study. Respondent's performance of the aforementioned procedure occurred without a medical purpose and with the intent of positively influencing the financial well-being of the Respondent's practice.

28. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

31. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent violated the trust of and exploited the relationship between the Respondent and Patient A by performing the Urodynamics study on Patient A over her objection and despite having no objective or subjective documentation of urinary incontinence and no documented discussion with or complaint from Patient A regarding urinary incontinence or bladder problems.

32. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

35. Respondent's behavior by performing a Urodynamic study procedure of which Patient A did not consent and which was conducted for no medical purpose, was demeaning, humiliating, and traumatizing to Patient A and thus adversely affected the quality of care rendered to her.

36. By reason of the foregoing, Respondent is subject to discipline by the Board as provided in NRS 630.352.

COMPLAINT

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through its counsel, Ian J. Cumings, Deputy General Counsel and attorney for the IC, having a reasonable basis to believe that Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D., (Respondent) violated the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 630 (collectively, the Medical Practice Act), hereby issues its Complaint, stating the IC's charges and allegations as follows:

1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a physician holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a forty-four (44) year-old female at the time of the events at issue.

3. On February 5, 2019, Patient A presented to the emergency room following complaints of mild cramping and dysuria (pain or difficulty urinating), where she was diagnosed with uterine fibroids.

4. On February 6, 2019, Patient A was seen by a urologist who documented Patient A had intermittent hematuria (blood in the urine) for one (1) week prior to her visit with right flank pain, urinary urgency, abdominal pain, and dysuria without a history of trauma prior to the onset of her symptoms.

[1] The Investigative Committee of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, at the time this formal Complaint was authorized for filing, was composed of Board members Aury Nagy, M.D., Chairman, Nick M. Spirtos, M.D., F.A.C.O.G., and Ms. Maggie Arias-Petrel.

[2] Patient A's true identity is not disclosed herein to protect her privacy, but is disclosed in the Patient Designation served upon Respondent along with a copy of this Complaint.

5. On February 11, 2019, Patient A was referred by her primary care physician to Respondent for her recurrent urinary tract infection (UTI) symptoms and uterine fibroids to be evaluated for a potential hysterectomy. Upon Patient A's initial clinical presentation, Respondent documented Patient A had abnormal (heavy) uterine bleeding and dysmenorrhea (pelvic pain) associated with her known uterine fibroids and agreed with Patient A to perform an endometrial biopsy.

6. Patient A returned to Respondent on February 15, 2019, with complaints of pelvic pain associated with menstruation. Respondent diagnosed Patient A with stress urinary incontinence and pelvic organ prolapse. Respondent's records from the February 15, 2019, visit are contradictory. Respondent documented Patient A had received Kegel exercise instructions, and then asserts Patient A had failed conservative management with pelvic floor exercises and wished to proceed with definitive surgical management of her pelvic pain and urodynamic stress urinary incontinence. This visit was Patient A's first time having received any information from Respondent about Kegel exercises.

7. During the February 15, 2019, visit Respondent performed a urodynamics study without clinical indication, as Patient A did not complain of stress urinary incontinence and was referred for a consultation for a hysterectomy for her known uterine fibroids and heavy bleeding during her menstrual cycles. Respondent diagnosed Patient A with stage two (2) uterovaginal prolapse without a proper supporting examination or indication documented in the medical record.

8. On March 19, 2019, Respondent performed a laparoscopically assisted vaginal hysterectomy, bilateral salpingectomy, anterior and posterior repair, enterocele repair, perineoplasty, transobturator mid-urethral sling, and sacrospinous ligament vaginal vault suspension, despite no clinical indication or complaints of pelvic organ prolapse.

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through Ian J. 1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a medical doctor holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a forty-three (43) year-old female at the time of the events at issue.

3. On November 21, 2019, Patient A presented to Respondent for her annual gynecologic exam, and to establish gynecological care with complaints of consistent pelvic pain and irregular bleeding. Patient A denied any urinary incontinence, constipation, or diarrhea.

4. During the November 21, 2019, visit establishing care, Respondent performed an annual exam, ordered ultrasound testing and proceeded to perform an endometrial biopsy on

[1] The Investigative Committee of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, at the time this formal Complaint was authorized for filing, was composed of Board members Aury Nagy, M.D., Chairman, Nicola (Nick) Spirtos, M.D., F.A.C.O.G., and Ms. Maggie Arias-Petrel.

Patient A. Respondent scheduled a follow-up appointment, documenting Patient A had failed medical management and was considering surgical intervention.

5. Laboratory testing demonstrated Patient A's endometrial biopsy was normal, and negative for hyperplasia or atypia.

6. On November 27, 2019, Patient A returned for her scheduled follow-up appointment with Respondent. Respondent documented Patient A now complained of stress urinary incontinence and that Patient A would, "like to move forward with hysterectomy and pelvic floor repair surgery," and was instructed on performing Kegel exercises.

7. On January 7, 2020, Patient A presented for an outpatient visit at Renown Medical Center ("Renown") with Respondent. During this visit she was scheduled for surgery on January 21, 2020, for symptomatic pelvic floor relaxation. Respondent recommended: hysterectomy, bilateral salpingectomy, native tissue repair in the form of anterior and posterior vaginal repair, enterocele repair, perineoplasty, sacrospinous vault suspension and a transobturator tape midurethral sling procedure. Respondent documented the reason for surgery as symptomatic pelvic floor relaxation with associated pelvic pain, dyspareunia, and mixed urinary incontinence symptoms with a strong type 2 urinary incontinent component as noted on urodynamic studies.

8. Respondent documented that Patient A's urodynamic studies demonstrated type 2 stress urinary incontinence, despite no such urodynamic study ever being performed on Patient A.

9. On January 8, 2020, Patient A underwent a sonograph which demonstrated no masses or cysts, with a small fundal fibroid.

10. Prior to the January 21, 2020, procedure, Patient A canceled her scheduled surgery with Respondent at Renown.

11. Patient A sought a second opinion on February 7, 2020, from a different OB/GYN physician who documented that Patient A exhibited no evidence of vaginal or bladder prolapse and was unsure of Respondent's indications for the recommended hysterectomy or bladder suspension. Subsequent ultrasound testing demonstrated unremarkable findings.

COMPLAINT

The Investigative Committee[1] (IC) of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners (Board), by and through its counsel, Deonne E. Contine, General Counsel and Ian J. Cumings, Deputy General Counsel as attorneys for the IC, having a reasonable basis to believe that Samuel Rodolfo Chacon, M.D. (Respondent) violated the provisions of Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 630 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 630 (collectively, the Medical Practice Act), hereby issues its Complaint, stating the IC's charges and allegations as follows:

1. Respondent was at all times relative to this Complaint a physician holding an active license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada (License No. 9105). Respondent was originally licensed by the Board on July 27, 1999, with a specialty in Obstetrics/Gynecology.

2. Patient A[2] was a forty-three (43) year-old female at the time of the relevant events at issue in this Complaint.

3. On November 18, 2021, Patient A saw her family physician, Dr. Kimberly Clinite for abnormal uterine bleeding which had been ongoing for two (2) weeks. Patient A was concerned that her bleeding might be caused by her intrauterine device (IUD) and wished to have the IUD removed. There was no pelvic organ prolapse noted on a detailed pelvic examination in the records for this appointment.

[1] The Investigative Committee of the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, at the time this formal Complaint was authorized for filing, was composed of Board members Aury Nagy, M.D., Chairman, Nicola (Nick) Spirtos, M.D., F.A.C.O.G., and Ms. Maggie Arias-Petrel.

[2] Patient A's true identity is not disclosed herein to protect her privacy but is disclosed in the Patient Designation served upon Respondent along with a copy of this Complaint.

4. Dr. Clinite removed the IUD, however, the left arm broke off during extraction and Dr. Clinite was unable to retrieve it. Thereafter, she referred Patient A to Respondent for evaluation for removal of the retained IUD arm.

5. Patient A saw Respondent on December 15, 2021. In Patient A's intake paperwork, she indicated that her reason for the visit was "retained IUD parts." Similarly, Patient A identified her chief complaint as "retained IUD arm."

6. In Respondent's medical record for the December 15, 2021, appointment he notes Patient A's chief complaints to be retained IUD, irregular bleeding, pelvic pressure and incontinence.

7. On her New Patient Medical History form, which she completed at her December 15, 2021, appointment, Patient A answered no to a series of questions regarding abdominal or pelvic pain, concerns regarding sex, night urination, or any bulging sensation from her vagina.

8. Patient A answered yes to a single question on the New Patient Medical History form regarding loss of urine. However, Respondent's December 15, 2021, medical record does not document any specific history of urinary incontinence nor is there any notation in the medical records supporting that Patient A complained about stress urinary incontinence and that it negatively impacted her quality of life.

9. Despite no documented pelvic examination, no documented history of stress urinary incontinence, nor any documented complaint from Patient A that she suffered from urinary incontinence, during the December 15, 2021, visit, Respondent performed a urodynamics study.[3] There is no documentation of consent to perform the urodynamics study in Patient A's medical records. Patient A was never given any results of the urodynamics study and thereafter developed a urinary tract infection.

[3] A Urodynamic study is a test used to help diagnose problems with urination or urinary incontinence. It involves insertion of a catheter into the bladder and may involve an additional catheter placed in a patient's vagina or rectum.

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners

(775) 688-2559

10. The urodynamics study summary report that is included in Patient A's medical records contains irrational and inaccurate data, and it is not reliable for diagnostic purposes, clinical reasoning, or clinical decision making.

11. Respondent documented that Patient A complained of pelvic pain radiating to her back. His notes state that she would begin taking Vicodin for the pain. Even though Patient A lives in Susanville, California, Respondent noted that he would see her, or she would be seen in the emergency room after-hours if her pain worsened.

12. Elsewhere in Respondent's notes in the medical records of Patient A, it states "She will start her Vicodin which was prescribed today and may take before surgery if sig [sic] pelvic pain or pressure."

13. Respondent's Prescriber Activity Report from the Nevada Prescription Monitoring Program shows no prescriber activity by Respondent for Patient A on December 15, 2021, or at any other time.

14. At the December 15, 2021, 2021 visit Respondent documented that Patient A, "wishes to proceed with endometrial ablation in order to address cycles as she states that she has exhausted conservative options of management." In fact, records from that day document that Patient A had normal cycles. Additionally, Respondent noted that Patient A "wishes to proceed with bladder repair as she tried Kegel exercises in the past and that Patient A "wishes to proceed with surgical options at this time." There was no diagnosis documented at that time.

15. At the December 15, 2021, visit, although no specific diagnosis was documented in the medical records of Patient A other than the retained IUD arm, for which she was to have a hysteroscopy, Patient A was consented for the following additional surgical procedures:
1) salpingectomy 2) endometrial ablation; 3) sacrospinous vault suspension; 4) enterocele repair; 5) cystoscopy; 6) perineoplasty; 7) mid-urethral sling; and 8) any additional necessary procedures.

16. Respondent documented a pelvic examination of Patient A only in the preoperative history which was written and dictated in the early evening of December 15, 2021, after the appointment with Patient A had taken place and after the surgical procedure had been planned and Patient A had consented.

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners

17. All surgical procedures were scheduled for January 6, 2022, at Renown Regional Medical Center.

18. Prior to the January 6, 2022, appointment, Patient A canceled her scheduled surgeries with Respondent.

19. On January 4, 2022, Patient A saw a different OB/GYN physician ("second OB/GYN") regarding removal of the retained IUD and possible tubal ligation. General history notes from her January 4, 2022, appointment state that Patient A had no other complaints and she reported regular monthly cycles and no pelvic pain or pressure.

20. On January 20, 2022, Patient A saw the second OB/GYN where it was documented that she reported normal menses and no pelvic pain or pressure. Patient A indicated her desire to proceed with a bilateral laparoscopic salpingectomy and the hysteroscopy to remove the retained IUD arm and had consented to those surgical procedures during the January 20, 2022, appointment.

COUNT I

NRS 630.301(4) - Malpractice

21. All of the allegations contained in the above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

22. NRS 630.301(4) provides that malpractice of a physician is grounds for initiating disciplinary action against a licensee.

23. NAC 630.040 defines malpractice as, "the failure of a physician, in treating a patient, to use the reasonable care, skill, or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances."

24. As demonstrated by, but not limited to, the above-outlined facts, Respondent failed to use the reasonable care, skill or knowledge ordinarily used under similar circumstances when rendering medical services to Patient A when he scheduled Patient A for an endometrial ablation; sacrospinous vault suspension; enterocele repair; cystoscopy; perineoplasty; mid-urethral sling; and any additional procedures despite there being no clinical indication or diagnostic testing supporting this treatment plan.

Exhibit A

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice, the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), and the Department of Labor (collectively, the "United States"); and Injured Workers Pharmacy LLC ("IWP"). The United States and IWP are each referred to herein as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

RECITALS

A. IWP is a mail-order pharmacy that is located at 300 Federal St, Andover, Massachusetts. IWP dispenses and ships prescription drugs, including controlled substances, across the United States, primarily to workers who have been injured on the job. IWP is a pharmacy registered with the DEA.

B. The DEA is the Department of Justice component agency primarily responsible for enforcing the Controlled Substances Act ("CSA"), 21 U.S.C. § 801, et seq., and is vested with the responsibility of investigating violations of the CSA.

C. The United States Attorney General, through the United States Attorney's Office, has primary authority to bring civil actions to enforce the CSA. See 21 U.S.C. § 871 and 28 C.F.R. § 0.55(c).

D. The Department of Labor's Office of Worker Compensation Programs administers workers compensation claims under the Federal Workers Compensation Act. Each pharmacy submitting claims for payment to the Department of Labor pursuant to that Act "signifies that the service for which reimbursement is sought was performed as described, necessary, appropriate and properly billed in accordance with accepted industry standards." 20 C.F.R. § 10.801(d). In 2018, the Department of Labor began requiring pharmacies to pre-adjudicate federal workers compensation prescription claims electronically through a pharmacy benefit manager. The Department of Labor required pre-adjudication to curtail opioid abuse among injured federal workers.

E. Each DEA registrant is required to conduct its operations in accordance with the CSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Under the CSA, a prescription "must be issued for a legitimate medical purpose by an individual practitioner acting in the usual course of his professional practice." 21 C.F.R. § 1306.04(a). The prescriber has a responsibility for proper prescribing, "but a corresponding responsibility rests with the pharmacist who fills the prescription." Id.

F. Beginning in or around June 2018, the United States and the Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (the "Massachusetts AG") began investigating, among other things, IWP's processes and documentation relating to the dispensing of controlled substances. The two investigations proceeded in parallel until June 2020, when IWP resolved the Massachusetts AG's investigation by settling with the Massachusetts AG for $11 million and agreeing to permanent injunctive relief in a stipulated consent judgment (the "Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment"). The settlement with the Massachusetts AG concerned IWP's dispensing practices from 2008 to 2019. The United States' investigation concerned IWP's dispensing practices, as discussed further below, from 2014 through 2019.

G. Prior to and in connection with the Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment, IWP implemented changes to its policies and procedures concerning dispensing controlled substances, including opioids.

H. IWP admits, acknowledges, and accepts its responsibility for the following facts:

a. Between January 1, 2014, and July 31, 2019, IWP received numerous prescriptions with "red flags," including high doses of opioids, early refills, and "Holy Trinities." A Holy Trinity occurs when an opioid, a benzodiazepine, and a muscle relaxant are prescribed simultaneously to a patient. "Red flags" may indicate a prescriber issued a prescription for a reason other than a legitimate medical purpose, such as abuse or diversion. Pharmacists must review and resolve such "red flags" before filling any prescription. When IWP received prescriptions with "red flags" between January 1, 2014, and July 31, 2019, IWP pharmacists did not always resolve the "red flags" before filling those prescriptions. Even though IWP implemented process improvements beginning in 2017, IWP pharmacists did not have a consistent process or documentation with respect to resolving "red flags."

b. IWP dispensed medications to injured federal workers and submitted claims for payment to the Department of Labor. Between December 12, 2017, and September 26, 2019, the Department of Labor's pharmacy benefit manager issued drug utilization review ("DUR") alerts for 1,456 claims for federal workers' prescriptions for issues such as drug interactions, potential allergic reactions, and therapeutic duplication of opioids. A DUR helps pharmacists ensure that prescribed drugs are appropriate and medically necessary. To clear those DUR rejections and ultimately receive payment from the Department of Labor, IWP's non-pharmacy, claims employees routinely submitted override codes representing that IWP had consulted with prescribers about the DUR alerts. The IWP claims employees, who lacked clinical pharmacy experience and training, submitted the overrides without consulting with IWP pharmacists. Because IWP pharmacists were not aware of the rejections, they did not consult with prescribers in response to the DUR alerts received from the Department of Labor, as represented by IWP claims employees. The foregoing conduct set out in subparagraphs (a) through (b) of Paragraph H is referred to below as the "Covered Conduct."

I. In May 2020, IWP self-disclosed to the Department of Labor that the DUR alerts issue affected 821 claims and offered to repay 256 of them.

J. The United States contends that it has certain civil and administrative claims for civil monetary penalties, injunctive relief, and administrative remedies against IWP under the CSA and its implementing regulations based upon the Covered Conduct. Such civil and administrative claims under the CSA include violations of 21 U.S.C. §§ 827(a)(3), 842(a)(1), 843(a)(2), and the following implementing regulations: 21 C.F.R. §§ 1301.19(b), 1301.71(a), 1304.21(a), 1306.04(a), 1306.05(a). 1306.06, and 1307.02.

K. The United States also contends that it has certain federal civil claims against IWP for submitting or causing the submission of false claims for payment to the Department of Labor.

In consideration of the mutual promises and obligations of this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. IWP shall pay to the United States the sum of Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000), plus interest at a rate of 3.6% per annum from February 13, 2023 ("Settlement Amount"), of which $318,341.40 is restitution. Within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Effective date of this agreement. IWP shall pay One Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,250,000), plus interest accrued.

a. Over a period of five years, IWP will pay the remaining Eight Million, Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($8,750,000), plus interest at 3.6% per annum, pursuant to the payment schedule attached at Exhibit A. If a prepayment occurs under either paragraph 1.d or paragraph 7 of this Agreement, the parties agree that the principal balance will be adjusted accordingly and that the computation and allocation of interest set forth in Exhibit A will be adjusted consistant with the remaining principal balance.

b. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid Settlement Amount as indicated in Exhibit A. Collectively the Settlement Amount and interest received by the United States shall be referred to as the "Settlement Payments."

c. If IWP or any of its affiliates is sold, merged, or transferred, or a significant portion of the assets of IWP or of any of its affiliates is sold, merged, or transferred into another non-affiliated entity, IWP shall promptly notify the United States, and all remaining payments owed pursuant to the Agreement shall be accelerated and become immediately due and payable.

d. The Settlement Amount may be prepaid, in whole or in part, without penalty or premium.

e. IWP shall pay the Settlement Payments, or any portion thereof, by electronic funds transfer pursuant to written instructions to be provided by the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts.

2. No later than five business days after the Effective Date of this agreement, IWP and the DEA will enter into the Corrective Action Plan ("CAP").

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 4 (concerning reserved claims) and Paragraph 5 (injunctive relief) below, and conditioned upon the United States' receipt of the Settlement Amount, and upon IWP complying with Paragraph 2, the United States releases IWP, its predecessors, its current and former parents, divisions, subsidiaries, successors, and assigns from any civil or administrative monetary claim the United States has for the Covered Conduct under Controlled Substances Act; the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733; the Program

Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812; or the common law theories of breach of contract, payment by mistake, unjust enrichment, and fraud.

4. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement, or any other term of this Agreement, the following claims and rights of the United States are specifically reserved and are not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code);

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability or enforcement right, or any administrative remedy, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement;

f. Any liability of individuals;

g. Any liability for failure to deliver goods or services due; and

h. Any liability for personal injury or property damages or for other consequential damages arising from the Covered Conduct.

5. The United States reserves the right to seek injunctive relief pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 843(f) if IWP fails to pay the Settlement Amount, or fails to comply with the obligations of the CAP.

6. IWP has provided financial disclosures and supporting documents ("Financial Disclosures") to the United States, and the United States has relied on the accuracy and completeness of those Financial Disclosures in reaching this Agreement. IWP warrants that the Financial Disclosures are complete, accurate, and current as of the Effective Date of this Agreement. If the United States learns of asset(s) in which IWP had an interest of any kind as of the Effective Date of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, promises by insurers or other third parties to satisfy IWP's obligations under this Agreement) that were not disclosed in the Financial Disclosures, or if the United States learns of any false statement or misrepresentation by IWP on, or in connection with, the Financial Disclosures, and if such nondisclosure, false statement, or misrepresentation changes the estimated net worth set forth in the Financial Disclosures by One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) or more, the United States may at its option: (a) rescind this Agreement and reinstate its suit or file suit based on the Covered Conduct or (b) collect the full Settlement Amount in accordance with the Agreement plus one hundred percent (100%) of the net value of IWP's previously undisclosed assets. IWP agrees not to contest any collection action undertaken by the United States pursuant to this provision and agrees that it will immediately pay the United States the greater of (i) a ten-percent (10%) surcharge of the amount collected in the collection action as allowed by 28 U.S.C. § 3011(a), or (ii) the United States' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in such an action. In the event that the United States, pursuant to this paragraph rescinds this Agreement, IWP waives and agrees not to plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, to any civil or administrative claims that (a) are filed by the United States within 120 calendar days of written notification to IWP that this Agreement has been rescinded, and (b) relate to the Covered Conduct, except to the extent these defenses were available on the Effective Date of this Agreement.

7. In the event IWP receives proceeds from any insurance policy on account of the Settlement Amount in this Agreement or the Covered Conduct at any time before the Settlement

Amount has been paid in full, IWP agrees to remit those insurance proceeds to the United States within fifteen (15) days, and that amount shall be credited against future payments, with the schedule of remaining payments to be adjusted as described in paragraph 1.a. IWP need not remit to the United States more insurance proceeds than necessary to pay the Settlement Amount in full. This paragraph does not apply to IWP's receipt of proceeds from any insurance policy on account of its legal expenses.

8. IWP waives and shall not assert any defenses it may have to any criminal prosecution relating to the Covered Conduct that may be based in whole or in part on a contention that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause in the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, or under the Excessive Fines Clause in the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution, this Agreement bars a remedy sought in such criminal prosecution or administrative action.

9. IWP fully and finally releases the United States and its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants from any claims (including for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that IWP has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States or its agencies, officers, agents, employees, or servants, related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

10. IWP agrees to the following:

a. Unallowable Costs Defined: All costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47) incurred by or on behalf of IWP, and its present or former officers, directors, employees, shareholders, and agents in connection with:

(1) the matters covered by this Agreement:

(2) the United States' audit(s) and civil and any criminal investigation(s) of the matters covered by this Agreement;

(3) IWP's investigation, defense, and corrective actions undertaken in response to the United States' audit(s) and civil and any criminal investigation(s) in connection with the matters covered by this Agreement (including attorneys' fees);

(4) the negotiation and performance of this Agreement; and

(5) the payment IWP makes to the United States pursuant to this Agreement, are unallowable costs for government contracting purposes (hereinafter referred to as Unallowable Costs).

b. Future Treatment of Unallowable Costs: Unallowable Costs will be separately determined and accounted for by IWP, and IWP shall not charge such Unallowable Costs directly or indirectly to any contract with the United States.

c. Treatment of Unallowable Costs Previously Submitted for Payment: Within 90 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, IWP shall identify and repay by adjustment to future claims for payment or otherwise any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by IWP or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates from the United States. IWP agrees that the United States, at a minimum, shall be entitled to recoup from IWP any overpayment plus applicable interest and penalties as a result of the inclusion of such Unallowable Costs on previously-submitted requests for payment. The United States, including the Department of Justice and/or the affected agencies, reserves its rights to audit, examine, or re-examine IWP's books and records and to disagree with any calculations submitted by IWP or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates regarding any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by IWP, or the effect of any such Unallowable Costs on the amount of such payments.

11. The obligations imposed upon IWP pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon IWP pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including but not limited to the requirements set forth in Title 21 of the United States Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

12. IWP agrees to cooperate fully and truthfully with the United States' investigation of individuals and entities not released in this Agreement. Upon reasonable notice, IWP shall encourage, and agrees not to impair, the cooperation of its directors, officers, and employees, and shall use its best efforts to make available, and encourage, the cooperation of former directors, officers, and employees for interviews and testimony, consistent with the rights and privileges of such individuals. IWP further agrees to furnish to the United States, upon request, complete and unredacted copies of all non-privileged documents, reports, memoranda of interviews, and records in its possession, custody, or control concerning any investigation of the Covered Conduct that it has undertaken, or that has been performed by another on its behalf.

13. The Settlement Amount and Settlement Payments represent the amount the United States is willing to accept in compromise of its civil claims arising from the Covered Conduct due solely to IWP's financial condition as reflected in the Financial Disclosures referenced in Paragraph 6.

a. In the event that IWP fails to pay the Settlement Amount as provided in the payment schedule set forth in Paragraph 1 above and in Exhibit A, IWP shall be in Default of IWP's payment obligations ("Default"). The United States will provide a written Notice of Default, and IWP shall have an opportunity to cure such Default within seven (7) calendar days from the date of receipt of the Notice of Default by making the payment due under the payment schedule and paying any additional interest accruing under the Agreement up to the date of payment. Notice of Default will be delivered to IWP, or to such other representative as IWP shall designate in advance in writing. If IWP fails to cure the Default within seven (7) calendar days of receiving the Notice of Default and in the absence of an agreement with the United States to a modified payment schedule ("Uncured Default"), the remaining unpaid balance of the Settlement Amount shall become immediately due and payable, and interest on the remaining unpaid balance shall thereafter accrue at the rate of 12% per annum, compounded daily from the date of Default, on the remaining unpaid total (principal and interest balance).

14. In the event of Uncured Default, IWP agrees that the United States, at its sole discretion, may (i) retain any payments previously made, rescind this Agreement and pursue the Civil Action or bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against IWP for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided in Paragraph 4 above, with any recovery reduced by the amount of any payments previously made by IWP to the United States under this Agreement; (ii) take any action to enforce this Agreement in a new action or by reinstating the Civil Action; (iii) offset the remaining unpaid balance from any amounts due and owing to IWP and/or affiliated companies by any department, agency, or agent of the United States at the time of Default or subsequently; and/or (iv) exercise any other right granted by law, or under the terms of this Agreement, or recognizable at common law or in equity. The United States shall be entitled to any other rights granted by law or in equity by reason of Default, including referral of this matter for private collection. In the event the United States pursues a collection action, IWP agrees immediately to pay the United States the greater of (i) a ten-percent (10%) surcharge of the amount collected, as allowed by 28 U.S.C. § 3011(a), or (ii) the United States' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in such an action. In the event that the United States opts to rescind this Agreement pursuant to this paragraph, IWP waives and agrees not to plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel or similar theories, to any civil or administrative claims that are (i) filed by the United States against IWP within 120 days of written notification that this Agreement has been rescinded, and (ii) relate to the Covered Conduct, except to the extent these defenses were available on the Effective Date. IWP agrees not to contest any offset, recoupment, and/or collection action undertaken by the United States pursuant to this paragraph, either administratively or in any state or federal court, except on the grounds of actual payment to the United States.

15. In exchange for valuable consideration provided in this Agreement, IWP acknowledges the following:

a. IWP has reviewed its financial situation and warrants that it is solvent within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §§ 547(b)(3) and 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I) and shall remain solvent following payment to the United States of the Settlement Amount.

b. In evaluating whether to execute this Agreement, the Parties intend that the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth herein constitute a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to IWP, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(1), and the Parties conclude that these mutual promises, covenants, and obligations do, in fact, constitute such a contemporaneous exchange.

c. The mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth herein are intended by the Parties to, and do in fact, constitute a reasonably equivalent exchange of value.

d. The Parties do not intend to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which IWP was or became indebted to on or after the date of any transfer contemplated in this Agreement, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1).

e. If any of IWP's payments or obligations under this Agreement are avoided for any reason (including but not limited to, through the exercise of a trustee's avoidance powers under the Bankruptcy Code) or if, before the Settlement Amount is paid in full, IWP or a third party commences a case, proceeding, or other action under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors seeking any order for relief of IWP's debts, or to adjudicate IWP as bankrupt or insolvent; or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for IWP or for all or any substantial part of IWP's assets:

(i) the United States may rescind the releases in this Agreement and bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against IWP for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided in Paragraph 4 above; and

(ii) the United States has an undisputed, noncontingent, and liquidated allowed claim against IWP in the amount of Eleven Million Two-Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Sixty-Two Dollars and Seventy-One Cents ($11,226,062.71), plus first payment handshake interest, per Paragraph 1, less any payments received pursuant to Paragraph 1 of this Agreement, provided, however, that such payments are not otherwise avoided and recovered from the United States by a receiver, trustee, creditor, custodian, or similar official.

f. IWP agrees that any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding brought by the United States under Paragraph 17.E is not subject to an "automatic stay" pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) because it would be an exercise of the United States' police and regulatory power. IWP shall not argue or otherwise contend that the United States' claim, action, or proceeding is subject to an automatic stay and, to the extent necessary, consents to relief from the automatic stay for cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). IWP waives and shall not plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, to any such civil or administrative claim, action, or proceeding brought by the United States within 120 days of written notification to IWP that the releases have been rescinded pursuant to this paragraph, except to the extent such defenses were available on the Effective Date.

16. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only.

17. Each Party shall bear its own legal and other costs incurred in connection with this matter, including the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

18. Each Party represents that it freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion.

19. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to this Agreement is the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and, therefore, shall not be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

20. The Agreement contains the complete agreement between the Parties. This Agreement may not be amended except by written consent of the Parties. Forbearance by the United States from pursuing any remedy or relief available to it under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of rights under this Agreement.

21. The undersigned represent and warrant that they are fully authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the persons and entities indicated below.

22. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitute one and the same Agreement.

23. This Agreement is binding on IWP's successors, transferees, heirs, and assigns.

24. All Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement, and information about this Agreement, to the public.

25. The Parties may execute this Agreement via facsimile and/or by portable document format (.pdf), both of which shall be deemed the equivalent of an original signature.

26. This Agreement shall become effective on the date of the signature of the last signatory to the Agreement ("Effective Date" of this Agreement).

Attachment 1 - Corrective Action Plan

This Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") between the Injured Worker's Pharmacy ("IWP") and the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") memorializes the policies and procedures that IWP and the DEA (jointly, the "Parties") have agreed upon to advance IWP's efforts to ensure compliance with the Controlled Substances Act (the "Act") and to enhance IWP's ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion. IWP is registered with the DEA as a Retail Pharmacy authorized to handle Schedule II-V controlled substances under DEA #BI7566245.

1. This CAP is incorporated by reference at paragraph 2 of the Settlement Agreement between IWP and the United States executed contemporaneously with this CAP (the "Settlement Agreement").

2. This CAP pertains to the "Covered Conduct" described in Recital H of the Settlement Agreement and in the United States' contentions in Recital I of the Settlement Agreement.

3. DEA agrees to take no further administrative action against IWP, along with their respective directors, officers, managers, employees, successors and assigns related to the Covered Conduct. However, should IWP violate this CAP, IWP understands that DEA may institute further administrative action, including but not limited to seeking revocation of IWP's DEA registration for any new violation, as well as for the Covered Conduct. DEA may also seek injunctive relief to enforce the terms of the CAP pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 843 (f), as stated in Paragraph 5 of the Settlement Agreement.

4. The period of this CAP shall be five (5) years, starting on the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement.

5. Whenever this CAP requires notice to the DEA, the persons to be notified will be Taylor McCarty (571-362-9087) Taylor.A.McCarty@dea.gov and Heather Danner-Ryan (571-362-9035) Heather.A.Danner-Ryan@dea.gov. Whenever this CAP requires notice to IWP, the persons to be notified will be Jayne Kresac (888-321-7945) jkresac@iwpharmacy.com and Brian Benjet (215-656-3311) brian.benjet@dlapiper.com. Either party may change the name and or contact information of its contact person(s) by so notifying the other party's contact person(s).

6. Prior to, in connection with, and following the Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment, IWP has implemented several changes to their controlled substance handling procedures, including, but not limited to, the following:

   a. In 2018, IWP released a High-Risk Prescribing Regimens Standard of Procedure ("SOP"), which requires pharmacists to conduct a thorough review of prescriptions that are identified as part of a high-risk drug combination. As later amended, this SOP requires the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist to contact the prescribers of the identified high-risk prescriptions to confirm awareness and accuracy of the prescribed dosages and treatment plan.

   b. In 2020, IWP implemented an Initial High-Risk Opioid Prescription Policy and Procedure, which expands the clinical checks conducted prior to initial dispensing, by including a process for documenting the authenticity of high-risk prescriptions before dispensing the medication and a process for providing specific counseling to patients regarding alternatives to high-risk prescriptions. IWP also implemented training regarding the identification of initial high-risk opioid prescriptions, the review process, and the documentation process. In

c. IWP has implemented other new and revised pharmacy policies and procedures. IWP has provided the DEA with copies of its current policies and procedures that pertain to:

i. At-Risk Patient Chronic Pain Counseling
ii. CII Room Operation
iii. Controlled Substance Inventory
iv. Controlled Substances Workflow (CIII-CV)
v. Drug Utilization Review (DUR)
vi. Clinical Intervention: High Risk Prescribing Regimens
vii. Initial High-Risk Opioid Prescriptions
viii. Naloxone Standing Order
ix. New At-Risk Patient Auditing Procedure
x. PDMP Query
xi. Prescription Authentication Practices
xii. Processing Pharmacist Responsibilities & Preserving Pharmacist's Judgement
xiii. Professional License Verification (MedPro)
xiv. Receipt of Pharmaceutical Inventory
xv. Pharmacy Record Retention
xvi. Pharmacy Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy (REMS)
xvii. Schedule II Narcotic Non-Contiguous States
xviii. PMSP Program Provider Monitoring

7. Since 2017, IWP has either hired new personnel or created new positions including: a Chief Compliance Officer that reports to the Board of Directors as well as the Chief Executive Officer, Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist, replacing its Chief Executive Officer, and hiring new executive and clinical leadership. IWP's new Chief Compliance Officer has since designed and implemented a new compliance program.

8. IWP agrees that it will continue utilizing the changes that it undertook, as those changes are listed out in paragraph 6 in order to address the Covered Conduct, and to remain in compliance with Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

9. During the CAP Period, IWP:

a. Agrees to abide by all federal, state and local statutes and regulations relating to controlled substances.

b. Agrees to allow DEA personnel to enter the registered location at any time during regular business hours, without prior notice, and without requiring DEA to obtain an administrative inspection warrant, search warrant, or other means of entry, in order to verify compliance with the Controlled Substances Act (Title 21 United States Code §801, et seq.), its implement regulations, and this CAP.

c. Agrees to maintain complete and accurate records relating to controlled substances, and to maintain copies of these records for a period of five years, from the effective date of this CAP, which will be available to DEA for inspection and copying, and inventories as required by 21 C.F.R. § 1304.04(a), except that, during the CAP Period only, the time period for which records and inventories must be maintained is extended to five (5) years from the date of such records or inventories.

d. Agrees to be truthful and accurate in all information that it submits to the DEA and that any notifications, as required by this CAP and DEA rules and regulations, are timely submitted.

e. Agrees that if any state agency or entity conducts an inspection or any investigation of IWP by seeking any records or documents from IWP, IWP hereby gives its unrestricted consent to the state agency or entity to share any and all reports, documents, evidence and information of whatever nature or kind with the DEA.

f. Agree to continue implementing SOP's to ensure compliance with its obligations under 21 CFR 1306.04(a).

g. Agrees to maintain SOPs to ensure compliance with its obligations under 21 CFR § 1306.04(a).

h. Agrees that it shall maintain SOPs to ensure the pharmacy complies with the requirements of 21 CFR § 1306.05, including by ensuring prescriptions contain all the required information.

i. Agrees to maintain, on a current basis, a complete and accurate record of each controlled substance received, sold, delivered, dispensed or otherwise disposed of, as required by 21 CFR § 1304.21(a).

j. Agrees that only IWP pharmacists will make clinical determinations relating to Drug Utilization Review ("DUR") alerts for prescriptions that are flagged for issues such as drug interactions, potential allergic reactions, dangerous drug combinations and therapeutic duplication of opioids, to ensure that the prescribed drugs are appropriate and medically necessary prior to filling.

k. Agrees to emphasize the identification of potential safety concerns, red flags, and potentially illegitimate prescriptions.

l. Agrees to not make any decision relating to a pharmacist's performance review, compensation, promotion, work hours, hiring, or termination that relies in whole or in part on dispensing rates, whether measured individually or in aggregate. This restriction shall not be interpreted to limit IWP's ability to reassign pharmacists to different responsibilities based on operational considerations, or to prohibit employment decisions based upon non-performance (e.g., absenteeism, failure to complete essential job responsibilities) or significant underperformance, as compared to peers and taking into account best dispensing practices.

m. Agrees to provide controlled substance training to all new employees who handle controlled substances or records related to controlled substances. This training shall be conducted within one week of hire. This training shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) the proper handling, recordkeeping, security, and storage procedures for controlled substances (2) how to identify and handle prescription red flags to ensure patient safety and prescription legitimacy (3) how to identify potentially dangerous medication combinations (4) current CDC prescription guidelines and (5) controlled substance abuse and prevention.

n. Agrees to provide controlled substance training to all current employees who handle controlled substances or records related to controlled substances. This training shall be conducted at least, but not limited to, annually. This training shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) the proper handling, recordkeeping, security, and storage procedures for controlled substances (2) how to identify and handle prescription red flags to ensure patient safety and prescription legitimacy (3) how to identify potentially dangerous medication combinations (4) current CDC prescription guidelines and (5) controlled substance abuse and prevention.

o. Agrees to maintain a drug diversion team consisting of employees in compliance, pharmacy, security and operations roles. This drug diversion team shall be tasked with establishing, maintaining, and, if appropriate, advancing various diversion controls throughout IWP.

p. Will send a copy of this CAP, in its entirety, to the Massachusetts Department of Public Health Drug Control Program, within ten days of the full execution of this Agreement.

q. At least once every 12 months following the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement, IWP will conduct a self-evaluation to review compliance with all requirements of the Act, this CAP and its corresponding commitments to maintain SOPs and a compliance program directed at IWP's obligations under the Act. At the completion of each evaluation, the Pharmacy Manager of Record and/or the Chief Compliance Officer will certify that he/she has completed the evaluation and document any corrective action to be taken. IWP will retain the letters of certification, and make them available to the DEA upon request, for two years following the expiration of this CAP.

r. IWP will promptly and thoroughly investigate all thefts, significant losses, and other potential diversions of controlled substances. IWP will establish protocols to reduce the number of in-transit losses of controlled substances and will promptly report all such thefts, significant losses, and other diversions to DEA. DEA is aware that IWP has additional reporting duties to licensure boards, and all other relevant agencies.

10. IWP will comply at all times with the Act and the regulations issued thereunder. To the extent that any requirements in the Act or regulations are greater than those imposed by this CAP, the stricter requirements will apply.

11. Each Party and signatory to this CAP represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this CAP without any degree of duress or compulsion.

12. This CAP is intended for the benefit of the Parties only; it does not create any rights or benefits for third parties.

13. This CAP is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to this CAP is the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. This CAP shall be deemed to have been drafted by both Parties and shall not, therefore, be construed against either Party in any subsequent dispute.

14. This CAP and the Settlement Agreement constitute the complete agreement between the DEA and IWP relating to the matters addressed herein. This CAP may be amended only by a writing signed by both DEA and IWP.

15. The undersigned signatories represent and warrant that it is fully authorized to execute this CAP on behalf of the parties.

16. This CAP may be executed in two counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and both of which constitute one and the same agreement.

17. This CAP is binding on IWP's successors, transferees, and assigns.

Notice of the Consent Judgment was provided to the Nevada Board of Pharmacy on June 26, 2020. (Exhibit B.) There was no finding by the MA AG that any illegitimate prescription was filled by IWP.

10. As part of the Consent Judgment with the Massachusetts AG, IWP agreed to, inter alia, implement enhanced policies and procedures to further safeguard against improper and unlawful dispensing and engage an independent auditor to audit and report on IWP's compliance with the Consent Judgment. In October 2021, an independent auditor concluded that IWP was in compliance with the stipulated consent judgment in all material aspects. These enhanced policies and procedures remain in place.

11. Just as IWP provided notice of the MA AG Consent Judgment resolution to the Nevada Board of Pharmacy, IWP also provided formal notice of the MA AG Consent Judgment resolution to the Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy. In light of the resolution of the matter brought by the MA AG, the Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy, IWP's home regulator, concluded that no additional disciplinary actions were warranted.

12. The June 27, 2023 Settlement Agreement entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice, the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), and the Department of Labor, and IWP (referred to in the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation) did not raise new issues with respect to IWP's historical dispensing practices, but was instead coextensive with the same conduct that was investigated by and resolved with the MA AG. (Exhibit C.) The United States' investigation concerned IWP's dispensing practices from 2014 through 2019. As part of the Settlement Agreement, IWP and the DEA entered into a separate Corrective Action Plan to ensure continued compliance with the Controlled Substances Act and to enhance IWP's ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion. The Corrective Action Plan largely incorporated and/or restated the provisions of the June 24, 2020 Consent Judgment with the MA AG that had already been implemented in 2020. Notice of the Settlement Agreement was provided to the Nevada Board of Pharmacy on June 28, 2023. (Exhibit D.) IWP has fully complied with the terms of the June 27, 2023 Settlement Agreement.

13. Like the MA AG settlement, neither the DEA nor the DOJ found that IWP wrongfully filled any prescription.

14. As with the MA AG settlement, the Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy, IWP's home regulator, concluded that no additional disciplinary actions were warranted as a result of the Settlement Agreement.

15. IWP remains committed to ensuring compliance with federal and state laws and to enhancing its ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion.

16. Further, the controlled substance prescriptions that IWP dispensed in 2022 and 2023 were properly filled and followed IWP's policies and procedures concerning the dispensing of controlled substances. After the MA AG Settlement in 2020, IWP implemented several enhancements, including clinical, operational, diversion and security, and compliance enhancements. (See Exhibit E (letter from Neil Welch); Exhibit F (letter from Jaclyn McNulty).) The efficacy of the implementation of those enhancements was validated by an independent third-party auditor. Thus, all of the controlled substance prescriptions in 2022 and 2023, as identified in Paragraph 3 of the Notice of Intended Action, were dispensed in accordance with those enhancements and in compliance with the Controlled Substances Act.

17. Accordingly, there is no basis for Count One, Violation of Federal Controlled Substances Act/Unprofessional Conduct with respect to prescriptions filled and dispensed in 2022 and 2023. Moreover, neither the Consent Judgment or the Settlement Agreement contained any finding of wrongful conduct in 2022 and 2023. (See, e.g. Exhibit A ¶ 81.) Rather, the Corrective Action Plan was made "to advance IWP's efforts to ensure compliance with the Controlled Substances Act . . . and to enhance IWP's ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion." (See Exhibit C, Corrective Action Plan at 1.) Prescriptions dispensed in 2022 and 2023 prescriptions were never at issue in the MA AG or United States' investigations.

CONSENT JUDGMENT

WHEREAS, Plaintiff, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts ("Commonwealth"), acting by and through the Attorney General, alleges that Defendant Injured Workers Pharmacy ("IWP") violated the Massachusetts Consumer Protection Act, G.L. c. 93A, § 2 by, inter alia: (a) failing to implement adequate policies and procedures to safeguard against improper and unlawful dispensing of controlled substances; (b) filling controlled substance prescriptions without sufficient regard for whether they were issued for a legitimate medical purpose; and (c) engaging in unfair sales tactics, including paying certain third parties to refer patients to IWP;

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth and IWP (collectively, the "Parties") have agreed to resolve the claims alleged in the Complaint by entering into this Consent Judgment (hereinafter, the "Judgment"); and

WHEREAS, for the reasons set forth in the contemporaneously filed Joint Motion for Entry of Judgment by Consent and for the purpose of avoiding prolonged and costly

JUDGMENT ENTERED ON DOCKET JUL 2 2020
PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF MASS. R. CIV. P.58(a)
AND NOTICE SENT TO PARTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRO-VISIONS OF MASS. R. CIV. P. 77(d) AS FOLLOWS

litigation, and in furtherance of the public interest, the Parties consent to the entry of this Judgment;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Defendant consents to this Court's continuing subject matter and personal jurisdiction solely for the purposes of entry, enforcement, and modification of this Judgment or granting such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

2. Defendant consents to venue in this Court for the purposes of entry, enforcement, and modification of this Judgment.

3. Defendant hereby accepts and expressly waives any defect in connection with service of process in this action and further consents to service of all process in this action in the manner set forth in Section V herein.

II. EFFECT OF JUDGMENT

4. This Judgment fully and finally resolves and disposes of the claims alleged in the Complaint in this matter.

5. The Judgment will, upon its Effective Date, constitute a fully binding and enforceable agreement between the Parties, and the Parties consent to its entry as a final judgment by the Court.

III. MONETARY RELIEF

6. Judgment shall enter against IWP in the amount of $11,000,000 ("the Judgment Amount") to be paid as follows: $6,000,000 within ten business days of the Effective Date; $3,000,000 within one year of the Effective Date; and $2,000,000 upon the earlier of: (a) a transaction resulting in (i) a change of control with respect to the ownership of IWP; (ii) transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of IWP; or (iii) a recapitalization or other transaction in which the owners of IWP immediately prior to such transaction do not own a majority of the equity interests of the surviving entity after the closing of such transaction; or (b) five years of the Effective Date. IWP covenants and agrees that it shall not make any distributions to any of the owners of IWP or any related entities or affiliates until such time as the Judgment Amount has been paid in full and satisfied. The Judgment Amount shall be allocated as follows: (a) $9,000,000 as civil penalties pursuant to G.L. c. 93A, § 4; (b) $1,500,000 to be deposited to an account or accounts held by the Office of the Attorney General ("AGO") for the purpose of assisting the AGO to discharge its duties, in accordance with G.L. c. 12 § 4A, and to be used in the sole discretion of the AGO to: (i) promote initiatives designed to improve care and treatment related to prescription medications or otherwise assist Massachusetts health care consumers, or (ii) support efforts to enforce compliance with state and federal laws and regulations that protect such individuals, including, but not limited to, through grants or other distributions to one or more political subdivisions of the Commonwealth, non-profit organizations, or to the Local Consumer Aid Fund, as established by G.L. c 12, § 11G; and (c) $500,000 for the reasonable attorney's fees and expenses incurred in investigating and resolving this matter.

7. If IWP fails to pay the Judgment Amount in accordance with this Judgment, it shall be in default of this Judgment. Upon receipt of written notice of the default from the AGO, IWP shall have the opportunity to cure such default within 5 business days from the date of receipt of the notice. If IWP fails to cure such default within 5 business days of receiving the notice of default, the remaining unpaid balance of the Judgment Amount and any interest then accrued shall become accelerated and immediately due and payable, and interest shall accrue at a simple rate of 12 percent per annum from the date of default until the date of payment.

8. The Effective Date of this Judgment shall be deemed the date that this Judgment is entered on the Court docket ("Effective Date").

9. If within 91 days of the Effective Date of this Judgment or of any payment made under this Judgment, IWP or a third party commences any case, proceeding, or other action under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors seeking an order for relief of IWP's debts, or seeking to adjudicate IWP as bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for IWP or for all or any substantial part of IWP's assets, IWP shall not argue or otherwise take the position, directly or indirectly, that: (a) its obligations under this Judgment may be avoided under 11 U.S.C. § 547; (b) it was insolvent at the time this Judgment was entered into, or became insolvent as a result of a payment made pursuant to the Judgment; or (c) the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth in this Judgment do not constitute a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to IWP.

10. If IWP's obligations under this Judgment are avoided for any reason, including, but not limited to, through the exercise of a trustee's avoidance powers under the Bankruptcy Code, the Commonwealth, at its option, may rescind the releases in this Judgment and bring any claim, action, or proceeding against IWP for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the release provided herein. IWP shall not argue or otherwise take the position that the Commonwealth's claims are subject to stay, including pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 or 362(a), or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, except to the extent such defenses were available on the date this Judgment entered.

IV. PERMANENT INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

The following injunctive relief shall apply to IWP and those otherwise bound pursuant Mass. R. Civ. P. 65(d):

A. DEFINITIONS

11. "At-Risk Patient" means any patient in one or more of the following categories:

    a. A patient with one or more opioid prescriptions that, in aggregate, total 100 MME/day or more;

12. "Audit Report" refers to the report, together with any attachments thereto, prepared by the Independent Auditor, pursuant to Section IV.H herein.

13. "Independent Auditor" refers to the person hired to audit and report on IWP's compliance with this Judgment, consistent with the terms described in Section IV.H herein.

14. "Audit Period" refers to the one-year period from the Effective Date.

15. "Corresponding Responsibility" shall be interpreted as it is used in state and federal law governing the practice of pharmacy. See G.L. c. 94C, § 19(a); 21 CFR § 1306.04(a).

16. "Dispensing Pharmacist" refers to the IWP pharmacist responsible for authorizing the dispensing of a particular prescription, including fulfilling Corresponding Responsibility obligations.

17. "Initial High-Risk Prescription" means any prescription for a Schedule II opioid that includes at least one of the following, as confirmed via IWP fill history and a patient's PDMP profile:

21. "Referral Source" refers to any person or entity that refers or may refer patients to IWP, including prescribers and lawyers.

B. GENERAL TERMS

22. IWP shall not engage in unfair or deceptive acts or practices.

23. IWP shall implement adequate policies and procedures to safeguard against improper and unlawful dispensing.

24. IWP shall not fill any controlled substance prescription that IWP knows was not issued for a legitimate medical purpose, or that, with reasonable best efforts consistent with the provisions of this agreement, IWP should have identified was not issued for a legitimate medical purpose.

25. IWP shall not fill any controlled substance prescription without verifying it, as required by, inter alia, G.L. c. 94C, § 18.

26. IWP shall not fill any new prescription without conducting a Drug Utilization Review pursuant to 247 CMR 9.07.

27. IWP shall not fill any prescription without verifying the patient's address.

28. IWP shall not offer or pay any remuneration, including any bribe or rebate, directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, in cash or in kind, to induce any person to recommend a patient fill a prescription at IWP. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to prohibit IWP from compensating persons or entities under the safe harbor provision of 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7b(b)(3).

29. The requirements of this injunction are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other requirements of state or federal law, including requirements concerning pharmacists' Corresponding Responsibility. Nothing in this injunction shall be construed as relieving IWP of the obligation to comply with all local, state, and federal laws, regulations, or rules, nor shall any of the provisions of this injunction be deemed as permission for IWP to engage in any acts or practices prohibited by such laws, regulations, or rules.

30. IWP shall use reasonable best efforts to meet the deadlines herein and shall report any delays to the AGO, including delays in implementation resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

31. IWP shall provide a copy of this Consent Judgment to its officers, directors, and supervisors in IWP's verification, enrollment and pharmacy departments promptly following the Effective Date. IWP shall provide the AGO with signed acknowledgements of receipt from all such officers, directors, and supervisors within 30 days of the Effective Date. In addition, upon hiring, IWP shall ensure that appropriate IWP personnel necessary to fulfill IWP's obligations under this Judgment are aware of the relevant provisions.

C. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR DISPENSING

32. IWP shall not dispense an Initial High-Risk Prescription unless and until the Dispensing Pharmacist has:

a. Verified that the prescription is authentic, if a written prescription is presented;

b. Ascertained the circumstances necessitating the Initial High-Risk Prescription; and

c. Ascertained whether a less-risky alternative treatment plan was considered.

d. Documented each of (a)-(c) in writing in the patient's records.

33. Except as otherwise permitted herein, IWP shall not dispense an Initial High-Risk Prescription unless and until the Dispensing Pharmacist contacts the patient (and documents the contact) to attempt to:

a. Advise the patient of the risks associated with the Initial High-Risk Prescription, including risks of addiction, overdose and death;

b. Counsel the patients on safe consumption and storage practices; and

c. Offer to dispense to the patient a naloxone rescue kit pursuant to Board of Registration in Pharmacy Policy No. 2018-04: Naloxone Dispensing via Standing Order, at no cost to the patient, consistent with IWP billing practices for the underlying Initial High-Risk Prescription.

34. IWP may dispense an Initial High-Risk Prescription after making an unsuccessful attempt using reasonable best efforts to contact and verbally counsel the patient in accordance with Paragraph 33, provided that IWP makes such counseling available upon patient request and effectively communicates to the patient that such counseling is available.

35. IWP shall continue to provide written counseling to every patient who receives any prescription for a Schedule II or III drug (whether an Initial High-Risk Prescription or not), by providing an Opioid Prescription Drug Fact Sheet with each prescription delivery, as mandated by Massachusetts law, as well as a written offer to dispense to the patient a Naloxone Rescue Kit pursuant to Board of Registration in Pharmacy Policy No. 2018-04: Naloxone Dispensing via Standing Order, at no cost to the patient, consistent with IWP billing practices for the underlying prescription.

36. Nothing in this Judgment precludes IWP from: (a) seeking reimbursement from insurers for Naloxone Rescue Kits it dispenses to patients; or (b) seeking to amend this Judgment to allow it to charge patients the cost of the Naloxone Rescue Kits it dispenses pursuant to the Standing Order, if a change in reimbursement practices results in widespread denial of coverage for such Naloxone Rescue Kits.

37. IWP shall not dispense a controlled substance prescription unless and until the Dispensing Pharmacist, either manually or through an automated system, verifies the DEA number and the state license(s) for the prescriber immediately prior to dispensing the drugs.

38. IWP shall not dispense a controlled substance prescription unless and until the Dispensing Pharmacist consults the applicable state's Prescription Drug Monitoring Program (except as permitted by 105 CMR 700.012(H) or similar state regulations), where the applicable state allows pharmacists to do so.

39. IWP shall not dispense a Schedule II narcotic prescription written by a physician, nurse practitioner, or physician assistant from any Massachusetts pharmacy location unless the prescriber is licensed to practice medicine and registered in the same state or a contiguous state to where the prescription is to be delivered, in accordance with G.L. c. 94C, § 18(d½)(2).

40. IWP shall enable all pharmacy staff to access a provider's entire IWP dispensing history without the need to request a special report from other departments.

41. IWP shall make any necessary changes to its pharmacy software to comply with the obligations in this Judgment within a reasonable time, including changes that block pharmacists from dispensing opioid prescriptions in violation of these sections.

D. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

42. IWP shall maintain records reflecting its compliance with the injunctive relief in this Judgment, including any and all information and documentation received from prescribers and patients, for every controlled substance prescription for at least ten years, in a manner that is accessible to IWP staff and consistent with applicable privacy laws. This provision shall not apply to the maintenance of telephone call recordings pursuant to paragraph 44 herein.

43. IWP shall request and record in its pharmacy software ICD-10 codes and physician specialty information for all patients filling Initial High-Risk Prescriptions. Provided however, that IWP may dispense a Schedule II prescription other than an Initial High-Risk Prescription in the absence of receipt of an ICD-10 Code if in the professional judgment of the Dispensing Pharmacist, the ICD-10 code is not required to fulfill his or her Corresponding Responsibility with respect to that prescription.

44. IWP shall record all phone calls between pharmacists and prescribers and all phone calls between pharmacists and patients. IWP shall advise prescribers and patients at the beginning of each phone call that the phone calls are being recorded. The audio recordings of all phone calls shall be maintained for at least two years in a manner that is accessible to IWP staff and consistent with applicable privacy laws.

45. IWP shall ensure that the primary pharmacist who was charged with exercising professional judgment as to the propriety and appropriateness of filling a prescription is recorded in its pharmacy software as a Dispensing Pharmacist.

46. IWP shall make any necessary changes to ensure it uses pharmacy software that implements the record keeping obligations in this Judgment.

E. CHANGES TO STAFFING

47. Within 90 days of the Effective Date, IWP shall hire a sufficient number of full-time Pain Management Specialty Pharmacists and supporting data analytics resources to accurately and reasonably identify and counsel At-Risk Patients. The Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall report to the Pharmacist Manager of Record as defined by IWP's Massachusetts pharmacy license, but shall have specific and independent direct access to the Chief Compliance Officer and shall have full independent access to IWP's pharmacy software, as well as the ability to sort the data by characteristics such as dosage, patient state, prescriber state, and payer.

48. The Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall work with supporting data analytics resources to:

a. Review dispensing data at least monthly, as necessary to timely identify At-Risk Patients;

b. Review dispensing data at least monthly, as necessary to timely identify prescribers exhibiting suspicious or dangerous prescribing patterns and behaviors and notify the Chief Compliance Officer, the Dispensing Pharmacist(s) and the Pharmacist in Charge, in writing, of any findings; and

c. Prepare and issue monthly reports to the Chief Compliance Officer and all pharmacy staff concerning Initial High-Risk Prescriptions, At-Risk Patients, and suspected suspicious prescriber behavior, including failure or refusal by prescribers to meaningfully engage with the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s). IWP may also use these reports to assist with training efforts as appropriate.

49. The Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall use reasonable best efforts to promptly speak with and counsel each At-Risk Patient and his or her prescriber(s) no later than 30 days after dispensing the prescription at issue, except as permitted in paragraph 50, to discuss: the risks of addiction, overdose and death associated with their existing prescriptions; a treatment plan to, where appropriate, safely lower the patient's opioid dosage over time, safely remove dangerous drug combinations, and/or taper the patient off opioids completely, consistent with evidence-based guidelines and in consultation with relevant specialists; and the advisability of co-prescribing/co-dispensing Naloxone Rescue Kits. The Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall document these efforts. To the extent At-Risk Patients are also patients receiving Initial High-Risk Prescriptions, paragraphs 32 and 33 shall also apply.

50. With respect to preexisting At-Risk Patients (i.e., At-Risk Patients as of the time of the Effective Date) and their prescribers, the obligations in paragraph 49 shall be satisfied if the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) makes the required contact attempts, by the following deadlines, provided that IWP agrees to use reasonable best efforts to make these contacts as set forth below:

a. By 180 days after the Effective Date, the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall have satisfied the requirements of paragraph 49 for all At-Risk Patients who satisfy all three definitional criteria in Paragraph 11.

b. Within 270 days of the Effective Date, in addition to those At-Risk Patients who satisfy all three criteria of the definition in Paragraph 11, the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall also have satisfied the requirements of paragraph 49 with respect to all other At-Risk Patients who satisfy Paragraph 11(c).

c. Within one year of the Effective Date, the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) shall have satisfied the requirements of paragraph 49 with respect to all preexisting At-Risk Patients.

51. For avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Judgment relieves IWP or its Dispensing Pharmacists from exercising Corresponding Responsibility when dispensing an Initial High-Risk Prescription or a prescription to an At-Risk Patient.

52. Reports prepared by the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist shall be available to the AGO upon request and shall be treated as confidential consistent with paragraph 73, below.

53. IWP shall hire a full-time Chief Compliance Officer who reports directly to IWP's Board to oversee and direct IWP's compliance with the law and with this injunction, together with adequate staff, in training and in number. The Chief Compliance Officer shall also have a dotted-line reporting relationship with the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Compliance Officer, or those working under her supervision, shall:

a. Track all relevant laws, rules, and regulations for each state into which IWP dispenses controlled substances, making changes to IWP's policies, procedures, and software to ensure compliance with such laws, and keep IWP's policies and procedures up to date with changes in such laws;

b. Design and administer training programs for IWP staff on compliance-related topics; and

c. Receive, investigate and document reports of suspicious prescriber behavior, help assess whether IWP should cease filling prescriptions for such suspicious prescribers, and, where appropriate, report such prescribers to an appropriate law enforcement agency.

54. IWP shall train all new employees – including pharmacy staff, sales representatives, enrollment specialists, and collection workers – on Corresponding Responsibility and identifying suspicious prescriber behavior, including but not limited to "red flags" identified by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy. Examples of such "red flags" include: (a) "pattern" prescribing – repeated prescriptions from the same doctor to multiple patients for the same drugs and the same quantities, often for the same diagnosis; (b) prescribing certain dangerous combinations of controlled substances; (c) geographic anomalies such as unexplained distances between the patient, doctor, and pharmacy and shared addresses among multiple patients; (d) disproportionate prescribing of controlled substances relative to other drugs; (e) quantity and strength of the prescription; (f) customers paying cash; and (g) prescriptions written by doctors for diagnoses inconsistent with their specialty.

55. All pharmacy, enrollment, sales, and collections employees shall receive quarterly training on problematic prescribing trends identified by the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist and other employees.

56. IWP shall require all employees who become aware of suspicious or dangerous prescriber behavior or patterns to report it to the Chief Compliance Officer.

F. BAN ON PAYMENTS TO REFERRAL SOURCES

57. IWP shall comply with all applicable federal and state laws governing compensation for referrals.

58. IWP shall implement a written reporting system for its relationships with Referral Sources, which will require IWP employees interacting with a Referral Source to report the following information:

a. Descriptions of any meetings or communications with a Referral Source;

b. Descriptions of any items of value given to a Referral Source; and

c. Any patients referred by the Referral Source to IWP.

59. The Chief Compliance Officer shall be responsible for maintaining the reporting system in Paragraph 58.

G. OTHER POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

60. IWP shall not implement any incentive or bonus compensation plans that reward IWP employees and staff based on volume of Schedule II and III controlled substance prescriptions referred to or filled by IWP.

61. IWP shall not make any decision relating to a pharmacist's performance review, compensation, promotion, work hours, hiring, or termination that relies in whole or in part on dispensing rates, whether measured individually or in aggregate. This restriction shall not be interpreted to limit IWP's ability to reassign pharmacists to different responsibilities based on operational considerations, or to prohibit employment decisions based upon non-performance (e.g., absenteeism, failure to complete essential job responsibilities) or significant underperformance, as compared to peers and taking into account best dispensing practices.

62. IWP shall post notices advising employees of their rights and obligations. These notices shall include federal and state law establishing the pharmacist's Corresponding Responsibility, contact information for the Drug Enforcement Administration to report suspicious or dangerous prescriber behavior or patterns, contact information for the Attorney General's Health Care Division and the Board of Registration in Pharmacy to report violations of laws governing pharmacies, and specific examples of management practices that would inhibit pharmacists' ability to full their responsibility, including:

a. pressure to increase dispensing rates through threats, intimidation, or the withholding of compensation or promotions;

b. malfunctioning software, or software that does not comply with the other requirements of this injunction; and

c. inadequate training for pharmacy or non-pharmacy staff in identifying red flags.

63. The above notice shall comply with the formatting and placement requirements of 29 CFR § 1903.2(a), which governs notices advising employees of their rights under the Occupational Safety and Health Act. These requirements include a minimum poster size of 8.5 inches by 14 inches, minimum heading caption font size of 36 points, minimum font size for all other text of 10 points, and placement of the poster in a "conspicuous place or places where notices to employees are customarily posted." The phone number for the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Attorney General's Health Care Division, and the Board of Registration in Pharmacy shall be printed in 36-point font or larger.

H. INDEPENDENT COMPLIANCE AUDIT

64. IWP shall engage, at its sole expense, an Independent Auditor to audit and report on IWP's compliance with the Judgment during the Audit Period. The Independent Auditor shall deliver a final Audit Report to the AGO and IWP no later than sixty days after the Independent Auditor is engaged unless otherwise agreed to by IWP and the AGO.

65. By the one-year anniversary of the Effective Date of this Judgment, IWP shall propose to the AGO an Independent Auditor with: (a) experience related to the practice of pharmacy and knowledge of compliance programs addressing policies, procedures, and practices for dispensing controlled substances and (b) sufficient independence from IWP to ensure effective and impartial performance of the Independent Auditor's duties. IWP shall provide the AGO with the proposed Independent Auditor's name, resume or curriculum vitae, and contact information, and shall obtain information in response to inquiries from the AGO concerning the proposed Independent Auditor's qualifications. If the AGO determines, in good faith, that the proposed Independent Auditor is not qualified, or is otherwise not satisfied with IWP's proposed candidate, IWP shall propose alternate candidates until an Independent Auditor acceptable to both IWP and the AGO is chosen, provided that IWP and the AGO shall use best efforts to complete the selection process within thirty (30) days after the one-year anniversary of the Effective Date. The AGO shall not unreasonably withhold approval of IWP's proposed candidate.

66. Upon approval by the AGO, IWP shall engage the Independent Auditor to perform the duties set forth in this Judgment and on terms consistent with this Judgment. The terms of the engagement shall be subject to AGO approval. IWP shall designate the AGO a third-party beneficiary to its engagement agreement with the Independent Auditor.

67. The Independent Auditor shall audit and report on IWP's compliance with the terms contained in this Judgment. The Independent Auditor shall review IWP's actual ongoing operations, inside and outside the pharmacy. The Independent Auditor shall prepare a work plan for its audit and report, which shall be approved by the AGO and IWP. The Independent Auditor's review shall not be limited to reviewing IWP's stated policies and practices. IWP shall provide the Independent Auditor appropriate access to all data, documents and information necessary to complete the Audit Report, including, without limitation, reports by the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist(s) and reports by licensing and law enforcement authorities.

68. IWP shall make available for meetings and/or interviews current employees, executives, and officers necessary for the completion of the Audit Report. Upon the Independent Auditor's request, IWP will use its reasonable best efforts to arrange meetings or interviews with former IWP employees, executives and officers and use its reasonable best efforts to provide the Independent Auditor with access to IWP's third-party vendors, agents and consultants, if necessary, to complete the Audit.

69. IWP shall be under no obligation to provide or disclose to the Independent Auditor any documents, materials, or information subject to the Attorney Client Privilege or the Attorney Work Product Doctrine. IWP waives any confidentiality obligations owed to it on the part of any third party who may have records of IWP or other information that may be relevant to the Independent Auditor's work pursuant to this Judgment, except to the extent that such information is subject to the Attorney Client Privilege or the Attorney Work Product Doctrine.

70. The Audit Report shall, without limitation:

a. describe in detail the work undertaken to produce the Audit Report, in accordance with the approved work plan described in paragraph 67;

b. identify, for the Audit Period, the number of Initial High-Risk Prescriptions dispensed, the number of At-Risk Patients and related prescribers counseled, an accounting of all Naloxone kits requested and dispensed, and all prescribers IWP deactivated in its system;

c. describe in detail the nature of any instance in which the Independent Auditor believes that IWP was or is not in compliance with the terms of this Judgment, and a detailed explanation as to why the Independent Auditor has formulated this conclusion; and

d. describe in detail the nature of and basis for any concerns the Independent Auditor has regarding IWP's compliance or non-compliance with federal or state law, based on observations during the course of its Audit.

71. The Audit Report shall not contain Protected Health Information, as defined in 45 CFR § 160.103, unless such Protected Health Information is reasonably necessary to illustrate IWP's compliance or noncompliance with the terms of this Judgment.

72. The AGO may request from the Independent Auditor, and the Independent Auditor shall share, any documents or information related to the Independent Auditor's work, including confidential information obtained from IWP. The AGO agrees that it will provide confidential treatment for any IWP confidential information disclosed to it by the Independent Auditor, consistent with Paragraph 73. The AGO will notify IWP of any such contact with the Independent Auditor within five (5) days of any such contact.

73. Any report by the Independent Auditor provided pursuant to this paragraph and all information contained therein shall be treated by the AGO as confidential and exempt from public disclosure to the extent legally permissible or required under the relevant laws of the Commonwealth and the United States, provided, however, that nothing herein precludes the AGO from sharing the Audit Report with relevant state and federal licensing and law enforcement authorities or from using the Audit Report in an action to enforce this Judgment.

74. In the event that the AGO receives any public records request for the report from the Independent Auditor or other documents produced to the AGO under this Judgment and believes that such information is subject to disclosure under the relevant public records laws, the AGO agrees to provide IWP with at least ten (10) days' advance notice (consistent with Section V herein) before producing any information so that IWP may take appropriate action to defend against the disclosure of such information. Nothing contained in this subparagraph shall alter or limit the obligations of the AGO that may be imposed by the relevant public records laws of the Commonwealth, or by order of any court, regarding the maintenance or disclosure of documents and information supplied to the AGO except with respect to the obligation to notify IWP of any potential disclosure.

75. The AGO's receipt of the report from the Independent Auditor, whether or not it represents that IWP is in compliance with laws relating to controlled substances and with the terms of this Judgment, shall not be construed as a ratification of IWP's policies or practices by the AGO, and shall not relieve IWP of the obligation to comply with all local, state, and federal laws, regulations, or rules, nor shall a lack of immediate enforcement action by the AGO be deemed as permission for IWP to engage in any acts or practices prohibited by this injunction or by such laws, regulations, or rules.

V. REPORTING AND NOTICES

76. IWP shall promptly respond to the AGO's reasonable inquiries about relief set forth herein and shall provide the AGO with contact information for purposes of such inquiries.

f. any criminal liability; and

g. any action to enforce this Judgment and subsequent, related orders or judgments.

80. IWP fully and finally releases the Commonwealth, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants from any claims (including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that they have asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the Commonwealth, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants related to the AGO's investigation of the conduct alleged in the contemporaneously filed Complaint or this Judgment.

VII. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY

81. IWP's consent to entry of this Judgment is not an admission of liability or of any facts alleged in the Judgment or in the Complaint. IWP is consenting to entry of this Judgment solely for the purpose of settlement, and nothing contained herein may be taken or construed to be an admission, concession, disciplinary action, finding, or conclusion of any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or of any other matter of fact or law, or any adverse final action or other final action, or of any liability or wrongdoing, all of which IWP expressly denies.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS

82. This Judgment shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

87. Aside from any action stemming from compliance with this Judgment, the Parties waive all rights of appeal or to re-argue or re-hear any judicial proceedings upon this Judgment, any right they may possess to a jury trial, and any and all challenges in law or equity to the entry of this Judgment.

88. The terms of this Judgment may be modified only by a subsequent written agreement signed by the Parties and approved by the Court.

89. Consent to this Judgment does not constitute an approval by the Commonwealth of IWP's business acts and practices, and IWP shall not represent this Judgment as such an approval.

90. IWP shall not take any action or make any statement denying, directly or indirectly, the propriety of this Judgment, including by expressing the view that the Judgment or its substance is without factual basis.

91. Nothing in this Judgment shall preclude any party from commencing an action to pursue any remedy or sanction that may be available to that party upon its determination that another party has failed to comply with any of the requirements of this Judgment.

92. Nothing in this Judgment shall create or give rise to a private right of action of any kind or create any right in a non-party to enforce any aspect of this Judgment or claim any legal or equitable injury for a violation of this Judgment. The exclusive right to enforce any violation or breach of this Judgment shall be with the Parties to this Judgment and the Court.

93. Nothing in this Judgment shall relieve IWP of its obligation to comply with all federal, state or local law and regulations.

94. If any portion of this Judgment is held invalid by operation of law, the remaining terms of this Judgment shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect.

95. This Judgment supersedes all prior communications, discussions or understandings, if any, of the Parties, whether oral or in writing.

96. If the AGO reasonably believes that IWP has failed to comply with any of Paragraphs 6 to 75 of this Judgment, and if in the AGO's sole discretion the failure to comply does not threaten the health or safety of the citizens of the Commonwealth and/or does not create an emergency requiring immediate action, the AGO shall provide notice to IWP of such alleged failure to comply and IWP shall have at least ten (10) days from receipt of such notice to provide a good faith written response, including either a statement that IWP believes it is in full compliance with the relevant provision or a statement explaining how the violation occurred, how it has been addressed or when it will be addressed, and what IWP will do to make sure the violation does not occur again. The AGO may agree to provide IWP with more than ten (10) days to respond. RE: Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC-Non-Resident Pharmacy License PH02281

To Whom It May Concern:

On June 7, 2018, Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC ("IWP"), a Massachusetts limited liability company, received a Civil Investigative Demand for Documents from the Massachusetts Attorney General relating to IWP's dispensing practices beginning January 1, 2010. IWP is registered with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy as a Non-Resident Pharmacy under License No. PH02281.

In order to avoid prolonged and on-going costly litigation, IWP reached a settlement with the Massachusetts Attorney General (the "Matter") with respect to any and all outstanding inquiries and matters on June 24, 2020. IWP has agreed to a voluntary Consent Judgment including IWP's payment of a monetary fine. IWP expects that the Consent Judgment will be entered by the Court in the next several days. Notably, the Consent Judgment expressly states, in pertinent part:

> IWP is entering into this Judgment solely for the purpose of settlement, and nothing contained herein may be taken or construed to be an admission, concession, disciplinary action, finding, or conclusion of any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or of any other matter of fact or law, or any adverse final action or other final action, or of any liability or wrongdoing, all of which IWP expressly denies."

IWP values its relationship and privilege to facilitate care to its patients and trusts this letter fully satisfies any notification or reporting obligations to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy under applicable state law.

Please let me know if you require any additional information regarding this Matter. You may reach me by phone toll-free at 888-321-7945, extension 3014, or via e-mail addressed to kprince@iwpharmacy.com.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice, the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), and the Department of Labor (collectively, the "United States"); and Injured Workers Pharmacy LLC ("IWP"). The United States and IWP are each referred to herein as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

RECITALS

A. IWP is a mail-order pharmacy that is located at 300 Federal St, Andover, Massachusetts. IWP dispenses and ships prescription drugs, including controlled substances, across the United States, primarily to workers who have been injured on the job. IWP is a pharmacy registered with the DEA.

B. The DEA is the Department of Justice component agency primarily responsible for enforcing the Controlled Substances Act ("CSA"), 21 U.S.C. § 801, et seq., and is vested with the responsibility of investigating violations of the CSA.

C. The United States Attorney General, through the United States Attorney's Office, has primary authority to bring civil actions to enforce the CSA. See 21 U.S.C. § 871 and 28 C.F.R. § 0.55(c).

D. The Department of Labor's Office of Worker Compensation Programs administers workers compensation claims under the Federal Workers Compensation Act. Each pharmacy submitting claims for payment to the Department of Labor pursuant to that Act "signifies that the service for which reimbursement is sought was performed as described, necessary, appropriate and properly billed in accordance with accepted industry standards." 20 C.F.R. § 10.801(d). In 2018, the Department of Labor began requiring pharmacies to pre-adjudicate federal workers compensation prescription claims electronically through a pharmacy benefit manager. The Department of Labor required pre-adjudication to curtail opioid abuse among injured federal workers.

E. Each DEA registrant is required to conduct its operations in accordance with the CSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Under the CSA, a prescription "must be issued for a legitimate medical purpose by an individual practitioner acting in the usual course of his professional practice." 21 C.F.R. § 1306.04(a). The prescriber has a responsibility for proper prescribing, "but a corresponding responsibility rests with the pharmacist who fills the prescription." Id.

F. Beginning in or around June 2018, the United States and the Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (the "Massachusetts AG") began investigating, among other things, IWP's processes and documentation relating to the dispensing of controlled substances. The two investigations proceeded in parallel until June 2020, when IWP resolved the Massachusetts AG's investigation by settling with the Massachusetts AG for $11 million and agreeing to permanent injunctive relief in a stipulated consent judgment (the "Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment"). The settlement with the Massachusetts AG concerned IWP's dispensing practices from 2008 to 2019. The United States' investigation concerned IWP's dispensing practices, as discussed further below, from 2014 through 2019.

G. Prior to and in connection with the Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment, IWP implemented changes to its policies and procedures concerning dispensing controlled substances, including opioids.

H. IWP admits, acknowledges, and accepts its responsibility for the following facts:

a. Between January 1, 2014, and July 31, 2019, IWP received numerous prescriptions with "red flags," including high doses of opioids, early refills, and "Holy Trinities." A Holy Trinity occurs when an opioid, a benzodiazepine, and a muscle relaxant are prescribed simultaneously to a patient. "Red flags" may indicate a prescriber issued a prescription for a reason other than a legitimate medical purpose, such as abuse or diversion. Pharmacists must review and resolve such "red flags" before filling any prescription. When IWP received prescriptions with "red flags" between January 1, 2014, and July 31, 2019, IWP pharmacists did not always resolve the "red flags" before filling those prescriptions. Even though IWP implemented process improvements beginning in 2017, IWP pharmacists did not have a consistent process or documentation with respect to resolving "red flags."

b. IWP dispensed medications to injured federal workers and submitted claims for payment to the Department of Labor. Between December 12, 2017, and September 26, 2019, the Department of Labor's pharmacy benefit manager issued drug utilization review ("DUR") alerts for 1,456 claims for federal workers' prescriptions for issues such as drug interactions, potential allergic reactions, and therapeutic duplication of opioids. A DUR helps pharmacists ensure that prescribed drugs are appropriate and medically necessary. To clear those DUR rejections and ultimately receive payment from the Department of Labor, IWP's non-pharmacy, claims employees routinely submitted override codes representing that IWP had consulted with prescribers about the DUR alerts. The IWP claims employees, who lacked clinical pharmacy experience and training, submitted the overrides without consulting with IWP pharmacists. Because IWP pharmacists were not aware of the rejections, they did not consult with prescribers in response to the DUR alerts received from the Department of Labor, as represented by IWP claims employees. The foregoing conduct set out in subparagraphs (a) through (b) of Paragraph H is referred to below as the "Covered Conduct."

I. In May 2020, IWP self-disclosed to the Department of Labor that the DUR alerts issue affected 821 claims and offered to repay 256 of them.

J. The United States contends that it has certain civil and administrative claims for civil monetary penalties, injunctive relief, and administrative remedies against IWP under the CSA and its implementing regulations based upon the Covered Conduct. Such civil and administrative claims under the CSA include violations of 21 U.S.C. §§ 827(a)(3), 842(a)(1), 843(a)(2), and the following implementing regulations: 21 C.F.R. §§ 1301.19(b), 1301.71(a), 1304.21(a), 1306.04(a), 1306.05(a), 1306.06, and 1307.02.

K. The United States also contends that it has certain federal civil claims against IWP for submitting or causing the submission of false claims for payment to the Department of Labor.

In consideration of the mutual promises and obligations of this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. IWP shall pay to the United States the sum of Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000), plus interest at a rate of 3.6% per annum from February 13, 2023 ("Settlement Amount"), of which $318,341.40 is restitution. Within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Effective date of this agreement, IWP shall pay One Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($1,250,000), plus interest accrued.

a. Over a period of five years, IWP will pay the remaining Eight Million, Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($8,750,000), plus interest at 3.6% per annum, pursuant to the payment schedule attached at Exhibit A. If a prepayment occurs under either paragraph 1.d or paragraph 7 of this Agreement, the parties agree that the principal balance will be adjusted accordingly and that the computation and allocation of interest set forth in Exhibit A will be adjusted consistent with the remaining principal balance.

b. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid Settlement Amount as indicated in Exhibit A. Collectively the Settlement Amount and interest received by the United States shall be referred to as the "Settlement Payments."

c. If IWP or any of its affiliates is sold, merged, or transferred, or a significant portion of the assets of IWP or of any of its affiliates is sold, merged, or transferred into another non-affiliated entity, IWP shall promptly notify the United States, and all remaining payments owed pursuant to the Agreement shall be accelerated and become immediately due and payable.

d. The Settlement Amount may be prepaid, in whole or in part, without penalty or premium.

e. IWP shall pay the Settlement Payments, or any portion thereof, by electronic funds transfer pursuant to written instructions to be provided by the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts.

2. No later than five business days after the Effective Date of this agreement, IWP and the DEA will enter into the Corrective Action Plan ("CAP").

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 4 (concerning reserved claims) and Paragraph 5 (injunctive relief) below, and conditioned upon the United States' receipt of the Settlement Amount, and upon IWP complying with Paragraph 2, the United States releases IWP, its predecessors, its current and former parents, divisions, subsidiaries, successors, and assigns from any civil or administrative monetary claim the United States has for the Covered Conduct under Controlled Substances Act; the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733; the Program

Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812; or the common law theories of breach of contract, payment by mistake, unjust enrichment, and fraud.

4. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement, or any other term of this Agreement, the following claims and rights of the United States are specifically reserved and are not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code);

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability or enforcement right, or any administrative remedy, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement;

f. Any liability of individuals;

g. Any liability for failure to deliver goods or services due; and

h. Any liability for personal injury or property damages or for other consequential damages arising from the Covered Conduct.

5. The United States reserves the right to seek injunctive relief pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 843(f) if IWP fails to pay the Settlement Amount, or fails to comply with the obligations of the CAP.

6. IWP has provided financial disclosures and supporting documents ("Financial Disclosures") to the United States, and the United States has relied on the accuracy and completeness of those Financial Disclosures in reaching this Agreement. IWP warrants that the Financial Disclosures are complete, accurate, and current as of the Effective Date of this Agreement. If the United States learns of asset(s) in which IWP had an interest of any kind as of the Effective Date of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, promises by insurers or other third parties to satisfy IWP's obligations under this Agreement) that were not disclosed in the Financial Disclosures, or if the United States learns of any false statement or misrepresentation by IWP on, or in connection with, the Financial Disclosures, and if such nondisclosure, false statement, or misrepresentation changes the estimated net worth set forth in the Financial Disclosures by One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) or more, the United States may at its option: (a) rescind this Agreement and reinstate its suit or file suit based on the Covered Conduct or (b) collect the full Settlement Amount in accordance with the Agreement plus one hundred percent (100%) of the net value of IWP's previously undisclosed assets. IWP agrees not to contest any collection action undertaken by the United States pursuant to this provision and agrees that it will immediately pay the United States the greater of (i) a ten-percent (10%) surcharge of the amount collected in the collection action, as allowed by 28 U.S.C. § 3011(a), or (ii) the United States' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in such an action. In the event that the United States, pursuant to this paragraph rescinds this Agreement, IWP waives and agrees not to plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses under the theories of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel, or similar theories, to any civil or administrative claims that (a) are filed by the United States within 120 calendar days of written notification to IWP that this Agreement has been rescinded, and (b) relate to the Covered Conduct, except to the extent these defenses were available on the Effective Date of this Agreement.

7. In the event IWP receives proceeds from any insurance policy on account of the Settlement Amount in this Agreement or the Covered Conduct at any time before the Settlement

Amount has been paid in full, IWP agrees to remit those insurance proceeds to the United States within fifteen (15) days, and that amount shall be credited against future payments, with the schedule of remaining payments to be adjusted as described in paragraph 1.a. IWP need not remit to the United States more insurance proceeds than necessary to pay the Settlement Amount in full. This paragraph does not apply to IWP's receipt of proceeds from any insurance policy on account of its legal expenses.

8. IWP waives and shall not assert any defenses it may have to any criminal prosecution relating to the Covered Conduct that may be based in whole or in part on a contention that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause in the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, or under the Excessive Fines Clause in the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution, this Agreement bars a remedy sought in such criminal prosecution or administrative action.

9. IWP fully and finally releases the United States and its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants from any claims (including for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that IWP has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States or its agencies, officers, agents, employees, or servants, related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

10. IWP agrees to the following:

a. Unallowable Costs Defined: All costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47) incurred by or on behalf of IWP, and its present or former officers, directors, employees, shareholders, and agents in connection with:

(1) the matters covered by this Agreement;

(2) the United States' audit(s) and civil and any criminal investigation(s) of the matters covered by this Agreement;

(3) IWP's investigation, defense, and corrective actions undertaken in response to the United States' audit(s) and civil and any criminal investigation(s) in connection with the matters covered by this Agreement (including attorneys' fees);

(4) the negotiation and performance of this Agreement; and

(5) the payment IWP makes to the United States pursuant to this Agreement, are unallowable costs for government contracting purposes (hereinafter referred to as Unallowable Costs).

b. Future Treatment of Unallowable Costs: Unallowable Costs will be separately determined and accounted for by IWP, and IWP shall not charge such Unallowable Costs directly or indirectly to any contract with the United States.

c. Treatment of Unallowable Costs Previously Submitted for Payment: Within 90 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, IWP shall identify and repay by adjustment to future claims for payment or otherwise any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by IWP or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates from the United States. IWP agrees that the United States, at a minimum, shall be entitled to recoup from IWP any overpayment plus applicable interest and penalties as a result of the inclusion of such Unallowable Costs on previously-submitted requests for payment. The United States, including the Department of Justice and/or the affected agencies, reserves its rights to audit, examine, or re-examine IWP's books and records and to disagree with any calculations submitted by IWP or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates regarding any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by IWP, or the effect of any such Unallowable Costs on the amount of such payments.

11. The obligations imposed upon IWP pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon IWP pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including but not limited to the requirements set forth in Title 21 of the United States Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

12. IWP agrees to cooperate fully and truthfully with the United States' investigation of individuals and entities not released in this Agreement. Upon reasonable notice, IWP shall encourage, and agrees not to impair, the cooperation of its directors, officers, and employees, and shall use its best efforts to make available, and encourage, the cooperation of former directors, officers, and employees for interviews and testimony, consistent with the rights and privileges of such individuals. 1WP further agrees to furnish to the United States, upon request, complete and unredacted copies of all non-privileged documents, reports, memoranda of interviews, and records in its possession, custody, or control concerning any investigation of the Covered Conduct that it has undertaken, or that has been performed by another on its behalf.

13. The Settlement Amount and Settlement Payments represent the amount the United States is willing to accept in compromise of its civil claims arising from the Covered Conduct due solely to IWP's financial condition as reflected in the Financial Disclosures referenced in Paragraph 6.

a. In the event that IWP fails to pay the Settlement Amount as provided in the payment schedule set forth in Paragraph 1 above and in Exhibit A, IWP shall be in Default of IWP's payment obligations ("Default"). The United States will provide a written Notice of Default, and IWP shall have an opportunity to cure such Default within seven (7) calendar days from the date of receipt of the Notice of Default by making the payment due under the payment schedule and paying any additional interest accruing under the Agreement up to the date of payment. Notice of Default will be delivered to IWP, or to such other representative as IWP shall designate in advance in writing. If IWP fails to cure the Default within seven (7) calendar days of receiving the Notice of Default and in the absence of an agreement with the United States to a modified payment schedule ("Uncured Default"), the remaining unpaid balance of the Settlement Amount shall become immediately due and payable, and interest on the remaining unpaid balance shall thereafter accrue at the rate of 12% per annum, compounded daily from the date of Default, on the remaining unpaid total (principal and interest balance).

14. In the event of Uncured Default, IWP agrees that the United States, at its sole discretion, may (i) retain any payments previously made, rescind this Agreement and pursue the Civil Action or bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against IWP for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided in Paragraph 4 above, with any recovery reduced by the amount of any payments previously made by IWP to the United States under this Agreement; (ii) take any action to enforce this Agreement in a new action or by reinstating the Civil Action; (iii) offset the remaining unpaid balance from any amounts due and owing to IWP and/or affiliated companies by any department, agency, or agent of the United States at the time of Default or subsequently; and/or (iv) exercise any other right granted by law, or under the terms of this Agreement, or recognizable at common law or in equity. The United States shall be entitled to any other rights granted by law or in equity by reason of Default, including referral of this matter for private collection. In the event the United States pursues a collection action, IWP agrees immediately to pay the United States the greater of (i) a ten-percent (10%) surcharge of the amount collected, as allowed by 28 U.S.C. § 3011(a), or (ii) the United States' reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in such an action. In the event that the United States opts to rescind this Agreement pursuant to this paragraph, IWP waives and agrees not to plead, argue, or otherwise raise any defenses of statute of limitations, laches, estoppel or similar theories, to any civil or administrative claims that are (i) filed by the United States against IWP within 120 days of written notification that this Agreement has been rescinded, and (ii) relate to the Covered Conduct, except to the extent these defenses were available on the Effective Date. IWP agrees not to contest any offset, recoupment, and /or collection action undertaken by the United States pursuant to this paragraph, either administratively or in any state or federal court, except on the grounds of actual payment to the United States.

15. In exchange for valuable consideration provided in this Agreement, IWP acknowledges the following:

a. IWP has reviewed its financial situation and warrants that it is solvent within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §§ 547(b)(3) and 548(a)(1)(B)(ii)(I) and shall remain solvent following payment to the United States of the Settlement Amount.

b. In evaluating whether to execute this Agreement, the Parties intend that the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth herein constitute a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to IWP, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 547(c)(1), and the Parties conclude that these mutual promises, covenants, and obligations do, in fact, constitute such a contemporaneous exchange.

c. The mutual promises, covenants, and obligations set forth herein are intended by the Parties to, and do in fact, constitute a reasonably equivalent exchange of value.

d. The Parties do not intend to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which IWP was or became indebted to on or after the date of any transfer contemplated in this Agreement, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1).

e. If any of IWP's payments or obligations under this Agreement are avoided for any reason (including but not limited to, through the exercise of a trustee's avoidance powers under the Bankruptcy Code) or if, before the Settlement Amount is paid in full, IWP or a third party commences a case, proceeding, or other action under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors seeking any order for relief of IWP's debts, or to adjudicate IWP as bankrupt or insolvent; or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for IWP or for all or any substantial part of IWP's assets:

(i) the United States may rescind the releases in this Agreement and bring any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding against IWP for the claims that would otherwise be covered by the releases provided in Paragraph 4 above; and

(ii) the United States has an undisputed, noncontingent, and liquidated allowed claim against IWP in the amount of Eleven Million Two-Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Sixty-Two Dollars and Seventy-One Cents ($11,226,062.71), plus first payment handshake interest, per Paragraph 1, less any payments received pursuant to Paragraph 1 of this Agreement, provided, however, that such payments are not otherwise avoided and recovered from the United States by a receiver, trustee, creditor, custodian, or similar official.

f. IWP agrees that any civil and/or administrative claim, action, or proceeding brought by the United States under Paragraph 17.E is not subject to an "automatic stay" pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) because it would be an exercise of the United States' police and regulatory power. IWP shall not argue or otherwise contend that the United States' claim, action, or proceeding is subject to an automatic stay and, to the extent necessary, consents to relief from the automatic stay for cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). Attachment 1 - Corrective Action Plan

This Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") between the Injured Worker's Pharmacy ("IWP") and the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") memorializes the policies and procedures that IWP and the DEA (jointly, the "Parties") have agreed upon to advance IWP's efforts to ensure compliance with the Controlled Substances Act (the "Act") and to enhance IWP's ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion. IWP is registered with the DEA as a Retail Pharmacy authorized to handle Schedule II-V controlled substances under DEA [redacted].

1. This CAP is incorporated by reference at paragraph 2 of the Settlement Agreement between IWP and the United States executed contemporaneously with this CAP (the "Settlement Agreement").

2. This CAP pertains to the "Covered Conduct" described in Recital H of the Settlement Agreement and in the United States' contentions in Recital I of the Settlement Agreement.

3. DEA agrees to take no further administrative action against IWP, along with their respective directors, officers, managers, employees, successors and assigns related to the Covered Conduct. However, should IWP violate this CAP, IWP understands that DEA may institute further administrative action, including but not limited to seeking revocation of IWP's DEA registration for any new violation, as well as for the Covered Conduct. DEA may also seek injunctive relief to enforce the terms of the CAP pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 843 (f), as stated in Paragraph 5 of the Settlement Agreement.

4. The period of this CAP shall be five (5) years, starting on the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement.

5. Whenever this CAP requires notice to the DEA, the persons to be notified will be Taylor McCarty [redacted] and Heather Danner-Ryan [redacted]. Whenever this CAP requires notice to IWP, the persons to be notified will be Jayne Kresac [redacted] and Brian Benjet [redacted]. Either party may change the name and/or contact information of its contact person(s) by so notifying the other party's contact person(s).

6. Prior to, in connection with, and following the Massachusetts AG Consent Judgment, IWP has implemented several changes to their controlled substance handling procedures, including, but not limited to, the following:

   a. In 2018, IWP released a High-Risk Prescribing Regimens Standard of Procedure ("SOP"), which requires pharmacists to conduct a thorough review of prescriptions that are identified as part of a high-risk drug combination. As later amended, this SOP requires the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist to contact the prescribers of the identified high-risk prescriptions to confirm awareness and accuracy of the prescribed dosages and treatment plan.

   b. In 2020, IWP implemented an Initial High-Risk Opioid Prescription Policy and Procedure, which expands the clinical checks conducted prior to initial dispensing, by including a process for documenting the authenticity of high-risk prescriptions before dispensing the medication and a process for providing specific counseling to patients regarding alternatives to high-risk prescriptions. IWP also implemented training regarding the identification of initial high-risk opioid prescriptions, the review process, and the documentation process. In

c. IWP has implemented other new and revised pharmacy policies and procedures. IWP has provided the DEA with copies of its current policies and procedures that pertain to:

i. At-Risk Patient Chronic Pain Counseling
ii. CII Room Operation
iii. Controlled Substance Inventory
iv. Controlled Substances Workflow (CIII-CV)
v. Drug Utilization Review (DUR)
vi. Clinical Intervention: High Risk Prescribing Regimens
vii. Initial High-Risk Opioid Prescriptions
viii. Naloxone Standing Order
ix. New At-Risk Patient Auditing Procedure
x. PDMP Query
xi. Prescription Authentication Practices
xii. Processing Pharmacist Responsibilities & Preserving Pharmacist's Judgement
xiii. Professional License Verification (MedPro)
xiv. Receipt of Pharmaceutical Inventory
xv. Pharmacy Record Retention
xvi. Pharmacy Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy (REMS)
xvii. Schedule II Narcotic Non-Contiguous States
xviii. PMSP Program Provider Monitoring

7. Since 2017, IWP has either hired new personnel or created new positions including: a Chief Compliance Officer that reports to the Board of Directors as well as the Chief Executive Officer, Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist, replacing its Chief Executive Officer, and hiring new executive and clinical leadership. IWP's new Chief Compliance Officer has since designed and implemented a new compliance program.

8. IWP agrees that it will continue utilizing the changes that it undertook, as those changes are listed out in paragraph 6 in order to address the Covered Conduct, and to remain in compliance with Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

9. During the CAP Period, IWP:

a. Agrees to abide by all federal, state and local statutes and regulations relating to controlled substances.

b. Agrees to allow DEA personnel to enter the registered location at any time during regular business hours, without prior notice, and without requiring DEA to obtain an administrative inspection warrant, search warrant, or other means of entry, in order to verify compliance with the Controlled Substances Act (Title 21 United States Code §801, et seq.), its implement regulations, and this CAP.

c. Agrees to maintain complete and accurate records relating to controlled substances, and to maintain copies of these records for a period of five years, from the effective date of this CAP, which will be available to DEA for inspection and copying, and inventories as required by 21 C.F.R. § 1304.04(a), except that, during the CAP Period only, the time period for which records and inventories must be maintained is extended to five (5) years from the date of such records or inventories.

d. Agrees to be truthful and accurate in all information that it submits to the DEA and that any notifications, as required by this CAP and DEA rules and regulations, are timely submitted.

e. Agrees that if any state agency or entity conducts an inspection or any investigation of IWP by seeking any records or documents from IWP, IWP hereby gives its unrestricted consent to the state agency or entity to share any and all reports, documents, evidence and information of whatever nature or kind with the DEA.

f. Agree to continue implementing SOP's to ensure compliance with its obligations under 21 CFR 1306.04(a).

g. Agrees to maintain SOPs to ensure compliance with its obligations under 21 CFR § 1306.04(a).

h. Agrees that it shall maintain SOPs to ensure the pharmacy complies with the requirements of 21 CFR § 1306.05, including by ensuring prescriptions contain all the required information.

i. Agrees to maintain, on a current basis, a complete and accurate record of each controlled substance received, sold, delivered, dispensed or otherwise disposed of, as required by 21 CFR § 1304.21(a).

j. Agrees that only IWP pharmacists will make clinical determinations relating to Drug Utilization Review ("DUR") alerts for prescriptions that are flagged for issues such as drug interactions, potential allergic reactions, dangerous drug combinations and therapeutic duplication of opioids, to ensure that the prescribed drugs are appropriate and medically necessary prior to filling.

k. Agrees to emphasize the identification of potential safety concerns, red flags, and potentially illegitimate prescriptions.

l. Agrees to not make any decision relating to a pharmacist's performance review, compensation, promotion, work hours, hiring, or termination that relies in whole or in part on dispensing rates, whether measured individually or in aggregate. This restriction shall not be interpreted to limit IWP's ability to reassign pharmacists to different responsibilities based on operational considerations, or to prohibit employment decisions based upon non-performance (e.g., absenteeism, failure to complete essential job responsibilities) or significant underperformance, as compared to peers and taking into account best dispensing practices.

m. Agrees to provide controlled substance training to all new employees who handle controlled substances or records related to controlled substances. This training shall be conducted within one week of hire. This training shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) the proper handling, recordkeeping, security, and storage procedures for controlled substances (2) how to identify and handle prescription red flags to ensure patient safety and prescription legitimacy (3) how to identify potentially dangerous medication combinations (4) current CDC prescription guidelines and (5) controlled substance abuse and prevention.

n. Agrees to provide controlled substance training to all current employees who handle controlled substances or records related to controlled substances. This training shall be conducted at least, but not limited to, annually. This training shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) the proper handling, recordkeeping, security, and storage procedures for controlled substances (2) how to identify and handle prescription red flags to ensure patient safety and prescription legitimacy (3) how to identify potentially dangerous medication combinations (4) current CDC prescription guidelines and (5) controlled substance abuse and prevention.

o. Agrees to maintain a drug diversion team consisting of employees in compliance, pharmacy, security and operations roles. This drug diversion team shall be tasked with establishing, maintaining, and, if appropriate, advancing various diversion controls throughout IWP.

p. Will send a copy of this CAP, in its entirety, to the Massachusetts Department of Public Health Drug Control Program, within ten days of the full execution of this Agreement.

q. At least once every 12 months following the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement, IWP will conduct a self-evaluation to review compliance with all requirements of the Act, this CAP and its corresponding commitments to maintain SOPs and a compliance program directed at IWP's obligations under the Act. At the completion of each evaluation, the Pharmacy Manager of Record and/or the Chief Compliance Officer will certify that he/she has completed the evaluation and document any corrective action to be taken. IWP will retain the letters of certification, and make them available to the DEA upon request, for two years following the expiration of this CAP.

r. IWP will promptly and thoroughly investigate all thefts, significant losses, and other potential diversions of controlled substances. IWP will establish protocols to reduce the number of in-transit losses of controlled substances and will promptly report all such thefts, significant losses, and other diversions to DEA. DEA is aware that IWP has additional reporting duties to licensure boards, and all other relevant agencies.

10. IWP will comply at all times with the Act and the regulations issued thereunder. To the extent that any requirements in the Act or regulations are greater than those imposed by this CAP, the stricter requirements will apply.

11. Each Party and signatory to this CAP represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this CAP without any degree of duress or compulsion.

12. This CAP is intended for the benefit of the Parties only; it does not create any rights or benefits for third parties.

13. This CAP is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to this CAP is the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. This CAP shall be deemed to have been drafted by both Parties and shall not, therefore, be construed against either Party in any subsequent dispute.

14. This CAP and the Settlement Agreement constitute the complete agreement between the DEA and IWP relating to the matters addressed herein. This CAP may be amended only by a writing signed by both DEA and IWP.

15. The undersigned signatories represent and warrant that it is fully authorized to execute this CAP on behalf of the parties.

16. This CAP may be executed in two counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and both of which constitute one and the same agreement.

17. This CAP is binding on IWP's successors, transferees, and assigns.

Re: Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC
Pharmacy License No. PH02281

To Whom It May Concern,

On July 1, 2020, Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC ("IWP") provided notice to the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy that IWP had resolved an investigation by the Massachusetts Attorney General ("MA AG") into IWP's historical practices for the dispensing of controlled substances. I write today to notify you that, on June 23, 2023, IWP resolved a parallel investigation by the U.S. Department of Justice and the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") regarding IWP's historical practices for the dispensing of controlled substances.

As noted in the settlement agreement, federal authorities conducted this investigation in parallel with the MA AG until June 2020, when IWP resolved the MA AG's investigation in a stipulated consent judgment. In October 2021, an independent auditor concluded that IWP was in compliance with the MA AG stipulated consent judgment in all material aspects. The federal and state investigations concerned IWP's historical dispensing practices through 2019. The settlement agreement recognizes that, prior to and in connection with the MA AG consent judgment, IWP implemented changes to its policies and procedures concerning the dispensing of controlled substances, including opioids. IWP has agreed to continue utilizing these enhancements as part of the federal resolution. IWP remains committed to ensuring compliance with federal and state laws, including with respect to the identification of high-risk prescriptions.

In bringing the federal portion of the investigation to a close, IWP agreed to pay $10 million to the United States and agreed to abide by the terms of a Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") for a period of five years. The DEA agreed to take no further administrative action against IWP as long as it abides by the terms of the CAP, which in large part incorporates the policies and procedures that IWP implemented following the conclusion of the MA AG investigation to advance IWP's efforts to ensure compliance with the Controlled Substances Act and enhance IWP's ability to prevent, detect, and address drug diversion.

IWP is registered with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy as a Pharmacy under License No. PH02281

Attn: Kenneth Scheuber, Investigator

Dear Mr. Scheuber,

On June 7, 2018, IWP received a Civil Investigative Demand for Documents from the Massachusetts Attorney General relating to Injured Workers Pharmacy (IWP). To avoid prolonged and on-going costly litigation, IWP reached a settlement with the Massachusetts Attorney General with respect to any and all outstanding inquiries and matters. On June 24, 2020, IWP agreed to a voluntary Consent Judgment including IWP's payment of a monetary fine ($11,000,000) and has undertaken remedial changes to its operations and compliance program consistent with the requirements of the Consent Judgment. IWP implemented changes to its policies and procedures concerning the dispensing of controlled substances, including opioids. Specific changes to IWP's clinical program include the addition of a Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist position to identify and counsel at-risk patients, checking all controlled substance prescriptions through the prescription drug monitoring program of the state we are shipping into at each fill, and proactive prescriber and patient outreach for initial opioid prescriptions for opioid naïve patients that exceed CDC guidelines, as well as enhanced monitoring and analytics around prescribers that IWP does business with. In addition, IWP hired a Compliance Officer whose responsibilities include tracking of relevant laws and regulations, administering training programs on compliance-related topics and investigating and documenting reports of suspicious prescriber behavior. IWP has agreed to continue utilizing these enhancements and remains committed to ensuring compliance with federal and state laws, including with respect to the identification of high-risk prescriptions. In October 2021, an independent auditor concluded that IWP is in compliance with the Massachusetts Attorney General's stipulated consent judgment in all material aspects.

If you have any further questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Attn: J. David Wuest, RPh., Executive Secretary Nevada State Board of Pharmacy
Re: Case No. 23-428-PH-O

Dear Dr. Wuest:

This letter and the accompanying materials are submitted on behalf of Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC ("IWP") in response to the "Notice of Intended Action and Accusation" filed by the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy on March 11, 2025. Please note that due to the sensitive and confidential information contained within this letter and the documents being produced today, these materials should be considered confidential and designated accordingly.

As background, IWP has a unique business model that sets it apart from retail pharmacies. Patients are required to complete an enrollment process and have a verified Workers Compensation claim to be able to receive services from our pharmacy.

IWP undertook remedial changes to its operations and compliance program consistent with the requirements of the Consent Judgment. IWP implemented changes to its policies and procedures concerning the dispensing of controlled substances, including opioids.

I would like to outline some of the improvements that were made to IWP's Clinical and Compliance programs that continue to be strengthened and improved.

- Employment of a designated Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist (PMSP) whose key responsibilities include leading clinical initiatives and implementing procedures to ensure the safe dispensing of prescriptions to IWP's patients on chronic or high-dose opioid regimens or dangerous drug combinations. Key areas of focus include, but are not limited to the following:
    - Patient counselling and education on the risks associated with opioid medications and how to use safely
    - Provider consultation to review and discuss patients' treatment plans, make clinically appropriate recommendations and/or discuss red flags identified during review of the patient's medication history
    - Review and assess provider prescribing patterns, identify red flag concerns associated with various "high-risk" prescribing patterns

- Employment of a Compliance Officer whose responsibilities include tracking of relevant laws and regulations, administering training programs on compliance-related topics and investigating and documenting reports of suspicious prescriber behavior
- Creation of an At-Risk Patient program to counsel patients and their prescribers who are taking high dose and/or chronic opioids
- Establishment of an Initial High Risk prescription program to proactively provide counselling to patients and enhanced due diligence around prescriptions written for opioid naïve patients that exceed CDC initial dosing guidelines
- Requirement for review of the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program (PDMP) by a pharmacist prior to dispensing all controlled substance prescription
- An exhaustive prescriber monitoring program to ensure we are monitoring prescriber licensing not only prior to filling every prescription but also monitoring prescriber behavior retroactively using Injured Workers Pharmacy's dispensing data
- A Drug Diversion Committee that continually monitors and makes recommendations for enhancements to IWP employee and patient diversion policies and procedures

Program enhancements to ensure we remain in compliance in addition to what is noted above, include:

- Clinical Enhancements
    - Aligning our At-Risk program to the new CDC Opioid Clinical Practice Guidelines updating our At-Risk program inclusion criteria by lowering the threshold for chronic opioid use from 90 days to 60 days and inclusion of alternate dangerous drug combinations in addition to the opioid/benzodiazepine combination. Enhancements include additional monitoring of patients being co-prescribed CNS depressants, CNS stimulants, controlled sedatives and/or high dose gabapentinoids ensuring we are providing counselling on the risks associated with the medications and education on how to safely and properly use their medications to our patients who are being treated with a high-risk drug combination.
    - Aligning our Initial High-Risk program to the new CDC Opioid Clinical Practice Guidelines, lowering the MME threshold leading to enhanced due diligence and providing clinical counselling to more patients through this program
    - Implementation of a clinical program to provide patient and provider counselling for patients receiving Schedule II stimulants
    - Implementation of Naloxone follow-up program to complete patient outreach for patients who have previously received a naloxone emergency kit two or more years ago that is at risk of being expired

- Creating a process to counsel patients and the prescribers of patients who have had a clinically significant dosage increase and/or addition of drugs of concern to ensure appropriateness
- Ability of the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist to flag patient's account for additional review prior to prescription fulfillment for additional due diligence and review of clinical appropriateness
- Terminating relationships with prescribers that upon our review were not exhibiting sound clinical judgement
- Placing prescribers with previous disciplinary action on a quarterly monitoring program in which the Pain Management Specialty Pharmacist reviews the providers prescribing history at IWP to monitor for any clinically concerning trends. Identified prescribers are reviewed on a quarterly basis to ensure there are no clinical or regulatory concerns observed with their prescribing history at IWP.
- Redesign of the Pharmacy's Drug Utilization Review "DUR" module to improve the clinical data presented to IWP Pharmacists for review when evaluating new and refill prescriptions for clinical appropriateness

- Operational Enhancements
  - Ensuring adequate staffing of the pharmacy to maintain a low ratio of prescriptions filled per pharmacist per day (currently 110-120 Rxs/RPh/day), significantly lower than the average retail pharmacy
  - Engaging with industry experts on an inspection tool to monitor compliance with the Controlled Substance Act; and by instituting best practices as recommended
  - Specialized annual training on best practices for the receipt, storage, and handling of controlled substances for all pharmacy staff
  - Creation and execution of clinical audit protocols to evaluate the clinical effectiveness of staff pharmacists
  - Creation and maintenance of an extensive policy library that contains written policies and procedures which, among other activities of pharmacy practice, document the pharmacy's complete efforts with regards to controlled substance ordering, dispensing, handling and accountability
  - Continued use of MedPro real time prescriber licensure checks to verify prescriber's state licensure and DEA registration, and review possible sanctions prior to fulfillment of each prescription
  - Pharmacists perform PDMP checks for all controlled substances (C2-C5) at each and every fill
- Diversion and Security Enhancements

- Perpetual inventory system of all controlled substances including regular reconciliation
- Installation of upgraded security camera system, including the use of over 10 high resolution cameras throughout the pharmacy space
- Use of technology for dispensing of controlled substances to ensure accuracy such as EyeCon® and ScriptPro® machines
- Enhanced employee screening protocols including initial and yearly criminal background checks for all employees with access to the licensed pharmacy space
- Quarterly training for personnel on identification of patient and prescriber red flags as it pertains to potential misuse, abuse and diversion

- Compliance Enhancements
  - The Compliance Officer and PMSP Pharmacist meet regularly to review the Pain Management Specialty Program to ensure IWP continues to meet all requirements
  - Present a summary of the PMSP metrics to both the internal Compliance Committee and IWP's Board of Directors
  - Robust auditing program that includes an annual Pharmacy Audit

IWP agreed to continue utilizing these enhancements and remains committed to ensuring compliance with federal and state laws, including with respect to the identification of high-risk prescriptions. In October 2021, an independent auditor concluded that IWP is in compliance with the Massachusetts Attorney General's stipulated consent judgment in all material aspects.

If you have any further questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. INJURED WORKERS PHARMACY, Pharmacy License No. PH02281, Respondent.	CASE NO. 23-428-PH-O STIPULATION AND ORDER

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (Board), by and through General Counsel Brett Kandt, and Respondent Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC, Pharmacy License No. PH02281, by and through counsel, Law Offices of Lyn E. Beggs, PLLC and DLA Piper LLP (US), HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE THAT:

1. On or about June 25, 2025, Respondent was served with the First Amended Notice of Intended Action and Accusation (Amended Accusation) on file in this matter together with the Statement to Respondent and Notice of Hearing.

2. Respondent is entering into this Stipulation in lieu of filing an Answer and Notice of Defense to the Amended Accusation.

3. Respondent is fully aware of the right to seek the advice of counsel in this matter and obtained the advice of counsel prior to entering into this Stipulation.

4. Respondent is aware of the right to a hearing on the matters alleged in the Amended Accusation, the right to reconsideration, the right to appeal and any and all other rights which may be accorded pursuant to NRS Chapter 233B (Nevada Administrative Procedure Act), NRS Chapter 622A (Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies), and NRS Chapter 639 (Nevada Pharmacy Act).

5. Conditioned on the acceptance of this Stipulation by the Board, and with the exception of the right to challenge any determination that Respondent has failed to comply with the provisions of this Stipulation, Respondent hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives the rights to a hearing, reconsideration, appeal and any and all other rights related to this action that may be accorded by NRS Chapter 233B (Nevada Administrative Procedure Act), NRS Chapter 622A (Administrative Procedure Before Certain Regulatory Bodies), and NRS Chapter 639 (Nevada Pharmacy Act).

6. Respondent does not contest the allegations in the Amended Accusation, but acknowledges that Board staff prosecuting this case could present such evidence at an administrative hearing to establish a factual basis for the violations alleged therein, to wit, that:

A. In June of 2023 Respondent entered into a Settlement Agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Department of Labor (DOJ). In the Settlement Agreement, Respondent made no admissions to any violation of federal law related to dispensing controlled substances from approximately 2014-2019, rather Respondent admitted to certain facts related to the need for enhanced policies and procedures to safeguard against improper and unlawful dispensing as addressed in a Consent Judgement entered into with the Massachusetts Attorney General in June 2020. No new issues were raised in the DOJ case and in the Settlement Agreement, it was acknowledged that Respondent had addressed the deficiencies in its policies through the engagement of an independent auditor and implementation of the enhanced policies and procedures. Per the terms of the DOJ Settlement Agreement, Respondent paid a substantial fine and agreed to enter into a Corrective Action Plan in which Respondent agreed to continue compliance with the Controlled Substances Act through a general restatement of the terms of the Massachusetts Consent Judgment;

B. Based on the language of the DOJ Settlement Agreement, Respondent, Respondent's owner(s), and/or their personnel engaged in unprofessional conduct as defined in NAC 639.945(1)(i) and violated various provisions of the Controlled Substances Act (CSA), Title 21 United States Code (21 U.S.C.) 801-971, and DEA regulations, Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations (21 CFR) Parts 1300 to 1316, as detailed in the Settlement Agreement, although neither the DOJ Settlement Agreement nor the Massachusetts Consent Judgment indicate any direct nexus to prescriptions dispensed to patients in Nevada; and

C. Respondent is responsible for those violations, including all errors and omissions of pharmacy personnel, pursuant to NRS 639.230(5), NAC 639.702 and/or NAC 639.945(3) and therefore subject to discipline pursuant to NRS 639.210(4), (11) and/or (12).

7. Those violations are pled with particularity in the Amended Accusation and grounds for action pursuant to NRS 639.210 and NRS 639.255.

8. To resolve this matter without incurring any further costs or the expense associated with a hearing, the Board and Respondent stipulate to the following penalties. The pharmacy license of Injured Workers Pharmacy, LLC, Pharmacy License No. PH02281, is suspended for a period of one (1) year pursuant to NRS 639.255(1)(c). The suspension is stayed, and Respondent is placed on probation subject to the following conditions:

A. McCurtain-Murry, aka Debra Renee McCurtainmurry, aka Debra McCurtain-Murry, aka Debra R. McCurtainmurry (Respondent) before the Board of Registered Nursing. (Accusation attached as Exhibit A.)

2. On or about August 31, 1991, the Board issued Registered Nurse License Number 469635 to Respondent. The Registered Nurse License was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought in Accusation Number 4002021005914 and will expire on April 30, 2025, unless renewed.

3. On or about October 7, 1996, the Board issued Nurse Practitioner Certificate Number 8738 to Respondent. The Nurse Practitioner Certificate was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought in Accusation Number 4002021005914 and will expire on April 30, 2025, unless renewed.

4. On or about July 22, 1997, the Board issued Nurse Practitioner Furnishing Certificate Number 8738 to Respondent. The Nurse Practitioner Furnishing Certificate was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought in Accusation No. 4002021005914 and will expire on April 30, 2025, unless renewed.

5. On or about December 15, 2023, Respondent was served by Certified and First Class Mail copies of the Accusation Number 4002021005914, Statement to Respondent, Notice of Defense, Request for Discovery, and Discovery Statutes (Government Code sections 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7) at Respondent's address of record which, pursuant to California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1409.1, is required to be reported and maintained with the Board. > (c) The respondent shall be entitled to a hearing on the merits if the respondent files a notice of defense . . . and the notice shall be deemed a specific denial of all parts of the accusation . . . not expressly admitted. Failure to file a notice of defense . . . shall constitute a waiver of respondent's right to a hearing, but the agency in its discretion may nevertheless grant a hearing.

8. The Board takes official notice of its records and the fact that Respondent failed to file a Notice of Defense within 15 days after service upon her of the Accusation, and therefore waived her right to a hearing on the merits of Accusation Number 4002021005914.

As used in Section 2761 of the code, "gross negligence" includes an extreme departure from the standard of care which, under similar circumstances, would have ordinarily been exercised by a competent registered nurse. Such an extreme departure means the repeated failure to provide nursing care as required or failure to provide care or to exercise ordinary precaution in a single situation which the nurse knew, or should have known, could have jeopardized the client's health or life.

14. CCR section 1471 states:

For purposes of this article:

(a) "Standardized procedure functions" means those functions specified in Business and Professions Code Section 2725(c) and (d) which are to be performed according to "standardized procedures";

(c) "Standardized procedures" means policies and protocols formulated by organized health care systems for the performance of standardized procedure functions.

15. CCR section 1472 states:

An organized health care system must develop standardized procedures before permitting registered nurses to perform standardized procedure functions. A registered nurse may perform standardized procedure functions only under the conditions specified in a health care system's standardized procedures; and must provide the system with satisfactory evidence that the nurse meets its experience, training, and/or education requirements to perform such functions.

COST RECOVERY

17. Code section 125.3 provides, in pertinent part, that the Board may request the administrative law judge to direct a licentiate found to have committed a violation or violations of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of the case, with failure of the licentiate to comply subjecting the license to not being renewed or reinstated. If a case settles, recovery of investigation and enforcement costs may be included in a stipulated settlement.

DRUG INFORMATION

18. Phentermine is a Schedule IV controlled substance as designated by Health and Safety Code section 11057, subdivision (f)(4), and is a dangerous drug within the meaning of Code section 4022. Phentermine is used together with diet and exercise to treat obesity.

19. Tenuate is a Schedule IV controlled substance as designated by Health and Safety Code section 11057, subdivision (f)(1), and is dangerous drug within the meaning of Code section 4022. Tenuate is used together with diet and exercise to treat obesity.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

20. On or about April 14, 2021, the Board received a complaint from nurse practitioner B.R. alleging that Respondent, owner of Rocklin Weight Loss (RWL) in Rocklin, California, had been inappropriately prescribing Phentermine and Tenuate to clients of RWL. The complaint stated that on or about April 12, 2021, patients with a normal[1] body mass index (BMI), had requested refills of weight loss medication. B.R, who was working at RWL as a nurse practitioner on that day, did not refill the medication as requested. On or about April 14, 2021, B.R. received a text message from Respondent stating that B.R. should have prescribed the medication even though the patients had normal body weight. In response, B.R. asked Respondent for the clinical protocol approved by the overseeing physician that would allow weight loss prescriptions for patients with normal body weight, however, Respondent refused to provide it.

21. B.R. further alleged that Respondent had been shipping controlled substances to patients labeled as "supplements." In addition, B.R. stated that the clinic was using billing code ICD 10 for obesity, when many of the patients were not obese.

22. A DOI investigation revealed that Respondent had employed nurse practitioners to work at RWL between 2020 and 2021, without nurse practitioner standardized protocols. Multiple employees confirmed that patients had come into the office and received Phentermine without examinations that Phentermine and Tenuate had been shipped to customers, and that billing code ICD 10 was used for patients who were not considered obese. Patient records were obtained that showed patients with a BMI of 25 and lower had been receiving Phentermine and that there were no entries of BMI in some medical records. Below is a summary of the patient records.

2. Garcia was employed as a pharmaceutical technician by Smith's Pharmacy #315, located at 8525 W Warm Springs Road in Las Vegas, and Brooks was employed as managing pharmacist of the pharmacy, at the time of the events alleged herein.

3. On or about February 13, 2025 Smith's Pharmacy #315 submitted DEA Form 106 documentation to the Board reporting the theft of controlled substances after an investigation produced evidence that Garcia diverted 9515 Alprazolam 1mg tablets, 19,908 Alprazolam 2mg tablets, and 1,018 Tramadol 50mg tablets.

4. On or about January 24, 2025, Respondent was terminated from employment by Smith's Pharmacy #315 due to policy violations and unprofessional conduct related to the theft.

5. The investigation revealed that Brooks failed to comply with Smith's Pharmacy policies and procedures to prevent and detect diversion, including, without limitation, failing to maintain balance on hand (BOH) manual changes reports weekly to review for suspicious or unexplainable manual changes for controlled substances, failing to question and/or research suspicious changes, and failing to research inventory discrepancies and report any evidence of theft or unexplainable loss.

6. On or about March 11, 2025, the Board served Garcia with an order of summary suspension of her Certificate of Registration No. PT20499 pursuant to NRS 233B.127(3) and noticed a hearing before the Board on April 16, 2025. Board staff attempted service of the order of summary suspension on Garcia by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to Garcia at her last address of record.

7. Garcia failed to appear at the April 16, 2025, hearing, and the Board upheld the suspension of her Certificate of Registration No. PT20499 pending the filing of an accusation.

RE: Response to Notice of Intended Action and Accusation - Case No. 25-076-PH-S
Smith's Pharmacy #315 (License No. PH03897)

Dear Mr. Kandt:

This firm represents Smith's Pharmacy #315 (License No. PH03897) ("the Pharmacy"), located at 8525 W Warm Springs Road, in Las Vegas, Nevada. On or about June 12, 2025, the Pharmacy received the Nevada Board of Pharmacy's (the "Board") Notice of Intended Action and Accusation (the "Accusation") in Case No. 25-076-PH-S. Please accept this letter as the Pharmacy's Answer and Notice of Defense and request to negotiate a stipulated settlement agreement. As described below, the facts giving rise to the Accusation are the unfortunate result of now-terminated pharmacy personnels' departure from clear policies and procedures set forth by the Pharmacy. We respectfully ask that the Board consider the Pharmacy's prompt investigation and corrective action as the parties move forward with settlement discussions.

The Factual Allegations

The Pharmacy does not dispute the factual allegations in the Accusation. This matter results from the diversion of controlled substances by Pharmacy Technician Alyssa Garcia ("Garcia") that was reported by the Pharmacy in February 2025 through submission of a DEA Form 106. As the Accusation notes, the Pharmacy promptly terminated Garcia upon discovery of the diversion and investigated Pharmacist-in-Charge Octavia Brooks ("PIC Brooks") for failure to adhere to the Pharmacy's policies and procedures. The Accusation lists five counts against Garcia for her diversion of Alprazolam and Tramadol tablets, one count against PIC Brooks for failure to comply with policies and procedures to safeguard against theft or misuse of controlled substances, and one count against the Pharmacy for the errors and omissions of Garcia and PIC Brooks as employees of the Pharmacy.

Corrective Actions Taken

As Garcia's and PIC Brooks' employer, the Pharmacy recognizes that it is responsible for any violation caused employee conduct. Notably, however, none of the counts relate specifically to the acts or omissions of the Pharmacy itself. Instead, as the factual allegations highlight, the Pharmacy fulfilled its duties to promptly investigate upon notification of a suspicious order and discipline its employees upon confirmation of diversion.

Specifically, on or about January 22, 2025, Mr. Paul Howse, the Pharmacy Practice Coordinator ("PPC"), was contacted by a supplier regarding a suspicious order placed by the Pharmacy for Alprazolam 1 mg. Upon notification, the PPC immediately opened an investigation into the Pharmacy's controlled substance inventory and submitted a covert count on January 22, 2025, the very same day he was notified of the suspicious order. The investigation revealed that between May 1, 2023, and January 22, 2025, 9,515 alprazolam 1 mg, 19,908 alprazolam 2 mg, and 1,018 tramadol 50 mg tablets were unaccounted for.

On January 27, 2025, just three business days after the suspicious order notification, the Pharmacy interviewed pharmacy associates, including Garcia and PIC Brooks. While Garcia did not admit to theft or diversion of the controlled substances, the Pharmacy confirmed that she was likely responsible after reviewing surveillance footage and determining that changes to the Balance on Hand ("BOH") count occurred while she was present in the Pharmacy. Garcia's actions were confirmed after an audit of the BOH changes revealed that Garcia had made multiple count changes between May 1, 2024 and January 22, 2025. During her interview, PIC Brooks admitted to not following the Pharmacy's policies for secure storage and monitoring of controlled substances as alleged in Count Six. While PIC Brooks' became aware of BOH changes during her weekly reviews, she failed to investigate these discrepancies beyond accepting Garcia's statement, without further inquiry, that a glitch in the pharmacy system required Garcia to manually adjust the BOH count. See Attachment 1. PIC Brooks' also failed to notify the PPC of unreconciled discrepancies as required by pharmacy policy which further prevented the Pharmacy's discovery of Garcia's diversion. Id. Both Garcia and PIC Brooks were suspended pending further investigation on January 27, 2025, the same day that interviews were completed.

Smith's Pharmacy's policies require pharmacy personnel to comply with all applicable federal and state laws, including the federal Controlled Substances Act and similar state laws, regulating the storage, distribution, possession and use of controlled substances. Relevant to this incident, the Pharmacy's Controlled Substance Policy and Procedures clearly establish the process for maintaining the security and distribution of controlled substances through the use of Balance on Hand change reviews by the PIC (SOP 501.4.4), the requirement for two associate check-in upon delivery of controlled substances (SOP 501.5), inventory discrepancy investigations (SOP 501.21), personal item storage near the pharmacy entrance (SOP 501.19.5), and the requirements to dispense a controlled substance only through a valid prescription from a licensed practitioner. See Attachment 2. Further, all pharmacy associates are required to complete annual controlled substance training courses.

After the investigation concluded, the Pharmacy took prompt corrective action by terminating the individuals involved, retraining all pharmacy personnel on controlled substance policies and procedures, and implementing a Corrective Action/Preventive Action ("CAPA") on March 31, 2025. Garcia and PIC Brooks were terminated on February 4, 2025 and February 11, 2025, respectively, and a temporary PIC was appointed on February 12, 2025. The new PIC, Kevin So, was appointed on March 31, 2025. All pharmacy personnel, including the temporary PIC, were retrained immediately on policies related to the two-associate check in procedure for controlled substances, personal item storage, controlled substance inventory discrepancy and loss. Further, PIC So has continued to implement the corrective actions contained in the CAPA.

Offer to Settle

As demonstrated above, the Pharmacy takes compliance with state and federal controlled substance laws seriously. Robust policies and procedures are in place to guard against thefts and diversions and pharmacy personnel are continuously retrained on such procedures. However, even robust policies and procedures are only effective if employees choose to comply. Absent Garcia's illegal actions and PIC Brooks' noncompliance with established policies and procedures, the underlying diversion would not have occurred. Nonetheless, the Pharmacy understands the actions of its employees have a direct impact on its responsibilities and obligations as a licensed pharmacy. To that end, the Pharmacy has taken numerous steps to prevent similar incidents from reoccurring, including terminating the employees involved.

The Pharmacy respectfully requests that the Board consider the swift corrective action taken by the Pharmacy as the parties move forward with settlement negotiations.

Should you have any questions or matters that you wish to discuss regarding this offer, please do not hesitate to contact me at Nicholas.Meza@quarles.com or (602) 229-5439.

Very truly yours,

Nicholas H. Meza

RE: Case #25-076

The following statement is being provided pursuant to a written request made by Dena McClish, dated March 10, 2025 and received by Paul Howse via email on March 10, 2025

Statement regarding Requests #1 & #4:

On 01/22/2025 our supplier's (Smith's Food and Drug Centers, Inc. dba Peyton's Phoenix) controlled substance order monitoring associate notified me about a suspicious order placed for alprazolam 1 mg at Smith's #315 based on their monthly tablet fill count versus how much had been ordered recently. Due to this finding, that controlled substance order was cancelled. Upon receiving this information, I went at end of day on 01/22/2025 to complete a covert count and open a review of the pharmacy's alprazolam 1 mg inventory. After the audit was completed on 01/24/2025, it was determined that Smiths #315 had 7,909 alprazolam 1 mg unaccounted for. Upon further review, it was determined that other controlled substances order receipt quantities appeared to have been altered including alprazolam 2 mg and tramadol 50 mg. In addition, I reviewed balance on hand changes between 05/01/2024-01/22/2025 and noticed technician Alyssa Garcia had made multiple count changes, which included, at times, receiving order quantities into the pharmacy system's inventory with lower quantities than what was shipped for alprazolam 1mg, alprazolam 2mg and tramadol 50mg. Further, I reviewed past Cardinal orders for alprazolam 1mg and found that multiple paper invoices were missing from the appropriate file in the pharmacy's controlled substance record's cabinet, despite verification that the orders were shipped in Cardinal's online portal.

On 01/25/2025, I submitted covert physical counts for alprazolam 1 mg, alprazolam 2 mg and tramadol 50 mg taken at the beginning of day on 01/25/2025, along with the annual controlled substance inventories conducted on 4/30/2023, and 5/1/2024 to the Corporate Pharmacy Asset Protection team. An audit using these counts revealed the following discrepancies between 04/30/2023-01/22/2025:

- -9,515 alprazolam 1 mg tablets
- -19,908 alprazolam 2 mg tablets
- -1,018 tramadol 50 mg tablets

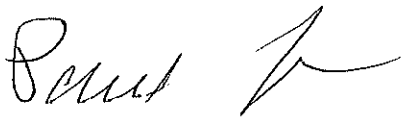
During Asset Protection's initial surveillance review done 01/25/2025-01/26/2025 they were unable to affirmatively view any pharmacy staff remove drugs from the pharmacy but observed some behaviors not consistent with policy and procedures from Alyssa Garcia. This included not using the coat closet for personal items such as backpacks, carrying baskets with drug stock bottles to the side storage room, and consuming food/drink without purchase.

Based on the above findings, it was determined that we needed to interview and suspend Alyssa Garcia and pharmacy manager Octavia Brooks. On Monday, 01/27/2025 asset protection manager, Ron Simmons, and I interviewed both Alyssa Garcia and Octavia Brooks regarding the discrepancies (statements provided to the board). During the interview, neither associate admitted to removing the medications from the pharmacy. Both associates were suspended that day pending further investigation. On 02/04/2025 we terminated Alyssa Garcia for consumption of food items without purchase as seen on surveillance video and we terminated Octavia Brooks on 02/11/2025 for consumption of food items before purchase. During this time, we continued to review surveillance footage and discovered additional behaviors not consistent with policy and procedures.

During review of camera footage from 12/23/2024, I witnessed Alyssa Garcia pull two 500-count size bottles from a full Cardinal Health tote at the product dispensing station and put them in a drawer under the counter. She then placed the bottles back into the tote shortly thereafter and proceeded to put the order, including these bottles, away on the drug shelves. Then at approximately 10 am when pharmacy manager Octavia Brooks was in the counsel/vaccine room getting a vaccine ready, Alyssa Garcia checked to make sure Octavia was busy in the room and walked directly to the drug bay grabbing those two 500-count size bottles. She proceeded to walk the bottles to the side storage room in the pharmacy, which is out of camera view, and returned 10 seconds later with no bottles in her hands. When she left at 1 pm that day she grabbed her backpack from the side storage room. One 500 count bottle of alprazolam 1 mg and alprazolam 2 mg was shipped as verified by Cardinal's online portal, but the invoices were missing in the pharmacy's controlled substance records cabinet.

During review of camera footage from 01/02/2025, I observed behaviors from Alyssa Garcia not consistent with policy and procedure while receiving a Cardinal drug order. At 9:56 am Alyssa Garcia tossed an invoice from Cardinal Health in the thrash while receiving the order. At 9:57 am she placed a 500-count size bottle in an empty Cardinal tote and placed that tote on the bottom, stacking 3 empty totes on top of that tote. I was unable to see the drug label since it was placed face down in the tote. At 10:01 am she removed that bottle from the bottom tote and buried it under all the other drug products she had placed in a single Cardinal tote. She then proceeded to move that tote to the product dispensing counter at 10:07 am and immediately put the 500-count bottle on the drug shelf while leaving everything else in the tote on the counter for the next hour. I verified via Cardinal Health website Alprazolam 2 mg was ordered and delivered 01/02/2025, but there was no invoice filed in the pharmacy's controlled substance records cabinet.

Statement regarding Request #2:



We have policies and procedures in place to prevent and detect diversion as it pertains to inventory adjustments and discrepancies, order receiving and physical security. Relevant policies in matter include the following:

1) The Pharmacy Manager runs and reviews the balance on hand (BOH) manual changes report once a week to review for excessive, suspicious or unexplainable manual changes to balance on hands for controlled substances. The pharmacy manager initials and dates the report indicating they have reviewed the report. Excessive, suspicious, or questionable changes should be researched by the Pharmacy Manager and brought to the attention of the store's Pharmacy Coordinator. The BOH report is kept on file for the prior twelve weeks.
    a) Pharmacy Manager Octavia Brooks failed to maintain her BOH reports in a proper manner. When she did review and sign the BOH changes she either didn't question the BOH changes to do additional research or as she stated when I interviewed her, she trusted technician Alyssa Garcia when she told her there was glitch receiving the order in the pharmacy system which is why she had to adjust the BOH since they never actually received it.
2) Inventory discrepancies will be researched immediately by the pharmacist on duty when discovered and then brought to the attention of the Pharmacy Manager, as soon as possible for review and further research, if necessary, regardless of the outcome of the initial research. Inventory discrepancies will further be investigated by the Pharmacy Manager immediately upon discovery. If there is evidence of theft or unexplainable loss (loss of inventory that has no verifiable documentation), the information must be reported to the Pharmacy Coordinator and Division Health Leader.
    a) Pharmacy Manager Octavia Brooks never properly investigated her inventory discrepancies, and she never informed her Pharmacy Coordinator of unreconciled discrepancies.
3) Controlled substance orders must be checked in by two associates. If two Associates are on duty, then two will check-in the products and indicate as such on the receiving document. If only one (1) Associate (a pharmacist) is on duty at the time of receipt, this Associate will check in the receipt and indicate on the receiving document that there was only one individual on duty at the time of the receipt. A pharmacist must always be involved in checking-in the controlled substance product. The Associates checking in the controlled substances will sign and date the invoice/packing slip and document in a prominent location on the face of the invoice/packing slip document that all controlled substances have been received. If an invoice is available, the invoice will be used to document the receipt. If an invoice is not available, a packing slip will be used, the invoice/packing slip should be transferred to the Record Custodian as soon as possible for filing in the proper folder in the Controlled Substances Filing Cabinet.
    a) Technician Alyssa Garcia failed to properly check in controlled substances by tossing invoices in the trash, hiding controlled substance products that came in and never allowing the pharmacist to review and sign the invoices.

4) Personal items such as coats, purses and backpacks, are prohibited from being brought into the pharmacy drug storage areas. Personal items will be stored in lockers outside the pharmacy, if available. If lockers are unavailable, the Pharmacy Manager will designate an area for storing the items near the entrance of the pharmacy.
    a) Pharmacy Manager Octavia Brooks failed to designate the coat closet at the entrance of the pharmacy as a place for personal items. She allowed pharmacy staff to keep personal items in other areas of the pharmacy. Technician Alyssa Garcia failed to keep her personal items in the closet at the entrance of the pharmacy.

Statement regarding Request #3

I have submitted Balance on Hand Change reports including all received purchased orders (PO) for alprazolam 1 mg, alprazolam 2 mg and tramadol 50 mg. The reports show negative shelf count adjustments and PO's where the amount received was changed from what was delivered before accepting the whole order in the pharmacy system. Most shelf count changes were done by Alyssa Garcia, and all PO receiving changes were done by Alyssa Garcia. For example, looking at alprazolam 1 mg, Alyssa Garcia updated the balance on the shelf by -500 on 11/05/2024 and 11/17/2024. On 01/12/2025 when accepting the PO, she changed the received quantity from 2 bottles to 1 bottle as indicated by the adjustment note stating order quantity 2.0, received quantity 1.0. Most of her adjustments were the result of changing received bottle counts from what was shipped over this time frame.

SOP 501.4: Ordering Controlled Substances

501.4.4 Computer Assisted Ordering Systems – For Pharmacies Utilizing the EPRN Pharmacy System Review of "Balance on Hand" Changes

501.4.4.1 The Pharmacy Manager will run the "Balance on Hand ("BOH") Manual Changes" report once a week and review for excessive, suspicious or unexplainable manual changes to BOHs for controlled substances. The Pharmacy Manager will initial and date the report indicating that they have reviewed the report.

501.4.4.2 In retail pharmacies, excessive, suspicious, or questionable changes should be researched by the Pharmacy Manager and brought to the attention of the store's Coordinator.

501.4.4.3 The report will be maintained in a folder labeled "Balance on Hand (BOH) Manual Change Report" for the prior twelve (12) weeks, which is located in the Controlled Substance Filing Cabinet.

501.4.4.4 Orders and BOH changes will be managed from a computer terminal located in the pharmacy area unless approved by the Pharmacy Manager.

SOP 501.5: Checking in Controlled Substances at the Pharmacy

Purpose

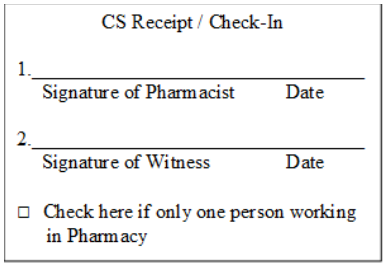
The purpose of this procedure is to establish policies for checking in Schedule II through V controlled substances at the pharmacy.

General Information

Scope

This procedure includes all controlled substances received, physical and operational procedures, documentation and internal reporting requirements for shortages. It does not include filing the DEA Form 106 ("Form 106"), which is described in SOP 501.21 or descriptions of required storage contained in SOP 501.19.

Responsibility



- The Pharmacy Manager is responsible for ensuring compliance with this procedure.

Procedure

501.5.1 Required Personnel

Controlled substances received from other DEA Registrants must be checked-in as described in SOP 501.5.4. If two Associates are on duty, then two will check-in the products and indicate as such on the receiving document. If only one (1) Associate (a pharmacist) is on duty at the time of receipt, this Associate will check in the receipt and indicate on the receiving document that there was only one individual on duty at the time of the receipt. A pharmacist must always be involved in checking-in the controlled substance product.

In retail pharmacies, this information will be displayed on the incoming documentation with a stamp provided to each pharmacy (see below for example).

CS Receipt / Check-In

1. _____
Signature of Pharmacist Date

2. _____
Signature of Witness Date

☐ Check here if only one person working in Pharmacy

501.5.2 Schedule II Controlled Substances

501.5.2.1 Schedule II controlled substances will be transferred to the secured storage area immediately after receipt, as described in SOP 501.19.1. All Schedule II products will be accounted for by a pharmacist before signing a release or manifest presented from the supplier/delivery personnel. If it is discovered that items may have been lost in-transit, procedures indicated in SOP 501.21.5 will be followed.

501.5.2.3 A pharmacist must receive Electronic Orders in the Pharmacy System's inventory receiving application or, if necessary, the supplier's online CSOS application, within 12 hours or at the close of business, whichever occurs first.

If an Order Form is used to order Schedule II controlled substances, mandatory annotation and updates of the Order Form(s) and the Schedule II Perpetual Inventory, as described in SOP 501.7, will be completed within 12 hours or at the close of business, whichever occurs first.

501.5.3 Schedule III, IV and V Controlled Substances

Orders containing Schedule III, IV and V controlled substances must be immediately delivered to the pharmacy or another secure, locked area if the shipment is received when the pharmacy is closed. A secure area is an area that can be locked and for which there is limited access. Once the pharmacy is open, the controlled substances will be transferred to the pharmacy. The shipment may remain in the pharmacy area, provided that the tote is strapped or tied, for a period of 12 hours or until the close of business, whichever occurs first. By the close of business, the shipment will be checked-in, and the products dispersed throughout the stock of other legend drugs.

501.5.4 Documentation and Recordkeeping

501.5.4.1 The Associates checking in the controlled substances will sign and date the invoice/packing slip and document in a prominent location on the face of the invoice/packing slip document that all controlled substances have been received as described in SOP 501.5.1. If an invoice is available, the invoice will be used to document the receipt. If an invoice is not available, a packing slip will be used. If the Record Custodian or Alternate is not involved in the check-in process, the invoice/packing slip should be transferred to one of them as soon as possible for filing in the proper folder in the Controlled Substances Filing Cabinet.

501.5.4.2 In the case of Schedule III, IV and V controlled substances, the invoice (or if no invoice, the packing slip) will be filed chronologically by date received in the folder labeled "CIII, CIV and CV Controlled Substances Records of Receipt (invoice/packing slip)," which is in the Controlled Substance Filing Cabinet. The receiving document must show the date received as well as the name, address and DEA registration number of the supplier. If this information is not on the document, the Pharmacy Manager or other pharmacy staff must call the supplier to get the required information and annotate the invoice with the information.

501.5.4.3 Records of Schedule II controlled substances will be maintained as described in SOP 501.3.8 and SOP 501.3.16.

501.5.5 Reporting Inventory Discrepancies

Inventory discrepancies will be reported per SOP 501.21.

SOP 501.21: Reporting Controlled Substance Thefts and Losses

Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to establish requirements for reporting thefts and significant losses of controlled substances.

General Information

Responsibility

- All Associates are responsible for reporting thefts and/or unexplainable losses of controlled substances to their immediate supervisor, Pharmacy Manager or business unit leadership.
- For retail and high-volume pharmacies:
  - The Pharmacy Manager is responsible for compliance with this procedure, including the evaluation of initial information regarding thefts and significant losses, and notifying the Pharmacy Coordinator and/or the DHL of findings and making reports as required in this SOP.
  - The DHL is responsible for ensuring the Compliance Department has been advised of thefts and significant losses, which are reported to the DEA.

Procedure

501.21.1 Significant Loss

501.21.1.1 The Pharmacy Manager is responsible for reporting a significant loss. Pharmacy Managers will consult with their Pharmacy Coordinator, in deciding whether the loss is significant.

501.21.1.2 When determining whether a loss is significant, DEA Registrants are encouraged to consider the following factors:

- The actual quantity lost in relation to the type of business;
- Whether there has been a pattern of losses and the results of efforts to resolve them; and
- Local trends and other indicators of the potential of the missing drugs.

Specific questions a Registrant should ask are:

- Has a pattern of loss been identified and, if so, would the pattern result in a substantial loss of controlled substances over a period of time?;
- Are specific controlled substances lost or are they random?;
- Are specific controlled substances likely for diversion?; and
- Can losses be associated with specific individuals?

A worksheet that may be used in making this determination and maintained as documentation of this process is attached as Exhibit 501.21A Significant Loss Determination Worksheet .

501.21.1.3 If the loss is deemed significant, the worksheet should be filed chronologically with the completed DEA Form 106 in the "Reports and Theft and Unexplainable Loss (DEA Form 106)" folder, which is located in the Controlled Substance Record Cabinet.

If the loss is not deemed significant, the worksheet should be filed in "Additional DEA Notes &, Records" folder which is in the Controlled Substance Filing Cabinet.

501.21.1.4 If the Pharmacy Manager is still uncertain regarding whether to report the loss, they should consult with their Coordinator and/or DHL.

The Pharmacy Coordinator, DHL may consult with a diversion investigator in a local DEA office for guidance.

501.21.2 Inventory Discrepancies

The DEA does not intend to have registrants report breakage, spillage or unexplainable losses of small amounts in order to "balance their books." Inventory discrepancies will be researched immediately by the pharmacist on duty when discovered and brought to the attention of the Pharmacy Manager as soon as possible for review and further research if necessary, regardless of the outcome of the initial research.

501.21.2.1 Inventory discrepancies will be investigated by the Pharmacy Manager immediately upon discovery. This process includes discrepancies discovered during required inventories pursuant to the procedure in SOP 501.6. If the discrepancy is determined to be due to a theft or significant loss, it will be reported to the DEA, in writing, within one (1) business day of making said determination and pursuant to the procedure in SOP 501.21.3.

501.21.2.2 If the loss is attributed to breakage, spillage or accounting errors that can be explained, then the errors will be documented and filed chronologically in the "Additional DEA Notes & Records" folder, which is located in the Controlled Substance Filing cabinet. A copy of the documentation will also be forwarded to the Coordinator.

501.21.3 Reporting Theft and Significant Loss

If a theft, significant loss or in-transit loss (as described below in SOP 501.21.5) is discovered, the following must occur:

501.21.3.1 The information must be reported to the Coordinator and the DHL immediately 501.21.3.2 Notification to the DEA must be accomplished by written notice within one (1) business day of discovery of a theft or significant loss of controlled substance.

- For retail and high-volume pharmacies, the Coordinator and/or the DHL, as applicable, will initiate an internal review and, if necessary, report the circumstances regarding the potential theft or significant loss to the Company's Asset Protection Department for possible additional investigation and actions in conjunction with the company's controlled substance compliance program.

501.21.3.4 If it is not clear at the outset that there has been a theft or significant loss, the DEA may advise the Pharmacy Manager to complete the internal investigation prior to preparing a DEA Form 106.

- For retail and high-volume pharmacies: The Pharmacy Manager will report this information to the Coordinator and the DHL, as applicable, and will follow up with an email or facsimile report to the DEA to confirm the instructions provided by the DEA, including the date of the initial telephone call and the name of the Diversion Investigator who provided the instructions.

501.21.3.4b

The local office of the DEA will be advised at least every thirty (30) calendar days (more often if required due to the receipt of additional relevant information) by the Pharmacy Manager, Coordinator or regarding the progress of the internal investigation. These status advisements may be done verbally; however, the name of the Diversion Investigator, date of the telephone call and a summary of the conversation will be documented and maintained with all official documents relating to the significant loss.

Regardless of the status of the investigation, the Pharmacy Manager must ensure a complete and accurate DEA Form 106 is filed with the Administration within 45 calendar days after discovery of the theft or loss. This must be accomplished through the DEA Diversion Control Division secure network application as described in SOP 501.21.4.

501.21.3.5 If the loss should be resolved within 45 days of the date of discovery and no official reporting on a DEA Form 106 will be necessary, the local office of the DEA should be informed via an email or facsimile that the issue is closed. Paperwork and documentation pertaining to the internal investigation will be filed chronologically in the folder labeled "Additional DEA Notes & Records," which is in the Controlled Substance Filing Cabinet. When applicable, Loss Prevention/Asset Protection will also be notified of the closure.

501.21.4 Use of DEA Form 106

501.21.4.1 If a DEA Form 106 is to be prepared, the Pharmacy Manager will complete and submit it to make the official report to the DEA with the assistance of the Coordinator and/or the DHL.

Electronic form submission is required and will be accomplished through the DEA's Diversion Drug Theft Loss ("DTL") system website: https://apps.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/TLR/. In the event of any technical issues involving the DEA system being down, the Pharmacy Manager can report the issues by calling the DEA Help Center at 1–800–882–9539. If there is a need to submit DEA Form 106 while the DEA system is down, the Pharmacy Manager will document the day and time of their attempted submission(s) and their successful submission and retain these records with other records related to the loss.

501.21.4.1a If, and to the extent required by applicable law, notification of loss will also be made to pertinent state agencies.

501.21.4.2 The date of loss reported on DEA Form 106 must correspond to the date the theft or significant loss was first discovered.

501.21.4.3 If thefts have occurred due to Associate pilferage over a period of time, the estimated beginning and ending dates of the thefts should be noted in the "remarks" section with a brief explanation.

501.21.4.4 For the "Purchase value to Registrant of controlled substances taken", enter the amount the pharmacy paid for the controlled substance(s), not the retail value.

501.21.4.5 Evidence of submission must be kept on file. A copy of the DEA Form 106 and all other information pertaining to the theft or unexplainable loss will be filed chronologically in the folder "Reports of Theft and Unexplainable Loss (DEA Form 106)," which is found in the Controlled Substance Filing Cabinet and will be retained in accordance with SOP 501.2.

A copy of the DEA Form 106 and any subsequent addendums, where necessary, will be provided to:

- the DHL; and
- the Compliance Department.

501.21.4.6 if required, a member of the Compliance Department will make additional required reports in accordance with relevant terms.

501.21.5 In-transit Losses

501.21.5.1 Reporting of in-transit losses to the DEA are generally the responsibility of the supplier. If the purchaser takes custody of the shipment, however, the shipment is considered to have been received in total and any shortages that are discovered after the transfer of custody are considered losses from the inventory of the recipient. As a result, the pharmacy is required to report the loss.

501.21.5.1a In this case, the supplier and its DEA registration number must be included in the "Loss in Transit" section on the DEA Form 106. When explaining how many losses occurred from the same carrier in the past, do not include the current loss.

501.21.5.2 Pharmacies should not take possession of Schedule II controlled substances until all the substances are checked in as required by SOP 501.05.

501.21.5.2a If a discrepancy is identified upon check-in of a Schedule II shipment, a pharmacist must notate on the driver's shipping manifest that the item was not received. The notation shall be initialed and dated by both the pharmacist and the driver.

501.21.5.2b A copy of the notated shipping manifest must be retained and attached to the purchaser's copy of the Order Form and corresponding invoice as noted in SOP 501.05.

501.21.5.2c The pharmacist must also contact the supplier to report the discrepancy as soon as possible and report the in-transit loss to the DEA as described in SOP 501.21.4.

501.21.6 Associate Theft

Associates who steal controlled substances from Company facilities will be terminated and the facts regarding their illegal activities will be referred to the appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities for prosecution.

501.21.7 Robbery and Burglary Procedures

501.21.7.1 In the event of a robbery, burglary or other unlawful entry, the local police will be notified immediately after the incident or upon discovery of burglary.

- For retail and high-volume pharmacies: store management and the Coordinator or DHL, as applicable, will also be notified and the Company's robbery procedures must be followed.

501.21.7.2 In the event of an overnight burglary, the Pharmacy Manager must ensure an inventory count is completed on all controlled substances to assess for potential theft. In addition, the Pharmacy Manager will take inventory of the will call area to assess for theft of any medications awaiting pick up to verify if any product is missing.

501.21.7.3 Any loss of controlled substance must be reported pursuant to this SOP. Any prescriptions determined to be stolen from will call will need to be handled pursuant to HIPAA breach procedures outlined in the Policy 1000: HIPAA Policies and Procedures.

501.21.8 Other Agencies

The Board of Pharmacy and the local police will be contacted to report a theft at the time that the DEA is notified. If there are specific state agencies with controlled substance oversight, these agencies will also be contacted.

SOP 501.19: Controlled Substance Product Security

501.19.5 Personal Items

Personal items such as coats, purses and backpacks, are prohibited from being brought into the pharmacy drug storage areas. Personal items will be stored in lockers outside the pharmacy, if available. If lockers are unavailable, the Pharmacy Manager will designate an area for storing the items near the entrance of the pharmacy.

NOTICE OF DEFENSE/MITIGATING INFORMATION

Ms. Brooks worked as managing pharmacist at the Pharmacy between August 2021 and January 2025. Prior to becoming the managing pharmacist, Ms. Brooks worked as an intern pharmacist at the Pharmacy starting in October 2018 until she became the managing pharmacist.

Ms. Brooks was terminated from her position by the store manager in January 2025 after briefly being suspended from her position. No reason was given to her for the suspension and the reasons provided to her for the termination were unrelated to the instant matter. Ms. Brooks was not advised of the diversion conducted by Ms. Garcia until after she was terminated from her position.

Ms. Brooks would note that no time frame has been provided as to when, or for how long Ms. Garcia had been diverting alprazolam and tramadol resulting in the ultimate number of pills noted in the Accusation as having been diverted and accordingly cannot comment on whether Ms. Garcia's diversion may have been on-going prior to Ms. Brooks becoming managing pharmacist.

Ms. Brooks cannot state with certainty as to how Ms. Garcia may have diverted the drugs in question. However, Ms. Brooks notes that the Electronic Prescription Reference Network (EPRN) used by pharmacies within the Kroger system, of which the Smith's Pharmacy was a part, was known to have occasional glitches which would then impact the quantities on hand; if these were adjusted, this would effect the Balance on Hand (BOH) weekly report. Ms. Brooks acknowledges that she recalls the alprazolam count was off on at least three occasions, but not by amounts that would have caused Ms. Brooks to believe that there was any issue other than an EPRN glitch.

Purchase orders for drugs dispensed by the Pharmacy would be transmitted by the EPRN which would then update the quantity of any one drug in the system based on the purchase order. When drugs were received, controlled substance invoices were signed by the pharmacist and the pharmacy tech and dated. If the drugs received did not match the amount purchased through the purchase order; those numbers would be modified in the EPRN upon acceptance of the drug order. For schedule II controlled substances, the pharmacist on duty would need to accept the drugs received in the system; all other drugs could be accepted into the system by the pharmacy tech.

Ms. Brooks believes it is possible that Ms. Garcia modified invoices at the time that drugs were received at the pharmacy before accepted non-schedule II substances in the system which would then result in a modification to the BOH reports as well. Ms. Brooks cannot be certain that this was the point in the drug acceptance process which Ms. Gracia may have made modifications to the Pharmacy records in an attempt to hide diversion, she believes this to be the most likely time that such modifications would have been made, thus making it difficult to identify discrepancies in the numbers that were attributable to diversion rather than EPRN errors or regular modifications made noting the number of pills received.

Ms. Brooks asserts that she did follow the policies and procedures of Smith's Pharmacy as they relate to this manner, but that she did not identify that possible diversion was taking place as she believes Ms. Garcia was modifying records in a manner that would have appeared consistent with policies related to the receipt and acceptance of drug orders. Ms. Brooks acknowledges that in hindsight she should have follow up more diligently on any and all discrepancies, regardless of the potential cause of that discrepancy.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of July, 2025.

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. PHARMERICA, Pharmacy License No. PH02018, and CAMILLA KIM, RPH, Certificate of Registration No. 19388, Respondents.	Case Nos. 24-370-PH-N 24-370-RPH-N NOTICE OF INTENDED ACTION AND ACCUSATION

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (the "Board"), files the following document that will serve as both a notice of intended action under NRS 233B.127(3) and an accusation under NRS 622A.300(1) and NRS 639.241.

JURISDICTION

1. The Board has jurisdiction over Respondent PharMerica ("Respondent PharMerica"), the holder of Pharmacy License No. PH02018, because Respondent PharMerica is licensed by the Board to operate a pharmacy at 4750 Longley Lane in Reno, Nevada.

2. The Board has jurisdiction over Respondent Camilla Kim, RPh ("Respondent Kim"), the holder of Certificate of Registration No. 19388, because Respondent Kim is registered by the Board to engage in the practice of pharmacy in Nevada.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

3. Respondent PharMerica operates a pharmacy in Reno, Nevada.

4. In March 2024, Respondent Kim was employed by Respondent PharMerica as a pharmacist.

5. In 2023 and 2024, Respondent PharMerica was under contract with MorningStar Senior Living of Sparks ("MorningStar"), an assisted living facility, to dispense prescription medication and provide medication management services to residents of the MorningStar facility.

6. Respondent PharMerica worked cooperatively with the nursing staff at MorningStar to store and deliver prescription medications for the residents of the MorningStar facility.

7. In 2023 and 2024, patient D.P., an 87-year-old female, resided at MorningStar, where she received medication and medication management services from Respondent PharMerica.

8. In 2023 and 2024, patient D.P. required levothyroxine for hypothyroidism.

9. Between March 2023 and March 2024, Respondent PharMerica dispensed levothyroxine to patient D.P. without interruption, according to the instructions of patient D.P.'s physician.

10. On March 6, 2024, patient D.P.'s physician issued her a new prescription for levothyroxine. The prescription directed Respondent PharMerica to dispense an initial 90-day supply of levothyroxine with two refills.

11. On its face, the above prescription sufficed to meet patient D.P.'s medical needs for 12 months.

12. Patient D.P.'s physician electronically transmitted the above prescription to Respondent PharMerica.

13. Respondent PharMerica assigned no. 343217 to the above prescription. Per standard operating procedure, PharMerica processed prescription no. 343217 at its facility in Kentucky.

14. At the facility in Kentucky, a pharmaceutical technician transferred the information from the electronic prescription to a computerized prescription management system.

15. When transferring the prescription information, the technician incorrectly entered code "X90D" related to the "duration" of medication treatment. This code suppressed the automatic refill function on the system, thus instructing the system to terminate patient D.P.'s supply of levothyroxine after just 90 days.

16. Since patient D.P.'s levothyroxine was considered a "maintenance" medication, there should not have been a duration code associated with prescription no 343217.

17. In March 2024, before dispensing any medication under prescription no. 343217, Respondent Kim verified the prescription at PharMerica's facility in Reno.

18. When verifying the above prescription, Respondent Kim failed to notice that the duration code X90D, as described above, was inconsistent with the number of refill authorizations on the prescription itself. As noted above, this code instructed the automated system to terminate patient D.P.'s supply of levothyroxine after just 90 days.

19. In June of 2024, due to Respondent Kim's omission as described above, PharMerica failed to refill patient D.P.'s prescription for levothyroxine as directed by her physician.

20. Between June and September 2024, the nursing staff at MorningStar delivered no levothyroxine to patient D.P., and they made no inquiries of PharMerica concerning the abrupt cessation of patient D.P.'s medication treatment.

21. In August or September 2024, patient D.P.'s daughter observed that her mother's health had rapidly declined for no apparent reason. She alerted the nursing staff at MorningStar and/or patient D.P.'s physician.

22. In September 2024, Patient D.P. was admitted to the intensive care unit at Renown Hospital, where she was diagnosed with myxedema coma and cellulitis in her left leg. These medical conditions were caused by the cessation of medication treatment with levothyroxine.

COUNT ONE
Unprofessional Conduct by a Pharmacist
(Respondent Kim)

29. As alleged above, Respondent Kim verified prescription no. 343217 for levothyroxine, including two refills. 30. Respondent Kim had a duty to supervise the pharmaceutical technician in Kentucky who performed data entry tasks related to prescription no. 343217.

31. Respondent Kim had a duty to correct the data entry error described above.

32. Respondent Kim had a duty to strictly follow the instructions of patient D.P.'s physician as to the refilling of no. 343217.

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, files the following document that will serve as both a notice of intended action under NRS 233B.127(3) and an accusation under NRS 622A.300(1) and NRS 639.241.

JURISDICTION

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Sean Arora, M.D., ("Respondent Arora"), because Respondent Arora holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing him to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada. Respondent Arora holds certificate of registration no. CS31476, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 453.226 and 453.231.

2. The Board has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Cassie Gifford, APRN, ("Respondent Gifford"), because Respondent Gifford holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing her to prescribe dangerous drugs in Nevada. Respondent Gifford holds certificate of registration no. PR18034, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 639.2351 and NAC 639.850.[1]

3. The Board has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Gabrielle McIntyre, APRN, ("Respondent McIntyre"), because Respondent McIntyre holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing her to prescribe dangerous drugs in Nevada. Respondent holds certificate of registration no. PR17484, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 639.2351 and NAC 639.850.

4. The Board has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Allison Jaggard, APRN, ("Respondent Jaggard"), because Respondent Jaggard holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing her to prescribe dangerous drugs in Nevada. Respondent holds certificate of registration no. PR171499, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 639.2351 and NAC 639.850

5. The Board has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this accusation because it alleges violations involving the purchase, receipt, storage, possession, prescribing and/or dispensing of dangerous drugs and controlled substances. As used herein, "dangerous drug" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 454.201, and "controlled substance" means a substance listed in NAC 453.510 to NAC 453.550, inclusive, or in 21 CFR Part 1308.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. Respondent Arora is a physician licensed by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners to practice medicine in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent Arora was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

7. Respondent Gifford is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent

1. Respondent Gifford formerly held certificate of registration no. CS34942, authorizing her to prescribe controlled substances. Certificate of registration no. CS34942 was not renewed when it came due for renewal on November 1, 2024.

Gifford was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

8. Respondent McIntyre is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

9. Respondent Jaggard is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

10. In 2024, Respondent Arora formed a partnership or other business relationship with We Treat, a medical consulting firm based in San Diego, California. We Treat provides consulting services and regulatory compliance advice to medical spas and wellness clinics.

11. We Treat provided consulting services and compliance advice to Youth, Inc. (Youth Inc.), the owner of a medical spa and wellness clinic located at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada.

12. We Treat developed a manual of policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc. Respondent Arora approved these policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc.

13. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. provided various anti-aging and wellness treatments for its patients. These included cosmetic treatments using botulinum toxin type A and dermal fillers, treatments for weight loss using compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products, hormone replacement using injectable hormones, and treatment for erectile dysfunction using sildenafil and tadalafil.

14. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. did not lock or otherwise secure the dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances in its possession.

15. In early 2025, Youth Inc. was in possession of stock bottles containing sildenafil, tadalafil, and metformin hydrochloride, all dangerous drugs. Youth Inc.'s representatives claimed that they were not planning to dispense these drugs until after they had secured a dispensing license issued by the Board.

16. We Treat arranged for Respondent Arora to serve as the "medical director" for Youth Inc., a role that Respondent Arora assumed sometime between April and August 2024.

17. Respondent Arora served as Youth Inc.'s medical director until early 2025.

18. During Respondent Arora's tenure as Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora worked and resided in Seattle, Washington. Respondent Arora never visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

19. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. engaged the services of Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre and Respondent Jaggard. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard rarely, if ever, visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

20. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed a prospective patient's medical questionnaire prior to the prospective patient's initial treatment at Youth Inc. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed these medical questionnaires from a remote location and never saw or spoke to patients prior to their initial treatments at Youth Inc.

21. After reviewing medical questionnaires, and despite not ever seeing the patients in question, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard authorized initial patient treatments calling for the use or administration of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

22. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. employed Maddison Weiss-Frank, a registered nurse. Ms. Weiss-Frank was not an advanced practice registered nurse and was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

23. Ms. Weiss-Frank worked under the direction and supervision of Rachel Gonzalez, the co-owner and chief executive officer of Youth Inc. Ms. Gonzalez was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125. On information and belief, Ms. Gonzalez has no formal medical training.

24. Because there was never a practitioner present at the location, Youth Inc.'s facility at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada, was not a location where a registered nurse could lawfully inject a neuromodulator pursuant to NRS 454.217.

25. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients using prescription drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not act under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

26. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not work under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

27. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

28. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

29. Consistent with the practice described above, Youth Inc. returned single-use vials to stock even after the vials were punctured and therefore rendered unusable for subsequent treatments.

30. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed purchase invoices and signed for shipments of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

31. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed patient medical questionnaires and treatment records.

32. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed Youth Inc.'s policies, procedures and protocols related to the procurement, storage, possession and administration of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

33. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances without direction or supervision by a practitioner.

34. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances despite not working under the supervision or direction of a practitioner.

35. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide .and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

36. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

37. As Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora had a duty to understand Nevada law as it governs the receipt, possession, storage, and distribution of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

We Treat related to medical clearances for patients, policies and protocols and compliance information.

Paragraph 12: Dr. Arora agrees with the factual allegations set forth in Paragraph 12 only to the extent that he reviewed and approved policies and protocols directly related to the provision of certain medical services. Dr. Arora was not involved, nor did he review or approve, policies and procedures related to any other matters involving Youth, Inc.

Paragraph 13: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 13.

All three Respondents were employees/independent contractors of We Treat which provided medical clearance screening of patients for Youth, Inc. through Nevada licensed practitioners.

Paragraph 21: Respondents Gifford, McIntyre and Jaggard acknowledge that they medically cleared patients, if appropriate, after the review of medical information and authorized treatments to be performed pursuant to protocols approved by Dr. Arora which included standing orders for administration of certain drugs or the issuance of prescriptions pursuant to those protocols. No approved protocols for treatments authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc.

Dr. Arora denies that he ever signed off or approved of any shipments of controlled substances to Youth, Inc. and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were to be received or stored on-site at We Treat.

Paragraph 31: Dr. Arora denies the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 31, however he acknowledges that he would respond to patient specific questions posed to him and would review patient records at that time; however this occurred very rarely.

Applicable Law: Paragraphs 38-55

Paragraph 38-55: Respondents acknowledge that Paragraphs 38-55 accurately reflect the basic substance of the statutes and regulations cited therein.

Counts: Paragraphs 56-91

Count One (Paragraphs 56-61): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count One in Paragraphs 56-61. Dr. Arora did not permit Youth, Inc. or any of its personnel to order any dangerous drugs from any manufacturer or supplier not licensed in Nevada. As discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to the review and authorization of protocols related to medical procedures. While Youth, Inc. was authorized to order supplies and dangerous drugs under Dr. Arora's credentials, this was to be done in accordance with policies and protocols developed and approved by We Treat's compliance department. To the best of Dr. Arora's knowledge, no client of We Treat was authorized to order or received dangerous drugs or other supplies from unlicensed suppliers/manufacturers.

Count Two (Paragraphs 62-68): Dr. Arora generally denies all allegations set forth in Count Two in Paragraphs 62-68. Further Dr. Arora asserts that a practice which orders, receives, and stores dangerous drugs is not engaging in the practice of pharmacy as alleged. If indeed this was accurate, every medical practice or facility that orders, receives and stores drugs for administration and/or dispensing, would be required to hold a pharmacy license with the Board; that is not currently a requirement and NRS 639.0124(1)(a) is inappropriately applied here.

Count Three (Paragraphs 69-74): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count Three in Paragraphs 69-74. Again, as discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited and did not include the development or approval of any protocols or procedures related to the procurement or storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora's medical service protocols did not allow for the reuse of single use vials and any reuse of single use vials on the part of Youth, Inc. personnel would have been done without the knowledge of Dr. Arora and he did not aid or abet any violation of NAC 639.050(2).

Count Four (Paragraphs 75-81): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Four in Paragraphs 75-81. Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, worked for We Treat, not Youth, Inc. Respondents' duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to conducting medical clearance reviews for patients and if cleared, the patient was authorized for treatment pursuant to approved medical protocols. None of the named respondents were responsible for supervising the staff of Youth, Inc. and would have had no knowledge of unauthorized reuse of single use vials by any personnel associated with Youth, Inc.

Count Five (Paragraphs 82-87): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Five in Paragraphs 75-81. The administration of dangerous drugs to patients is not the practice of pharmacy as defined by NRS 639.0124(1)(a) and accordingly Respondents could not have aided or abetted in the violation of said statute. Again, as discussed above, should the Board take the position that the administration of a dangerous drug constitutes the practice of pharmacy, all practices and facilities at which any drug is administered would be required to hold a registration as a pharmacy with the Board which is not currently required.

Count Six (Paragraphs 88-91): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Six in Paragraphs 88-91.

NOTICE OF DEFENSE/MITIGATING INFORMATION

In regard to Respondent Arora, Dr. Arora stresses that his involvement with We Treat was limited as medical director. The term "medical director" is not defined under Nevada law and there is no legal precedent for what the duties of a medical director must consist of. Dr. Arora functioned as a medical director per the duties he had as a contractor for We Treat, LLC, which consisted solely of the review and authorization of protocols for medical services offered at practices contracted with We Treat and he was required to be available for consultations regarding specific patient questions as needed. The medical protocols authorized by Dr. Arora included standing orders for the administration of certain dangerous drugs and for the prescription of certain controlled substances. It should be noted that Dr. Arora never authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc., or any other practice for which he provided services under We Treat and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were stored on-site at Youth, Inc.

We Treat's compliance department was responsible for the development and authorization of all other policies and protocols, including those related to the procurement, receipt, and storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora was advised by We Treat that all policies and protocols were reviewed and vetted for compliance with the laws in each individual state in which We Treat had clients. Dr. Arora had no reason to doubt the assurances made by We Treat that the policies and protocols for Youth, Inc. were in compliance with Nevada law.

In regard to Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, all three were employees/contractors with We Treat during the times in question. Their duties were to provide medical clearance reviews for patients wishing to receive services at practices which were contracted with We Treat and if cleared, authorize treatment to be provide pursuant to previously approved medical protocols. Respondents had no duties related to the oversight or supervision of any practice served by We Treat. Respondents would be notified through a proprietary platform that a patient required a medical clearance evaluation at practices which received services from We Treat and would be given access to the patient records through the We Treat platform and would either clear the patient for treatment or deny treatment[1]. Each clinic had individual protocols which would be followed by Respondents. Respondents were informed by We Treat that policies related to requirements for providing medical clearance for patients was vetted by its compliance department and all protocols were in compliance with state laws; Respondents had no reason to question the representations of We Treat.

Respondent Gifford estimates that she performed very few medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. through the We Treat platform. Respondent McIntyre estimates that she did approximately two medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. Respondent Jaggard estimates that she did a maximum of ten to fifteen medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc.

[1] We Treat practitioners only performed medical clearance evaluations for patients in states in which they were licensed.

All Respondents deny having violated NRS and/or NAC Chapters 453, 454, or 639. Further Respondents reserve all legal defenses available to them should this matter proceed to a hearing.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of August, 2025.

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, files the following document that will serve as both a notice of intended action under NRS 233B.127(3) and an accusation under NRS 622A.300(1) and NRS 639.241.

JURISDICTION

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Sean Arora, M.D., ("Respondent Arora"), because Respondent Arora holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing him to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada. Respondent Arora holds certificate of registration no. CS31476, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 453.226 and 453.231.

2. The Board has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Cassie Gifford, APRN, ("Respondent Gifford"), because Respondent Gifford holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing her to prescribe dangerous drugs in Nevada. Respondent Gifford holds certificate of

5. The Board has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this accusation because it alleges violations involving the purchase, receipt, storage, possession, prescribing and/or dispensing of dangerous drugs and controlled substances. As used herein, "dangerous drug" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 454.201, and "controlled substance" means a substance listed in NAC 453.510 to NAC 453.550, inclusive, or in 21 CFR Part 1308.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. Respondent Arora is a physician licensed by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners to practice medicine in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent Arora was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

7. Respondent Gifford is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent

1. Respondent Gifford formerly held certificate of registration no. CS34942, authorizing her to prescribe controlled substances. Certificate of registration no. CS34942 was not renewed when it came due for renewal on November 1, 2024.

Gifford was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

8. Respondent McIntyre is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

9. Respondent Jaggard is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

10. In 2024, Respondent Arora formed a partnership or other business relationship with We Treat, a medical consulting firm based in San Diego, California. We Treat provides consulting services and regulatory compliance advice to medical spas and wellness clinics.

11. We Treat provided consulting services and compliance advice to Youth, Inc. (Youth Inc.), the owner of a medical spa and wellness clinic located at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada.

12. We Treat developed a manual of policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc. Respondent Arora approved these policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc.

13. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. provided various anti-aging and wellness treatments for its patients. These included cosmetic treatments using botulinum toxin type A and dermal fillers, treatments for weight loss using compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products, hormone replacement using injectable hormones, and treatment for erectile dysfunction using sildenafil and tadalafil.

14. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. did not lock or otherwise secure the dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances in its possession.

15. In early 2025, Youth Inc. was in possession of stock bottles containing sildenafil, tadalafil, and metformin hydrochloride, all dangerous drugs. Youth Inc.'s representatives claimed that they were not planning to dispense these drugs until after they had secured a dispensing license issued by the Board.

16. We Treat arranged for Respondent Arora to serve as the "medical director" for Youth Inc., a role that Respondent Arora assumed sometime between April and August 2024.

17. Respondent Arora served as Youth Inc.'s medical director until early 2025.

18. During Respondent Arora's tenure as Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora worked and resided in Seattle, Washington. Respondent Arora never visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

19. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. engaged the services of Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre and Respondent Jaggard. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard rarely, if ever, visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

20. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed a prospective patient's medical questionnaire prior to the prospective patient's initial treatment at Youth Inc. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed these medical questionnaires from a remote location and never saw or spoke to patients prior to their initial treatments at Youth Inc.

21. After reviewing medical questionnaires, and despite not ever seeing the patients in question, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard authorized initial patient treatments calling for the use or administration of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

22. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. employed Maddison Weiss-Frank, a registered nurse. Ms. Weiss-Frank was not an advanced practice registered nurse and was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

23. Ms. Weiss-Frank worked under the direction and supervision of Rachel Gonzalez, the co-owner and chief executive officer of Youth Inc. Ms. Gonzalez was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125. On information and belief, Ms. Gonzalez has no formal medical training.

24. Because there was never a practitioner present at the location, Youth Inc.'s facility at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada, was not a location where a registered nurse could lawfully inject a neuromodulator pursuant to NRS 454.217.

25. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients using prescription drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not act under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

26. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not work under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

27. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

28. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

29. Consistent with the practice described above, Youth Inc. returned single-use vials to stock even after the vials were punctured and therefore rendered unusable for subsequent treatments.

30. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed purchase invoices and signed for shipments of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

31. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed patient medical questionnaires and treatment records.

32. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed Youth Inc.'s policies, procedures and protocols related to the procurement, storage, possession and administration of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

33. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances without direction or supervision by a practitioner.

34. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances despite not working under the supervision or direction of a practitioner.

35. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

36. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

37. As Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora had a duty to understand Nevada law as it governs the receipt, possession, storage, and distribution of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

We Treat related to medical clearances for patients, policies and protocols and compliance information.

Paragraph 12: Dr. Arora agrees with the factual allegations set forth in Paragraph 12 only to the extent that he reviewed and approved policies and protocols directly related to the provision of certain medical services. Dr. Arora was not involved, nor did he review or approve, policies and procedures related to any other matters involving Youth, Inc.

Paragraph 13: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 13.

Dr. Arora denies that he ever signed off or approved of any shipments of controlled substances to Youth, Inc. and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were to be received or stored on-site at We Treat.

Paragraph 31: Dr. Arora denies the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 31, however he acknowledges that he would respond to patient specific questions posed to him and would review patient records at that time; however this occurred very rarely.

Applicable Law: Paragraphs 38-55

Paragraph 38-55: Respondents acknowledge that Paragraphs 38-55 accurately reflect the basic substance of the statutes and regulations cited therein.

Counts: Paragraphs 56-91

Count One (Paragraphs 56-61): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count One in Paragraphs 56-61. Dr. Arora did not permit Youth, Inc. or any of its personnel to order any dangerous drugs from any manufacturer or supplier not licensed in Nevada. As discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to the review and authorization of protocols related to medical procedures. While Youth, Inc. was authorized to order supplies and dangerous drugs under Dr. Arora's credentials, this was to be done in accordance with policies and protocols developed and approved by We Treat's compliance department. To the best of Dr. Arora's knowledge, no client of We Treat was authorized to order or received dangerous drugs or other supplies from unlicensed suppliers/manufacturers.

Count Two (Paragraphs 62-68): Dr. Arora generally denies all allegations set forth in Count Two in Paragraphs 62-68. Further Dr. Arora asserts that a practice which orders, receives, and stores dangerous drugs is not engaging in the practice of pharmacy as alleged. If indeed this was accurate, every medical practice or facility that orders, receives and stores drugs for administration and/or dispensing, would be required to hold a pharmacy license with the Board; that is not currently a requirement and NRS 639.0124(1)(a) is inappropriately applied here.

Count Three (Paragraphs 69-74): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count Three in Paragraphs 69-74. Again, as discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited and did not include the development or approval of any protocols or procedures related to the procurement or storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora's medical service protocols did not allow for the reuse of single use vials and any reuse of single use vials on the part of Youth, Inc. personnel would have been done without the knowledge of Dr. Arora and he did not aid or abet any violation of NAC 639.050(2).

Count Four (Paragraphs 75-81): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Four in Paragraphs 75-81. Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, worked for We Treat, not Youth, Inc. Respondents' duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to conducting medical clearance reviews for patients and if cleared, the patient was authorized for treatment pursuant to approved medical protocols. None of the named respondents were responsible for supervising the staff of Youth, Inc. and would have had no knowledge of unauthorized reuse of single use vials by any personnel associated with Youth, Inc.

Count Five (Paragraphs 82-87): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Five in Paragraphs 75-81. The administration of dangerous drugs to patients is not the practice of pharmacy as defined by NRS 639.0124(1)(a) and accordingly Respondents could not have aided or abetted in the violation of said statute. Again, as discussed above, should the Board take the position that the administration of a dangerous drug constitutes the practice of pharmacy, all practices and facilities at which any drug is administered would be required to hold a registration as a pharmacy with the Board which is not currently required.

Count Six (Paragraphs 88-91): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Six in Paragraphs 88-91.

NOTICE OF DEFENSE/MITIGATING INFORMATION

In regard to Respondent Arora, Dr. Arora stresses that his involvement with We Treat was limited as medical director. The term "medical director" is not defined under Nevada law and there is no legal precedent for what the duties of a medical director must consist of. Dr. Arora functioned as a medical director per the duties he had as a contractor for We Treat, LLC, which consisted solely of the review and authorization of protocols for medical services offered at practices contracted with We Treat and he was required to be available for consultations regarding specific patient questions as needed. The medical protocols authorized by Dr. Arora included standing orders for the administration of certain dangerous drugs and for the prescription of certain controlled substances. It should be noted that Dr. Arora never authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc., or any other practice for which he provided services under We Treat and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were stored on-site at Youth, Inc.

We Treat's compliance department was responsible for the development and authorization of all other policies and protocols, including those related to the procurement, receipt, and storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora was advised by We Treat that all policies and protocols were reviewed and vetted for compliance with the laws in each individual state in which We Treat had clients. Dr. Arora had no reason to doubt the assurances made by We Treat that the policies and protocols for Youth, Inc. were in compliance with Nevada law.

In regard to Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, all three were employees/contractors with We Treat during the times in question. Their duties were to provide medical clearance reviews for patients wishing to receive services at practices which were contracted with We Treat and if cleared, authorize treatment to be provide pursuant to previously approved medical protocols. Respondents had no duties related to the oversight or supervision of any practice served by We Treat. Respondents would be notified through a proprietary platform that a patient required a medical clearance evaluation at practices which received services from We Treat and would be given access to the patient records through the We Treat platform and would either clear the patient for treatment or deny treatment[1]. Each clinic had individual protocols which would be followed by Respondents. Respondents were informed by We Treat that policies related to requirements for providing medical clearance for patients was vetted by its compliance department and all protocols were in compliance with state laws; Respondents had no reason to question the representations of We Treat.

Respondent Gifford estimates that she performed very few medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. through the We Treat platform. Respondent McIntyre estimates that she did approximately two medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. Respondent Jaggard estimates that she did a maximum of ten to fifteen medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc.

[1] We Treat practitioners only performed medical clearance evaluations for patients in states in which they were licensed.

All Respondents deny having violated NRS and/or NAC Chapters 453, 454, or 639. Further Respondents reserve all legal defenses available to them should this matter proceed to a hearing.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of August, 2025.

JURISDICTION

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Sean Arora, M.D., ("Respondent Arora"), because Respondent Arora holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing him to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. Respondent Arora is a physician licensed by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners to practice medicine in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent Arora was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

1. Respondent Gifford formerly held certificate of registration no. CS34942, authorizing her to prescribe controlled substances. Certificate of registration no. CS34942 was not renewed when it came due for renewal on November 1, 2024.

Gifford was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

8. Respondent McIntyre is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

9. Respondent Jaggard is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

10. In 2024, Respondent Arora formed a partnership or other business relationship with We Treat, a medical consulting firm based in San Diego, California. We Treat provides consulting services and regulatory compliance advice to medical spas and wellness clinics.

11. We Treat provided consulting services and compliance advice to Youth, Inc. (Youth Inc.), the owner of a medical spa and wellness clinic located at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada.

12. We Treat developed a manual of policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc. Respondent Arora approved these policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc.

13. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. provided various anti-aging and wellness treatments for its patients. These included cosmetic treatments using botulinum toxin type A and dermal fillers, treatments for weight loss using compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products, hormone replacement using injectable hormones, and treatment for erectile dysfunction using sildenafil and tadalafil.

14. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. did not lock or otherwise secure the dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances in its possession.

15. In early 2025, Youth Inc. was in possession of stock bottles containing sildenafil, tadalafil, and metformin hydrochloride, all dangerous drugs. Youth Inc.'s representatives claimed that they were not planning to dispense these drugs until after they had secured a dispensing license issued by the Board.

16. We Treat arranged for Respondent Arora to serve as the "medical director" for Youth Inc., a role that Respondent Arora assumed sometime between April and August 2024.

17. Respondent Arora served as Youth Inc.'s medical director until early 2025.

is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125. On information and belief, Ms. Gonzalez has no formal medical training.

24. Because there was never a practitioner present at the location, Youth Inc.'s facility at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada, was not a location where a registered nurse could lawfully inject a neuromodulator pursuant to NRS 454.217.

25. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients using prescription drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not act under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

26. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not work under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

28. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

29. Consistent with the practice described above, Youth Inc. returned single-use vials to stock even after the vials were punctured and therefore rendered unusable for subsequent treatments.

30. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed purchase invoices and signed for shipments of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

31. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed patient medical questionnaires and treatment records.

32. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed Youth Inc.'s policies, procedures and protocols related to the procurement, storage, possession and administration of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

33. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances without direction or supervision by a practitioner.

34. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances despite not working under the supervision or direction of a practitioner.

35. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

36. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

Paragraph 11: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations set forth in Paragraph 11 as to the types of services which were provided to Youth Inc. However, to the best of Respondents' knowledge, Youth Inc. did receive services from

We Treat related to medical clearances for patients, policies and protocols and compliance information.

Paragraph 12: Dr. Arora agrees with the factual allegations set forth in Paragraph 12 only to the extent that he reviewed and approved policies and protocols directly related to the provision of certain medical services. Dr. Arora was not involved, nor did he review or approve, policies and procedures related to any other matters involving Youth, Inc.

Paragraph 13: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 13.

Paragraph 14: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 14.

Paragraph 15: Respondents are without sufficient personal knowledge to respond to the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 15.

Paragraph 19: Respondent's Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard deny the factual allegations set forth in Paragraph 19. None of the named Respondents were engaged by Youth, Inc. to provide any services. All three Respondents were employees/independent contractors of We Treat which provided medical clearance screening of patients for Youth, Inc. through Nevada licensed practitioners.

Paragraph 21: Respondents Gifford, McIntyre and Jaggard acknowledge that they medically cleared patients, if appropriate, after the review of medical information and authorized treatments to be performed pursuant to protocols approved by Dr. Arora which included standing orders for administration of certain drugs or the issuance of prescriptions pursuant to those protocols. No approved protocols for treatments authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc.

Paragraph 30: Dr. Arora acknowledges that he would periodically review orders received for dangerous drugs and would sign, remotely for the same. Drugs were to be stored and accessed in accordance with policies and protocols developed by We Treat; Dr. Arora was not part of the development of those policies and procedures, nor was he asked to review them by We Treat. Dr. Arora denies that he ever signed off or approved of any shipments of controlled substances to Youth, Inc. and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were to be received or stored on-site at We Treat.

Paragraph 31: Dr. Arora denies the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 31, however he acknowledges that he would respond to patient specific questions posed to him and would review patient records at that time; however this occurred very rarely.

Paragraph 32: Dr. Arora denies the factual allegations contained in Paragraph 32. Dr. Arora was not responsible for the policies and procedures related to the procurement, storage, possession and/or administration of dangerous drugs or controlled substances other than approving

Paragraph 38-55: Respondents acknowledge that Paragraphs 38-55 accurately reflect the basic substance of the statutes and regulations cited therein.

Counts: Paragraphs 56-91

Count One (Paragraphs 56-61): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count One in Paragraphs 56-61. Dr. Arora did not permit Youth, Inc. or any of its personnel to order any dangerous drugs from any manufacturer or supplier not licensed in Nevada. As discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to the review and authorization of protocols related to medical procedures. While Youth, Inc. was authorized to order supplies and dangerous drugs under Dr. Arora's credentials, this was to be done in accordance with policies and protocols developed and approved by We Treat's compliance department. To the best of Dr. Arora's knowledge, no client of We Treat was authorized to order or received dangerous drugs or other supplies from unlicensed suppliers/manufacturers.

Count Two (Paragraphs 62-68): Dr. Arora generally denies all allegations set forth in Count Two in Paragraphs 62-68. Further Dr. Arora asserts that a practice which orders, receives, and stores dangerous drugs is not engaging in the practice of pharmacy as alleged. If indeed this was accurate, every medical practice or facility that orders, receives and stores drugs for administration and/or dispensing, would be required to hold a pharmacy license with the Board; that is not currently a requirement and NRS 639.0124(1)(a) is inappropriately applied here.

Count Three (Paragraphs 69-74): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count Three in Paragraphs 69-74. Again, as discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited and did not include the development or approval of any protocols or procedures related to the procurement or storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora's medical service protocols did not allow for the reuse of single use vials and any reuse of single use vials on the part of Youth, Inc. personnel would have been done without the knowledge of Dr. Arora and he did not aid or abet any violation of NAC 639.050(2).

Count Four (Paragraphs 75-81): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Four in Paragraphs 75-81. Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, worked for We Treat, not Youth, Inc. Respondents' duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to conducting medical clearance reviews for patients and if cleared, the patient was authorized for treatment pursuant to approved medical protocols. None of the named respondents were responsible for supervising the staff of Youth, Inc. and would have had no knowledge of unauthorized reuse of single use vials by any personnel associated with Youth, Inc.

Count Five (Paragraphs 82-87): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Five in Paragraphs 75-81. The administration of dangerous drugs to patients is not the practice of pharmacy as defined by NRS 639.0124(1)(a) and accordingly Respondents could not have aided or abetted in the violation of said statute. Again, as discussed above, should the Board take the position that the administration of a dangerous drug constitutes the practice of pharmacy, all practices and facilities at which any drug is administered would be required to hold a registration as a pharmacy with the Board which is not currently required.

Count Six (Paragraphs 88-91): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Six in Paragraphs 88-91.

NOTICE OF DEFENSE/MITIGATING INFORMATION

In regard to Respondent Arora, Dr. Arora stresses that his involvement with We Treat was limited as medical director. The term "medical director" is not defined under Nevada law and there is no legal precedent for what the duties of a medical director must consist of. Dr. Arora functioned as a medical director per the duties he had as a contractor for We Treat, LLC, which consisted solely of the review and authorization of protocols for medical services offered at practices contracted with We Treat and he was required to be available for consultations regarding specific patient questions as needed. The medical protocols authorized by Dr. Arora included standing orders for the administration of certain dangerous drugs and for the prescription of certain controlled substances. It should be noted that Dr. Arora never authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc., or any other practice for which he provided services under We Treat and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were stored on-site at Youth, Inc.

We Treat's compliance department was responsible for the development and authorization of all other policies and protocols, including those related to the procurement, receipt, and storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora was advised by We Treat that all policies and protocols were reviewed and vetted for compliance with the laws in each individual state in which We Treat had clients. Dr. Arora had no reason to doubt the assurances made by We Treat that the policies and protocols for Youth, Inc. were in compliance with Nevada law.

In regard to Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, all three were employees/contractors with We Treat during the times in question. Their duties were to provide medical clearance reviews for patients wishing to receive services at practices which were contracted with We Treat and if cleared, authorize treatment to be provide pursuant to previously approved medical protocols. Respondents had no duties related to the oversight or supervision of any practice served by We Treat. Respondents would be notified through a proprietary platform that a patient required a medical clearance evaluation at practices which received services from We Treat and would be given access to the patient records through the We Treat platform and would either clear the patient for treatment or deny treatment[1]. Each clinic had individual protocols which would be followed by Respondents. Respondents were informed by We Treat that policies related to requirements for providing medical clearance for patients was vetted by its compliance department and all protocols were in compliance with state laws; Respondents had no reason to question the representations of We Treat.

Respondent Gifford estimates that she performed very few medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. through the We Treat platform. Respondent McIntyre estimates that she did approximately two medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. Respondent Jaggard estimates that she did a maximum of ten to fifteen medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc.

[1] We Treat practitioners only performed medical clearance evaluations for patients in states in which they were licensed.

All Respondents deny having violated NRS and/or NAC Chapters 453, 454, or 639. Further Respondents reserve all legal defenses available to them should this matter proceed to a hearing.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of August, 2025.

J. David Wuest, in his official capacity as Executive Secretary of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, files the following document that will serve as both a notice of intended action under NRS 233B.127(3) and an accusation under NRS 622A.300(1) and NRS 639.241.

JURISDICTION

1. The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy ("Board") has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Sean Arora, M.D., ("Respondent Arora"), because Respondent Arora holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing him to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada. Respondent Arora holds certificate of registration no. CS31476, which was issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 453.226 and 453.231.

2. The Board has personal jurisdiction over Respondent Cassie Gifford, APRN, ("Respondent Gifford"), because Respondent Gifford holds a certificate of registration issued by the Board authorizing her to prescribe dangerous drugs in Nevada. Respondent Gifford holds certificate of

5. The Board has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this accusation because it alleges violations involving the purchase, receipt, storage, possession, prescribing and/or dispensing of dangerous drugs and controlled substances. As used herein, "dangerous drug" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 454.201, and "controlled substance" means a substance listed in NAC 453.510 to NAC 453.550, inclusive, or in 21 CFR Part 1308.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. Respondent Arora is a physician licensed by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners to practice medicine in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent Arora was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

7. Respondent Gifford is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent

1. Respondent Gifford formerly held certificate of registration no. CS34942, authorizing her to prescribe controlled substances. Certificate of registration no. CS34942 was not renewed when it came due for renewal on November 1, 2024.

Gifford was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

8. Respondent McIntyre is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

9. Respondent Jaggard is an advanced practice registered nurse licensed by the Nevada State Board of Nursing to practice advanced nursing in Nevada. At all times alleged herein, Respondent McIntyre was a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

10. In 2024, Respondent Arora formed a partnership or other business relationship with We Treat, a medical consulting firm based in San Diego, California. We Treat provides consulting services and regulatory compliance advice to medical spas and wellness clinics.

11. We Treat provided consulting services and compliance advice to Youth, Inc. (Youth Inc.), the owner of a medical spa and wellness clinic located at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada.

12. We Treat developed a manual of policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc. Respondent Arora approved these policies, procedures and protocols for use by Youth Inc.

13. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. provided various anti-aging and wellness treatments for its patients. These included cosmetic treatments using botulinum toxin type A and dermal fillers, treatments for weight loss using compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products, hormone replacement using injectable hormones, and treatment for erectile dysfunction using sildenafil and tadalafil.

14. Between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. did not lock or otherwise secure the dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances in its possession.

15. In early 2025, Youth Inc. was in possession of stock bottles containing sildenafil, tadalafil, and metformin hydrochloride, all dangerous drugs. Youth Inc.'s representatives claimed that they were not planning to dispense these drugs until after they had secured a dispensing license issued by the Board.

16. We Treat arranged for Respondent Arora to serve as the "medical director" for Youth Inc., a role that Respondent Arora assumed sometime between April and August 2024.

17. Respondent Arora served as Youth Inc.'s medical director until early 2025.

18. During Respondent Arora's tenure as Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora worked and resided in Seattle, Washington. Respondent Arora never visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

19. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. engaged the services of Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre and Respondent Jaggard. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard rarely, if ever, visited Youth Inc.'s facility in Reno, Nevada.

20. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed a prospective patient's medical questionnaire prior to the prospective patient's initial treatment at Youth Inc. Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard reviewed these medical questionnaires from a remote location and never saw or spoke to patients prior to their initial treatments at Youth Inc.

21. After reviewing medical questionnaires, and despite not ever seeing the patients in question, Respondent Gifford, Respondent McIntyre, and Respondent Jaggard authorized initial patient treatments calling for the use or administration of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

22. Sometime between April 2024 and March 2025, Youth Inc. employed Maddison Weiss-Frank, a registered nurse. Ms. Weiss-Frank was not an advanced practice registered nurse and was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125.

23. Ms. Weiss-Frank worked under the direction and supervision of Rachel Gonzalez, the co-owner and chief executive officer of Youth Inc. Ms. Gonzalez was not a "practitioner" as that term is defined at NRS 453.126, NRS 454.00958, and NRS 639.0125. On information and belief, Ms. Gonzalez has no formal medical training.

24. Because there was never a practitioner present at the location, Youth Inc.'s facility at 695 Sierra Rose Drive in Reno, Nevada, was not a location where a registered nurse could lawfully inject a neuromodulator pursuant to NRS 454.217.

25. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients using prescription drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not act under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

26. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances. Ms. Weiss-Frank did not work under the direction or supervision of a practitioner.

27. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

28. In adherence to the policies, procedures and protocols developed by We Treat and approved by Respondent Arora, Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

29. Consistent with the practice described above, Youth Inc. returned single-use vials to stock even after the vials were punctured and therefore rendered unusable for subsequent treatments.

30. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed purchase invoices and signed for shipments of dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances.

31. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed patient medical questionnaires and treatment records.

32. As the medical director for Youth Inc., Respondent Arora periodically reviewed Youth Inc.'s policies, procedures and protocols related to the procurement, storage, possession and administration of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

33. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank received, stored, and possessed dangerous drugs and/or controlled substances without direction or supervision by a practitioner.

34. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank treated patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances despite not working under the supervision or direction of a practitioner.

35. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or Ms. Gonzalez ordered and received compounded tirzepatide and semaglutide products from GLP-1 Sciences, LLC, a California manufacturer and/or supplier not licensed to engage in wholesale distribution in Nevada.

36. Based upon his knowledge of Youth Inc.'s records and business practices, Respondent Arora knew or should have known that Ms. Weiss-Frank and/or other employees of Youth Inc. injected multiple patients with prescription drugs and/or controlled substances contained within single-use vials.

37. As Youth Inc.'s medical director, Respondent Arora had a duty to understand Nevada law as it governs the receipt, possession, storage, and distribution of dangerous drugs and controlled substances.

Dr. Arora denies that he ever signed off or approved of any shipments of controlled substances to Youth, Inc. and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were to be received or stored on-site at We Treat.

Applicable Law: Paragraphs 38-55

Paragraph 38-55: Respondents acknowledge that Paragraphs 38-55 accurately reflect the basic substance of the statutes and regulations cited therein.

Counts: Paragraphs 56-91

Count One (Paragraphs 56-61): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count One in Paragraphs 56-61. Dr. Arora did not permit Youth, Inc. or any of its personnel to order any dangerous drugs from any manufacturer or supplier not licensed in Nevada. As discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to the review and authorization of protocols related to medical procedures. While Youth, Inc. was authorized to order supplies and dangerous drugs under Dr. Arora's credentials, this was to be done in accordance with policies and protocols developed and approved by We Treat's compliance department. To the best of Dr. Arora's knowledge, no client of We Treat was authorized to order or received dangerous drugs or other supplies from unlicensed suppliers/manufacturers.

Count Two (Paragraphs 62-68): Dr. Arora generally denies all allegations set forth in Count Two in Paragraphs 62-68. Further Dr. Arora asserts that a practice which orders, receives, and stores dangerous drugs is not engaging in the practice of pharmacy as alleged. If indeed this was accurate, every medical practice or facility that orders, receives and stores drugs for administration and/or dispensing, would be required to hold a pharmacy license with the Board; that is not currently a requirement and NRS 639.0124(1)(a) is inappropriately applied here.

Count Three (Paragraphs 69-74): Dr. Arora generally denies the allegations set forth in Count Three in Paragraphs 69-74. Again, as discussed herein, Dr. Arora's duties for Youth, Inc. were limited and did not include the development or approval of any protocols or procedures related to the procurement or storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora's medical service protocols did not allow for the reuse of single use vials and any reuse of single use vials on the part of Youth, Inc. personnel would have been done without the knowledge of Dr. Arora and he did not aid or abet any violation of NAC 639.050(2).

Count Four (Paragraphs 75-81): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Four in Paragraphs 75-81. Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, worked for We Treat, not Youth, Inc. Respondents' duties for Youth, Inc. were limited to conducting medical clearance reviews for patients and if cleared, the patient was authorized for treatment pursuant to approved medical protocols. None of the named respondents were responsible for supervising the staff of Youth, Inc. and would have had no knowledge of unauthorized reuse of single use vials by any personnel associated with Youth, Inc.

Count Five (Paragraphs 82-87): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Five in Paragraphs 75-81. The administration of dangerous drugs to patients is not the practice of pharmacy as defined by NRS 639.0124(1)(a) and accordingly Respondents could not have aided or abetted in the violation of said statute. Again, as discussed above, should the Board take the position that the administration of a dangerous drug constitutes the practice of pharmacy, all practices and facilities at which any drug is administered would be required to hold a registration as a pharmacy with the Board which is not currently required.

Count Six (Paragraphs 88-91): Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard all generally deny the allegations set forth in Count Six in Paragraphs 88-91.

NOTICE OF DEFENSE/MITIGATING INFORMATION

In regard to Respondent Arora, Dr. Arora stresses that his involvement with We Treat was limited as medical director. The term "medical director" is not defined under Nevada law and there is no legal precedent for what the duties of a medical director must consist of. Dr. Arora functioned as a medical director per the duties he had as a contractor for We Treat, LLC, which consisted solely of the review and authorization of protocols for medical services offered at practices contracted with We Treat and he was required to be available for consultations regarding specific patient questions as needed. The medical protocols authorized by Dr. Arora included standing orders for the administration of certain dangerous drugs and for the prescription of certain controlled substances. It should be noted that Dr. Arora never authorized the administration of controlled substances at Youth, Inc., or any other practice for which he provided services under We Treat and to his knowledge, no controlled substances were stored on-site at Youth, Inc.

We Treat's compliance department was responsible for the development and authorization of all other policies and protocols, including those related to the procurement, receipt, and storage of dangerous drugs. Dr. Arora was advised by We Treat that all policies and protocols were reviewed and vetted for compliance with the laws in each individual state in which We Treat had clients. Dr. Arora had no reason to doubt the assurances made by We Treat that the policies and protocols for Youth, Inc. were in compliance with Nevada law.

In regard to Respondents Gifford, McIntyre, and Jaggard, all three were employees/contractors with We Treat during the times in question. Their duties were to provide medical clearance reviews for patients wishing to receive services at practices which were contracted with We Treat and if cleared, authorize treatment to be provide pursuant to previously approved medical protocols. Respondents had no duties related to the oversight or supervision of any practice served by We Treat. Respondents would be notified through a proprietary platform that a patient required a medical clearance evaluation at practices which received services from We Treat and would be given access to the patient records through the We Treat platform and would either clear the patient for treatment or deny treatment[1]. Each clinic had individual protocols which would be followed by Respondents. Respondents were informed by We Treat that policies related to requirements for providing medical clearance for patients was vetted by its compliance department and all protocols were in compliance with state laws; Respondents had no reason to question the representations of We Treat.

Respondent Gifford estimates that she performed very few medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. through the We Treat platform. Respondent McIntyre estimates that she did approximately two medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc. Respondent Jaggard estimates that she did a maximum of ten to fifteen medical clearance evaluations for Youth, Inc.

[1] We Treat practitioners only performed medical clearance evaluations for patients in states in which they were licensed.

All Respondents deny having violated NRS and/or NAC Chapters 453, 454, or 639. Further Respondents reserve all legal defenses available to them should this matter proceed to a hearing.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of August, 2025.

3. Since September 25, 2016, through present, Respondent has held a certificate of registration issued by the Board pursuant to NRS 453.226. This certificate of registration authorized Respondent to prescribe controlled substances. Respondent's current certificate of registration was renewed November 1, 2024, and is set to expire October 31, 2026.

4. On February 21, 2017, Respondent established an account with Nevada's Prescription Monitoring Program (PMP). The account provided Respondent with individual access to the PMP database, a confidential source of information concerning all prescriptions written in Nevada for controlled substances.

5. According to the Board's records, between February 21, 2017, through the present, Respondent never accessed the PMP database to review his own prescribing activity. Also, according to the Board's records, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent never accessed the PMP database to evaluate the prescription histories of the patients for whom he prescribed controlled substances.

6. Between February 21, 2017, and March 20, 2025, Respondent wrote 14,051 prescriptions for controlled substances, including refills for 1,295 unique patients. Of those, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent wrote prescriptions for controlled substances for 1,075 unique patients.

APPLICABLE LAW

7. In Nevada, it is unlawful to dispense a controlled substance except as authorized by NRS Chapter 453. NRS 453.321(1)(a). "Dispense" is defined to include the act of prescribing a controlled substance. NRS 453.056.

8. Every practitioner who intends to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada must first apply for and obtain a certificate of registration from the Board. NRS 453.226(1); NRS 453.231(3). The practitioner must renew the certificate of registration on a biennial basis. Id. A practitioner who fails to register or renew may be subject to criminal and/or civil penalties for prescribing controlled substances without a certificate of registration. NRS 453.232; NRS 453.553; NRS 453.5531.

9. When a practitioner first obtains a certificate of registration to prescribe controlled substances, the practitioner must enroll in the PMP and complete a course of instruction concerning the use of the PMP database. NRS 453.164(5) & (6); NAC 453.065.

10. A practitioner shall, before issuing an initial prescription for a controlled substance, and at least once every 90 days thereafter for the duration of the course of treatment using the controlled substance, obtain a patient utilization report regarding the patient from the PMP. NRS 639.23507.

11. A practitioner registered with the Board to write prescriptions for controlled substances must access his or her prescriber activity in the PMP at least once every 6 months to review prescriptions issued by the practitioner and to verify for the Board that he or she continues to have access to the PMP. NRS 453.164(7).

12. The Board may revoke or suspend the registration of any practitioner who has violated any Nevada statute or regulation relating to drugs, the manufacture or distribution of drugs or the practice of pharmacy. NRS 639.210(12).

13. The Board may revoke or suspend the existing registration of any practitioner who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct or conduct contrary to the public interest. See NRS 639.210(4).

14. A practitioner's conduct is deemed unprofessional and/or contrary to the public interest if the practitioner performs his or her duties in an incompetent, unskillful or negligent manner. NAC 639.945(1)(i).

15. In addition to or in lieu of revoking or suspending a practitioner's certificate of registration due to any violation described herein, the Board may impose an administrative fine upon the practitioner. The fine may not exceed $10,000 for each offense. NRS 639.255(1)(f) and (3).

COUNT ONE

Noncompliance with Prescription Monitoring Program

16. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent failed to query the PMP database regarding his patients' histories of using controlled substances. The PMP database compiles a controlled substance utilization report for any practitioner who makes such a query. The controlled substance utilization report provides the practitioner with evidence as to whether a patient is doctor-shopping and/or abusing controlled substances.

17. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, through the present, Respondent failed to query the PMP database regarding his own prescriber activity. The PMP database compiles a report of prescribing activity for any practitioner who makes such a query. This allows the practitioner to evaluate whether anyone has fraudulently used the practitioner's credentials to prescribe controlled substances.

18. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, and March 20, 2025, Respondent wrote 14,051 prescriptions for controlled substances, including refills, for 1,295 unique patients. Of those, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent wrote prescriptions for controlled substances for 1,075 unique patients.

19. By failing to query the PMP database to review his patients' utilization report prior to issuing a prescription for a controlled substance, and by failing to review his own prescriber activity on a semi-annual basis, Respondent violated NRS 453.164(7) and NRS 639.23507. These are violations of state law and acts that render Respondent's Nevada controlled substance registration inconsistent with the public interest. Therefore, the Board may impose administrative discipline. NRS 639.210(4) and (12); NRS 639.255(3), NRS 453.236(1)(d) and (e), and NRS 453.241(1).

COUNT TWO

Unprofessional Conduct by a Practitioner

20. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent failed to query the PMP database regarding his patients' histories of using controlled substances.

21. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, through the present, Respondent failed to query the PMP database regarding his own prescriber activity.

22. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, and March 20, 2025, Respondent wrote 14,051 prescriptions for controlled substances, including refills, for 1,295 unique patients.

23. As alleged above, between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, Respondent wrote prescriptions for controlled substances for 1,075 unique patients.

24. By failing to query the PMP database to review his patients' utilization report prior to issuing a prescription for a controlled substance, and by failing to review his own prescriber activity on a semi-annual basis, Respondent performed his duties as the holder of a certificate issued by the Board in an incompetent, unskillful or negligent manner.

25. As alleged above, Respondent's conduct constitutes unprofessional conduct for which the Board may impose administrative discipline. NRS 639.210(4); NAC 639.945(1)(i).

WHEREFORE it is requested that the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy take appropriate disciplinary action with respect to the certificate of registration of Respondent Qui Thai.

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHARMACY, Petitioner, v. QUI THAI, MD, Certificate of Registration No. CS13843, Respondent.	Case No. 22-476-CS-S ANSWER AND NOTICE OF DEFENSE

Respondent above named, in answer to the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation filed in the above-entitled matter before the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, declares:

1. That his/her objection to the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation as being incomplete or failing to state clearly the charges against him/her, is hereby interposed on the following grounds: (State specific objections or insert "none").

None.

2. That, in answer to the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation, he/she admits, denies and alleges as follows:

I admit that between February 21, 2017, and November 15, 2022, I had unintentionally failed to query the PMP database regarding my patients' histories of using controlled substances, and that between February 21, 2017, through 2024 I unintentionally failed to query the PMP database regarding my own prescriber activity, both due to my misunderstanding of the PMP laws.

However, I deny that I failed to query the PMP database regarding "refills" because it is my custom and practice to never prescribe refills for narcotics. I also deny that I failed to query my own prescriber activity in 2025, because I recently did so in 2025, prior to receiving the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation. I also deny that my failure to comply with the PMP laws constituted unprofessional conduct for the reasons set forth below. In response to the allegations against me, I offer the following assertions for the Board's consideration:

At the outset I express my sincere apology to the Board that I misunderstood Nevada's statutory requirements to query the PMP database. I agree that my practice was in violation of NRS 639.23507 and NRS 453.164(7) due to my unfamiliarity with the Nevada PMP statutes.

I am a primary care physician board certified in Internal Medicine, and my practice also involves treatment of elderly patients at areas skilled nursing facilities who often require a greater frequency of controlled substances prescriptions than the average patient population. My practice has always been centered on a very strong physician-patient relationship, in which I spend time with each patient to carefully assess them for "red flags" that may indicate substance use disorder and/or diversion of controlled substances. This is why I do not prescribe refills for narcotics – I want to personally evaluate each patient prior to prescribing narcotics. I have implemented urine drug screens, referrals to pain management specialists or orthopedists, and have terminated the physician-patient relationship when indicated. I am proud that during my entire career, (including the subject time period of 2017 to present), none of my patients have experienced any adverse outcomes due to my prescriptions of controlled substances. Similarly, to my knowledge, none of my patients have experienced any criminal investigation or prosecution for controlled substances diversion. I believe this track record is the result of my careful clinical screening of each patient prior to any prescription of a controlled substance, in combination with the strong physician patient relationship I have created with each patient.

I also treat each patient as an individual, and do not practice any regimented "one size fits all" practice for medication selection or dosing. My customary practice to "start low, and go slow," often by prescribing opioids at the lowest dose and lowest frequency – such as only on an "as needed basis" for breakthrough pain in combination with NSAIDs, instead of on a daily scheduled basis. The PMP reports in Attachment E of the Board's investigative file produced to me evidence this, because the daily dose MME for those patients ranged between 7.5 and 45 MME, with an average of only 34.5 MME.[1] Further, the PMP reports in the investigative file also include "NARX scores" created by Bamboo Health. Mindful that NARX scores cannot be viewed in isolation for clinical decision making, the Board may note that most of my patients' NARX narcotics scores were below 200, representing the range of 75% of all prescriptions. None of these patients had a NARX narcotics score or overdose risk score above 300. Further, none of the sample reports evidence any instances of my patients obtaining duplicative pain medication prescriptions from other providers.

After referring my patients to specialists, I later learned that other than increasing the dosage and/or frequency of controlled substance prescriptions, their treatment plans often remain the same as mine. Again, this information is provided to the Board as evidence of my very careful and very conservative practices in prescribing controlled substances.

Unfortunately, like many other practitioners, I have not kept pace with developments in the Nevada laws applicable to prescribing controlled substances because my focus has always been the subject of medicine and not law. I have practiced internal medicine for decades and maintained my customary prescribing practices while unintentionally misunderstanding the laws enacted regarding the PMP. My prescribing practices during the subject time-period were analogous to driving a car safely along a road, but inadvertently missing a change in speed sign indicating a slower speed is required. I simply did not fully understand the sign advising when PMP queries were required, I again apologize to the Board, and stress that I would have changed my practices sooner if I had fully understood the sign. Yet despite my misunderstanding the sign, I continued to drive very safely based on decades of cautious and conservative prescribing practices, and no adverse patient events have occurred.

I would also point out that the frequency of my PMP queries has increased over the past two years, and prior to the filing of the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation. In other words, I have taken affirmative steps to bring myself into compliance with the PMP laws prior to the Board of Pharmacy alerting me of its concerns.

I do not consider my lack of familiarity with the Nevada statutes referenced in the Notice of Intended Action and Accusation to be a rare occurrence, because it is my understanding that many other practitioners are also unfamiliar with their obligations to query the PMP. It has been reported that across the nation a large percentage of practitioners do not always query the PMP even when state laws require that they do so:

> In many jurisdictions, health care providers are not aware that a PMP exists where they practice, or similarly, some are aware of PMPs but do not know how to make use of the data in their practice. For example, in a recent study of physicians in jurisdictions with PMPs from across the United States, approximately 72% of providers knew that a PMP was present in their jurisdiction, but only 53% reported actually using one of the programs.
> We completed a systematic review to, first, determine what proportion of health care providers access and use PMP data in their practice in jurisdictions where a PMP is available, and second, identify common barriers to accessing PMP data that have been identified by health care providers. …
> Prevalence of PMP Data Use
> Among the 46 included studies (131,587 participants) reporting data use, the most common outcome reported was the proportion of prescribers or dispensers who have "ever" used PMP data. This outcome was reported in 26 studies representing 30 unique prescriber/dispenser groups (107,998 participants), with proportions of "ever use" of PMP data ranging from 0.08 to 1.00 (Figure 2) [23–25, 27, 28, 39–591. Overall, the pooled proportion of health care providers who have ever used PMP data was 0.57 (95% CI: 0.48–0.66). Among the health care providers included in these studies, physicians and pharmacists were the two specific groups studied most often, in fourteen and seven studies, respectively. The pooled proportions of physicians (0.63; 95% CI: 0.43–0.81) and pharmacists (0.57; 95% CI: 0.41–0.73) ever using PMP data did not differ significantly. There were no observable differences in data use by year of study publication. …
> Across these 11 studies, there was a low percentage of health care providers who always used PMP data when making prescribing or dispensing decisions, ranging from 0% to 68% (mean [SD1: 18.7% [18.4%1).

Robinson, A. et al., Health Care Provider Utilization of Prescription Monitoring Programs: A Systematic Review and Meta-Analysis, 22(7) Pain Medicine 1570-15982 (2021) (emphasis added and in original), attached as Exhibit A.

The laws of the State of Kentucky are similar to the State of Nevada, requiring PMP query with each controlled substance prescription under penalty of discipline. Yet it has been reported that after Kentucky law mandated PMP query, approximately half of primary care physicians still did not check the PMP:

> The [PMP] law requires all providers licensed to prescribe controlled substances to register with the state's PDMP, the Kentucky All Schedule Prescription Electronic Reporting system (KASPER). Providers are also required, with limited exceptions, to query KASPER for a report before prescribing to new patients and to query every three months for continuing patients. Failure to comply can result in disciplinary action, including emergency suspension or restriction of the provider's license.
> Exhibit 3 also reports the share of prescriptions queried in the pre- and postmandate periods for each characteristic, as well as raw and regression-adjusted differences. Among provider specialties, the share of prescriptions queried increased most among primary care physicians (48 percentage points, to 56 percent)… Shares of prescriptions queried were low in both the pre and post periods for low-volume prescribers; those who prescribed to fewer than five patients per month only queried for 2 percent of prescriptions before the mandate and 20 percent after.
> By the late post period there were continued reductions in opioid prescribing, particularly among high-risk patients. The reduction in prescribing to the high-risk category was driven almost entirely by providers who queried at least half the time. These reductions suggest that many formerly high-risk patients transitioned to "chronic" status or stopped taking opioids altogether by the late post period (see the transition matrix in appendix exhibit S8). However, the high-risk patient group continued to receive about the same number of prescriptions from providers who queried less than half the time. …
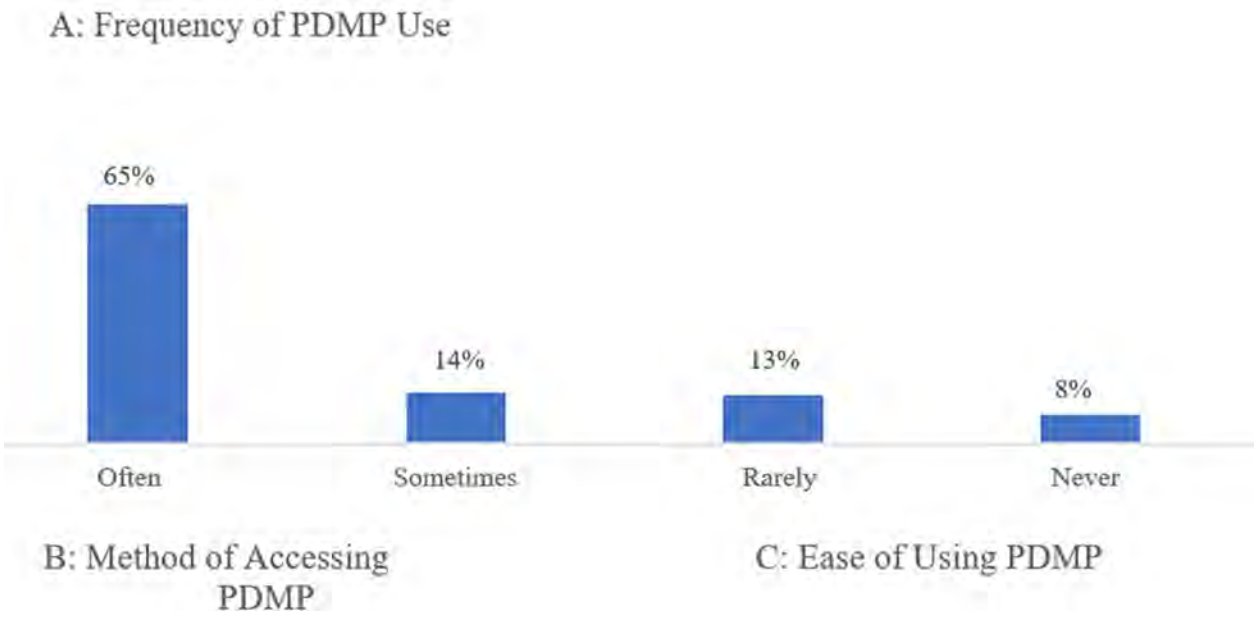
> Our analysis of administrative data does not reveal why providers did not query all required prescriptions.

Carey, C. et al., Provider Compliance With Kentucky's Prescription Drug Monitoring Program's Mandate to Query Patient Opioid History 40(3) Health Affairs 461-464 (2021) (emphasis added), enclosed as Exhibit B.

Similarly, in the State of Minnesota all controlled substance prescribers are required to make accounts and search the PDMP before writing most controlled substance prescriptions, yet has been reported that "many did not:"



> We obtained data on the universe of Minnesota controlled substance prescribing, PDMP searches, and PDMP accounts from the Minnesota Prescription Monitoring Program. We then analyzed PDMP search and account-holding by prescriber characteristics for the 180-day period starting February 1, 2023. …

> There were 16 378 clinicians who prescribed opioids (Table 1). A slim majority were physicians and one-third were nurse practitioners or physician assistants. The average prescriber supplied 747 days of opioids to 31.9 distinct patients. While most opioid prescribers engaged with the PDMP, many did not: 4 in 10 did not search the PDMP during this period and 2 in 10 did not hold an account. … 32.2% of opioid fills and 11.1% of opioid days came from clinicians who never searched the PDMP.
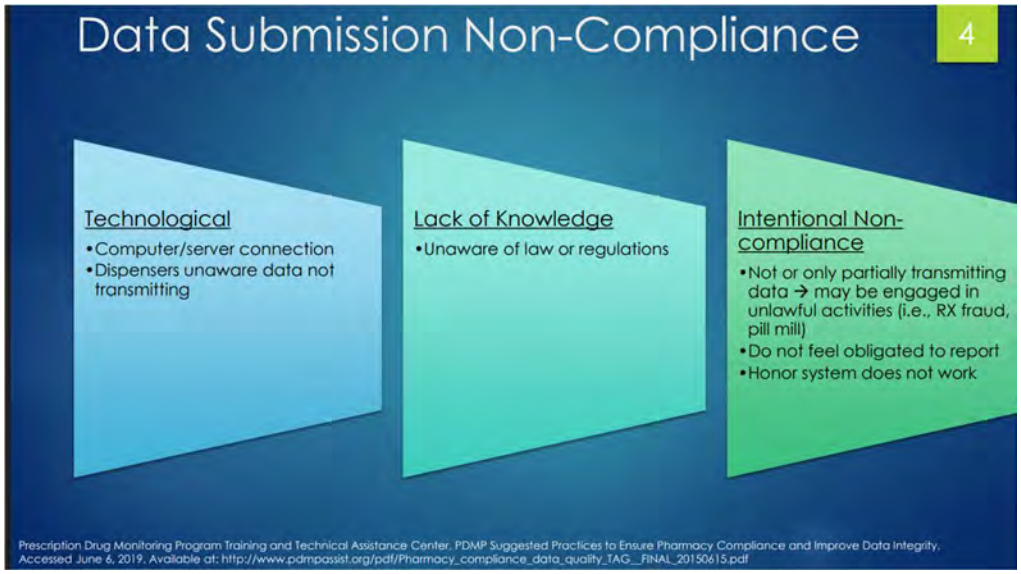
> Most clinicians are aware of the risks of opioid prescribing and prescribe opioids safely. Still, we found that a group of clinicians continues to prescribe opioids without using the tools available and required to ensure safe prescribing. The overrepresentation of low-volume prescribers in this group may reflect a lack of information about state mandates.

Sacarny, A., Prescription Drug Monitoring Program Use By Opioid Prescribers: A Cross-Sectional Study 1(6) Health Affairs Scholar 1-3 (2023) (emphasis added), enclosed as Exhibit C.



A study of PMP compliance by medical specialty in the State of Washington, which studied 17,390 providers who prescribed opioids to Medicaid beneficiaries, found that overall 50% had not registered with the PMP, 27% registered with but had no recorded use of the PMP, and 23% used the PMP. Focusing on General Medicine practitioners, it found only 31.1% queried its PMP, however 31% were registered but had never used the PMP, and 37.9% were not even registered with the PMP- the latter two values combined totaling 68.9%. Sun, B. et al., Variations in Prescription Drug Monitoring Program Use by Prescriber Specialty 94 J. Subst. Abuse Treat. 35-40 at Table 1 (2018), enclosed as Exhibit D.

A study based on a nationwide survey of 1,524 office-based physicians, (the majority of which were primary care practitioners), concluded less than two-thirds of office-based physicians in the USA reported frequent use of their state PDMP:

Richwine, C., et al., National Estimates and Physician-Reported Impacts of Prescription Drug Monitoring Program Use 38(4) J. Gen. Intern. Med. 881 and Fig. 1 (Published online October 13, 2022) enclosed as Exhibit E.

Based on the reports above, between one third and two thirds of all prescribers are not frequently querying their PMP in various states. The most likely reason for this is that they, like me, had a lack of understanding of the mandates of state law. I would add that a lack of knowledge of PMP laws has not been confined to prescribers, but was also found in a 2019 study to have been the cause of a 24% error rate by dispensing pharmacists in Nevada:

Zarley, D., PMP Data Quality and Pharmacy Compliance at 4, 18 (June 27, 2019)(accessed June 26, 2024 at: https://www.pdmpassist.org/Content/Documents/pdf/27B2_Zarley.pdf), enclosed as Exhibit F.

To my knowledge, the PMP compliance rate for Nevada prescribers has not been published or otherwise been made publicly available. Nevertheless, a review of settlements posted on the Board of Pharmacy meeting agendas confirms I am not alone in my lack of understanding of the PMP statutes or compliance with same. During legislative meetings discussing Assembly Bill 474 in the 2017 legislative session a committee noted that despite the establishment of the PMP in 1997 and the state's initiation of mandatory review in 2015, in 2015 almost one in five (19%) of Nevada prescribers had not yet established a PMP account, and in 2017 some prescribers had still not even signed up for the PMP:

> While the State Board of Pharmacy has seen a sharp increase in the number of prescribers enrolled in the system since the passage of Senate Bill 459 of the 78th Session—from 16 percent of prescribers enrolled to 81 percent of prescribers enrolled—there are still prescribers of controlled substances who have not signed up for the system.

Minutes of the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services, Seventy-Ninth Session at 5 (May 17, 2017) enclosed as Exhibit G (accessed June 26, 2024 at: https://www.leg.state.nv.us/Session/79th2017/Minutes/Senate/HHS/Final/1185.pdf).

This likely led to the use of funding between 2015 – 2019 from the SAPG Block Grant: Funding Opportunity 003 to: "Target efforts to encourage the use of Prescription Drug Monitoring System by prescribers." Nevada Opioid Crisis Needs Assessment: Division of Public and Behavioral Health Opioid State Targeted Response to the Opioid Crisis Grant Program at 35 (December, 2018), enclosed as Exhibit H.

At the time AB 474 was passed in 2016 to strengthen the PMP laws, it was reported that the purpose of the law was to protect patients, and not to discipline physicians:

> The Board of Medical Examiners, which licenses the bulk of the state's doctors, said they use the reports to remind doctors to check that their patients aren't suffering from an addiction. It would be inappropriate to use them to initiate an investigation, Cousineau said.

> "I've talked to many doctors over the years and they've implored me, they don't want constraints, whether through statute or regulation, that limits their subjective ability to treat patients," Cousineau said.

Damon, A. et al., Over-Prescribing Doctors Can Escape Scrutiny in Nevada Reno Gazette Journal (May 14, 2016), enclosed as Exhibit I.

I understand that "ignorance of the law is not an excuse." I offer the above information to the Board not as an excuse, but instead as a reasonable explanation for my lack of fully understanding and complying with the Nevada PMP laws.

Respectfully however, given the reported lack of prescriber familiarity with PMP laws in Nevada and other states evidenced above, I do not consider my noncompliance to have constituted "unprofessional conduct by a practitioner" under NRS 639.210(4) or NAC 639.945(1)(i). With regard to allopathic physicians (M.D.s) in Nevada, the legislature has defined unprofessional conduct as follows:

> NAC 630.230 Prohibited professional conduct. (NRS 630.130, 630.275)
> 1. A person who is licensed as a physician or physician assistant shall not:
> (a) Falsify records of health care;
> (b) Falsify the medical records of a hospital so as to indicate his or her presence at a time when he or she was not in attendance or falsify those records to indicate that procedures were performed by him or her which were in fact not performed by him or her;
> (c) Render professional services to a patient while the physician or physician assistant is under the influence of alcohol or any controlled substance or is in any impaired mental or physical condition;
> (d) Acquire any controlled substances from any pharmacy or other source by misrepresentation, fraud, deception or subterfuge;
> (e) Prescribe anabolic steroids for any person to increase muscle mass for competitive or athletic purposes;
> (f) Make an unreasonable additional charge for tests in a laboratory, radiological services or other services for testing which are ordered by the physician or physician assistant and performed outside his or her own office;
> (g) Allow any person to act as a medical assistant in the treatment of a patient of the physician or physician assistant, unless the medical assistant has sufficient training to provide the assistance;

The definition above did not include a physician's inadvertent failure to query the PMP. Instead, it considers much more egregious conduct to constitute prohibited professional conduct, typically with an intentional malicious motivation.

With regard to doctors of osteopathic medicine (D.O.s) in Nevada, the legislature has defined unprofessional conduct, in pertinent part, as follows:

NRS 633.131 - "Unprofessional conduct" defined.

1. "Unprofessional conduct" includes:

(a) Knowingly or willfully making a false or fraudulent statement or submitting a forged or false document in applying for a license to practice osteopathic medicine, to practice as a physician assistant or to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, or in applying for the renewal of a license to practice osteopathic medicine, to practice as a physician assistant or to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant.

(b) Failure of a person who is licensed to practice osteopathic medicine to identify himself or herself professionally by using the term D.O., osteopathic physician, doctor of osteopathy or a similar term.

(c) Directly or indirectly giving to or receiving from any person, corporation or other business organization any fee, commission, rebate or other form of compensation for sending, referring or otherwise inducing a person to communicate with an osteopathic physician in his or her professional capacity or for any professional services not actually and personally rendered, except as otherwise provided in subsection 2.

(d) Employing, directly or indirectly, any suspended or unlicensed person in the practice of osteopathic medicine or in practice as a physician assistant or anesthesiologist assistant, or the aiding or abetting of any unlicensed person to practice osteopathic medicine or to practice as a physician assistant or anesthesiologist assistant.

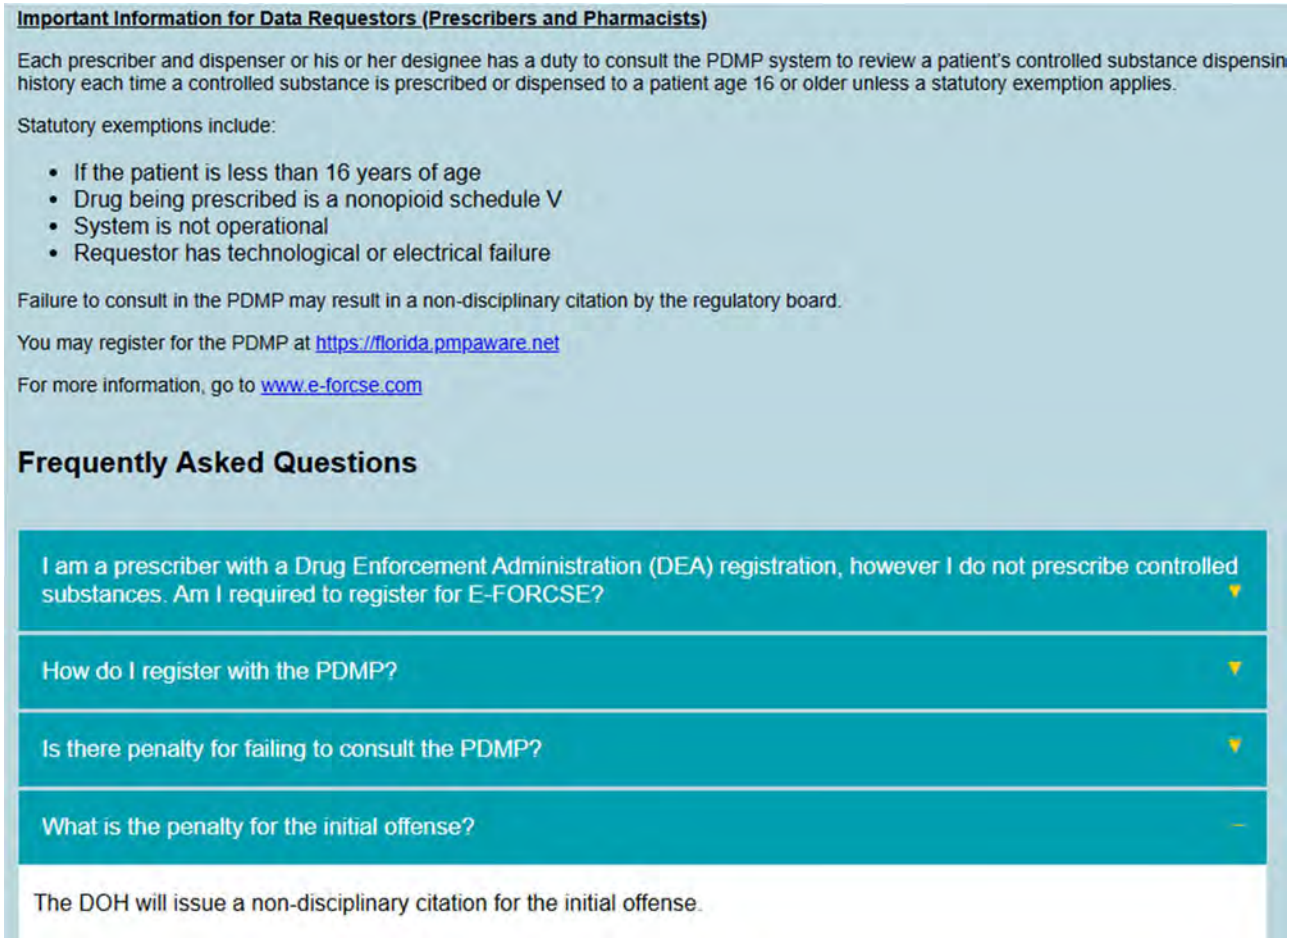
(e) Advertising the practice of osteopathic medicine in a manner which does not conform to the guidelines established by regulations of the Board.
(f) Engaging in any:
(1) Professional conduct which is intended to deceive or which the Board by regulation has determined is unethical; or
(2) Medical practice harmful to the public or any conduct detrimental to the public health, safety or morals which does not constitute gross or repeated malpractice or professional incompetence.
(g) Administering, dispensing or prescribing any controlled substance or any dangerous drug as defined in chapter 454 of NRS, otherwise than in the course of legitimate professional practice or as authorized by law.
(h) An alcohol or other substance use disorder.
(i) Performing, assisting in or advising an unlawful abortion or the injection of any liquid silicone substance into the human body, other than the use of silicone oil to repair a retinal detachment.
(j) Knowingly or willfully disclosing a communication privileged pursuant to a statute or court order.
(k) Knowingly or willfully disobeying regulations of the State Board of Health, the State Board of Pharmacy or the State Board of Osteopathic Medicine.
(l) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of or conspiring to violate any prohibition made in this chapter.
(m) Failure of a licensee to maintain timely, legible, accurate and complete medical records relating to the diagnosis, treatment and care of a patient.
(n) Making alterations to the medical records of a patient that the licensee knows to be false.
(o) Making or filing a report which the licensee knows to be false.
(p) Failure of a licensee to file a record or report as required by law, or knowingly or willfully obstructing or inducing any person to obstruct such filing.
(q) Failure of a licensee to make medical records of a patient available for inspection and copying as provided by NRS 629.061, if the licensee is the custodian of health care records with respect to those records.
(r) Providing false, misleading or deceptive information to the Board in connection with an investigation conducted by the Board.



(Emphasis added.)

The statute above only considers a willful and knowing violation of regulations of the State Board of Pharmacy to constitute professional conduct, and an inadvertent failure to query the PMP due to misunderstanding the law was not included in the definition. Again, I admit that I unknowingly violated NRS 639.23507 and NRS 453.164(7) due to my unfamiliarity with the Nevada statutes, but I stress that my violation was not a willful or knowing violation. Further, as previously stated, prior to my receipt of the notice of accusation I had already increased my compliance with the PMP laws as I became more familiar with them, evidencing that I did not willfully or knowingly intend to continue the inadvertent violation.

My concern is that a finding of "professional misconduct" against me could be misinterpreted by the medical community and public and jeopardize my ability to continue primary care services to my patients.

Other states including Florida, (which has also imposed mandatory consultation of its PMP), do not impose a disciplinary sanction as a penalty for the initial offense of failure to consult its PMP. Instead, for an initial offense a non-disciplinary citation is given:

Important Information for Data Requestors (Prescribers and Pharmacists)

Each prescriber and dispenser or his or her designee has a duty to consult the PDMP system to review a patient's controlled substance dispensin history each time a controlled substance is prescribed or dispensed to a patient age 16 or older unless a statutory exemption applies.

Statutory exemptions include:

- If the patient is less than 16 years of age
- Drug being prescribed is a nonopioid schedule V
- System is not operational
- Requestor has technological or electrical failure

Failure to consult in the PDMP may result in a non-disciplinary citation by the regulatory board.

Nevada is in a healthcare crisis, and is in dire need of its primary care physicians:

> With a population of over 3 million people and with one of the biggest entertainment capitals in the world, Las Vegas, the state of Nevada still faces a healthcare crisis. Out of the 50 states in America, Nevada is currently ranked forty-eighth for the number of primary care doctors available for 100,000 Nevadans and ranked forty-ninth for the number of general surgeons available for 100,000 Nevadans. …
> Current research has shown that there is a higher probability of a healthy community when there are more primary care physicians available for the general population. Concurrently, an increase in the number of primary care physicians has also been shown to lower the frequency of patients presenting to the emergency department or hospital. One study assessed the association between the severity of cardiovascular disease and access to primary care. It concluded that the readmission rate for cardiovascular patients was 33.3% for those who had challenges receiving preventative care, which is significantly higher than the 17.9% readmission rate for patients who had access to primary care. For patients in Nevada, many may wait up to or even longer than one month just to see their primary care physicians.

In my opinion, Count Two – Unprofessional Conduct by a Practitioner should not have been charged against me, given that Count One already pled Noncompliance with Prescription Monitoring Program.[2] By pleading two counts against me for the same violation, it appears as though the Board is seeking to discipline me twice for the same offense. Respectfully, such an aggressive approach is unwarranted where, as here, I did not willfully violate the PMP laws, none of my patients were harmed, and I was trying to do better before receiving the accusation.

In closing, I wish to stress to the Board that I always concern myself with the best interests of my patients. I acknowledge that Nevada's PMP laws exist for the protection of my patients, and I wish that I had fully understood these laws sooner. I am open to the suggestion of additional education to further my knowledge of PMP requirements to optimize my Objective. To synthesize the literature on the proportion of health care providers who access and use prescription monitoring program data in their practice, as well as associated barriers to the use of such data. Design. We performed a systematic review using a standard systematic review method with meta-analysis and qualitative meta-summary. We included full-published peer-reviewed reports of study data, as well as theses and dissertations. Methods. We identified relevant quantitative and qualitative studies. We synthesized outcomes related to prescription monitoring program data use (i.e., ever used, frequency of use). We pooled the proportion of health care providers who had ever used prescription monitoring program data by using random effects models, and we used meta-summary methodology to identify prescription monitoring program use barriers. Results. Fifty-three studies were included in our review, all from the United States. Of these, 46 reported on prescription monitoring program use and 32 reported on barriers. The pooled proportion of health care providers who had ever used prescription monitoring program data was 0.57 (95% confidence interval: 0.48–0.66). Common barriers to prescription monitoring program data use included time constraints and administrative burdens, low perceived value of prescription monitoring program data, and problems with prescription monitoring program system usability. Conclusions. Our study found that health care providers underutilize prescription monitoring program data and that many barriers exist to prescription monitoring program data use.

Abstract

Introduction

North America and Western Europe are amid an opioid crisis. In the United States, opioids were found to account for two thirds of all drug overdose deaths, and in Canada, the rate of opioid-related deaths was found to be 7.8 per 100,000 [1, 2]. In Europe, the role of opioids in mortality is also apparent, with opioids being found in 81% of all fatal overdoses [3].

Although considerable attention has been directed to the use of illicit opioids, the crisis is strongly linked to the emergence of prescription opioids as the primary treatment modality to address acute and chronic pain over the past few decades [4–8]. As many patients with pain turned to opioids for treatment, prescription opioids, such as morphine, hydromorphone, and oxycodone, were revealed to have a high risk for abuse and potential for dependence, which has been since reflected in their classification as Schedule II controlled substances [9]. Many strategies developed to combat this crisis have, therefore, also targeted prescription opioids, with a goal to promote appropriate use of these medications while reducing dependence and potential for harm.

One such strategy is the implementation of prescription monitoring programs (PMPs). PMPs house prescribing and dispensing data for controlled substances from health care providers such as physicians and pharmacists. Opioids are among these controlled substances, making PMPs an important source of a patient's history of controlled substance use, but more specifically, opioid history. In most jurisdictions, PMPs can be used by health care providers when making prescribing or dispensing decisions, ensuring opioids are prescribed in appropriate quantities and when necessary, following best-practice guidelines [10] and reducing the number of individuals at risk of subsequent dependence and harm [11, 12]. PMPs also aim to regulate opioid exposure in the community by monitoring patient behaviors, such as use of multiple providers, and other potential flags for diversion of supply or misuse. Finally, PMPs monitor health care provider prescribing practices and habits and may use this information to inform and educate providers on appropriate prescribing practices [13, 14]. Variations of PMPs have been implemented in 49 states, the District of Columbia, and two territories across the United States and in nine provinces and territories across Canada [15–17]. Few distinct PMPs exist in Europe, as many jurisdictions instead integrate the functions of PMPs into their broader drug distribution systems [18].

The evidence on whether PMPs are effective in reducing inappropriate prescribing is mixed [19–21]. This may be explained by the varying use of PMPs, where there is often suboptimal use of PMP data by health care providers to inform their prescribing and dispensing decisions [22]. In many jurisdictions, health care providers are not aware that a PMP exists where they practice, or similarly, some are aware of PMPs but do not know how to make use of the data in their practice. For example, in a recent study of physicians in jurisdictions with PMPs from across the United States, approximately 72% of providers knew that a PMP was present in their jurisdiction, but only 53% reported actually using one of the programs [23]. It is important to understand the extent to which these programs are being used, and in the case that they are not being frequently used, it is also important to understand why. Health care professionals often identify the presence of too many barriers as a reason why they may not use PMPs [23–25]. Identifying and acknowledging potential barriers to PMP use is an essential first step to optimize utilization [16, 24, 26–28].

We completed a systematic review to, first, determine what proportion of health care providers access and use PMP data in their practice in jurisdictions where a PMP is available, and second, identify common barriers to accessing PMP data that have been identified by health care providers.

Methods

We used a standard systematic review approach [29], following a predefined protocol, and structured the report according to the Preferred Reporting Items for Systematic Reviews and Meta-Analyses (PRISMA) guidelines [30]. This research received ethics approval from the research ethics board at Dalhousie University.

Data Sources and Search Strategy

To retrieve all relevant publications, we developed our search strategy in consultation with a medical librarian and applied this strategy to a range of data sources (see Supplementary Appendix A for the Ovid MEDLINE search strategy). Our search had no restrictions on language, country, or study design and included both quantitative and qualitative findings to provide evidence about factors associated with PMP use; we searched up until January 22, 2018. Only fully published peer-reviewed reports of study data were included, except for theses or dissertations. We searched five electronic databases (Medline, Embase, CINAHL, PsychInfo, and Web of Science), as well as dissertation and theses databases. Additionally, we manually searched the reference lists of all included studies and identified relevant reviews. EndNote X8.1 was used to de-duplicate and manage citations [31]. All identified studies were imported to Covidence, a Web-based software developed by Cochrane to facilitate the systematic review process [32].

Study Selection

All titles and abstracts were screened independently for eligibility by two of four investigators (AR, MW, ER, MA) and were pushed forward to full-text review if consensus was achieved on relevance. Two of the four reviewers (same as above) also independently screened full-text articles to determine eligibility for data extraction. Rates of discordance between reviewers for the title/abstract and full-text review were 8.9% and 9.7%, respectively. At all stages, any discrepancies in eligibility between reviewers were discussed to reach consensus. If no consensus could be reached, a third investigator reviewed and assessed the eligibility. Studies were included for full review if they met the following criteria: 1) The publication was a primary research study in full text (i.e., not a systematic review, editorial, abstract, or commentary), 2) the jurisdiction being studied had an operational PMP (not pending or forthcoming), 3) the study had a measure of PMP use (with a denominator for the measure) and/or had identified barriers to PMP use, and 4) the study population consisted of health care providers. Multiple publications presenting data on the same group of respondents are identified as linked in Supplementary Appendix B. Overlapping outcomes from these publications were included only so as to not overweight the findings.

Data Extraction and Quality Assessment

We used a pre-tested data extraction form developed in Covidence to extract relevant study details (authors, year, jurisdiction, study design, sample size, response rate), population characteristics (provider or dispenser type), data sources (focus group, survey, administrative), information on data use, and any barriers identified (including whether these barriers were identified by <50%, ≥50%, or an unknown percentage of the study population) for included studies. Two reviewers completed the data extraction for each study independently, and discrepancies were discussed. When consensus could not be reached by the two initial reviewers, the assessment of a third reviewer was sought. The quality of studies was assessed with the Appraisal tool for Cross-Sectional Studies (AXIS) critical appraisal tool for quantitative studies [33] and the Critical Appraisal Skills Programme (CASP) tool for qualitative studies [34].

Data Analysis

Prevalence of PMP data use was expressed as the proportion of respondents reporting having ever used or always using PMP data. We used Stata version 15 (the metaprop command) to combine proportions of ever using PMP data under a random effects model due to the heterogeneity between studies, using the Freeman-Tukey Double Transformation to stabilize variances. We present the proportion of providers using PMP as a range and a pooled estimate with 95% confidence interval (CI). We also examined rates of PMP data use by provider type. Finally, we present data on the proportion of providers who reported "always using PMP data while prescribing" in our meta-summary. Always using PMP data was presented as mean and standard deviation. Other measures of frequency of use were not pooled due to significant heterogeneity.

Barriers associated with using PMP data were synthesized with qualitative meta-summary methods [35]. Barriers (and the percentage of respondents reporting them) were first extracted at the study level in the context of each individual study and were then coded, compared, and combined by theme through the use of data maps. For syntheses and ease of interpretation, we categorized barriers, as mentioned above, into: those reported by <50% of the study sample (defined as a less common barrier), those reported by ≥50% of the study population (defined as a more common barrier), and those reported by an unknown percentage (i.e., those identified in a qualitative meta-summary, labeled as a general barrier) of the study population.

Results

Searches

Using the search strategy outlined above, we initially identified 1,490 unique records (Figure 1) and reviewed 192 of these publications in full text. In total, we identified 53 studies (56 publications) that met the inclusion for our review, of which 46 reported on PMP data use and 32 identified barriers to PMP data use (Supplementary Appendix B) [36–38].

Study Characteristics

All included studies were conducted in the United States and covered a range of health care professionals: prescriber populations, including physicians (23 studies), dentists (1 study), nurse practitioners (5 studies); administrative populations (i.e., PMP and health care administrators; 3 studies); and pharmacists (13 studies). Many studies identified the health care professionals included in their study broadly, using terms such as providers (7 studies), clinicians (2 studies), or prescribers (7 studies), and 13 studies looked at more than one specific group of health care professionals. Study participation/response rates varied greatly between studies, from 4% to 100%. Specific characteristics of the PMPs and their implementation were not well described in the studies and were therefore not included in our analysis. However, to add context when discussing specific studies, up-to-date information on the current status of PMPs in different jurisdictions within the United States was collected from "PDMP Assist" and is presented in Supplementary Appendix C.

Methodological Quality

The included studies were of variable methodological quality (Supplementary Appendix D). The highest area of concern for study quality among quantitative studies was poor response rates, which were reported to be as low as 4%. Other areas of concern across studies included whether the data were adequately described, replicability of methods, the use of validated instruments to collect observations, justification of the sample size, and the selection of a representative sample, particularly given the use of convenience sampling approaches in many studies (Table 1).

We identified three main areas of concern for qualitative study results: the appropriateness of the recruitment strategy, whether the relationship between researcher and participants was addressed, and the rigor of data analysis (Table 1). In all, qualitative studies were good with respect to their comprehensive assessment of barriers to PMP. Of the 13, six studies used some sort of framework, approach, or method from the literature to describe barriers, and the rest either thematically coded barriers (four studies) or had predefined groupings for barriers based on the structure of questions (three studies).

Among the 46 included studies (131,587 participants) reporting data use, the most common outcome reported was the proportion of prescribers or dispensers who have

"ever" used PMP data. This outcome was reported in 26 studies representing 30 unique prescriber/dispenser groups (107,998 participants), with proportions of "ever use" of PMP data ranging from 0.08 to 1.00 (Figure 2) [23–25, 27, 28, 39–59]. Overall, the pooled proportion of health care providers who have ever used PMP data was 0.57 (95% CI: 0.48–0.66). Among the health care providers included in these studies, physicians and pharmacists were the two specific groups studied most often, in fourteen and seven studies, respectively. The pooled proportions of physicians (0.63; 95% CI: 0.43–0.81) and pharmacists (0.57; 95% CI: 0.41–0.73) ever using PMP data did not differ significantly. There were no observable differences in data use by year of study publication (Supplementary Appendix E).

Another 24 studies (108,327 participants) reported on other measures of frequency of PMP data use [22, 23, 27, 28, 39, 41, 43, 46, 47, 50, 56, 57, 60–71]. Frequency of use was defined either within a specified time frame (i.e., past week, past month, over study period) or in specific scenarios (i.e., when prescribing to a new patient or to high-risk patients). A common measure of frequency of use was the proportion of health care professionals who "always" checked or used PMP data when making a prescribing or dispensing decision, which was reported by 11 studies (4,919 participants) [23, 24, 43, 46, 52, 56, 60, 61, 65, 67, 71].

Across these 11 studies, there was a low percentage of health care providers who always used PMP data when making prescribing or dispensing decisions, ranging from 0% to 68% (mean [SD]: 18.7% [18.4%]). Three studies reported a percentage of health care providers who always used PMP data that was markedly higher than the mean: Blum (2016), Fleming (2014), and Chaudhary (2017) [56, 60, 61].

Barriers to PMP Data Utilization

From the 32 studies (11,266 participants) that discussed barriers to PMP data use, we identified 18 groups of barriers (Table 2) [23–25, 27, 28, 41–47, 49, 50, 54–56, 58, 59, 64, 66, 67, 71–80].

Time constraints were the most commonly identified barrier. Time constraints were identified as a less common barrier in eight studies [24, 27, 41, 45, 54–56, 67], a more common barrier in five studies [23, 43, 46, 47, 74], and a general barrier in another five studies [50, 64, 71, 78, 80]. This was represented by reports from health care providers that the process of obtaining information from the PMP to advise prescribing or dispensing situations, specifically in the processes of logging in or retrieving information, was too time consuming.

Issues with system slowness were identified as a less common barrier in five studies [24, 27, 41, 44, 55], a more common barrier in three studies [44, 74, 79], and a general barrier in seven studies [50, 64, 71, 72, 76, 78, 80]. Specific issues included lag times in system updates, as well as infrequent updates, the "timing out" of data access requests, and the lack of timely receipt of information from the system (including inability to query in real time). These issues impact the utility of PMPs for health care providers in a prescribing or dispensing situation.

Related to system issues are issues with usability and a lack of training or guidance in using the PMP. Issues with usability were identified as a less common barrier in ten studies [23, 28, 41, 43, 45, 47, 55, 56, 67, 75], a more common barrier in two studies [54, 74], and a general barrier in seven studies [49, 64, 72, 73, 77, 78, 80]. The issue of a lack of training or guidance in using the PMP was identified as a less common barrier in one study [79], a more common barrier in one study [74], and a general barrier in three studies [42, 64, 71]. Usability issues, including difficulty accessing or navigating the PMP and interpreting the data, could promote a lack of confidence in using the PMP that may prompt health care providers to identify the need for better training or guidance.

Not seeing the value in PMP data was identified as a less common barrier in ten studies [23, 28, 41, 44, 45, 47, 55, 56, 58, 79] and a general barrier in four studies (it was not identified in any study as a more common barrier) [42, 71, 72, 74]. Most often, this was reported as providers feeling that the use of PMPs would not impact their clinical practice. Other reports included not wanting to use PMP data or feeling that they could rely on their instincts in prescribing or dispensing situations.

Along with this, health care professionals expressed that PMPs inhibited their ability to prescribe, impairing their autonomy and raising concerns about patient privacy. This was identified as a less common barrier in six studies [43, 46, 55, 56, 58, 66] and a general barrier in two studies (it was not identified in any study as a more common barrier) [64, 72]. This is linked to a concern that PMPs may result in patients being under-treated (one less common and one general) [56, 72].

Health care providers were also concerned about patient satisfaction ratings and patient flow. This was identified as a less common barrier in two studies [43, 79] and a general barrier in two studies (it was not identified in any study as a more common barrier) [64, 78].

Less frequently acknowledged barriers included the lack of incentives to use the PMP (one less common [47] and two general [64, 78]), the perception that the data collected for PMPs were not reliable (two less common [44, 56], one more common [44], and two general [64, 73]), and a lack of support from PMP administrators (three less common) [27, 28, 43]. Others included an inability to delegate access to staff (three less common [27, 28, 74] and three general [72, 73, 78]), a feeling that the PMP did not provide the type of data a health care provider needed to make dispensing decisions (two less common [55, 56] and three general [42, 50, 72]), and a lack of integration and data sharing across PMP systems in different jurisdictions (two more common [56, 74] and five general [50, 72, 73, 76, 80]). Further barriers related to usability included the availability of the technology required to use the PMP (five less common [25, 27, 28, 41, 47], one more common [79], and two general [64, 77]) and problems with log-in credentials (four more common [24, 41, 47, 56] and four general [49, 64, 73, 76]). Finally, there was an identified lack of awareness of the PMP system (four more common [44, 47, 59, 79] and three less common [27, 28, 45]), as well as problems in registering for the PMP (eight more common [27, 28, 41, 44, 46, 47, 56, 67], one less common [79], and two general [64, 78]).

Discussion

This systematic review identified a significant body of literature on PMP data use and barriers, with 46 identified studies examining PMP data use and 32 identified studies looking at barriers to PMP data use.

Only half of health care providers have ever used PMP data, and on average only about 20% check the system with each prescribing or dispensing decision. Some studies lacked detail that would allow us to distinguish whether "always use" was measured only within the context that the PMP should be used, or simply for every visit. Therefore, we are unable to distinguish "always use" from "always use in the appropriate scenario," where the appropriate scenario is use of the PMP in cases in which opioids or other controlled substances are being prescribed or filled. The wide range in health care professionals who had ever used a PMP could be influenced by the unique characteristics of the PMP itself (i.e., mandatory PMP use or training) or the study design.

We were unable to study the unique characteristics of the PMPs because of the insufficiency of information on the PMP itself in the studies; however, we were able to summarize information from "PDMP Assist" (Supplementary Appendix C) to add context and hypothesize about our results below. One characteristic we discuss below is mandatory use. There are many complex factors of mandatory PMP use, particularly with regard to the degree to which mandatory use is expected (i.e., only for certain substances, or certain providers, or under suspicious circumstances) and how it would be enforced. As such, we were unable to fully explore the impact of mandatory PMP use laws/declarations on actual PMP use by health care providers, nor have we included this information in Supplementary Appendix C (characteristics of PMPs). However, some information on mandatory use can be obtained from the "PDMP Assist" website [81]. How information on use was gathered would also affect reported estimates, including whether data was collected from surveys or in a cohort study, while the response rate and those who agree to participate may capture different levels of PMP users. The year of the study did not seem to have an impact on use as per our sensitivity analysis. This may be due to the different timelines for PMP implementation and uptake in each jurisdiction.

When comparing the characteristics of PMPs (see Supplementary Appendix C) in studies in the top 15% of PMP ever use [23, 24, 39, 50, 52] against those in the bottom 15% of PMP ever use [27, 28, 42, 51, 55], the only difference of note is the inclusion of mandatory training. None of the jurisdictions in the studies in the bottom 15% of PMP ever use currently have mandatory training, whereas jurisdictions in three of the five studies in the top 15% of PMP ever use currently have mandatory training, which suggests that it may play a role in facilitating greater PMP use. We also compared whether either solicited, or solicited and unsolicited, reports to prescribers and dispensers had any impact on ever use of PMPs. We determined whether reports were solicited, or solicited and unsolicited, by the jurisdiction in which the study took place, using information in Supplementary Appendix C, for those studies that reported ever use and were conducted in just one jurisdiction (19 out of the 26 studies reporting ever use). For reports to prescribers, there were only slight differences in the percentage of ever use according to whether reports were solicited or solicited and unsolicited (59% vs. 52%, respectively). However, for reports to dispensers, there was a greater difference in the percentage of ever use depending on whether reports were solicited or solicited and unsolicited (53% vs. 69%, respectively); however, the latter figure is based on only four studies.

Three studies reported notably higher frequencies of health care providers always using PMP data. Features of these studies that may have accounted for those high frequencies are mandatory use [82], timeliness of data availability [83], law enforcement connection [84], and provider groups [85]. Mandating the use of PMPs may generate greater use, though it does not generate perfect compliance [56]. Targeting the timeliness and ease of accessing data might increase PMP use by addressing numerous identified barriers (Table 2) [61]. More immediate data availability, as well as law enforcement involvement, may stress the importance of checking PMP data. Finally, though many health care professional groups were assessed, a study of nurse practitioners showed higher levels of always using the PMP [60]. Specific provider groups might be more engaged with using the PMP, and understanding why that is the case could be important in developing interventions to increase PMP data use overall.

Barriers that contribute to the low overall utilization of PMPs are important targets for policy and system planning. Many of the barriers identified by health care providers were strongly interrelated and point largely to system-level changes. The largest of these were related to time and usability. To increase use, PMP administrators must look at ways to simplify and speed up the process of accessing PMP data, to increase confidence and ease of using the system among health care providers. Because health care providers already have such a brief time to interact with patients, any improvements to system speed and usability may alleviate the burden of limited time. An intervention to improve PMP literacy may further support this aim and may reassure health care providers by helping them understand the information that the PMP provides, why it is necessary for public health safety, and how patient privacy/confidentiality is protected.

Although these are not the only barriers identified, finding resolutions to these common perceived barriers might be expected to facilitate an increase in PMP data use. Health care professionals have themselves stated that the removal of barriers would increase their day-to-day use of their PMP [24]. Administrators and policy makers have incentive and justification, and now information, to allocate resources toward removing barriers to PMP use.

Better-controlled prescribing (including the use of PMP data) may help to reduce harms directly, through controlling inappropriate prescribing, and indirectly, by reducing the number of problem users. Our finding that PMP data use is low and that many barriers exist to using PMP data demonstrates that this tool is not being used to its fullest potential and could potentially have a larger positive impact on the opioid crisis in reducing misuse and potential harms.

The data collected on PMP data use may be biased in several ways and should be interpreted with caution. The main concerns identified in our critical appraisal of the literature included sampling methods, low response rates, and whether nonresponders may have been systematically different from responders in terms of the outcome of interest. This low response rate and lack of information on nonresponders is problematic, as it not possible to assess whether responders and nonresponders were systematically different from one another. It is likely that those who responded were more actively engaged in the use of PMPs and hold stronger opinions about PMPs. This could have caused an overestimation of the proportion of health care providers who use PMPs and could have inflated the reporting of barriers. Furthermore, there is the potential for biases to emerge in self-reported studies, including social desirability and recall bias. This should not detract from the large number of studies that were identified and pooled for this analysis, which is a study strength.

It is also important to note that we were unable to distinguish between "PMP use" and "appropriate use of a PMP" because of the lack of detail in the included studies. This is a limitation, as we know all use is not created equal. Nevertheless, through this review, we were still able to synthesize information on patterns of use, which has been a gap in the literature.

Another important consideration is that all studies included in this review are from the United States. Although the identified barriers in U.S. studies may be applicable to similar PMP systems in Canada, they may not be applicable to more integrated prescription systems, as are found in many parts of Europe. As such, primary studies are required in both Europe and Canada, as they are both embedded in different health care systems. Additionally, whether or not a jurisdiction has mandatory PMP checking is likely an important characteristic of the PMP that may have contributed to the varying rates of use reported above. Lastly, it should be acknowledged that the mere existence of a PMP may produce a benefit, regardless of its barriers or usage, as it serves as a reminder to prescribe opioids with careful consideration.

The findings from this review may have implications for other studies and reviews examining aspects of PMP utilization or effectiveness, as we know there are barriers that would directly impact use and indirectly impact effectiveness. Two recent systematic reviews of the impact of PMP status on prescribing and overdose outcomes found unclear and mixed results [86, 87]. In both cases, the barriers and low usage levels of PMPs identified in our review may help explain the uncertainty in relationships between PMPs and outcomes. In terms of future studies, we note that among the studies in this review, PMPs (their implementation and features) were not well described. Rather than assessing simply the presence or absence of a PMP, future research should assess the impact of different features or different modes of implementation of PMPs on use and effectiveness.

Conclusion

This review has described the current use of PMP data among health care providers and has highlighted several key barriers experienced by health care providers in their daily use of PMP data. PMPs remain a vital tool to help combat the potential harms associated with prescription opioid misuse. Although these tools are present in most jurisdictions in North America, PMPs remain sorely underutilized, and many barriers to use have been identified. For PMPs to reach their fullest potential for health care providers, patients, and the public, these barriers must be removed or reduced. This review represents a first step in cataloging PMP use barriers for PMP administrators so that meaningful changes can be implemented.

ABSTRACT Forty states mandate that providers query their patients' prescription histories in the state's prescription drug monitoring program (PDMP) before prescribing controlled substances. However, little is known about providers' use of PDMPs, either with or without a mandate. We measured the share of opioid prescriptions with PDMP queries in Kentucky from 2010 to 2018, before and after the implementation of the first comprehensive PDMP mandate in the US. Providers queried the PDMP for 12 percent of opioid prescriptions before the mandate; after the mandate, they queried for 56 percent of prescriptions. The share of prescriptions queried was lowest for patients without recent opioid use (3 percent before the mandate, 25 percent after) and highest for pain management specialists (31 percent before, 72 percent after). Over time, high-compliance providers reduced prescribing to the riskiest patients, whereas low-compliance providers continued to prescribe to them. Although the share of prescriptions queried greatly increased after the mandate, compliance remained incomplete, including for patients with high-risk patterns of opioid use.

Prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs)—databases that track all controlled substance prescription fills and supply providers with patients' prescription histories—represent one of the most significant policy responses to the opioid epidemic. Every state but one has established a PDMP, and in recent years many have enacted legislation to make their programs more effective.[1] Early PDMPs did not require providers to have an account or to access the database before prescribing. Under these conditions, provider engagement was limited,[2–4] which may be why early studies found no effect of PDMPs on opioid prescribing.[5–8]

By 2019 forty states had laws requiring prescribers to query their PDMP before prescribing opioids and other controlled substances.[9] Kentucky established the first such comprehensive law, effective July 20, 2012. The law requires all providers licensed to prescribe controlled substances to register with the state's PDMP, the Kentucky All Schedule Prescription Electronic Reporting system (KASPER). Providers are also required, with limited exceptions, to query KASPER for a report before prescribing to new patients and to query every three months for continuing patients. Failure to comply can result in disciplinary action, including emergency suspension or restriction of the provider's license.

Research suggests that PDMP mandates significantly reduce opioid prescriptions, particularly those written for patients whose prescription histories are suggestive of "doctor shopping," as well as overdose deaths from prescription opioids.[10–18] Research on the Kentucky mandate in particular has found reductions in opioid supply and risky patterns of use.[14,15,18,19] level data set from KASPER to measure the share of opioid prescriptions with an associated query both before and after Kentucky's mandate. To our knowledge, this study is the first to offer direct evidence on compliance with a PDMP mandate. Direct observation of PDMP queries revealed how the probability of querying prescriptions varied with patient and provider characteristics. In addition, direct measures of querying compliance can inform the policy evaluation of PDMP mandates by measuring the extent to which a mandate changes providers' engagement with the PDMP.

Study Data And Methods

DATA SOURCES AND STUDY POPULATION We obtained KASPER data for 2010–18 via a data use agreement. The data track Schedule II–V outpatient controlled substance prescriptions filled in Kentucky as well as all queries of KASPER patient histories made by providers. The University of Michigan Institutional Review Board approved the study.

The 2012 law pertains only to providers' use of KASPER reports, not the reporting of prescriptions to the monitoring system, which is performed by pharmacies. Comparisons with federal data sources suggest that KASPER captures roughly 95 percent of all opioids distributed in Kentucky.[15] For all analyses we limited the sample to prescriptions written by Kentucky medical providers and filled by Kentucky patients. We excluded dentists because the dental licensing board did not finalize its regulations until 2015.

Each KASPER prescription record contains the following fields: fill date; National Drug Code; number of units; days supplied; patient ZIP code; and encrypted identifiers for patient, prescriber, and pharmacy. Starting in April 2014 KASPER also required dispensers to report the type of payment used to purchase a prescription. We converted each prescription to its morphine-equivalent dosage.[20,21] We further limited the sample to opioids covered by the mandate: Schedule II opioids and Schedule III drugs containing hydrocodone.

KASPER supplied data on queries aggregated to the provider-patient-month level. It also reported provider type or specialty for all registered providers. Providers who never registered prescribed 6 percent of opioids, and we imputed their specialty as described in the online appendix.[22]

MEASURING THE SHARE OF PRESCRIPTIONS QUERIED We defined a binary "querying" measure that operationalizes the requirements that went into effect in 2012. For Schedule II or hydrocodone-containing Schedule III outpatient prescriptions, providers were required to conduct a query initially for all new patients and at least once every three months for continuing patients. Thus, we considered a prescription "queried" if the provider queried the patient in the month the prescription was filled or one of the previous four months.[23]

The mandate exempts prescriptions related to cancer, hospice, or end-of-life treatment, as well as prescriptions of fourteen days or less associated with surgery or trauma. We assumed that all patients who ever got a PDMP-covered prescription from a hematologist, oncologist, or hospice/palliative care physician were patients with cancer or end-of-life patients and that all of their prescriptions were exempt. We also assumed that prescriptions from surgical or emergency specialists for fourteen days or fewer were exempt. See the appendix for details on exempt prescriptions.[22]

The Kentucky mandate allowed providers to designate nonprescribing employees to access the system via delegate accounts. KASPER data capture all such queries, and we assigned them to the delegating provider. Providers were also in compliance with the mandate if another provider, such as a partner in their practice, conducted a query on their behalf. In the appendix we describe a procedure for measuring potential "unofficial delegates" and show that accommodating them had little effect on our qualitative results.[22] Our main analysis did not account for unofficial delegates.

Patients were divided into three mutually exclusive categories on the basis of their number of opioid prescriptions in the previous six months (across all opioids, not just those subject to mandatory querying), as well as the number of prescribers and Kentucky pharmacies from which they obtained opioids. We classified patients as opioid naïve if they did not fill any opioid prescriptions in the previous six months. Chronic patients received one or more opioid prescriptions, written by four or fewer prescribers and filled at four or fewer Kentucky pharmacies in the previous six months. Because receiving prescriptions from multiple providers is suggestive of "doctor shopping,"[6,13,24] we classified patients as high risk if they filled prescriptions from five or more prescribers or Kentucky pharmacies over the previous six months.

Providers were categorized according to medical specialty and the average number of patients to whom they wrote opioid prescriptions each month. Patients were characterized by use category, sex, and age. We characterized prescriptions by primary ingredient, daily morphine-equivalent dosage, and payment source. We collected county characteristics from other sources: the percentage of the county population that is urban (2010 census), the county's monthly unemployment rate (Bureau of Labor Statistics), and opioid-related mortality in the prior twelve months (National Vital Statistics System).

Our analysis focused on nonexempt opioid prescriptions covered by the mandate. Our analytical sample included 24,702,052 prescriptions written by 19,110 unique providers to 1,857,982 unique patients.[25]

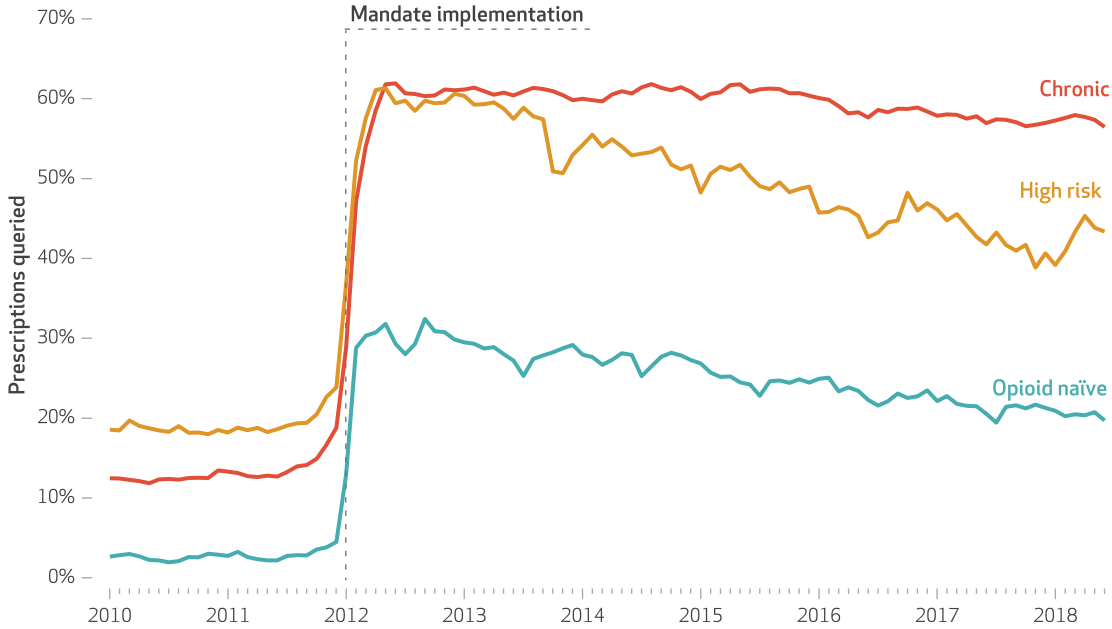
ANALYSIS We plotted trends in the share of prescriptions queried before and after the July 2012 law across provider and patient characteristics. We also computed the share of prescriptions queried in the pre and post periods and the difference for a larger set of provider, patient, prescription, and county characteristics. We estimated a prescription-level logistic regression predicting querying using provider, patient, prescription, and county characteristics interacted with an indicator for the post period. For each characteristic in the logistic regression, we obtained the predictive margin in the pre and post periods and computed the difference.

We also examined how prescribing was distributed across providers of various querying rates. To do so, we classified each provider into one of four categories by their querying rate: providers who queried fewer than 5 percent of prescriptions, those who queried 5–49 percent, those who queried 50–74 percent, and those who queried 75 percent or more. We formed these categories for three distinct periods: the pre period (July 2010–June 2012), the early post period (July 2012–December 2015), and the late post period (2016–18). For each period we calculated the share of prescriptions written by providers at each level of querying for patients of each use category.

LIMITATIONS Our data had several limitations. We were not able to directly observe exemptions from the mandate, and we may have underestimated queries by not counting those made by an "unofficial delegate," such as the coworker of the prescriber. In appendix exhibit S5 we present results using a broader definition of exemptions and including queries from potential unofficial delegates.[22] Our qualitative results were not sensitive to these changes.

The legislation establishing the mandate also introduced new regulations on pain clinics. The law limits ownership of clinics to physicians and requires an on-site physician with appropriate board certification at least 50 percent of the time. It was not possible to disentangle the impacts of the new pain clinic regulations from the mandatory query mandate. However, the pain clinic regulations did not impose query requirements on pain clinics beyond those imposed on all Kentucky providers. In addition, it is evident from our exhibits that the change in querying occurred exactly at the time of the mandate's imposition. Although KASPER officials report the closure of twenty-four pain clinics after the implementation of the new regulations, these closures occurred gradually over the following three years.[15]

Study Results



Consistent with prior studies, we found that the number of mandate-covered opioid prescriptions fell immediately after Kentucky's PDMP mandate went into effect, going from a peak of 366,370 in May 2012 to 290,731 in September 2012, and continued to fall steadily thereafter (see appendix exhibit S4).[22] By May 2018 the total number of monthly prescriptions was 34 percent lower than in 2012. This decline in prescriptions coincided with a large increase in the number of PDMP queries. This increase occurred sharply at the time of mandate implementation: Between May 2012 and September 2012 the share of mandate-covered prescriptions with an associated query increased from 16 percent to 52 percent.

Exhibit 1 reports the share of prescriptions queried by patient opioid history. Before the mandate, queries were most common for prescriptions written for high-risk patients, followed by chronic and opioid-naïve patients. Queries increased for all patient categories immediately after the mandate went into effect. The share of prescriptions that were queried tripled for high-risk patients and increased about sixfold for chronic patients to about 60 percent for both groups. The share of prescriptions queried increased from about 3 percent to 30 percent for opioid-naïve patients. Over time, however, the share of prescriptions queried fell for all patient groups. It decreased most for high-risk patients, to a low of 39 percent by May 2018. The share fell far less for other patients; by May 2018 it had declined to 57 percent for chronic patients and 22 percent for opioid-naïve patients.

The mandate had a substantial impact on the share of prescriptions queried for all provider specialties (exhibit 2). Both before and after the mandate, querying was most common among pain management specialists. Appendix exhibit S1 shows the share of prescriptions queried among providers categorized by the average number of monthly patients.[22] In both the pre and post periods, high-volume providers tended to query more frequently than low-volume providers.

Exhibit 3 presents the share of prescriptions queried by provider and patient characteristics. The first column reports the share of prescriptions in each category. A slight majority of prescriptions were written by primary care physicians, and nearly one-fifth were written by pain management specialists. High-volume prescribers wrote the majority of prescriptions; over 70 percent of prescriptions were written by providers who averaged fifty or more patients per month.

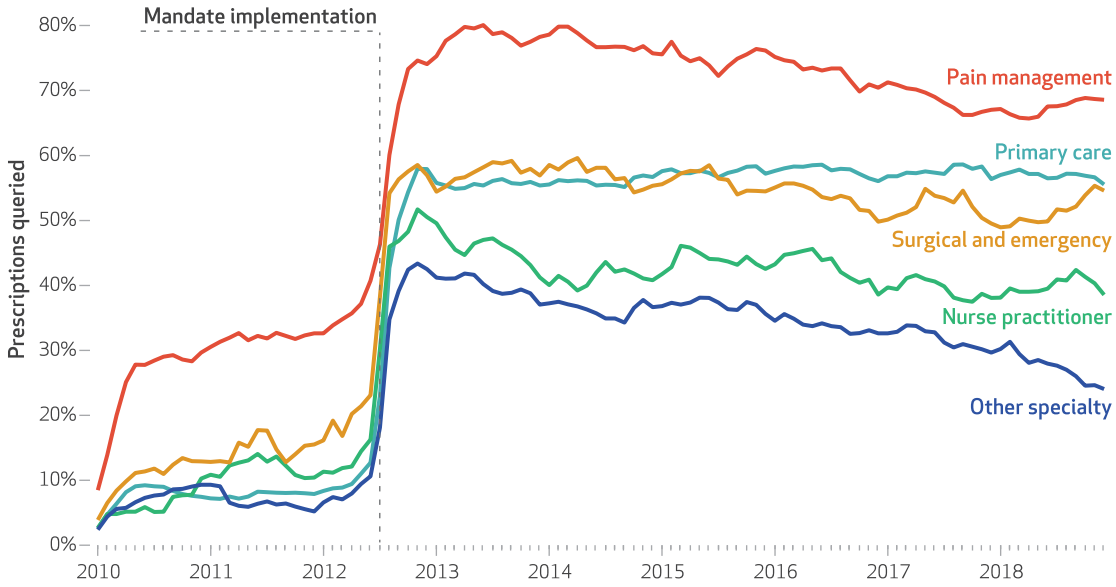

Exhibit 3 also reports the share of prescriptions queried in the pre- and postmandate periods for each characteristic, as well as raw and regression-adjusted differences. Among provider specialties, the share of prescriptions queried increased most among primary care physicians (48 percentage points, to 56 percent), although in the postmandate period, pain management specialists queried a larger share of their prescriptions (72 percent). Characterizing providers by the volume of their opioid-taking patients, those with fifty or more such patients per month increased the share of prescriptions queried by nearly 50 percentage points. Shares of prescriptions queried were low in both the pre and post periods for low-volume prescribers; those who prescribed to fewer than five patients per month only queried for 2 percent of prescriptions before the mandate and 20 percent after. However, these providers accounted for only 3 percent of all prescriptions. Shares of prescriptions queried in both periods were broadly similar across patient demographics, prescription ingredient or strength, and county characteristics (appendix exhibit S10).[22]

Results of our logistic regression show how each characteristic affected the probability of querying a prescription, with other characteristics controlled for, in the pre and post periods (appendix exhibit S2).[22] The results suggest that pain management physicians query a significantly larger share of their prescriptions than other provider types, even after adjustment for differences in their patient pools and prescription types. In addition, the share of prescriptions queried for opioid-naïve patients and low-volume prescribers remained low after adjustment for other characteristics.

In the "Regression adjusted" change column of exhibit 3, we report the pre-post difference in the predictive margins for each characteristic. These results indicate that the mandate had a broadly similar impact across provider and patient characteristics. However, there were significant differences in the adjusted change for the lowest-volume prescribers and chronic patients. The share of prescriptions queried by the lowest-volume prescribers increased less in the post period relative to other providers, and the share queried for chronic patients increased more compared with the shares queried for opioid-naïve or high-risk patients.

Exhibit 4 reports the share of prescriptions written by providers in each of four querying ranges in three periods and for each patient type. (Appendix exhibit S9 repeats exhibit 4 for provider specialty and volume categories.)[22] For each group, the total number of prescriptions in the pre period is normalized to 1.00, and the bars for the subsequent periods reflect the volume relative to the pre period.

In the pre period, opioid-naïve patients received 79 percent of their prescriptions from providers who queried 5 percent or fewer of their opioid prescriptions. Fewer than 1 percent of opioid-naïve patients received prescriptions from providers with query rates of 75 percent or higher. In contrast, chronic and high-risk patients were more likely to receive prescriptions from providers with higher query rates, although even for these patients nearly three-fifths of prescriptions were from providers who queried fewer than 5 percent of prescriptions.

In the early post period the number of opioid prescriptions decreased substantially for all three patient categories. Total opioid prescriptions fell by 21 percent for opioid-naïve, 11 percent for chronic, and 46 percent for high-risk patients (exhibit 4). For each group, as providers increased their querying, the share of prescriptions written by providers with low query rates decreased substantially, and the share written by those with higher rates increased.

By the late post period there were continued reductions in opioid prescribing, particularly among high-risk patients. The reduction in prescribing to the high-risk category was driven almost entirely by providers who queried at least half the time. These reductions suggest that many formerly high-risk patients transitioned to "chronic" status or stopped taking opioids altogether by the late post period (see the transition matrix in appendix exhibit S8).[22] However, the high-risk patient group continued to receive about the same number of prescriptions from providers who queried less than half the time. The fact that the remaining high-risk patients obtained opioids from low-querying providers explains the gradual decline in the

Kentucky's prescription drug monitoring mandate has been held up as a model law. The results of our analysis show that the mandate had the intended effect of increasing providers' use of the PDMP. Before the querying mandate, providers' use of KASPER was low: Only 12 percent of opioid prescriptions had a recent KASPER query. This finding is consistent with research indicating that when use of a PDMP is voluntary, very few providers access the system.[2–4] After the Kentucky mandate went into effect, the share of prescriptions queried rose by 44 percentage points. The mandate's effect was similar across various provider, patient, prescription, and county characteristics.

Even with this increase, however, many providers' use of the system falls short of the level required. After the mandate, query rates remained especially low for patients who had not received any opioid prescriptions in the previous six months. One possible explanation is that doctors may infer that the risk for misuse or diversion is low based on the reason for treatment and information they have on the patient from other sources. However, Kentucky's mandate explicitly requires providers to query the PDMP when prescribing an opioid for the first time to a patient to guard against inappropriate opioid prescribing to patients who misrepresent their symptoms or conditions.

Our analysis of administrative data does not reveal why providers did not query all required prescriptions. Kentucky prescribers were surveyed after the mandate's implementation; a majority of respondents reported that the queries revealed useful information and that disruptions to workflow were limited to a short window after implementation.[19] During the sample period there was not widespread integration of KASPER reports into electronic health records in Kentucky, which would have further lowered the cost of using the PDMP and potentially increased provider engagement.[26] More research is needed on exactly how providers use PDMPs, whether they face barriers to querying, and whether increased querying would improve patient outcomes.

The increase in the share of prescriptions queried coincided with a large decrease in opioid prescriptions. In percentage terms, the decrease was greatest for the small number of patients with high-risk prescription histories, although we also found large decreases among chronic patients and those with no prior opioid use. This pattern is consistent with recent studies analyzing the impact of Kentucky's mandate.[15,18]

The mechanisms underlying these changes may be different for different patient types. Abby Alpert and colleagues suggest that the decline in prescribing for opioid-naïve patients may reflect the fact that physicians are not inclined to incur the "hassle cost" of conducting a PDMP query when the clinical benefit of opioids is not clear.[18] Similarly, in earlier work we found that a small but significant number of low-volume providers stopped prescribing opioids after Kentucky's mandate went into effect, which could be another response to the hassle cost of learning the new system.[15]

Our analysis suggests that for patients with a history of opioid use, the decrease in prescriptions was linked to the increase in queries. Exhibit 4 shows that the prescribing reductions to high-risk patients were concentrated among providers who queried at high rates. High-querying providers continued writing prescriptions to chronic patients whose query histories did not suggest high-risk use.

Our findings suggest that the Kentucky mandate had the desired impact: Providers responded to the information revealed from queries by reducing opioid prescribing to patients with high-risk patterns. A number of states have followed Kentucky's lead in implementing a comprehensive PDMP mandate, although providers' PDMP use is still voluntary in many states. Our findings suggest that these states could reduce opioid prescribing to high-risk patients by mandating use of their PDMPs. ■

Abstract

Clinician use of prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs) has been linked to better patient outcomes, but state requirements to use PDMPs are unevenly enforced. We assessed PDMP use in Minnesota, which requires opioid prescribers to hold accounts and, in most cases, search the PDMP before prescribing, but where enforcement authority is limited. Using 2023 PDMP data, we found that 4 in 10 opioid prescribers did not search and 2 in 10 did not hold an account. PDMP use was strongly associated with prescribing volume, but even among the top decile of opioid prescribers, 8% never searched the PDMP. Thirty-two percent of opioid fills came from clinicians who did not search the PDMP. Failures to use the PDMP may be driven by a lack of information about state requirements, beliefs that these requirements are not enforced, and the costs of accessing the PDMP relative to the benefits. These results highlight the potential for policy makers to promote safer and better-informed prescribing of opioids and other drugs by addressing the forces that have limited PDMP use so far.

Key words: prescription drug monitoring programs; opioids; prescribing; controlled substances.

Introduction

Prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs), databases of controlled-substance dispensing that clinicians can query to monitor patient risk for overdose and other adverse events, currently operate in all states. Despite their ubiquity, research suggests that the benefits of PDMPs alone for patient outcomes are modest.[1] Mandates that require PDMP use have shown more promise, suggesting that clinician engagement is key to the success of these programs.[2,3] Consequently, most states now require that clinicians have PDMP accounts and check the database before prescribing, but these rules are unevenly enforced.[4,5] We examined PDMP use among opioid prescribers in Minnesota, where all controlled-substance prescribers are required to make accounts and search the PDMP before writing most opioid prescriptions but where administrators have limited authority to enforce this mandate.

Data and methods

We obtained data on the universe of Minnesota controlled-substance prescribing, PDMP searches, and PDMP accounts from the Minnesota Prescription Monitoring Program. We then analyzed PDMP search and account-holding by prescriber characteristics for the 180-day period starting February 1, 2023. To identify Minnesota-based prescribers, we used National Plan and Provider Enumeration System data. We identified opioid prescriptions with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) opioid data and drug-name field searches.

To visualize the relationship between opioid-prescribing volume and PDMP use, we divided clinicians into deciles by volume as measured by total opioid-days supplied. To summarize this relationship in tabular form, we aggregated the deciles into 3 groups: below median, above median to below top decile, and top decile. We also classified clinicians by whether they queried the PDMP. Within each subgroup, we assessed clinical specialization, opioid prescribing, and PDMP use.

This study was overseen by Columbia University's Institutional Review Board. We considered P values less than .05 from 2-sided tests to be statistically significant and conducted analyses using Stata/MP 17 (StataCorp).

Results

There were 16 378 clinicians who prescribed opioids (Table 1). A slim majority were physicians and one-third were nurse practitioners or physician assistants. The average prescriber supplied 747 days of opioids to 31.9 distinct patients. While most opioid prescribers engaged with the

This table reports the characteristics of opioid prescribers overall, for subgroups defined by prescribing volume measured in days' supply, and for subgroups defined by whether the clinician searched the PDMP. Prescribing, searching, and account-holding were measured during the 180-day period starting February 1, 2023. Specialization derived from NPPES data. Specialization shares do not sum to 100% because specializations with small shares were omitted from the table. Primary care physicians are defined as those with specialization in Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, or General Practice. Searches that were conducted by a prescriber's PDMP delegates were attributed to that prescriber.

PDMP, many did not: 4 in 10 did not search the PDMP during this period and 2 in 10 did not hold an account.

Prescription drug monitoring program use was more common among higher prescribers (Figure 1). Moving up 1 decile of opioid-prescribing volume was associated with a 6.7% point increase in the probability of searching ($P < .001$) and a 3.2% point increase in the probability of holding an account ($P < .001$). The vast majority of the highest-decile opioid prescribers searched the PDMP. Still, 7.8% of the highest-decile opioid prescribers did not search and 4.26% did not even have an account (Table 1).

Clinicians who did not search the PDMP were disproportionately specialist physicians and generally prescribed less (Table 1). Nonetheless, 32.2% of opioid fills and 11.1% of opioid days came from clinicians who never searched the PDMP.

Discussion

Most clinicians are aware of the risks of opioid prescribing and prescribe opioids safely. Still, we found that a group of clinicians continues to prescribe opioids without using the tools available and required to ensure safe prescribing. The overrepresentation of low-volume prescribers in this group may reflect a lack of information about state mandates. That some of the highest-volume prescribers also do not use the PDMP, however, suggests that some prescribers believe that the mandate is not enforced and/or find the cost of engaging with the PDMP high relative to the benefits. Gaining access to and querying the PDMP may represent yet another time-consuming administrative burden for clinicians.[6-8] Limitations of this study include the use of data from 1 state and lack of detailed patient data.

Conclusion

Our analysis suggests that more work may be needed to engage clinicians in using PDMPs to assess patient opioid-prescribing history. Policy makers can leverage several evidence-based strategies to promote PDMP use based on 2 recent randomized trials. Integrating PDMPs with electronic medical records can increase query rates,[9] and messaging clinicians about state requirements encourages account-holding and querying.[10] These efforts could be paired with other work to reduce clinicians' administrative burdens and provide them with more time for high-value care activities. By addressing informational, administrative, and behavioral barriers, states and health care organizations can raise PDMP engagement and thereby encourage informed prescribing of opioids and other controlled substances.

Abstract

Background—Although prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs) have been widely implemented to potentially reduce abuse of prescription opioids, there is limited data on variations in PDMP use by prescriber specialty. Such knowledge may guide targeted interventions to improve PDMP use.

Methods—Using data from Washington state Medicaid program, we performed a retrospective cohort study of opioid prescribers and their PDMP queries between Nov 1, 2013 to Oct 31, 2014. PDMP registration was mandatory for emergency physicians, but not for other providers. The unit of analysis was the prescriber. The primary outcome was any prescriber queries of the PDMP. We used multivariate regression models to identify variations in PDMP queries by prescriber specialty, as well as to explore explanatory pathways for observed variations.

Results—We studied 17,390 providers who prescribed opioids, including 8,718 (50%) who were not registered with PDMP, 4,767 (27%) who were registered but had no recorded use of the PDMP, and 3,905 (23%) PDMP users (queries/ user: median 18, IQR 5-64). Compared to general medicine physicians, PDMP use was higher for emergency physicians (OR 1.4, 95%CI: 1.2-1.7), and lower for surgical specialists (OR 0.1, 95%CI:0.08-0.1), obstetrician-gynecologists (OR 0.2, 95%CI: 0.1-0.2) and dentists (OR 0.4, 95%CI: 0.4-0.5). Higher use by emergency physicians appeared to be mediated by higher registration rates, rather than by provider level predilection to use the PDMP.

Conclusions—A minority of opioid prescribers to Medicaid beneficiaries used the PDMP. We identified variations in PDMP use by prescriber specialty. Interventions to increase PDMP queries should target both PDMP registration and PDMP use after registration, as well as specialties with current low use rates.

1. Introduction

1.1. Background

Drug overdoses are now the top reason for unintentional mortality in the United States, and prescription opioid abuse is a major contributor to this public health crisis.(Seth, Scholl, Rudd, & Bacon, 2018; "CDC. Prescription opioid overdose data.," 2016) Nearly all states have adopted prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs) that track dispensed controlled substances to unique patients.(Gugelmann & Perrone, 2011) PDMP data may help providers improve opioid prescribing behaviors, particularly to patients with a prior history of high-risk prescription opioid use. State-level data suggest that introduction of PDMPs may be reduce opioid supply and opioid “shopping” behavior.(Buchmueller & Carey, 2017; Pardo, 2016)

1.2. Importance

Preliminary studies suggest that, in the past, prescribers and pharmacists rarely use PDMPs(Feldman, Williams, Coates, & Knox, 2011; McCauley, Leite, Melvin, Fillingim, & Brady, 2016; Perrone, DeRoos, & Nelson, 2012; H. W. Young, 2nd, Tyndall, & Cottler, 2017) due to logistic and time constraints.(Greenwood-Ericksen, Poon, Nelson, Weiner, & Schuur, 2016; Poon et al., 2016) States have responded with a variety of policies, including requirements for mandatory PDMP use prior to opioid prescribing(Buchmueller & Carey, 2017) and integrated systems that “push” PDMP data to emergency department physicians. ("Washington ACEP. EDIE and PMP Integration," 2015)

However, there are limited data on variation of PDMP use by prescriber specialty. Prior studies of prescriber PDMP use are limited by survey methodology, low response rates, and potential recall and selection bias.(Feldman et al., 2011; McCauley et al., 2016; Perrone et al., 2012; H. W. Young, 2nd et al., 2017) Furthermore, these surveys have typically targeted prescribers within specific specialties, limiting generalizability across all prescribers.

Improving knowledge of prescriber use patterns is essential for developing targeted interventions to improve PDMP use (e.g. directed at low-utilizing specialties). Identifying potential mechanisms to improve PDMP use is particularly important for prescribers to Medicaid beneficiaries, who have an six-fold increased risk of opioid overdose compared to other insured populations.("CDC. Overdose deaths involving prescription opioids among medicaid enrollees - Washington, 2004-2007," 2009)

1.3. Goals of This Investigation

Using linked PDMP provider, query, and dispense files, we assessed prescriber specialty variation in PDMP use among opioid prescribers to Washington state Medicaid beneficiaries.

We further explored whether variations in PDMP query rates were mediated by registration rates or by predilection to use the PDMP among registrants. We exploited a natural policy experiment which required emergency physicians, but not other specialists, to register for the PDMP.

2. Methods

2.1. Study Design and Cohort Selection

We performed a retrospective cohort study of providers who prescribed opioids to Medicaid beneficiaries during the one-year period between November 1, 2013 and October 31, 2014. The Washington state PDMP started data collection on Schedule II III, IV, and V drugs starting October 2011. Prescriber and prescriber delegates could register for PDMP access using an online process. Starting in July 2012, all emergency physicians in Washington state were required to be registered with the PDMP.(Sun, Lupulescu-Mann, et al., 2017) Hospitals attested to compliance with this requirement. There have been no other registration or use requirements for other prescribers. In November 2014, Washington state began implementation of an automated PDMP query intervention in all non-federal emergency departments (EDs). This initiative increased the proportion of ED visits with a validated PDMP query from 4 to 70%.(Sun, Charlesworth, et al., 2017) To isolate the predictors of voluntary PDMP use from the effects of this policy intervention, we restricted the current study to the period prior to the automated ED PDMP queries.

We included health care providers if they wrote at least five opioid prescriptions for Medicaid beneficiaries during the study period and had a Drug Enforcement Agency number registered in Washington state.

The Washington state PDMP identified opioid prescribers to Medicaid beneficiaries, and provided dispense, prescriber, and query files to the study team. The dispense file included all instances of controlled substance dispensing to Medicaid beneficiaries. The prescriber file included specialty and PDMP registration status for unique prescribers in the dispense files. The query file included all PDMP queries on patients with a prior controlled substance dispense. Queries on patients without any prior controlled substance dispense are not recorded by the PDMP.

The Institutional Review Boards of Washington State and of Oregon Health & Science University approved this study.

2.2. Outcomes

The primary outcome was any recorded PDMP query made by a prescriber during the study period.

2.3. Provider Specialty

The PDMP vendor linked self-reported National Prescriber Identifier specialty data to the prescriber file.("Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services. National Provider Identifier Registry," 2017) We aggregated specialty categories that were provided in the prescriber file (Appendix Table).

2.4. Co-variates

Increased volume of opioid prescribing may be correlated with PDMP use. If true, then measures of opioid prescribing frequency would potentially confound the relationship between specialty and PDMP use. To control for confounding, we used PDMP dispense data to create variables that describe past opioid prescribing. These variables included the total number of patients that each provider prescribed opioids for during the one year study period, as well as the total dispensed morphine milligram equivalents (MMEs) prescribed by each provider. We calculated MMEs using the following conversion factors("Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. Opioid Morphine Equivalent Conversion Factors," 2015; "Oregon Health & Science University. Guideline for Safe Chronic Opioid Therapy Prescribing For Patients with Chronic Noncancer Pain," 2014; Paulozzi, Kilbourne, & Desai, 2011): codeine-0.15; fentanyl citrate-0.13; fentanyl patch-7.2; hydrocodone-1; hydromorphone-4; levorphanol-11; meperidine-0.1; methadone-3; morphine- 1; oxycodone-1.5; oxymorphone-3; and tapentadol- 0.4. We only considered oral / transdermal formulations.

2.5. Analysis

We wished to explore two possible, non-exclusive mechanisms for variations in PDMP use by specialty. First, there may be variations in registration by specialty, i.e. non-registered prescribers never have the opportunity to query the PDMP. Second, there may be variation in PDMP use among registered prescribers by specialty.

We generated descriptive tables of the prescriber cohort, stratified by the following three categories (1) Not registered with the PDMP, (2) Registered with the PDMP, but with no recorded PDMP query, and (3) Registered with the PDMP, and has at least one recorded PDMP query for the study year.

We used a multivariate logistic regression model to assess the association between any recorded PDMP query and prescriber specialty. The model included the two potential confounders described above. The unit of analysis was an individual prescriber, and all prescribers were included in the regression analysis regardless of PDMP registration status.

Author Manuscript Author Manuscript Author Manuscript Author Manuscript

Because of right skewed data, we parameterized continuous variables using indicators for quintile values.

Using the same variables, we performed two additional logistic regression analyses to understand the reason for differences in PDMP use by specialty. First, we assessed the association between provider level variables and PDMP registration. Second, we assessed the association between provider level variables and PDMP use among those prescribers who were registered for the PDMP.

All data management and statistical analyses were performed in R version 3.3.2("R: A language and environment for statistical computing," 2015) and STATA MP 14.0.

3. Results

Our study cohort included 17,390 providers (Figure 1) who prescribed controlled substances to 506,249 Medicaid beneficiaries, including 1,739,672 opioid prescriptions Table 1 describes 8,718 (50%) prescribers who were not registered with PDMP, 4,767 (27%) who were registered but had no recorded use of the PDMP during the study period, and 3,905 (23%) PDMP users.

There were a total of 339,731 PDMP queries. Among PDMP users, there was large variation in the annual number of PDMP queries with a right skewed distribution (Median 18, IQR 5-64 Mean 87.0, SD 413.1). Comparing PDMP users to registered non-users, and registered non-users to unregistered prescribers, there were higher numbers of patients receiving prescription opioids, and a higher number of MMEs per prescriber.

There was marked variation by prescriber specialty in PDMP registration and use. General medicine and emergency medicine physicians had the highest rates of registration and use, whereas surgical specialists, obstetrician-gynecologists, and dentists had lower rates of registration and use.

The adjusted association between prescriber specialty and recorded PDMP use are presented in Table 2. Compared to general medicine practitioners, PDMP use was higher for emergency physicians (OR 1.4, 95%CI: 1.2-1.7), and lower for surgical specialists (OR 0.1, 95%CI: 0.08-0.1), obstetrician-gynecologists (OR 0.2, 95%CI: 0.1-0.2) and dentists (OR 0.4, 95%CI: 0.4-0.5). Prescribers aggregated into the “other” category were slightly less likely to use the PDMP (OR 0.8, 95%CI: 0.7-0.9).

Association of prescriber specialty with PDMP registration is presented in Table 3. Compared to general medicine practitioners, PDMP registration was highest for emergency physicians (OR 4.2, 95%CI 3.3-5.4), which is consistent with state mandates. Registration of all other specialty types was significantly lower than general medicine practitioners.

Finally, association between prescriber specialty and any recorded PDMP use conditional on PDMP registration is presented in Table 4. Compared to general medicine practitioners, PDMP use was similar for emergency physicians (OR 0.9, 95%CI: 0.7-1.0), and lower for surgical specialists (OR 0.3, 95%CI: 0.2-0.5), obstetrician-gynecologists (OR 0.2, 95%CI: 0.2-0.3) and dentists (OR 0.6, 95%CI: 0.5-0.7).

4. Discussion

A minority of opioid prescribers to Washington state Medicaid beneficiaries used the PDMP. Half of prescribers were not registered with the PDMP. Of prescribers who were registered to use the PDMP, over half had no evidence of using the PDMP during the study year. We also identified variations in PDMP use by prescriber specialty. PDMP registration mandates specific to emergency medicine providers appear to have been effective, and increased PDMP use by emergency medicine providers is attributable primarily by higher registration rates rather than greater predilection to use the PDMP among registrants. Interventions to increase PDMP queries should target PDMP registration and specialties with current low use rates.

Our study builds on prior literature by using objective PDMP registration, query, and dispense data across all prescribing specialties. Most prior studies that attempted to quantify PDMP use have been based on physician surveys and have targeted specific specialties (e.g. toxicologists, dentists, or emergency physicians).(Feldman et al., 2011; McCauley et al., 2016; Perrone et al., 2012; H. W. Young, 2nd et al., 2017) Survey response rates in these studies have ranged from 4-61%, and reported PDMP use was not verified against objective data.

We found that general medicine and emergency medicine physicians had the highest rates of registration and use, whereas surgical specialists, obstetrician-gynecologists, and dentists had lower rates of registration and use. Our findings are concordant with a prior study by Irvine et.al. that combined Oregon PDMP registry data with a prescriber survey.(Irvine et al., 2014) They found that emergency medicine, pain and addiction, and primary care specialties were heavily represented in the any-user group, whereas surgeons, dentists, and psychiatrists were more heavily represented in the non-user group. Registered users of the PDMP reported prescribing all classes of controlled substances more often than non-registrants. However, many non-registrants also reported frequent prescribing of controlled substances.

During the study period, Washington state had PDMP registration mandates for emergency medicine specialists but not for any other specialties. Our results demonstrated that overall use of the PDMP by emergency medicine providers were driven by increased registration rates, rather than a greater tendency to use the PDMP despite multiple policies aimed at reducing emergency department opioid prescribing. (Sun, Lupulescu-Mann, et al., 2017) These results provide support of the effectiveness of Washington state's registration mandate, and suggest potential approaches to improving PDMP use consistent with the recommendations of a prior expert panel process. First, PDMP enrollment should be mandatory for all prescribers.(Greenwood-Ericksen et al., 2016) Over 20 states already have such requirements. To minimize burden on prescribers, PDMP enrollment could be automated and linked with renewal of state professional licensure. Second, policy makers should consider mandatory PDMP use prior to opioid prescription. Recent evaluations suggest that the requirement for mandatory PDMP use is associated with reduced opioid prescribing to high-risk patients and less “shopping” behavior (multiple prescribers and/ or pharmacies for controlled substances)(Buchmueller & Carey, 2017; Pardo, 2016), and at least ten states already have such requirements.(Buchmueller & Carey, 2017) Third, logistical barriers to PDMP use should be minimized. A time-motion study of the Massachusetts PDMP found that a single query required nearly 4 minutes of provider time.(Poon et al., 2016) A potential solution is to automate PDMP queries and to integrate these data into existing EMRs. For example, Washington state has recently implemented an automated PDMP query system for all non-federal emergency departments.(Sun, Charlesworth, et al., 2017)

We did note that 12.7% of self-identified emergency physicians were not registered with the PDMP. Hospitals attested to the compliance of their eligible providers for the mandated PDMP registration requirement. However, to our knowledge, there was no state verification of compliance. Two possible reasons for the observed non-registration rate include: 1. Eligible providers did not register; 2. Self-reported classification was inaccurate (e.g. provider did not work in an ED environment at the time of the study. Our findings suggest that compliance with registration mandates be verified by objective PDMP data.

We found evidence of differential PDMP registration and use by specialty. These findings may be influenced by differences in practice culture and knowledge about the PDMP among specialties. These data could support professional society specific efforts to educate members about the opioid crisis and best prescribing practices. For example, there is increasing interest focused on opioid prescribing behaviors of dentists(Denisco et al., 2011) and surgeons.("American College of Surgeons. Surgeon Stewardship of the Opioid Epidemic," 2017)

Our recommendations are predicated on the assumption that PDMP use results in better patient outcomes through fewer overdose events. There is conflicting evidence on PDMP efficacy. Recent studies support the efficacy of PDMP in reducing opioid shopping behavior and overdose events(Bao et al., 2016; Buchmueller & Carey, 2017;Moyo et al., 2017; Patrick, Fry, Jones, & Buntin, 2016; Wen, Schackman, Aden, & Bao, 2017), although these findings are not universal.(Deyo et al., 2017; Nam, Shea, Shi, & Moran, 2017; Sun, Charlesworth, et al., 2017; Yarbrough, 2017) PDMP characteristics such as mandatory registration(Wen et al., 2017), mandatory use(Brown et al., 2017; Buchmueller & Carey, 2017; Pardo, 2016; Suffoletto, Lynch, Pacella, Yealy, & Callaway, 2017), clinical decision support, and monitoring of high risk activity(Pardo, 2016) are associated with greater efficacy. Several studies also suggest that providers alter prescribing behavior when given unsolicited PDMP data.(Baehren et al., 2010; Gonzalez & Kolbasovsky, 2012; L. D. Young, Kreiner, & Panas, 2017)

There are limitations of our study. First, the Washington state PDMP only captured queries on patients with prior controlled substance use. This is mitigated as an estimated 60% of opioid recipients in our study had evidence of controlled substance use prior to the study period. Second, our data were restricted to opioid prescribers of Washington Medicaid beneficiaries, and our findings need confirmation in other populations. However, we believe it is unlikely that ED providers change their PDMP query habits conditional on patients’ insurance coverage. Third, we did not include queries by delegates. However, we found that <0.4% of prescribers were associated with delegate queries only, suggesting minimal impact of whether prescribers are classified as PDMP users. Fourth, provider specialty was self-reported with a significant rate of missing data. This may potentially introduce bias into our results. Finally, to avoid confounding with a state-wide automated PDMP policy, we studied data prior to November 2014, and it is possible that PDMP use patterns have changed since then.

5. Conclusions

In summary, the PDMP was used by a minority of prescribers to Medicaid beneficiaries, despite a high prevalence of risky opioid use in patients who received opioid prescriptions. Interventions to increase PDMP queries should target both PDMP registration as well as specialties with current low use rates.

National Estimates and Physician-Reported Impacts of Prescription Drug Monitoring Program Use

Chelsea Richwine, PhD and Jordan Everson, PhD

Office of Technology, Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology, Washington, DC, USA.

BACKGROUND: Despite widespread adoption of state prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs), it is unclear how often PDMPs are accessed through an electronic health record system (EHR-PDMP integration), or whether efforts to make PDMPs easier to access and use have improved their utility.

OBJECTIVE: To produce national-level estimates on the use of PDMPs among office-based physicians and benefits associated with their use.

DESIGN: We use nationally representative survey data to produce descriptive statistics on PDMP use and associated benefits among office-based physicians in the USA.

PARTICIPANTS: 1398 office-based physicians who prescribe controlled substances.

MAIN MEASURES: We examined physician-reported ease and frequency of PDMP use, and how EHR-PDMP integration affects frequency and ease of use. Multivariate models were used to assess whether characteristics of PDMP use were related to physician-reported benefits such as reduced prescribing of controlled substances and perceived improvements in clinical decision-making.

KEY RESULTS: In 2019, two-thirds of office-based physicians in the USA reported frequent use of their state PDMP and over three-quarters reported they were easy to use. Both frequency and ease of use were positively correlated with PDMP integration status. Respondents who frequently checked their state's PDMP were 8.7 percentage points (95% CI −.4 to 17.8) more likely to report perceived benefits and reported 2.2 (95% CI 1.54 to 2.83) more benefits. Respondents who indicated their PDMP was easy to use were 12.7 percentage points (95% CI .040 to .214) more likely to report perceived benefits and reported 0.94 (95% CI 0.26 to 1.61) more benefits.

CONCLUSIONS: Our findings suggest efforts to make PDMPs easier to access and use aided physicians in making informed clinical decisions that may not be captured by reduced prescribing alone. Efforts to further increase frequency and ease of use—including advancing a standards-based approach to PDMP and EHR data interoperability—may further increase the benefit of PDMPs.

INTRODUCTION

Statewide prescription drug monitoring programs (PDMPs)—state-run databases that contain patient-specific prescription information—have been implemented in nearly all US states and the District of Columbia.[1,2] However, PDMPs are only useful if clinicians check the PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances. Recent efforts, such as mandates requiring PDMP use and projects aimed at integrating PDMPs into electronic health record (EHR) systems ,[3–5] have focused on increasing the frequency of PDMP use and the usability of information contained in them.[6]

Few studies have examined how PDMPs are used nationally and whether variation in frequency of use, ease of use, and EHR-PDMP integration impacts benefits of using the PDMP to inform clinical decisions and reduce opioid overprescribing. To date, national and multi-state studies focused on the impact of PDMPs have largely examined the status of PDMPs and supporting laws, and how they relate to changes in rates of opioid prescribing or subsequent outcomes like opioid-related deaths, finding mixed results.[7–12] While focused on valuable outcomes, such studies are unlikely to capture other important benefits of PDMP use and how greater PDMP usability relates to improvements in the treatment process. For instance, overall prescribing of controlled substances or opioid-related mortality metrics might miss instances where PDMP use led to consultation with other clinicians and greater care coordination. A focus on overall opioid prescribing metrics would also fail to capture instances where the PDMP led clinicians to confirm the clinical appropriateness of an opioid prescription rather than reduce its dosage or frequency.

A parallel literature focused on local PDMP use has identified several factors related to physicians' views on PDMPs but has infrequently demonstrated a link between variation in PDMP use and associated treatment processes or outcomes.[12–21] For instance, some research has heralded the integration of PDMPs into health information exchanges, pharmacy dispensing software systems, and EHRs, both in terms of system integration—meaning the PDMP can be directly accessed through this system as opposed to through a separate portal (referred to here as "EHR-PDMP integration")—and in terms of the ability to access, exchange, and use specific data elements from the PDMP (referred to here as "EHR-PDMP interoperability"), as a promising strategy for improving the usability of PDMPs.[4,5,13,15] Further, it is possible that poor data quality, inadequate patient matching, or usability issues within an integrated system mitigate the benefits of integration.

Our study contributes to the literature on the impact of PDMPs by shedding light on whether efforts to make PDMPs easier to access and use improve their utility for making informed clinical decisions and reducing opioid overprescribing. We use nationally representative survey data to produce descriptive statistics on PDMP use and associated benefits among office-based physicians in the USA and to evaluate the relationship between EHR-PDMP integration, ease and frequency of PDMP use, and physician-reported experience of nine types of benefits related to PDMP use.

METHODS

Data

Data used come from the 2019 National Electronic Health Records Survey (NEHRS) Public Use File (PUF).[22] The NEHRS is an annual mixed-mode survey conducted by the National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS) that collects information on the adoption and use of health information technology among office-based physicians in the USA. For the present study, we leveraged information on physicians' prescribing of controlled substances and use of a PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances to a patient for the first time to explore the relationship between characteristics of use and physician-reported benefits that result from PDMP use.

Study Population

The target population for this study includes non-federally employed office-based physicians in the USA who are primarily engaged in patient care activities. Among the 10,302 physicians that were initially recruited to complete the survey, 5684 were deemed ineligible due to practicing in non-office-based settings, not seeing ambulatory patients, or no longer being in practice or not locatable. Among those who were eligible or whose eligibility could not be determined, NCHS estimated an unweighted response rate of 41.0% and the final sample included 1524 respondents.

We further restricted the sample to physicians that prescribe any controlled substances (N = 1398). The NEHRS over-samples small states to facilitate generation of state-level estimates. We used the survey weights included in the NEHRS PUFs to adjust for this over-sampling and for non-response bias. Full details on the sampling frame and adjustments for non-response can be found in the 2019 NEHRS PUF Documentation.[23]

Measures and Outcomes

We examined three characteristics of PDMP use: (1) frequency of use, (2) ease of finding patient information, and (3) EHR-PDMP integration (i.e., when asked "How do you or your designated staff check your state's PDMP?" respondents indicated, "Use EHR system" vs "Use system outside of EHR (e.g., PDMP portal or secure website)."). In the descriptive arm of the study, frequency and ease of use were defined as categorical variables. Frequency of checking the PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances to a patient for the first time were defined on a scale from 1 to 4, where 1 = "often," 2 = "sometimes," 3 = "rarely," and 4 = "never." Ease of finding patient information in the PDMP were also defined on a scale from 1 to 4, where 1 = "very easy," 2 = "somewhat easy," 3 = "somewhat difficult," and 4 = "very difficult."

In multivariable analyses, PDMP use characteristics were re-defined as binary variables to facilitate interpretation. Frequent use equals one for physicians who "often" or "sometimes" check their PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances, and zero otherwise. Ease of use equals one for physicians who reported it is "very" or "somewhat" easy to find patient information using their state's PDMP, and zero otherwise. EHR-PDMP integration equals one for physicians who checked their state's PDMP using an EHR, and zero for those who used a system outside their EHR.

The main outcomes measured include nine physician-reported benefits that result from checking the PDMP. We created two composite outcomes: one is a binary variable indicating whether the respondent reported at least one perceived benefit, and the other is a count variable capturing the number of perceived benefits, ranging from 0 to 9. We included supplementary outcomes based on distinct benefits listed in Table 2 including (1) reduced prescribing of controlled substances, (2) confirmed appropriateness of treatment, (3) confirmed patients' misuse of prescriptions, (4) referred new or additional treatments (a binary variable treated as positive if the respondent reported any of the following distinct benefits: changing to non-opioid pharmacologic or non-pharmacologic therapy; prescribing naloxone; or referring for additional treatment), and (5) consulted with others as a result of PDMP use (a binary variable treated as positive if the respondent reported either of the following distinct benefits: consulting with other prescribers listed in the PDMP report or consulting with other members of the care team).

Analysis

To understand how PDMPs are used nationally, we reported descriptive national statistics on the frequency of PDMP use among office-based physicians. Among those who indicated using their state's PDMP, we described physician-reported ease of finding patient information and methods used to access the PDMP. Next, we examined how EHR-PDMP integration affects frequency and ease of use.

We then used regression to model the relationship between PDMP use characteristics and physician-reported benefits that result from checking the PDMP. We examined whether frequent PDMP use, ease of use, and EHR-PDMP integration were related to whether respondents reported at least one perceived benefit from PDMP use in logistic regression models and, in a complementary model, the number of benefits perceived using a Poisson model because the outcome variable was a count. All models controlled for physician and practice location characteristics including physician demographics, specialty, practice size, ownership, Independent Practice Association (IPA) or Physician-Hospital Organization (PHO) affiliation, percent of patients insured by Medicaid, and EHR certification status. We next ran separate logistic regressions to examine whether frequent PDMP use, ease of use, and EHR-PDMP integration were significantly related to five types of benefits listed above. We reported all relationships in terms of the average marginal effect. Analyses were performed using Stata version 15.[24]

RESULTS

Among respondents that prescribe controlled substances, 51% worked in primary care, 21% in a medical specialty, and 28% in a surgical specialty (Table 1). Less than half (45%) of respondents were in practices with 3 or fewer physicians and 61% worked in a physician-owned practice. Respondents were predominantly male and over the age of 50 (69% and 75%, respectively).

Overall, most physicians who prescribed controlled substances indicated checking their state's PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances to a patient for the first time: 65% reported using the PDMP often, 27% used the PDMP sometimes or rarely, while only 8% never used the PDMP (Fig. 1). Among physicians that reported any PDMP use, less than a quarter (23%) indicated their PDMP was integrated with their EHR, while 77% used a system outside of their EHR to check the PDMP. Regardless of the method of access, physicians were generally satisfied with the ease by which they could access their state's PDMP (42% "very easy" and 36% "somewhat easy").

Both frequency and ease of use were correlated with PDMP integration status. Eighty-five percent (85%) of physicians with PDMP-EHR integration reported accessing their PDMP often compared to 70% of physicians that accessed their PDMP through a system outside the EHR (Fig. 2; difference = 14.4 percentage points, 95% CI 5.8 to 23.1, $P = .001$). Sixty percent of physicians (60%) with PDMP-EHR integration indicated their system was very easy to use compared to 39% that accessed their PDMP through an outside system (difference = 20.7 percentage points, 95% CI 8.7 to 32.8, $P = .001$).

Notes: The original NEHRS 2019 Public Use File contains observations for 1524 physicians, of which 1398 prescribe controlled substances. The analytical sample used for multivariate analyses only includes respondents who prescribe opioids and excludes those that do not check their state's PDMP (N = 202) and did not know or did not respond to survey questions about methods of access or ease of using their state's PDMP (N = 165). The exclusion of these respondents, along with 6 missing covariate values, yields a final analytical sample of N = 1025 respondents. Value-based care initiatives include Patient-Centered Medical Homes (PCMH), Accountable Care Organizations (ACO), and Pay-for-Performance (P4P) arrangements. Incentive programs include Merit-Based Incentives Programs (MIPS), Advanced Alternative Payment Models (APM), and Medicaid EHR Incentive Programs (e.g., Meaningful Use (MU) Program). Hospital or health center ownership includes medical/academic health centers, community health centers, hospitals, and health care corporations. "Other" types of ownership include insurance companies, health plans, HMOs, and other ownership types. Respondents without a certified EHR (i.e., an EHR system that meets meaningful use criteria, also called promoting interoperability, as defined by the Department of Health and Human Services) include N = 152 respondents that indicated they do not have any type of EHR

Among physicians that reported any PDMP use, 85% reported experiencing at least one of nine benefits listed on the survey as a result of using the PDMP. On average, these physicians reported 3.4 benefits (Table 2). The most reported benefit was having "Reduced or eliminated controlled substance prescriptions for a patient," reported by

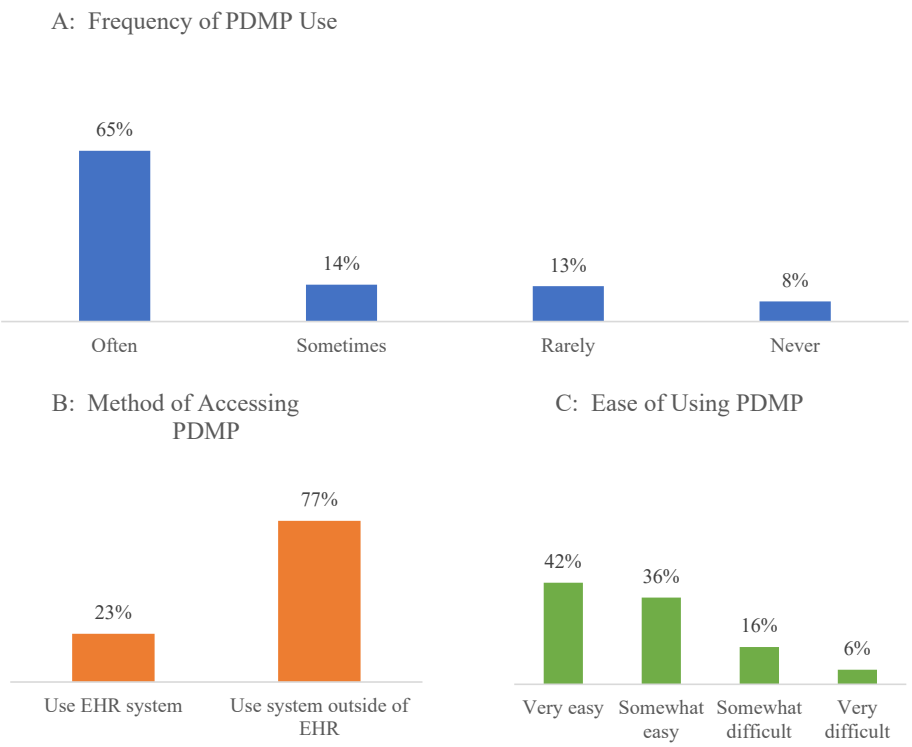

Figure 1 Panel A illustrates how often physicians or designated staff check their state's PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances to a patient for the first time ($N = 1317$). Among respondents who reported checking their state's PDMP, panel B illustrates methods of access used to check the PDMP ($N = 1097$) and panel C reports the level of ease or difficulty associated with using the PDMP to find patient information ($N = 1072$). 61% of physicians, followed by "Confirmed appropriateness of treatment," reported by 53% of physicians. The least commonly reported benefit was "Prescribed naloxone," reported by only 12% of physicians.

In multivariable analyses, physicians that frequently used the PDMP were 8.7 percentage points more likely to report any benefit from the system (95% CI −0.4 to 17.8, $P = .062$) and reported 2.2 more benefits on average (95% CI 1.54 to 2.83, $P < .001$) than respondents that infrequently used the PDMP (Table 3). Respondents that said it was easy to use the PDMP were 12.7 percentage points more likely to report any benefit from the system (95% CI 4.0 to 21.4, $P = .004$) and reported 0.94 more benefits on average (95% CI 0.26 to 1.61, $P = .007$) compared to those who said it was somewhat or very difficult to use the PDMP.

Across the five distinct benefits related to PDMP use we assessed, respondents that indicated frequent PDMP use were more likely to report experiencing a given benefit from the PDMP. Respondents that indicated frequent use were 22.6 percentage points more likely to report having reduced or eliminated controlled substance prescriptions (95% CI 7.9 to 37.3, $P = .003$), 22.5 percentage points more likely to report having confirmed patients' misuse of prescriptions (95% CI 7.9 to 37.0, $P = .003$), 25.1 percentage points more likely to report having confirmed the appropriateness of treatment (95% CI 9.6 to 40.5, $P = .001$), 28 percentage points more likely to report having referred new or additional treatment (95% CI 11.6 to 44.3, $P = .001$), and 36.8 percentage points more likely to report having consulted with others (95% CI 24.1 to 49.5, $P < .001$).

Respondents indicating ease of use were 17.4 percentage points more likely to confirm the appropriateness of treatment (95% CI 4.6 to 30.2, $P = .008$) and 14.1 percentage points more likely to consult with others (95% CI 1.5 to 26.7, $P = .028$). For all benefits, the direction of coefficients indicated greater likelihood of benefits with greater reported ease of use and $P < 0.10$ for four of five outcomes.

While EHR-PDMP integration was associated with greater frequency and ease of use in bivariate analyses, it was not associated with a greater likelihood of experiencing specific benefits of PDMP use. In subsequent robustness tests, we excluded frequency and ease of use because we were concerned these variables may be suppressing the relationship between integration and benefits (i.e., if integration was related to benefits through greater frequency and ease of use). However, the association between EHR-PDMP integration and benefits was null in models excluding frequency and ease of use variables.

DISCUSSION

In a 2019 national survey, most opioid-prescribing physicians reported checking their state's PDMP prior to prescribing controlled substances to a patient for the first time, of which, a majority reported experiencing at least one benefit from using the PDMP. More frequent PDMP use and greater ease of PDMP use were related to a greater likelihood of experiencing several different benefits from PDMP use, not all of which would be directly captured by examining prescribing rates.

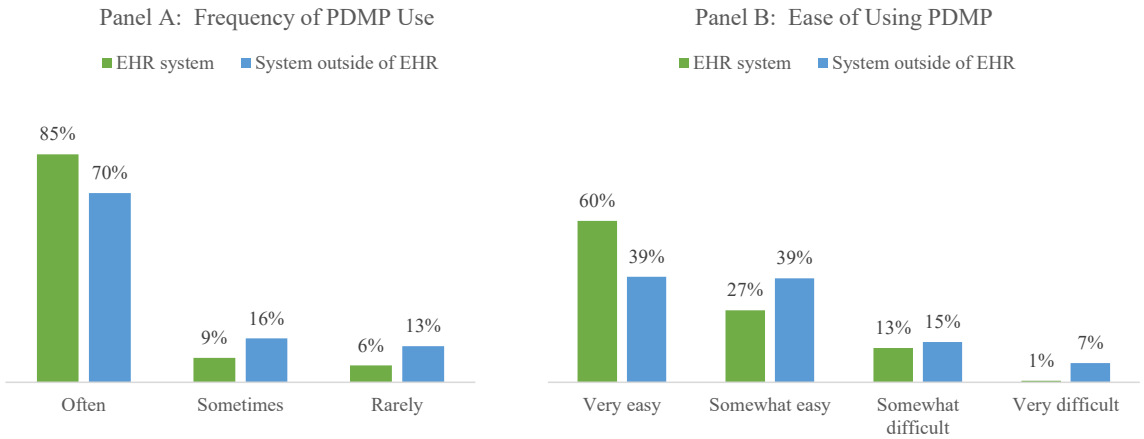

Figure 2 Panel A illustrates the frequency of PDMP use among respondents who used an EHR system versus external system (e.g., portal or secure website) to check their state's PDMP (N = 223 and N = 874 respectively). Panel B demonstrates the level of ease or difficulty associated with using the PDMP to find patient information among respondents who use an EHR system versus external system to check their state's PDMP (N = 205 and N = 826 respectively).

Though PDMPs have been in place for many years, a range of barriers have limited their widespread success.[13,25] Our findings indicate that following substantial public policy, progress has been made to increase the frequency of PDMP use and perceived ease of use, with nearly half of physicians indicating the PDMP was very easy to use.[18] Assessing ease of use is important as it relates to how quickly physicians can access the information they need, which can improve workflow efficiency. We also observed several physician-reported benefits from PDMP use. Prior multi-state and national studies of the benefits of PDMP use have primarily focused on changes in the number and strength of opioids prescribed or the occurrence of negative events related to opioids following PDMP-related policy change and resulted in mixed evidence on the impact of PDMPs.[26–28] One challenge of these approaches is that by relying on aggregate data on opioid prescribing, potential secular trends in opioid prescribing or other ongoing policy initiatives may result in biased estimates of the relationship between PDMP-related policies and prescribing patterns. Our study is not subject to this limitation because it focuses on characteristics of PDMP use and associated benefits as reported by physicians, rather than relying on inference from aggregate trends.

Our data complement the literature by assessing important metrics of physician-reported benefits associated with PDMP use that would not be captured by changes in opioid prescriptions. Both more frequent use and greater ease of use were associated with a greater likelihood of consulting with others. Given challenges related to comorbidities, polypharmacy, and polysubstance abuse in populations treated with opioids, greater coordination could have important benefits beyond initial prescribing decisions.[29–31] Similarly, the relationship between more frequent use of the PDMP and a greater likelihood of confirming the appropriateness of treatment is important because of ongoing challenges ensuring pain is adequately treated, especially amidst concerns of overprescribing or doctor shopping.[32,33] The potential for PDMPs to assuage concerns about the appropriateness of treatment highlights the value of making information more accessible to ensure prescribing decisions are robustly informed.

The finding that physicians reporting greater frequency of use reported more benefits should not be taken for granted. Because public policy in 32 states mandates use,[34] it would be reasonable to expect that physicians made frequent use of the PDMP due to mandates and not perceived benefits. Instead, the relationship between frequency of use and experienced

Notes: Columns (1) and (3)–(7) report estimates from separate logistic regressions. Column (2) reports estimates from a Poisson regression. All estimates reflect average marginal effects (ME), with 95% confidence intervals reported in brackets. Coefficients represent the change in probability that respondents reported the related benefit based on the three focal independent variables. All models control for physician and practice location characteristics including physician demographics, specialty, practice size, ownership, Independent Practice Association (IPA) or Physician-Hospital Organization (PHO) affiliation, percent of patients insured by Medicaid, and EHR certification status. The sample excludes respondents who do not check their state's PDMP (N = 202) and did not know or did not respond to survey questions about methods of access or ease of using their state's PDMP (N = 165). The exclusion of these respondents, along with six missing covariate values, yields a final analytical sample of N = 1025 respondents benefit indicates that physicians that more regularly engaged with the PDMP found it more helpful than physicians who rarely used it, consistent with the relatively intuitive notion that the PDMP will not always but often does contain useful information.

Despite these positive signs, we also observed that 15% of physicians who checked their state's PDMP did not report any benefit from PDMP use and only about half reported confirming the appropriateness of treatment via the PDMP. Policymakers at the state and federal levels, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), continue to pursue an array of approaches to improve the value of PDMPs by supporting routine, universal use of PDMPs—which is a critical step towards reaping the benefits of use; ensuring timely availability of prescribing information; and pursuing proactive reporting of potential concerns from the PDMP.[5,6,35,36] Additional efforts to simplify access and use, such as streamlined PDMP registration processes, including automatic enrollment with license registration and renewal, could be effective approaches to facilitate greater use while minimizing the burden imposed on providers.

Finally, we found that EHR-PDMP integration was positively correlated with both frequency of PDMP use and ease of use. However, our data did not support the direct impact of EHR-PDMP integration (measured here as the ability to access the PDMP through the EHR) on perceived benefits for the relatively small proportion—23%—of physicians that reported system integration. Nevertheless, the positive relationships between EHR-PDMP integration, frequency, and ease of use indicate that EHR-PDMP integration is one potential lever to improve the experience of using PDMPs. It may be that EHR-PDMP integration is only one path towards high ease of use, and pursuit of other strategies—such as simplified single sign-on to the PDMP and effective data presentation—may be equally effective at realizing benefits from PDMP use.

Importantly, our data do not directly speak to the value of forms of integration beyond simple access to the PDMP. Data-level interoperability could be substantially more impactful in achieving benefit from the PDMP by combining PDMP data with complementary data in the EHR and directly driving insights into clinical workflows; however, research and related data collection do not always distinguish between system-level integration (measured here) and data-level interoperability.[4,5,13,15] While few states currently have laws and regulations in place that allow PDMP data to be retained in EHRs and exchanged with health IT systems, doing so may allow for PDMP data to be presented through effective clinical decisions support within the EHR, such as that being developed through efforts supported by the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology and the CDC.[37]

Limitations

Our study is subject to a number of limitations. One important limitation is the reliance on a cross-sectional, self-report survey, which does not allow for rigorous causal inference and does not directly reflect benefit for patients. Nevertheless, the survey approach allows for more targeted measurement of PDMP use and associated benefits than studies relying on prescribing rates. Moreover, several of these nuanced benefits are likely only measurable via physician reporting, thereby complementing existing literature. A second set of study limitations relates to the sample. Sample size—particularly the small sub-sample of physicians indicating their PDMP was integrated with their EHR—may have limited our ability to detect an association between EHR-PDMP integration and perceived benefits. Moreover, the sample does not contain information on geographic location, which limits our ability to account for state-level differences in state PDMPs, including the usability of different systems. A third limitation is our inability to account for differences in state PDMP legislation or underlying variation in physicians' use of PDMP information that may have led to different state policies around PDMP integration and use. Our study is focused on a more detailed examination of one piece of the causal chain linking efforts to make PDMPs easier to access and use to improve the utility of PDMPs. This focus logically complements work examining the impact of PDMP-related policies on subsequent PDMP use to provide a link between those policies and the realization of diverse benefits.[38]

CONCLUSION

In a 2019 national survey of office-based physicians, the majority of respondents reported frequently using a PDMP, that their PDMP was easy to use, and that using the PDMP had resulted in reduced prescribing of controlled substances, confirming the appropriateness of treatment and confirming patient's misuse of prescriptions. However, 15% of physicians that used the PDMP reported no benefit from it, indicating that more progress could be made. Physicians reporting more frequent and easier PDMP use were more likely to indicate having experienced certain benefits as a result of checking the PDMP. While less than a quarter of physicians reported accessing their PDMP through their EHR, EHR-PDMP integration was associated with more frequent and greater ease of use. Taken together, our findings suggest efforts to increase integration and achieve interoperability may improve the usability of PDMPs, which in turn can help physicians reap the benefits of PDMP use. Continued efforts to improve the accessibility of PDMPs are necessary to maximize the value of PDMPs for the broadest group of physicians.

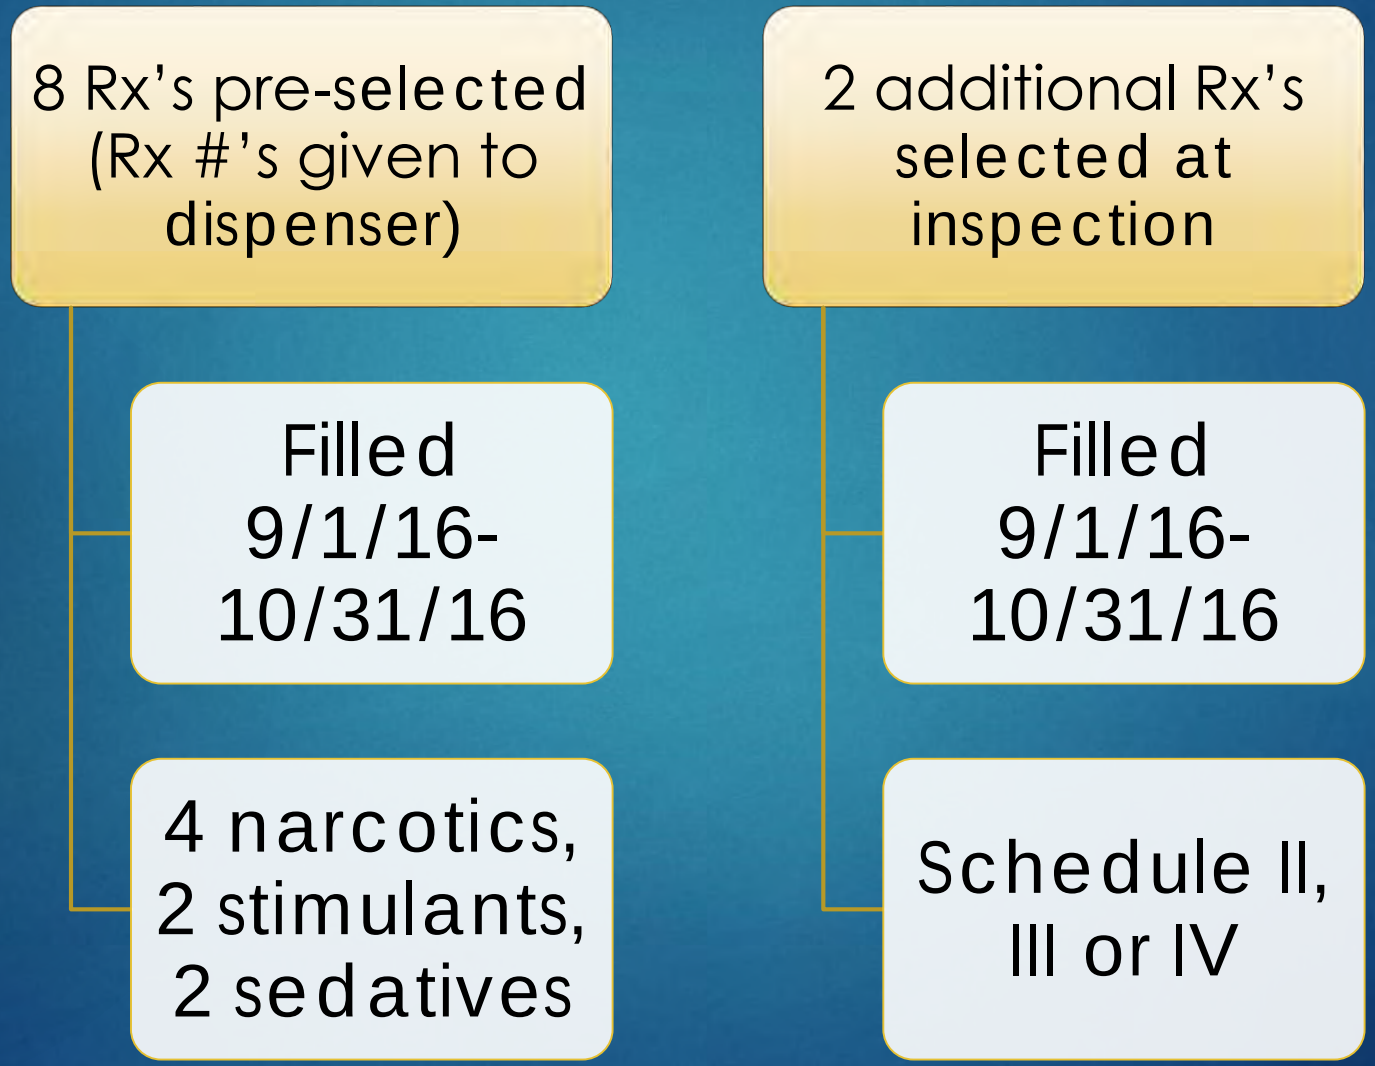
Automated Quality Checks

- RX data transmitted to the PMP undergoes automated quality checks prior to being uploaded.
- RX records that fail receive error message, are rejected, allowing dispenser to correct and re-transmit data.
- Automated quality checks can detect missing info or incorrect characters in a data field, but generally cannot detect incorrect info → erroneous data transmitted to PMP

Nevada 2017 Audit Project

- Official PMP audit project launched February 2017
  - Hired a part-time Project Analyst through Harold Rogers Grant
  - Collaboration with Roseman University of Health Sciences

- Program Goal: Determine Nevada's PMP data accuracy by:
  - Implementing a standardized process for evaluating its accuracy
  - Taking the necessary steps to correct the data if errors are identified
  - Prevent incidences of errors



Audit Methodology

- All licensed pharmacies and dispensing practitioners in Nevada undergo an annual Board of Pharmacy (BOP) inspection per regulation

Challenges

- Informing pharmacies of new inspection process
- Time consuming
  - Pharmacy inspectors
  - Pharmacy personnel
  - Shear number of errors – error correction process

Challenges

- Pharmacies have different processes or use different vendors to transmit PMP data → difficult to provide guidance to pharmacies who need to correct/address PMP data errors

CHAIR SPEARMAN:
We will postpone the work session until tomorrow and begin the hearing on Assembly Bill (A.B.) 474.

ASSEMBLY BILL 474 (1st Reprint): Makes various changes relating to drug overdoses and prescribing and using drugs. (BDR 40-1102)

MICHAEL J. WILLDEN (Chief of Staff, Office of the Governor):
The Legislature and the Executive Branch have been working on the prescription drug reform issue for several years. We have been working hard at it since 2012 when we participated in the National Governors Association Policy Academy on Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention. There have been a couple academies, and Nevada participated in the second round. Starting in 2014, the Governor named a number of people to a work group which met several times during 2014 throughout the State. This resulted in S.B. No. 459 of the 78th Session. It was called the Good Samaritan Drug Overdose Act. The group addressed the Good Samaritan laws, the naloxone programs, continuing education for prescribers, dispensing issues and some modifications to the prescription drug monitoring program. This was a very successful piece of legislation last Session, and we have been working on implementing it. When I say we, I mean several of the boards and the Division of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

In the spring of 2016, northern Nevada had a very significant event involving a prescriber and law enforcement. Many issues occurred, causing the Governor to refocus on this issue. A planning group was created in June 2016 to reexamine the prescribing and opioid world and to review the implementation of S.B. No. 459 of the 78th Session.

The planning group was fairly large with a couple of Legislators, judges, and district attorneys. The outcome of the planning group was a summit that was held the last day of August and the first day of September 2016 with approximately 500 people attending. The planning summit was held at the MGM Grand Resort and Casino in Las Vegas. From this summit, a number of recommendations were made which resulted in A.B. 474.

ELYSE MONROY (Health and Human Services Policy Analyst, Office of the Governor):

Assembly Bill 474 is the Governor's Controlled Substance Abuse Prevention Act, and it is a priority bill for the Governor.

Opioid and prescription drug overdoses continue to be a growing problem in the State. The Governor's Office has provided a data sheet with facts (Exhibit C) for your review.

In response to a situation in 2016, the Governor held the State Summit on Prescription Drug Abuse to identify and highlight areas in which Nevada must improve efforts to reduce and eliminate prescription drug abuse and overdose. During the Summit and the planning meeting, we heard heartbreaking stories from people whose opioid addiction started with a legitimate pain prescription.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention tells us of the people who are most at risk for prescription drug abuse. Of this at-risk population, 15 percent report buying their prescriptions from a drug dealer; 27 percent reported receiving prescriptions from their own doctors; 26 percent report getting prescriptions for free from a friend or relative; and 23 percent report buying prescriptions from a friend or relative.

The abuse, misuse and diversion of prescription medications are real problems. The Governor's Controlled Substance Abuse Prevention Act before you today was developed through review of the Summit recommendations, literature, State best practices and lessons learned. The Act was developed in collaboration with the DHHS subject-matter experts, various stakeholder groups and the State's occupational licensing boards.

Assembly Bill 474 is a comprehensive measure that addresses five main areas: prescriber education, prescribing practices, occupational licensing boards, data collection and the prescription drug monitoring program. The Governor's Office has provided the Committee with a section-by-section breakdown of A.B. 474 (Exhibit D).

Assembly Bill 474 makes the collection of data specific to overdose and suspected overdose permanent. Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 441A, Infectious Diseases; Toxic Agents, is used to capture diseases and illnesses that are of public health importance. In the past, this has been typically related to communicable diseases and infections and illnesses stemming from biological, chemical and radiological events. As has been clearly shown, the opioid epidemic is of public health importance. The use of opioids is causing ongoing morbidity, addiction issues and death for our residents. The Division of Public and Behavioral Health (DPBH) already reviews suspected overdose data from hospital discharge billing forms, and some of the data is shown in the infographic you have been provided, Exhibit C. This is identifiable data, but there is such a delay that an immediate public health response is not possible. Assembly Bill 474 will allow for more immediate analysis, response and an ability to target interventions. Data will be reported directly to the State. Through regulation, DPBH will specify the methods of reporting, specify what will constitute a suspected overdose and specify the variables to be reported.

Assembly Bill 474 includes language requiring licensing boards to adopt mandatory continuing education requirements for prescribers of controlled substances, makes existing permissive language mandatory and increases the requirement to two hours of continuing education from one hour per license year. This request came from the prescriber community during the development of the protocols.

Assembly Bill 474 adds information to be included on the prescriptions for controlled substances. These changes are needed for the prescribing protocol initiative to be implemented. Pharmacies will need to collect additional data points including the specific number of days a prescription is to be used and the specific diagnosis codes. This bill also makes changes to the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program (PDMP).

Assembly Bill 474 clarifies that licensing boards have access to the PDMP for the purpose of investigations and administrative review of inappropriate prescribing. This bill clarifies that the State Board of Pharmacy can use the PDMP system to identify inappropriate prescribing and requires the Board to notify a licensing board when it has identified unusually high or otherwise inappropriate prescribing.

Assembly Bill 474 also requires prescribers to show proof of enrollment in the PDMP in order to renew or receive their controlled substance licenses. Since the passage of S.B. No. 459 of the 78th Session, the State Board of Pharmacy has seen a sharp increase in the number of prescribers enrolled in the system, going from 16 percent of prescribers to 81 percent. There are still prescribers that are not using the system. By requiring proof of enrollment in the system before prescribers receive their controlled substance licenses, we can ensure that all prescribers have access to the system before being given permission to prescribe controlled substances.

Assembly Bill 474 requires occupational licensing boards to ensure that Nevada has a system for the identification and remedy of inappropriate prescribing. While inappropriate prescribing comes in many forms, generally, it is prescribing outside of the standard of care for a prescriber's practice, specialty or otherwise outside the medical need of the patient. Under this measure, licensing boards are now required to take action when they receive a report of potential inappropriate prescribing. This bill allows for the administrative review and dismissal of inappropriate prescribing notifications. Additionally, A.B. 474 will allow for the summary suspension of a controlled substance license if inappropriate prescribing is taking place and is deemed an immediate public health and safety risk.

With these changes, we are placing the responsibility of identifying inappropriate prescribing on the State's licensing boards. During the summit planning meeting, we in the Governor's Office were surprised to hear that while all occupational licensing boards have been receiving unsolicited reports on high or otherwise inappropriate prescribing, only some of the boards were taking action on these reports. We worked with the boards to understand their processes for communicating with their licensees and for their investigations. Allowing for the administrative review of controlled substance complaints makes the complaints actionable without complicating the investigation process.

We want to make sure the record reflects our appreciation for the licensing boards working with the Board in drafting A.B. 474.

This bill establishes mandatory prescribing protocols for prescribers that are treating pain with controlled substances: schedule II, III and IV drugs. These protocols are being proposed for NRS 639, the statute that governs the Board. Assembly Bill 474 requires all licensed prescribers to follow the prescribing protocol and requires all licensing boards to enforce the prescribing protocol established in NRS 639. This is the core of the Controlled Substance Abuse Prevention Act.

Nevada's approach to addressing the prescription drug abuse epidemic is to preserve individual patient treatment and recalibrate the standard of care for the treatment of pain and prescribing of controlled substances. These mandated protocols ensure patient safety and seek to end misuse, abuse and diversion of addictive prescribed controlled substances. These prescribing protocols place the responsibility of identifying patient misuse, abuse and diversion on the prescriber.

The prescribing protocols before you today are a product of months of hard work and complex conversations about prescribing, pain management, behavioral health, addiction and patient care with prescribers in Nevada. We appreciate the time that many prescribers and leaders of their trade associations took to help create prescribing protocols that are meaningful, reasonable and implementable. These protocols are accomplished through an initiative that we are calling Prescribe 365, which ensures no patient receives more than 365 days of controlled substances in a 365-day period.

There are two limits on prescriptions contained in this bill. They are the 365-day limit and a 14-day limit on initial prescriptions for acute pain. Many states have established limits for acute pain, and Nevada's limit will appear more liberal than the three-, five- or seven-day limits that other states have enacted. This is because we were sensitive to the State's access to care issues in our urban and rural areas. At this time, I will turn over the testimony to Dr. DiMuro to walk through the prescribing protocols.

JOHN DIMURO, D.O. (Chief Medical Officer, Division of Public and Behavioral Health, Department of Health and Human Services):
In developing the prescriber protocols of A.B. 474, we recognize the importance of prioritizing patient safety while upholding the integrity of the patient-prescriber relationship. These protocols require prescribers to adhere to a standard of care which includes the application of clinical judgement in the use of controlled substances for the treatment of pain. Commonsense measures need to be developed that would account for the complexity of the management of pain across populations and minimize the risk associated with the use of controlled substances for the treatment of pain. We reviewed available research literature, evaluated consensus guidelines established by subject matter experts, assessed the impact of policy decisions in other states and engaged the provider community in extensive discussion.

Prescription misuse, abuse, diversion and risk for adverse events, including overdose, present unique challenges for prescribers and patients alike. The complexity of management of pain using controlled substances and the mitigation of risk from such medications require a multitude of evidence-based interventions. We must recognize the limitations of each intervention, acknowledging it is the cumulative impact of multiple efforts that have the best chance of keeping patients safe and empowering prescribers to practice within a standard of care.

The prescribing protocols in A.B. 474 establish standards of care from the initiation of a prescription of controlled substances for pain through ongoing prescribing for the long-term treatment of pain. Please refer to page 12 of Exhibit D which details the provider requirements in Prescribed 365.

Prior to an initial prescription, a provider must check the PDMP database to ensure they have a full record of the patient's current and past prescriptions for controlled substances. The PDMP review is a well-established clinical practice aimed at providing prescribers with some of the information they need in order to make prescribing decisions. Assembly Bill 474 closes a small but critical loophole that was left in S.B. No. 459 of the 78th Session by now mandating the PDMP checks all initial prescriptions regardless of duration. Previously, prescriptions of less than seven days did not require a review by the PDMP. This bill also limits initial prescriptions of a controlled substance for pain in both duration and dosage. Over the past year, nine states have enacted similar regulations and at least seven additional states have similar limits under consideration through legislation. Assembly Bill 474 limits initial prescriptions to 14 days and to no more than 90 morphine milligram equivalents daily. Unlike other states that limit initial prescriptions to 5 or 7 days, we chose a maximum of 14 days to account for known issues relating to access to care in Nevada. This is proactive in ensuring this limit would be reasonably implemented. If the controlled substance prescribed is an opioid, we establish maximum morphine milligram equivalence to 90 morphine milligram equivalents for patients who are not nor were recently issued an opioid prescription.

This standard of care allows for a continuity of care for patients who may be currently prescribed opioids while establishing a maximum daily dosage for opioid naïve patients. This maintains the prescriber's ability to prescribe based on individual patient history and in no way prohibits patients from receiving the care they require.

Identifying and mitigating risk is of utmost importance when evaluating factors that may compromise the patient's ability to safely and effectively use controlled substances for pain. In addition to the PDMP check, we believe it is important for prescribers to have the information they need to make clinical prescribing decisions. Prior to prescribing, A.B. 474 requires prescribers to assess the patient's risk factors through medical history, physical examination, and a good faith effort to obtain and review medical records in addition to the risk assessment measure.

Patients have a right to be active participants in determining the course of care. Written and informed consent provides the patients information needed to understand the risks and benefits associated with taking a controlled substance for pain, the proper use of their prescription, on alternative treatments for pain, on their plan of treatment, on risks of dependency, or addiction, overdose, safe storage and provider expectations.

Once treatment has been established and the patient and prescriber agree that pain management with controlled substances will exceed 30 days, a medication management agreement is required to be completed. Medication agreements go beyond the information contained in the written informed consent. The agreements delineate goals of the treatment, consent for testing to monitor compliance when medically necessary, requirements for information sharing between prescriber and patient and reasons when a practitioner may change or discontinue a course of treatment. Medication agreements must be updated annually or whenever there are changes made to the treatment plan. The intent of the changes to the medication agreements is to ensure they are updated with the goals of treatment or when the goals of treatment change. If changes to medications and goals of those changes are clearly detailed within the treatment plan, medication treatments do not need to be updated with every medication change. The intent behind requiring updates to the medication agreements is to ensure they are aligned with the treatment plans when the goals of treatment change.

Assembly Bill 474 establishes additional protocols prior to prescribing controlled substances for the treatment of pain of a patient who has a controlled substance for 90 consecutive days or more. The 90-day visit must be in person or through telehealth and include, at a minimum, an assessment of risk, a PDMP review, and a review of the treatment plan. The prescriber must also conduct an evaluation of the patient to determine an evidence-based diagnosis for the cause of the pain prior to prescribing controlled substances for the pain beyond 90 days. This combined with our Prescribe 365 Program will help to best guide the prescriber-patient-prescription relationship. The treatment plan must then be updated annually or as previously stated, when there is a change in the course of the patient's care. These provisions taken together are a reasonable plan to improve Nevada's safety related to controlled substances.

SENATOR HARDY:
In section 7, subsection 1, paragraph (e), subparagraph (2), it states: "each state in which the patient to whom the controlled substance was prescribed." We do not have access to each state, but we do have access to each state which is on the PDMP.

The NRS 630, 632, 636, 635 have 60 days; NRS 631 and 633 have 180 days. Is there a reason for the difference?

MS. MONROY:
This is the language specific to the summary suspension, and we aligned the language in A.B. 474 with the existing procedures language within each chapter. Some of the boards had 60 days and some boards had 180 days.

SENATOR HARDY:
Do the optometrists in NRS 636 use controlled substances?

MS. MONROY:
Yes, the licensing boards have optometrist prescribers that have controlled substance licenses, but I do not know how many optometrists have controlled substance licenses.

SENATOR HARDY:
Regarding the new wording in section 51, the word "new" was confusing to me. The "initial prescription" means a prescription originated for a new patient of a practitioner and it goes on, "The term does not include any act concerning an ongoing prescription that is issued by a practitioner to continue a course of treatment for a new or existing patient of the practitioner."

MS. MONROY:
We established the definition in S.B. No. 459 of the 78th Session for "initial prescription," but as we were working through the creation of this policy, we realized that there was an unintended gap when a patient had to transfer to a new prescriber. If a patient started a prescription for a controlled substance with his or her primary care provider and got to the 30 days supply, but the primary care provider felt the patient needed to be referred to a pain management specialist, it would then be an initial prescription with a 14-day limit with an ongoing course of treatment.

DR. DIMURO:
The idea is if you are a physician and you give a 90-day prescription, it could be considered a new prescription, but since you are the continued provider, it would not be a new prescription. Thus, the language does not include any act concerning an ongoing prescription.

SENATOR HARDY:
The language states new patient or a new or existing patient, it does not state new prescription. In one place it states it applies, and in the other it states it does not apply.

There are also not enough pain doctors under network that the primary care physicians can refer people to.

Section 60, subsection 1, paragraph (b), uses the word "the" controlled substance as opposed to "any." I understand it is the intent that we are not going to prescribe "any" controlled substance whatsoever, not just the one he or she was using, abusing or misusing.

DR. DIMURO:
Yes. There could be multiple prescriptions for the same drug filled within days of each other. The intent of this section is to make sure that any prescriber who has not been prescribing the controlled substance checks the PDMP to see if the patient has been on that controlled substance. If the patient has been on that controlled substance, then the prescriber would not prescribe that particular controlled substance.

SENATOR HARDY:
Would prescribers be able to prescribe another controlled substance?

DR. DIMURO:
Yes, they would.

CHAIR SPEARMAN:
In section 60, subsection 1, paragraph (b), it states, "If the practitioner determines from the patient utilization report or from any other source that the patient has been issued such a prescription, the practitioner shall not prescribe the controlled substance." We spoke earlier concerning synthetics. Is it possible to look at what is being prescribed and if there were another drug that could be prescribed that would work as well, would the practitioners consider those?

DR. DIMURO:
We want to have the clinicians remain practicing medicine. There are many instances where multiple drugs from the same drug class are prescribed. We do not want to inhibit physicians from prescribing from multiple drug classes, especially when it comes to pain medicine. That is why the wording is specific about the prescribing of the drug and a specific drug that has already been prescribed.

SENATOR HARDY:
If I know that someone is using, abusing or overusing a narcotic of one kind, and I am interested in getting them off it without getting them in a withdrawal issue, then I may be interested in using a narcotic-related medicine that will get them off the narcotic that they are abusing. Does this make sense?

DR. DIMURO:
Yes.

MICHAEL HILLERBY (State Board of Nursing; State Board of Pharmacy):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

ELIZABETH MACMENAMIN (Retail Association of Nevada):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

CATHARINE O'MARA (Nevada State Medical Association):
We are in support of A.B. 474. We believe there is more work to do on this bill regarding regulations, and we want to be part of that.

SUSAN L. FISHER (State Board of Osteopathic Medicine):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

CHAIR SPEARMAN:
Ms. O'Mara, did you state there were some regulations that may be problematic, or is it that you want to make sure that you are working alongside the Governor's Office to address some of the issues?

MS. O'MARA:
There will be a few regulations that we anticipate will need to be promulgated during the regulatory period. We do not expect them to be issues. One example is the Pharmacy Board will be defining what inappropriate prescribing means. We look forward to being part of those discussions.

KATHLEEN CONABOY (Nevada Orthopaedic Society):
We are in support A.B. 474.

GEORGE ROSS (Comprehensive Cancer Centers of Nevada):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

REGAN COMIS (Nevada Association of Health Plans):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

NICK VANDER POEL (Nevada Osteopathic Medical Association):
We are in support of A.B. 474.

MS. MONROY:
May we clarify one of the questions from Senator Hardy, specific to section 51?

STEPHANIE WOODARD (Division of Public and Behavioral Health, Department of Health and Human Services):
I am the Co-Occurring Disorder Director for Rural Community Health Services. The way the initial prescription was written would create some unintended consequences. In section 51, language was added that states, "The term does not include any act concerning an ongoing prescription that is issued by a practitioner to continue a course of treatment for a new or existing patient of the practitioner." The language was added to the definition because of the way it had originally been defined. If you were being treated by a physician and that physician transferred care to another prescriber, under the original definition, the new prescriber would have been limited to only 14 days of a prescription. We are saying that if new prescribers were going to continue an existing course of treatment through the continuity of care, they would not be limited to the 14 days. They would be able to pick up that prescription and prescribe to the user as they saw fit.

SENATOR HARDY:
I understand it perfectly, but on paper, it is not as clear.

Purpose

The purpose of this needs assessment is to identify the opioid use disorder (OUD) crisis in Nevada related to:

- the geographical and demographic areas where opioid misuse and related harms are most prevalent;
- all existing activities and funding sources in the state/jurisdiction that address opioid use prevention, treatment and recovery activities; and
- gaps in the existing services and resources to be addressed.

The needs assessment will inform decision making on how to best address the opioid crisis.

Executive Summary

There is variation in the racial/ethnic backgrounds or counties with the highest prevalence of opioid-related indicators, depending on the measure considered. Racial/ethnic, county or regional-level data was obtained for 13 indicators. Several indicators did not have significant differences. Differences are outlined below.

Opioid painkiller prescribing rates have decreased since 2012, while benzodiazepine prescribing rates only began decreasing in 2017. Nevada counties with the highest prescription rates for both opioid painkillers and benzodiazepines are Nye and Storey counties. Death rates are highest for individuals between the ages of 45-64 and lowest among Asian/Pacific Islander and Hispanic/Latino individuals. Death trends differed by type of opioid. Heroin deaths increased from 2010-2015, remained stable from 2015-2016, then increased from 2016-2017. Synthetic opioid deaths (i.e. fentanyl) increased from 2015-2017. Methadone overdose deaths decreased from 2010-2017. Overdose deaths containing both heroin and methamphetamines have been increasing since 2014.

Self-reported use of heroin and other opioids while pregnant and corresponding neonatal abstinence syndrome have been increasing since 2013. Few pregnant women in need of opioid use disorder treatment are receiving it.

Naloxone administration increased in emergency departments (ED) from 2010-2016. Opiate-related hospital admissions increased during this period as well for both ED visits and inpatient (IP) admissions. The category of opioid-involved poisonings shifted. Opioid poisonings from heroin increased in the ED and IP. Opioid poisonings from methadone and other opioid and narcotics increased in ED and decreased in IP admissions.

The current sociopolitical climate in Nevada is favorable to addressing the opioid crisis. Key legislation was passed in the 2015 and 2017 legislative sessions to combat the opioid crisis. Nevada is one of only two states to meet all six key actions for ending the opioid crisis (National Safety Council, 2018). Gov. Brian Sandoval has been instrumental in increasing awareness of the problem, bringing together state and national experts, and introducing legislation to address the crisis. Attorney General Adam Laxalt has played a key role in legislation and statewide prevention efforts.

Through multiple funding sources, EMTs, healthcare providers, mental health professionals, drug court professionals, and interested parties have received varying levels of training on overdose education and naloxone distribution. Naloxone is available without a prescription in CVS and Walgreens pharmacies, Walmart, and Smith's Food and Drug Stores, with coverage of naloxone available through Medicaid and certain commercial insurance companies. Naloxone is available free of charge through Trac-B Exchange in Las Vegas, Northern Nevada HOPES in Reno, community coalition events, and Integrated Opioid Treatment and Recovery Center outreach. Community coalitions have conducted presentations statewide to educate parents, youth, seniors, real estate agents, and veterans on prescription drug abuse. Media campaigns and drop box/take back events have taken place in the majority of communities. One recovery community organization exists in Las Vegas, offering a wide variety of services.

Some gaps exist in addressing the crisis. Opioid Treatment Programs (OTP) only exist in Clark County, Washoe County and Carson City. Office-Based Opioid Treatment (OBOT) providers are only available to prescribe to patients in 10 counties, none of which are prescribing at capacity. OBOTs cite no time for additional patients, insufficient reimbursement rates, and a lack of patients looking for Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) as reasons for not prescribing MAT to more patients. Providers are looking for more information on counseling resources in their local areas to be able to give to patients.

Introduction

The opioid crisis is impacting the entire country. Since 1999, the amount of prescription opioids dispensed in the United States and the number of overdose deaths involving opioids have both quadrupled (CDC, 2017). Nevada ranks 12th highest in opioid painkiller prescribing rates (CDC, 2018) and 26th highest for opioid overdose deaths (Scholl, Seth, Kariisa, Wilson, & Baldwin, 2018).

While heroin seizures in Nevada more than doubled from 2014 to 2015, the market stabilized in 2017 (Nevada HIDTA, 2016; Nevada HIDTA, 2018). Over the last three years, methamphetamine seizures have risen 40% (Nevada HIDTA, 2018). Overdose deaths for concurrent heroin and methamphetamines have increased 29% in Clark County and 89% in Washoe County over the same time period (Washoe County Regional Examiner's Office, 2018; Southern Nevada Health District, 2018). Nevada has the highest methamphetamine overdose death rate in the country (Seth, Scholl, Rudd, & Bacon, 2018).

Neonatal exposure to substances has increased each year since 2012 (Nevada Division of Child & Family Services, 2017). At the same time, only 15% of pregnant women with an opioid use disorder received treatment (DHHS, 2018).

The crisis is complex and multifaceted and will need a coordinated effort to address it. Nevada's vast geography and healthcare provider shortage contribute to the challenge of the addressing the problem. Ninety percent (90%) of Nevada's population is concentrated Clark County, Washoe County, and Carson City. The remaining 10% is dispersed throughout the remaining 14 rural and frontier counties, where the distance between major rural towns averages 100 miles. The number of licensed alcohol, drug, and gambling counselors has declined from 45.0 to 42.1 per 100,000 since 2008 (Griswold et al., 2017). On the other hand, the number of healthcare providers who are Data 2000 waivered to prescribe buprenorphine has increased from 98 in 2013 to 250 in 2018 (Levi, et al., 2013; SAMHSA, 2018). Even where there is access, stigma and lack of knowledge about services reduce the number of persons who enter opioid use disorder treatment.

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) released two years of funding to combat the crisis through the Opioid State Targeted Response (STR) to the Opioid Crisis Grant. To determine how to focus programming, a needs assessment was completed, taking into account areas of highest use and consequences, resources and efforts already in existence, and gaps between need and resources. This needs assessment is considered a living document, and as such, will be updated as more information becomes available.

Prescribing Rates

The most recent annual data on opioid painkiller and benzodiazepine prescribing rates available from Nevada's PMP and the CDC are summarized below.

Nevada had the 12th highest opioid painkiller prescribing rate in the country in 2017, decreasing from 80.7 to 73.0 (CDC, 2018).

Based on data from the Nevada PMP and the CDC, Nevada's opioid painkiller prescribing rate is decreasing. The two sources use different definitions of opioids and population. The CDC rates are estimates based on a sample of pharmacies.

*Definitions vary slightly between CDC and PMP opioid prescriptions and populations used to calculate rates

(Sources: Guy et al., 2017; DHHS Office of Analytics; Prescription Monitoring Program)

Opioid prescribing rates were highest in Nye County (129.3), Storey County (125.2), Mineral County (118.5), and Lyon County (111.2). Opioid prescribing decreased 17% statewide from 2016 to 2017. All counties decreased except for Lincoln County which increased 39%. The largest decreases in opioid prescribing rates were in Mineral County (25%) and Esmerelda County (21%). All prescriptions are reported by county where the patients live. This may be different than the county where the prescription was written. See Table 1 for prescribing rates for each county.

Nevada's benzodiazepine prescribing rate remained stable from 2013 to 2016, then decreased 12% in 2017.

The benzodiazepine prescribing rate is highest in Nye County (54.3) and Storey County (50.9)—each significantly higher than the state prescribing rate of 33.9. The benzodiazepine prescribing rate decreased in all counties except for Lincoln County as well. Lincoln County increased by 34% from 2016 to 2017, following a 46% increase from 2015 to 2016. The prescribing rate percent change decreased the most in Mineral County (41%), White Pine County (25%), and Esmerelda County (25%) from 2016 to 2017.

The top two opioid prescribing counties—Nye and Storey Counties—are the same counties as the top two Benzodiazepine prescribing counties, indicating these counties are at highest risk for overprescribing.

Opioid-Involved Overdose Deaths

The most recent annual data available for Nevada's opioid-involved overdose deaths are summarized below. There has been a 21% decrease in overdose-related deaths since 2011.

The table below shows age-adjusted opioid overdose death rates by county in 2017. Rates are age-adjusted so that they can be compared across regions and with other states and national statistics.

Age groups affected greatest by opioid deaths were ages 45-54 and ages 55-64, with death rates significantly higher.

Opiate-involved overdose deaths were significantly lower among Hispanic and Asian/Pacific Islander residents.

(Sources: DHHS Office of Analytics; Electronic Death Registry System)

Opioid overdose deaths were significantly greater for natural and semi-synthetic (i.e. hydrocodone) opioids for all years displayed. Natural and semi-synthetic deaths are on a decreasing trend since 2012. From 2010-2015, heroin deaths increased, remained stable from 2015-2016, then increased again from 2016-2017. For the last three years, 2015-2017, synthetic opioid deaths (i.e. fentanyl) increased. Methadone overdose deaths decreased from 2010-2017.

*Data are preliminary and are subject to change.
A person can be included in more than one drug group, and therefore the counts above are not mutually exclusive.

From 2012 to 2017, overdose deaths from methamphetamine and heroin increased 260% in Clark County and 433% in Washoe County. Half of the heroin deaths in Clark County and Washoe County included methamphetamine in 2017.

Heroin overdose deaths were highest among individuals 30-49 years (42%) in Clark County, compared to Washoe County heroin overdose deaths which were highest among individuals 18-29 years (41%) and 50-69 years (38%).

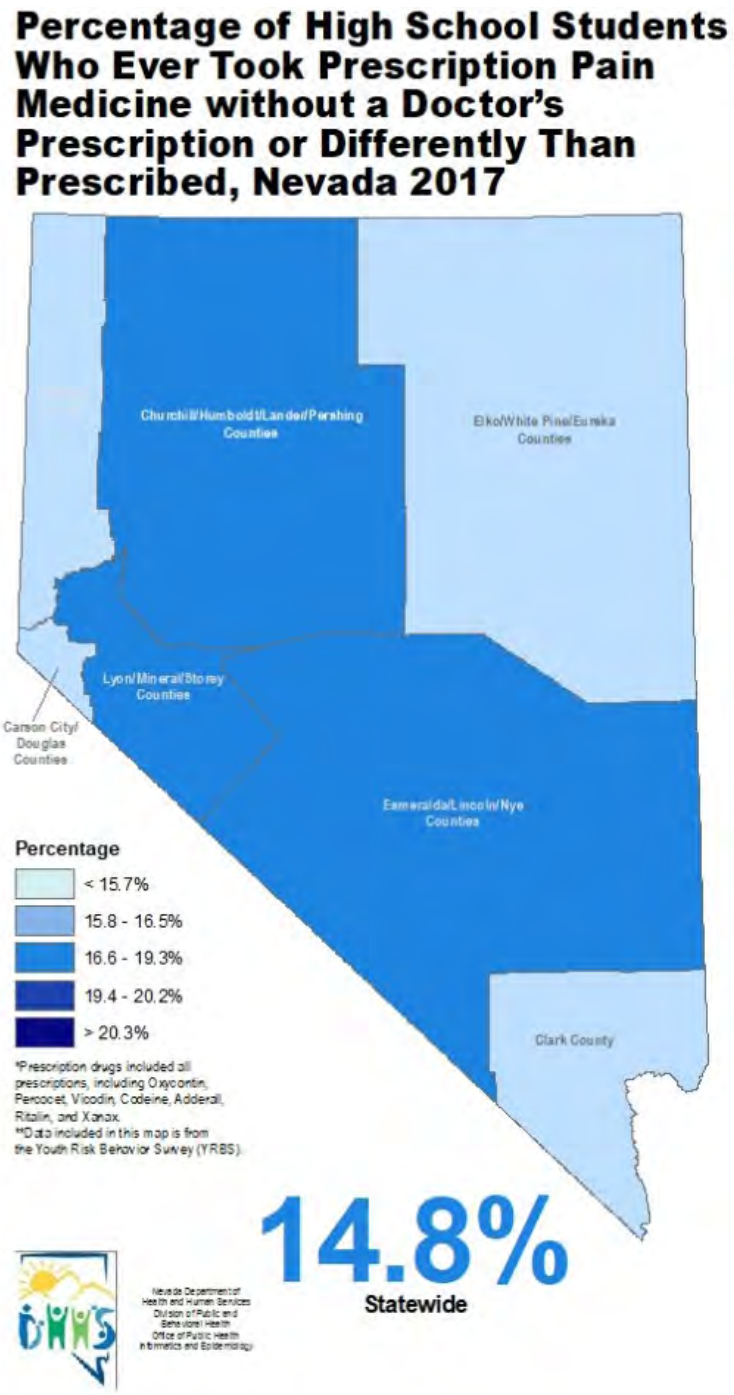
Misuse and Related Harms

Adolescent Misuse



The proportion of high school students who self-reported ever using a prescription drug without a doctor's prescription decreased, though not significantly, from 20.2% to 16.9% from 2011-2015. Prescription drugs were defined as any prescription drugs including, but not limited to: Oxycontin, Percocet, Vicodin, Codeine, Adderall, Ritalin, or Xanax. Due to this broad definition, the question was more of a proxy for prescription opioid use rather than a direct measurement. In 2017, the question was updated to more accurately assess prescription painkiller use. The question now asks if the student has ever used a prescription pain medicine without a doctor's prescription or differently than prescribed. The lifetime prevalence was 14.8% and use in the past 30 days was 7.0%.

Weighted lifetime prescription drug use was significantly lower among Asian students (5.2%). The same disparity existed for past 30-day prescription drug use, with 2.3% of Asians reporting current use, compared to 7.0% of the state sample.

Lifetime use of a painkiller without a prescription did not vary significantly from county to county. The source of the high school data aggregates some counties together; therefore, it is not known if the county groupings increased or decreased the total percentage.

Table 4. Percentage of High School Students Who Ever Took Prescription Pain Medicine without a Doctor's Prescription or Differently Than Prescribed, 2017

Washoe	14.8% (11.8-17.9)
Statewide	14.8% (13.2-16.4)

(Source: YRBS)

Self-reported lifetime heroin use in high school did not change significantly from 2013 to 2017. Lifetime heroin use did not differ significantly by county. Prevalence was significantly lower among Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander respondents. Again, the high school data aggregates multiple counties which may affect rankings.

Adult Misuse

According to the National Survey on Drug Use and Health (NSDUH), Nevada ranks fourth for the percentage of people aged 12 or older who used prescription pain relievers nonmedically in the past year from 2012-2014 (5.20%), down from second from 2010-2012 (5.92%) (Lipari et al., 2017).

The Behavior Risk Factor Surveillance System instead assesses past 30-day use of a painkiller to get high, where 0.7% of adults in Nevada indicated yes, in aggregated data from 2013-2016.

Past year heroin use in Nevada among those aged 12 or older was the same as the national average of 0.33% in 2014-2015 (SAMHSA, 2017).

Prenatal Substance Misuse

Self-reported use of heroin and other opioids has been on an increasing trend since 2011. Because substance use during pregnancy is self-reported by mothers, reported rates are likely lower than actual rates due to underreporting, and expectant mothers may be reluctant to be fore forthcoming on the birth record for a variety of reasons.

From April 2017 to March 2018, 871 pregnant women on Medicaid were diagnosed with an opioid use disorder. Of these women, only 112 were on medication-assisted treatment and 19 submitted substance use treatment claims.

Medical Interventions

The rate of EMS calls requiring administration of naloxone is higher for Lyon County. Of the seven counties listed in the 0-1 calls category, five counties had zero EMS calls requiring naloxone administration: Esmeralda, Humboldt, Lander, Lincoln, and Pershing. Lincoln County EMS was part of the NROOR funding and had naloxone on the ambulances. It is unknown if naloxone is carried by EMS in the other counties with no administration.

Naloxone administration in emergency departments increased from 2013-2016. Naloxone was only used for a small percentage of total opioid poisonings (15.2%) and opioid encounters (3.8%).

*Includes ICD-9 Codes of 965.0, 304.0, 304.7, 305.5, E850.0, E850.1, E850.2 and ICD-10 Codes of T40.0-T40.4, and T40.6, F11, and J23.10.
Opioid poisonings are a subset of opioid encounters.

Both ED and IP admissions for opiates increased from 2010-2016. Opioid poisonings, a subset of opioid-related admissions, remained steady during those same years among ED and IP admissions. In 2014, the highest rate of opioid-related IP stays was among individuals aged 45-64 years, while opioid-related ED visits were highest among individuals 25-44 years old. ED visits were highest in this age group in all 30 states for which ED data were available. There was variation among highest age group for IP admissions, with rates highest among individuals 45-64 years in only nine states. Females had a higher rate of IP stays, while men had a higher rate of ED visits (Weiss et al., 2017).

*A person can be included in more than one drug group, therefore the counts above are not mutually exclusive.
In October 2015, ICD-10-CM codes were implemented. Previous to October 2015, ICD-9-CM codes were used for medical billing. Therefore, 2015 data consists of two distinct coding schemes, ICD-9-CM and ICD-10-CM respectively. Due to this change in coding schemes, hospital billing data from October 2015 forward may not be directly comparable to previous data.

While Figure 14 shows the number of opioid poisonings has remained stable, Figure 15 displays that the type of opioid drug causing opioid poisonings has changed. Opioid poisonings from heroin have increased in the ED and IP. Methadone and other opioid and narcotics have increased in ED encounters, while decreasing in IP admissions.

State of Current Services and Funding

Availability of Medication-Assisted Treatment

There are 15 Opioid Treatment Programs (OTPs) in Nevada across Clark County, Washoe County, and Carson City (see Table 10). Only one OTP location, Life Change Center Sparks, is at capacity. To address this, they are planning to open another facility in Reno. The two Mission Treatment Center locations and the four Center for Behavioral Health locations said they would add more staff as client levels increased, stating that there was no limit to their capacity. One OTP does not provide maintenance therapy, as it is only using MAT to detox and then refer the client to another provider. The 14 rural counties in Nevada have no OTPs. Capacity to provide MAT services among the 12 clinics responding to inquiry is 4,693 clients. No information was available on the remaining three facilities.

Three OTPs, Adelson Clinic in Clark County and Life Change Center (one location in Washoe County and one in Carson City), receive funding from SAPTA through the Federal Block Grant. At those facilities, the majority of clientele seeking MAT are publicly funded. Requests for number served who are publicly funded or privately funded were not returned by 12 OTPs, but most clients should be privately funded at those facilities. See Table 9 for more information on county served, program capacity, and psychosocial interventions offered.

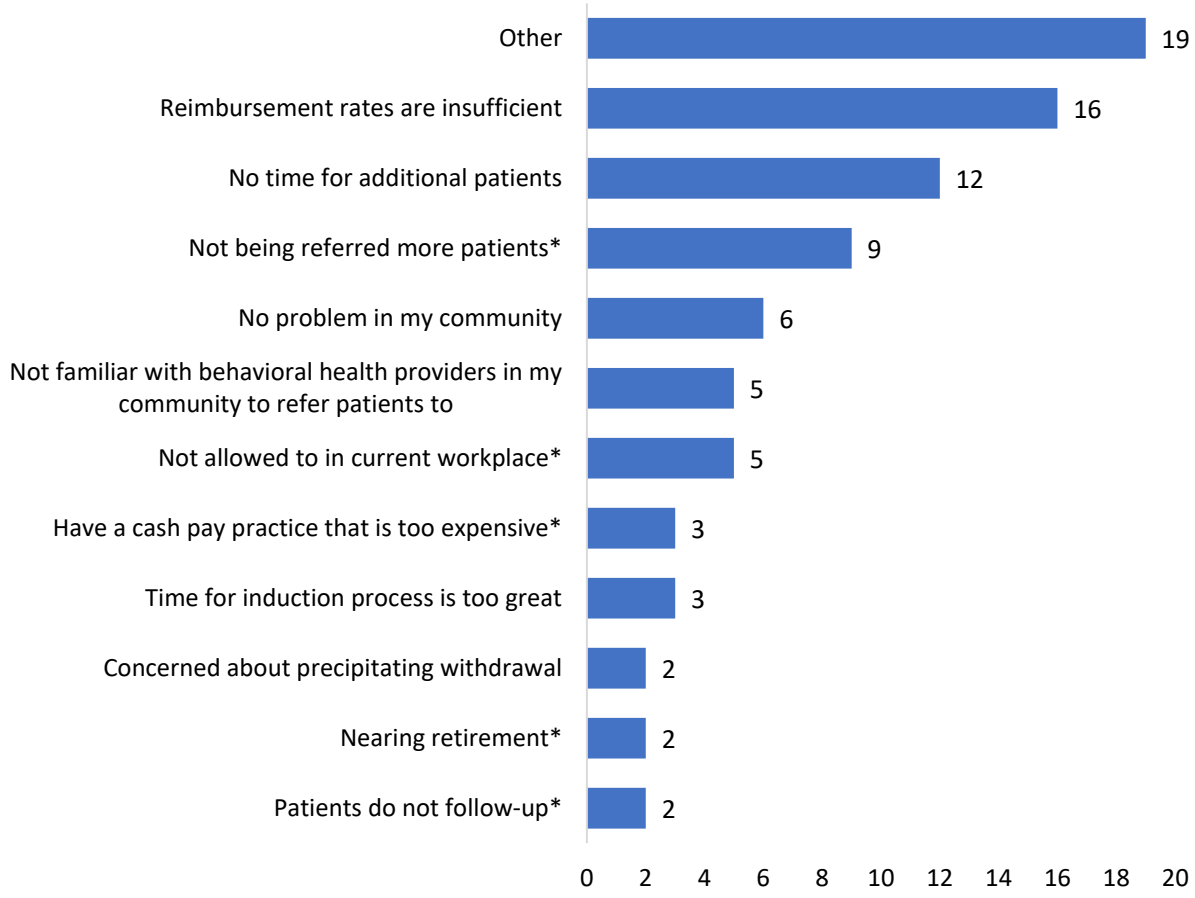
In August 2017, all 192 Data 2000 waivered providers were emailed a brief survey inquiring about their buprenorphine prescribing limit, current caseload of MAT patients, reasons for not prescribing at capacity, resources that could increase their MAT prescribing, counties prescribing in, use of opioid and naloxone co-prescribing, psychosocial interventions offered and interventions provided through contract arrangements. Ten email addresses were "undeliverable," reducing the sample to 182. The survey received 84 responses, with eight indicating they did not want to participate and five not completing the survey, leaving 71 responses for analysis. Survey results presented below should be interpreted with caution, as only 39% of Data 2000 waivered providers completed the survey.



OBOTs prescribe in 10 counties: Carson City (5), Churchill (2), Clark (147), Elko (3), Humboldt (1), Lincoln (1), Lyon (1), Nye (1), Pershing (2), and Washoe (30). Of the OBOTs who responded to our electronic survey, none were prescribing at their capacity, although one had just increased their limit, so they were prescribing to their prior capacity. Three-quarters (75%) of respondents work in private practice. Nearly all (97%) of respondents said their practice/agency was accepting new clients. The number of patients the providers were certified to prescribe to ranged, with 47% 30 patient certified, 30% 100 patient certified, and 23% 275 patient certified. While less than half (47%) of providers were certified to prescribe to only 30 patients, 74% of respondents were prescribing in this range. Almost one-third (30%) were allowed to prescribe buprenorphine to up to 100 patients, but only 18% of respondents actually were. Finally, while nearly one-quarter (23%) had increased their prescribing limit to 275 patients, 8% were utilizing this ability (see Figure 16).

Respondents were asked to select all of the reasons that they were not prescribing at their Buprenorphine capacity and given the opportunity to write in other reasons that were not listed. As shown in Figure 17, the most often cited reasons for not prescribing at capacity were no time for reimbursement rates insufficient, additional patients, and not being referred more patients.

*represents aggregated responses written into Other
Question was a select all that apply so the number of answers is more than the number of respondents

As a follow-up, participants were then asked what resources would increase their willingness to prescribe to capacity. The most common response was that the prescriber would like "being provided with information about counseling resources for patients in my local area," followed by that "nothing would increase my willingness to prescribe to capacity."

Over half (52%) of survey respondents indicated that they co-prescribed naloxone with opioid painkillers for high-risk patients, with 11% of those citing doing so "frequently" and 3% "always."

The majority of survey respondents (69%) were employed in a practice that offered psychosocial services or interventions and 48% provided psychosocial interventions through contract arrangements with qualified behavioral health providers. The most common service offered was buprenorphine induction and maintenance. Counseling and Substance Use Disorder Evaluation were also common responses.

Socio-Political Environment

Policy/legislation passed in Nevada related to the opioid overdose crisis supportive of MAT is summarized below.

The Good Samaritan Drug Overdose Act of 2015 (SB 459) provides for immunity from prosecution for personal use and possession of controlled substances from individuals seeking medical attention for themselves or others during a drug overdose. Immunity does not extend to large quantities for sale or trafficking.

SB 459 requires that prescribing physicians obtain a patient utilization report on the Prescription Monitoring Program before the initiation of a schedule II, III, or IV prescription drug for a new patient, or for a course of treatment lasting longer than seven days that is part of a new course of treatment for an existing patient. SB 459 also requires the pharmacists to update the system within the next business day of filling a prescription. Participation in the PMP has increased from 16% to 98% since the legislation passed.

With the passage of SB 459, a physician can prescribe an opioid antagonist (i.e. naloxone) directly or by standing order to a person who is at risk of overdose or to a family member, friend, or other person in a position to assist a person who is at risk of experiencing an overdose. Additionally, SB 459 allows a pharmacist to dispense an opioid antagonist without a prescription. Finally, an unlicensed person may store and/or dispense an opioid antagonist under a standing order from a properly authorized prescriber, as long as the medication is dispensed without charge or compensation.

In 2016, Nevada Gov. Sandoval established a Drug Abuse Prevention Task Force led by First Lady Kathleen Sandoval. The governor convened and chaired a statewide drug summit in the summer of 2016. The summit assembled over 500 stakeholders, including legislators, healthcare professionals, law enforcement, judges, and individuals in recovery from a substance use disorder. Based on their recommendations, Gov. Sandoval announced in his 2017 State of the State Address that he was introducing the Controlled Substance Abuse Prevention Act, which will provide more training and reporting, and heightened protocols for healthcare professionals with prescribing controlled substances. Additionally, the Nevada Attorney General chairs a Substance Abuse Working Group consisting of nine members. The Working Group submitted recommendations for combating the opioid crisis to the Nevada Legislature. The Office of the Attorney General proposed SB 59, utilizing the recommendations of the Working Group. SB 59 requires reporting of controlled-substance violations, prescription drug-related overdoses or deaths, and stolen prescription drugs to the PMP. The bill went into effect on July 1, 2017.

The Controlled Substances Abuse Prevention Act (AB 474), which went into effect on Jan. 1, 2018, requires doctors and hospitals to report any drug overdoses to the state. Additionally, licensing boards can access PMP data to investigate inappropriate prescribing, dispensing, or use of a controlled substance. Prescribers will now need to perform a risk assessment before prescribing a controlled substance. For prescriptions over 30 days in length, a prescription medical agreement with the patient must be created. The prescriber must also complete a risk of abuse assessment and obtain a patient utilization report every 90 days for the duration of the prescription. Numerous trainings have been held and materials distributed to educate healthcare providers on AB 474.

Any physician or physician's assistant who is registered to prescribe controlled substances must complete at least two hours of training specifically addressing the prescribing of opioids or addiction every licensing period.

There is no dedicated state funding for MAT. All funding is allocated from the Block Grant. Dedicated state funding does not exist for naloxone either. The Commission on Behavioral Health has approved new criteria so programs will no longer be able to deny clients residential treatment who are stabilized on MAT. The new criteria went into effect April 1, 2018.

All opioid dependence and overdose reversal medications are covered by three managed care organizations (MCOs)—Amerigroup, Health Plan of Nevada, and Silver Summit Health Plan—but prior authorization and quantity limits differ. Table 10 displays prior authorization and quantity limits required by each plan.

Naloxone Prevention Initiatives

When this needs assessment was first conducted in July 2017, naloxone distribution was limited to pharmacies and a few hospitals. Naloxone is available without a prescription through standing orders at Walgreens and CVS Pharmacies and Smith's Food and Drug Stores. Naloxone is distributed at five (5) Nevada Rural Opioid Overdose Reversal Program (NROOR) funded hospitals in Lincoln, Lyon, Mineral, Nye, and White Pine counties to patients discharging from the hospital following an overdose.

Overdose education and naloxone distribution (OEND) expanded in 2018 through Opioid STR funding and activities. Overdose education includes training on how to recognize an overdose, the Good Samaritan law, and how to administer naloxone. Community-based organizations (CBO) can apply to serve as naloxone distribution sites. Eligible CBO types include:

- Needle exchange programs,
- SAPTA-certified or Medicaid eligible providers providing treatment services,
- Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHC),
- Jails,
- Peer recovery communities,
- Health districts,

- Other STR funded treatment and recovery support entities.

Exemptions to these criteria may be applied in rural and frontier high need areas or in cases of Public Health Emergency.*

To extend naloxone availability, upon request from partnering community coalitions, the Opioid STR grant will hold educational events to offer OEND to their constituents. A statewide tour of community coalitions began in June 2018, training and distributing naloxone 773 individuals.

Beginning in April 2017, Trac-B Exchange in Las Vegas opened the state's first permanent needle exchange, which also now delivers OEND free of charge. In Northern Nevada, Change Point Harm Reduction Center, provides OEND, along with syringe services and rapid HIV and hepatitis C testing. The three Integrated Opioid Treatment and Recovery Centers (IOTRC) are offering OEND to clients that are at risk of overdose, client family members, transitional living facilities, homeless shelters, community-based organizations, and weekly motels. IOTRCs have distributed 852 kids and reported 15 reversals through March – October 2018. Southern Nevada Health District is a SAMHSA First Responders – Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act grantee, delivering OEND services throughout Clark County. Southern Nevada Health District provided OEND to 2,798 individuals through March – October.

NROOR has trained 117 EMTs on overdose education and naloxone administration. Although not specifically education on naloxone, 46 healthcare providers, 37 mental health professionals, drug court professionals, and attendees of a community college library committee event received training on overdose education. Presentations on integrating naloxone and overdose prevention into clinical practice were given at the annual meeting of the Nevada Academy of Family Physicians and at the annual Orvis Nursing School healthcare symposium. The Nevada Rural Preparedness Summit provided a presentation on expanding naloxone access. The Carson City Law Enforcement Summit and the Las Vegas Opioid Crisis Summit included naloxone training. One coalition, covering the three rural counties of Humboldt, Pershing, and Lander counties, is training first responders on naloxone (Stein-Seroussi, Grabarek, & Hanley, 2016).

Prevention Efforts

A description of Nevada's current prevention efforts, which are primarily completed SAMHSA Strategic Prevention Framework – Partnership for Success-funded community coalitions, are summarized below.

Social marketing/media campaigns are a strategy being implemented by 11 community coalitions, including nearly 10,000 paid ads and 14,000 public service announcements (Stein-Seroussi et al., 2016). Coalitions had a media presence with the release of 'Women of Childbearing Years,' an opioid prevention TV ad; and students from Pershing County High School produced prescription drug abuse ads. An associated website was also created (www.healthiernv.org) to provide information to prescribers, families and policymakers.

Eight (8) community coalitions coordinate semi-annual Take Back events and utilize drop boxes in law enforcement facilities in between Take Back events (Stein-Seroussi et al., 2016). Funded by the Federal Office of Rural Health Policy, NROOR is providing naloxone to EMTs and paramedics and training them on its use in seven counties: Esmeralda, Eureka, Lincoln, Lyon, Mineral, Nye and White Pine.

Eleven coalitions have reported coordinating continuing education opportunities for physicians (Stein-Seroussi, Grabarek, & Hanley, 2016). Additionally, presentations to educate parents, youth, seniors, real estate agents, and veterans are conducted statewide to help them understand issues.

Over the past year, four new websites have been created. Three Nevada websites target educating the public and providers on the opioids. Prescribe365, run by the State of Nevada Division of Public and Behavioral Health is a hub of information for patients and providers. Healthcare provider information includes educational materials surrounding AB 474 and naloxone co-prescribing. Consumer materials for patients, friends and family contain information on how to use naloxone and links to treatment locators. Know your Pain Meds is operated by the Nevada State Board of Examiners, Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, and Nevada State Board of Nursing. The website contains information on the PMP, naloxone, alternatives to opioids for managing pain, and filing a concern about a medical provider. The Nevada STR website has information on funding opportunities, training opportunities, naloxone education and SBIRT materials, and STR publications. The fourth website is designed to make local data available to the public. The Nevada Opioid Overdose Surveillance Dashboard contains death rates, opioid-related emergency department visits and inpatient admissions, and opioid prescriptions at the county- and zip-code level.

Recovery Support Initiatives

At this time, Nevada has one peer-run recovery community organization, Foundations for Recovery, which is in Las Vegas. Foundations for Recovery offers a peer-recovery community center; peer recovery coaching; mutual aid support groups; life skills classes; high school equivalency (HSE) tutoring and testing; parenting classes; mental health first aid; suicide prevention trainings; houses the Southern Nevada NAMI affiliate and hosts the annual Rally for Recovery. All services are available to the public, including women with children, and pregnant women. Foundations for Recovery staff was trained in Medication Assisted Recovery Services (MARS), which is a peer-initiated and peer-based recovery support project sponsored by the National Alliance of Medication-Assisted (NAMA) Recovery.

The state of Nevada, through the Nevada Behavioral Health Association, offers a voluntary certification process for peer-support specialists. In-person and online training opportunities are available for individuals seeking peer-support specialist training.

In 2015, Nevada was one of 24 states to be awarded a Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC) demonstration grant through SAMSHA, under the Excellence in Mental Health Act. In 2016, the state became one of eight selected to carry out the formal implementation of CCBHCs. Phase 1 of the project offered states one-year planning grants to develop their CCBHC program and Phase 2 enabled the selected states to move forward with the development of CCBHCs. Nevada has two CCBHCs located throughout the state (currently in rural areas) that provide a comprehensive range of mental health and substance use disorder services, particularly to vulnerable individuals with complex needs. 7 more agencies have been selected to build CCBHC services moving forward to further address coverage across the state. Peer support and family support services are included in the array of services CCBHCs are required to offer and provide.

No efforts targeting clients related to re-integration following incarceration existed when this needs assessment was completed in July 2017. Opioid STR funds are now beginning to be used to address this. Case managers have been placed strategically for screening and referral of pre-arrest individuals, warm handoff from detention centers to treatment facilities, and in post-release care following prison. Assessment of how these positions are reducing recidivism and impacting other outcomes is occurring and conversations of where other sustainable programming can be implemented is occurring.

Other Opioid Funding Sources

Gaps in Services and Policies

Only three of Nevada's 17 counties are considered urban (Clark, Washoe, and Carson City), accounting for 91% of the state's population. The remaining counties are considered rural or frontier (meaning less than 1 person per 7 square miles). The average distance between acute care hospitals in rural Nevada and the next level of care or tertiary care hospital is 114.7 miles and the average distance to the nearest incorporated town is 46.5 miles (Griswold et al., 2017).

Nevada's rurality presents issues with access to care in all types of medical and behavioral health. MAT services are limited in rural areas, with OTPs only existing in the three urban counties. Access to OBOTs is better, with access in 10 counties: Washoe, Clark, Carson, Churchill, Elko, Humboldt, Lyon, Lincoln, Pershing, and Nye. There is still a gap in MAT when considering Mineral and Storey counties lack access to an OBOT and are counties with some of the highest percentages of individuals in treatment for opiates.

There is a gap in the availability of naloxone among individuals who are legally prescribed painkillers by their doctor, with the co-prescribing of naloxone and opioids currently being underutilized by healthcare providers. With naloxone distribution following hospitalization for an overdose only available at five rural hospitals in Mineral, Nye, Lyon, and Lincoln counties, patients in the remaining counties are still at greater risk of overdose leaving the hospital. IOTRC Mobile Recovery Outreach Team services have begun in emergency rooms, reducing this gap in some hospitals and efforts are underway to expand to more hospitals. Some towns do not have any of the three pharmacies with standing orders for naloxone and naloxone distribution events thus far have been held on only one occasion in many rural towns.

Recovery supports are limited in many regions to 12-step meetings and in some frontier communities such meetings are rare or non-existent.

With coordinated care management, not currently reimbursable by Medicaid, the connections between varying levels of care and necessary supports is lacking.

Definitions

Office-based Opioid Treatment (OBOT) ASAM

Physicians and soon Physician Assistants and Nurse Practitioners in private practices or a number of types of public or private sector clinics can be authorized through a waiver to prescribe the partial opioid agonist buprenorphine or buprenorphine/naloxone (though OTPs can administer or dispense buprenorphine products as well through the waiver). There is no regulation per se of the clinic sites where buprenorphine-prescribers practice. It is the practice of the individual prescriber, which is regulated by FDA addressing office-based treatment.

Opioid Treatment Program (OTP) ASAM

Opioid treatment programs using methadone and/or buprenorphine are presented in The ASAM Criteria as a Level 1 outpatient service because opioid agonist medications are most commonly used for opioid use disorders and an outpatient setting is the context in which it is most commonly offered.

Previous terms for OTP are methadone maintenance treatment (MMT) or opioid maintenance therapy (OMT) as was used in the ASAM PPC-2R.

Opioid Treatment Services (OTS) ASAM
An umbrella term that encompasses a variety of pharmacological and non-pharmacological treatment modalities. This term broadens understanding of opioid treatments to include all medications used to treat opioid use disorders and the psychosocial services that are offered concurrently with these pharmacotherapies. Pharmacological agents include opioid agonist medications such as methadone and buprenorphine, and opioid antagonist medications such as naltrexone.

Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) SAMHSA
The use of medications with counseling and behavioral therapies to treat substance use disorders and prevent opioid overdose.

Agonist
An opioid/drug that acts like another substance and activates certain receptors in the brain. It is the opposite of an antagonist medication. An example of an agonist medication is methadone.

Partial Opioid Agonist
An opioid that produces less effect than a full agonist when it binds to opioid receptors in the brain. An example of a partial agonist is buprenorphine (Subutex) and buprenorphine/naloxone (Suboxone).

Antagonist
A non-opioid that acts against and blocks an action. It binds to opioid receptors in the brain preventing the usual feelings of the opioid. It is the opposite of an agonist medication. An example of an antagonist is naltrexone and naloxone.

Over-prescribing doctors can escape scrutiny in Nevada

Anjeanette Damon and Jason Hidalgo, Reno Gazette-Journal

Updated May 14, 2016, 6:42 p.m. PT

Nevada has a pill problem.

From the number of people dying from prescription pain pill overdoses to the sheer amount of narcotics that doctors prescribe, Nevada tops national lists.

At the same time, Nevada lawmakers — pushed by a strong lobby of doctors — have resisted instituting programs used in other states that could flag practitioners who may need intervention for their prescribing practices.

That regulatory gap is exacerbated by professional licensing boards that say it's not within their purview to initiate investigations against members outside of the formal complaint process.

But the arrest this month of a Reno family practice physician charged with illegally distributing controlled substances brought into sharp focus the community-wide turmoil created by a doctor who grew a practice on prescribing habits a federal prosecutor has described as criminal.

Among other charges, Dr. Robert Rand is accused of illegally distributing a controlled substance that resulted in the death of 33-year-old Michael Yenick.

"This case has definitely highlighted that a focus should be on the providers," Reno police Deputy Chief Tom Robinson said last week. "The users, they're often just a symptom of the problem."

As with many states, Nevada has a robust prescription drug monitoring program, a database of every prescription for a controlled substance filled in the state, including the dosage, the number of pills and both the patient's and prescriber's identification.

Unlike many states, however, Nevada relies on the program primarily to red flag the patients who may be "doctor shopping" or filling enough prescriptions to identify them as a potential pill abuser. The database, it is hoped, can be used to get those addicted to pills the treatment they need, regulators said.

Similar criteria that could red flag a doctor's prescribing practices, however, haven't been developed and are actively opposed by professional licensing boards such as the Board of Medical Examiners.

"It would be inappropriate, and it's not the intent of the (prescription monitoring program), to find cases to investigate," said Edward Cousineau, executive director of the Board of Medical Examiners, which licenses medical doctors and investigates malpractice complaints in the state.

In fact, Las Vegas police had to request special legislation last session to give local law enforcement investigators explicit access to the database after the pharmacy board stopped allowing them access, according to testimony at the Legislature.

The community is just starting to learn of the ripple effect created by Rand's arrest as part of a months-long investigation into a pill mill that federal investigators believe was operating out of the Jones West Ford car dealership.

Rand was one of nine people arrested, including the dealership's manager Richard "Richie" West II and seven of his present and past co-workers. West, and many of his co-defendants, were Rand patients, according to Assistant U.S. Attorney James Keller.

Yenick, who died in October from alcohol and oxycodone intoxication, also was Rand's patient.

All are pleading not guilty to the charges.

In West's detention hearing, Keller argued Rand ran a special "family and friends" program that allowed his patients to escape routine examinations and access prescriptions for a high number of pills. Keller said Rand prescribed West as many as 800 pills in one day.

Federal agents confiscated a list of names enrolled in that program during a search of the doctor's office, Keller said.

Even before the bust, Drug Enforcement Administration and FBI agents worried the fallout would have a significant effect on the medical community, the substance abuse treatment community and the patients who would no longer have access to Rand's prescriptions. Agents began to put together a task force of various agencies to address the fallout days before the bust.

On Thursday, scores of doctors, emergency medical responders, public health workers, addiction counselors, social workers and law enforcement met for the first time to discuss what was described as an opioid addiction crisis in Nevada.

The discussion, however, quickly turned to Rand.

Dr. Annemarie Campione said her family practice has taken on many of Rand's patients. Rand remains incarcerated pending a detention hearing to decide whether he should be released on his own recognizance to face the charges.

Campione said many of his patients use no pain medication and saw him for unrelated health issues. Some of those who sought pain treatment from him, however, came to Campione's practice severely dependent, unable to get new prescriptions and in a state of detoxification, she said.

"They are on boatloads of drugs," Campione said. "I can't believe they're still even breathing."

In a raw display of candor, Campione said the number of people was so overwhelming she wished the city could "set up a tent" to address their needs quickly.

The Crisis Call Center has also fielded calls from patients who can't find a new doctor, are in need of pain medication or who are having non-pain medication prescriptions being rejected by pharmacists.

Statistics show that Nevada ranks in the top five states when it comes to prescribing certain pain pills.

Overall, Nevada doctors wrote 94 prescriptions per 100 people in 2012, the latest data available.

"That scared the hell out of me," said Mike Willden, Gov. Brian Sandoval's chief of staff. "That means every man, woman and child in Nevada had access to a prescription."

Stephanie Woodard, a clinical psychologist with the Nevada Division of Public and Behavioral Health, said 94 prescriptions per 100 people puts Nevada just above average with other states overall.

But a Reno Gazette-Journal analysis of DEA data showed that for certain drugs, Nevada ranks among the highest in the country.

Take oxycodone, Nevada's most widely prescribed opioid. In 2012, nearly 1.04 million grams was distributed via retail in the state. That's more than double what doctors prescribed in 2006. Nevada's distribution rate is third highest in the country.

Nevada also ranks third for its hydrocodone distribution rate. In 2012, doctors prescribed more than 799,000 grams of hydrocodone -- nearly three times the rate of New Jersey, which has triple Nevada's population.

Woodard said the reasons for the high prescription rates aren't totally clear, but could be attributed to the fact that in 1999, medical professionals listed pain as the fifth vital sign to assess for a patient's well-being. Some doctors are advocating for that practice to stop.

While a high distribution rate isn't necessarily an indication that doctors are acting criminally, some states are using their prescription drug monitoring programs as both an investigatory tool to flag bad actors and educate doctors about their prescribing habits.

That's not necessarily happening in Nevada.

Federal agents involved in the investigation into Rand won't comment on the case, saying the investigation is continuing and more indictments may be coming.

But a Reno police source said it wasn't the prescription monitoring program that initially flagged Rand as a suspect. That happened after evidence was uncovered of illicit drug use and the investigation intensified in the wake of Yenick's death. The monitoring program, which is used when investigating complaints or criminal activity, then showed the extent of Rand's prescribing habits.

Rand's indictment alleges the doctor began illegally distributing controlled substances in 2012.

Robinson admitted that most of his department's investigations are targeted on the users and the peddlers of pain pills, not the prescribers. He said there could be a stronger role for licensing boards to play, but added they typically don't have the resources to mine data for problem prescribers.

The Board of Medical Examiners won't comment on complaints against its doctors until the complaint been through an investigation and results in a formal complaint filing. No public documents on complaints against Rand exist.

According to a Reno Gazette-Journal review of publicly available complaint documents, the Board of Medical Examiners has launched about 20 formal investigations into doctors accused of some sort of prescription irregularity involving pain medication since 2013.

Fifteen resulted in some disciplinary action, including a public reprimand, probation or license suspension.

Attacking Nevada's prescription drug program was one of Sandoval's top five priorities in last year's legislative session, Willden said.

He introduced an omnibus bill that included legal protections for those who seek help for someone who has overdosed and allows for expanded distribution of naloxone, which can reverse the effects of an opioid and stop an overdose from killing, to first responders and friends and family members of addicts. The local task force is now conducting public outreach on the Good Samaritan Law that can protect those who seek medical help for an overdose victim.

But when it came to implementing more reporting and education requirements on doctors, Sandoval had a fight on his hands.

The bill initially required that doctors receive two hours of continuing education on opioid addiction every year. The bill that passed allows licensing boards to recommend doctors take one hour of training a year.

The legislation also included a new requirement that doctors check the prescription drug monitoring database before prescribing a narcotic to a new patient in certain cases, a measure that was also resisted by doctors but ultimately passed.

Another requirement: the prescription drug monitoring program now must send copies of the reports generated on a potential doctor-shopping patient to the prescriber's licensing board.

According to the minutes of the legislative hearings on the bill, the medical community fought against the additional requirements for doctors. In the bill's first hearing before the Assembly Healthcare Committee, only doctors testified against it.

They cited concerns that doctors would be afraid to make legitimate use of pain pill prescriptions for patients they've known and cared for. And they said doctors shouldn't have to worry about Big Brother looking over their shoulders.

"It makes me pause every time I start to write a script for any controlled substance; I should not have to feel like that," Dr. Ivan Goldsmith of Las Vegas told lawmakers during the hearing. "At the end of the day, the doctor and the patient have the relationship, not the government in the middle. Doctors should be the ones who decide what is best for their patients. This bill has a chilling effect on that."

What resulted was a compromise on how the prescription drug monitoring program should be used to flag problem prescribers.

Willden said the state needs to strike a balance in over-regulating doctors to the point they don't want to practice here. Nevada suffers from a severe doctor shortage in many disciplines as it is.

"We don't want to look like a state that's holding a 10-pound hammer and have doctors thinking we're looking over their shoulder every second," Willden said.

He said the new law should be given time to work before asking for stricter legislation.

The Pharmacy Board, which runs the prescription drug monitoring program, is responsible for sending reports on potential pill abusers to the boards that license prescribers such as doctors, nurses and dentists. But it's up to the different licensing boards to decide how to use those reports.

According to interviews, each board treats the reports differently.

First, the pharmacy board doesn't believe it has a role in flagging prescribers that show a troubling pattern.

The board sets criteria for flagging a patient, such as how many different doctors a patient is getting prescriptions from, and how many prescriptions they are filling in a certain time period.

But executive director Larry Pinson said it would be inappropriate for the board to set similar criteria to flag a doctor.

"Who's to say what's normal or what's OK," Pinson said. "It might be appropriate for a physician to be prescribing a ton of narcotics according to his specialty."

Pinson said that's not meant to minimize the problem with opioid addiction or the program's role in combating it.

"The governor's office has a real legitimate concern," he said. "There are people who are just simply dying because they are taking too many narcotics. They are dying and we need to do something about that.

"The goal is not to get people arrested and put in jail, but get them the treatment they need and get them fixed."

So, the reports on individual patients go to the various licensing boards. Then what?

The Board of Medical Examiners, which licenses the bulk of the state's doctors, said they use the reports to remind doctors to check that their patients aren't suffering from an addiction. It would be inappropriate to use them to initiate an investigation, Cousineau said.

"I've talked to many doctors over the years and they've implored me, they don't want constraints, whether through statute or regulation, that limits their subjective ability to treat patients," Cousineau said. "Ninety-nine percent of doctors are doing the right thing."

The Nursing Board goes a little further, asking their practitioner to send a letter back to the board describing why the opioids being prescribed to a patient who has been red flagged is appropriate, said executive director Cathy Dinauer.

Barbara Longo, executive director of the Board of Osteopathic Medicine, said they have been monitoring the reports from the pharmacy board and so far haven't seen any of their licensees prescribing large amounts repeatedly to red-flagged patients.

Longo said the board uses the database to investigate a complaint received on a doctor, but doesn't use it to initiate investigations.

"We don't just randomly run our providers, no way," she said. "But if we have a complaint that alleges that is happening, that is part of the investigation to (run the provider through the database.)"

While Nevada has resisted using the database to find problem prescribers, other states have found success in reducing distribution and overdose rates by making broader use of the prescription drug monitoring program.

A 2014 study by the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program Center of Excellence at Brandeis University found the programs "are uniquely positioned to help identify prescribers at risk of over-prescribing or prescribing inappropriately."

The data can be used to find prescribers who deviate from accepted medical practices and allow licensing boards to intervene, the study found. Intervention can include better education or a more formal investigation process.

Other states have deployed the program in a variety of ways to do just that.

In Arizona, the pharmacy board created prescriber report cards that identify doctors prescribing at a statistically higher rate than their peers. The practice has raised awareness among prescribers, and the state has seen a reduction in the amount of pain medication prescribed in some counties.

Other states, such as Tennessee, Texas and Kentucky, report abnormal prescribing data to licensing boards and law enforcement. Still others conduct outreach to physicians with a high number of doctor-shoppers at their practice.

"Identifying and intervening where appropriate with at-risk prescribers is a key strategy in efforts to control prescription drug misuse and diversion," the report said. "The CDC has recently recommended focusing efforts on prescribers not following accepted medical practice."

A local law enforcement officer also suggested the state could better track drug overdose deaths, looking up the deceased's prescription history in the database to see if any related doctors have troubling prescription practices.

Prescription Drug Monitoring Program

The Florida Prescription Drug Monitoring Program, known as E-FORCSE® (Electronic-Florida Online Reporting of Controlled Substance Evaluation Program), was created by the 2009 Florida Legislature in an initiative to encourage safer prescribing of controlled substances and to reduce drug abuse and diversion within the state of Florida. Controlled substance dispensing information is submitted to the database by dispensers and made available for consultation by prescribers.

Important Information for Data Submitters (Pharmacies and Dispensing Health Care Practitioners)

Dispensers of controlled substances are required to report to the PDMP each time a controlled substance in schedules II, III, IV, and V are dispensed to a patient, as soon thereafter as possible but no later than close of business the day after the prescription is dispensed.

Important Information for Data Requestors (Prescribers and Pharmacists)

Each prescriber and dispenser or his or her designee has a duty to consult the PDMP system to review a patient's controlled substance dispensing history each time a controlled substance is prescribed or dispensed to a patient age 16 or older unless a statutory exemption applies.

Statutory exemptions include:

- If the patient is less than 16 years of age
- Drug being prescribed is a nonopioid schedule V
- System is not operational
- Requestor has technological or electrical failure

Failure to consult in the PDMP may result in a non-disciplinary citation by the regulatory board.

You may register for the PDMP at https://florida.pmpaware.net

For more information, go to www.e-forcse.com

Frequently Asked Questions

I am a prescriber with a Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) registration, however I do not prescribe controlled substances. Am I required to register for E-FORCSE?

If you do not prescribe any controlled substances you are not required to register with or consult E-FORCSE.

You are still authorized to register. You can view your patient's-controlled substance dispensing histories.

How do I register with the PDMP?

Prescribers, dispensers and their designees may register for access at https://florida.pmpaware.net.

Is there penalty for failing to consult the PDMP?

Yes.

What is the penalty for the initial offense?

The DOH will issue a non-disciplinary citation for the initial offense.

What is the penalty for any subsequent offense?

Any subsequent offense will result in disciplinary action against the prescribing/dispensing practitioner's license. Disciplinary guidelines are individually established by the appropriate licensing board.

Does the PDMP purge information from its database?

Yes. Information that is more than 4 years old.

Data Requesters

Prescriber Consultation

When must a prescriber or his or her designee consult the PDMP?

A prescriber or his or her designee must consult the PDMP to review their patient's controlled substance dispensing history prior to prescribing a controlled substance in Schedules II-V, as defined in section 893.03, F.S., for patients age 16 and older.

When is a prescriber not required to consult the PDMP?

- If the PDMP system is not operational as determined by DOH, or
- The PDMP cannot be accessed by the prescriber practitioner due to a temporary technological or electrical failure or
- When prescribing a nonopioid Schedule V drug or
- The patient is less than 16 years of age

What must the prescriber do if they are unable to consult the PDMP due to operational, (determined by the PDMP program), or temporary technology/electrical failure?

The prescriber must document in the patient's record the reason the PDMP was not consulted and may prescribe no more than a 3-day supply of a controlled substance.

If a prescription has refills, must the prescriber consult the PDMP before each refill?

The prescriber is not required to consult the PDMP before each refill, however, the prescriber must consult the PDMP prior to writing a new prescription for a controlled substance listed in Schedule II through V. A prescription for a controlled substance listed in Schedule II may not be refilled.

How far in advance can I consult the PDMP? (i.e. 1 day? 1 week?)

The statute does not provide any guidance on how far in advance the PDMP may be consulted. Please refer to your Board's website for further guidance.

Do I have to consult the PDMP each time I write a prescription, or only at the initial appointment?

The PDMP must be consulted each time a prescription for a controlled substance is written.

Dispenser Consultation

Does a dispenser always have to consult the PDMP?

A dispenser or a designee of a dispenser must consult the PDMP to review a patient's-controlled substance dispensing history prior to dispensing a controlled substance in schedules II-V, as defined in section 893.03, F.S., for patients age 16 or older for each new and refill prescription.

When may a dispenser not consult the PDMP?

A dispenser or a designee of a dispenser does not have to consult the PDMP when dispensing a nonopioid controlled substance listed in Schedule V of s. 893.03, F.S. or 21 U.S.C. 812.

The duty to consult the system does not apply when the system:

- Is determined by the department to be nonoperational; or
- Cannot be accessed by the dispenser or a designee of the dispenser because of a temporary technological or electrical failure

What should a dispenser do if he or she cannot consult the system?

A dispenser or designee of a dispenser who does not consult the PDMP shall document the reason he or she did not consult the system in the patient's medical record or prescription record and shall not dispense greater than a 3-day supply of a controlled substance to the patient.

Is a dispenser required to consult the PDMP on refills for schedules III, IV, and V controlled substances?

A dispenser must consult the PDMP on the new prescription and on each subsequent refill.

Data Submitters

What is a dispenser?

A dispenser is a dispensing health care practitioner, pharmacy, or pharmacist licensed to dispense controlled substances to the ultimate consumer or his or her agent in or into this state.

What is a dispensing practitioner?

A dispensing practitioner is a practitioner authorized by law to prescribe drugs who may dispense such drugs to her or his patients in the regular course of her or his practice in compliance with s. 465.0276, F.S. Dispensing practitioners may include: physicians, dentists, certified optometrists, podiatrists, advanced registered nurse practitioners and physician assistants.

Is a dispenser required to report controlled substances dispensed to a patient?

Dispensers are required to report to the PDMP each time a controlled substance is dispensed to a patient, as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than close of business the day after the prescription is dispensed unless an extension or exemption is approved by the Department of Health.

Which controlled substances must be reported to the PDMP?

All controlled substances in schedules II through V must be reported to the system by the close of the next business day. If the dispenser does not dispense any controlled substances for that day, then a zero report must be submitted.

Are there exemptions to reporting to the PDMP?

Yes, there are two exemptions from reporting:

- Controlled substances administered to patients;
- Controlled substances dispensed in the health care system of the Department of Corrections; and
- Controlled substances dispensed to patients under the age of 16 are exempt from reporting to E-FORCSE.

Abstract

The state of Nevada is home to millions of people and a prominent entertainment industry. However, the state ranks among the lowest in terms of available primary care doctors and general surgeons per capita, resulting in limited access to essential healthcare services and an increased reliance on emergency departments and hospitals. Nevada also faces the challenges posed by an aging physician workforce and a significant proportion of inactive providers. The scarcity of residency positions in Nevada's medical schools drives many graduates to seek residency training opportunities elsewhere, leading to a reduced likelihood of their return to practice within the state. We propose potential solutions, including increased funding for residency positions, prioritizing the retention of medical school graduates through local residency training, and the establishment of interdisciplinary comprehensive academic health centers. These measures are essential to meet the escalating healthcare demands of Nevada's rapidly growing population and to ultimately enhance patient outcomes.

Editorial

With a population of over 3 million people and with one of the biggest entertainment capitals in the world, Las Vegas, the state of Nevada still faces a healthcare crisis [1]. Out of the 50 states in America, Nevada is currently ranked forty-eighth for the number of primary care doctors available for 100,000 Nevadans and ranked forty-ninth for the number of general surgeons available for 100,000 Nevadans [2]. The state needs an additional 2,561 physicians in its healthcare workforce just to meet the country’s standards. Recent reports have suggested that the state needs 540 additional surgeons, 1,038 physicians in medical specialties, and many more physicians from other fields [3].

Current research has shown that there is a higher probability of a healthy community when there are more primary care physicians available for the general population. Concurrently, an increase in the number of primary care physicians has also been shown to lower the frequency of patients presenting to the emergency department or hospital [4]. One study assessed the association between the severity of cardiovascular disease and access to primary care. It concluded that the readmission rate for cardiovascular patients was 33.3% for those who had challenges receiving preventative care, which is significantly higher than the 17.9% readmission rate for patients who had access to primary care [5]. For patients in Nevada, many may wait up to or even longer than one month just to see their primary care physicians. For specialty care, the wait time may even be more extended, and this is assuming that the specialty exists in the state.

The state also has a problem with an aging physician workforce and a high number of inactive providers. Close to 17% of the licensed doctors in Nevada are inactive, and these are providers who are retired or are not currently practicing medicine [3]. The growing age of the providers in Nevada poses another problem to the physician shortage in the state. In some of Nevada’s counties, the average age of allopathic doctors is 61.2 and the average age of osteopathic doctors is 57.7. These numbers are higher than the national averages of 52.9 for allopathic and 49.7 for osteopathic physicians, respectively [3].

One of the reasons for the shortage of medical specialties and care in the state is the lack of residency spots in its academic health systems. Currently, there are two allopathic and one osteopathic medical school in Nevada. The Kirk Kerkorian School of Medicine at UNLV (University of Nevada, Las Vegas) has a class size of 66, the University of Nevada Reno (UNR) School of Medicine has a class size of 70, and Touro University has a class size of 180. Ideally, these three schools should generate more than 300 physicians each year. However, this is not the case because of the limited residency spots in Nevada. This means that eventually, most of these graduates end up leaving the state and completing residency elsewhere [6]. To make matters worse, studies have shown that the number of physicians who eventually reside within a 100-mile radius of where they completed residency can be up to 50%, meaning that many of the Nevada medical school graduates may not even come back to practice in the state [6].

As of now, there are around 404 residency positions that are funded by the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) in the state [6]. In the past two residency match cycles, only 14.6% and 36.2% of the residency positions in Nevada were filled by UNR and UNLV medical students, respectively [6]. It is likely that these students have to leave the state for residency training because many specialties and subspecialties are missing from Nevada's graduate medical education. There are no residency or fellowship programs for dermatology, ophthalmology, neurosurgery, urology, hematology/oncology, and rheumatology [6]. To keep physicians in Nevada, it is not enough just to recruit medical students who have close ties to the state. Although there is a 30% chance that these students will practice in Nevada, this number increases to more than 70% if the same students complete their residency in the state as well [7]. With Nevada being the fifth fastest-growing state in the country, it is crucial that the state gets more funding for residency and fellowship positions to address the increasing healthcare needs of its growing and aging populations [8].

Nevada is currently in the works of building major academic health centers. Currently, it has UNLV Health, which was first founded in 2017 and is growing to become a major academic health system that provides care to the state's southern populations [9]. Studies have shown that academic teaching hospitals and their affiliated medical schools are at the forefront of conducting research to find novel treatments for diseases and improving methods to yield the best patient outcomes. In fact, the National Institutes of Health (NIH) funds over half of its external medical research for these academic health centers [10]. Other studies have found that patients who are treated at these academic health centers have better outcomes than if they are seen at nonteaching hospitals [10]. Not only should the state build a major academic health center that possesses all major medical specialties, but it should also work concurrently with other disciplines such as dentistry, nursing, occupational therapy, and physical therapy [9]. This creates an interconnected health network that ensures patients receive comprehensive and convenient care.

Conclusion

Nevada's shortage of physicians should be addressed immediately, considering that the state's population is growing at a rapid rate. One of the ways to address this issue is to increase residency positions and specialties because physicians who train in the state are more likely to stay and serve the local communities, especially if they completed medical school here as well. Increasing the number of physicians in the state would not only yield better patient outcomes, but it would also diversify Nevada's economy by creating more jobs in its healthcare field.

Avrio Pharmacy, Section 3, History of Company, Explanation regarding Affirmative Responses

3. Has the corporation, any owner(s), shareholder(s) or partner(s) with any interest, ever been charged, or convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor (including by way of a guilty plea or no contest plea)?

Avrio Pharmacy's ("Avrio's") affirmative response to this question results solely from the conviction against Avrio's prior owner, Mr. Raef Hamaed in United States v. Abdallah, et al., No. 20-CR-20162. The new owner, Salim Soufan, has not been charged or convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor. Mr. Hamaed previously notified the Nevada Board of Pharmacy of his indictment and the pending charges on June 19, 2020. Mr. Hamaed was found guilty of conspiracy to commit health care fraud and wire fraud on September 5, 2024, in the United States District Court Eastern District of Michigan. This conviction results from Mr. Hamaed's ownership interest in other pharmacies, not the applicant, Avrio Pharmacy. Mr. Hamaed is in the final stages of selling his interest in Avrio and surrendering his pharmacist license in all states where he previously held a license.

3. Has the corporation, any owner(s), shareholder(s) or partner(s) with any interest, ever surrendered a license, permit or certificate of registration voluntarily or otherwise (other than upon voluntary close of a facility)?

Due to Mr. Hamaed's conviction, as explained above, the pharmacy is in the process of resolving a complaint with the Nevada Board of Pharmacy. We provide the below explanations in an abundance of caution and for transparency with the Board. Currently, the Pharmacy has not surrendered, voluntarily or otherwise, any of its licenses.

- The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy filed that certain Notice of Intended Action and Accusation against Avrio Pharmacy, Case No. 20-198-PH-S. According to communications with the Board's General Counsel, it is our understanding that the Nevada Board of Pharmacy will review this change of ownership application and, if approved, dismiss the complaint against the pharmacy.
- On April 10, 2025, the Florida State Board of Pharmacy notified Avrio that it is statutorily required to deny any renewals of entities with owners/principals who have been convicted of a felony under Fla. Stat. Ann. § 456.0635(3)(a). However, the Florida Board of Pharmacy stated that, given the change of ownership, the renewal application would be held for two weeks and that, during this time, a formal denial will not be entered, and Avrio may continue to ship to and serve patients in Florida with a permit status of "Delinquent". The pharmacy's license will remain delinquent until the change of ownership is approved. Additionally, the Board advised that while the change of ownership is being processed, Avrio may apply for a new non-resident pharmacy permit with Mr. Soufan listed as the owner. The new non-resident pharmacy permit was granted on April 22, 2025.

Furthermore, Mr. Hamaed, Avrio's prior owner, was a licensed pharmacist in numerous states. He is in the process of voluntarily surrendering his license, or having those licenses revoked. This includes:

- Arizona pharmacist license number, S016023, was revoked by the Arizona Board of Pharmacy.
- Florida pharmacist license number, PS42036, was voluntarily surrendered on March 4, 2025. The Florida Board of Pharmacy is scheduled to approve the voluntary relinquishment order on June 12, 2025.
- Michigan pharmacist license number, 5302030019, was voluntarily surrendered on March 7, 2025. The Michigan Board of Pharmacy is scheduled to approve the consent order for the surrender on June 18, 2025.
- Oregon pharmacist license number, RPH-0016422, was voluntarily surrendered on March 7, 2025. The Ohio Board of Pharmacy executed the consent order for surrender on March 26, 2025.

We provide you with these disclosures in full transparency. The pharmacy and the new owner, Salim Soufan, have not surrendered a license, permit or certificate of registration, voluntarily or otherwise.

2.5 Successful or "passing" results for the Sterile Core Competencies and Knowledge Assessment are:

Observation	Validation	Initial Prior to Compounding Independently	Ongoing Every 12 Months
Competency-based checklist with 100% proficiency	USP <797> & Sterile Principles Knowledge Exam	≥ 80% cumulative score	≥ 80% cumulative score

Hand Hygiene and Garbing Competency:

2.6 Hand hygiene and garbing competencies are assessed with hands-on demonstration of skill under direct observation by a DP or AT and validated via the Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling Assessment.

- Initial Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling Assessment (GFS): successfully completed three separate times prior to compounding independently; each GFS is conducted separately after a completing the hand hygiene and garbing procedure
- Ongoing Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling Assessments: successfully completed at least once every 3 months for Compounding Personnel requalification

2.7 Successful or "passing" results for the Hand Hygiene and Garbing Competency are:

Observation	Validation	Initial Prior to Compounding Independently	Ongoing Every 3 Months
Competency-based checklist with 100% proficiency	Gloved fingertip assessment	3 separate assessments • 6 total plates (1 plate per hand per assessment) 7-day incubation with zero (0) CFUs	1 assessment • 2 total plates (1 plate per hand) 7-day incubation with zero (0) CFUs

Microbial identification of cultured CFU(s) is not required for Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling.

Aseptic Manipulation Competency:

2.9 The Aseptic Manipulation Competency is administered, observed, and documented by the DP or AT and consists of four components:

- Media Fill Testing
- Direct visual observation of aseptic technique and manipulations
- Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling of both hands after the media fill test
- Surface Sampling of the Direct Compounding Area (DCA) after the media fill test

2.10 The Media Fill Test(s) simulates the most difficult and challenging compounding procedure(s), compounding environments, and processing condition(s). Refer to References and Media Fill documents in Simplifi797.

2.11 Successful or "passing" results for the Initial and Ongoing Aseptic Manipulations Competency is as follows:

Observation	Validation	Initial Prior to Compounding Independently	Ongoing Every 3 Months
Competency-based checklist with 100% proficiency	Media Fill	1 assessment 14-day incubation with no growth or turbidity	1 assessment 14-day incubation with no growth or turbidity
	Post Media Fill Gloved fingertip assessment	1 assessment • 2 total plates (1 plate per hand) 7-day incubation with ≤ 3 CFU combined (total)	1 assessment • 2 total plates (1 plate per hand) 7-day incubation with ≤ 3 CFU combined (total)
	Surface sample	1 sample of direct compounding area (DCA) 7-day incubation with ≤ 3 CFU	1 sample of DCA 7-day incubation with ≤ 3 CFU

2.11 If any portion of the Hand Hygiene and Garbing or Aseptic Manipulations Competency does not meet the minimum passing result, the respective Competency is repeated in its entirety. Failures in other Core Competencies are repeated individually. Documentation of the failure, corrective actions, and the repeated competency results is retained and readily accessible.

2.12 In the event of a repeated, sequential failures of Core Competencies, Hand Hygiene and Garbing Competency, and/or Aseptic Manipulations Competency, corrective action plans are implemented that are consistent with Board of Pharmacy requirements and under the review and discretion of the DP. Patterns of competency failures over time are assessed on a case-by-case basis.

	Initial	Ongoing
1st Failure	• Coaching and retraining • Repeat failed competency STATUS: Independent compounding not allowed until all competencies are successfully completed.	• Coaching • Repeat failed competency STATUS: Allowed to continue with compounding duties while results pending.
2nd Failure	• Extensive skills and foundation knowledge retraining • Repeat failed competency STATUS: Independent compounding is not allowed. If passed, consider increased competency assessment requirements (e.g. every month for 3 months).	• Skills and foundational knowledge retraining • Repeat failed competency STATUS: Independent compounding is not allowed; reassign to non-compounding duties while results pending.
3rd Failure	• Reassign to non-compounding role; consider referral to HR. STATUS: Reassigned outside of sterile compounding practice.	• Reassign to non-compounding role, consider referral to HR. STATUS: Future sterile training requires completion of initial training and competency requirements and increased competency assessments.

2.13 Other personnel or visitors who do not undergo training and evaluation in core competencies, skills, or knowledge required to maintain the quality of the sterile compounding environment, are required to, at a minimum:

- Adhere to all aspects of the Hand Hygiene and Garbing policy and procedure, Comply with proper materials movement and cleaning procedures
- Only enter a controlled compounding area under direct supervision of the DP or designee Minimize movement within the controlled areas and contact with any surfaces

2.14 Compounding personnel performing specialized roles and responsibilities within the sterile practice complete initial training and knowledge assessments before performing these tasks independently. Training and evaluation are administered and documented by the DP. Ongoing reeducation and assessment in these specialized skills is conducted at least every 12 months.

3. Roles & Responsibilities

3.1 The Designated Person(s) (DP):

- Oversees the Sterile Training and Evaluation Program for Compounding Personnel and supporting personnel involved in or supporting compounding activities.
- Reviews competency results, evaluation and determination of corrective actions, and monitors for longer-term trends with Compounding Personnel Competency performance.
- Ensures non-compounding personnel and visitors who enter the sterile compounding area and/or handle CSPs understand the expectations appropriate to their role or are directly observed to ensure compliance and minimize impact to the quality of the sterile environment.

- May designate and qualify an Assigned Trainer(s) (AT) to assist with the training, evaluation, and competency administration process.
- May define additional training and competency evaluation requirements for compounding personnel performing specialized roles or responsibilities.

3.2 Compounding personnel and supporting roles:

- Successfully complete assigned training and demonstrate proficiency via competency assessment on a timely basis and before the evaluation activities are past due.
- Uphold sterile practice and quality standards to help ensure the quality of the sterile compounding area.

4. Procedures

4.1 Sterile Compounding Knowledge, Skills and Core Competency Assessment

DP or AT directly observes Compounding Personnel performing the Core Competencies and Skills (refer to Sections 2.2 and 2.3) and records results on the forms found in Simplifi797.

Core competency evaluation can be completed in a single or multiple observed sessions. If the process is completed in separate sessions, documentation reflects the date, time, and initials of the DP or AT performing and evaluating the specific competencies.

Competencies for hand hygiene, garbing, and aseptic technique can be conducted concurrently with the respective competency assessment. Observations and evaluations of each competency are clearly documented on the respective competency form.

4.2 Documentation of the Hand Hygiene and Garbing and Aseptic Manipulation Competencies includes, at a minimum:

- Name of person evaluated
- Evaluation date and time
- Media and component manufacturer, lot, and expiration date
- Incubation temperatures
- Dates of Incubation
- Competency results
- Name of competency observer and individual(s) reading and documenting results
- Corrective actions (if needed)

4.3 Garbing Competency and Gloved Fingertip and Thumb Sampling Assessment Procedure

- Remove sampling plates (or alternative sampling device) from refrigerator in manufacturer's overwrap and check expiration dates; do not use expired media.
- Collect other supplies needed including black, fine tipped permanent marker. Disinfect with sIPA, and move supplies to controlled environment.
- Allow sampling plates to come to room temperature just prior to sampling.
- Enter media lot numbers, expiration dates, and manufacturer on the GFS Competency Form.
- DP or AT labels the base (i.e. agar side) of the sampling plates legibly around the outer edge. Label each sample plate with sample type (e.g. "GFS"), hand (e.g., "L" -left or "R"

- right), sample number (e.g., 1, 2, or 3) for initial competency, date, and initials of individual.
- Complete hand hygiene and garbing under direct observation.

GFS:

- Don sterile gloves but do NOT apply sIPA to gloved hands.
- DP or AT sanitizes sterile gloves with sIPA, removes the lid of a labeled sampling plate, and holds vertically.
- Compounding personnel gently rolls the pad of each finger, one at a time, in an arch across the top of the agar surface ensuring not to overlap fingerprints. A thumb print is then gently placed in the middle of the plate.
- The lid is immediately replaced, and the sample is set to the side.
- Repeat sampling process for the second hand; ensure the correctly labeled plate is used.
- Immediately, after both hands have been sampled and without touching any surfaces, complete the garb doffing process.
- During the Initial GFT competency assessment, repeat the entire process two more times.
- After all samples are collected, seal plates to ensure the lid is not dislodged during transit, incubation, or results inspection.

4.3 Aseptic Manipulation Competency Procedure (including Media Fill and Post Media Fill Gloved Fingertip and Surface Sampling)

- Collect supplies needed for the media fill testing, post media fill GFS (2 plates per media fill test), and surface sampling (1 plate per media fill test). Collect all supplies necessary to complete media fill such as vials, TSA, syringes, needles, thin black permanent marker.
- Check all growth media components for expiration date. Do not use expired media. Allow sampling plates to come to room temperature just prior to sampling.
- Inspect all sterile media fill components for cracks, leaks, or other potential factors that may have compromised product's sterility. Do not use media suspected of contamination or sterile container defects.
- Disinfect all media and supplies with sIPA, and move supplies to controlled environment.
- Enter media lot numbers, expiration dates, and manufacturers on the competency form found in Simplifi797.

DP or AT labels the base (i.e. agar side) of the sampling plates legibly around the outer edge (or permanently affixed lid on slide or paddle) and the final dosage unit(s) for the media fill test. Label each sample with sample type (e.g. "MF", "PMF-GFS", or "SS"), hand (e.g., "L" -left or "R" - right), date, and initials of individual.

Stage all media and supplies within reach of Primary Engineering Control (PEC).

Disinfect gloved hands and all components with sIPA prior to being moved into the ISO Class 5 area of the PEC.

Perform media fill under direct observation per procedure.

sIPA is used throughout the media fill process to sanitize sterile gloves, critical sites, and the direct compounding area; however, do not apply sIPA to gloved hands or the DCA after the final step of the media fill procedure.

Nonsterile solutions are reconstituted and manipulated in a manner that simulates typical nonsterile-to-sterile compounding activities.

- Commercially available nonsterile soybean–casein digest powder is dissolved in non-bacteriostatic water creating a 3% nonsterile solution as part of the procedure.
- At least 1 container of non-sterile broth is compounded and incubated as the positive control to demonstrate growth promotion, which is indicated by visible turbidity upon incubation.
- Retain sterilizing filter for bubble point testing and filter packaging displaying the lot and expiration of the filter to record on and/or affix to the media fill records.

Immediately following the final step of the media fill procedure and before sIPA is applied to gloved hands or the DCA:

- DP or AT performs the post media fill GFS (PMF-GFS) and DCA surface sample inside the ISO 5 PEC. GFS sampling is performed for both hands with one plate per hand. Refer to the GFS sampling procedures above.

After all samples are collected and removed from the PEC, seal plates to ensure the lid is not dislodged during transit or incubation and results inspection.

Perform a bubble point test on the sterilizing filter and record both the expected and achieved PSI on the Media Fill form.

- If the sterilizing filter does not pass the bubble point test, the media is considered non-sterile and is resterilized inside an ISO 5 PEC with a new sterilizing filter. The new filter undergoes bubble point testing and PSI results are recorded.

Remove all other trash from the PEC and clean and disinfect PEC prior to commencing compounding.

Remove and replace sterile gloves immediately without touching any other surfaces; gloves are contaminated with growth medium. Repeat hand hygiene and garbing prior to returning to compounding activities.

4.4 Selection, Incubation, & Interpretation of Media

Media Selection:

Select a general microbial growth agar (plate, paddle, or slide) supporting both bacterial and fungal growth, such as trypticase soy agar (TSA), for gloved fingertip and surface sampling. Growth medium contains additives that neutralize residual cleaning solutions, such as lecithin and polysorbate 80.

For media fill procedures, replace all CSP components with soybean–casein digest media components.

Obtain a Certificate of Analysis (COA) from the growth media supplier or manufacturer. The DP reviews and retains the COA to ensure the culture media supports growth of microorganisms (as defined in Table 1 of USP <71>). Store media per manufacturer instructions and media is used in accordance with manufacturer instructions and before the expiration date of the media.

Media Incubation & Interpretation:

Locate calibrated incubators monitored by NIST certified temperature gauge outside of the sterile compounding area. A minimum of two incubators are available:

- Incubator 1: calibrated and maintained at 20 to 25°C
- Incubator 2: calibrated and maintained at 30 to 35°C

Invert gloved fingertip and surface sample agar plates during incubation to ensure moisture condensation does not collect and fall onto the agar surface which can contaminate and/or invalidate the results.

Incubation temperatures and timeframes:

Competency	Media	1st Incubation	2nd Incubation	Total Incubation Timeframe
Gloved fingertip and surface samples	TSA agar plate, paddle or slide with polysorbate 80 & lecithin (neutralizers)	≥ 48 hours at 30°C - 35°C	≥ 5 Days at 20°C - 25°C	≥ 7 Days
Media fill test final dose unit(s)	Soybean casein digest (all components)	7 Days at 20°C - 25°C	7 Days at 30°C - 35°C	14 Days

Only the DP who is qualified to manage, read, and interpret media places or moves media into and out of incubators.

Record date, time, incubator temperature, and person(s) moving media into and between incubators on competency form(s).

Read and record CFU counts per sampling plate and examine media fill bags/units for visible changes daily or, at a minimum, when media are moved from the first to the second incubator. Record interim results on competency form(s).

Read and record CFU counts per sampling plate at the conclusion of the full incubation; total CFU counts from all plates to determine the final CFU count results. Record results on the competency form(s).

Examine the media fill bag/units for any visible turbidity or changes indicating growth at the conclusion of the full incubation against a white and black background in a well-lit area, record either a pass or failed result on the Media Fill form.

4.5 Corrective Action for Competency Failure

Any personnel failing to demonstrate competency during a foundational knowledge exam or hands-on skills assessment is coached and reinstructed on the applicable policy, technique(s), and foundational knowledge related to the skill; and subsequently re-evaluated by the DP or AT.

Evaluation and corrective action for observed competencies is documented within the competency form. Corrective action records are used for long-term assessment of personnel competency and potential contributing factors to maintaining a state of microbial control within the sterile compounding environment.

4.6 Extended Absence or Frequency of Compounding

If personnel are not actively engaged in CSP activities for 12 months or are on extended leave during the time their observed competencies are due, initial training and competency is assigned upon their return.

Initial training and competency assessments are completed before re-entry to CSP activities and compounding independently.

4.7 Ongoing Training

The DP is responsible for assessing the training needs of personnel and the appropriate method for communication and delivery as new or updated equipment, components, recipes, or procedures are introduced.

4.8 Monitoring of Compounding Activities

The DP conducts tracer observations of CSP personnel and processes.

If deficient practices are observed, the DP discusses the following with the personnel:

- Identify the issue(s) observed.
- Review and reinstruct on the expected practice.
- Confirm understanding with a return demonstration or teach back method.

Subject: Explanation of Inspection Findings - March 2nd, 2022

Dear Members of the Nevada Board of Pharmacy,

I am writing to provide an explanation regarding the inspection conducted by the Louisiana State Board of Pharmacy on March 2nd, 2022, and the subsequent findings.

During the annual inspection, the Louisiana State Board of Pharmacy identified a discrepancy in the certification records pertaining to one of our Biological Safety Cabinets (BSC) provided by Allometrics. Specifically, it was noted that the BSC had missed an inspection. Upon closer examination, it was discovered that during the scheduled testing, the BSC was operating at 82%, slightly outside the approved range. Consequently, the service technician opted to take the BSC out of service without notifying the PIC.

Regrettably, during the heightened activity surrounding COVID-19, the service technician did not conduct the customary exit interview at the conclusion of the testing period. Furthermore, the technician neglected to clearly mark the BSC as non-compliant or indicate a failing test result. Instead, a minor note was included in the comprehensive 75-page report. Unfortunately, this oversight was not immediately recognized by our Pharmacist In Charge (PIC) during her review of the report.

However, it is important to note that all products produced from the BSC during the period of the missed inspection underwent thorough testing, and all results met the required standards. Upon being informed of the failed test result during the inspection, immediate action was taken by our pharmacy. We promptly procured a new BSC, which was installed in our sterile lab the following day and subsequently tested by Allometrics.

In response to the findings, the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy imposed a fine, which was paid in a timely manner, and the matter was resolved accordingly.

We deeply regret the oversight and assure you that steps have been taken to prevent such occurrences in the future. We remain committed to upholding the highest standards of safety and compliance within our pharmacy operations.

Thank You,

Jesse Vidrine

Nevada State Board of Pharmacy

Re: Vidrine Pharmaceutical Group LLC d/b/a Boudreaux's New Drug Store

Supplemental Response to question about discipline"

Dear Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,

This letter is being submitted to supplement Vidrine Pharmaceutical Group LLC d/b/a Boudreaux's New Drug Store's ("Pharmacy") answer to the Question about discipline on the "Neveda Board of Pharmacy" pharmacy application. Through this correspondence, the Pharmacy is supplementing its response and notifying the Board of an Agreed Board Order that the Pharmacy recently agreed to with the Texas State Board of Pharmacy ("Texas Board") in August 2024 and a Consent Agreement the Pharmacy agreed to with the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy ("Louisiana Board") in August 2022. Along with this correspondence are complete and accurate copies of the Agreed Board Order between the Pharmacy and the Texas Board and the Consent Agreement between the Pharmacy and the Louisiana Board.

The Pharmacy is also hereby giving notice that the Mississippi Board of Pharmacy ("Mississippi Board") recently denied the Pharmacy's application for a non-resident compounding certificate in Mississippi. We would note that this denial was not based on disciplinary action but instead based on the Mississippi Board's belief that the pharmacy was not currently in compliance with USP 795 and USP 797. However, we believe this was a misunderstanding between the Pharmacy and the Mississippi Board as we believe we are in compliance with these provisions of USP and we are currently working with the Mississippi Board to resolve this matter and the related denial. We look forward to reapplying for the compounding permit or otherwise obtaining the compounding permit in Mississippi in the near future.

By way of further detail regarding the Agreed Board Order in Texas, the Pharmacy recently applied for a non-resident pharmacy license in the State of Texas. After the Pharmacy submitted its non-resident pharmacy application, on August 6, 2024, the Texas Board gave the Pharmacy preliminary notice of its intent to grant the Pharmacy's Texas license. However, as a condition of the Texas Board issuing the Pharmacy's non-resident pharmacy license, the Texas Board stated that it would also issue a reprimand along with the non-resident license. After learning of this and discussing in detail with the Texas Board, the Pharmacy voluntarily agreed to the proposed Agreed Board Order.

As to the basis of the Texas Board's reprimand, the reprimand was issued by the Texas Board based on the Pharmacy's voluntary disclosure in its Texas non-resident pharmacy license application regarding a prior matter in its home state of Louisiana. Specifically, on August 17, 2022, the Pharmacy and the Louisiana Board agreed to resolve certain allegations made by the Louisiana Board against the Pharmacy through a voluntary Consent Agreement. To be clear, the reprimand issued by the Texas Board was not based on a new matter but rather a prior matter that was amicably resolved between the Pharmacy and the Louisiana Board and later disclosed by the Pharmacy to the Texas Board when it applied for its Texas non-resident pharmacy license.

The Pharmacy would note that the Pharmacy continues to be a duly licensed pharmacy in good standing with the Louisiana Board including after agreeing to the terms and conditions of the August 17, 2022, Consent Agreement. The Pharmacy makes this supplement and disclosure in good faith and will continue to supplement the record, if necessary and appropriate, by disclosing any further action related to Texas Board Agreed Board Order and the Louisiana Consent Agreement although no further action is contemplated or expected as it is the Pharmacy's understanding in communicating with the Texas Board and the Louisiana Board that these matters has been resolved and are considered closed.

Should you have any questions or require any additional information, please contact me by phone at (337) 499-7760 or by email at jvidrine@bndsrx.com. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

WHEREAS, from September 11, 2020 to March 2, 2022, a total of 3,650 prescriptions were dispensed at Boudreaux's New Drug Store that were purportedly sterile products compounded in the non-HD buffer room in a biological safety cabinet that last had a "PASS" result on its Certification Status on June 2, 2020.

WHEREAS, the Board alleges that such actions constitute violations of the following:

La. R.S. 37:1241 (A)(1): Practiced or assisted in the practice of pharmacy, or knowingly permitted or has permitted anyone in his employ or under his supervision to practice or assist in the practice of pharmacy, in violation of the provisions of this Chapter and any rules and regulations promulgated thereto in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

LAC, Title 46: LIII §2535(A)(2)(a): The compounding of sterile preparations pursuant to receipt of a patient-specific prescription shall comply with the provisions of Section 503-A of the FDCA and USP Chapter 797.

To facilitate the submission of this Consent Agreement, Respondent does not contest the allegations and agrees that there is sufficient evidence upon which to predicate a finding of those violations.

Respondent further understands that this Consent Agreement shall constitute a Public Record, pursuant to La. R.S. 44:1 et seq., and is considered disciplinary action by the Board.

In order to avoid further administrative and judicial proceedings, Respondent hereby consents to accept and abide by the following order of the Board:

VIDRINE PHARMACEUTICAL GROUP, LLC D/B/A BOUDREAUX'S NEW DRUG STORE is ordered to pay a fine of $25,000.00 and to reimburse the Board $250.00 for administrative costs, and $2,791.01 for investigative costs with total payment due the Board of $28,041.01, due by certified check or money order to be paid simultaneously with the execution of this Consent Agreement by Respondent.

By signing this Consent Agreement, Respondent agrees that the Board has jurisdiction in this matter, waives all rights to informal conference, to Notice of Hearing, to a formal Administrative Hearing and to judicial review of this Consent Agreement. Moreover, at no time shall Respondent request the expungement, rescission or removal of this Consent Agreement.

By signing this Consent Agreement, Respondent agrees that any failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement is a basis for discipline by the Board.

Both Respondent and the Board stipulate that this Consent Order shall not become effective and shall not become binding on the Board unless and until approved by the Board at formal meeting. However, Respondent agrees that this Consent Order shall be effective and binding upon Respondent without recourse upon its authorized representative signing said Order.

Respondent agrees to authorize the Board to report this action to the National Practitioner Data Bank – Healthcare Integrity and Protection Data Bank (NPDB-HIPDB) as required by law.

I, JESSE VIDRINE, authorized to act on behalf of and acting on behalf of VIDRINE PHARMACEUTICAL GROUP, LLC D/B/A BOUDREAUX'S NEW DRUG STORE, understand that this Consent Agreement is effective as a Board Order upon affirmative vote by the Board at formal hearing. LOUISIANA BOARD OF PHARMACY

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

IN THE MATTER OF: CONSENT ORDER

KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE

PHARMACIST LICENSE NO. 21317 Case No. 22-0104

CONSENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, an informal conference was conducted by the Violations Committee of the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") on June 8, 2022 at the Board office, 3388 Brentwood Drive, Baton Rouge, LA 70809, KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE (hereinafter referred to as "Respondent"), holder of PHARMACIST LICENSE NO. 21317, with Respondent and attorney Chris Whittington present.

WHEREAS, from September 11, 2020 to March 2, 2022, a total of 3,650 prescriptions were dispensed at Boudreaux's New Drug Store (PHY.008142) that were purportedly sterile products compounded in the non-HD buffer room in a biological safety cabinet that last had a "PASS" result on its Certification Status on June 2, 2020. Respondent serves as the pharmacy's Pharmacist-in-Charge.

WHEREAS, the Board alleges that such actions constitute violations of the following:

La. R.S. 37:1241 (A)(1): Practiced or assisted in the practice of pharmacy, or knowingly permitted or has permitted anyone in his employ or under his supervision to practice or assist in the practice of pharmacy, in violation of the provisions of this Chapter and any rules and regulations promulgated thereto in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

LAC, Title 46: LIII §2535(A)(2)(a): The compounding of sterile preparations pursuant to receipt of a patient-specific prescription shall comply with the provisions of Section 503-A of the FDCA and USP Chapter 797.

LAC, Title 46: LIII §1105(C): Pharmacist-in-Charge. Authority and Accountability. The pharmacist-in-charge shall be ultimately responsible for complete supervision, management, and compliance with all federal and state pharmacy laws and regulations pertaining to the practice of pharmacy of the entire prescription department. This responsibility necessarily includes accountability for any violation involving federal or state laws or regulations occurring within the prescription department supervised by a pharmacist-in-charge.

To facilitate the submission of this Consent Agreement, Respondent does not offer any defense to the allegations of violations cited above and further agrees that there is sufficient evidence upon which to predicate a finding of those violations.

Respondent further understands that this Consent Agreement shall constitute a Public Record, pursuant to La. R.S. 44:1 et seq., and is considered disciplinary action by the Board.

In order to avoid further administrative and judicial proceedings, Respondent hereby consents to accept and abide by the following order of the Board:

1. PHARMACIST LICENSE NO. 21317 belonging to KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE is hereby issued a LETTER OF WARNING.

2. KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE is ordered to pay a fine of $2,500.00 and reimburse the Board $250.00 for administrative costs, for a total of $2,750.00 due by certified check or money order at the signing of this agreement.

3. KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE shall complete Critical Point's QP503 Certification Program no later than August 17, 2023. Should Respondent fail to complete the program, Respondent agrees that her license be placed on indefinite suspension until passage of the QP503 Certification Program.

By signing this Consent Agreement, Respondent agrees that the Board has jurisdiction in this matter, waives all rights to informal conference, to Notice of Hearing, to a formal Administrative Hearing and to judicial review of this Consent Agreement. Moreover, at no time shall Respondent request the expungement, rescission or removal of this Consent Agreement.

By signing this Consent Agreement, Respondent agrees that any failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement is a basis for discipline by the Board.

Both Respondent and the Board stipulate that this Consent Order shall not become effective and shall not become binding on the Board unless and until approved by the Board at formal meeting. However, Respondent agrees that this Consent Order shall be effective and binding upon Respondent without recourse upon his signing said Order.

I, KYLEE BROOKE VIDRINE, understand that this Consent Agreement is effective as a Board Order upon affirmative vote by the Board at formal hearing. It is also understood that, should the Board not approve this Consent Agreement, the agreement therein does not preclude the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy from requiring a formal hearing of my case.

It is further understood that, should this Consent Agreement not be accepted by the Board, the presentation to and consideration by the Board of this Agreement, including presented documentary evidence and information, shall not unfairly or illegally prejudice or preclude the Board or any of its members from further participation in hearings or resolution of these proceedings.

Respondent agrees that Respondent's execution of this Consent Agreement grants the Board the authority to collect any monies owed pursuant to this Consent Agreement and not paid to the Board notwithstanding the Board's acceptance of this Consent Agreement.

Respondent agrees to authorize the Board to report this action to the National Practitioner Data Bank – Healthcare Integrity and Protection Data Bank (NPDB-HIPDB) as required by law.

SIGNED, AGREED TO AND ENTERED ON 9th DAY OF June, 2022.

1.0 Purpose

1.1 The purpose of this procedure is to establish requirements for deactivation, decontamination, cleaning and disinfection of HD and non-HD compounding areas at Boudreaux's New Drug Store to ensure quality of compounded preparations and safety of personnel.

2.0 Definitions

2.1 HD Hazardous Drug

2.2 SDS Safety Data Sheet

2.3 PPE Personal Protective Equipment

2.4 Deactivation renders a compound inactive. If no specific information is available on SDS then use Peridox RTU (using three-minute contact time), Clorox Healthcare Bleach Germicidal Wipes or Clorox Healthcare Hydrogen Peroxide Cleaner Disinfectant Wipes (using a three-minute contact time), sodium hypochlorite 5000 - 6000 ppm (using 10 minute contact time) or other EPA- registered oxidizer (following labeled contact time).

2.5 Decontamination removes inactivated substances. If no specific information is available on SDS then use Peridox RTU (using three-minute contact time), Clorox Healthcare Bleach Germicidal Wipes or Clorox Healthcare Hydrogen Peroxide Cleaner Disinfectant Wipes (using a three-minute contact time), sodium hypochlorite 5000 - 6000 ppm (using 10 minute contact time) or other EPA- registered oxidizer (following labeled contact time).

2.6 Cleaning removes organic and inorganic matter. Use one-step disinfectant cleaner on surfaces. Use Alconox (or equivalent) products for glassware and utensils (e.g. Alcotabs in the dishwasher and Liquinox for handwashing).

2.7 Disinfection destroys microorganisms. May use 70% IPA or EPA-registered disinfectant. 70% IPA used in ISO-classified areas must be sterile.

3.0 Procedure

3.1 This procedure applies to all personnel involved with cleaning activities.

3.2 Agents selected must be appropriate for the type of contaminant, location, and surface materials. Agents used in HD areas should be applied through the use of wipes wetted with appropriate solution and not delivered by a spray bottle to avoid spreading HD residue. All disposable materials must be discarded in appropriate waste containers. No cleaning step may be performed when compounding activities are occurring. Ensure adequate contact times. Options include:

3.2.1 Sodium Hypochlorite at 5000 – 6000 ppm. Concentrations vary. BUD is 5 days. Contact time is 10 minutes when used as a sporicidal disinfectant.

3.2.1.1 Bleach 5.25% has 52500 ppm of sodium hypochlorite so for 5000 ppm, use 97.5 ml bleach and 902.5 ml SWFI and for 6000 ppm, use 102.6 ml bleach and 897.4 ml SWFI. Bud is 5 days.

3.2.1.2 Bleach 8.25% has 82500 ppm of sodium hypochlorite so for 5000 ppm, use 60.6ml bleach and 939.4 ml SWFI and for 6000 ppm, use 72.7ml bleach and 927.3 ml SWFI. BUD 5 days.

3.2.2 Or deactivate, decontaminate, and clean with Peridox RTU as follows:

1. Remove excess liquid from surface to be treated using a dry wiper
2. Saturate a new dry wiper with Peridox RTU solution.
3. Clean the surface with the saturated wiper, utilizing overlapping, unidirectional strokes.
4. Repeat steps 2-3. Leave the surface wet with Peridox RTU for at least 3 minutes.
5. Finish by wiping surface with 70% Isopropyl alcohol.
6. Discard contaminated wipers in trace hazardous waste container.

3.2.3 Or deactivate, decontaminate, and clean with Clorox Healthcare Bleach Germicidal Wipes or Clorox Healthcare Hydrogen Peroxide Disinfectant Wipes as follows:

1. Remove excess liquid from surface to be treated using a dry wiper
2. Take a new disinfectant wipe and fold it in half. Wipe the surface until completely wet. Wipe in unidirectional strokes, overlapping a portion of the previously wiped surface each time. If you are cleaning a large area, you may need to use several wipes.

3. Repeat steps 2 with a new disinfectant wipe. Leave the surface wet with for at least 3 minutes.

4. Finish by wiping surface with 70% Isopropyl alcohol.

5. Discard contaminated wipers in a manner consistent with facility guidelines and local regulations.

3.3 Personnel must be garbed appropriately for the area. See SOPs 1.30 Nonsterile Compounding Area, 1.35 Nonsterile HD Compounding Area, 1.40 Sterile Compounding Area, and 1.45 Sterile HD Compounding Area for garbing and PPE requirements and frequency of activities.

3.4 Nonsterile Area

3.4.1 Non-HD Area and all reusable equipment and devices must be cleaned. Re-usable storage containers must also be disinfected. A disinfectant with sporicidal activity should be used at least monthly.

3.4.1.1 Cleaning supplies should be stored in and dedicated for use in the Non-HD Area.

3.4.2 HD Area and all reusable equipment and devices must be deactivated, decontaminated, and cleaned. Re-usable storage containers must also be disinfected. A disinfectant with sporicidal activity should be used at least monthly.

3.4.2.1 Cleaning supplies must be stored in and dedicated for use in the HD Area.

3.4.2.2 Glassware and utensils used in HD compounding must be either wiped with Peridox RTU or Clorox Healthcare Bleach Germicidal Wipes or Clorox Healthcare Hydrogen Peroxide Disinfectant Cleaner (allowing a 3 minute contact time); or soaked in a 5000-6000 ppm sodium hypochlorite solution (for at least 10 minutes) before washing with a lab grade detergent (Alconox product) and rinsing thoroughly.

3.4.2.3 A disinfectant with sporicidal properties (e.g. Peridox RTU or Clorox Healthcare Bleach Germicidal Wipes) should be used on all surfaces at least monthly. Note: Clorox Healthcare Hydrogen Peroxide Germicidal Wipes do not have sporicidal activity.

3.5 ISO-Classified Areas

3.5.1 All cleaning materials, such as wipers, sponges, and mops used in ISO-classified areas must be nonshedding, preferably composed of synthetic micro fibers, and dedicated to use in the Non-HD or HD ISO-classified and must not be removed from these areas except for disposal. Agents and wipers used in ISO Class 5 must be sterile. Agents and wipers used in ISO Class 7 or 8 should be sterile. Cleaning materials used in HD areas may not be used in non-HD areas.

3.5.2 Non-HD ante-room and (positive pressure) buffer room and all reusable equipment must be cleaned and disinfected. A disinfectant with sporicidal activity must be used at least monthly. Floor must have a designated mop labeled 'Floor'. Floor mops may be used in both the buffer room and ante-room, but only in that order.

3.5.3 HD C-SEC (negative pressure buffer room) All areas and all reusable equipment and devices must be deactivated, decontaminated, cleaned, and disinfected. 3.6 HD Dispensing Area counting trays and spatulas should be dedicated to HDs and should be decontaminated after each use.

3.7 HD Receiving Area tables, countertops and floors must be deactivated, decontaminated, and cleaned each day of use and after spills.

3.8 All personnel who perform deactivation, decontamination, cleaning, and disinfection activities must be trained in appropriate procedures to protect themselves and the environment from contamination.

3.9 FDA Insanitary conditions include visible microbial and nonmicrobial contamination, glass particles, vermin, hair, and rust. Report these conditions to the PIC and remedy immediately.

1.0 Purpose

1.1 The purpose of this procedure is to establish requirements for the sterile non-hazardous compounding area at Boudreaux's New Drug Store to ensure quality of compounded preparations and safety of personnel.

2.0 Definitions

2.1 HD Hazardous Drug

2.2 Ante-room An ISO Class 8 or better transition room between the buffer room(s) and nonsterile compounding area. Ante-room leading into an HD buffer room must be ISO Class 7 or better.

2.3 Buffer room An ISO Class 7 or better room containing the Primary Engineering Control.

2.4 Primary Engineering Control (PEC) Laminar Airflow Workbench (LAFW) or Compounding Aseptic Isolator (CAI) which provides an ISO Class 5 environment for sterile compounding.

2.5 CFU Colony forming unit

2.6 ACPHs Air changes per hour.

3.0 Procedure

3.1 This procedure applies to all personnel involved with sterile compounding activities.

3.2 Boudreaux's New Drug Store must perform sterile non-HD compounding in accordance with USP <797> (and other applicable USP chapters) and standards of practice adopted by the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy and by national practices and standards adopted by government and non-government standard setting organizations.

3.3 Compounding and storage of HDs must not occur in sterile non-HD compounding areas except as permitted by assessment of risk.

3.4 Only authorized personnel must be permitted to enter ISO-classified areas. No food or beverages may be consumed and no lip balm or cosmetics may be applied in these areas. Personal items must not be brought into these areas. .

3.4.1 Sterile compounding personnel must be garbed according to task. Garb must include scrubs (preferred), gown, shoe covers, hair covering, beard cover (if applicable), mask, and eye protection (as needed). Sterile gloves must be worn in ISO-classified areas.

3.4.2 Before entering the ante-room, remove

3.4.2.1 Bandanas, coats, hats, jackets, scarves, sweaters, vests, etc. Religious headwear should be cleaned daily.

3.4.2.2 Cosmetics.

3.4.2.3 Hand, wrist and other visible jewelry.

3.4.2.4 Nail polish and artificial nails. Natural nails should be kept neat and trimmed.

3.4.3 Don garb from dirtiest to cleanest starting by donning shoe covers as you cross the line of demarcation onto the clean side then don hair cover, beard cover (if applicable), mask and eye protection (as needed) before hand washing.

3.4.5 Hand washing must be performed by first cleaning fingernails under running water using a disposable nail pic then vigorously washing all surfaces of hands and forearms for at least 30 seconds with soap (either nonantimicrobial or antimicrobial) followed by thorough rinsing and drying.

3.4.6 After hand washing, don a nonshedding knee length gown closed at the wrists and neck then enter the (positive pressure) non-HD buffer room. Prior to donning sterile gloves, antiseptic hand cleansing must be performed using waterless alcohol-based surgical hand scrub with persistent activity.

3.4.7 After donning sterile gloves, sterile 70% isopropyl alcohol must be used to disinfect gloves. Gloves must be disinfected periodically throughout the compounding process and whenever nonsterile surfaces are touched. When performing cleaning or pre-sterilization activities before compounding in the ISO-5 PEC, don a new pair of sterile gloves in the buffer room before compounding in the ISO-5 PEC.

3.4.8 When compounding is complete, gown may be reused during the work shift if not visibly soiled but other disposable garb must be removed and discarded. Gown must remain in the ante-room.

3.5 Sterile non-HD compounding must be performed in a PEC situated in an ISO Class 7 or better buffer room with at least 30 ACPH and a minimum pressure of 0.02 inches of water. PEC must be turned on a minimum of thirty minutes prior to compounding. Document pressure each day of use on Sterile Compounding Area Cleaning and Environmental Monitoring Log (Attachment 1) or equivalent log.

3.5.1 Pre-sterilization procedures such as weighing and mixing of powder APIs must be completed in a powder containment hood located in no worse than an ISO Class 8 environment.

3.5.2 ISO-classified areas must be certified under dynamic conditions by an authorized service provider before first use, when adding or removing fixtures or equipment, after maintenance, and at least every six months.

3.5.2.1 Viable and nonviable particle sampling

3.5.2.1.1 Viable particle sampling using impaction method must include testing for bacteria and fungus using two media (TSA and MEA or other suitable fungal medium). Document lot numbers and expiration dates of media. Collect 400-1000 liters of air per sample (1000 liters preferred, especially in PEC). Report results in cfu per cubic liter. Report control sample for each medium. Document time of day sampling was performed. Results must not exceed cfu > 1 ISO Class 5, cfu > 10 ISO Class 7, cfu> 100 ISO Class 8 or be identified as highly pathogenic (regardless of number of cfu). All growth must be identified to at least the genus level.

3.5.2.1.2 Any cfu count that exceeds its respective action level should prompt a re-evaluation of the adequacy of personnel work practices, cleaning procedures, operational procedures, and air filtration efficiency within the aseptic compounding location. An investigation into the source of the contamination must be conducted. Sources could include HVAC systems, damaged HEPA filters, and changes in personnel garbing or work practices. The source of the problem must be eliminated, the affected area cleaned, and resampling performed.

3.5.2.2 Filter integrity

3.5.2.2.1 Filter integrity testing must be performed on HEPA filters located in ceiling and PEC every six months.

3.5.2.3 Air exchanges

3.5.2.3.1 ACPH must be no less than 30.

3.5.2.4 Air pressure

3.5.2.4.1 Pressure must be in the range of 0.02 to 0.05 inches of water in positive pressure areas and in the range of – 0.01 to -0.03 inches of water in negative pressure areas.

3.5.2.5 Smoke testing

3.5.2.5.1 Perform smoke testing on rooms initially and after maintenance or moving equipment.

3.5.2.5.2 Perform and record smoke testing under most strenuous dynamic conditions on PEC every certification cycle.

3.5.2.6 Issues with clean room certification must be investigated and documented per SOP 6.20 Quality-Related Events.

3.6 Temperature should be maintained at 20°C (68°F) or cooler and humidity should be maintained under 60%. Document temperature and humidity of sterile compounding area on Cleaning and Calibration Log (SOP 1.30 Attachment 1B) or equivalent log. See SOP 1.30 Nonsterile Compounding Area for excursion allowances.

3.7 ISO-classified areas must be clean and organized to prevent mix-ups or cross-contamination. Areas must be examined for signs of rust and if found, removed immediately. Cleaning should be performed by using germicidal detergent or one-step cleaner-disinfectant using a low lint wipe. An appropriate disinfectant must be used allowing adequate contact time. See SOP 1.25 Cleaning Procedures for current cleaning agents in use.

3.7.1 Primary engineering control Clean and disinfect from cleanest to dirtiest (i.e. top to bottom and back to front) each day of use at the beginning of each work shift, before each batch preparation, every 30 minutes during continuous compounding, when spills occur and when surface contamination is known or suspected. Document initial cleaning and disinfection on Sterile Compounding Area Cleaning and Environmental Monitoring Log (Attachment 1) or equivalent log. Document subsequent cleaning and disinfection on compounding record.

3.7.1.1 Sporicide must be used at least monthly.

3.7.1.2 Excess equipment or supplies must not be kept in PEC.

3.7.2 Non-HD Buffer Rooms and Ante-room Cleaning and disinfection must not occur at the same time as compounding.

3.7.2.1 Work Surfaces – Daily cleaning and disinfection.

3.7.2.2 Sink – Daily cleaning and disinfection

3.7.2.3 Floors – Daily Non-HD buffer rooms first from far wall to door followed by ante-room from far wall to door using germicidal detergent or one-step cleaner-disinfectant.

3.7.2.4 Trash must be removed daily and trash containers cleaned and disinfected (if present).

3.7.2.5 Ceiling – Monthly cleaning and disinfection using sporicidal agent. Non-HD buffer rooms first from far wall to door followed by ante-room from far wall to door. Ceiling tiles must be sealed.

3.7.2.6 Walls – Monthly cleaning and disinfection using sporicidal agent. Non-HD buffer rooms first from far wall to door followed by ante-room from far wall to door.

3.7.2.7 Storage areas and carts – Monthly cleaning and disinfection using sporicidal agent.

3.7.2.7 Document cleaning and disinfection on Sterile Compounding Area Cleaning and Environmental Monitoring Log (Attachment 1 and 1C) or equivalent log.

3.8 Equipment and supplies Remove supplies from shipping containers before entering ante-room. Stage equipment and supplies by wiping with sterile 70% isopropyl alcohol using a low lint wipe before entering ante-room, buffer room, and ISO-

Class 5 PEC. Only supplies needed for compounding must enter the buffer room. Cardboard must not enter the buffer room and paper should be kept to a minimum. Sterile syringes and similar items packaged in paper may be opened at the edge of the PEC rather than being wiped with disinfectant.

3.9 Environmental monitoring using surface testing must be performed to verify cleaning and disinfection processes. Obtain media (TSA with Lecithin and polysorbate 80), document lot number and expiration date. Aseptically remove cover and touch agar to surface then replace cover. Surface samples must be taken from PECs, buffer room, ante-room, and pass-throughs upon completion of sterile compounding and prior to cleaning. Minimum initial requirements are weekly for three weeks then if below action level may perform monthly. Positive and negative controls must be performed. Certificate of analysis should be kept on file for two years.

3.9.1 Incubate TSA with Lecithin and polysorbate 80 at 30°-35°C for 48 to 72 hours. Document results on Sterile Compounding Area Cleaning and Environmental Monitoring Log (Attachment 1A) or equivalent log. Results must not exceed cfu > 3 Gloved Fingertips and ISO Class 5, cfu > 5 ISO Class 7, cfu> 100 ISO Class 8. All growth that exceeds these limits must be identified to at least the genus level.

3.9.2 If cfus exceed limits, a thorough cleaning and/or review of aseptic technique and manipulative skills and/or appropriate review of disinfecting of nonsterile components when introducing them into the clean room should be performed and documented according to SOP 6.20 Quality-Related Events. To verify any improvements or changes to procedures, surface testing is to be performed every week for three weeks then monthly.

3.10 Aseptic technique must be used at all times when working in the PEC. Use slow purposeful movements. Avoid coughing or sneezing over the work area. Minimize talking. Avoid leaning over the work area and resting hands on the work area. Direct Compounding Area (DCA) begins four inches above surface. Ensure critical sites receive first air from HEPA filter. Do not allow hands, equipment or supplies to come between (shadow) critical sites and first air. Do not allow critical sites to touch hands or any nonsterile surface. Critical sites include but are not limited to needles; syringe tips, inner shafts and barrels; rubber stoppers on vials and IV bags; and open tops of vials and beakers. Disinfect sterile gloves with sterile 70% isopropyl alcohol every time they leave the PEC before re-entering PEC.

RE: Response to FDA-483

Dear FDA Investigator:

This letter is in response to the FDA-483 observations for Packaging Coordinators, LLC conducted of our facility located at 3001 Red Lion Road, Philadelphia, PA 19114.

Please find below Packaging Coordinators response to your observations.

Observation 1:

Your firm failed to establish adequate written procedures for production and process controls designed to assure that the drug products have the identity, strength, purity, and quality that they are purported or represented to possess.

Specifically,

a. Your environmental monitoring plan as defined in SOP, SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, effective date 29 September 2021, is insufficient for aflibercept PFS assembly and blistering line E2 as no surface environmental monitoring is conducted for the product contact/indirect product contact surfaces such as the syringe assembly area and associated surfaces. According to SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, section 7.4.2.2 states that sample sites for surface (floor and walls) viable shall be based on the following: "Sites and/or processes where microbial contamination is deemed likely to have an adverse effect on product quality, sites that represent the most difficult areas to clean, and activities in the area that contribute to the spread of contamination."
b. Complaints received by your client included moisture observed in the syringe blister package. Post aflibercept (Eylea) PFS VHP, there is no procedural requirement in confirmation of load dryness and absence of moisture in the syringe blister packaging or any other defect that may pose a risk to product quality.
c. The sterilization of the aflibercept (Eylea) PFS within the blister pack is conducted by VHP that includes Chamber Leak Test at 500 mbar, Pre-condition Parameter at 500 mbar, Exposure Parameter at 500 mbar, Aeration Parameter 1 at 800 mbar and Aeration Parameter 2 at 500 mbar. The aflibercept shipping validation supports a pressure change at 572 mbar in support plunger stopper movement, assuring the sterile barrier is maintained. The worst-case pressure level applied at 500 mbar during the syringe VHP process has not been validated to assure the sterile barrier is maintained.

d. Document titled, Product Assessment - Eylea (aflibercept) - Product/PPE/Room/Health and Risk Assessment was performed by your internal PCI Safety, with standard gowning to be applied during manufacture that does not include a face mask. The assessment is deficient as it failed to account for the manufacturing bioburden control strategy, with the donning of a mask providing enhanced bioburden control.
e. Document RA-1331 (risk assessment), "Secondary Manufacturing of EYLEA Pre-Filled Syringe in Non-Classified Spaces at PCI" indicates that production rooms are positive pressure to the hallways per PCI SOP-00793; however, there is no calibrated magnehelic or BMS system to provide assurance of adequate continuous differential pressure control for the production rooms.
f. The requalification of the aflibercept (Eylea) VHP sterilization process includes 10,336 blister packs sealed and without pre-filled syringes, with 45 blister packs containing an aflibercept PFS spaced throughout the load for sterility testing and 240 blister packs total containing an aflibercept PFS for 120 (CI units) and 120 (BI units). The use of 10,336 empty blister packs is not representative of the commercial maximum load.

Background:

The validation studies performed at the PCI Philadelphia facility demonstrated that the VHP sterilization process consistently achieves at least 10^{-6} sterility assurance level (SAL). In addition, the process has been successfully qualified to maintain package integrity and confirmed on each lot through container closure integrity testing.

The PCI Environmental Monitoring program consists of performing quarterly sampling of each packaging room involving testing viable surface monitoring (floors and walls) along with active air monitoring for viable and non-viable particulate. Below is a table outlining the average environmental monitoring results for all packaging rooms for the calendar year of 2022.

Sample Locations	Average
Floor (TYMC)	< 1 cfu/25 cm^2
Floor (TAMC)	< 2 cfu/25 cm^2
Wall (TYMC)	< 1 cfu/25 cm^2
Wall (TAMC)	< 1 cfu/25 cm^2
Air Viable (TYMC)	< 3 cfu/m^3
Air Viable (TAMC)	< 5 cfu/ m^3
Non-Viable	4552 Particles/ft^3

Based on the capability of the sterilization process and the historical data from Environmental monitoring testing, PCI is confident that the validated VHP sterilization process transferred from Regeneron ensures the sterility of the packaged product.

To address the Agency's concerns raised in the 483, in collaboration with Regeneron, PCI has developed the action plan outlined below.

Response:

a. As an enhancement to the Environmental Monitoring program, the procedure SOP-00790 EM Requirements for Non-Sterile Packaging will be updated to include a risk-based sampling approach that will integrate additional sampling points on and around the packaging equipment itself based on risk of contamination to product. The production lines involved in the packaging process prior to sterilization (assembly and blistering) will be assessed and the increased sampling plan implemented. This information will provide additional ongoing data related to the overall bioburden as it relates to product movement through the process.

   Action Due Date: 17-April-2023

b. PCI is committing to perform a risk assessment for possible defects that could occur related to the blister units and the enclosed pre-filled syringes as they are sterilized through the VHP process.

   Along with the risk assessment that will characterize the possible defects, PCI will perform a study on a minimum of three (3) lots of Eylea® that have been processed through the VHP Sterilization process. This study will involve visual inspection of the blister units themselves for the presence of visible drops of moisture within the cavities. This information will be characterized and assessed within the Risk Assessment.

   Action Due Date: 15-July-2023

c. A study will be conducted on packaged units related to plunger rod movement at the worst-case pressure experienced through a VHP cycle (approximately 500 mbar). During the inspection, Regeneron provided a document outlining the commitment to execute the study.

   Action Due Date: 30-June-2023

d. The observation outlines a reference to the Product Assessment for Eylea. This type of assessment is conducted to determine the appropriateness for a product to be packaged within a facility as well as the associated Personal Protective Equipment required to protect an employee from the material. The gowning requirements for protecting product would be developed through our Contamination/Cross-Contamination Risk Assessment RA-2021-011 as well product specific FMEAs.

As an overarching action, PCI is committed to performing an additional study to characterize the bioburden prior to sterilization. This study will be performed in collaboration with Regeneron. It will establish and evaluate the impact of pre-sterilization bioburden and further demonstrate the capability of the validated VHP sterilization process.

Characterization of bioburden load on the blister-packaged syringes (prior to sterilization) will be performed under protocol, and will include the following:

- Testing will be performed on three lots of blister-packaged syringes (prior to sterilization), with a statistical sampling based on total lot size. This will be performed once per quarter for a period of 1 year to capture seasonal variability.
- Based on the results, the protocol may be extended to include additional periodic testing.
- The determination of population will be based on ISO 11737-1 and the bioburden testing will be performed according to USP<61>.

The protocol will be comprehensive in outlining the steps involving the sampling and testing to be conducted spanning a period of twelve (12) months. The protocol will be in approved for execution by 17-April-2023. The study results will be evaluated and additional controls for bioburden will be implemented, as necessary.

The study will provide the background information in order to appropriately update the PCI Contamination/Cross-Contamination Risk Assessment RA-2021-011 which will include the output of any updates to gowning requirements based on the data obtained.

e. PCI balances each packaging room to ensure positive pressurization on an annual basis. A risk-based approach will be taken regarding the process steps in which the continuous differential pressure monitoring is implemented across all production rooms at the site. The assessment will determine the rooms where continuous monitoring probes will be implemented and the associated procedure SOP-00793 "Air Handling System" will be updated to reflect the changes. The overall CAPA action includes the risk assessment, procedural updates, and implementation timeframe for the continuous monitoring program for room differential pressure.

Action Due Date: 15-November-2023

f. A review of the protocol and batch documentation associated with this observation was performed. The re-qualification was performed using blisters containing pre-filled syringes. This information was not clearly communicated during the inspection.

Evidence to this effect is noted below with pictures of the "dunnage" material utilized in the study which consists of the pre-filled syringes enclosed in blister units.

PCI has an established part number PCR-VHP-DUNNAGE within our qualified ERP system. A photo of the ERP system generated label is noted below indicating the part number PCR-VHP-DUNNAGE along with the corresponding materials consisting of a blister unit with an assembled syringe. Therefore, the study was performed using the same loaded cycles as a routine commercial sterilization cycle. The requirements for executing the sterilizer re-qualifications are outlined in the individual re-qualification protocols.

Observation 1 will be addressed under CAPA-2023-0063.

Observation 2:

Equipment used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products is not of appropriate design to facilitate operations for its intended use.

Specifically,

Your Building 1 air compression system supporting aflibercept (Eylea) sterilization by VHP system (VHP 2) is not of oil free design, with the air distribution system to the VHP 2 sterilizer including black iron piping. Though the air compression system includes hydrocarbon removal and distribution system in-line point of use hydrocarbon and particulate filtration, the system design is inconsistent with current GMP expectations.

Response:

The distribution from the air compressor includes a series of three filters along with an additional point of use filter prior to delivery of the air to the VHP sterilizer. The filters are noted below in sequence:

(1) Particulate Filter:	Particulate Removal 1 micron
(2) Coalescing Filter:	Particulate Removal 0.01 micron; ISO 8573-1 Class 1
(3) Vapor Filter:	Particulate Removal 0.01 micron, ISO 8573-1 Class 1

The series of three filters are on a Preventive Maintenance cycle in which the vapor filter is replaced on a six (6) month cycle. The Particulate and Coalescing Filters are replaced on a twelve (12) month cycle.

In addition to the series of three filters to remove particulate, water, and oil vapor, there is an additional filter installed downstream immediately prior to distribution into the VHP unit itself. This filter is a Pharmaceutical Grade Sterilizer Filter with an absolute removal rating of 0.2 microns in liquids and 0.003 microns in gases. This filter is replaced on a twelve (12) month frequency.

The filtration system in place provides the appropriate air quality to the VHP sterilizer. The compressed air testing conducted post filtration is within the acceptance criteria. PCI is committed to enhancing our process through the CAPA actions listed below.

PCI has committed to source, install, and qualify a new oil-free compressed air system for the VHP 2 sterilizer. The installation will involve installing new piping constructed of copper/stainless steel.

Action Due Date: 04-February-2024

As an interim measure, PCI is increasing both the frequency of testing on the compressed air after the filtration system as well as the Preventive Maintenance program. The testing of the compressed air system (moisture, hydrocarbons, particulate, air viable) will be conducted on a bi-weekly basis downstream from the series of three filters. The Preventive Maintenance program will be enhanced related to the filtration system to include an inspection of the filter gauges on the same bi-weekly basis.

Action Due Date: 10-March-2023

Observation 2 will be addressed under CAPA-2023-0064.

Observation 3:

The responsibilities and procedures applicable to the quality control unit are not fully followed.

Specifically, your firm failed to follow the following procedures:

a. According to your standard operational procedure entitled "QA Batch Record Review and Product Release,". SOP-00765, rev 45, Section 2.5, the Quality Associate is responsible "to review, verify presence of all batch record pages, verify correct batch record pagination and accuracy, coordinate error corrections with the Quality Associate or designee, assure Deviation Reports are complete and closed, and approve the batch record for PCI release." The following are examples of drug products that were released by your Quality Unit for commercial distribution with inaccurate lot numbers and/or expiration dating.

   • DEV-2022-0244, Alkermes Vivitrol 380mg (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) Kit, lot# 190592C, expiration 04/30/2024 released with an incorrect expiry of 05/31/2024
   • DEV-2022-0244, Alkermes Vivitrol 380mg (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) Kit, lot# 190604C, expiration 04/30/2024 released with an incorrect expiry of 05/31/2024 ·
   • EVENT-2022-5953, Flexion Therapeutics Zilretta 32mg (triamcinolone acetonide extended-release injectable suspension) Finished Kits, lot# 111003, expiration 11/2023 released with an incorrect lot number of 22-9006
   • EVENT-2022-6666, Amgen Repatha AMG 145) HMP, 120mg/mL, 3.5mL (evolocumab), lot# 1153429, expiration 12/3112024 released with an incorrect expiry of 10/31/2024

b. Your procedure, SOP-00240 "Corrective Action and Preventative Action (CAPA)", revision 01, effective 11/05/2021, section 5.1.8 states that "effectiveness checks should be considered as part of the CAPA plan and the scope and method of confirmed effectiveness should be detailed as part of the plan." CAPA 433782 which was opened on 12/14/2021 to document the correction for installing the proposed changes indicator for setting the crimper clearance and pressure settings for E5 Doboy. This CAPA was closed on 05/20/2022. Your firm applied a new effectiveness check review board to address current and future CAPAs however did not address the CAPA(s) that were opened within the effective date of your procedure.

This is a repeat observation from the previous inspection conducted 10/17/2022-10/21/2022.

Response:

a. In reviewing the list of deviations and the associated lots outlined in observation 3a, none of these products had shipped from the facility. Upon discovery of the discrepancy, PCI initiated deviations and the product impact was assessed and Corrective Actions implemented accordingly for each situation.
   • DEV-2022-0244 was related to the expiration dating assigned to two lots of product. The process involves kitting different components into a carton. The expiration dates on the components dictate the overall expiration dating on the kit itself. A change was made to the lot of a component due to availability in which an update to the resulting expiration date was not performed. The units will be re-processed with the correct expiration date.

- EVENT-2022-5953 involved a kitted product in which the lot number on the vial is different than the lot number on the carton. The process deviated as the lot number that was assigned for the vial was the same as the carton. This was identified during the packaging operations and resolved prior to release of the lot.
- EVENT-2022-6666 related to a product in which the expiration dating is assigned based on the date of the packaging activity as supplied by the customer. There was a delay in the timeframe of the packaging activity start date from October 2022 to December 2022 at which point the new packaging date was assigned. The documentation associated with this lot was not updated so it resulted in the lot being packaged with an expiration date that was two months shorter than the intended dating. It was determined the material could be released without further action needed as the discrepancy in dates resulted in a shorter timeframe.

PCI has addressed each of the situations noted above and applied corrective and preventive actions accordingly. In order to address the specific observation, PCI is holistically implementing an additional verification step during the batch record review process as outlined in SOP-00765 "QA Batch Record Review and Product Release". This additional step will confirm the expiration date and lot information is correct as intended and there were no changes from the source information that resulted in a change to the variable data.

Action Due Date: 30-March-2023

b. PCI has executed the action plan as outlined in our response letter dated November 3, 2022. CAPA-2022-0273 Effectiveness was completed as per the due date in the PCI eQMS system. The other three CAPAs outlined (PR433753, PR433782, PR433754) were generated out of the prior eQMS system in which CAPA Effectiveness plans were not linked to each CAPA nor was it a procedural requirement in utilizing the system. In order to fully remediate the concerns raised in the observation, PCI is reviewing all CAPA actions from the PCI legacy system for CAPA Effectiveness that were closed after the date of August 2022. In August 2022, PCI implemented a new eQMS system in which the Effectiveness Check is integrated to the CAPA plan. The due date below outlines the date in which this retrospective CAPA Effectiveness check will be completed.

Action Due Date: 30-March-2023

Observation 3 will be addressed under CAPA-2023-0065.

Observation 4:

Buildings and equipment used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products are not maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

Specifically,

a. Deteriorated insulation and a deteriorated gasket was observed at a finger flange assembly system for syringe labeling and plunger rod insertion System 1712, Area E3. Excess grease was observed on the plunger rod shafts.
b. The air compression system located in Building #1 and used for oil free compressed air to the VHP 2 sterilizer was observed in an dirty state, including debris observed at an air compressor intake.
c. Walk-in 2 - 8°C refrigerator 150845 was observed with waste material such. as dirt and debris on the floor and behind and between pallets. Refrigerator 150845 is used to store finished drug products such as aflibercept PFS and materials needing temperature control.
d. An automated door leading to E2, syringe blistering was observed not functioning.

Response:

PCI provided corrective actions related to each observation during the inspection to outline the replacement of the insulation and gasket on the Equipment Asset 1712, cleaning of grease from the equipment shafts, cleaning of the utility area around the air compression system, cleaning of extraneous material from the Refrigerators, and repair to the E2 door. The actions below outline the preventive measures that are being implemented.

a. The Preventive Maintenance program for the Equipment Asset 1712 along with any additional similar units within the facility is being updated to include a quarterly inspection of the integrity of the insulation and gasket. The PM for the Groninger equipment related to the observation of excessive grease is also being updated for a quarterly inspection and cleaning for excessive grease.

   Action Due Date: 17-March-2023

b. The procedure SOP-00803 "Cleaning Procedure for the Facility" is being updated to integrate the utility area for the Air Compressor and all additional GMP areas within the facility. The standard work for the cleaning requirements and documentation associated with confirming cleaning was completed will be updated to include the specific daily, weekly, and monthly requirements including the area of cleaning. The program will be enhanced by having a physical review documented at a periodic interval.

   Action Due Date: 25-March-2023

c. The preventive measures related to the refrigerator will be addressed through the same actions outlined above in response to observation 4b.

d. A Preventive Maintenance program for the production doors will be implemented as a monthly action item to service the doors and prevent breakdowns.

   Action Due Date: 25-March-2023

   An additional measure will be added to the preventive action plans related to the doors. An audible alarm will be installed on the doors that will be triggered if the door is open over a defined period of time to alert area personnel that the door is not closed.

   Action Due Date: 23-October-2023

Observation 4 will be addressed under CAPA-2023-0066.

SUMMARY

This preannounced abbreviated surveillance inspection and pre-approval inspection of a contract labeler, packager and repackager of human biological and pharmaceutical drug was initiated according to eNSpect Assignment # 231968 and as a part of PHARM1 FY23 work plan. This inspection was conducted in accordance with CPGM 7356.002- Drug Manufacturing Inspections, CPGM 7356.002M - Inspection of Licensed Therapeutic Drug Products; and CP 7346.832 - Pre-approval Inspections/Investigations in support of BLA 125387 S78 for (aflibercept injection), EYLEA, applicant Regeneron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. This inspection is reported under PACs S6002 and 46832. Profile codes SVT, SVS, LIQ, CSG, SUP SVL, and OIN were covered.

The previous inspection conducted on 10/17/2022 – 10/21/2022 was classified Voluntary Action Indicated and the firm was issued a Form FDA 483, Inspectional Observations, for: 1) Buildings used in manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug product are not maintained in a clean and sanitary condition and 2) The responsibilities and procedures applicable to the quality unit are not fully followed. During the current inspection, the corrections from the previous inspection were evaluated without comment with the exception of Observation 2 which was a repeat observation.

The current inspection revealed that the firm continues to operate as a contract labeler, packager and repackager of human biological and pharmaceutical drug products. The current inspection provided coverage of the Quality System and Packaging and Labeling System. Documents reviewed included but not limited to laboratory records, change controls and SOPs. The inspection covered the packaging process of BLA 125387 S78 for (aflibercept injection), EYLEA a review of complaints, environmental monitoring, Quality Agreements, batch records, Annual Product Reviews, deviations, change controls, packaging and labeling controls, and corrective actions and preventative measures.

A Form FDA 483, Inspectional Observations, was issued at the conclusion of the inspection for:

1. Failure to establish adequate written procedures for production and process controls designed to assure that the drug products have the identity, strength, purity, and quality that they are purported or represented to possess.
2. Equipment used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products is not of appropriate design to facilitate operations for its intended use.
3. The responsibilities and procedures applicable to the quality unit are not fully followed
4. Buildings used in the manufacture, processing, packaging or holding of drug products are not maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

Additionally, the following discussion items were presented to the firm at the closeout meeting:

1. The H1 cartoning line was inspected during a manufacturing break, with three Eylea cartons containing product observed on the active conveying track.
2. A field complaint was received for the Eylea DP, with the DP appearance gray in color. Regeneron did not evaluate the syringes for potential contamination. PCI should also work collaboratively with Regeneron to have a clear and complete understanding for absence of microbial contamination.

No refusals were encountered, and no samples were collected. No rodent, insect, or avian activity was observed.

According to Mr. Thomas Cligget, Director of Quality Operations, the firm's history remains unchanged from the previous inspection ending on 10/21/2022. That history is provided below.

Packaging Coordinators, LLC is a privately-owned company with global commercial locations in Philadelphia, PA; Rockford, IL; Mississauga, ON; Hay-on-Wye, UK; Tredegar, UK; and Dublin, Ireland. The firm was previously inspected on 12/15/2020 through 12/18/2020. This inspection was limited in scope and focused on the review of the firm's labeling and packaging of Janssen and AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccines. No FDA 483 was issued and the inspection was classified as NAI.

On 10/17/2022, Mark Burke, Executive Director of Quality, stated the firm planned to manufacture the AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccine, but did not proceed with any manufacturing operations. Prior to the limited inspection in December 2020, the firm was inspected on 8/29/2017 through 9/6/2017, as part of the OPQOI FY17 workplan. No FDA 483 was issued, and the inspection was classified as NAI.

The firm operates continuously and has approximately 675 full-time employees.

Information bellow was collected during the current inspection (01/09/2023 – 01/12/2023):
The firm was inspected by the Agency ending on 10/21/2022 as a joint inspection between the Office of Biological Products Operations (OBPO) and the Office of Pharmaceutical Quality Operations (OPQO) and conducted as part of the OBPO/Team Biologics FY23 workplan under eNSpect ID# 232419. FIRM'S TRAINING PROGRAM

(This section written by Investigator Theodarou)

I reviewed the firm's procedure, SOP-00777 Training, rev 38, effective 02/14/2022 which establishes the system by which employees are trained and how training documentation is tracked, approved and filed. The firm implements a training system that uses both self-training using ComplianceWire, On-the-Job Training (OJT) and group or Instructor Led Training (ILT).

CGMP training is offered to new hires who must pass an examination with a score of 80% to be allowed to work. If not, they can't begin any work until they have retaken and achieved an acceptable score of 80%. Annual or Refresher CGMP training is offered annually at the minimum for all employees. Periodic CGMP training is conducted on topics selected by the Senior Management Team. Selection of the topics is contingent on new FDA guidances or updates, repeated events, new processes, any significant process change, etc. I reviewed this document with no objections.

MANUFACTURING/DESIGN OPERATIONS

Exhibit 05 consists of the firm's Site Master File. Page 37-38 contains the facility's floor plans. There are forty-six packaging lines at the firm, with area E3 new for the BLA 125387 S78 (aflibercept injection), EYLEA. The firm does not package potent or toxic products and has ceased operations for animal drug products.

Walkthrough

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 09 January 2023, we (WS, BD, CT, and BL) proceeded on a walkthrough of the facility starting in shipping and receiving. Deliveries proceed from guard station, where transport is considered a delivery or pickup. SOP 010511 support receipt of materials, with materials received on heat treated pallets (no wood allowed in production). A purchase order is compared to the shipment, packing slip, and number of units are verified. Goods can be rejected based on damage, infestation, etc. J.D. Edwards is the validated materials management system, with electronic quarantine. Materials for manufacture are stored in the validated ambient GMP warehouse, 59 to 86°F temperature control by an automated pallet storage and retrieval system (ASRS). Materials for manufacturing are sampled, with the amount sample deducted from available inventory. Eylea is sampled under 2 - 8°C storage conditions. A caged reject area was observed with badge access.

We proceeded to 2 - 8°C walk-in unit 9 (150845). Observed was Regeneron Lot 8231500283, one pallet. The quantity in J.D. Edwards and the storage location of the specified lot was accurate. The walk-in refrigerator was observed in an unclean state, see Exhibit 06.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 4.c.

Outside the walk-in unit, equipment identified as high claim was being stored, placed in a location identified as B15 - Trash, see Exhibit 07. During the inspection, the firm provided corrective action that included storage of the equipment in an appropriate area, see Exhibit 08.

We proceeded to area G3, existing labeling area that includes plunger rod insertion to the Eylea syringe. The new area for said function is E3, with syringe finger flange assembly to the syringe and blistering being conducted in area E2. Within the E3 area, a Groninger syringe tub conveying system was observed, unit 5349, followed by labeling and plunger rod insertion system, asset 1712. A finger flange unit was observed with deteriorated insulation and gasket, see Exhibit 10. The plunger rod shafts were observed with excess grease, see Exhibit 11.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 4.a.

We proceeded to Eylea finger flange assembly and blistering, with the area assess door observed non-functional, see Exhibit 12. The finger flange to the syringe is semi-automated, placement by hand with a machine locking the finger flange into place. Molded trays are formed, with syringe placement followed by blistering by HAPA KLO NFR Packaging Machine. A challenge test is conducted every four hours for the packaging system that includes automated detection of missing flange, empty tray, printed lot and expiration, incorrect lot and expiration, etc. The area includes ceiling MERV 13 filters. Blistered syringes are stored at 2 - 8°C pending further manufacturing.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 4.b.

We proceeded to VHP unit 1 and 2, Steris units. The area includes HEPA filter filtration. Recirculated air is at 90%, fresh 10%.

We proceeded to area H1, final packaging, cartoning that includes Eylea product, insert into a carton and corrugated shipper. The process included carton formation with a single Eylea blister placed into the carton with insert. A check weight system verifies carton contents, with carton serialization 100% check by camera system. 24 Eyleas cartons are packaged to one shipper. A system challenge is conducted every four hours as prior for missing insert, etc. The line was inspected at an end of a break, with three Eylea carton containing product observed on the active conveying track, see Exhibit 13. I (WS) questioned why the units were not positioned into an overpack prior to break, with the firm rejecting, discarding the units.

Reference Discussion Item 1 in General Discussion with Management.

On 10 January, we (WS and BD) proceeded VHP 1, with 8 carriers to a load, 1,292 syringes per carrier. Post VHP there is no visual inspection of the load that may include wetness, moisture in the blister or other defects that could have an impact on product quality. Visual inspection in H1, cartoning only pertains labeling requirements. In Eylea blistering operations prior to VHP, there is 200% visual inspection with AQL.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.b.

On 11 January 2022, we (WS and BD) proceeded to the air compressors, 1x Atlas Copco and 1x Hitachi, both oil free in design with redundant dryers, 2x receivers, coarse and fine filter, with copper to stainless distribution system for VHP1. The observed dewpoint was -107.7°C.

We proceed to Plant 1 for 2x air compressors used for VHP2, not oil free in design. Post air compression, filtration occurs followed by 3x driers to a receiving tank. Post receiving tank, the air is distributed by black iron piping (100s feet of piping), with copper to stainless at the VHP2 system point of use. Hydrocarbon filters are located within the compressor and at the newly installed filtration unit near the VHP 2 sterilizer. The compressors are supplied with food grade oil in air compression. The system was originally for instrument air and through filtration and testing, the system meets process air requirements for GMP use. There is no hydrocarbon alarm capability, with the system tested for hydrocarbon quarterly. There is a plan to replace the system, not scheduled with the equipment not ordered. The compressors in Plant 1 and the general area were observed in an unclean state, see Exhibit 14.

OBJECTIVE 1: READINESS FOR COMMERCIAL MANUFACTURING

As part of assessing the firm's readiness for commercial manufacturing, a review of the GMP Systems below were assessed as they pertain to the PAI product, BLA 125387 S78 for (aflibercept injection), EYLEA.

Quality System

Management Responsibility

(This section written by Investigator Theodorou)

The responsibilities applicable to the Quality Control Unit were reviewed and evaluated during the current inspection. Mr. Thomas Cligget provided the firm's procedure, SOP-00773 Responsibilities of the Quality Unit, rev 05, effective 09/27/2021 which defines the responsibilities of the Quality Unit such as making decisions and recommendations based solely on quality considerations. During our inspection, I reviewed various SOPs, investigations, batch records, and validation reports. Each of the reports we reviewed were reviewed and approved by the quality unit. No deficiencies were noted unless further specified in this report.

Exhibit 15 consists of a list of the firm's SOPs.

Deviations

(This section written by Investigator LePage)

The procedure that governs unplanned quality events and deviations is entitled SOP-00113, rev 02, "Deviation: Reporting and Investigation" (Exhibit 16). The procedure indicates that an event or deviation is to be initiated in the eQMS, or on FORM-000308, immediately upon realization. In January 2021, the firm transitioned their electronic quality management system from Trackwise to MasterControl. The current quality designations of "event" or "deviation" in MasterControl were termed "public record" in Trackwise. According to Thomas Cliggett, Director of Quality Operations, all events are assessed for product impact and escalated to a deviation as necessary. Deviations are further classified as No Impact, Minor, Major and Critical through the joint evaluation of SMEs and Quality. Root cause analysis is required for all deviations classified as minor, major, and critical. Deviations are required to be closed 30 business days after initiation unless an extension is approved by Quality. I reviewed the following deviations, events, and public notices in depth: PR-424733, PR-414723, PR-415690, DEV-2022-0591, DEV-2022-0829, DEV-2022-0568, PR-424609, PR-422935, DEV-2022-024, Event-2022-5953, Event-2022-6666, and some examples are described below:

PR-DN424609 (Exhibit 17)
Closed: 12/06/2019
The customer Eirgen contacted PCI on 11/20/2019 to inform them that they received an unreleased lot of the product Rayaldee FG Lot #3868797. QA approved the batch record release on 10/25/2019 and released the shipment on 11/15/2019 (see Exhibit 18). The firm determined the root cause to be human error. The firm initiated CAPA 424768 and conducted "Awareness" training for the Quality Teams personnel associated with batch release. The customer kept the drug product lot sent in error and distributed it in lieu of the originally requested lot.

DEV-2022-0244 (Exhibit 19, pg. 1-17)
Opened: 04/04/2022
Closed: In Progress

Vivitrol® (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #2022-3005T, expiration 04/30/2024 kits (see Exhibit 20) were assembled with some of the following components.

- Vivitrol® microspheres (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #0000110944, expiration 10/2024
- Administrative needle (1.5") lot# 190592C, expiration 04/30/2024
- Administrative needle (1.5") lot #190604C, expiration 05/31/2024
- WIP Diluent Vial, lot #00108206B, expiration 03/2025

- 5mL Luerlock Syringe, lot# 210112V, expiration 12/31/2025

The expiration date of the kit is based off the component that expires first, therefore the kits should have received an expiration date of 04/30/2024, which correlates to the administration needle (1.5") lot# 190592C. The kits were assigned the incorrect expiration date of 05/31/2024, which corresponds to the administration needle (1.5") lot #190604C.

Vivitrol® (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #2022-3005T was released on 03/24/2022 by QA (see Exhibit 20). On 03/31/2022 PCI was notified by their customer that the drug product released to them was incorrectly labeled with the wrong expiration date. The 3600 affected kits were repackaged to reflect the correct expiry of 04/30/2024. CAPA-2023-0020 (Exhibit 19, pg 29 - 43) was initiated on 01/10/2023 during the inspection and is still in progress.

Event-2022-6666 (Exhibit 21)
Closed: 12/20/2022
On 12/19/2022, PCI was notified by their customer that they had received Repatha® Pushtronex® system (evolocumab) 420mg/3.5mL, lot# 1153429, expiration 12/31/2024 labeled with the incorrect expiration date of 10/31/2024. QA approved the batch record release on 12/19/2022 and released the shipment on 12/20/2022 (see Exhibit 22). The firm determined the root cause to be human error and did not initiate a corrective action. The product was short-dated the expiry by two months, therefore, the error was determined to not impact the quality of this lot. There was no preventative action directed for this event.

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)
On 12 January 2023, Pat Cliggett, Quality Account Manager provided an overview of deviation selected as follows:

Deviation DEV-2022-0485: Opened 08 July 2022, Closed 18 August 2022. Regeneron, Eylea blister failed leak test, Lot 8231400007. The root cause was a wire line defect in the blister pack, imperfection in cavity. The event is associated with blistering operations and has been added to the defect library. Repackaging was conducted according to protocol, meeting the TOR, with stability data supportive of the additional VHP cycle.

Corrective Actions and Preventative Actions
(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)
Exhibit 23 consists of SOP-00240, Corrective Action and Preventative Action (CAPA).

I reviewed the firm's SOP, SOP-00240, Corrective Action and Preventative Action (CAPA), revision 01, effective 11/05/2021 which outlines the procedure to document the process for assigning, monitoring and tracking corrective action and preventative action (CAPA) plans arising from quality events and assigned Root Cause Analysis (RCA). When a CAPA is needed, it will be generated in MasterControl. Required data such as the CAPA type, Parent Record (Event, deviation, etc. that necessitated a CAPA), description of CAPA including planned actions, due dates and action deliverables, and a description of required effectiveness check or a justification if an effectiveness check is not required. Depending on the risk categorization of the CAPA, a timeline is assigned. High risk – 30 calendar days, Medium Risk – 60 calendar days, and Low Risk – 90 calendar days. A guideline for effectiveness checks is also identified in the SOP based on the frequency of the impacted activity. If the activity is a daily activity, the minimum effectiveness check period should be 3 months, weekly – 6-month period, at least monthly – 12-month period, if the frequency is greater than monthly or undetermined, a 24-month minimum effectiveness check period is applied.

According to Mr. Cliggett, as a correction to an observation from the previous inspection, the firm created a CAPA Management Team to better plan, track and review CAPAs and to monitor the correction and perform Effectiveness Checks as required by the SOP.

I reviewed the following CAPAs:
CAPA-2022-0658
CAPA-2022-0659
CAPA-2022-0695
CAPA-2022-0766
CAPA-2022-0821
CAPA-2022-0825
CAPA-2022-0825
CAPA-2023-0009

Exhibit 24 consists of the firm's CAPA-2022-0659 which was opened to document the firm's corrections to Observation 2 that was made during the previous inspection ending 10/21/2022.

I noted the firm implemented an effectiveness check review board which meets routinely to determine if a CAPA effectiveness is needed, assigns a review date, and monitors the status of the CAPA throughout the process. As of the date of this inspection, the firm did not have any completed effectiveness checks by the review board for me to review. I also discussed with Mr. Cliggett that if the purpose of the meeting is to make quality decisions, the firm should maintain a record of either the meeting notes or meeting minutes. How the record is kept, whether a new tracking system is made for them or if copies of the meeting notes are added to each CAPA that is discussed at each meeting should be at the discretion of the firm.

I also noted in my review that the firm did not conduct any effectiveness checks for the CAPAs that were identified in the observation from the previous inspection. Exhibit 25 consists of CAPA 433782 which was opened on 12/14/2021 to document the correction for installing the proposed changes indicator for setting the crimper clearance and pressure settings for E5 Doboy.

At the time of the creation of the CAPA, SOP-00240 was in effect. SOP-00240, section 5.1.8 states that "effectiveness checks should be considered as part of the CAPA plan and the scope and method of confirmed effectiveness should be detailed as part of the plan." Please refer to Observation 3.b in the FDA 483 Inspectional Observations and in the Objectionable Conditions and Management Response section of this report.

I also reviewed the firm's corrections to observations made during the previous inspection ending in 10/20/2022 which I discuss in the Voluntary Corrections section of this report.

Change Management/Change Controls

(This section was written by Investigator LePage)

The procedure that governs change control is SOP-00460, rev 01, "Philadelphia Change Control Procedure." This procedure includes, but is not limited to, changes in process controls, GMP documentation, validation and any system which can potentially impact a manufactured product. Change controls are initiated by completing FORM-0003005, "Change Control Form," or by opening a MOC in the eQMS. The impacted department(s) and Quality Unit reviews and approves all changes. Lastly, the final review and close of change controls is performed by the Quality Unit. I assessed the following change controls from the list provided by the firm during the inspection: MOC-2022-1404, MOC-2022-2297, MOC-2022-1908, MOC-2022-1320, MOC-2022-0031. Some examples of the change controls evaluated are described below.

Closed: TBD
This change control was initiated to install a secondary filtration system precursory to the equipment air supply connection that is fed from the firm house air distribution pipe. The filter was added to reduce the workload of the filtration system downstream in the Vaporized Hydrogen Peroxide (VHP) unit, specifically # VHP2. No significant discrepancies were noted.

MOC-2022-1320
Open: 07/05/2022
Closed: 07/14/2022
This change control was initiated to update the MasterControl eQMS with the firm customer's (AstraZeneca) shipping instructions. No significant discrepancies were noted.

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 10 January 2022, the firm provided an overview of the following change control:
Change Control MOC-2022-0032: Initiated 6 January 2022, Closed: Moved to verification January 6, 2022 pending closure. The change control was for the installation of pre-filters, upstream of the VHP unit 2 for the compressed air. The rationale was black iron compressed air distribution piping from the compressors and the compressors not being oil free in design. Three filters were installed in series, with the filter changed on a routine basis, but not integrity tested. The filters are 1 micron, 0.01 micron, and 0.01 micron, followed by sample port, and copper piping to stainless steel, Pall filter at 0.02 micron see Exhibit 26. The pall filter is changed on an annual basis. VHP unit 1 has the same Pall filter, with the VHP 1 system supplied with oil free compressed air, distribution piping of appropriate design.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 2.

Complaints

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)
I requested a list of complaints from the firm and randomly selected the following for review. No deficiencies were noted with my review of these complaints.

PR 413500
PR 413501
PR 413948
PR 414374
PR 415202
PR 415241
PR 418746
PR 418838
PR 419927
PR 420120
PR 421514
PR 422606
PR 426396
PR 427277
PR 427297

Consumer Complaint 162058
I discussed with the firm a complaint received by the Agency on 04/30/2020 for Cortef Hydrocortisone, no lot number or expiration date given which is opened to document the complaint that was made regarding the effectiveness of the hydrocortisone. The complainant called to report that the hydrocortisone he had been prescribed was not working as it was supposed to. He said after taking it his cortisol was 1.5 repeatedly and the reference range was approximately 5-20. The complainant consulted his doctor who was also puzzled as to why the drug did not perform as intended. The complainant has Addison's disease and needs the medication. He stated he called the manufacturer and all they said was, "Thank you for the complaint." The firm receives complaints from their client Pfizer who is the recipient of the originating complaint and forwards them as applicable to their contract manufactures and packagers. The firm did not receive this complaint from Pfizer.

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)
On 11 January 2023, Ms. Tara Mayka, Quality Supervisor, Complaints and Matthew Rainka, Regeneron SME (Virtual) provided an overview of complaints according to SOP-01174, "Customer Complaint Procedure", Rev 27, Effective date 02 June 2022. We (WS and BD) reviewed the following complaints:

COMP-22-4113: Opened 01 December 2022, Closed 03 January 2023. 30 days is allowed to complete the complaint deviation investigation, Regeneron requirement. 5x different complaints COMP-2022-4112 (condensate in blister), COMP-2022-4113 (condensate in blister), COMP-2022-4056 (condensate in blister), COMP-2021-0058 (leak in blister), and COMP-2022-4111 (water) were for moisture in the blister pack Tyvek closure. PCI LLC indicated the root cause was external to PCI, with no failures or anomalies associated with the batch. Post VHP, residual VHP converts to water vapor and oxygen that dissipates. I (WS) questioned if there is any visual inspection post VHP sterilization of the syringe blister units in verification of load dryness, with the firm indicating no. The units were returned opened, impacting the ability to understand the moisture in the blister unit. I (WS) questioned Tara Mayka, Quality Supervisor, Complaints and Dennis Gerlach, Director of Validations if moisture in the syringe blister would be an objectionable condition, with the firm indicating yes. There is no inspection of the Eylea syringe blister packs post VHP for absence of moisture.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response Observation 1.b.

COMP-2022-2819: Opened 24 August 2022, Closed 22 September 2022. The scope of the complaint was a gray color for the DP, 3x syringe units. The root cause was explained as external to the PCI manufacturing process. Eylea is to be clear in appearance to pale yellow. The deviation investigation at PCI was a paperwork review. The batch in question was PCI Eylea batch 8231500222, Regeneron complaint 03249-22, with the syringes not evaluated for contamination. A study was conducted exposing syringes to an elevated temperature, with the same color or similar color change in the DP observed. I (WS) questioned why Regeneron did evaluate the syringes for contamination, where if there wasn't enough volume for test, perhaps the DP material could be plated in confirmation of absence of contamination. The concern is associated with Regeneron. Reserve samples were checked, acceptable.

Reference Discussion Item 2 in Section GENERAL DISCUSSION WITH MANAGEMENT.

Complaints for Damaged Syringes, see Exhibit 27. Approximately 76 complaints over the past two years for damaged syringes, with the root cause external to PCI LLC and associated with the DP manufacturing facility. Fractographic analysis was conducted identifying the defect as stainless steel contact with the glass syringe at the DP manufacturing facility. A CAPA was initiated in corrective action.

Six (6) complaints were received for debris in the carton, external to the blister pack. There was no impact to product quality.

Quality Agreements

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 11 January 2023, the firm provided the quality agreement under QA-AGMT-01628 2, "Regeneron PCI Quality Agreement May 2021: Regeneron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. 81 Columbia Turnpike, Rensselaer, NY 12144 and Packaging Coordinators, LLC, 3001 Red Lion Road, Philadelphia PA 19114". The quality agreement was extensive.

Batch Record Review and Release

(This section was written by Investigator LePage)

The procedure that governs the batch record review and release process for all packaging and labeling operations is SOP-00765, rev 45, "QA Batch Record Review and Product Release" (Exhibit 28). According to Mark Burke, Executive Director of Quality, batch record review, and release duties are managed by the Quality Operations segment of the PCI Quality Unit. The PCI Organizational Charts (Exhibit 04, page 5 & 9), indicate the Quality Operations management as, Thomas Cliggett, Director of Quality Operations, and Jennifer Carrion, Sr. Manager, Quality Operations, who reports directly to Mr. Cliggett.

Per SOP-00765, Section 2.6, (Exhibit 28, page 1), Quality Associate responsibilities include "review the Customer Samples (e.g., Lot number and Expiration date, and contents) ...for correctness before they are shipped as well as the PCI site samples before they are logged and stored. This is to be performed during the batch record review." I noted in my documentation review that QA reviewed and subsequently released numerous drug products that were labeled with incorrect lot numbers and/or expiration dates. All the mislabeled drug products were sent to the customer, who placed the order directly with PCI, and not further distributed. See OBSERVATION 3.a in the OBJECTIONABLE CONDITIONS AND MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSE for more details.

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 11 January 2023, the firm presented the batch record for VHP, "Manufacturing Packaging Instructions, Regeneron, MPI Title: PCR-WIP-VHP, Rev 70, Product 0023369, WO 1940331, FG Lot# 8231500281, Expiration 10/2023, Bulk Lot# 8231500281", 28 October 2022. Chemical indicators are positioned with the production load.

Annual Product Review

(This section was written by Investigator LePage)

The standard operating procedure for annual product reviews is detailed in SOP-01158, rev 07, "Annual Product Quality Review." According to the procedure, the Annual Product Quality Review requirements and review periods are determined by the customer, which are specified in their respective Quality Agreements. Elements of APQRs include, but are not limited to:

- Batches Packaged/Shipped
- Rejected/Aborted Batches
- Reworked Batches
- Change Controls
- Deviations
- Validation
- Equipment Qualification
- Complaints
- Returns
- Field Alerts/Recalls

Annual Product Quality Reports are assessed and approved by the Director of Quality. Environmental Monitoring and Control Program

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 09 January 2023, Mr. Dennis Gerlach, Director of Validation provided an overview of environmental monitoring. We (WS and BD) reviewed SOP-00791, "Environmental Monitoring for Hallway, Airlock, and Gowning Areas", Rev 1, 08 November 2021, see Exhibit 29. Total particle is conducted quarterly for trending purposes only. We reviewed SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, Effective date 29 September 2021, with environmental monitoring for E3, E2 and H1 quarterly that includes static and dynamic testing for total particle, viable air, and surface monitoring of walls and floors, see Exhibit 30. In E2, assembly and blistering, there is no environmental monitoring of the drug product, blistering indirect product contact work surfaces.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the EM results for 2021 - 2022 for E3, E2 and H1 for non-viable, viable air, and wall and floor monitoring. A contractor, AATL, supports EM monitoring with the firm audited, with training conducted for PCI LLC. EM sampling and reporting procedures. There is PCI oversight of AATL during sampling, with validation review of the test results.

We reviewed the Q3 2022 E2 average viable wall results, with some TYMC above alert, no trend. We reviewed the Q3 G03 average wall viable TYMC equal to the alert limit, no trend. No other rooms exceeded the alert limit.

On 11 January 2023, Mr. Dennis Gerlach, Director of Validation provided an overview of the risk assessment in determination of EM points. The non-viable EM monitoring is conducted by potable calibrated Bioluminometer and for E2, blistering, quarterly. EM testing includes viable air, bi-annual. Viable surface sampling is conducted quarterly. An environmental monitoring position paper, 28 August 2017 includes static and dynamic sampling, see Exhibit 31. Sampling is conducted at the location or process where microbial contamination is deemed likely to occur or where it has the potential to adversely impact product quality. Environmental sampling locations includes locations that are difficult to clean, locations where the product is exposed to the environment, and any area that has the potential to contribute to the spread of contamination.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.a.

Facilities & Equipment

Facility Maintenance, Cleaning, Disinfection and Sanitization

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 09 February, Mr. James Azhambault, Packer and Khareem Preston, Packer provided an overview of the facility cleaning procedure according to SOP-00849, "Potable Equipment Cleaning", Rev 5, Effective date 25 August 2021. The procedure describes the cleaning process, sanitization process from January to June with 70% IPA, and July to December with 6% Steri-Perox. We (WS and BD) reviewed SOP-00803, "Cleaning Procedure for Facility", Rev 22, Effective date 4 November 2021, with the procedure similar to the prior, a description of cleaning for rooms, gowning, airlock, etc. once per shift. We (WS and BD) reviewed SOP-00804, "Cleaning Procedure for Packaging Rooms", Rev 47, Effective date 5 January 2023. The frequency of cleaning is every lot change. The cleaning agents 70% IPA and 6% Steri-Perox are ready to use. Cleaning is conducted by PCI LLC no external contractor.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the cleaning efficacy, "Final report for the 6% Steri-Perox Disinfectants/Sanitizer Efficacy Study - 11/25/2015". The scope was efficacy of the disinfectants, sanitizers on product contact parts and primary packaging lines, 3x studies. The equipment contact parts were cleaned and swabbed after 5-days. The acceptance criteria was the swab 4in^2 must be NMT 20 CFU, with no Salmonella, Escherichia coli, or Staphylococcus aureus. Candida albicans and counts of mold are not to exceed 20% of total allowable counts or NMT 4 CFU mold. Positive and negative controls were prepared.

On 10 January 2023, Siju John, Validation Manager provided an overview of Steri-Perox and the 70% IPA, base cleaning process and sanitization protocol, change validation protocol for cleaning primary packaging lines CS14-068, product methotrexate, worst-case 20 May 2014. For the 70% IPA, 3x batches of Methotrexate were manufactured, followed by cleaning by procedure, with the 70% IPA suitable for microbiological and detergent residues. The acceptance criteria for bacteria and mold were NMT 20 CFU/4in^2, and no objectionable organisms that include P. aeruginosa, S. aureus, and Salmonella. The dirty and clean hold was validated at 30-days.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the Steri-Perox 6% R15-218 under "Final Report for the Steri-Perox Disinfectant/Sanitizer Efficacy Study", 23 November 2015. The same study design and acceptance criteria was applied as the 70 % IPA, acceptable. Testing included positive and negative controls, with contractor, test lab AATL performing testing.

Utilities

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 10 January 2023, the firm provided an overview of the oil free compressed air 2022, EM testing under VAL-00013807, "EM Testing Report," with testing 4x per year. We (WS and BD) reviewed the compressed air testing under VAL-0013807, only at the compressors and not at the points of use. Testing was for particles ≥ 0.5 micron < 100,000 PPCM, ≥ 5.0 micron ≤ 2,000 PPCM, bacterial ≤ 25 CFU/ft^3, mold ≤ 25 CFU/ft^3, oil at ≤ 1.0 mg/m^3, and dew point ≤ 4°F. The outside testing firm, AATL, conducts the EM testing. Routine testing at the points of use have not started, with the procedure updated and approved for point of use testing. A single test was conducted at the VHP system, ATLL sample under #22-016481/1 R1 03/09/22. Particle, bacterial, TYMC, hydrocarbon and dew point were to specification.

Risk Assessment

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 10 January 2022, the firm provided an overview of the risk assessment, FMEA SOP-211.22.d.2, "Risk Assessment # RA2021-011," 2021, see Exhibit 32. The scope is cross contamination mitigation and is not specific microbiological control for Eylea. The scope further includes facility design, labeling design, line clearance, cleaning and equipment, cleaning validation, material movement, gowning, and HVAC. In Eylea blistering operations, a lab coat, gloves, foot booties, and hairnet are required, with no face mask. The firm explained that the manufacturing process is bioburden control.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the Regeneron Risk Assessment RA-1331, Secondary Manufacturing of Eylea Pre-filled Syringes in Non-classified Space at PCI, Effective V1.0, 07 November 2022 see Exhibit 33. The scope was a risk-based impact assessment summary report. Risk of microbial contamination includes rooms for manufacture positive to the corridor. The facility SOP under 00793, Air Handling System Differential Pressure Check is Annual by testing, see Exhibit 34. There is no magnehelic or BMS system in support the differential pressure is to specification, during routine manufacture. The risk assessment is a description of the PCI LLC process for manufacture but fails to look at other sources of microbiological contamination.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.e.

Procedure SOP-00783, "Gowning Cleanliness and Sanitary Practice of Personnel", Rev 34, 29 September 2021 includes gowning materials, Exhibit 35. Another SOP explains gowning for blistering, a bioburden control process with masks not required. We (WS and BD) reviewed the product assessment, Eylea, Product/PPE/Room/Heath and Risk Assessment, see Exhibit 36. Safety performed the heath assessment, original assessment that may have not included the bioburden control strategy, blistering system with Eylea syringe sterilized. Standard gowning is applied in Eylea blistering with no mask required as described in the batch record, PCR-WIP-VHP, "Master Packaging Instruction: Regeneron".

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.d.

Equipment Qualification

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 09 January 2023, Mr. James Reingruber, Validation Specialist provided an overview of equipment qualification for labeling area E3 and blistering E2. E3 equipment qualified included a syringe de-nester, labeling system, plunger rod insertion and the option to install the finger flange (manufacturing process at a later date). The system for labeling and plunger rod insertion, was moved from area G4 to area E3 under change control. We (WS and BD) reviewed the IOQ for the specified equipment under Protocol VP19-097, "Installation and Operational Qualification Groninger Syringe De-Nesting and Assembly Machine", 08/2019. There were no deviations in execution of the IOQ.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the "IOQ Qualification Addendum - Groninger Syringe Labeler 1712 - VP21-177", January 2022. The IOQ was for a drive motor replaced, with no deviations.

VHP Unit PQ

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 09 January 2023, Mr. Alex Tenerelli, Process Engineer, provide an overview of the VHP PQ under "Final Summary Report Confirming Validation for Sterilization of Eylea Prefilled Syringe Blister Packs, Performance Requalification Product Sterilization Process, VP22-118, FR22-118", 19 December 2022, VHP-Sterilizer H3971 VHP(1). The maximum and minimum load was originally qualified, with only the maximum load based on worst case qualified in requalification. Each system, VHP unit 1 and 2 have a different sterilization recipe. The sterilization process includes leak test with a limit of 10 mbar over 10 minutes, air removal, temperature regulation at ≤ 28 ± 2°C between probes and 2°C from each probe, jacket ≤ 30°C, and exposure phase that includes 5x injection pulses with 35% VHP by hot plate. The amount of H2O2 dispensed is by calibrate scale at 626g total. Post exposure the VHP is dissipated with 0.2 µm filtered oil free compressed air. The oil free compressed air by central utility is copper to stainless steel for VHP 2, and black iron, copper to stainless for VHP 2, with EM monitoring including total particle count, viable air, and hydrocarbon.

In validation, 120 chemical and 120 biological indicators were positioned throughout the load, with Regeneron and Steris supporting the process and Eurofins supporting biological indicator testing. PCI has audited Eurofins for testing. In requalification, full load, 10,336 blister are sealed without syringes, with 45 Eylea blistered units for sterility test, with 120 BI and CI units distributed with blistered syringe units throughout the load. The requalification load does not represent the commercial load.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.f.

On 10 January 2023, Siju John, Validation Manager provided an overview of the vacuum conditions applied in the syringe, blister pack sterilization process that includes Leak Test at 500 mbar, Pre-condition Parameters at 500 mbar, Exposure at 500 mbar, Aeration 1 at 800 mbar and Aeration 2 at 500 mbar. The process is to replace ambient air with oil free compressed dry air.

On 10 January 2023, Mr. Dennis Gerlach, Director of Validations provided an overview of the VHP unit qualification under PQ-P17-233.01, "Performance Qualification Addendum for the Sterilizer Asset #3840", 05 April 2019, VHP1. I reviewed the "Final Report for PQ for VHP Sterilizer Asset #3840 R17-223-01", rev 0, VHP Sterilizer Asset #3840, Sterilizer Room. According to Section 7.3.1 Maximum Load - Full Load of Syringes, 3x maximum loads, 10,336 blister packed syringes included 120 BI and 120 CI units, (trays containing pre-filled syringes) see Exhibit 37. 3x minimum load studies were conducted for 5,472 blister packed syringes. The biological indicators were located completely inside the blister pack and sealed by tape for BI entry point. 4x VHP pulses were validated, with product applying 5 pulses. We (WS and BD) reviewed PCR-WIP VHP Rev 7.0, "Manufacturing Packaging Instructions Regeneron", with 5,472 and 10,336 syringes identified as the validated loads. The biological indicators were Geobacillus sterothermophilus, with Eurofins providing test results. We (WS and BD) reviewed VHP2, "Final Report for the PQ of the VHP Sterilizer Asset #3971, FR20-018, Rev 0, Regeneron, Steris, PQ, VP20-018 of the VHP Sterilizer, Asset #3971, 05/2020, VHP2". 3x maximum loads at 10,336 syringes and 3x minimum load at 5,472 syringes included 120 CI and 120 BI units. All testing was acceptable. We (WS and BD) reviewed the most recent requalification with testing for 40 sterility samples, 120 chemical indicators, 120 biological indicators and > 10K empty carton units, see Exhibit 38. Testing was acceptable.

A rented Tracksense datalogger supported temperature mapping for the annual distribution profile, with TCs pre and post calibrated. There is no minimum load study, with the maximum load study worst-case.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the most recent requalification for VHP 1 under "Final Summary Report Continuous Validation for Sterilization of Eylea Pre-filled Syringe Blister Pack, Performance Requalification, Product Sterilization Process - VP22-118 FR22-118, Eylea Pre-Filled Syringe Blister Pack VHP Sterilizer #3978 (VHP 1)". The maximum load was conducted 21 December 2022, empty chamber with 30 TCs geometrically placed ≤ 35°C, acceptable. We reviewed the maximum load with 120 CI and 120 BI units, acceptable.

We (WS and BD) reviewed the VHP-2, "Final Summary Report, Validation for Sterilization of Eylea Pre-filled Syringe Blister Packs, Performance Requalification Product Sterilization Process, Protocol VP22-119, Report # FR72-119, Regeneron, Eylea Pre-filled Syringe Blister Packs VHP Sterilizer #3971 (VHP2), Sterilizer Room, 22 December 2022". Testing was the same as prior, acceptable.

On 11 January 2023, Mr. Alex Weaver, Senior Director of Engineering provided follow up to the VHP units, with VHP2 just started commercial manufacturing in May 2022. I (WS) questioned if there was a plan to replace the non-oil free compressors and black iron distribution system with a system meeting current industry expectations, with Mr. Weaver indicating yes. The current system as designed supported by testing meets the established acceptance criteria.

On 11 January 2022, Mr. Andrew Cook, Regeneron SME (Virtual), Mr. Dustin Blodgett, Regeneron SME (Virtual), and Dwight Ricci, Regeneron SME (Virtual) provided follow up to the VHP2 unit, with the system released for commercial manufacture May 2022, with Eylea approved for manufacture 2019. In a t-con with Regeneron, it was discussed that 500 mbar for the sterilization cycle exceeds the vacuum level evaluated in the shipping study and that it was unclear how the additional vacuum applied during the VHP cycle could impact the plunger stopper movement and the sterile barrier. It was also discussed that the two aeration steps post VHP exposure were to reduce residual VHP and to dry the load, with loads not confirmed as dry post VHP (commercial manufacture). The blister packaging, Tyvek supports a microbial barrier, tortuous path, with the cutsheet for the Tyvek used in manufacture provided, see Exhibit 39. The Tyvek is designed for the intended application.

The VHP qualification was conducted in 2017, full load of syringes, with the elimination of the full load of syringes and replacement with empty blister in 2018. A memo addressed the load change based on risk, see Exhibit 40. The empty blister packs fail to represent the commercial maximum load. A dye leak test is conducted at Regeneron for the blister packs, beginning, middle and end of the run.

This resulted in a 483 Observation and is additionally discussed under Objectionable Conditions and Management Response 1.f.

Packaging and Labeling System

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

I reviewed the following batch records to determine the firm's packaging and labeling process.

- Miconazole 1200mg pouch, lot 4730498
- Miconazole 1200mg pouch, lot 5022198
- Miconazole 1200mg pouch, lot 4842883
- Vascepa1 G Capsules 120ct lot 2B09703
- Vascepa 1 G Capsules 120ct lot 1L09120

I also reviewed the following master packaging instructions:
Santyl Ointment 30g/90g
SURGIPHOR/SURGIRINSE
Tobramycin (TOBI) 300MG/5ML 56 AR

A majority of the firm's packaging process will have a visual camera system that verifies that printed lot and expiration dates are correct, and check weigher to determine that the container is within the designated weight specification for the product. Equipment challenges are performed during start up, in process and at the end of packaging activities depending on the product where in equipment such as the cap detection system, the induction liner system, and the bottle label vision system are challenged in various ways as identified in the batch record under a pass/fail qualification. In process checks are conducted following ANSI/AQL standards. Non Tolerable/Critical defects for In-Process Checks are: Incorrect/foreign product, dosage form or strength, or container not internally clean/free from harmful foreign material, incorrect lot# or expiration date, illegible or missing lot #, expiration date, serial number and/or variable data (as applicable) printed on primary labeling to identify a few.

I reviewed the firm's procedure, SOP-01100 Labeling Control, rev10 effective date 09/01/2021 which provides the requirements for the receipt, issuance, and accountability of labeling. The procedure states that the shipping and receiving department is responsible for identifying the labeling by product, code/specification

I reviewed the firm's procedure, SOP-00715 Packaging Line review and Quality Verification, rev02, effective 11/27/2022 which describes the usage, completion, and escalation methods of performing activities described on the Packaging Line Review Sheet. The Review Sheet establishes the minimum requirements required for a standard packaging run within operations. The Review Sheet ensures that activities performed within a packaging run conforms to written procedures, requirements and instructions established by the firm.

My review of these documents and records where unremarkable, however as discussed under the Deviations, and in Observation 3.a in the Objectionable Conditions and Management Response section of this report, the firm shows a history of failing to identify errors with the lot number and/or the exp date printed on the primary packaging of drug products and subsequently releasing them to their clients for distribution.

OBJECTIVE 2: CONFORMANCE TO APPLICATION

Application Conformance

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

The manufacturing process conformed to the application.

Data Omissions

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

There were no data omissions.

OBJECTIVE 3: DATA INTEGRITY AUDIT

Data Integrity

(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

On 12 January 2023, Ms. Cathy Cabrera, Director of Quality Systems provided an overview of data integrity, computer systems. I reviewed Doc # WI-00033 Rev 1 - 11 June 2021, "Completing System Regulatory Impact Determination (RID) Form". The scope is all computer systems for regulatory impact. I reviewed Doc Form-000319, v3, "Regulatory Impact Determination (RID)", VHP units. The VHP units are standalone systems with proprietary software that included an HMI. The prior form includes a questionnaire for user levels, PCI operator, PCI line leader, PCI supervisor, PCI engineer, and PCI administrator. The administrator for the VHP units is Engineering. The questionnaire further includes an assessment for audit trail, calibration and maintenance, safety, migration interface, and data integrity. Data integrity according to ALCOA includes user login, electronic signature, deletion of data not possible, alter date and time not possible, audit trail is always active, and can't overwrite. For each batch, the data is printed with manual electronic backup. We (WS and BD) reviewed the audit trail review according to procedure 211.56.b.6, "Steris VHP Sterilizer Unit Administration Responsibility, Password Management, Access, Backup, and Roles and Responsibilities", Rev 0, July 28, 2020. The scope is user and password management, audit trail management, batch report management and PLC/HMI backup and recovery.

In data integrity, run data is printed, but not the audit trail. The VHP cycle recipe is verified every quarter by Engineering. The audit trail is reviewed annually by Engineering and quality. The printing of the run data supports data integrity as there is evidence of the run number. Regarding Eylea manufacture, there is limited computer systems, with the VHP system run data supporting evidence of data integrity with system use access of appropriate design.

MANUFACTURING CODES

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

According to Mr. Cligget, the firm's lot numbering system for finished products has not changed since the previous inspection conducted 10/21/2022. Specifically, the firm receives unique and specific lot information for the labeling/packaging and the product; these are identified as the PACKET# and the BULK LOT#, respectively. This information is recorded in the batch record and is associated with a seven-digit Work Order number (WO#). This Work Order # is then used as the lot number on the final packaged product. The expiry date is specific to each product and the format is dictated by the customer

COMPLAINTS

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

Please see the Quality System Section of this report which contains a dedicated section of complaints that were covered during this in section. No observations were made of any documents that were reviewed.

RECALL PROCEDURES

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

According to Mr. Cliggett, the firm has not been involved in any recalls since the previous inspection. The firm recently completed its mock recall program in Nov 2022 which is performed on an annual basis

OBJECTIONABLE CONDITIONS AND MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSE

A close-out meeting was held on 01/12/2023 with Gill Valdez, SVP, Commercial Packaging Technology and Supply Chain, Catherine Cabrera, Director of Quality Systems, Mark J. Burke, Executive Director of Quality Jennifer Carrion, Sr. Quality Operations Manager, Tammi Leith, Regulatory Affairs Specialist and Thomas Cliggett, Director of Quality Operations at which time a Form FDA 483, Inspectional Observations, was issued.

OBSERVATION 1

Your firm failed to establish adequate written procedures for production and process controls designed to assure that the drug products have the identity, strength, purity, and quality that they are purported or represented to possess.

Specifically,

a. Your environmental monitoring plan as defined in SOP, SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, effective date 29 September 2021, is insufficient for aflibercept PFS assembly and blistering line E2 as no surface environmental monitoring is conducted for the product contact/indirect product contact surfaces such as the syringe assembly area and associated surfaces. According to SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, section 7.4.2.2 states that sample sites for surface (floor and walls) viable shall be based on the following: "Sites and/or processes where microbial contamination is deemed likely to have an adverse effect on product quality, sites that represent the most difficult areas to clean, and activities in the area that contribute to the spread of contamination."
b. Complaints received by your client included moisture observed in the syringe blister package. Post aflibercept (Eylea) PFS VHP, there is no procedural requirement in confirmation of load dryness and absence of moisture in the syringe blister packaging or any other defect that may pose a risk to product quality.
c. The sterilization of the aflibercept (Eylea) PFS within the blister pack is conducted by VHP that includes Chamber Leak Test at 500 mbar, Pre-condition Parameter at 500 mbar, Exposure Parameter at 500 mbar, Aeration Parameter 1 at 800 mbar and Aeration Parameter 2 at 500 mbar. The aflibercept shipping validation supports a pressure change at 572 mbar in support plunger stopper movement, assuring the sterile barrier is maintained. The worst-case pressure level applied at 500 mbar during the syringe VHP process has not been validated to assure the sterile barrier is maintained.
d. Document titled, Product Assessment - Eylea (aflibercept) - Product/PPE/Room/Health and Risk Assessment was performed by your internal PCI Safety, with standard gowning to be applied during manufacture that does not include a face mask. The assessment is deficient as it failed to account for the manufacturing bioburden control strategy, with the donning of a mask providing enhanced bioburden control.
e. Document RA-1331 (risk assessment), "Secondary Manufacturing of EYLEA Pre-Filled Syringe in Non-Classified Spaces at PCI" indicates that production rooms are positive pressure to the hallways per PCI SOP-00793; however, there is no calibrated magnehelic or BMS system to provide assurance of adequate continuous differential pressure control for the production rooms.
f. The requalification of the aflibercept (Eylea) VHP sterilization process includes 10,336 blister packs sealed and without pre-filled syringes, with 45 blister packs containing an aflibercept PFS spaced throughout the load for sterility testing and 240 blister packs total containing an aflibercept PFS for 120 (CI units) and 120 (BI units). The use of 10,336 empty blister packs is not representative of the commercial maximum load.

Supporting Evidence and Relevance:
(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

Observation 1A
SOP-00790, "Environmental Monitoring for Non-Sterile Packaging", Rev 18, Effective date 29 September 2021 identifies environmental monitoring for areas E3, E2 and H1 quarterly, static and dynamic testing for total particle, viable air, and surface monitoring of walls and floors, see Exhibit 30. An environmental monitoring position paper, 28 August 2017 includes static and dynamic sampling, see Exhibit 31. Sampling is conducted at the location or process where microbial contamination is deemed likely to occur or where it has the potential to adversely impact product quality. Environmental sampling locations includes locations that are difficult to clean, location where the product is exposed to the environment, and any area that has the potential to contribute to the spread of contamination.

In E2, assembly and blistering, there is no environmental monitoring of the drug product, blistering indirect/direct product contact work surfaces that may offer a better understanding of the biological flora on the drug product is exposed to and impact on product quality.

Observation 1B
Five different customer complaints for moisture were in the Eylea drug product blister packaging: COMP-2022-4112 (condensate in blister), COMP-2022-4113 (condensate in blister), COMP-2022-4056 (condensate in blister), COMP-2021-0058 (leak in blister), and COMP-2022-4111 (water). PCI LLC indicated the root cause was external to PCI, with no failures or anomalies associated with the batch. Post VHP, residual VHP converts to water vapor and oxygen that dissipates, with moisture in the VHP DP blister package an objectionable condition. There is no inspection of the Eylea syringe blister packs post VHP for absence of moisture or any other defects that would pose a product quality concern.

Observation 1C
In a t-con with Regeneron, it was discussed that 500 mbar for the VHP sterilization cycle exceeds the vacuum level evaluated in the shipping study and that it was unclear how the additional vacuum applied during the VHP cycle would have on the plunger stopper movement and maintaining the sterile barrier.

Observation 1D

Product assessment, Eylea, Product/PPE/Room/Heath and Risk Assessment, identifies the level of gowning in Eylea manufacture, see Exhibit 36. Safety performed the heath assessment, original assessment that may not have included the bioburden control strategy required for blistering of the Eylea syringe, followed by VHP sterilization. Standard gowning is applied in Eylea blistering with no mask required as described in the batch record, PCR-WIP-VHP, "Master Packaging Instruction: Regeneron" and as observed during the inspection tour of Eylea blistering operations.

Observation 1E

Regeneron Risk Assessment RA-1331, Secondary Manufacturing of Eylea Pre-filled Syringes in Non-classified Space at PCI, Effective V1.0, 07 November 2022 includes rooms for manufacture positive to the corridor, see Exhibit 33. The facility SOP under 00793, Air Handling System Differential Pressure Check is annual by testing, see Exhibit 34. There is no magnehelic or BMS system in support the differential pressure is to specification, during routine manufacture.

Observation 1F

VHP unit qualification was conducted under PQ-P17-233.01, "Performance Qualification Addendum for the Sterilizer Asset #3840", 05 April 2019, VHP1. The final report was included under "Final Report for PQ for VHP Sterilizer Asset #3840 R17-223-01", rev 0, VHP Sterilizer Asset #3840, Sterilizer Room. According to Section 7.3.1 Maximum Load - Full Load of Syringes, 3x maximum loads, 10,336 blister packed syringes included 120 BI and 120 CI units, (trays containing pre-filled syringes) see Exhibit 37.

VHP2, "Final Report for the PQ of the VHP Sterilizer Asset #3971, FR20-018, Rev 0, Regeneron, Steris, PQ, VP20-018 of the VHP Sterilizer, Asset #3971, 05/2020, 'VHP2" included 3x maximum loads at 10,336 syringes and 3 x minimum load at 5,472 syringes included 120 CI and 120 BI units.
The most recent requalification included testing for 40 sterility samples, 120 chemical indicators, 120 biological indicators and > 10K empty carton units, see Exhibit 38. The > 10K empty cartons does represent the commercial maximum load in manufacture.

Discussion with Management:

Observation 1A

On 12 January 2023, the firm questioned during the close meeting if environmental monitoring of the product indirect/product contact work surfaces was an expectation. I (WS) indicated the DP packaging conveyors is an example of a surface that may provide a better understanding of the bioburden load and impact on drug product quality. According to the position paper, environmental sampling locations should include locations that are difficult to clean, location where the product is exposed to the environment, and any area that has the potential to contribute to the spread of contamination, the product conveyors for example, product indirect/direct contact surfaces. The firm understood the objectionable condition.

Observation 1B
During the closeout meeting on 12 January 2022, the firm had no questions.

Observation 1C
The applicant Regeneron committed to performing a plunger stopper movement study to assess the vacuum applied during the VHP process, see Exhibit 41. During the close meeting on 12 January 2023, the firm had no questions.

Observation 1D
During the close meeting on 12 January 2023, the firm had no questions.

Observation 1E
The firm had no questions during closeout meeting on 12 January 2023.

Observation 1F
The VHP qualification was conducted in 2017, full load of syringes, with the elimination of the full load of syringes and replacement with empty blister packs in 2018. A memo addressed the load change based on risk, see Exhibit 40. The empty blister packs failed to represent the commercial maximum load. During the closeout meeting on 12 January 2023, the firm had no questions.

OBSERVATION 2
Equipment used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products is not of appropriate design to facilitate operations for its intended use.

Specifically, your Building 1 air compression system supporting aflibercept (Eylea) sterilization by VHP system (VHP 2) is not of oil free design, with the air distribution system to the VHP 2 sterilizer including black iron piping. Though the air compression system includes hydrocarbon removal and distribution system in-line point of use hydrocarbon and particulate filtration, the system design is inconsistent with current GMP expectations.

Reference: 21 CFR 211.63

Supporting Evidence and Relevance:
(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)
Plant 1 includes 2x air compressors used for VHP2, not oil free in design. Post air compression, filtration occurs followed by 3x driers to a receiving tank. Post receiving tank, the air is distributed by black iron piping (100s feet of piping), with copper to stainless at the VHP2 system point of use. Hydrocarbon filters are located within the compressor and at the newly installed filtration unit near the VHP 2 sterilizer. The compressors are supplied with food grade oil in air compression. The system was originally for instrument air and through filtration and testing, the system meets process air requirements in support of the VPR process. Although the filtration and testing of the air meets the intended air quality specification, the system doesn't meet current GMP design expectations.

Discussion with Management:
(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)
The firm commits to upgrading the Plant 1 air compression system and distribution piping to meet current industry expectations, see Exhibit 42.

OBSERVATION 3
The responsibilities and procedures applicable to the quality control unit are not fully followed.

Specifically, your firm failed to follow the following procedures:

a) According to your standard operational procedure entitled "QA Batch Record Review and Product Release," SOP-00765, rev 45, Section 2.5, the Quality Associate is responsible "to review, verify presence of all batch record pages, verify correct batch record pagination and accuracy, coordinate error corrections with the Quality Associate or designee, assure Deviation Reports are complete and closed, and approve the batch record for PCI release." The following are examples of drug products that were released by your Quality Unit for commercial distribution with inaccurate lot numbers and/or expiration dating.
   - DEV-2022-0244, Alkermes Vivitrol 380mg (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) Kit, lot# 190592C, expiration 04/30/2024 released with an incorrect expiry of 05/31/2024
   - DEV-2022-0244, Alkermes Vivitrol 380mg (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) Kit, lot# 190604C, expiration 04/30/2024 released with an incorrect expiry of 05/31/2024
   - Event-2022-5953, Flexion Therapeutics Zilretta 32mg (triamcinolone acetonide extended-release injectable suspension) Finished Kits, lot# 111003, expiration 11/2023 released with an incorrect lot number of 22-9006
   - Event-2022-6666, Amgen Repatha AMG 145) HMP, 120mg/mL, 3.5mL (evolocumab), lot# 1153429, expiration 12/31/2024 released with an incorrect expiry of 10/31/2024

b) Your procedure, SOP-00240 "Corrective Action and Preventative Action (CAPA)", revision 01, effective 11/05/2021, section 5.1.8 states that "effectiveness checks should be considered as part of the CAPA plan and the scope and method of confirmed effectiveness should be detailed as part of the plan." CAPA 433782 which was opened on 12/14/2021 to document the correction for installing the proposed changes indicator for setting the crimper clearance and pressure settings for E5 Doboy. This CAPA was closed on 05/20/2022. Your firm applied a new effectiveness check review board to address current and future CAPAs however did not address the CAPA(s) that were opened within the effective date of your procedure.

This is a repeat observation from the previous inspection conducted 10/17/2022 – 10/21/2022.

Reference: 21 CFR 211.22(d)

Supporting Evidence and Relevance:

Observation 3.a
(This section was written by Investigator LePage)
According to the standard operational procedure entitled "QA Batch Record Review and Product Release," SOP-00765, rev 45, Section 2.5 (see Exhibit 28), the Quality Associate is responsible "to review, verify presence of all batch record pages, verify correct batch record pagination and accuracy, coordinate error corrections with the Quality Associate or designee, assure Deviation Reports are complete and closed, and approve the batch record for PCI release." I noted in my documentation evaluation that QA reviewed and subsequently released numerous drug products that were labeled with incorrect lot numbers and/or expiration dates. All the mislabeled drug products were sent to the customer, who placed the order directly with PCI, and not further distributed. The following are examples of drug products that were released by your Quality Unit for commercial distribution with inaccurate lot numbers and/or expiration dating.

DEV-2022-0244 (Exhibit 19)
Vivitrol® (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #2022-3005T, expiration 04/30/2024 kits (see Exhibit 20) were assembled with some of the following components.

- Vivitrol® microspheres (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #0000110944, expiration 10/2024
- Administrative needle (1.5") lot# 190592C, expiration 04/30/2024
- Administrative needle (1.5") lot #190604C, expiration 05/31/2024
- WIP Diluent Vial, lot #00108206B, expiration 03/2025
- 5mL Luerlock Syringe, lot# 210112V, expiration 12/31/2025

The expiration date of the kit is based off the component that expires first, therefore the kits should have received an expiration date of 04/30/2024, which correlates to the administration needle (1.5") lot# 190592C. The kits were assigned the incorrect expiration date of 05/31/2024, which corresponds to the administration needle (1.5") lot #190604C. Vivitrol® (naltrexone for extended-release injectable suspension) 380mg/vial, lot #2022-3005T was released on 03/24/2022 by QA (see Exhibit 207). On 03/31/2022 PCI was notified by their customer that the drug product released to them was incorrectly labeled with the wrong expiration date. The 3600 affected kits were repackaged to reflect the correct expiry of 04/30/2024.

Event-2022-5953
Flexion Therapeutics Zilretta 32mg (triamcinolone acetonide extended-release injectable suspension) Finished Kits, lot# 111003, expiration 11/2023 released with an incorrect lot number of 22-9006. This event was listed in error on the FDA Form 483, as the discrepancy was caught during the batch record review process.

Event-2022-6666 (Exhibit 21)
On 12/19/2022, PCI was notified by their customer that they had received Repatha® Pushtronex® system (evolocumab) 420mg/3.5mL, lot# 1153429, expiration 12/31/2024 labeled with the incorrect expiration date of 10/31/2024. QA approved the batch record release on 12/19/2022 and released the shipment on 12/20/2022 (see Exhibit 22). The customer kept the product and distributed it, indicating that the product was not affected since the expiry was short dated by two months.

In addition to the aforementioned lots indicated on the FDA Form 483, I noted during my document review that several other drug products were released by QA with incorrect lot and/or expiration dates that were discovered and reported by the PCI customers. The following are the deviations and the associated released drug product lots.

PR-DN424609 (Exhibit 17)
The customer Eirgen contacted PCI on 11/20/2019 to inform them that they received an unreleased lot of the product Rayaldee 30mcg, 30ct, Lot #3868797. QA approved the batch record release on 10/25/2019 and released the shipment on 11/15/2019 (see Exhibit 18). The firm determined the root cause to be human error. The firm initiated CAPA 424768 and conducted "Awareness" training for the Quality Teams personnel associated with batch release. The customer kept the drug product lot sent in error and distributed it in lieu of the originally requested lot. Rayaldee 30mcg, 30ct, Lot #3868797 expired 12/2020.

PR-DN422935 (Exhibit 43)
On 07/31/2019 PCI was contacted by their customer, Pfizer, and notified that three lots of Cortef 10mg, 100ct, received at their distribution center were labeled with incorrect expiration dates. The three lots of Cortef packaged at PCI were CCFTK (see Exhibit 44), CCFTK1 (see Exhibit 45) and CCFTK2 (see Exhibit 46) with an expiration date of 02/2022 but were labeled the expiration date 02/2023. QA released the shipment on 07/10/2019. These Cortef 10mg, 100ct lots were manufactured in the US and packaged for distribution in Hungary.

Observation 3.b
(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

Exhibit 23 consists of SOP-00240, Corrective Action and Preventative Action which was in effect at the time of the creation of CAPA 433782. Section 5.1.8 states that "effectiveness checks should be considered as part of the CAPA plan and the scope and method of confirmed effectiveness should be detailed as part of the plan."

Exhibit 24 consists of the firm's CAPA, CAPA-2022-0659 which was opened to document the corrections for the observation made during the previous inspection. Review of this document shows that the firm did not address the effectiveness checks for the identified CAPAs. However, it was noted that only CAPA 433782 was initiated after SOP-00240 was in effect.

Exhibit 25 consists of CAPA 433782 which was opened on 12/14/2021 to document the correction for installing the proposed changes indicator for setting the crimper clearance and pressure settings for E5 Doboy.

As part of its corrections to the observations that were made during the previous inspection ending 10/21/2022, the firm did not address the CAPAs mentioned in the observation. Nor did the firm provide any kind of statement stating if an effectiveness check was or wasn't needed and its justification

Mr. Burke and Mr. Cliggett stated that at the time the CAPAs were created the firm was still using the TrackWise system and that SOP 211.100.b.14 CAPA Effectiveness, rev2.0, effective 11/24/2020 would have been in effect as this CAPA was documented in the TrackWise system and not in MasterControl. Mr. Burke created a timeline for my review which I took a picture of (Exhibit 52).

At the time of the previous inspection, the firm had just implemented the migration of data into MasterControl and was using MasterControl to document new CAPAs. CAPA 433782 was opened on 12/14/2021. SOP-00240, Corrective Action and Preventative Action was in effect (effective date 11/5/2021) at the time of the creation of CAPA 433782.

Discussion with Management:

Observation 3.a

(This section was written by Investigator LePage)

During my document review I discussed with Thomas Cliggett, Director of Quality Operations, the numerous instances where the firm QA released batches to their customers without properly verifying batch information as indicated in their procedure. I emphasized that situations such as these may lead to product recalls and are concerning. I reiterated this during the closing meeting. The firm management indicated that they understood and would respond to the Form 483 in writing, within 15 business days.

Observation 3.b
(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)
Management stated that they understood and promised to respond in writing within 15 business days.

OBSERVATION 4
Buildings used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products are not maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

Specifically.

a. Deteriorated insulation and a deteriorated gasket was observed at a finger flange assembly system for syringe labeling and plunger rod insertion System 1712, Area E3. Excess grease was observed on the plunger rod shafts.
b. The air compression system located in Building #1 and used for oil free compressed air to the VHP 2 sterilizer was observed in an upkept state, including debris observed at an air compressor intake.
c. Walk-in 2 - 8°C refrigerator 150845 as observed in with waste material such as dirt and debris on the floor and behind and between pallets. Refrigerator 150845 is used to store finished drug products such as aflibercept PFS and materials needing temperature control.
d. Automated doors leading to E2, syringe blistering, and syringe VHP were observed not functioning correctly.

Supporting Evidence and Relevance:
(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

Observation 4A
Within are E3 a Groninger syringe tub conveying system was observed, unit 5349, followed by labeling and plunger rod insertion system, asset 1712. A finger flange unit was observed with deteriorated insulation and gasket, see Exhibit 10. The plunger rod shafts were observed with excess grease, see Exhibit 11.

Observation 4B
The air compressors in Plant 1 (Building 1) and the system in general that includes the work area was observed in an unclean state, see Exhibit 14.

Observation 4C

The 2 - 8°C walk-in unit 9 (150845) was observed in an unclean state, see Exhibit 06

Observation 4D
The Eylea finger flange assembly and blistering area assess door was observed non-functional, see Exhibit 12.

Discussion with Management:
(This section was written by Investigator Seifert)

Observation 4A
The firm provided corrective action by order confirmation of materials, McMaster-Carr for insulation and Vinyl foam to replace the deteriorated insulation and gasket, see Exhibit 47. Furthermore, the firm provided corrective action by workorder MNT-02996-2023 for removal of excess grease from the plunger rod shafts, see Exhibit 48. During the closeout meeting on 12 January 2023, the firm had no questions.

Observation 4B
The firm provided corrective action that included cleaning of the compressors, dryers and general work area, see Exhibit 49.

Observation 4C
The firm provided evidence of corrective action by providing pictures of the walk-in unit cleaned and in good state of cleanliness, see Exhibit 50. During the closeout meeting, the firm had no questions.

Observation 4D
The firm provided corrective action by workorder MNT-02993-2023, Room E2 Reset Automatic Door Controller, see Exhibit 51. During the closeout meeting, the firm had no questions for the objectionable condition.

GENERAL DISCUSSION WITH MANAGEMENT

At the close-out meeting, the following items not included on the Form FDA 483 were discussed with firm management. Mr. Valdez indicated that he understood and promised corrections.

1. The H1 cartoning line was inspected during a manufacturing break, with three Eylea cartons containing product observed on the active conveying track, see Exhibit 13. It was questioned why the units were not positioned into an overpack prior to the break, with the firm rejecting, discarding the units. Leaving the units on the conveying track may cause degregation of the carton.

2. A field complaint was received for the Eylea DP, gray color for the DP, 3x syringe units. The root cause was explained as external to the PCI manufacturing process, with Eylea to be clear in appearance to pale yellow. The deviation investigation at PCI was a paperwork review. Regeneron conducted an elevated temperature study for Eylea, with the same color or similar color change in the DP observed. In discussion with the firm, it was questioned why Regeneron did not evaluate the syringes for contamination, where if there wasn't enough volume for test, perhaps the DP material could be plated in confirmation of absence of contamination. Although PCI is a CMO, assuring the absence of microbial contamination is also critical to PCI. In discussion with PCI, PCI should also work collaboratively with Regeneron to have a clear and complete understanding for absence of microbial contamination.

VOLUNTARY CORRECTIONS

(This section was written by Investigator Theodorou)

During the current inspection, I verified corrections to the following deficiencies from the previous inspection conducted 10/21/2022:

Observation 1

Buildings used in the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of drug products are not maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

CAPA-2022-0658

- PCI opened a Work Order to repaint and caulk the baseboard lining in the rear wall along the seam of the wall.
- The water-stained ceiling tile was replaced.
- The roof was inspected by a licensed contractor and no roof leaks were identified.
- A contracted service will be resurfacing and resealing the exterior wall of that side of the building to prevent any potential leaks from extreme weather.
- The back wall of H3 and adjoining packaging rooms will be re-surfaced for ease of cleaning. The back wall will be flat and run straight across the room.

All above mentioned repairs to the interior and exterior of the building were completed by 12/2023.

In addition, the firm updated the cleaning logbooks to include more specific information around the cleaning of the packaging rooms. The new format will require specific entries around the cleaning of the walls, floors, and equipment as opposed to a single entry for both the individual performing the function and for Quality Assurance verification.

Observation 2

This was partially addressed by the firm but resulted in a repeat observation during this inspection.

Provide explanation below:

On January 22, 2024, Patterson Logistics Services, Inc. ("PLSI") entered into a Settlement Agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina ("DOJ"), acting on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), in which PLSI agreed to pay a fine of $45,500 with no associated admission of liability or guilt by PLSI. The allegations of the DEA are related primarily to certain record-keeping and reporting violations of the Controlled Substance Act. The DOJ and the DEA were satisfied with Patterson's corrective action measures, such that the matter was settled with no associated Memorandum of Understanding or ongoing reporting requirement for PLSI.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively, the "United States"), and Patterson Logistic Services Inc. ("Patterson") (together, "the Parties").

RECITALS

Patterson is currently registered with DEA Certificate of Registration #RP0349224 as a distributor authorized to handle controlled substances on Schedules II-V at its registered location, 925 Carolina Pines Boulevard, Suite B, Blythewood, South Carolina 29016 (the "Blythewood FC").

At all times relevant to this Agreement, Patterson was required to operate in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 21 C.F.R. Part 1300, et seq. (collectively "the CSA.")

Between January 31, 2023, and February 2, 2023, the DEA conducted an inspection at Blythewood FC. As a result of the inspection, the United States contends Patterson violated civil provisions of the CSA. Specifically, the United States contends that from January 31, 2021 through February 2, 2023, in regard to operations at Blythewood FC, Patterson violated certain suspicious order requirements, reporting requirements to ARCOS and order form and recordkeeping requirements pursuant to the CSA, specifically Title 21 Parts 1301, 1304, and 1305 of the CFR.

The conduct identified above at the Blythewood FC shall hereinafter be referred to as "Covered Conduct" and the identified time frame shall be referred to as "Covered Time Period."

The parties agree that this Agreement is not an admission of liability by Patterson, its employees, or its agents for the Covered Conduct under the CSA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded.

To avoid the uncertainty and expense of the adjudication of each claim, and of exhausting all administrative and legal remedies, the Parties desire to reach a mutual agreement that settles the above-referenced allegations without the United States filing a civil suit.

STIPULATIONS

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

1. Patterson shall pay $45,500 (the "Settlement Amount") to the United States no later than 10 business days after counsel for Patterson receives the written electronic funds transfer instructions by the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina.

2. By signing this Settlement Agreement, Patterson agrees to waive all rights to seek judicial review or to challenge or contest the validity of any terms or conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims) below, and conditioned upon Patterson's full payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, the United States agrees to refrain from filing against Patterson any action for civil penalty claims under the CSA that is based on the Covered Conduct. In further consideration of Patterson's fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, expressly conditioned upon Patterson's timely paying the Settlement Amount and subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims), below, the United States fully and finally releases Patterson and its parent, affiliates, insurers, agents, assigns, successors, predecessors, shareholders, principals, current and former employees, management, officers, and directors from any civil or administrative claims the United States has, could have, or may assert in the future related to the Covered Conduct during the Covered Time Period.

4. Patterson fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, servants, and agents from any claims (including without limitation attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Patterson has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, and servants, and agents related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

5. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Settlement Agreement, or any other terms of this Agreement, the following claims of the United States are specifically reserved and not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26 of the United States Code;

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Any liability under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, or the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

f. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

g. Any liability of individuals except as expressly stated in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent, preclude, limit, or prejudice the right of the United States to enforce the CSA by commencing a civil or administrative action against Patterson for violations of the CSA unrelated to the violations identified in the audit conducted between January 31, 2023 and February 2, 2023. Nothing in this Agreement, however, waives or limits Patterson's right or ability to raise any defenses to such an action.

7. The obligations imposed upon the United States and Patterson pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon each party pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including, but not limited to the requirements in the CSA and its implementing regulations.

8. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the Settlement Amount for purposes of the Internal Revenue Laws, Title 26 of the United States Code.

9. The Parties agree that any and all costs they have, will, or may incur, in connection with this matter—including payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, negotiation, past and future compliance efforts, and remedial action—shall be unallowable costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47; and in Titles XVII and IXI of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395-1395lll and 1396-1396w-5; and the regulations and official program directives promulgated thereunder) for government contracting accounting and for purposes of any government reimbursement program.

10. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. It does not provide any rights or benefits to third parties. The Parties do not release any claims against any other person or entity except as provided in Paragraph 15.

11. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

12. The Parties agree to bear their own respective costs and fees (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with this matter, including those incurred in the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

13. The Parties acknowledge their promises in this Agreement are provided in exchange or valuable consideration provided by and through this Agreement.

14. The Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to the public.

15. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the assigns, successors-in-interest, or transferees of the Parties.

16. Each of the signatories to this Settlement Agreement represents and warrants that it/he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the person and entities indicated below, and further represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. Facsimiles of signatures and electronic transmissions of signatures (including transmittal and receipt of PDF versions of signatures) shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

17. The Settlement Agreement shall be final once signed by all parties below and shall be effective on the date the last signature is obtained. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

18. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties with respect to the settlement of the United States' civil and administrative CSA claims against Patterson on the Covered Conduct from the Covered Time.

19. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to the Agreement is the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.

20. For purposes of construing this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and shall not, therefore, be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

Provide explanation below:

On January 22, 2024, Patterson Logistics Services, Inc. ("PLSI") entered into a Settlement Agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina ("DOJ"), acting on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), in which PLSI agreed to pay a fine of $45,500 with no associated admission of liability or guilt by PLSI. The allegations of the DEA are related primarily to certain record-keeping and reporting violations of the Controlled Substance Act. The DOJ and the DEA were satisfied with Patterson's corrective action measures, such that the matter was settled with no associated Memorandum of Understanding or ongoing reporting requirement for PLSI.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively, the "United States"), and Patterson Logistic Services Inc. ("Patterson") (together, "the Parties").

RECITALS

Patterson is currently registered with DEA Certificate of Registration #RP0349224 as a distributor authorized to handle controlled substances on Schedules II-V at its registered location, 925 Carolina Pines Boulevard, Suite B, Blythewood, South Carolina 29016 (the "Blythewood FC").

At all times relevant to this Agreement, Patterson was required to operate in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 21 C.F.R. Part 1300, et seq. (collectively "the CSA.")

Between January 31, 2023, and February 2, 2023, the DEA conducted an inspection at Blythewood FC. As a result of the inspection, the United States contends Patterson violated civil provisions of the CSA. Specifically, the United States contends that from January 31, 2021 through February 2, 2023, in regard to operations at Blythewood FC, Patterson violated certain suspicious order requirements, reporting requirements to ARCOS and order form and recordkeeping requirements pursuant to the CSA, specifically Title 21 Parts 1301, 1304, and 1305 of the CFR.

The conduct identified above at the Blythewood FC shall hereinafter be referred to as "Covered Conduct" and the identified time frame shall be referred to as "Covered Time Period."

The parties agree that this Agreement is not an admission of liability by Patterson, its employees, or its agents for the Covered Conduct under the CSA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded.

To avoid the uncertainty and expense of the adjudication of each claim, and of exhausting all administrative and legal remedies, the Parties desire to reach a mutual agreement that settles the above-referenced allegations without the United States filing a civil suit.

STIPULATIONS

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

1. Patterson shall pay $45,500 (the "Settlement Amount") to the United States no later than 10 business days after counsel for Patterson receives the written electronic funds transfer instructions by the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina.

2. By signing this Settlement Agreement, Patterson agrees to waive all rights to seek judicial review or to challenge or contest the validity of any terms or conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims) below, and conditioned upon Patterson's full payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, the United States agrees to refrain from filing against Patterson any action for civil penalty claims under the CSA that is based on the Covered Conduct. In further consideration of Patterson's fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, expressly conditioned upon Patterson's timely paying the Settlement Amount and subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims), below, the United States fully and finally releases Patterson and its parent, affiliates, insurers, agents, assigns, successors, predecessors, shareholders, principals, current and former employees, management, officers, and directors from any civil or administrative claims the United States has, could have, or may assert in the future related to the Covered Conduct during the Covered Time Period.

4. Patterson fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, servants, and agents from any claims (including without limitation attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Patterson has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, and servants, and agents related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

5. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Settlement Agreement, or any other terms of this Agreement, the following claims of the United States are specifically reserved and not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26 of the United States Code;

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Any liability under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, or the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

f. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

g. Any liability of individuals except as expressly stated in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent, preclude, limit, or prejudice the right of the United States to enforce the CSA by commencing a civil or administrative action against Patterson for violations of the CSA unrelated to the violations identified in the audit conducted between January 31, 2023 and February 2, 2023. Nothing in this Agreement, however, waives or limits Patterson's right or ability to raise any defenses to such an action.

7. The obligations imposed upon the United States and Patterson pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon each party pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including, but not limited to the requirements in the CSA and its implementing regulations.

8. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the Settlement Amount for purposes of the Internal Revenue Laws, Title 26 of the United States Code.

9. The Parties agree that any and all costs they have, will, or may incur, in connection with this matter—including payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, negotiation, past and future compliance efforts, and remedial action—shall be unallowable costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47; and in Titles XVII and IX1 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395-1395lll and 1396-1396w-5; and the regulations and official program directives promulgated thereunder) for government contracting accounting and for purposes of any government reimbursement program.

10. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. It does not provide any rights or benefits to third parties. The Parties do not release any claims against any other person or entity except as provided in Paragraph 15.

11. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

12. The Parties agree to bear their own respective costs and fees (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with this matter, including those incurred in the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

13. The Parties acknowledge their promises in this Agreement are provided in exchange or valuable consideration provided by and through this Agreement.

14. The Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to the public.

15. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the assigns, successors-in-interest, or transferees of the Parties.

16. Each of the signatories to this Settlement Agreement represents and warrants that it/he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the person and entities indicated below, and further represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. Facsimiles of signatures and electronic transmissions of signatures (including transmittal and receipt of PDF versions of signatures) shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

17. The Settlement Agreement shall be final once signed by all parties below and shall be effective on the date the last signature is obtained. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

18. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties with respect to the settlement of the United States' civil and administrative CSA claims against Patterson on the Covered Conduct from the Covered Time.

19. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to the Agreement is the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.

20. For purposes of construing this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and shall not, therefore, be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

Provide explanation below:

On January 22, 2024, Patterson Logistics Services, Inc. ("PLSI") entered into a Settlement Agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina ("DOJ"), acting on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), in which PLSI agreed to pay a fine of $45,500 with no associated admission of liability or guilt by PLSI. The allegations of the DEA are related primarily to certain record-keeping and reporting violations of the Controlled Substance Act. The DOJ and the DEA were satisfied with Patterson's corrective action measures, such that the matter was settled with no associated Memorandum of Understanding or ongoing reporting requirement for PLSI.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively, the "United States"), and Patterson Logistic Services Inc. ("Patterson") (together, "the Parties").

RECITALS

Patterson is currently registered with DEA Certificate of Registration #RP0349224 as a distributor authorized to handle controlled substances on Schedules II-V at its registered location, 925 Carolina Pines Boulevard, Suite B, Blythewood, South Carolina 29016 (the "Blythewood FC").

At all times relevant to this Agreement, Patterson was required to operate in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 21 C.F.R. Part 1300, et seq. (collectively "the CSA.")

Between January 31, 2023, and February 2, 2023, the DEA conducted an inspection at Blythewood FC. As a result of the inspection, the United States contends Patterson violated civil provisions of the CSA. Specifically, the United States contends that from January 31, 2021 through February 2, 2023, in regard to operations at Blythewood FC, Patterson violated certain suspicious order requirements, reporting requirements to ARCOS and order form and recordkeeping requirements pursuant to the CSA, specifically Title 21 Parts 1301, 1304, and 1305 of the CFR.

The conduct identified above at the Blythewood FC shall hereinafter be referred to as "Covered Conduct" and the identified time frame shall be referred to as "Covered Time Period."

The parties agree that this Agreement is not an admission of liability by Patterson, its employees, or its agents for the Covered Conduct under the CSA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded.

To avoid the uncertainty and expense of the adjudication of each claim, and of exhausting all administrative and legal remedies, the Parties desire to reach a mutual agreement that settles the above-referenced allegations without the United States filing a civil suit.

STIPULATIONS

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

1. Patterson shall pay $45,500 (the "Settlement Amount") to the United States no later than 10 business days after counsel for Patterson receives the written electronic funds transfer instructions by the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina.

2. By signing this Settlement Agreement, Patterson agrees to waive all rights to seek judicial review or to challenge or contest the validity of any terms or conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims) below, and conditioned upon Patterson's full payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, the United States agrees to refrain from filing against Patterson any action for civil penalty claims under the CSA that is based on the Covered Conduct. In further consideration of Patterson's fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, expressly conditioned upon Patterson's timely paying the Settlement Amount and subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims), below, the United States fully and finally releases Patterson and its parent, affiliates, insurers, agents, assigns, successors, predecessors, shareholders, principals, current and former employees, management, officers, and directors from any civil or administrative claims the United States has, could have, or may assert in the future related to the Covered Conduct during the Covered Time Period.

4. Patterson fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, servants, and agents from any claims (including without limitation attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Patterson has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, and servants, and agents related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

5. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Settlement Agreement, or any other terms of this Agreement, the following claims of the United States are specifically reserved and not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26 of the United States Code;

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Any liability under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, or the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

f. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

g. Any liability of individuals except as expressly stated in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent, preclude, limit, or prejudice the right of the United States to enforce the CSA by commencing a civil or administrative action against Patterson for violations of the CSA unrelated to the violations identified in the audit conducted between January 31, 2023 and February 2, 2023. Nothing in this Agreement, however, waives or limits Patterson's right or ability to raise any defenses to such an action.

7. The obligations imposed upon the United States and Patterson pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon each party pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including, but not limited to the requirements in the CSA and its implementing regulations.

8. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the Settlement Amount for purposes of the Internal Revenue Laws, Title 26 of the United States Code.

9. The Parties agree that any and all costs they have, will, or may incur, in connection with this matter—including payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, negotiation, past and future compliance efforts, and remedial action—shall be unallowable costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47; and in Titles XVII and IXI of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395-1395lll and 1396-1396w-5; and the regulations and official program directives promulgated thereunder) for government contracting accounting and for purposes of any government reimbursement program.

10. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. It does not provide any rights or benefits to third parties. The Parties do not release any claims against any other person or entity except as provided in Paragraph 15.

11. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

12. The Parties agree to bear their own respective costs and fees (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with this matter, including those incurred in the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

13. The Parties acknowledge their promises in this Agreement are provided in exchange or valuable consideration provided by and through this Agreement.

14. The Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to the public.

15. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the assigns, successors-in-interest, or transferees of the Parties.

16. Each of the signatories to this Settlement Agreement represents and warrants that it/he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the person and entities indicated below, and further represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. Facsimiles of signatures and electronic transmissions of signatures (including transmittal and receipt of PDF versions of signatures) shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

17. The Settlement Agreement shall be final once signed by all parties below and shall be effective on the date the last signature is obtained. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

18. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties with respect to the settlement of the United States' civil and administrative CSA claims against Patterson on the Covered Conduct from the Covered Time.

19. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to the Agreement is the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.

20. For purposes of construing this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and shall not, therefore, be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

Provide explanation below:

On January 22, 2024, Patterson Logistics Services, Inc. ("PLSI") entered into a Settlement Agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina ("DOJ"), acting on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), in which PLSI agreed to pay a fine of $45,500 with no associated admission of liability or guilt by PLSI. The allegations of the DEA are related primarily to certain record-keeping and reporting violations of the Controlled Substance Act. The DOJ and the DEA were satisfied with Patterson's corrective action measures, such that the matter was settled with no associated Memorandum of Understanding or ongoing reporting requirement for PLSI.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively, the "United States"), and Patterson Logistic Services Inc. ("Patterson") (together, "the Parties").

RECITALS

Patterson is currently registered with DEA Certificate of Registration #RP0349224 as a distributor authorized to handle controlled substances on Schedules II-V at its registered location, 925 Carolina Pines Boulevard, Suite B, Blythewood, South Carolina 29016 (the "Blythewood FC").

At all times relevant to this Agreement, Patterson was required to operate in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 21 C.F.R. Part 1300, et seq. (collectively "the CSA.")

Between January 31, 2023, and February 2, 2023, the DEA conducted an inspection at Blythewood FC. As a result of the inspection, the United States contends Patterson violated civil provisions of the CSA. Specifically, the United States contends that from January 31, 2021 through February 2, 2023, in regard to operations at Blythewood FC, Patterson violated certain suspicious order requirements, reporting requirements to ARCOS and order form and recordkeeping requirements pursuant to the CSA, specifically Title 21 Parts 1301, 1304, and 1305 of the CFR.

The conduct identified above at the Blythewood FC shall hereinafter be referred to as "Covered Conduct" and the identified time frame shall be referred to as "Covered Time Period."

The parties agree that this Agreement is not an admission of liability by Patterson, its employees, or its agents for the Covered Conduct under the CSA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded.

To avoid the uncertainty and expense of the adjudication of each claim, and of exhausting all administrative and legal remedies, the Parties desire to reach a mutual agreement that settles the above-referenced allegations without the United States filing a civil suit.

STIPULATIONS

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

1. Patterson shall pay $45,500 (the "Settlement Amount") to the United States no later than 10 business days after counsel for Patterson receives the written electronic funds transfer instructions by the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina.

2. By signing this Settlement Agreement, Patterson agrees to waive all rights to seek judicial review or to challenge or contest the validity of any terms or conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims) below, and conditioned upon Patterson's full payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, the United States agrees to refrain from filing against Patterson any action for civil penalty claims under the CSA that is based on the Covered Conduct. In further consideration of Patterson's fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, expressly conditioned upon Patterson's timely paying the Settlement Amount and subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims), below, the United States fully and finally releases Patterson and its parent, affiliates, insurers, agents, assigns, successors, predecessors, shareholders, principals, current and former employees, management, officers, and directors from any civil or administrative claims the United States has, could have, or may assert in the future related to the Covered Conduct during the Covered Time Period.

4. Patterson fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, servants, and agents from any claims (including without limitation attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Patterson has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, and servants, and agents related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

5. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Settlement Agreement, or any other terms of this Agreement, the following claims of the United States are specifically reserved and not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26 of the United States Code;

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Any liability under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, or the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

f. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

g. Any liability of individuals except as expressly stated in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent, preclude, limit, or prejudice the right of the United States to enforce the CSA by commencing a civil or administrative action against Patterson for violations of the CSA unrelated to the violations identified in the audit conducted between January 31, 2023 and February 2, 2023. Nothing in this Agreement, however, waives or limits Patterson's right or ability to raise any defenses to such an action.

7. The obligations imposed upon the United States and Patterson pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon each party pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including, but not limited to the requirements in the CSA and its implementing regulations.

8. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the Settlement Amount for purposes of the Internal Revenue Laws, Title 26 of the United States Code.

9. The Parties agree that any and all costs they have, will, or may incur, in connection with this matter—including payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, negotiation, past and future compliance efforts, and remedial action—shall be unallowable costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47; and in Titles XVII and IXI of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395-1395lll and 1396-1396w-5; and the regulations and official program directives promulgated thereunder) for government contracting accounting and for purposes of any government reimbursement program.

10. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. It does not provide any rights or benefits to third parties. The Parties do not release any claims against any other person or entity except as provided in Paragraph 15.

11. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

12. The Parties agree to bear their own respective costs and fees (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with this matter, including those incurred in the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

13. The Parties acknowledge their promises in this Agreement are provided in exchange or valuable consideration provided by and through this Agreement.

14. The Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to the public.

15. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the assigns, successors-in-interest, or transferees of the Parties.

16. Each of the signatories to this Settlement Agreement represents and warrants that it/he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the person and entities indicated below, and further represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. Facsimiles of signatures and electronic transmissions of signatures (including transmittal and receipt of PDF versions of signatures) shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

17. The Settlement Agreement shall be final once signed by all parties below and shall be effective on the date the last signature is obtained. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

18. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties with respect to the settlement of the United States' civil and administrative CSA claims against Patterson on the Covered Conduct from the Covered Time.

Patterson Logistics Services, Inc.

Provide explanation below:

On January 22, 2024, Patterson Logistics Services, Inc. ("PLSI") entered into a Settlement Agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina ("DOJ"), acting on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA"), in which PLSI agreed to pay a fine of $45,500 with no associated admission of liability or guilt by PLSI. The allegations of the DEA are related primarily to certain record-keeping and reporting violations of the Controlled Substance Act. The DOJ and the DEA were satisfied with Patterson's corrective action measures, such that the matter was settled with no associated Memorandum of Understanding or ongoing reporting requirement for PLSI.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between the United States of America, acting through the United States Attorney's Office for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") (collectively, the "United States"), and Patterson Logistic Services Inc. ("Patterson") (together, "the Parties").

RECITALS

Patterson is currently registered with DEA Certificate of Registration #RP0349224 as a distributor authorized to handle controlled substances on Schedules II-V at its registered location, 925 Carolina Pines Boulevard, Suite B, Blythewood, South Carolina 29016 (the "Blythewood FC").

At all times relevant to this Agreement, Patterson was required to operate in accordance with the statutory provisions of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, 21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 21 C.F.R. Part 1300, et seq. (collectively "the CSA.")

Between January 31, 2023, and February 2, 2023, the DEA conducted an inspection at Blythewood FC. As a result of the inspection, the United States contends Patterson violated civil provisions of the CSA. Specifically, the United States contends that from January 31, 2021 through February 2, 2023, in regard to operations at Blythewood FC, Patterson violated certain suspicious order requirements, reporting requirements to ARCOS and order form and recordkeeping requirements pursuant to the CSA, specifically Title 21 Parts 1301, 1304, and 1305 of the CFR.

The conduct identified above at the Blythewood FC shall hereinafter be referred to as "Covered Conduct" and the identified time frame shall be referred to as "Covered Time Period."

The parties agree that this Agreement is not an admission of liability by Patterson, its employees, or its agents for the Covered Conduct under the CSA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well-founded.

To avoid the uncertainty and expense of the adjudication of each claim, and of exhausting all administrative and legal remedies, the Parties desire to reach a mutual agreement that settles the above-referenced allegations without the United States filing a civil suit.

STIPULATIONS

In consideration of the foregoing and the mutual promises and obligations contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

1. Patterson shall pay $45,500 (the "Settlement Amount") to the United States no later than 10 business days after counsel for Patterson receives the written electronic funds transfer instructions by the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina.

2. By signing this Settlement Agreement, Patterson agrees to waive all rights to seek judicial review or to challenge or contest the validity of any terms or conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

3. Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims) below, and conditioned upon Patterson's full payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, the United States agrees to refrain from filing against Patterson any action for civil penalty claims under the CSA that is based on the Covered Conduct. In further consideration of Patterson's fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, expressly conditioned upon Patterson's timely paying the Settlement Amount and subject to the exceptions in Paragraph 5 (concerning excluded claims), below, the United States fully and finally releases Patterson and its parent, affiliates, insurers, agents, assigns, successors, predecessors, shareholders, principals, current and former employees, management, officers, and directors from any civil or administrative claims the United States has, could have, or may assert in the future related to the Covered Conduct during the Covered Time Period.

4. Patterson fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, servants, and agents from any claims (including without limitation attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that Patterson has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, employees, and servants, and agents related to the Covered Conduct and the United States' investigation and prosecution thereof.

5. Notwithstanding the release given in Paragraph 3 of this Settlement Agreement, or any other terms of this Agreement, the following claims of the United States are specifically reserved and not released:

a. Any liability arising under Title 26 of the United States Code;

b. Any criminal liability;

c. Any liability under the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729, or the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3801-3812;

d. Any liability to the United States (or its agencies) for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

e. Except as explicitly stated in this Agreement, any administrative liability, including the suspension and debarment rights of any federal agency;

f. Any liability based upon obligations created by this Agreement; and

g. Any liability of individuals except as expressly stated in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.

6. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent, preclude, limit, or prejudice the right of the United States to enforce the CSA by commencing a civil or administrative action against Patterson for violations of the CSA unrelated to the violations identified in the audit conducted between January 31, 2023 and February 2, 2023. Nothing in this Agreement, however, waives or limits Patterson's right or ability to raise any defenses to such an action.

7. The obligations imposed upon the United States and Patterson pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to, and not in derogation of, all requirements imposed upon each party pursuant to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, including, but not limited to the requirements in the CSA and its implementing regulations.

8. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an agreement by the United States concerning the characterization of the Settlement Amount for purposes of the Internal Revenue Laws, Title 26 of the United States Code.

9. The Parties agree that any and all costs they have, will, or may incur, in connection with this matter—including payment of the Settlement Amount under this Agreement, attorneys' fees, costs of investigation, negotiation, past and future compliance efforts, and remedial action—shall be unallowable costs (as defined in the Federal Acquisition Regulation, 48 C.F.R. § 31.205-47; and in Titles XVII and IXI of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1395-1395lll and 1396-1396w-5; and the regulations and official program directives promulgated thereunder) for government contracting accounting and for purposes of any government reimbursement program.

10. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only. It does not provide any rights or benefits to third parties. The Parties do not release any claims against any other person or entity except as provided in Paragraph 15.

11. This Settlement Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

12. The Parties agree to bear their own respective costs and fees (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with this matter, including those incurred in the preparation and performance of this Agreement.

13. The Parties acknowledge their promises in this Agreement are provided in exchange or valuable consideration provided by and through this Agreement.

14. The Parties consent to the United States' disclosure of this Agreement and information about this Agreement to the public.

15. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the assigns, successors-in-interest, or transferees of the Parties.

16. Each of the signatories to this Settlement Agreement represents and warrants that it/he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the person and entities indicated below, and further represents that it/he/she freely and voluntarily enters into this Agreement without any degree of duress or compulsion. Facsimiles of signatures and electronic transmissions of signatures (including transmittal and receipt of PDF versions of signatures) shall constitute acceptable, binding signatures for purposes of this Agreement.

17. The Settlement Agreement shall be final once signed by all parties below and shall be effective on the date the last signature is obtained. The Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

18. This Settlement Agreement constitutes the complete agreement between the Parties with respect to the settlement of the United States' civil and administrative CSA claims against Patterson on the Covered Conduct from the Covered Time.

19. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States. The exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any dispute relating to the Agreement is the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina.

20. For purposes of construing this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement and shall not, therefore, be construed against any Party for that reason in any subsequent dispute.

Memo of explanation to Nevada State Board of Pharmacy 5/22/2025

Regarding public reprimand for Eric C. Disbrow MD

I was served by the Medical Board of California with the accusation on June 16, 2021. I hired Dr. Firestone MD JD to defend me. On March 11, 2022 a settlement conference was convened. Ms. Lynette Hecker MD for the board, Dr. Marvin Firestone, MD JD, myself and a judge, mediated the accusation. The result (see attachment number 1 an email from Ms. Hecker to Dr. Firestone) was that the original accusation was amended alleging only documentation/record keeping departures. It should be noted that the "factual allegations" on page 6-12 of the 1st amended accusation were not supported, there was no inappropriate prescribing, and except for the record keeping, "the factual allegations" were not pursued by Ms. Hecker. Pag 12-14 of the 1st amended accusation reflects only record keeping issues. (See attachment 2). On page 4 of the stipulated settlement paragraph A I was given a public reprimand for record keeping (see attachment 3). My initial reaction was to continue the fight; but then reality set in! My defense had already cost me $60,000. My attorney informed me that to take this to a hearing would cost another $50-$100,00. He also stated the state always takes their "pound of flesh" and that this was a good outcome. My license to practice in California and my DEA license were in no way restricted and I was free to continue to practice medicine with no restrictions. Indeed, on June 22, 2022 my DEA license was renewed until June 30, 2025 and my California license was renewed until January 1, 2025 and renewed again until 1/31/2027. My Nevada license was issued 9/18/2023 and was recently renewed and expires on 6/30/2027. The fact that there were no limitations placed on my California license, my Nevada license, and DEA license underscores the fact there was no inappropriate prescribing.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric C. Disbrow, MD

Importance: High

Greetings Mr. Firestone,

You are welcome! My goal and that of the Board's is to always strive for accuracy and fairness.

We have accounted for the information you provided yesterday. The Accusation is being amended to allege only documentation/recordkeeping departures (attached). It will likely not be singed and served until next week as Mr. Prasifka is out of the office this afternoon.

For your convenience, I've also attached the Stip. Please return signature pages once you and Dr. Disbrow have signed and dated accordingly. I will thereafter sign and submit it to OAH to have the hearing taken off calendar.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or wish to discuss anything regarding this matter in further detail. Take care and stay safe!

Very truly yours,

> (3) Be placed on probation and be required to pay the costs of probation monitoring upon order of the board.
>
> (4) Be publicly reprimanded by the board. The public reprimand may include a requirement that the licensee complete relevant educational courses approved by the board.

> (b) Any matter heard pursuant to subdivision (a), except for warning letters, medical review or advisory conferences, professional competency examinations, continuing education activities, and cost reimbursement associated therewith that are agreed to with the board and successfully completed by the licensee, or other matters made confidential or privileged by existing law, is deemed public, and shall be made available to the public by the board pursuant to Section 803.1.

5. Section 2234 of the Code, states:

> The board shall take action against any licensee who is charged with unprofessional conduct. In addition to other provisions of this article, unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(2) When the standard of care requires a change in the diagnosis, act, or omission that constitutes the negligent act described in paragraph (1), including, but not limited to, a reevaluation of the diagnosis or a change in treatment, and the licensee's conduct departs from the applicable standard of care, each departure constitutes a separate and distinct breach of the standard of care.

(f) Any action or conduct that would have warranted the denial of a certificate.

6. Section 2266 of the Code states: The failure of a physician and surgeon to maintain adequate and accurate records relating to the provision of services to their patients constitutes unprofessional conduct.

COST RECOVERY

7. Section 125.3 of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the Board may request the administrative law judge to direct a licensee found to have committed a violation or violations of the licensing act to pay a sum not to exceed the reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of the case[1], with failure of the licensee to comply subjecting the license to not being renewed or reinstated. If a case settles, recovery of investigation and enforcement costs may be included in a stipulated settlement.

DEFINITIONS

8. Acetaminophen and hydrocodone bitartrate (Vicodin® and Norco®) is a combination of two medicines used to treat moderate to severe pain. Hydrocodone is an opioid pain medication, commonly referred to as a narcotic. Acetaminophen is a less potent pain reliever that increases the effects of hydrocodone. Hydrocodone has a high potential for abuse. Hydrocodone is a Schedule II controlled substance and narcotic as defined by section 11055, subdivision (b)(1) of the Health and Safety Code, and a Schedule II controlled substance as defined by Section 1308.12 (b)(1) of Title 21 of the code of Federal Regulations and a dangerous drug as defined in Business and Professions Code section 4022.

[1] As of November 18, 2021, Section 125.3 of the Code has been amended to remove subsection (k), which precluded the Board from collecting costs. The Board may collect investigation, prosecution, and other costs incurred for a disciplinary proceeding against a licensee beginning January 1, 2022.

9. Alprazolam (Xanaz®) is in the class of benzodiazepine medications. It affects chemicals in the brain that may be unbalanced in people with anxiety. Xanax is used to treat anxiety disorders, panic disorders, and anxiety caused by depression. Xanax has the potential for abuse. Xanax is a Schedule IV controlled substance pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 11057, subdivision (d), and a dangerous drug pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 4022.

10. Arthralgia is pain in one or more of a person's joints. The pain may be described as sharp, dull, stabbing, burning or throbbing, and may range in intensity from mild to severe. There are many causes of arthralgia, including injury, infection, arthritis, and other ailments.

11. Cervicalgia is a common term used to describe neck pain -- often referred to as a "crick in the neck." General neck pain can arise from various causes including poor posture, muscle fatigue from overuse or even from poor sleeping positions.

12. Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) is a chronic inflammatory lung disease that causes obstructed airflow from the lungs. Symptoms include breathing difficulty, cough, mucus (sputum) production and wheezing.

13. Fentanyl transdermal (Duragesic®) patches are a Schedule II controlled substance pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 11055, subdivision (c), and a dangerous drug pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 4022. Fentanyl transdermal system is a means for conveyance of fentanyl to the patient via a patch that adheres to the skin, releasing the substance via absorption, over time. When properly prescribed and indicated fentanyl transdermal patches are indicated for the management of pain in opioid-tolerant patients, severe enough to require daily, around-the-clock, long term opioid treatment and for which alternative treatment options are inadequate. The FDA has issued several black box warnings about fentanyl transdermal patches including, but not limited to, the risks of addiction, abuse and misuse; life threatening respiratory depression; accidental exposure; neonatal opioid withdrawal syndrome; and the risks associated with the concomitant use with benzodiazepines or other CNS depressants.

14. Klonopin® (clonazepam), a benzodiazepine, is a centrally acting hypnotic-sedative that is a Schedule IV controlled substance pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 11057, subdivision (d), and a dangerous drug pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 4022. When properly prescribed and indicated, it is used to treat seizure disorders and panic disorders. Concomitant use of Klonopin® with opioids "may result in profound sedation, respiratory depression, coma, and death." The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) has identified benzodiazepines, such as Klonipin®, as drug of abuse. (Drugs of Abuse, DEA Resource Guide (2011 Edition), at p. 53.) Klonopin® has a half-life of 20-50 hours such that twice daily dosing is usually sufficient to prevent a build-up of bioavailable medication. Caution is advised when prescribed in combination with hydromorphone due to an increased risk of respiratory depression.

15. Methadone is an opioid medication that has a high potential for abuse. It is a dangerous drug as defined in section 4022 and a Schedule II controlled substance and narcotic as defined by section 11055 of the Health and Safety Code. Methadone is used as a pain reliever and as part of drug addiction detoxification and maintenance programs. It may cause a prolonged QT interval (a rare heart problem that may cause irregular heartbeat, fainting, or sudden death).

16. Myalgia describes muscle aches and pain, which can involve ligaments, tendons and fascia, the soft tissues that connect muscles, bones and organs. Injuries, trauma, overuse, tension, certain drugs and illnesses can all bring about myalgia.

17. Naprosyn is a prescription medicine used to treat the symptoms of pain or inflammation caused by arthritis, ankylosing spondylitis, tendinitis, bursitis, gout or menstrual cramps. Naprosyn may be used alone or with other medications. Naprosyn is a nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory medication (NSAID) and is not a controlled substance.

18. Oxycodone is an opioid pain medication, commonly referred to as a narcotic. Oxycodone has a high potential for abuse. Oxycodone is a Schedule II controlled substance and narcotic as defined by section 11055, subdivision (b)(1) of the Health and Safety Code, and a Schedule II controlled substance as defined by Section 1308.12 (b)(1) of Title 21 of the code of Federal Regulations and a dangerous drug as defined in Business and Professions Code section 4022. Oxycodone should be used with caution and started in a reduced dosage (1/3 to 1/2 of the usual dosage) in patients who are concurrently receiving other central nervous system depressants including sedatives or hypnotics, general anesthetics, phenothiazines, other tranquilizers, and alcohol. The Drug Enforcement Administration ("DEA") has identified opioids, such as oxycodone, as a drug of abuse. (Drugs of Abuse, DEA Resource Guide (2011 Edition), at p. 41.) Respiratory depression is the chief hazard from all opioid agonist preparations.

19. Peripheral neuropathy refers to the conditions that result when nerves that carry messages to and from the brain and spinal cord from and to the rest of the body are damaged or diseased. The peripheral nerves make up an intricate network that connects the brain and spinal cord to the muscles, skin, and internal organs.

20. Stenosis, which means narrowing, can cause pressure on the spinal cord or the nerves that go from the spinal cord to muscles. Spinal stenosis can happen in any part of the spine but is most common in the lower back. This part of your spine is called the lumbar area.

21. Trigger finger is a condition in which a finger gets stuck in a bent position. The finger may bend or straighten with a snap — like a trigger being pulled and released. Trigger finger is also known as stenosing tenosynovitis because it is caused by a narrowing of the structures around the affected tendon.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS[2]

22. Respondent is Board-Certified in family practice and geriatric medicine. Respondent works approximately three days a week at Atwater Medical Clinic and attends to nursing homes the rest of the week. All five of the patients whose care and treatment is the subject of this case came under Respondent's care at Atwater Medical Clinic.

[2] Events prior to May 2014 are beyond the statute of limitations and are included for background purposes only.

CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO PATIENT A[3]

23. Patient A is a 57-year-old male with a history of anxiety, COPD, depression, fatigue, high cholesterol, lumbar disc disease, obstructive sleep apnea, osteoarthritis of the ankle, multiple ankle surgeries, and peripheral neuropathy. Patient A presented to Respondent approximately once a month, or every other month from on or about September 1, 2011, through on or about August 7, 2018, for routine health care for his chronic medical problems, including refills for his Norco and Xanax medications.

24. Respondent's medical records consistently reflect similar and at times identical verbiage in the history of present illness section when describing Patient A's ankle pain. Respondent consistently characterized Patient A's ankle pain as "constant and severe; aggravated with weight bearing; denies ankle instability, numbness, swelling and weakness."

25. The only aspect Respondent documented of Patient A's musculoskeletal condition related to his ankle is "no edema or significant varicosities, gait: affected by limp." Further, while Respondent noted that Patient A was sent for diagnostic imaging studies for his chronic ankle issues, and referred to an orthopedic specialist in or around 2014, Respondent failed to document make any attempts to decrease or otherwise prescribe any non-controlled substances for Patient A. There was insufficient basis documented to support the ongoing prescribing of Norco and Xanax for Patient A.

26. Respondent's records for Patient A variously reflect inconsistencies or lack specific details. For example, in the progress note for a visit on or about July 7, 2015, Patient A was noted to have presented for anxiety and for refills of Norco and Xanax. The history of present illness discusses Patient A's anxiety. However, in the review of systems portion of the progress note, under "psychiatric" the patient was noted as "negative for anxiety and depression."

27. From on or about September of 2012, through on or about August of 2018, Respondent failed to document a specific treatment plan and objectives with discussion of potential side effects of continued prescribing of controlled substances and documentation of periodic review of the treatment plan based on a clearly documented, problem specific focused history and physical examination which did not have documented inconsistencies for Patient A.

[3] To protect the privacy of patients, individual names are not identified in this Accusation.

CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO PATIENT B

28. Patient B was a 46-year-old female, with a history of chronic pain syndrome, acquired trigger finger, and cervicalgia. From the period of on or about October of 2012, through on or about January of 2019, Patient B presented to Respondent approximately once a month and he consistently prescribed Methadone HCl for Patient B.

29. Respondent utilized similar and at times identical verbiage in the history of present illness section when describing Patient B's shoulder pain. Respondent consistently characterized her pain as "moderate in severity, constant, dull and aching and relieved with Methadone and Naprosyn; aggravated with weight bearing; discomfort increased with repetitive motion . . . ."

30. Additionally, Respondent continuously documented the musculoskeletal portion of the physical examination as "tone and strength 5/5 L, 4/5 R biceps" and for the neurological portion "sensation, hypoesthesia in the bilateral median nerve distribution." Respondent did not clearly document attempts to taper or decrease the prescribed controlled substances for Patient B. There was insufficient basis documented to support Respondent's ongoing prescribing of Methadone for Patient B. Respondent's medical records for Patient B from on or about October of 2012, to on or about January of 2019, do not contain documentation of any treatment plans, nor did Respondent have and document any clear plan or objectives with discussion of potential side effects for the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances for Patient B. Despite this, Respondent repeatedly refilled Patient B's Methadone prescription.

CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO PATIENT C

31. Patient C is a male with a history of spinal stenosis, COPD, chronic pain syndrome, colon cancer, osteoporosis, generalized anxiety disorder, lumbar region radiating pain (sciatica), gout, and chronic kidney disease. Respondent saw Patient C approximately monthly and consistently prescribed Alprazolam, hydrocodone, and oxycodone for Patient C from on or about February 12, 2018, through on or about February 3, 2019.

32. Respondent noted consistently similar, if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness section when describing Patient C's chronic pain conditions at his visits. Respondent's records for Patient C also contain inconsistencies of the documentation within the progress notes. For example, as to Patient C's visit on or about April 4, 2019, Respondent documented that Patient C presented with worsening symptoms of spinal stenosis in the lumbar region. He was noted as complaining of stiffness and paravertebral muscle spasm with reports of constant pain. However, Respondent documented in the musculoskeletal section that Patient C was negative for arthralgias, joint stiffness, and myalgias. Respondent did not clearly document a specific and focused examination of Patient C's spine despite the fact that the patient returned for controlled substances for management of lumbar pain and spinal stenosis and the neurological examination was merely noted as "grossly intact."

33. Further, Respondent failed to clearly document any attempts to decrease Patient C's controlled substances or attempts to prescribe non-controlled substances for Patient C. There was insufficient documentation by Respondent to support the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient C.

34. From in or about February of 2012, through in or about February of 2019, documentation in the plan of care for Patient C noted his prescribed controlled substances were refilled. However, there is no documentation of any treatment plans, nor did Respondent document any clear plan or objectives with discussion of potential side effects for the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances for Patient C. Respondent's records lacked medical indication for the controlled medications prescribed to Patient C over a period of approximately seven years.

CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO PATIENT D

35. Patient D was a male patient with a medical history that included low back pain, generalized anxiety disorder, lumbar disc disease, chronic pain syndrome, and major depressive disorder. Respondent consistently prescribed Oxycodone, Clonazepam, Narcan, and Duragesic transdermal patches for Patient D from in or about February of 2015, through in or about 2019.

Though Respondent saw Patient D occasionally in or about 2015, 2016, and 2017, he saw Patient D at least monthly in or about 2018 and 2019.

36. Throughout those years, Respondent repeatedly noted consistently similar, if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness section when describing Patient D's chronic pain condition. Respondent's documentation contains inconsistencies. On or about February 7, 2019, Respondent noted Patient D presented with evaluation for low back pain with associated symptoms of "stiffness, radicular right leg pain, and sharp pain going down the leg." However, in the review of systems section, in the musculoskeletal section, Patient D was noted as "negative for arthralgias, joint stiffness, and myalgias." Additionally, Respondent did not consistently document a specific and focused examination of Patient D's spine despite the fact that he was returning for a medical visit for controlled substances for management of the pain in his lower back. Respondent documented on the musculoskeletal portion of the physical examination of this visit "grossly normal tone and muscle strength," but there is no documentation that Respondent performed a neurological examination.

37. On or about January 16, 2019, Respondent's progress note indicated that Patient D presented for treatment of anxiety, which had increased. Yet in the review of systems section of the progress note, Respondent documented that Patient D was "negative for anxiety and depression." Respondent failed to attempt to decrease his prescribing of controlled substances for Patient D. Respondent's records lacked sufficient documentation to support ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient D.

38. From in or about February of 2015, through in or about March of 2019, documentation in the plan of care for Patient D noted his prescribed controlled substances were refilled. However, there is no documentation of any treatment plans, nor did Respondent document any clear plan or objectives with discussion of potential side effects for the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances for Patient D. Respondent's records lacked documented indication for the controlled medications prescribed for Patient D over a period of approximately four years.

CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO PATIENT E

39. Patient E was a female patient with a medical history that included hypertension, morbid obesity, spinal stenosis, low back pain, and generalized muscle weakness. Respondent consistently prescribed Methadone and oxycodone for Patient E from in or about October of 2012, through in or about July of 2019. During this period, Patient E presented to Respondent approximately once a month.

40. Through those years, Respondent repeatedly noted consistently similar, if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness section when describing Patient E's chronic pain condition. Additionally, Respondent's documentation contains inconsistencies. On or about June 26, 2019, Respondent documented that Patient E presented with low back pain with associated stiffness, radicular leg pain, numbness in the right buttock, weakness in the upper legs, and right lower leg swelling. However, in the review of systems section of the progress note, Respondent documented in the musculoskeletal section that the patient was negative for arthralgias, joint stiffness, and myalgias and was negative in the neurological section for weakness and gait disturbance. Additionally, Respondent failed to consistently document a specific and focused examination of the patient's lumbar spine and lower extremities in spite of the fact that she was returning for controlled substances for management of low back pain. Respondent failed to document a focused examination of the lumbar region, though he documented under the musculoskeletal examination that the patient had normal gait with grossly normal tone and muscle strength. Further, Respondent failed to document any attempts to decrease Patient E's controlled substance prescriptions or attempt to prescribe any non-controlled substances for Patient E. There was insufficient documentation by Respondent to support the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient E.

41. From in or about October of 2012, through in or about July of 2019, documentation in the plan of care for Patient E noted her prescribed controlled substances were refilled. However, there is no documentation of any specific treatment plan, nor did Respondent have and document any clear plan or objectives with discussion of potential side effects for the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances for Patient E. Respondent's records lacked medical indication for the controlled substances prescribed for Patient E over approximately six years.

FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Repeated Negligent Acts)

42. Respondent has subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 21038, to disciplinary action under sections 2227 and 2234, as defined by section 2234, subdivision (c), in that he engaged in repeated acts of negligence in his documentation practices as to Patient A, Patient B, Patient C, Patient D, and Patient E. The circumstances are set forth in paragraphs 22 through 41, above, which are incorporated here by reference as if fully set forth.

43. The standard of care requires a medical history and physical exam, which includes an assessment of the patient's pain, including physical and psychological status and function; substance abuse history; history of prior pain treatments and assessment of any other underlying or co-existing conditions. Finally, it should include documentation of recognized medical indications for the use of controlled substances.

44. Regarding Patient A, Respondent's documentation of consistently similar if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness, and the inconsistencies in the medical records constitute negligence. Respondent's lack of sufficient documentation in the medical records to support the ongoing prescribing of Norco and Xanax to Patient A over a period of multiple years constitutes negligence.

45. Regarding Patient B, Respondent's documentation of consistently similar if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness constitute negligence. Respondent's lack of sufficient documentation in the medical records to support the ongoing prescribing of a controlled substance to Patient B over a period of multiple years constitutes negligence.

46. Regarding Patient C, Respondent's documentation of consistently similar if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness constitute negligence. Respondent's lack of sufficient documentation in the medical records to support the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient C over a period of multiple years constitutes negligence.

47. Regarding Patient D, Respondent's documentation of consistently similar if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness, and the inconsistencies in the medical records constitute negligence. Respondent's lack of sufficient documentation in the medical records to support the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient D over a period of multiple years constitutes negligence.

48. Regarding Patient E, Respondent's documentation of consistently similar if not identical verbiage in the history of present illness, and the inconsistencies in the medical records constitute negligence. Respondent's lack of sufficient documentation in the medical records to support the ongoing prescribing of controlled substances to Patient E over a period of multiple years constitutes negligence.

49. The standard of care requires the medical records contain stated objectives that may include relief of pain or relief of the medical condition requiring controlled substances and/or improved physical or psychological function or ability to perform certain tasks or activities of daily living. This should also include any plans for further diagnostic evaluations and treatments, such as rehabilitation programs.

50. Respondent's failure to document a specific treatment plan for Patient A constitutes negligence. Respondent's lack of documentation of a specific treatment plan, aside from refilling of controlled substances, in Patient A's records from in or about September of 2011, through in or about August of 2018, constitutes negligence.

51. Respondent's failure to document a specific treatment plan for Patient B constitutes negligence. In the Matter of the First Amended Accusation Against: ERIC COLBURN DISBROW, M.D. [redacted] Atwater, CA [redacted] Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 21038 Respondent.	Case No. 800-2018-045589 OAH No. 2021100436 STIPULATED SETTLEMENT AND DISCIPLINARY ORDER

In the interest of a prompt and speedy settlement of this matter, consistent with the public interest and the responsibility of the Medical Board of California of the Department of Consumer Affairs, the parties hereby agree to the following Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order which will be submitted to the Board for approval and adoption as the final disposition of the First Amended Accusation.

PARTIES

1. William Prasifka (Complainant) is the Executive Director of the Medical Board of California (Board). He brought this action solely in his official capacity and is represented in this matter by Rob Bonta, Attorney General of the State of California, by Lynette D. Hecker, Deputy Attorney General.

2. Eric Colburn Disbrow, M.D. (Respondent) is represented in this proceeding by attorney Marvin Firestone, MD, JD, whose address is: 1700 South El Camino Real, Ste. 408, San Mateo, CA 94402.

3. On or about August 9, 1971, the Board issued Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 21038 to Respondent. The Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate was in full force and effect at all times relevant to the charges brought in First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589, and will expire on January 31, 2023, unless renewed.

JURISDICTION

4. First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589 was filed before the Board, and is currently pending against Respondent. The original Accusation and all other statutorily required documents were properly served on Respondent on June 16, 2021. Respondent timely filed his Notice of Defense contesting the Accusation. The First Amended Accusation and all other statutorily required documents were properly served on Respondent on April 5, 2022. This stipulation shall serve as Respondent's Notice of Defense pursuant to Government Code section 11506, subdivision (a)(4).

5. A copy of the First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589 is attached as "Exhibit A" and incorporated herein by reference.

ADVISEMENT AND WAIVERS

6. Respondent has carefully read, fully discussed with counsel, and understands the charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589. Respondent has also carefully read, fully discussed with his counsel, and understands the effects of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.

7. Respondent is fully aware of his legal rights in this matter, including the right to a hearing on the charges and allegations in the First Amended Accusation; the right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against him; the right to present evidence and to testify on his own behalf; the right to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents; the right to reconsideration and court review of an adverse decision; and all other rights accorded by the California Administrative Procedure Act and other applicable laws.

8. Respondent voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently waives and gives up each and every right set forth above.

CULPABILITY

9. Respondent understands and agrees that the charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589, if proven at a hearing, constitute cause for imposing discipline upon his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate.

10. Respondent does not contest that, at an administrative hearing, Complainant could establish a prima facie case or factual basis with respect to the charges and allegations in First Amended Accusation, that he has thereby subjected his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate, No. G 21038 to disciplinary action, and Respondent hereby gives up his right to contest those charges. Respondent agrees that if in any future case he ever petitions for early termination or modification of probation, or if the Board ever petitions for revocation of probation, all of the charges and allegations contained in First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589 shall be deemed true, correct, and fully admitted by Respondent for purposes of that proceeding or any other licensing proceeding involving Respondent in the State of California.

11. Respondent agrees that his Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate is subject to discipline and he agrees to be bound by the Board's imposition of discipline as set forth in the Disciplinary Order below.

CONTINGENCY

12. This stipulation shall be subject to approval by the Medical Board of California. Respondent understands and agrees that counsel for Complainant and the staff of the Medical Board of California may communicate directly with the Board regarding this stipulation and settlement, without notice to or participation by Respondent or his counsel. By signing the stipulation, Respondent understands and agrees that he may not withdraw his agreement or seek to rescind the stipulation prior to the time the Board considers and acts upon it. If the Board fails to adopt this stipulation as its Decision and Order, the Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order shall be of no force or effect, except for this paragraph, it shall be inadmissible in any legal action between the parties, and the Board shall not be disqualified from further action by having considered this matter.

13. The parties understand and agree that Portable Document Format (PDF) and facsimile copies of this Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order, including PDF and facsimile signatures thereto, shall have the same force and effect as the originals.

14. In consideration of the foregoing admissions and stipulations, the parties agree that the Board may, without further notice or opportunity to be heard by the Respondent, issue and enter the following Disciplinary Order:

DISCIPLINARY ORDER

A. PUBLIC REPRIMAND

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Respondent Eric Colburn Disbrow, M.D., Physician's and Surgeon's Certificate No. G 21038, shall be and is hereby Publicly Reprimanded pursuant to California Business and Professions Code section 2227, subdivision (a)(4). This Public Reprimand is issued in connection with Respondent's recordkeeping pertaining to five patients, as set forth in First Amended Accusation No. 800-2018-045589.

1. INVESTIGATION/ENFORCEMENT COST RECOVERY: Respondent is hereby relieved from reimbursing the Board its costs of investigation and enforcement under Code section 125.3.

2. FUTURE ADMISSIONS CLAUSE: If Respondent should ever apply or reapply for a new license or certification, or petition for reinstatement of a license, by any other health care licensing action agency in the State of California, all of the charges and allegations contained in Accusation No. 800-2018-045589 shall be deemed to be true, correct, and admitted by Respondent for the purpose of any Statement of Issues or any other proceeding seeking to deny or restrict license.

SECTION 5: PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

2. Have you been charged, arrested, or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in any state?

On February 22, 2022, I was convicted of conspiracy to violate U.S.C. § 1320(a)-7b(b) regarding illegal kickbacks and bribes. This conviction related to my work as a speaker for Insys Pharmaceuticals, where I entered into an implicit agreement to prescribe Subsys instead of other similar pain medications while being compensated through the speaker program. It is important to clarify that I never illegally distributed pain medication; rather, I allowed my relationship with Insys to influence which brand of medication I prescribed (only to medically appropriate patients, accounting for less than 11% of my total practice). I want to emphasize that, while I do not wish to diminish my situation, my conviction was not connected to providing inappropriate or substandard clinical care.

3. Have you been the subject of a board citation or an administrative action whether completed or pending in any state?

After completing its investigation on May 22, 2020, concerning my care of a single patient, the Colorado Medical Board determined not to initiate formal proceedings against my professional license. However, the Board did issue a disciplinary action in the form of a Letter of Admonition.

Re: License Number: DR. 0031919
Case Number: 2018-5306-B

Dear Dr. Kesten:

The Colorado Medical Board has concluded its inquiry into the aforementioned matter. It was the Panel's decision not to commence with formal proceedings against your professional license. However, the Panel did determine disciplinary action in the form of this letter of admonition is warranted.

As you recall, in April 2017, patient C.P., a 32-year old male, presented for evaluation and treatment of whole body allodynia and hyperalgesia, torticollis, anorexia, depression and anxiety disorder. You prescribed frequent ketamine troches and other forms of ketamine to the patient. There was concern for potential drug-seeking behavior, and your medical records reflect your recognition of the potential for "doctor shopping." Also, the patient was previously evaluated at several institutions, and multiple sources questioned the patient's diagnosis of complete regional pain syndrome. In your response to the Board through counsel, you stated that although it is a controlled substance, ketamine is not considered to be physiologically "addictive" as are opioids.

After a review of all the information in this matter, the Panel found that your care and treatment of patient C.P. fell below the generally accepted standards of practice for a physician, constituting unprofessional conduct in violation of section 12-240-121 of the Colorado Revised Statutes. Specifically, you continued to prescribe ketamine despite evidence that the patient's use of ketamine may be excessive in that for at least a 3-week period during your 2.5 years of treatment he was using ketamine on a dose schedule of every 2 hours, while being treated with multiple other controlled substances. While you conclude that ketamine is not addictive, and thus not contraindicated for the patient, the Board is concerned that the patient's presentation and behavior - including the Prescription Drug Monitoring Program data indicating early refills and additional prescriptions for ketamine, escalating doses, lack of sustained improvement, and lack of significant last pain reduction- were indicative of addiction. Additionally, you continued to prescribe ketamine despite continued reports of high levels of pain.

By this letter, the Board takes the formal disciplinary action of admonishing you for the conduct specified above, and warns you that repetition of such practice may lead to imposition of more severe disciplinary action. This letter is an open public record and a reportable action to individuals or entities requesting disciplinary information. The Board strongly encourages you to review and understand the Medical Practice Act requirements and obligations for the practice of medicine in Colorado.

Pursuant to agreement with the Board, you have agreed to waive the right provided by section 12-20-404(4)(b), C.R.S. to contest this Letter of Admonition. You previously exercised your right pursuant to section 12-20-404(4)(b) to contest the Letter of Admonition.

A Letter of Admonition, when accepted, becomes a permanent, public portion of your record. It is not, however, a restriction on your practice as a physician.

If you have further questions or concerns, please visit our website at https://www.colorado.gov/dora/dpo or you can contact our office at dora_medicalboard@state.co.us or by calling (303) 894-7800.

Sincerely,

License explanation

While on a travel nursing assignment in Portland, Oregon from 4/2007-2/2008 (under my maiden name Melissa Rae Waller), I began diverting and using narcotic pain medication as a method to cope with the feelings I was experiencing from the loss of a relationship, the illness of my grandfather, loneliness from being on the other side of the country away from my friends and family who were back home in Florida, and the lack of a local support system to deal with and process these feelings. What I believed to be a harmless way to deal with these feelings, very quickly became an illness I could not control. I was ultimately confronted by hospital management regarding concerns that I was diverting. I admitted to them that this was true, and I was encouraged by management to self-report to the Oregon Board of Nursing (OR BON).

On 2/19/2008, I self-reported to the OR BON and was advised to enter inpatient chemical dependency treatment. I attended a 28-day residential treatment program at Serenity Lane in Eugene, OR, and after completion of the residential portion, I transitioned to their intensive outpatient treatment program. While I had self-reported to the OR BON and attended treatment as advised, I was still in denial of how unmanageable my life had become and did not yet believe that I had a chemical dependency issue.

While trying to figure out how to make ends meet after losing my income and the housing that came along with my travel contract, I accepted a position as a veterinary technician, which is the field I worked in prior to going into nursing. This was not an approved environment to work in during treatment, but I felt I had no other way to make ends meet, as I had no other work experience. I continued using until 11/7/2008, which is the day I admitted to my mother that I was still struggling and couldn't stop. With the assistance of my family, I left Oregon to return home to Florida the following day on 11/8/2008, and 16 years later, this remains my clean date.

I was accepted into a treatment program at the Centre for Women in Tampa, FL, and began their program on 12/12/2008, which was their soonest available opening. The OR BON agreed to monitor me while I attended treatment in Florida, and during one of my counseling sessions, my counselor urged me to become fully honest in order to treat my addiction, and together with my counselor, we called the OR BON on 1/28/2009, to become honest with them about the fact that I had taken the veterinary position even though I had known that this was not an approved environment to work in, and was found to be out of compliance with my monitoring contract. It was at this time that I chose to voluntarily surrender my Oregon RN in lieu of revocation by the OR BON, and my voluntary surrender was accepted on 4/22/2009. Due to the voluntary surrender of my Oregon RN license, my Florida RN license was subsequently suspended on 8/20/2009.

During my time in treatment, I decided that I never wanted to be in the position I was in again and decided that I would not return to the field of nursing. As such, I did not renew my Florida RN license for a period of two renewal cycles, rendering it Null and Void. I successfully completed the treatment program at the Centre for Women on 6/23/2009 and one year later, in 6/2010, I decided that I missed the career that I once loved so much and contacted the Florida Intervention Project for Nurses (IPN) to see what I would need to do to become active in their nurse monitoring program and return to the field of nursing. They allowed me to enter the IPN monitoring program and I appeared before the Florida Board of Nursing on 2/11/2011 to request reinstatement of my license which was unanimously approved. A new Florida RN license was issued on 2/16/2011 and I went on to successfully complete five years of monitoring with the Florida Intervention Project for Nurses on 3/13/2015.

I have since obtained a bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of South Florida in 5/2014 and a master's degree as a Family Health Nurse Practitioner from the University of South Florida in 5/2018. I maintain Clear/Active Florida multistate compact RN, California RN, and Nevada RN licenses, Clear/Active APRN licenses in Colorado, Florida, Iowa, Nevada, Ohio, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, Clear/Active DEA licenses in Colorado, Florida, Iowa, Washington, and Wyoming, and am Board Certified through the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC).

I have worked extremely hard to repair my professional reputation and am well-respected as an APRN in the hospitals in which I have worked, by the employers I have worked for, by the colleagues with whom I have worked, and by the patients/families for whom I care for. I continue to give back to the University of South Florida by acting as a preceptor for nurse practitioner students and have remained active in my 16 years of recovery by attending 12-step meetings, doing step-work with my sponsor, sponsoring other women, and sharing my story to those who are still struggling with active addiction. While my addiction and license discipline were devastating and life-changing, they have made me extremely protective of my current nursing and DEA licenses, have urged me to ensure that am always practicing within my scope of practice and within the rules and laws of the nursing boards, states agencies, and facilities under which I practice, and have ultimately caused me to become a more empathetic and caring provider to the patients for whom I care for.

I am applying for the ability to prescribe controlled substances in Nevada as I am currently employed as an APRN with a company that is contracted to provide medical care to inmates in correctional facilities across the country, for which we routinely prescribe controlled medications for the purpose of medication-assisted detox from alcohol and other substances. The position I work in provides remote assistance to the onsite providers working in these correctional facilities.

I have attached my completion letters from the Centre for Women and the Intervention Project for Nurses, as well as copies of the administrative complaints and final orders from both the Florida Board of Nursing and the Oregon Board of Nursing. Please let me know if you have any questions or need further clarification on the above and thank you for your consideration of my application.

Melissa Rae Waller, RN	)	VOLUNTARY SURRENDER
	)	OF REGISTERED NURSE LICENSE
License No.: 200740803RN	)	Case No.: 09-342

Melissa Rae Waller, hereinafter referred to as "Licensee" is a licensed Registered Nurse (RN) in the State of Oregon.

Licensee was licensed as a Registered Nurse in Oregon on April 2, 2007.

On February 19, 2008, Licensee self-reported to the Board that she had been diverting narcotic pain medication from Oregon Health Sciences University (OHSU), while working there as a traveler nurse on contract with the hospital.

An audit by OHSU staff of Licensee's narcotics access showed a high amount of fentanyl withdrawals. Further investigation showed Licensee had withdrawn fentanyl for patients who had no orders for the medication.

On February 11, 2008, when confronted with the evidence by her employer, Licensee admitted to having a chemical dependence issue.

On February 25, 2008, Licensee entered in-patient chemical dependency treatment at Serenity Lane, Eugene. She completed in-patient treatment and was moved to a lower level of treatment on March 25, 2008.

On April 14, 2008, during a meeting with Board staff, Licensee admitted that she had diverted fentanyl and dilaudid from OHSU during her duties as an RN. She admitted withdrawing fentanyl under patient's names, even though no order existed for that medication to be administered to that patient. She admitted asking staff to witness her wastage of what she claimed to be fentanyl but, in fact, was not. She stated that she never withheld pain medication from patients.

On May 20, 2008, Licensee signed a contract to enter the Board's Nurse Monitoring Program agreeing to comply with all the requirements of the program.

On January 28, 2009, Licensee was found to be out of compliance with the Nurse Monitoring Program contract.

WHEREAS by the above actions, Melissa Rae Waller is subject to disciplinary action pursuant to violations of ORS 678.111(1) (e), and (f); and OAR 851-0045-0070(2)(f) and (i);(5)(c), and (7)(e) which provide as follows:

ORS 678.111 Causes for denial, revocation or suspension of license or probation, reprimand or censure of licensee.

(1) Issuance of a license to practice nursing, whether by examination or by endorsement, of any person may be refused or the license may be revoked or suspended or the licensee may be placed on probation for a period specified by the Oregon State Board of Nursing and subject to such conditions as the board may impose or may be issued a limited license or may be reprimanded or censured by the board, for any of the following causes:

(e) Use of any controlled substance or intoxicating liquor to an extent or in a manner dangerous or injurious to the licensee or others or to an extent that such use impairs the ability to conduct safely the practice for which the licensee is licensed.

(f) Conduct derogatory to the standards of nursing.

OAR 851-045-0070 Conduct Derogatory to the Standards of Nursing Defined

(2) Conduct related to other federal or state statute/rule violations:

(f) Unauthorized removal or attempted removal of narcotics, other drugs, supplies, property, or money from clients, the workplace, or any person.

(i) Possessing, obtaining, attempting to obtain, furnishing, or administering prescription or controlled drugs to any person, including self, except as directed by a person authorized by law to prescribe drugs.

(5) Conduct related to impaired function:

(c) Practicing nursing when physical or mental ability to practice is impaired by use of drugs, alcohol or mind-altering substances.

(7) Conduct related to the licensee's relationship with the Board:

(e) Failing to comply with the terms and conditions of Nurse Monitoring Program agreements.

Licensee acknowledges that the Board would prevail at hearing regarding the above violations and wishes to cooperate with the Board in resolving the present disciplinary problem. She has elected to voluntarily surrender her Registered Nurse license.

THEREFORE, the following will be proposed to the Oregon State Board of Nursing and is agreed to by Licensee:

That the voluntary surrender of the Registered Nurse license of Melissa Rae Waller be accepted. If, after three years, she wishes to reinstate her Registered Nurse license, she shall appear before the Board to request reinstatement of her license as a Registered Nurse. She shall provide evidence that she has received treatment for chemical dependence, complied with all treatment and aftercare requirements, and has two years of documented sobriety. Should the Board reinstate the Registered Nurse license of Ms. Waller, she would be subject to whatever terms and conditions the Board may impose.

Licensee agrees that she will not practice as a Registered Nurse from the date of signature on this Stipulation.

Licensee understands that this Stipulation for Voluntary Surrender is a public record.

Licensee understands that this Stipulation will be submitted to the Board of Nursing for their approval and is subject to the Board's confirmation.

Licensee understands that by signing this Stipulated Agreement she waives the right to an administrative hearing. She acknowledges that no promises, representations, duress or coercion have been used to induce her to sign this Stipulation.

Licensee has read the Stipulation, understands the Stipulation completely, and freely signs the Stipulation.

Subject: Formal Petition for Advisory Opinion on Mobile Nuclear Pharmacy Model

Dear Members of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,

On behalf of Advanced Molecular Compounding, LLP ("AMC"), we hereby submit this formal written petition requesting an advisory opinion, pursuant to Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 233B.120 and Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 639.150. This petition seeks clarification regarding the applicability of Nevada pharmacy statutes and regulations to a proposed mobile nuclear pharmacy model designed to serve rural and underserved healthcare providers throughout the State of Nevada.

Why This Matters: Ga-68 and Patient Access

Gallium-68 (Ga-68) is a vital diagnostic radiopharmaceutical used in PET imaging to detect serious diseases such as prostate cancer, neuroendocrine tumors, and other life-threatening conditions. Due to its short physical half-life (68 minutes), Ga-68 must be compounded and administered near the point of care. For many patients in rural Nevada, access to this life-saving diagnostic imaging is limited or non-existent due to geographic barriers and the absence of nearby radiopharmacies.

Advanced Molecular Compounding, LLP seeks to bridge this access gap by operating a mobile nuclear pharmacy that safely and compliantly prepares and delivers immediate-use radiopharmaceutical doses in underserved regions.

Background

AMC is an established and experienced nuclear pharmacy operation, with significant expertise in regulatory compliance across USP <825>, USP <797>, 21 U.S.C. § 353a, and all applicable DOT and Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) requirements. We are actively pursuing licensure in multiple states, including Idaho.

On April 1, 2025, AMC received a Cease-and-Desist (C&D) letter from the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy alleging unlicensed activity. In our formal response dated April 4, 2025, we clarified the following facts:

- No nuclear pharmacy operations have occurred in Nevada;
- No prescriptions have been dispensed;
- No sterile or non-sterile compounding has taken place;
- No patient services have been rendered;
- No radiopharmaceutical deliveries have occurred within the State of Nevada.

All cited communications were purely exploratory in nature and were made in good faith as part of our attempt to obtain regulatory guidance prior to initiating services. Despite this, we have not received any follow-up or access to a qualified Board representative for discussion.

In Nevada, following the C&D, we have been denied any formal opportunity for discussion, review, or clarification. Accordingly, we are submitting this formal petition for an advisory opinion and requesting it be considered outside of a formal Board hearing, as allowed under NRS 233B.120 and NAC 639.150.

Proposed Model Description

AMC proposes to operate a mobile nuclear pharmacy unit that includes the following features:

- A fully self-contained ISO 5 cleanroom housed within a DOT-compliant trailer;
- Radiation shielding and safety systems compliant with DOT 49 CFR 173, and NRC standards;
- Supervision by a Nevada-licensed nuclear pharmacist;
- Integration with BioRx® pharmacy management software for prescription traceability and electronic recordkeeping.

- Has running hot and cold water.
- Has an onboard bathroom.

The mobile unit is intended to compound Ga-68 doses exclusively for immediate on-site administration, consistent with the “immediate use” provision defined in USP <797> and USP <825>. This model will not engage in anticipatory compounding, batching, retail pharmacy operations, or delivery-based distribution.

Advisory Opinion Questions

We respectfully seek the Board’s legal and regulatory guidance on the following:

1. Licensure Pathway
   What specific license(s), if any, are required in Nevada for AMC to legally operate the proposed mobile nuclear pharmacy model?

2. Immediate Use Applicability
   Does the Board recognize and adopt the “immediate-use exemption” as defined under USP <797> and USP <825>? If not, which Nevada statutes or regulations override this exemption?

3. Scope and Standing of Cease-and-Desist
   In light of the fact that no activity occurred and all communications were exploratory in nature, what is the legal basis for the April 1, 2025 C&D?
   Will the Board consider rescinding or modifying the C&D to mitigate reputational harm and regulatory confusion?

4. Mobile and Remote Pharmacy Models
   Is the Board open to establishing a regulatory framework for mobile nuclear pharmacies similar to existing accommodations for telepharmacy, remote dispensing, or limited service outlets?

5. Facility Requirements
   What specific documentation, inspection criteria, or validation protocols would apply to an ISO 5 mobile cleanroom overseen by a Nevada-licensed pharmacist?

Supporting Documents Attached

- AMC's formal April 4, 2025 written response to the Cease-and-Desist
- Copy of the April 1, 2025 Cease-and-Desist letter

Request for Independent Consideration

Pursuant to NAC 639.150(2), we respectfully request that this petition be reviewed and answered without requiring appearance before the Board, unless the Board deems a hearing necessary for full evaluation. If a public hearing is preferred, we ask that this matter be included on the next available meeting agenda, with sufficient time allocated for discussion..

Conclusion

Advanced Molecular Compounding, LLP remains committed to working in full partnership with the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy. We are seeking only clarity, fairness, and a pathway to safely serve Nevada's rural populations through an innovative but compliant model. This petition has been prepared and submitted in accordance with the procedures outlined in NRS 233B.120 and NAC 639.150, and is intended to assist the Board in offering guidance to licensees and applicants who aim to advance pharmacy practice responsibly.

Thank you for your time, your service to the people of Nevada, and your consideration of this petition.

Re: CEASE-AND-DESIST ORDER

9489 0178 9820 3037 0189 51

Dear Messrs. Curnutt:

The Nevada State Board of Pharmacy (Board) has determined that Advanced Molecular Compounding LLC, is engaged or intends to engage in dispensing prescriptions to patients in Nevada without a valid license/permit issued by the Board. Specifically, you have stated an intent to operate as a mobile nuclear pharmacy in Nevada, compounding and administering sterile radiopharmaceutical compounded drug products to Nevada patients, without obtaining the required licenses/permits. This constitutes a violation of State and federal law, including, without limitation, NRS 639.100(1), NRS 639.230, NRS 639.2321, NAC 639.5802-.584, inclusive, NAC 639.6701-.6702, inclusive, NAC 639.6705-.67079, inclusive, 21 U.S.C. § 353a and USP-797 standards, U.S.C. § 331(a), (b) and (c), NRS 585.520(1) and (2) and/or NRS 454.351(1).

Advanced Molecular Compounding LLC is hereby ordered pursuant to NRS 639.2895(1) to CEASE and DESIST from dispensing prescriptions to patients in Nevada and/or otherwise operating as a nuclear pharmacy in Nevada without a valid license/permit issued by the Board.

Failure to comply with this cease-and-desist order may result in the issuance of a CITATION for unlicensed activity and assessment of an administrative fine against Advanced Molecular Compounding LLC pursuant to NRS 639.2895(2) and (3). Failure to comply may also result in the filing of administrative charges against Justin Curnutt, PharmD, Certificate of Registration No. 18338, and criminal prosecution of all responsible parties.

If you have any questions please contact me at bkandt@pharmacy.nv.gov.

Regards,

Brett Kandt
General Counsel

Dear Mr. Kandt,

We are writing in response to your letter dated April 1, 2025, regarding the cease-and-desist order issued to Advanced Molecular Compounding LLC (“AMC”) for alleged unlicensed pharmaceutical activity in the State of Nevada.

Commitment to Compliance

First and foremost, AMC respects and fully supports the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy’s regulatory authority and remains committed to full compliance with all federal and state laws governing pharmacy operations, nuclear pharmacy, and sterile compounding.

Clarification of Current Operations

We respectfully clarify that AMC has not engaged in the dispensing of prescriptions, compounding of sterile radiopharmaceuticals, or provision of nuclear pharmacy services within the State of Nevada. No patients have been served, and no physical operations have commenced in Nevada as of the date of this letter.

The communications referenced in your letter reflect internal planning discussions related to a future business model that we hoped could align with existing legal frameworks, such as USP <825> and federal "immediate use" provisions. These exploratory conversations were not intended to imply that any operations had begun without proper licensure. In fact, AMC has been carefully and patiently navigating regulatory planning for more than eight months, during which time we have repeatedly reached out to the Board in an effort to understand the appropriate licensure pathways for our model. Unfortunately, we have not received any formal guidance or actionable direction to date.

Our Intent and Readiness to Engage

AMC is currently licensed and in good standing in other jurisdictions, including Idaho. We remain eager to ensure that any future operations in Nevada are fully compliant with NRS 639, USP <825>, 21 U.S.C. § 353a, and other applicable regulatory standards. Our core mission is to expand access to life-saving radiopharmaceuticals in underserved areas through safe, compliant, and modernized infrastructure.

In light of the Board’s recent communication, we are encouraged that the regulatory conversation has begun in earnest and we would welcome the opportunity to engage in a productive dialogue moving forward.

Request for Guidance

To that end, we respectfully request written clarification or a scheduled meeting to help us understand:

- The applicable licensure pathway for a mobile nuclear pharmacy model that includes a self-contained ISO 5 cleanroom, operating under the direction of a licensed nuclear pharmacist.

- Why our intended model would not qualify under the federal “immediate use” exemption as outlined in USP <797> and <825>, and what provisions of Nevada law override or restrict that applicability.
- Any potential framework the Board would consider (e.g., remote dispensing models, mobile pharmacy permitting, telepharmacy parallels) that could support safe and compliant operation within the state.
- Facility expectations, including inspection procedures, cleanroom validation, and specific pharmacist licensing or storage requirements unique to Nevada.

Request to Modify or Remove the Cease-and-Desist

Given that no dispensing, compounding, or patient-facing activity has occurred in Nevada, we respectfully ask that the Board consider not only clarifying the scope of the cease-and-desist order, but also removing it from AMC’s formal record or status. Since no unlicensed activity has taken place, we are concerned that the presence of this order- even if based on misunderstanding- could create undue barriers to future licensure or hinder the progress of this important healthcare initiative.

We fully understand and respect the seriousness of the Board’s position, and we remain in full cooperation to ensure that no future activity occurs without prior approval and appropriate licensure. Our intent is to move forward with full transparency and mutual understanding, and we hope this matter can be resolved in a way that supports both compliance and innovation.

A Path Forward

We are ready and willing to collaborate on a viable licensing framework that protects patient safety, maintains regulatory integrity, and reflects the evolution of pharmacy practice and delivery models. AMC’s mission is to meet unmet medical needs while strictly adhering to state and federal law- and we cannot do so without the Board’s insight and cooperation.

Please let us know how best to proceed or if a time can be scheduled to discuss this further. Thank you for your time, consideration, and for your ongoing commitment to public health and pharmacy safety in Nevada.

Subject: Response to Advisory Opinion on Mobile Nuclear Pharmacy Petition – Proposal for Multi-Location Licensure with Daily Relocation and Cross-Agency Licensing Precedent

Dear Mr. Zunino:

We appreciate the Board's consideration of our petition regarding licensure of a mobile nuclear pharmacy, and we respect the statutory framework set forth in NRS 639 and NAC 639. We write to address points in the August 8, 2025 advisory opinion and to present a compliance-focused operational model that meets the "specific location" requirement while allowing daily relocation of our pharmacy coach — in a manner consistent with how other Nevada agencies already license mobile healthcare facilities.

1. Clarification of Statutory Citations and Intent

The advisory opinion correctly notes that nuclear pharmacies must be licensed under NRS 639.230(2) to a specific person and for a specific location.

We also acknowledge NAC 639.401 and NAC 639.408 restrict the practice of pharmacy to the site of a licensed pharmacy and prohibit maintaining inventory or dispensing outside that licensed premises.

However, our operational intent — as clearly stated in our original submission — is that:

- No compounding, dispensing, or other pharmacy practice will occur while our coach is in transit.
- Operations begin only when the coach is parked and stationary at a licensed address (e.g., hospital or oncology center with which we have a written agreement).

This distinction is critical, as the advisory opinion appears to assume "compounding en route," which we have never proposed.

2. Cross-Agency Licensing Precedent for Mobile Medical Operations

Nevada law and regulatory practice already recognize that mobile units — identified by VIN and outfitted with specialized medical equipment — can be treated as a "specific location" for licensing purposes. Examples include:

- DPBH Mobile Unit Licenses (NRS 449/NAC 449.970–.97042):
  Mobile mammography, PET, CT, MRI, and laboratory coaches are licensed as facilities with defined operating addresses and schedules.

- Radiation Control Program (NRS/NAC 459):
  Mobile imaging coaches carrying radioactive materials (including mobile rubidium-82 PET cardiology units) are issued radioactive materials licenses and equipment registrations, with oversight and inspections tied to VIN and operating sites.

- Mobile Veterinary Clinics (NAC 638.064):
  Regulated under a vehicle-specific model with requirements for stationary operation at client sites.

In these cases, the "specific location" requirement is satisfied by tying the license to:

1. The VIN-bound floor plan and facility design.
2. A roster of scheduled operating sites known to the licensing agency.
3. Compliance with location-specific safety, access, and inspection requirements.

We propose the Board interpret "specific location" in NRS 639 consistent with these existing regulatory precedents, allowing mobile nuclear pharmacies to be licensed when their operating sites are pre-identified and operations are stationary.

3. Proposed Model – Multiple Stationary Licenses with Site Reporting

We propose:

- Multiple Nevada pharmacy licenses for each physical address where we will operate.
- submitted for Board approval per NAC 639.5822 and

VIN-bound coach design
NAC 639.5824.

- Weekly site reporting to the Board (in advance), identifying:
    - Each address where operations will occur that week.
    - Hours of operation at each site.
    - Confirmation that the coach will be stationary during all compounding and dispensing.
- Displayed license at each operating site matching the current stationary address.
- No pharmacy practice at any location unless that address is covered by an active Nevada Board-issued license for our facility.

This mirrors the mobile rubidium-82 coach model, where the state knows where the coach is operating on any given day, and inspections can occur at those sites.

4. Safety Features Across All Licensed Addresses

- Controlled Access & Security: Electronic Entry Controls – Secure, authorized entry only. Monitored Access Logs – Comprehensive tracking of all entries and exits. 24/7 Camera Access – Starlink-enabled live feed with remote monitoring capability. Intrusion Alarm System – Real-time alerts for any unauthorized access attempts. Removable Hitch – On-site safety feature to prevent unauthorized towing or relocation.
- Radiation Shielding: NRC-approved lead-lined compartments, shielding walls, dose-drawing hoods.
- Environmental Controls: ISO 5 laminar flow hood, HEPA filtration, temperature/humidity monitoring, pressure differentials per USP <825>.
- Surveillance: 24/7 interior/exterior camera coverage with remote monitoring.
- Operational Tracking: GPS logs verifying stationary status during operations, available to the Board for review.

5. Request for Interpretive Guidance

We respectfully request that the Board consider and, if acceptable, issue written guidance confirming that this model — multiple licensed addresses for the same VIN-bound coach, with operations only while stationary and addresses reported in advance — satisfies the "specific location" requirement of NRS 639.230(2) and complies with NAC 639.401 and NAC 639.408.

We believe this interpretation:

- Fits within existing NRS 639 statutory language.
- Aligns with Nevada's cross-agency precedent for mobile healthcare facilities.
- Eliminates the need for new legislation or rulemaking.
- Preserves the Board's ability to inspect, monitor, and control pharmacy practice locations.

We thank you for your attention and look forward to discussing this plan at the September 4 public meeting.
